Parent-Teachers Met Monday Evening

The Taneytown High school PTA met in the school auditorium Monday, Feb. 16th.

The meeting opened by singing America, followed by the PTA prayer. The President, Elwood Baumgardner, conducted a short business meeting. The need for a youth center was discussed. The following committee was appointed to get further information concerning the possibilities of a center, Mrs. Robert Clingan, Mr. Wilbur Naylor and Mrs. Glenn Reaver.

The program committee gave us a most interesting treat in the form of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Randall from Manchester, Md., who spent thirteen months in Wales, one of the countries of Great Britain, as exchange teachers. From observation, they find the greatest need for peoples of other countries is to learn to know the American people through other mediums, other than the movies. We have been wrongly misrepresented by being either a cowboy or a gangster. Through exchanging teachers, all countries will be more closely joined together learning to know habits, customs and our ways of living much better. Our school systems are very different. Some children start school at the age of three in England. By passing examinations, they are placed in schools according to their scholastic abilities.

We have so many freedoms in America—why not practice—the privilege of attending Parent-Teachers meetings?

On April 8 the county council will meet in the High school. Every one is invited. Refreshments were served by the ninth grades.

LETTER FROM OUR SENATOR

Many Bills of a General Nature Presented to Legislature

License for Foster Homes

For a number of years it has been a practice of the welfare and other social agencies of Baltimore City and Baltimore County to send their homeless children to Carroll county to board. As long as our schools were not crowded and the number of these children in any one community was not large they did not create any problem.

In recent years, however, these children have been sent to Carroll county in ever increasing numbers and, in some of our schools, have created a serious problem.

In many instances those who board these children are unable to properly feed and clothe them on the usual board of about $11.00 weekly. In other instances those who have charge of these children make no attempt to discipline them or to supervise their training.

This has resulted in materially increasing the load on our already overcrowded schools, and has created disciplinary difficulties in our classrooms.

I am told that there are between 100 and 200 of these children boarded in Carroll County, most of them of school age. At the rate of 30 pupils per class room and teacher it is obvious that the cost to the county of educating these children is not small.

In order to control this situation a Senate Bill has been introduced that provides that no foster home for children shall be maintained in Carroll County, for a profit, unless there shall have been secured a license for the home. A further provision requires the approval of the County Health Department, the Children's Aid Society and the Superintendent of Schools of Carroll county before the license can be issued. The Health Department to determine that the home is clean and sanitary, the Children's Aid to see that the license is qualified to care for children, and the Superintendent of Schools to determine whether they can be absorbed in our schools.

Placements by the Children's Aid of Carroll County are specifically excluded from the requirements of the Bill. Compulsory Automobile Inspection H. B. 227. This Bill would require the State of Maryland to establish automotive inspection stations throughout the State and would require each motor vehicle to be inspected every six months.

This controversial measure has been introduced frequently in past years and has always been defeated. It will probably meet the same fate this session.

Many of the opponents to the measure feel that since only a very small percentage of our highway accidents are caused by mechanical failure of vehicles it would be better to provide for a periodic re-examination of our drivers, human fault being the principal reason for our high rate of highway casualties.

S. B. 136 is similar to the above Bill except that privately owned, instead of State owned, inspection stations are authorized.

School Board
The Carroll county Legislators are now considering a Bill to provide that the Board of Education shall be composed of equal numbers of Republicans and Democrats, (three of each party).

The idea of this Bill is to make the Board of Education as non-political as possible.

The suggestion of electing the members of the Board of Education was turned down by the Legislators.

Until next week, I am
Sincerely,
STANFORD HOFF.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS MEETS

Jane Perry read as the scripture lesson the 33rd Chapter of Psalm. The group then prayed the Lord's Prayer. Following was the hymn "My Jesus I Love Thee." Dues were then received for the evening. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The treasurer gave her report which was accepted. As old business the rainy day bags were collected. We then discussed where we would go on our class trip this summer. Then several members of the class read parts from the play we are going to give in the spring. The name of the play is "The Darling Brats".

It was also reported that Mary Alice Rue a member of the class is sick. The next meeting will be held at the home of Patsy Smith. We then sang "In the Service of the King" and then closed the meeting with the Benediction. Games were then played and prizes were won by Dottie Baker, Miss Bankard and Barbara Eckard. Delicious refreshments were then served by the hostess.

THIS 'N' THAT (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The aroma of the pumpkin pie is quite delightful to the nostrils from the kitchen as I type this column. Why not have pumpkin pie any time without awaiting special holidays of the year? Don't follow a recipe—just taste before placing into the layer and you will enjoy it all the more and the milk and cream is added and less pumpkin—the better the filling. Be sure the crust is made with either Crisco (my favorite) shortening—not lard—or any other kind of fine shortening and make it short enough so as it is flaky and tender.

Now, a Grandmother of 64 has learned to fly! She lives in Quakertown, Penna., and has won her wings as a qualified pilot last week and promptly announced, "Now, it's going to be hard to keep my feet on the ground!" When Mrs. Nellie Ruser who is the Grandmother of 21 children—solved at Quakertown Municipal Airport, she realized an ambition of 30 years! Sumpin'?

"Ike" has joined the Presbyterian church in Washington and Bethesda—there won't be any suppers served there any more to make money for expenses. Eh?

Up in Philly in the 30th Street station there is a cute new one—A WISHING WELL! "TO GET YOUR WISH HIT A SHELL—FOR EXTRA GOOD LUCK RING THE BELL!"

The "HOMBURG"; Gentlemen is going places! Yet the Stetson is still tops and the prices range from five to one hundred dollars!

One of the most stylish men around the town is that nice gray haired gentleman in the bank. He truly is a typical model in a fashion magazine!

Wonder if the "CRAVAT" will ever come back to take the place of "just ties"? They are so much more stylish and gives a man plenty of that so called—omph!

Down on Park Avenue in Baltimore for nice Chinese eats go to "THE CHINA DOLL!"

If you plan a sight seeing trip to Philly be sure and include "OLD ST. GEORGE'S". That one you will never forget and you will sit in one of the Pews and really feel that you are alone with GOD! It is of the Revolutionary War Days. It is a Methodist Church where Bishop Francis Asbury preached. The very furniture is still there where the little kiddies sat in Sunday School just as they do today on those half circle benches.

That reminds me a letter arrived from (a number of them lately)—this one asking my opinion about intermarriage. R. P., if there is real love in your heart, you will never allow religion to interfere but whatever you do don't have a divided house and I think you know just what I mean. You should go to one church regardless of the Denomination. Never—never allow any religion to prevent your marriage if it is real love!

H. K. here is your answer as to names for a girl and their meaning. Abigail is a precious name meaning, Her Father's Joy, Susan means "A Lily", "Silvia is Latin meaning, "Of The Forest". Jane—Derived, from John, "The Lord's Grace". Hope you can select one of these to please both you and your husband.

This is the time to buy your Spring outfit if you really need one as the prices are within your pocketbook and it is wise to purchase right now as you have a wider choice, too. Ladies, skirts are a trifle shorter and a grand desired length. There is much Navy in the stores and many large hats are being shown already in all the cities. Here's to the request of the Feb. born. It is the sign of Aquarius from Jan. 20 to Feb. 20. This sign brings the most courageous people to the world. They are real friends so loyal and sincere. They have beautiful expressive eyes. Are real salespeople. They are very tactful and most diplomatic in fact this old world could not get along without those diplomatic people—both men and women. Many famous personalities were born in this sign of Aquarius—President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Abraham Lincoln, Charles Lindbergh, a man named Stevenson and many others.

Now that famous French designer "Dior" has the new silhouette for Spring of 1953 tulip line—wide but sloping shoulders, ballooning bosom, then hug-me-tight straight to the hem. He suggests that you throw out your chest and pull in your tummy and hips. Dior is in favor of the loose fitting coat and jacket but the dress beneath must be slim as a flower stem. Finely pleated skirts although very full for afternoon and evening wear is—the thing. Everything is the Scarf these days in Philly where Your Observer spends the week-end and broused along Chestnut Street.

If you are fond of Cross-Stitch, Ladies there are most original designs in the stores these days and it is a grand time to quiet those edged nerves! Then it can be handed down to the next generation so be sure and place the date and your name down in the right hand corner.

So long, Folks, until next week D. V.—and if you have not sent a contribution for those stricken in the awful flood region—do so right now for your many blessings right here at home! I am,

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

CLAREMONT, MINN., NEWS:

"The Tennessee Valley Authority, the largest government controlled electric system in the country, offers what they call 'cheap rates' but an investigating committee for the House of Representatives found they would have to raise their rates by 134.9 per cent just to cover costs. Comes the statement from that state which says, 'The Tennessee River flows through three states and drains all the other 45.'"

MANSFIELD, OHIO, NEWS:

JOURNAL: "The greater the capabilities of the men elected to Congress the more efficiently that body will function. Yet business and industry offer far greater financial attractions to able men than does election to Congress. Proposals to raise the pay of congressmen merit serious consideration."

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, MINN., DAILY JOURNAL: "In 1913, when state and local governments received 67 per cent of all revenue collected from taxes, they were free and able to handle responsibilities which are properly theirs under the Constitution. Of late years, with the federal government taking about three-fourths of all tax revenue, federal grants-in-aid became necessary in many public service fields. This has meant federal control—a more centralized control, no doubt, than the founding fathers ever intended."

SENATE CLOAKROOM

By J. Glenn Beall

The 83rd Congress has now completed its organization and heard the President give his State of the Union address, in which he made several recommendations requiring action by the House and the Senate.

Work on Capitol Hill will now begin on the President's program and I believe that you may look forward to the Congress giving early approval to his requests. The ineffective wage and price controls will expire on April 30, 1953, and I think that the majority in Congress agreed with Mr. Eisenhower in his contention that the inflationary spiral can be better controlled without them. Likewise the President was on firm ground when he advised that material and product controls, except for defense priorities, should be dropped upon their expiration June 30, 1953, so that our competitive market may start functioning.

During the next several months you may expect to see Congress working on the following: study of the budget so that it may be balanced and thereby reduce taxes; continued study of Hoover Commission recommendations in order to make governmental operations more efficient; intensive work on the farm price support program which ends in 1954; study of proposed amendments to the Taft-Hartley Act; also work should begin soon on extending social security coverage.

Actions of the new Republican Administration have met with general public approval, I believe, because the administration is cognizant of the wishes of the people and is keenly reflecting their desires. An aroused people, articulate in their expression can keep the President and the Congress advised of their thinking on world and domestic events. Personally, I enjoy receiving letters from the people of Maryland and having them drop in our office. We are located in room 443, Senate Office Building. I'll be looking forward to seeing you.

In the meantime keep in mind what Abraham Lincoln said: "If we do not make common cause to save the good old ship of the Union on this voyage, nobody will have a chance to pilot her on another voyage."

Your Congress has been in session only since January 3rd of this year, and of course the Administration did not officially take office until January 20, however, there have already been some major accomplishments and there will be more to follow.

One of the first acts of Congress was in the interest of greater efficiency in government. In fact, the first bill to meet with the approval of both houses and to be signed by the President provided for an Under Secretary of State for Administration. His

FEESERSBURG

History is a dull subject when one is young and more interested in making history than reading about it out of books. But as one becomes a mere onlooker, of life as it rushes by one's window, then history, especially of one's town or community takes on a different halo. While doing some research work for a magazine article I came across an old paper published in Union Bridge, June 3, 1893. From this 60 year old paper familiar family names appeared in the print, but what was most surprising was an account of an art school commencement held in Town Hall, Thursday, May 25, 1893. It was the third annual exhibition of Mrs. C. E. Smith's School Art. The following is an excerpt from the account: "Town Hall was transformed into an Art Gallery. Paintings and drawings in great variety adorned the walls, while the stage was made beautiful with painted silk, tapestry and decorated china. Both in the number of pieces and in quality of work the collection far exceeded the exhibit of last year. There were more studies in oil and the tapestry and china were notable additions. The hall was opened to visitors from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. The number of visitors was large and included persons from Frederick, Mechanistown, Walkersville and Westminster.

Among the students winning premiums and medals were: Miss Emma Stoner, Orville Lynn, Madge Myers, Mary Repp, Olive Wolfe and Mrs. Will Kriner.

These names will no doubt be remembered by many in the Union Bridge community. I am especially anxious to hear from anyone that remembers Mr. Orville Lynn or who has any of his paintings.

Among the advertisements appearing in the 1893 paper was one from the now extinct Literary Digest. It was mentioned as the "Prince of Weeklies" and among the men commenting on its usefulness was Oliver Wendell Holmes who wrote that the Literary Digest seemed to him a valued accession to our libraries. Today, both the Literary Digest and Oliver Wendell Holmes have passed from the earth but both have left a lasting impression upon American history.

At long last the road from Otterdale mill to the Stultz farm is being graded and widened. This stretch of road was a worry to every parent whose child rode the school bus. In bad weather, it was a death trap and it has only been through kind fate that a serious and fatal accident has not occurred. The one way bridge has already been eliminated, the banks graded off and all trees and bushes removed. Congratulations to Mr. Stultz for his contribution in this much needed project and our sincere appreciation to the men that work in the county roads. Their work is mostly manual and often a thankless task, but they are appreciated more than they realize. To everyone that drives a car or has children using the roads, their work is very important. Gradually, but surely, the bad spots on Carroll county's secondary roads are being eliminated.

A baby daughter has been added to the Charles Buffington family and a new television set to the Ben King family. It's hard to say which keeps one awake the most at night, but if I wanted to get a good night's sleep I think I'd choose the baby daughter.

This week, the dairy farmers received their first check under the Louisville payment plan. It will probably take a year before the full effect of the new plan can be determined. For the past few years, the cry of most farmers and small businesses was that they were tired of regulations and some one else telling them how to run things. At present the situation for both farmer and small businesses doesn't look too promising. However, it may be that after a period of readjustment farm production will be governed by demand, but we have our doubts. Knowing human nature, we know each individual and every business needs rules and regulations. Some people may follow the golden rule voluntarily but there are too many that must have the iron rule applied to them, if the one's living by the golden rule are to survive.

Union Bridge will be visited by the Red Cross blood mobile unit the first part of March providing enough donors are secured. We notice by the papers, that few communities are able to fill their quota and we wonder why. Giving a pint of blood is a painless procedure and doesn't take much of one's time. Most persons in good health between the ages of 18 and 50 can spare a pint of blood easily, without ill effect of any kind. Why the public has become apathetic toward this project is hard to define. Blood plasma is not only needed for battle casualties but is also needed by hospitals for civilian use. There is no law to force anyone to part with their blood. This is entirely humane and voluntary act of the individual. But there is a law that makes a young man leave his home and family and makes him die sometime on a foreign soil. There are times when a pint of blood is all that stands between him and death. It is left to your conscience whether a pint of blood flowing thru your veins is worth more to you than a young boy's life fading away in Korea for want of a pint of blood which you do not need. Think it over and then contact Mrs. Lewis Crum-packer and sign up to give a pint of your blood. The people of Union Bridge never do fail a good cause, and since they have given so many of their sons to the Korean war, I know they will respond to the blood bank one hundred percent.

A Toast: May bad fortune follow you all your days—and never catch up with you.

So she took his advice and went and after having two appointments with Dr. Wm. C. Owens, was advised her eyes were in pretty fair shape with no trouble in each eye which would give her no trouble if she lived to be 100 years old.

Well then Dr. Owens advised a throat examination which was done by Dr. C. C. Douglass and nothing serious there. So that's that and time tells all things and who is right and who is wrong will be revealed as time moves on.

MARRIED

CARPENTER — KOUTZ

Miss Barbara Joan Koutz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Joshua Koutz, Lee Place and Second Lieutenant Robert James Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley F. Carpenter, Frederick Route 5, were married Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Evangelical Lutheran church. Rev. Dr. Wouter Van Garret, officiated at the double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with white gladioli lighted tapers and potted palms.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Old Chapel of the church. The bride given in marriage by her father wore a formal length gown of nylon over pearl white satin designed with a mandarin neckline, shawl bertha of lace and long tapered sleeves. It was fashioned with a redingote over a bouffant skirt, the hemline edged with scallops of lace which extended into a full length train. Her floor length veil of embossed French illusion was fastened to a hand-knit lace. She carried a cascade of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Joan Hardin, Philadelphia, Pa., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Maxine Green, Lewistown, and Miss Mary Ann Cashour, Bradock Heights. Flower girls, were Ellen Koutz, sister of the bride and Sandra Jean Carpenter, niece of the groom. Ringbearer was Kenneth Koutz, brother of the bride.

Mr. Ralph E. Carpenter, Frederick Route 5, served as his brother's bestman. Ushers were Lieutenant Theodore E. Brenner, Atlantic Highlands, N. J.; Lieutenant John F. Corrigan, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Lieutenant John D. Lydick, Oklahoma City, Okla.; and Lieutenant Laurell A. Gainer, Romney, W. Va.

The honor attendant was gown in deep red transparent velvet styled with a tapered waistline, full skirt, and a matching cape. The headpiece was also a halo of red velvet and she carried a colonial bouquet of red and white carnations. Misses Green and Cashour also wore the deep red colored velvet gowns, styled similar to the honor attendant, with the red cape. Their head pieces were red velvet halo-shaped and they carried bouquets of white carnations.

NEW LICENSE TAGS

"License tag applications for passenger cars and motor cycles will be mailed to Maryland owners beginning February 18th," said Thomas B. R. Mudd, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles.

The new 1953 tags will be placed on sale at the Department of Motor Vehicles beginning February 24th.

"Motorists will save time and the inconvenience of waiting in line by mailing tag applications as soon as they receive them. All passenger car and motor cycle tags will expire at midnight March 31st. For the first time in the history of the Department, the new tags can be used beginning March 1st, but not before this date," continued Commissioner Mudd.

"The Department has streamlined the application for 1953 tags. Also for the first time a small compact self addressed envelope designed especially for the purpose will accompany each application. This new facility will expedite matters for the public and the Department. All that is required is the signature of the applicant and the required license fee. Only one tag identified with two letters and four numerals will be issued this year. It must be displayed on the rear of the vehicle. All applications received by March 20th, by the Department will be delivered to motorists before the expiration of present tags." In conclusion Commissioner Mudd said "Applications for trucks and other classes of motor vehicles will be mailed before March 30th."

duties will be to reorganize the department.

The Senate itself has done a little reorganizing and will now be a more efficient legislative body. When we convened we changed the size and number of the standing committees in order to distribute evenly the work load to preserve the value of long experience and to make better use of the abilities of new Senators.

Economies have already been effected in organizing Senate committees. An illustration is the Senate Labor Committee which formerly had separate staffs for each of the subcommittees. Now one staff will serve all of them and the saving is estimated to be about $130,000.00 per year.

This shows that the Federal budget can be cut, without impairing any government service. While $130,000.00 is not even small change when compared with the total budget, we must bear in mind that such savings when accumulated can mean a tax reduction for the American people.

Abraham Lincoln one hundred and ten years ago expressed a sound theory for governmental economy. He said, "As an individual who undertakes to live by borrowing soon finds his original means devoured by interest, and next, no one left to borrow from; so must it be with a government."

The miracles that come in cans

Once upon a time oranges were rare, expensive luxuries. Only the richest kids in town could afford them. If you were lucky you got one a year—in the toe of your Christmas stocking.

Today, millions enjoy healthful orange juice packed in cans. The vitamins and minerals you get this way are just one example of an everyday miracle of modern living that every Maryland family takes pretty much for granted.

What brought about this miracle—and many others like it? The answer is simple. It was your demand for better, more appetizing, more healthful foods of all kinds. These demands were met by American business (including American Can Company), devoted to bringing you better products at lower cost.

Satisfying your needs has created thousands of jobs in farming, food processing and distribution. It has required a lot of research—which has produced better and more convenient food containers. It has increased and stabilized farm income. It has even meant higher property values in some areas.

In fact, it would be hard for you to go through a single day without enjoying many of the benefits that have resulted directly from the activities of the canning and can-making industries in your State.

The 35,000 American Can Company people are proud of their part in this story of industrial progress.

Your free choice in buying more and more of what you need in cans has enabled them to perform many miracles in the past—and to promise even greater things in the future.

ANSWERS

Q. My neighbors all seem to start chicks with Ren-O-Sal—why?

A. Because of the fine start they get with Dr. Salisbury's Ren-O-Sal! Yes, chicks grow faster, feather up better, and mature earlier when they get Ren-O-Sal in the water right from the start! Those benefits mean better birds, more profits. Ren-O-Sal prevents the spread of cecal coccidiosis, too. Better do like your neighbors -- use Ren-O-Sal!

Lesson for February 22, 1953

ON February 22 we celebrate the birthday of a man who (it is said) claimed he could not tell a lie. That is an exaggeration. Almost any man can tell a lie if he tries hard enough. But even if there were such a wonderful world that literally nobody could tell a lie, it might still not be the ideal world. For what is most important is not choking back the falsehoods, important as that is. The big thing is to tell the truth. And it is even harder to tell the truth and tell it right, than to keep from lying. Truth can be told in a dull way so that no one listens to it. If truth is worth telling it ought to be pointed, and when we say "pointed" we mean that three ways.

Pointed At—

For one thing, truth may as well not be told at all if it is not pointed at somebody. There's no use telling your deaf old grandmother about the circus; she's not going. There is no use telling a small baby to keep his face clean. There's no use giving a lecture on space-heating to an audience of Hottentots; they're hot enough already. You're talking to the wrong people.

Dr. Foreman

Truth ought to be fitted for, and pointed toward, the people who need it. The Master-Teacher himself showed how this is done. Much of Jesus' most vital teaching was directed to what we would call "hecklers." Sometimes their questions were meant to trip him up (like the three recorded in Matthew 22). Sometime they were asked from mere curiosity, sometimes they were desperate gropings for light. But whatever the motive, Jesus always gave them answers—plus. He would take advantage of the moment to push in a pointed truth. If only preachers and Sunday school teachers—and politicians too—would spend more time answering the questions people do ask, instead of questions they don't ask!

Sharp Enough To Stick

There is another sense in which truth, to be effective must be pointed. It has to be the opposite of dull. Now there are situations where truth can be dull, and welcome. If you are looking up in the encyclopaedia the population of North Dakota, or trying to find out what niacin is, you don't want to be amused, startled or entertained. You just want plain fact, plainly stated. Professors and other studious people are trained to absorb truth no matter how dully it is presented. It's a poor student who can't learn as much from a dry professor as from a witty one.

But most human situations are not in class-rooms. Truth that is not dry, ought not to sound dry. Truth that's worth remembering ought to be told in such a way that it can't be forgotten. Again, our Lord's teaching was of this sort. He never told a dull truth, and he never told his bright truth in a dull way. His sayings are all pointed; they have a way of sticking in the mind. What he says flashes in the eye like sunlight on steel. There was no one around taking notes when Jesus spoke. His sayings are remembered not because somebody had a good notebook but because what he said, stuck.

"To The Point"

What do we mean by a pointless joke or a pointless remark? We mean, of course, that the thing was not worth saying, however true it may have been. We want people to speak to the point. If we are going to listen to them we want them to be saying something that is worth saying, something we'll be worse off for not knowing. Now again Jesus' teaching was pointed truth in this sense. It was relevant truth, it was truth dealing with specific situations. He came "down to brass tacks" as we say. His teachings did not float away up in the clouds, they came down to earth and walked there. They had to do with people's real problems. And what we shall find out, if we study Jesus' teachings faithfully, is they deal with our problems today too. The problem of the demands—sometimes seeming to conflict—of church and state, of country and conscience; the problems of death and of the life beyond; the problem of how best to serve and obey God; these concerned the men of ancient Judea, they concern us no less. Jesus' words are just as pointed today as they were nineteen centuries ago.

"OUR NEW NEIGHBOR MUST BE AN ANTIQUE COLLECTOR ..."

She doesn't even use a modern electric range"

I don't usually talk about people but we have a new neighbor next door and—can you believe it—she doesn't have an electric range! I went over to call the other day and she came out of the kitchen all hot and flustered, apologized for her appearance and said something about slaving over a hot stove. Imagine—in these modern times!

Her husband has a good job, so it isn't because they can't afford a new stove. She's nice, attractive looking, dresses well and seems smart as a whip. I wanted her to join our club but she says she spends so much time in the kitchen trying to satisfy the appetites of those two darling children of hers that it's out of the question just now.

Well, I can see I'll have to start educating her. When I finish telling her about the time saving features, automatic controls, perfect cooking results, cleanliness, coolness, economy and all the other features of a modern electric range, I'll bet we'll soon have one more new club member and one less antique stove user.

CHICK STARTERS

Beacon's Complete Starter Rations are the product of 31 years' research. Experiments to date have shown that these feeds produce fast, well-balanced growth, higher feed efficiency, better pigmentation and greater uniformity in the flock. The medications give particularly effective protection against Coccidiosis. More than 80,000 chicks are involved in these experiments, which are continuously in progress.

Beacon Complete Starter has proved itself for 3 decades. Let us show you what it will do for your flock... Stop in anytime.
