COMMUNITY BUILDS HOME FOR NEIGHBORS

Citizens of Frizellburg Completes Project

Mr. Orestus P. Berwager and his invalid daughter Louella have moved into their new five-room bungalow in Frizellburg along with Mr. Berwager's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Mumford. This is the house that the people of Frizellburg and surrounding areas have built to replace the old house that was damaged by falling trees in the violent storm of June 19. The Berwagers and Mumfords had been living in the old log house until that time when the house was made uninhabitable and since that time have been living with the neighbors of the community.

Edward L. Haifley, chairman of the committee in charge of rebuilding the new house states that the total cost of all materials for the house was $1958.33. A total of $853.70 was donated by organizations, clubs, churches, factories, business men and individuals and paid on the materials with the Carroll County Chapter of American Red Cross paying the balance.

There has not been one cent paid out for labor on the entire project and a total of 81 men gave over 9000 man hours to tear down the old house, salvage materials and rebuild the new one, mostly in spare time of evenings and Saturdays. This included all carpenters, masons, painters, paper hangers, tinners, electricians and floor sanders. In addition to donations of free time and money, the committee reports that there has been received in material donations from various business places, over $1100, in value such as ready mixed cement, window shades, sand and stone, in-laid linoleum and floor covering, aluminum storm door, blown-in rock wool, spouting, reductions and discounts on all building materials, locks, hinges, paints, nails, weatherstripping, floor sanding, pipeless furnace, congoletum rug and a new Formite top chrome leg breakfast set.

This project has attracted State-wide attention as an act of brotherhood among good neighbors and has appeared as a feature in the brown section of the Baltimore Sunday Sun a few weeks ago. It is something that Carroll County may well be proud of.

Mr. Haifley, in behalf of the committee wishes to thank each and every one who has so graciously given of his or her time, effort, money and materials to help a worthy cause.

AN APPEAL

That Should Not Go Unanswered

Girls from 8 through 17, of all races and creeds, obtain practical experience in working together for the common good... through Girl Scouting. Many Taneytown girls have expressed an interest in belonging to the Girl Scouts. Already the American Legion Auxiliary, through its president, Mrs. David Myerly is sponsoring a Girl Scout Troop. The auxiliary is now busy getting able troop leaders and committees organized to guide an active troop within the next month. Leaders are preparing to take specialized training courses beginning in November.

Other Taneytown organizations can follow suit and offer a real service to the community... to their own girls. You can show them how to apply the Scout code of friendship, loyalty, service, and honor in their daily lives. You can give them the opportunity to serve others and to become the sturdy resourceful citizens needed to meet the tasks and challenges of the world of tomorrow. There is no other time like now to make Scout training and service available to all eligible girls in Taneytown.

Here are some immediate ways that community-spirited citizens of Taneytown can be of assistance: TROOP LEADER. This is on-the-spot work with girls for people who like and understand them, who know what they enjoy, and who can work with a group of them. BOARD OR COMMITTEE MEMBER. The planning and administration of local Girl Scouting are vital to the effectiveness and constructiveness of the program available to the girls. This is another place in which you might fit into the program. TROOP COMMITTEE MEMBER. A small committee of civic-minded men and women is needed to aid the troop leader, giving her moral support and specific assistance when needed. You might like to help in this capacity.

These are only a few of the things that you can do to help revive Girl Scouting in the Taneytown District. You need not be experienced. A special fund drive for the purpose of employing a paid professional Scout counselor for Carroll County is under way. This counselor will be ready and willing at all times to guide you in your efforts to help Girl Scouting. If you will give a little of your time, and would like to help with this program, either write or call Mrs. Robert W. Smith, District Chairman for Taneytown. Phone 5781. Full information and literature will be furnished without obligation.

JET ACE LOST ON SEA MANEUVERS

Son of Local Minister Dies in Night War Operations

A naval flyer, son of a retired Taneytown Episcopal minister, was lost at sea Thursday, Oct. 9, 1952, the Navy reported, while flying in maneuvers from the aircraft carrier Franklin Delano Roosevelt off the coast of Portugal.

Naval officers revealed in a communication that Lt. Cdr. Cleveland LeRoy Null, 31, was flying in a jet plane when it suddenly plunged into the sea while circling for a landing. The pilot was saved. Jet flying from aircraft carriers is relatively new in naval aviation.

Lt. Cdr. Null is the son of the Rev. Thurlow W. Null and Anna Bell Witherow Null, of Taneytown. As a fighter pilot in World War II, he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross and two stars and the Presidential Citation. His rescue by submarine in the Pacific after being shot down by enemy planes attracted national attention.

He was graduated from the Taneytown High School in 1937 and received a bachelor of science degree in aeronautical engineering from Indiana Tech, Fort Wayne, Ind. He was commissioned a naval ensign in 1941. His post graduate work includes a B. S. degree in electrical engineering from the naval academy, Annapolis, Md., and a masters degree in aeronautical engineering from Massachusetts School of Technology, Cambridge, Mass.

After receiving his M. A. degree last August, Lt. Cdr. Null was assigned to the FDR as a flight commander. Memorial services were held at the Church of the Ascension at Westminster, on Tuesday, at 11 o'clock. Rev. Schidt Wachter and Dr. Walter Stehl, of Baltimore, officiating. Present were the Senior Capt. Woolan, of Washington, Capt. Gardiner of the Margate Base and fifteen of Cdr. Nulls brother officers. The flowers on the altar from his squadron.

On Wednesday at 11 a. m. a service was held in the Base Chapel with Capt. Davis, Base Chaplain, officiating.

The flowers in the Chapel sent by the several companies of the base were scattered by plane over the waters of the ocean a last gesture of respect to a loved officer and comrade.

Lt. Cdr. Null is survived in addition to his parents by his wife, Ina Bredlau Null, 27, of Miami, Fla.; two daughters, Barbara Ellain, 6, and Janet Amelia; a brother Francis Witherow Null, Alexandria, Va., and a sister, Amelia Virginia Russel, Pampa, Tex.

The Rev. Null served as rector of the Prince of Peace church, Gettysburg and the Church of the Ascension Westminster. After his retirement from the active ministry he continued as principal of the Taneytown Elementary school until about five years ago.

THIS 'N' THAT (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!

I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The first cold spell has come upon us and the leaves are beginning to fall. Many remark that this time of the year is so sad. No time of the year is sad for Your Observer because every season which are four has delightful and inspiring weather. Of course there are many days that we call "Blue Days" but they won't be blue if you keep occupied and do something worthwhile.

In the month of December this column will relate how it actually started and the first little column will be printed which Your Observer ever submitted to "The Carroll Record".

Ladies, when you wash your curtains in the washing machine by all means place them in a pillow case and that will prevent them from being torn.

Do you recall the column of a few months back requesting a child for adoption to and for a grand couple? The little six year old fellow arrived and he is very much loved and very, very happy.

Have you listened and looked at TV to see the State Policeman who tells you how careful you must be in driving? He gives you grand hints. Comes on at 6:40 p. m.

How nice it was to see three of the Folks from "Around the Town" down in Baltimore last Thursday!

Did you see those Lady Grapplers? Juanita had the broadest shoulders that this reviewer ever saw!

Here's a big laff! Ladies, have you heard the latest in the most expensive perform in Russia? It is called, "STALIN'S BREATH!" Wow; That floored me! How about you?

A letter comes from a young wife with several children and I quote, "I never fail to read your column and I hope that you will be able to help me. Do you think that a husband or wife should handle the weekly pay envelope?"

Well, that all depends upon you or your husband. Which one is thrifty? Which one can stretch that dollar

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

MONTROSE, PA., INDEPENDENT: "Young men and women should be especially interested in politics, for it is they who will be forced to bear the great burden of our national debt. In the years to come, when they are endeavoring to provide homes for their families or build up successful businesses, Federal income taxes are going to take from them months of labor out of each year."

FORT SUMNER, N. M., DE BACA COUNTY NEWS: "If all the taxable property of New Mexico were sold for the assessed valuation, the people would be $516,915,000 short of raising enough money to pay their share of the Federal debt. This was the disclosure contained in a state-by-state survey of the ratio of the dangerously high Federal debt to personal and real property."

BOYNE CITY, MICH., CITIZEN: "We wonder... how those who are concerned with social justice in wage matters can condone the actions of economic bureaucrats who would raise the potential earnings of one segment of the population while the millions who are not covered by automatic living costs increase clauses have to dig deeper and deeper into their purses and their reserves."

COATESVILLE, PA., RECORD: "If you went to the bank every working day—five days a week, 52 weeks a year—and deposited $2.04 to the credit of the United States government, you would just about be paying your proportionate share of the $85,444,000,000 budget on a population basis."

BIG SPRING, TEXAS, WEEKLY NEWS: "What high Federal taxes and inflation are doing to family incomes in Texas and other states is brought out today in a report by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. The study pointed out: A family in the $3,000 net income group today has $2,866.80 for living expenses after Federal income taxes. This has a purchasing power of $1,519.40 in 1940 dollars. A family of four today must earn a net income of $4,165 to equal a 1940 income of $2,000."

LAKEWOOD, N. J., CITIZEN: "The 'long arm of the tax collector' is no idle expression when the tax collector is Uncle Sam—Total Federal government internal revenue collections for the fiscal year, which ended June 30, 1951, exceeded 50 billion dollars. This compared with slightly under 39 billion dollars the year before."

Down the Line

with Johnny Bell

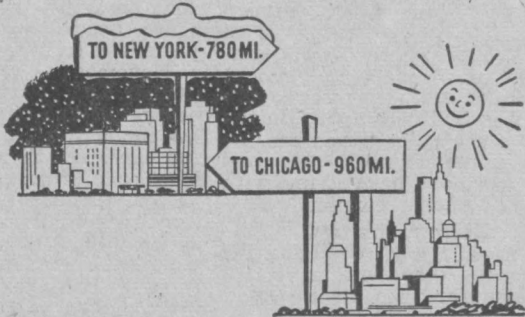

It pays to pause

Remember the old vaudeville routine, where one comedian talked continuously while his partner vainly tried to interrupt? After 5 minutes, he finally managed to interject one quick sentence: "Your house is on fire!" Party-line calling is something like that sketch. If you pause between calls, it permits others to reach you with important messages. Too, it gives others on the line a chance to use their telephones. This gives everyone better telephone service.

Two-season stretch

The length of Long Distance cable circuits between New York and Chicago is about 870 miles. Electrically speaking, however, hot summer weather causes this cable to stretch to 960 miles and cold winter weather contracts it to 780 miles. Fortunately, this two-season stretch is theoretical. Automatic regulators on the circuit neutralize the effect of seasonal changes. Your telephone company continually seeks ways to overcome the effects of nature so you can have better service.

Pulling Lincoln Train Into Gettysburg

The Thatcher Perkins, which has a balloon stack and a whale-oil burning headlight, will pull the "Lincoln Train" into Gettysburg, Pa., on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 18, when the Western Maryland Railway will present a dramatic two-hour re-enactment of Lincoln's arrival in that city and his immortal speech there. The Perkins was built at the Mount Clare Shops of the B. & O. in 1863, the year of Lincoln's address. A baggage car and two passenger cars, in use in those days, will make up the train. Hundreds of costumed Adams County citizens will greet up the train. "Lincoln", played by singer-actor Ray Middleton, at Western Maryland Railway Station at 1:30 P. M. The entire pageant is free to the public.

Talk of advertising. Well your Harney correspondent who attends most of the suppers in the last 58 years has never seen so many strangers ers here so I asked a lady first if she would mind telling me where the group was from. She said no we are from Dillsburg I said how did you learn about this supper way up there. She said well there was a Gettysburg Times paper on our porch one evening last week. So we read and decided to come to Harney. Then next came in a group of men and one was very outstanding and as he passed me I asked him where he came from he said proudly Taneytown. My name is Westine. Some one back called to me and said he is a "big shot" in Trinity Lutheran church and Rubber plant well I thanked him and said, it was my old home church till I was 18 years of age; so when I asked the second man if he was from Taneytown he said no I was just passing through and stopped for the meal. So that was a bluff so just from no where so all in all it's a great world with a great variety of folks in it. All in all a big affair and folks came from Baltimore, Gettysburg, Hanover, Emmitsburg, Taneytown, Westminster, Littlestown, even visitors at the "Fuss" from California. FEESERSBURG

Autumn has once again come to Carroll County and to the rest of the nation. No where else in the world is the month of October quite like the one in our country. The European climate is one of gradual change, slowly dissolving from a cool summer to a cooler and damper winter. The Europeans know nothing like our spectacular autumn, with its crisp cool mornings, the warm afternoons, the haze over the countryside and the trees glittering like something made of fil and tinsel. The early colonists never ceased to marvel at "a second summer" as they called autumn. Some believed that Indians set fire to the mid-western prairie to flush and snare wild game and that the eastward wind brought with it the smoke and warm air of those fires and produced the season called "Indian Summer." One may well believe that the month of October is a month given especially to those that care for the soil; a month to relax in and enjoy the results of one's summer labors. The fields have produced and the grain is stored. The trees have yielded their fruits and the apples and pears are piled in the orchards ready to be enjoyed. Cider is bubbling in the barrels and walnuts and shellbarks are waiting to be stored for future candy and fruit cake. The pumpkins are fat and yellow; tempting the cooks to put them into spicy pumpkin pies. The entire world looks different in October. It's a good month to be born in and a good month to stay alive in.

The Girl Scouts of Carroll County are putting on a fund raising campaign to pay for a trained professional worker who will be qualified to bring a better and more interesting Girl Scout program to the county. There are approximately 211 girls in Carroll county. The Union Bridge group consists of about 25 girls and 6 adults. The county goal in this campaign is $3000; Union Bridge quota of this amount is $300. Funds from this campaign will be used only for Carroll county Girl Scout activities. The local Girl Scout Troop is under the leadership of Mrs. Maurice Gray and the fund campaign is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Truman Myers. It is hoped that the service clubs, business places and private citizens will respond to this campaign as this is the first time the Girl Scouts have ever asked for outside help. The local scouts have contributed in many ways to the services of the community and each week provide constructive young girls. New members are always welcomed.

Following a report by Mr. Bowman, P. T. A. treasurer, the meeting was adjourned to allow parents to visit the classrooms and enjoy the refreshments furnished by the Hospitality Committee headed by Mrs. Edward Willard.

While in Korea he was on duty near Pusan and Seoul. He and his wife and young son are now visiting his parents near Mt. Union.

The annual chicken and oyster supper given by the ladies of Mt. Union Lutheran church will be held this year Nov. 1 beginning at 4 p. m.

What makes a woman prefer one brand of merchandise to another? That is the question that manufacturers are trying to answer. In this age of self-service stores, salesmanship on the part of clerks means nothing, as far as selling one brand or another. One retailer says most women buy on impulse. The product that catches their eye is the one they buy. That is the reason for bright colored wrappings and containers. To some degree this may be true. But there are many women that buy for quality and price. A woman may try a new brand because it's done up in a color that matches her kitchen decor, but if the contents of the package doesn't measure up to her standard, she won't buy it a second time. Most shoppers ask for the same brands week after week. Men are the buyers who want to try the exotic foods done up in sex appeal packages. The day my family dreads the most is the day the head of the house takes off for Baltimore and the markets. For days after the trip, we eat food from Arabia, Peru, Alaska and the Fiji Islands. Sometimes its most disconcerting to our digestive tract, but most of all the trip is demoralizing to the food budget. We have eaten things that look like they should have been buried months before, but under a tantalizing bit of tinfoil and gaudy designs they promised the buyer a bit of far away China or the South Seas. No woman who has to make her budget stretch a certain number of days would ever be caught like that. No doubt that is the main reason the woman of the house does the family buying most of the time.

Sunday was Columbus Day, the day set aside for honoring the discoverer of America. It will not detract one bit from the honor due Columbus to remind the readers that if Columbus hadn't discovered America, someone else would have found our continent sooner or later. That is the way with our problems that seem so overpowering today. If we can't solve them, someone will come along later who can.

Maryland schools will be closed Thursday and Friday to allow 12,000 teachers to attend the 85th annual convention of the Maryland State Teachers Association, in Baltimore October 16, 17 and 18. One can be sure the school children will take full advantage of their holiday, too.

Today is a good day to start being kind to yourself.

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 6.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 40:
1-8.

Sincerity

Lesson for October 19, 1952

SOME say an insincere person isn't what he seems to be. That is not quite true. An insincere person is what he seems to be, only not all the way through. He is what he seems to be, on Sundays, or part of the time, or when he's feeling just right; or perhaps he is what he seems to be, but only on the surface. The rest of the time, or underneath that surface, he is something quite different. Everybody likes sincere people, nobody wants to have much to do with the insincere.

Dr. Foreman

Getting Down to Cases

Jesus, of course, demanded sincerity. "Jesus would rather be denied by a true man than confessed by a liar." He did not use the word "sincere" or "sincerity," but (as was his habit) he came down to cases. He first shows that a generous giver, and a praying man, may be insincere. When is generosity sincere? When is a man all-the-way generous and when is he only top-layer generous? Jesus suggests that it isn't what we give, but why we give, that points up a test for sincerity. It is very doubtful whether Jesus meant to say that any one ever hired a trumpeter to toot for him when he dropped some money into the collection plate or wrote a check for the Red Cross. What he means to say is that when a man gives with the hope that his gift will attract attention and produce applause, he is not really generous. He doesn't have the recipient's interests at heart; he is thinking only, "How well people will think of me! Or again, that odd saying, 'Do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing' suggests that sometimes you are generous in order to please your favorite audience: You. You are generous in order to feel self-satisfied, your right hand (so to speak) brags about your left. The sincerely generous person is the only truly generous one; and the only sincerely generous person is the one who wants to give, not to be complimented, even by himself.

What Is Sincere Prayer?

Another concrete case that Jesus takes up is prayer. There is a story that once a minister was told after service: "Doctor, that was the most eloquent prayer ever delivered to a Boston audience." Jesus would say that a prayer delivered to an audience—Boston, Bombay or Barber Junction, no matter where—isn't a prayer, it's just a way of showing off. A certain professor of English used to quote famous authors in his public prayers: "As Shakespeare has said, O Lord . . . Thou rememberest what the poet Browning hath said . . ." Now there's no use quoting poetry to the Lord; that is suited to a speech, not to a prayer. Of course Jesus did not mean that we are never to pray in the presence of others. He himself prayed in public on various occasions. Leading others in prayer is a rare gift and should be cultivated. But while prayer, sincere prayer, can be with others and for others, it should never be to others. Some preachers "beat the congregation over their heads with a prayer" as the saying is. Some deacons have been known to put long and dull prayer-meeting talks into the form of a prayer. One elder well-versed in Scripture used to go through the whole story of the Bible, in outline, every time he was called on for a prayer.

Sincerity in Devotion

Jesus points out where sincerity is most important of all: in our devotion to God. We cannot serve God and Mammon. God does not want part-time devotion. By serving God, Jesus means living by God's side, under God's orders. Serving Mammon means more than simply serving money—most Mammon-worshippers would deny that they "serve" money. It means living your life not as God would have you but in order to "get ahead," to make money, to stand well with people who have money. Serving God means living as Jesus lived, for others; serving Mammon means trying to be served by as many persons as possible. Success, in Mammon's terms, is measured in terms of how many people work for you; success in God's terms, is measured in terms of how much you have helped others. Sincere devotion to God must be devotion all life through.

these days? Which one is a good manager? I have seen many husbands who do not know how to manage money although they know how to earn it. Every storekeeper regardless of his husbands did the shopping! Ever follow one around, I mean the good husband in a Market and just watch him purchase food for the house? Nine times out of ten, the wife is the best manager although there are exceptions. Whatever you do talk it over and don't have any words about money for "LOVE is the Greatest Thing." You know—that song! Remember?

The second letter which was sent to me is also from a wife and Mother who states: "Do you think it right for a husband to sit home every night and doesn't offer to take me anywhere? There is no excuse only the same story that he is tired yet we could leave the children with my Mother for the evening."

My dear young wife and Mother be glad that your good husband desires to sit home with you an evening. You must make it very comfortable for him in the home and that is nice to hear. I do not state that he should not take you places. Why not try to arrange one evening away from home together even if it is to your own town Movie? One thing that causes divorce is a Grandmother taking care of her Grandchildren while the couple run around. It starts very tame at first and then increases in the number of nights and finally Mrs. Wife is going out alone and Mr. Husband is seeking other pleasure as he calls it.

My advise to you is not to leave the children with your Mother although there is no better and finer person in the world with whom you can leave your children. It is unwise and if you both love each other which I think you do by your nice letter be interested in each other in the evenings. There really is nothing nicer than to have your husband right there and you recall that song, "Oh, it's Nice to have a Man around the House?" You are both young so be sweet to each other and the years ahead will be mellow ones! My best wishes and I hope you will let me know how it all worked out for you both. My very best wishes!

Ladies, the following is the address of that wonderful hair conditioner called Vi-de-Lan if Doc does not have it around the town. He will get it for you, I am sure. 1119 Boardwalk, Atlantic City, N. J.

How nice it is to have the "Police Ladies" guarding our children across the dangerous highways these days.

Your Observer stopped the car the other day at the Montebella School at 33rd and Harford Road just to observe it all! The beautiful attire of Our Ladies in Blue is very neat and stylish. I noticed the sweet smile as she assisted the youngsters across the busy thoroughfare. And the nice part they all behaved most orderly and cooperated.

Drive slowly, Folks and enjoy the country sides at this time of the year for you can see so much more of God's country. So long until next week D.V. I am,

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

"MORE FOR PEACE" TO BE SHOWN

"More for Peace" is the title of the third feature film produced in Hollywood by the cooperating denominations of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, the Congregational Christian Church and the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. and will be shown on Sunday evening at 7:30 in the sanctuary of Grace E. & R. Church. With its predecessors, "Second Chance" and "A Wonderful Life" it was designed to interpret Christianity in terms of daily living. In a world where people are required to give more and more for war, "More for Peace" is very timely.

"More for Peace" is the story of Bill Grayson, a veteran of the Korean War, who returns home and is greatly dissatisfied with his community, Kelsey, and the Christian Church in it. It is the story of his concern for the effectiveness of the church in the midst of a complacent society, and of his criticism of the community which seems unwilling to give a displaced person family the opportunity to become good American citizens. Veteran Grayson is indignantly impatient with the Brotherhood of the church when it refuses to take quick action to help the refugee family. Bill very earnestly discusses his concern for America and the church with some of his friends because its ideal aren't practiced. It tells how his wife Peggy, the minister of the church and a number of its members reveal the true nature of a Christian congregation. And it is the story of how Bill's understanding of the church grows, and how with it his local church grows to meet the challenges of the community.

But "More for Peace" is also the story of any congregation in any community, the story of any thinking Christian. In this case the thinking Christian happens to be this return veteran, but the story rings true in thousands of American towns and cities. The film will make you sympathize, love, laugh, think, suffer, hope and pray—pray for a new and better day.

"More for Peace" has a very intriguing plot. The incident of the camphorwood cross made from a tree killed when the first atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima, Japan, is authentic. The most unique prop of the production was carved from wood brought to this country by Miss Eiko Kakita, a member of the Methodist Church in Hiroshima. In the light of this cross are seen the atom-scarred wood and the atom-scarred world. On the day when the cross is dedicated, Bill is happy to see his church make the family of refugees feel welcome. The cross now stands in Mount Hollywood Congregational Church, Los Angeles, which loaned it for film production. "More for Peace" helps answer such questions as How can we have peace? What is the Church? Do I count?

The 44 minute film which is truly a family picture will give its viewers a spiritual life as they become absorbed by its subtle humor; its deep emotion, its inner struggles and its high idealism. Members and friends of the congregation and residents of the community at large are cordially urged and invited to witness the showing of this film. A free-will offering to help produce another picture in 1953 will be received. The same film will be shown at Grace E. & R. Church, Keysville, this Friday evening at 7:30.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor Carroll Record:
Enclosed find check for another year subscription I have been paying through my brother-in-law, Mr. Crouse but as he no longer lives in your town I'll send a check. I enjoyed hearing from Mr. Howard Slagen. I remember when he and his wife were in the Lutheran choir. I do not think he beat me in reading the Carroll Record for I have read it ever since I remember as my parents took the paper. 52 years ago last May I left Taneytown, Md., for Kansas to visit by brother Harry and wife. In that time I was twice back to Md. It seems to me most all I knew have passed away, all my brothers and sisters are gone beside many loved ones just one sister living in N. Y. A few nieces and nephews around town. A few in different places.

I want to say the lady who wrote the letter on divorce should be congratulated. Wish we had more letters like that printed more mothers going to church, less to saloons. I pity the poor children who only have half a chance. No wonder children are criminals. They are turned out on streets—their parents in a saloon. I heard a mother telling how to raise children over the radio, she had several all but one had been divorced so I feel she missed her calling. I was looking at a picture of Mr. P. B. Englar, he was working at his desk it was in 1936. I also have a Record before me while he was Editor, Sept. 6, 1918, 8 pages, 21½ inches—15½ inches across. A very large paper. He was a much a live Editor. I was personally acquainted with him. I read of his lovely family in the Record many times. Yes there are still a few left whom I knew. I always enjoy hearing from what is left. Then again, there is Mrs. Ida Landis her name and address in last weeks paper I at once sent her a birthday card. We were neighbors in Maryland I think she is the only one left in their family too.

Anyway I am always anxious to get the Record. Several times did not get it until the following week, I never knew where it was during that time. I expect to continue taking the Record while here but you see I will be 85 this coming October 20, cannot expect to be here much longer but my husband was past 94 when he left almost a year ago.

I'm renewing as I've been a subscriber a long time, think I beat Mr. Slagen. He used to have a long name. (Slaughenaupt). (A subscriber.) My address same as always.

At ten, young John made this firm rule:
He'd save all cash earned after school.

Paved the way to higher learning.

At forty, John now tells his son:
"A habit's helped in all I've done
(And it can help you to success):
It's THRIFT, the key to happiness!"
