Widener, Westminster, chairman of the camping and activities committee, Carroll District urges all Scout Troops to attend the 1952 Fall Roundup to be held Oct. 17, 18, 19, 1952 at the Short-term Scout Camp near Union Mills, Md. All units will devote the time to passing and working on scout skills and advancement. On Saturday night, Oct. 18, 1952 a camp fire program will be held and all parents and friends of the scouts and scouters are urged to attend. Three new scouts have been built with bunks for thirty scouts. These shelters are available to scout troops and posts by making formal application for their use through the Scout office.

GET OUT THE VOTE

The scouts of Carroll county will participate in the nation wide effort to hang on the door of homes a cardboard liberty bell reminding the citizens to be sure and vote. The local scouts will deliver these liberty bells between Oct. 25 and Nov. 1.

Nationally the Boy Scouts of America will hang 34,000,000 liberty bell reminders on the homes of America.

50,000 SCOUTS IN CAMP

The high light for 1953 will be the 3rd National Jamboree to be held July 17-23, 1953 at the Irvine Ranch, Santa Ana, Calif. Every Scout interested in going should make reservations as soon as possible through his Scoutmaster and the local scout office. Every boy who attends must be at least a Second Class Scout or Explorer Apprentice and at least twelve (12) years old as of January 1, 1953.

SCOUTING IN CARROLL CO.

Scouting is now reaching 650 boys in Carroll county in 28 cub packs and scout troops under the leadership and supervision of 267 men and women.

CARROLL DIST. ROUNDTABLE

Mr. Stephen A. Lerda, Hampstead, District Commissioner, Carroll District, Boy Scouts of America urges all unit leaders and asst. leaders, unit committeemen, and den mothers to attend the Roundtable Wednesday, Oct. 15, 1952, 8:00-10:00 p. m. St. John's Parish School, East Main St., Westminster. The roundtable will be held in three sessions: Cub leaders and den mothers; Boy Scouts leaders and explorer scout leaders. Mr. Frank W. Mather, Jr., Westminster, will advise the session with the cub people. This group will get new ideas and help on games, ceremonies and crafts.

SCOUTING IN THE RURAL AREAS

Scouting includes three distinct programs, each one designed to fill the needs and interests of a particular age. CUB SCOUTING at 8; a program of things to do in and around the home. This is a parents program: BOY SCOUTING at 11; a character building and citizenship training program based on merit badges in the out-of-doors. It offers 97 merit badges dealing with many subjects, 27 which are farm subjects. EXPLORER at 14; this is more advanced scouting with three types: explorer scout, air scout and sea scout. The emphasis is on life work exploration and opportunities for developing leadership ability.

A boy can have scouting now! No matter where he lives, a boy can be a cub or scout. Most towns have Boy Scout Troops and many have Cub Packs and Explorer Posts. If there are enough boys in the neighborhood, a unit can be organized there. Each requires a minimum of five boys. If there are at least two boys (but less than eight) available in the neighborhood for either Cub Scouting or Boy Scouting you can easily organize a neighborhood Den or Patrol. If none of these units is available or cannot be readily organized a boy may join immediately as a Lone Cub Scout, Lone Boy Scout or Lone Explorer. Each Lone Scout must have an adult as a "Friend and Counselor" and help the boy carry on the program by himself. The boy becomes a member of the "Tribe" set up to give some association and activity with other Lone Scouts.

Scouting supplements the boys work in 4-H or FFA. Each organization gives the boy something he needs. Together, they give him a complete program. Scouting gives the boy advancement credit for his 4-H project work.

The most important crop grown in Carroll county is its youth. Let's not let them down.

THIS 'N' THAT (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Well, believe it or not, Your Observer sat in the old street car in Baltimore that your Grandmother used to ride in to shop at "Gutman's" in Baltimore town of yesteryear! There it was the same as every year with the double horse team standing in front of the store (Conductor n'everything) just as it did 75 years ago for that store right now is celebrating its Diamond Jubilee—the 75th Anniversary.

The windows were displayed with the gowns and dresses plus hats of each period since that time! Well, this Observer surely prefers the style of clothes today! The dresses were so heavy and the materials of the very thickest woven plus all the decorations which was much too much. That really makes me think in reading of days long ago how the women were subject to fainting and that very thing may have been the cause! Eh, Ladies? You never hear of "Fainting girls" today! In the extreme opposite window was shown of the simplified garments of today. If you ask me—just plain good horse sense!

There were many big bargains in the store in celebration of the big event and the store was just chucked full of buyers in every department. You know, this store all down through the ages has one slogan—"CASH for Merchandise". As I browsed around saw that many things were truly one and two and even three dollars cheaper than other stores.

As I walked around in and out of the aisles came upon, Mr. Gutman, the youngest member of the organization is a very pleasant man with up to the minute ideas for the store his Grandfather started seventy-five years ago.

Looking in on T.V. one early evening at 6 P. M. saw one of our nice State Police advising the public to be careful in driving. He surely appeared as a real Major sitting right there!

Did you see those Grapplers, Gentlemen last week on the mat at the Coliseum? The team affair with Ray Thunder and Roland Meeker with Jack Dillon and Jim Austerl! What rough necks the latter are! It greatly pleased the public of the winners.

How awful in time of election of Presidents of the U. S. to travel the states slamming both parties! It somehow takes out the interest for this Observer! Betcha, no matter who gets elected, the public will feel badly that they did not vote for the other man!

Your Observer is neither Republican or Democrat but Independent in other words, I vote for the best man!

Remember when Drew Pierson along with all the other Columnists with (the exception of Your Observer) stated that Dewey was sure going to be elected and it all was in the bag but when the time was ripe—he was found "HOLDING THE BAG". Now, at 11 p. m. the other night Drew Pierson stated that Ike surely would be elected without a doubt. He said he was positive last time that Truman was "OUT"!

One of the readers of this column is a Farmer's wife living out in Ohio whom I have never seen. A real interesting letter arrives once a week and now I know more about the stock than I ever did before!

So long, Folks. Have a Grand week end and take heed to that State Police. Until next week D.V., I am,
Faithfully,

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1952

BACK-FIRE

Governor Jimmy Byrnes of South Carolina, life-time Democratic wheel-horse, former "assistant president" to Franklin D. Roosevelt and former Supreme Court Justice, presented an old friend, General Dwight D. Eisenhower to 30,000 of his fellow South Carolinians with the words: "In this hour of peril, I would rather have a professional soldier than a professional politician as President of the United States."

In acknowledging his introduction, Ike quoted the already historic words of the Governor, "I shall not vote for a label... I shall place loyalty to my country above loyalty to a political party." And then the General added: "Is it any wonder I have faith in the South?"

Taking the charge made by Adlai Stevenson in Los Angeles that "it is the fault of you, the people, that we get what we deserve in Government" as his theme, the General went down the line, "Is this Washington mess the fault of you, the people?" he asked. "Will you accept the blame while the Administration and its candidate get out from under?"

"Is that tragic prospect (of more war) the fault of you, the people?"

"Are you to blame for allowing nation after nation to fall to the Communists?"

"Are you to blame that the enemies of freedom have built and heavily manned a threatening line across the middle of once-free Europe?"

"Are you to blame for the loss of China?"

"Is that (Korean War) the fault of you, the people?"

Again and again, they shouted back "No!" He went on to discuss the five-dollar bill, now worth $2.65; taxation; the Washington scandals and the Fair Deal paternalism. He declared that this is a good year for "some straight political thinking" and "a bad year, to be fooled into thinking that the Washington mess is the fault of you, the people."

Whatever the outcome, Ike is making it difficult for the people of the South, or any other section, to "vote for a label." This time, all over America, they want the goods.—National Industries News Service.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

RED SPRINGS, N. C., CITIZEN: "Today the value of the dollar bill is one-half of what it was in 1932-52 cents compared with $1.03 in 1932, and 1.00 in 1940. While the dollar shrunk by one-half in 20 years, the Federal tax burden on the average family increased by 25 times. In 1932, the average share of the two billion dollars collected in total Federal taxes was $64. During this fiscal year, 1953, a family's Federal taxes, income plus hidden taxes, will average $1,700."

NORTHPORT, LONG ISLAND, N. Y., OBSERVER: "Americans have become accustomed to thinking of the money they earn in terms of take-home-pay. They have forgotten that not too long ago the wage earner spoke of his pay without thinking about 'pay after taxes.' The Federal government today takes its cut first. You get what is left."

WASHINGTON, IOWA, EVENING JOURNAL: "We believe there is downright concern at this moment over governmental trends. Underneath the natural interest everybody has in the coming election, one can often detect a vein of anxiety, a desire to do something, a determination to make a change. One special point of concern is the pattern of thinking apparent in our government. It is the same pattern seen in other countries where freedom and private enterprise have lost their holds. Always this trend starts in the name of national defense."

HOW DOES THE POWER GET INTO THE BOMB?

Uranium is not enough. Preparing it for the
 A-bomb takes vast quantities of electricity. So does all the huge production for Defense. Also, homes, farms and businesses are using twice as much electricity as before World War II. Will the electric companies develop enough power?
 The answer is YES!

New plants double U. S. power. The map pinpoints the new electric power plants and plant additions built by the nation's electric companies just since World War II. They give each American twice as much electricity as he had then.
 In spite of this, the people pushing for socialized electricity still talk "power shortages" as an excuse for getting government deeper into the electric business.

As much electric power as Detroit uses will be needed by one
 A-bomb factory now nearing completion. Another new A-bomb project will use twice that much. For each of these, electric light and power companies are planning or building a giant power plant — without one cent of your tax money!

Battlefield in the struggle against socialism. On the Niagara River, five local electric companies are ready to build a big new plant to develop additional electric power. But the job is being held up by those who want government to build the plant — even though that would take longer and cost Americans $350 million in taxes. Similar delays hold up new power at Hell's Canyon, Idaho, Roanoke Rapids, N. C., and Kings River, Calif. America's electric companies can provide this power — without tax money and without the threat of socialism.

These facts are heartening proof that the experience and sound business management of the country's hundreds of electric companies are ready and able to meet the nation's biggest power needs.

FEESERSBURG

Though Americans pride themselves on being coffee lovers and coffee connoisseurs and boast they know the hundred and one ways of making the beverage (even with the pinch of salt or mustard) they are among the also-rans when it comes to the Irish way of making coffee. For flavor and delicious aroma the Irish lace their coffee with Irish whiskey. The Irish race is credited with being strong willed and they certainly deserve that distinction if they ruin a good cup of coffee with whiskey. The American method of serving the beverage seems more delightful—strongly brewed with or without rich cream. Adding anything else is an insult to the coffee bean.

The Missionary Society of the Mt. Union Lutheran church held its regular monthly meeting in the church with fifteen members present. Mrs. Cleon Wolfe was in charge of the meeting. A short skit titled "How to give to your Missionary Society", was presented by Mrs. Scott Crabbs, Mrs. Millard Roelke, Mrs. Emmett Miller, Mrs. Ben King and Mrs. Samuel Keyton. Miss Nancy Roelke sang a solo and accompanied herself on the piano. The sum of $15.50 was realized on the missionary apportion.

If all the words that have so far been written and spoken about the current political candidates were laid end to end, they would reach some place but not toward enlightening the poor confused voter.—R. Roelke.

Unless one has made his living from a farm over a period of years, he cannot fully understand what the loss of a barn by fire can do to a person. In one hour or less fire can destroy the entire work of many years. Even if the contents of a barn consists only of one year's harvest of grain, that alone represents two years of labor. The barn itself, represents the keys to the entire farm, for most barns house the dairy barn too. If stock and machinery is kept in the barn, which is generally the case, not only is the loss a financial one but likewise an emotional one too, for a farmer loves his stock as much as he loves his land. In the past two weeks two barns have been destroyed by fire in our community, one by lightning, the other from undetermined origin. Both represented a major catastrophe to the owners. Lightning is the fear of every farm owner, but it represents one of the hazards of living and most people learn to deal with it philosophically. But the fire that comes from an unknown source is more to be feared than lightning. Last year in our neighboring state of Pennsylvania more than twenty barns were destroyed by this type of fire.

Some of the work was set by a fire bug, who was finally caught. While we hope there is no such person in our vicinity, however, there is always a possibility. Both Westminster and Tanetown have known this menace recently.

The Mt. Union Lutheran church will hold its Ingathering Service on October 19 in the church at 7:30 p.m. There will be a special program consisting of music and speakers. Rev. Myers of Gettysburg College will talk about the new revised version of the Bible. This topic should prove of interest to all Christians as the new Protestant Bible has created much discussion for and against it. The most effective criticism we have heard came this week from a teenager. The comment: "The new Bible is easier to read but they have taken the music out of it." The 23rd Psalm has always been my favorite as it is with many, and truly the poetry is gone from the new version and I don't like it.

Are you the kind of person with a house to rent that says to the prospective tenant: "No children, but you can keep a dog"? Last week friends of mine in Baltimore were given notice to leave their apartment because the stork was about to come in for a landing. The landlady (a grandmother) said crying babies kept the other tenants awake. A European visitor, after several weeks of apartment hunting and seeing "adults only" signs concluded: "Americans love babies on the street. They love them in their cars. But they don't seem to like them in the home."

Fortunately for everyone the observing European was wrong for the majority of Americans do love children in their homes. It is only the very small minority of landlords, who don't love babies anywhere, that makes life unbearable for tenants.

If the present political campaign leaves some of us cold it is because we were so long used to the late F. D. R. and his way of doing things. It's like eating warm over stew after feasting on long F. D. R.'s leadership.

We lived in a state of tension comparable to the tension of an audience witnessing a superb dramatic performance. Members of such an audience are not in fact witnesses; they are participants, not merely watching the drama, but living it. In the case of the New Deal the tension was even greater, for we knew that it was not something dreamed by a playwright, but reality itself, the embodiment of our fate. But living under dramatic tension is living at a high potential. That will not be denied by anyone who has emerged from a theatre, limp and drained of emotion. It will not be denied by many, sufficiently mature to appreciate it, who lived through the New Deal. For during those years we did live, intellectually and emotionally, faster than we have ever lived before. If F. D. R. promised us more abundance of life, he certainly delivered the goods. And many of us loved every minute of it.

The right to express one's opinion and to disagree with one's fellowmen is still the inherent right of every citizen of these United States. But the mark of a gentleman is one that disagrees in temperate temper and language so that he does not offend others who may be listening nor does one need to indulge in personalities to get one's ideas across.

Neither the weather nor the temperature is taking into consideration the furnace at Merry Knoll is lying on its side waiting for a repair to come from the factory. At present, the temperature in the house is cooler than outside.

Glue a rubber jar ring to the bottom of a dog's dish and it will keep the dish from sliding while the dog is eating.

The World Series is over and one cannot be sorry for the tension was getting past the tense as one commentator put it. Both teams were good although being partial to the Dodgers. I was disappointed in the outcome. TV did a superb job of giving the public the games and it is the only time I see any good on TV.

The public is cordially invited to see this picture.

Christians Differ

Lesson for October 12, 1952

"I WILL GIVE YOU the secret of true happiness." If a man starts talking in that vein he will have listeners at once. Jesus began his famous sermon on the mount with that magic word "happy." It is unfortunate that most of our English translations use the word "blessed" because for most people "blessed" is a church-word. They don't know whether they want to be blessed or not; they have no doubt about wanting to be happy. It is twice unfortunate that Jesus' meaning has been hidden under an even more forbidding word, "Beatitude." What we have here is a series of one-sentence pictures of truly happy persons.

Dr. Foreman

What Christians Are

In these sentences Jesus sketches the kind of person who "has," that is to say, belongs to, the Kingdom of Heaven. If God were forced to throw away some of the human race and keep others, these are the people he would keep. Jesus in these short sentences is picturing the Christ-like. He is not talking about what they believe but about what they are. There is all the difference in the world between Jesus' idea of a Christian and some of the popular ideas today. For example, many persons think of a Christian as a person who keeps a certain number of rules, or believes a certain number of things, or belongs to a peculiar kind of club called the church. But a club member may be exactly like the people on the outside except that he has paid his dues and they haven't; and some church members are just like non-church members except that they have paid their dues (or at least owe them) while the outsiders have not.

Finding True Happiness

Let us venture to put the meaning of Jesus into simple words of today. The following sentences are meant to suggest only some of the means wrapped in these truths-for-life. . . . Do you want to know the secret of happiness? Jesus asks. I will tell you. The happy are those who know how little they know and how far from good they are. These are the real people, God's people. The happy are not always the gay; the happy are the serious, those who feel a sincere sorrow for their sins and shortcomings, sorry enough to turn away from them. The happy are those who do not insist on their own rights, who carry no chip on their shoulders, who are more interested in justice for others than for themselves. After the proud have destroyed the proud, these are the people to whom the earth belongs. The happy people are those who want to be good more than anything else in the world. This is the one desire that God always fulfills. Happy people are those that find their happiness in helping others; these are the people who will find helpers in their own time of need. Happy people are those who are pure, not in act alone but in inner thoughts and desires. They are the ones who have any eyes for God. Happy people are not only peaceable themselves but help others to live in peace as well. These are the people who are really God-like. Happy people are not always free from trouble; but their troubles have been caused chiefly not by their sins but by the fact that they are good. They have their heaven in their hearts.

Christians Are Different

You are happy yourselves (Jesus concludes) when the hard things said about you are lies. You are happy when you suffer as I suffer, on behalf of others. God will reward you; you belong to the glorious company of the best men of all time, for there never was a good friend of God who was not misunderstood and slandered. Jesus never explained all he meant. ("He who has ears, let him hear," he used to say.) But whatever may be puzzling, one thing is clear: Christians are different. If a man fits these descriptions ever part-way, he is noticeably different from the run-of-mine human being. We cannot water down Jesus' ideas, for they are really radical. We should not try to make it sound easy; he did not. But let us be as frank as he was: If you want to find real happiness, if you want to belong to God's people, if you want to be a real Christian, this is it.

POWER STEERING †
on the Roadmaster and Super

You'll discover this about a Buick:

The more you drive it, the more you like it; the longer your trip, the louder your praise.

That's what people tell us. And we'll tell you why.

You can drive a Buick three, four, five hundred miles in a single day, and feel fresh enough to keep right on going.

You can romp up high hills, cruise straightaways, ease through traffic-tangled towns, clock off hour after hour of relaxed and pleasurable driving—and be no more tired than a neighborhood jaunt would make you.

How come this comfort-rich ground-covering ability in a Buick?

There's the ease of deep, soft seats for one thing—and plenty of move-about room for arms, legs, shoulders.

There's Dynaflo Drive* taking all the chore out of driving, and giving your whole ride a satiny smoothness without trace of jerkiness or driving tension.

There's a hoodful of thrilling, tireless power from a high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball 8 Engine that whips out miles like a tarpon reels off line.

There's the soft, steady, solid, swerve-free going of a coil-spring-cushioned ride that's well worth the million-plus dollars it cost to engineer.

There's all this and more—much more—that makes your heart grow fonder of this trim and thrifty traveler.

But words can't do justice to a Buick in motion. Only you can.

When will you come sample this experience yourself?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. †Optional at extra cost.
