In the marriage ceremony, we all know those words "WILL YOU PROMISE TO LOVE, HONOR AND OBEY?" In my opinion that should be for your Father—those three words —LOVE, HONOR AND OBEY HIM Begin to apply it to him right now! "A little boy was asked recently, "What is the difference between Moth-er's Day and Father's Day"? The lit-tel boy quickly replied, "The only dif-ference is in the gift, Mother's is more expensive!"

know of many who take Fathers just for granted—the man who pays the bills! A Father keeps on working day after day and never stops unless he is very ill. A Mother can lie down he is very in. A Mother can be down during the day and rest but never Father! No home is complete without a Father. FATHERS ARE NECES-SARY!' Life with Father can be beau-tiful! Just give him half a chance. Be affectionate with your Father— be affectionate with your Father show him the appreciation for all he does for you. Father sacrifices much for his family without a complaint constantly doing. I have known Fathers who have actually slaved by working longer hours to get the fee for his son or daughter for that Col-lege education just because he did not have the opportunity himself as a growing lad!

ROOT OF EVIL

Those new-fangled kitchen garbage disposers and automobile washers, to say nothing of the strong flushing compounds, washing detergents, cosmetics and various active chemicals that are used daily, are putting an increasing load on the household plumbing system, according to America's plumbing inspectors. But they seem to agree, the worst villian is the plain old-fashioned tree in the front yard.

In a recently completed poll on the subject, conducted by a New York marketing and research organization, 93 per cent of the officials replying to the mail questionnaire turned thumbs down on the various non-metallic substitutes for house sewer pipes running from buildings to street sewers or septic tanks.

Cast iron soil pipe, they/said collectively, will not only resist all the attackers inside the house-but even the tree-roots outside! Trees, it seems are always thirsty, and root filaments seeking moisture, work right through the joints of the substitute pipe. There they continue growing-until the pipe is clogged, sewage backs up into the basement, or worse-and Poppa has to pay plenty to have the front yard dug up and new pipes laid-but quick!

But when the soil pipe is cast iron it's different. The joints are caulked with oakum and molten lead, so the most vicious tree-root hasn't got a chance. And then, too, if the pipe is laid under the drive, the coal truck can back over it without squashing

the general admission to the pageant have been set at $1.00 per adults, plus 10 cents tax, 50 cents for children, tax free; and for reserved seats, $1.50 and 75 cents. The climax of the entire celebration will take place on Saturday af-ternoon, July 31, when the mammouth parade is staged, commencing at 4 clock in the afternoon. It is expected that it will take from 1½ to 2 hours to pass, and will consist of bands, drum corps, floats, old vehicles, horse drawn carts and wagons, horses, old type bicycles, marching units, etc. Prizes amounting to $2500.00 are being offered for those entering the parade. Ample parking space is being provided at all entrances to town to try to avoid any conjestion of traffic. The parade will start at the fair-grounds on East Baltimore Street, and proceed straight through town to the Memorial Park. There will be no parking of cars on Main Street during the afternoon of the parade.

Refreshments, programs, balloons hats and novelties will be on sale Monday through Saturday nights and on the street during the parade. Saturday night will be the final presentation of the Pageant, unless it rains, and then it will be pre-sented on Sunday night, Aug. 1. If it should rain on Saturday afternoon, the parade will also be postponed to Sunday afternoon. Plans are being made to serve meals at the Reformed Parish House for those wishing to remain here after the parade to see the Pageant. It is anticipated that a capacity audience will turn out on that last night, that is why the committee urges all local persons to see the pageant early in the week.

The Bi-Centennial souvenir booklets will be on sale within the next two weeks. This booklet will contain a complete history of Taneytown, histories of most of the organizations and churches, about 50 pictures, program of the week, the scenes and cast of the pageant, the committees, and the advertisements for merchants and business places in Taneytown, Hanover, Littlestown, Union Bridge, New Windsor, Gettysburg, Emmitsburg, Frederick, Baltimore, and surround-ing communities. It is the cooperation of these ads that make this pro-gram possible. The programs will sell for one dollar. Anyone wishing to mail extra copies should contact one of the committee.

The "Balloon Contest", which was started this week at the Firemen's Carnival, will be in effect until the end of the festivities, closing on the night of July 31, with a deadline for all cards to be in by August 15. The committee hopes that everyone will cooperate by entering the contest. For full information, inquire at the stand at the carnival this work stand at the carnival this week.

A great number of pictures were taken by newspaper photographers last Saturday afternoon, two of which appeared in the Baltimore Sun paper on Wednesday morning of this week, and more to come out in the Sunday Sun of July 11th.

Pvt. William C. Conover, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Conover, Sr., 99 Pennsylvania Ave., Westminster, is serving with the Eighth Army's 5th Regimental Combat Team in Korea. A flexible, self-sustaining unit, the 5th RCT saw action with every U. S. division in Korea before the cease fire. The team has competed more than three years on the peninsula.

An ammunition bearer in Company H. Conover entered the Army last June and completed basic training at Camp Rucker, Ala.

Visitors and sightseers poured into Bayeux and Caen to revisit the liberation beaches for the 10th anniver-sary of D-Day on Normandy Beach. M/Sgt. Calvin S. Powell, his wife and family, viewed the battlegrounds he fought on in 1944 and 1945 from Nancy to Utah Beach. He landed on D plus 4 Day.

Being present for the ceremonies on Utah Beach, we hoped to be picked up by T. V., but the crowds were terrific. Ships, seven in number, fired ashore, while jets, American, British and French planes flew overhead. All towns were gayly decorated with flowers, wreaths and flags, representing the Allied Nations.

On the 3-day motor trip of 1168 miles round trip, we took many colored, black and white and movie films, which we are making special albums for friends and relatives to view on our return in Nov. of 1955 or 1956.

Over Saturday night, our stay was in Ruen, leaving early Sunday morning to motor onto Omaha and Utah Beaches. It is amazing to see how many ruins are left, rusty barbed wire all about, sunken ships and debris off the shores, even after 10 years of liberation.

Sunday night was spent in Reims, where Monday we visited the famous Cathedral, which words could never bring out the immenseness or beauty. Also viewed remains of fortresses and arches which only before saw in movies, but now can say "I was there.

W. and American Legion of Paris, has sent a standing invitation to Post 9951 to present their "Colors" and as many members who can attend, to participate in the celebration in Paris for the 4th of July.

During World War II, M/Sgt. Powell saw five major battles. He wears the American Defense Ribbon, American Theatre Ribbon, European Theatre Ribbon with seven battle stars and one arrowhead, the Victory and Good Conduct metals, Bronze and Silver Stars and the Purple Heart with two clusters.

With fourteen years of service he plans to continue on till retirement at the early age of 38.

What God Wants Lesson for June 20, 1954

WHAT does God want?' It is the most important question anyone can ask. There are religions that answer in one word: Nothing. He goes his serene way uncaring what we do.

But the Christian religion, and the Jewish religion before us, believe that the prophets of the Bible were true prophets. They did really know the mind of God. And those prophets one and Dr. Foreman all-and for that matter every writer of every part of the Bible —teach that God does care, he does want something of us.

A Great Word

The prophet Hosea preached in a very "religious" era. At least, that is what his fellow citizens may have thought. There were temples crowded with worshippers, there were treasuries piled high with tithes and offerings. The smoke of burning animals consumed as sacrifices to the Most High God could be seen rising above every important city, especially in Jerusalem and Bethel, "religious capitals" of the little countries of Judah and Israel. What the contemporaries of Hosea thought God wanted was public worship, rites and ceremonies, attendance at the temple, plenty of animals for sacrifice. Hosea knew better. In memorably simple words he says, speaking for God, "I de-sire . . ." At this point our English translators of the Hebrew Old Testament-it should never be forgotten that no part of the original Bible was written in English-our translators run into trouble. The Hebrew word Hosea used at this point is "chesed" (pronounced rather like "hesseth") and it is interesting to see how many different words are used in our English Bibles to translate this one Hebrew word. It is called "goodness'' (as in Psalm 33:5, Hosea 6:4); "kindness" (as in Gen.

20:13; Neh. 9:17); "pity" in Job 6:14; "mercy" (as in Ps. 100:5 and Hosea 4:1); "loving kindness (as in Psalm 103:4; Hosea 2:19). All these are in the old King James Bible. More recent translators have used still other words. Every student of the Hebrew Bible knows that we have here one of continue their education. The Board approved the consolida-tion of the Vet-on-Farm Training program into one class with Mr. Amoss Davidson to continue as instructor until the program is completed.

The Board considered quotations for the supply of coal and oil to the coun-ty schools during 1954-55 and after consideration directed that orders be issued to the various dealers selected.

The Board was advised that Mr. Bernard Starr, architect, would make available on June 25, plans and specifications for contractors interested in the construction of the North Carroll High School to be constructed near High School to be constructed near Greenmount. Bids are to be opened on this project at the next regular meeting of the Board to be held on July 20. It was directed that said contracts be advertised at once. The Board hopes that this building can be completed for use by September, 1955. Mr. Pearce Bowlus, attorney for the Board of Education, attended a part of the meeting. The Board studied the statements of the Mary-land State Board of Education and voted unanimously to be governed by this statement in planning for the op-eration of schools in 1954-55. The Board was advised that a committee, of Superintendents, is working on the preparation of plans with the cooperaof Superintendents, is working on the preparation of plans with the coopera-tion of the Attorney General of the State. The State Board of Education takes the position that no program of integration can be put into effect until the decision of the Supreme Court becomes final and an effective date is set. It is not expected at this time that any changes, with respect time that any changes, with respect to integration, will become opera-tive during the coming school year.

The Board gave approval to the termination of contract of Charles Houck, custodian at the Mt. Airy School and approved the appointment of Leland Pickett to replace Mr. Houck on June 1, 1954.

The Board heard a brief report on matters related to the completion of the Sykesville building and considered those great words that is bigger than any word used to translate or explain it. The translators of the Revised Standard Version have used for the most part the expression "steadfast love" to express the deep meaning of this word.

What God Wants Most

Hosea told his people, and he tells us, that what God wants most of all is this great thing which is more than mercy, more than kindness, something that can best be expressed in the two words "steadfast love." Not sacrifice and burnt offerings, as it used to be thought; not anything else we can think of. Just steadfast love. Then Hosea puts with this and beside it something else: "the knowledge of God." This does not mean theology out of a book. The Hebrew word for "knowledge" never meant simply information about facts. A person could memorize all the facts about a President of the United States and still not really know him. Knowledge in the Bible sense of that word is a deeper thing, it is to enter intimately into the understanding of a person, to know him as it were from within. God wants of us today, as he did and does always, more than anything else, that our lives may show "steadfast love" which reflects his own. Nothing Else Will Do

Ċ

We hear a lot in America about "Back to Religion" or "Back to Church," but a good deal of this comes from people who have a kind of vague idea that if the churches were only full every Sunday God would reward our fine record of church attendance with bumper crops and prosperity in general. Hosea would smile a sad smile at such an idea. It was exactly the kind of idea his wrongheaded people had. It was not that God did not want sacrifices at all; but they were no substitute for what God really desired most of all. So with us. Church-going, occasional bursts of reform, "cracking down" on gamblers now and then, more beautiful worship services, bigger and handsomer churches-none of this can be America's substitute, or Americans' substitute, for steadfast love and the knowledge of God. He wants it. Do we?
