SCHOOL NEWS

Events in H. S. Reported by Students

Twenty eight seniors, accompanied by Miss Bankard attended the University of Maryland Senior Day on Nov. 20. After an enjoyable tour of the campus they had lunch. They then attended the University of Md.—George Washington football game, drenched to the skin by the rain which fell throughout the whole game.

On Nov. 23, Mrs. Doyle, U. S. E. S. representative gave a dexterity test to all seniors not entering college or commercial work.

A Thanksgiving assembly was held on Wednesday, Nov. 24, for the benefit of the student body. The Rev. Glenn Stahl gave an inspiring talk and the mixed chorus, under Mrs. Yingling's direction, sang several numbers.

Schools will be closed Thursday and Friday for the Thanksgiving Holidays.

On Nov. 29 Mrs. Sanders will accompany ten eleventh grade students to New York for the purpose of visiting the United Nations Building.

An ice cream party was held for the winning team of the magazine campaign and for all students on the losing team who sold $10 worth of magazines. Preceding the ice cream party, dancing was held for the senior high and a movie was shown to the junior high.

Five senior girls, Marsha Reifsnnyder, Doris Dinterman, Shirley Cluck, Sylvia Kooztz and Dorothy Surbey were elected by the Senior Class to participate in the Daughters of American Revolution essay contest. They will write on an early American statesman and his contributions to our country.

Mrs. Sanders accompanied four students Suzanne Lawyer, Barbara Levee, Arlene Naylor and Connie Arvin to a student council meeting in Westminster on Nov. 22.

The Adult Community Chorus will present their first concert Sunday night, Dec. 5, in the school auditorium.

This will be a Christmas Concert. The following numbers will be sung by the Adult Community Chorus: "As Lately We Watched," Austrian Carol: "O Holy Night," Adams; "Song of Adoration," Luvaas; "Gloria to God in the Highest," Pergolesi; "Sing Ye Noel," XVII Century Carol; "The Virgin's Cradle Hymn," Rubba; "Noel, Noel," Gevaert; and "Spirit of Christmas," a Fantasia closing with the "Hallelujah Chorus."

THANKSGIVING DANCE PLANNED BY ALUMNI

President Edward Sell called the meeting of the Taneytown High School Alumni Association to order Monday evening with 21 members in attendance. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were submitted followed by making of the final arrangements for the Thanksgiving Dance to be held on Thursday, Nov. 25, 1954 from 9 to 12 p. m. in the THS auditorium. Music will be furnished by the Cleftsmen. The proceeds from this undertaking will be used towards the purchase of a Public Address System to be installed in the High School.

Mr. Haggerty from Westminster was present and quoted prices for boys basketball uniforms and equipment. An order will be placed in the near future. Business managers appointed for the boys basketball team this season are Harry Dougherty Jr. and Delmont Koons, Jr. The girls' team managers will be Jo Ann Wolfe and Alice Frock. Also appointed was the score keeper Dorothy Koons; Admission, Pearl Bollinger and Time Keeper, Donald Carl.

The group decided to give $30.00 to Taneytown Elementary for the purchase of one large wall picture.

Nominated to hold office for the coming year were the following: President, James R. Waddell; V. Pres, Merritt Copenhaver and David Reifsnider; Sec., Lois Wetzel; Treasurer, Marlin Rittase and Janet Joy; Historian, Dorothy Koons and Evelyn Baumgardner.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. James Fair.

The next meeting will be held on Monday, December 13, 1954.

STUDENT COUNCIL NEWS by Larry Feeser

At a recent student council meeting the council decided to reopen the store which will sell paper, notebooks, socks and T shirts to the students. The store will be open in the morning only. On Nov. 22, four girls from T. H. S. attended a student council meeting held in Westminster. The four girls were Suzanne Lawyer, Barbara Levee, Arlene Naylor and Connie Arvin. The reason for this meeting was for the different committees in the county to meet. The social committee, decided to hold a dance April 23 from 8 to 11:30 at Westminster High School.

TRINITY LUTHER LEAGUE

The Luther League met Sun., Nov. 21, 1954. Evelyn and Mary Wilhide were in charge of the meeting. Mary Wilhide welcomed the guests from St. Benjamin's Church. The group of young people are interested in starting a league of their own.

A piano solo was played by Doris Bollinger. The topic was presented by Evelyn and Mary Wilhide. There was a short business meeting. After adjournment of the meeting, the members and guests enjoyed a social hour of games and refreshments.

Thanksgiving

As we surround the table laden with good things to eat, Thursday, lets give thanks to God for his many blessings.

We should also thank Him every day for His many favors.

C. OF G. BANQUET AT LITTLESTOWN About 230 Persons Dined At Banker's Restaurant

To the strains of the Hammond Electric Organ members of the Taneytown Chamber of Commerce and their guests dined at Banker's Restaurant, Littlestown, Pa., Thursday evening, Delmar Riffle presided at the console of the organ. Other music was in the form of accordion solos. Several vocal solos were given by Henry I. Reindollar, Jr., with his wife, Mrs. Reindollar as accompanist. Rev. Gideon Galambos offered the invocation.

Merwyn C. Fuss, President of the Chamber was the master of ceremonies and introduced the new members. This was the twenty-sixth annual affair for the Chamber which has a present membership of 145 persons on the roster. Group singing was enjoyed by those present.

The accordionist H. David Hagan, of Frederick, besides his instrumental offerings entertained the group with a number of light-of-hand tricks.

Success in business today, as in the past, is based on simple rules which apply to small as well as large enterprises. Jas. Q. du Pont, Administrative Assistant of the Public Relations Department of the du Pont Company, Wilmington, Del., said in his address. In his talk, "A Pattern for Success," Mr. du Pont stressed that there is no secret formula for success, but there is a formula which can be followed.

A great-great-grandson of the founder of the du Pont Company, Mr. du Pont cited examples from its history which has caused it to grow from a concern with almost no sales in 1802 to one selling about one billion eight hundred million dollars worth of goods in 1953.

One reason for this growth, he said, was the fact that the United States operates under our precious freedoms through risk taking, for advancement and development unheard of in the old world. In the face of increasing talk about "foreign ideologies," Mr. du Pont said, "Risks are the roadmaps to riches. Let us consider this carefully. Do we want to keep what we've won by taking big chances and go on improving it, or do we want to go backwards and lose all our God-given rights as human beings?"

In an atmosphere of freedom for development of brains and business enterprise, there are certain basic rules which can guide most concerns toward success, Mr. du Pont said. The core of this pattern, he said, is "right treatment of people."

The du Pont Company was a small business for many years, beginning, as a matter of fact, with only about 18 employees. He pointed out that the du Pont business was not the first "project" of his family in America, but its eighth. The other seven did not "pan out" for various reasons including the fact that some of these customers really need it?

Good gunpowder was needed in the development of the young Republic. People needed good ammunition for their personal and national protection and to bring in food for the family table. Other powder was being made and sold in the United States, but it was not as the product Elieuthere Irenée du Pont de Nemours knew how to make.

Having started out in 1802 with just one product and made a 100-year success of it, the du Pont Company continued to grow and develop into the present century largely because it then promptly adopted the policy of diversification, Mr. du Pont said. He added that the Company now makes thousands of products which contribute to the improvement of the standard of living of the American people and that it is continuously doing research, looking for still newer and better things.

A native of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, and a graduate of The Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Mr. du Pont has been associated with the du Pont Company since 1940. Although a trained engineer, he has been devoting most of his time since 1948 speaking at conventions and to service organizations, schools, and clubs throughout the United States.

C. E. MEETING Society of Church Workers At Keysville

Approximately 55 persons attended the countywide Christian Endeavor meeting in Keysville Lutheran church Sunday afternoon and evening with the Intermediate age group in charge. Mt. Union Society led the Devotional service with Miss Nancy Roelke as pianist and Robert Royer song leader. Prayer by Neal Bohn. Miss Beverly Priest introduced the guests. Theme: "Christ, the Tie that Binds".

Five Societies of the county were represented namely: Taneytown Evan. United Brethren, Wakefield Church of God, Mt. Union Lutheran and Keysville Lutheran. Other C. E. Societies of the State namely: Violettsville Methodist, Glen Burnie Methodist, Middle River Baptist, Baltimore; Mt. Rainier Christian, United Presbyterian, Washington, D. C.

Conferences were led by the Field Secretary, Charles O. Heyward, Miss Phyllis Foss and Nellie Griffin, of Baltimore. "Christ the Tie that Binds in the Home" was ably led by Mr. Heyward. Stating that many homes are neglected primarily by families not attending church or religious services together. Not praying together, or even Grace at meal time. The family that prays together stays together. As goes the home, so goes the Nation. Obscene literature, television and radio programs, are among our greatest barriers for spiritual training of youth today.

Miss Griffin spoke on "Christ the Tie that Binds during and after High School Days." We must have Christ in our lives first. We must be educated spiritually as well as physically. This is the age that Spiritual growth is often forgotten. This is the time to improve in your Sentence Prayers, and see how they will help.

Miss Foss led the Conference on "Christ the Tie that Binds" around the World." Stressing Genesis 1:1-27. "In the beginning God created male and female, all are equal. The Gospel is carried all over the world through our C. E. Friendship Tours, Missions, Literature, etc. So find your place where you can help.

Rev. Yaste gave a summary on the Conferences. Adjournment for lunch at 4:30 p. m. 6:30 p. m., the evening session began with song service. Offering, prayer followed by the film, "Kezli, of Zorzor" which was very inspirational on mission work. C. E. supports a full time missionary, Vivian Gay in Costa Rica. We enjoyed having our C. E. friends with us. Come again.

MEETING OF SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

The Graceful Workers Class met at the home of Mrs. Clyde Hesson on Nov. 17 with 18 members and 1 visitor present.

The meeting opened with the song, "The Beauty of the Earth," accompanied on the accordion by Miss Mary Shriver. Responsive reading was led by the hostess followed by prayer. Miss Shriver played several accordion selections for the group. Mrs. Geraldine Cluts and Mrs. Frances Stonedifer were named as program committee for our Christmas meeting.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: president, Mrs. Jerre Musser; vice-president, Mrs. Florence Wagny; secretary, Mrs. Mildred Anders; treasurer, Mrs. Sylvia Howarth. Names for Christmas sisters were drawn by the group. An auction was held and the class receipts were $14.60.

Games were played and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting to be held in the form of a Christmas dinner in the Parish house of the Church.

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP FOLLOWED

In the Presbyterian Church of Piney Creek—which has a fast growing youth group—a Westminster Fellowship was organized, last Monday. As first president of the fellowship, Carl Weant has been elected with 6 officers on his staff: Betty Stambaugh, Stewart Peterson, Walter Plank, Barbara Le Vee, Shirley Berkeleier, and Doris Bollinger. Rev. Galambos presided at this first meeting. With the co-operation of Walter Plank and with the consent of the pastor and president-elect, Carl Weant, a charter based on the "Youth for Christ" idea was presented to those who came to this meeting. The fellowship will convene every 14 days. In charge of the devotional service for the first meeting Dec. 6, are: George Crouse, Lee Rock and Larry Williams.

The Navy accumulates 400,000 cubic feet of records a year.

LIONS CLUB NEWS

Meeting Held at Taney Inn Tuesday Evening

Taneytown Lions met Tuesday evening at Taney Inn at 6:29 p. m., with President Wilbur Thomas as presiding. Invocation by Lion Curtis Bowers. We were happy to have Miss Judy Willier and Tommy Winebrenner from Union Bridge entertain us with several accordion selections.

Lion Ed Williar from the Union Bridge Club was a visiting guest. We were honored to have our District Governor of 22 W. Aaron G. Steiner of Lions International with us on his official visit to the Taneytown Lions Club. District Governor Steiner brought greetings from Lions International in Chicago and gave us his commendation on our one hundred per cent attendance for the past four months. He stated that Lions International will soon charter a club in Argentina, the sixty first country and the first behind the dark curtain which will be the first time we have had the opportunity to sit down and explain to these people the meaning of friendship and fellowship and how to make their communities a better place in which to live by helping those less fortunate than ourselves. Lion Steiner closed his remarks with a poem, "Fellowship of Friendship." Meeting adjourned at 8:05.

CARROLL CO. 4-HER WINS CHICAGO TRIP

Carl Weant 20, of RFD 1, Taneytown, Carroll county, will attend National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, November 28 through December 2, as an award for his fine work in 4-H junior leadership.

Carl, who became a 4-H'er at 16, started his leadership work in 1949 when he assisted the county agent to organize a 4-H Club among boys in the Horney area. He went with the agent and former 4-H members to see boys and their parents who might be interested.

Later a meeting was held at the Harner school, and the club was organized with 10 members. Carl was elected president. Within a few years the club grew to 24 members. Now there is talk of dividing the club because of its size.

Carl's first 4-H projects were dairy and swine. In 1950 his father, Lake Weant, bought him his first registered Guernsey heifer, and Carl has showed his animals in county and state fairs.

In January 1952 Carl attended a leaders tractor school at College Park; then went back to his county and organized a 4-H tractor club made up of 15 members from five different clubs. Carl was chosen leader. Eight meetings were held at homes through the cooperation of dealers. That year the club exhibited a tractor safety booth at the county fair.

Carl was again leader of the tractor maintenance club in 1953. He attended a local leaders conference and started a tractor program in his own local club with 17 members. The club had a tractor maintenance demonstration at the county fair that year.

Again this year Carl was in charge of the tractor program. His tractor club has 22 members. His boys took part in the county tractor driving contest and one of his boys, Donald Gunther, won first place.

This year Carl branched out and started a broiler project. His own project included 100 birds.

In 1953 Carl received the citizenship DAR award and the tractor maintenance award. This year he was delegate at the regional 4-H tractor conference in New York City and he gave a talk on the 4-H tractor program. He was also taken into the Maryland Chapter of All Stars, a 4-H honorary organization.

Carl graduated from Taneytown High School in 1952. He is a member and Sunday School teacher at Piney Creek Presbyterian Church, where he sings in the church choir. He is also steward of the Piney Creek Grange.

KEY CLUB NEWS

The Taneytown Key Club held its weekly meeting in room 102, on Nov. 17, at Taneytown High School. The club had one guest Mr. Clyde Hesson. Wayne Baumgardner called the meeting to order. Frank Henshaw read the minutes of the last meeting and Glen Copenhaver gave the treasurer's report.

A Key Club project, Parent's night, has been postponed.

Another postponement is the Key Club's monthly church visit. The date to attend the Reformed Church has been moved to Nov. 28.

Mr. Hesson was kind enough to explain the fundamentals of banking. Clyde Weant and Robert Royer will attend Kiwanis this week.

Next week's meeting will be in charge of Robert Fitz.

HOUSE-WARMING PARTY

A surprise house warming was given in the new home of Mrs. Mary Bowers, daughter, Linda and son Larry, Mayberry road.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bowers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rodkey, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rodkey, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Wantz and family, Mrs. Ralph Koons, Mrs. Denton Wantz, Miss Bessie Yingling, Mrs. Louis Baer, Mrs. Charles Humbert, Mrs. Stanley Stonesifer, Mrs. Leonard Gartrell, Mrs. Richard Cole and family, Mrs. Russell Bloom, Mrs. Noah Warehime, Mrs. Cecil Greene, Mrs. Allen Morelock, Mrs. Noah Babylon, Mrs. M. S. Reifsnnyder, Mrs. Richard Hartman, Miss Ada Stonesifer and Miss Margaret Woodward.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Talking with the used car salesman. He stating there were so many trades ins on the new cars that there will be plenty of used ones to sell for a long time.

Gazing and admiring the beautiful pictures in Baltimore in the May Company window of Fall scenes. Then another lady looking at me and asking my selection for the living room. I suggested the one with the Ducks in the huge pond with a colorful yellow tree and also a red one with the leaves upon the ground.

Placing in all the storm windows in the Parsonage!

Phoning to that nice American Legion in Bel Air for help for a little Mother with four small children who were in great distress!

Finishing reading the final chapter of "I'll Cry Tomorrow" a true story by Lillian Roth. Every one who drinks should read that story and even those who do not!

Gazing upon the pictures loaned to me from the Photographic History of the Civil War which are actual photographs. Copyright 1911 by Patriot Publishing Co. Underneath one picture it states at the beginning of the Civil War the M.Y.C.A. formed a special organization called the U.S. Christian Commission and was undenominational and it brought joy in unexpected ways to the soldier's heart! It goes on to state that the YMCA is a great organization and has much to its credit but nothing it has done out shines in service to mankind this work of four years from 1861 to the surrender at Appomattox!

There is a grand photograph of a Confederate Spy in Prison—Mrs. Greenhow and her little daughter, a well-born, cultured and rich lady. She languished in a prison cell and dared death in her desire to help the South. She was of an old Maryland family and resided in Washington amongst exclusive society many years before the War and all Political men knew her well. It was Jefferson Davis who said to her, "But for you, there would have been no Battle of Bull Run!" for it was she who warned the Confederates of the approaching Union Army!

A letter arriving from a Pennsylvania Railroad official that he would look into the matter as to that awful dirty and unkept Harve de Grace station. (Of which I complained)

The grand "Shower" for a very special couple who are to be married on Thanksgiving.

Attending the wedding in the very old Mt. Vernon Church in the country which climaxed the most interesting and romantic romance I have ever heard! It was truly a storybook wedding of yester year.

The thrill of hearing my daughter and her teacher sing a duet "Guide Me, Oh Thou Great Jehovah" as though I was listening to the voices of Nelson Eddy and Jeanette MacDonald!

Going to school last week was simply wonderful to see and hear the children in the class rooms and of the fine work exhibited throughout the school. In a Math Room above the blackboard were big signs from "Rialston" which read and which I observed immediately, "Be a good listener, listen with your eyes", "Youth is a wonderful thing. It's a shame to waste it on young people", "He can who thinks he can". And the fourth and last "Excuses only satisfy the man who makes them".

And here's another nice salad which could be served at any meal or even for a meal itself. You may just have everything right there in the refrigerator as I did! Cut lettuce into small pieces, also several peppers (red or green or both) one small onion, three large carrots grated plus the best mayonnaise (Hellman's) "never" salad dressing. Very nutritious!

Feather Dusters are truly all the thing these days as yesteryear I have always been under the impression that they just put the dust to another place. With a cloth you can pick up the dust and fold the cloth for the same procedure all the time and then shake out the cloth outdoors in which ever way the wind is blowing. Eh?

All the beautiful colored leaves are gone and the trees are barren now but then it means that my neighbors are close to me as their homes are visible once again. Baking the many bushels of leaves was really a task at the bungalow but the aroma of the burning of the leaves made up for it all!

Winter is just around the corner and Christmas will soon be upon us. There are many Santas in the stores already which appear immediately around Thanksgiving time. Whatever you do this year, don't make bills for the family gifts which will take months to pay. A Gentleman who is a very hard working individual wrote to ask me such a question. He stated he is still paying bills from last Christmas! To that one, I say, "Thereortablas!"

Did you have any of your Thanksgiving turkey left? There are many ways to make it still go further rather than have it cold. Cut off all the meat into small pieces plus a large stalk of celery cut into pieces and add just enough water to heat through. Make a thick cream sauce and add the turkey. Then cut hard boiled eggs in half for a topping and a sprig of parsley here and there and place on a large platter. Ummm good! Thinking about eats another letter arrived a few weeks ago asking me if it were true that I had stated in a previous column that meat has given me the strength and health I have right now.

Yes, that is a fact—every day good beef was given to us fixed or prepared.

THANKSGIVING

This year the people of the world will have many reasons to be thankful. The guns of war have been silenced. No longer are the youth exposed to the wanton slaughter of warfare. Many scourges of sickness have been eliminated by our scientists. Hope for a cure for a few incurable diseases is very present.

Fewer people know the pangs of hunger. A better distribution of the world's good things makes for a happy and peaceful people.

Yes, there are many things for which to be thankful.

Let us give thanks for our many blessings—more especially on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday.

THE BIBLE SOCIETY AND ITS BOOK

Year in, year out, the Holy Bible continues to outsell all other books and is today in greater demand than ever before in the history of Christendom. Last year the American Bible Society distributed more than 15 million Bibles, Testaments and Gospels, in 144 languages to people all over the world.

In a December Reader's Digest article, Don Wharton recounts the work of the Society over more than a century, and tells some strange facts about The Book. Nonsectarian and nonprofit, the Society sells its Bibles at or below cost; sometimes gives them away—to troops and others. Losses are made up by 49 church denominations and by individual contributions.

Some 70 languages into which the Bible has been translated did not exist in written form until they were reduced to writing by the Society's Bible translator—"an achievement without parallel in the creation of written languages", Wharton states.

To date, a book or more of the Bible has been put into 1077 tongues. Thus 90 percent of the world's people now have some portion of the Scriptures in their native language.

The American Bible Society was organized in 1816 to put Bibles in homes cut off from their British supply by the Revolution and the War of 1812. The leader in the founding, Elias Boudinot, had been President of the Continental Congress and a close friend of George Washington. He headed the Society during its first years and was succeeded by John Jay, the nation's first Chief Justice.

By 1854 the Bible was being printed in 13 languages. During the Civil War the Society supplied Union and Confederate troops with more than five million free copies of the Scriptures. After the war's end tens of thousands were shipped South for the ex-slaves.

Throughout World War II the Society distributed 297,000 copies of the Bible to Russian prisoners in Germany. Despite increasing opposition of the Communists, more than three million copies have been distributed in China since the Red occupation of Shanghai.

No Bibles enter Russia officially these days, the article notes. "But the Society is not greatly concerned. It has encountered closed doors before, and has seen them open. For 138 years it has been the Society's daily purpose to feed the world's spiritual hunger. It has on hand nearly one million copies of the Bible in Russian. It expects to deliver them all, and more, in God's own time."

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

PINE BLUFF, ARK., COMMERCIAL: "A small town is a place where everybody knows what everybody else is doing, but they read the local paper to see if they've been caught at it."
HAMILTON, TEX. HERALD-

NEWS: "When a community asks for a Federal grant for anything at all, they are asking the government to give them back a part of the money that has been taken from them in taxes. This comes after a large number of bureaucrats have taken a dip for unnecessary services."

TERRE HAUTE, IND., ADVOCATE: "J. L. Monroe, the Association of American Railroads' Vice-President, told the annual meeting of the Railway Tie Association that the railroads were faced with increasingly tough competition—much of it subsidized by the government. Monroe warned that the country could not afford to let its railroads get into an unhealthy state because of the vital role the railroads play in times of national emergency. Monroe is, of course, right in this contention that railroads are a most vital part of any country's defense system. It is also true that there is no time to build sufficient cars and other rolling stock once a national emergency arises."

BEAVER FALLS, PA., NEWS-TRIBUNE: "Courtesy costs nothing. It makes living easier and more pleasant. The employee, or the self-employed, no matter how hard he works, is giving less than his best if he forgets the need for courtesy in dealing with people."

MOTION PICTURE SHOWN AT CLUB MEETING

"Citizen Dave Douglas", a splendidly produced motion picture, brought home to members and guests of the Kiwanis Club of Taneytown, Wednesday evening, Nov. 10, 1954, a compelling lesson in the good that can result from a personal interest in governmental affairs by even the most inconspicuous of individuals and their families.

The picture told the story of an ordinary man, Dave Douglas, played by Lyle Talbot. It showed how he and his family, with help engendered from others, aroused a whole community to recognition of governmental abuses and tax inequalities that eventually led to a national recognition of the problems involved accompanied by a demand for their correction. Through an interesting series of events, Douglas discovered that more than 40,000 profit-making business concerns, chiefly composed of co-operative and mutual corporations, are permitted by law and Treasury regulations to escape all or most of the Federal income taxes on their corporate profits. It pointed out the tremendous disadvantage imposed upon taxpaying businesses forced to compete against these tax-favored competitors. In the picture, Dave Douglas had no easy time of it. He was often discouraged and many times disillusioned. However, as a citizen he believed it was his duty to inform his community of the situation. At one time he was on the point of giving up. Unexpectedly, help came to him from two sources: one was Judge Barton, a candidate for Congress; the other was the local newspaper man, Ned Calvin. With the help of the Judge and the support of Mr. Calvin's newspaper, the movement to correct tax injustice spread across the nation with the result that thousands of protests and letters poured upon the members of Congress urging them to immediately eliminate tax-favoritism. The picture ends with the thought that the impact of the public opinion created by the efforts of one man and his family eventually resulted in legislation taking away the tax privileges of the favored groups.

The film was a stern lesson in the need for individual interest in public affairs. The theme of the picture is epitomized in the scene in which Judge Barton swears in a group of new naturalized American citizens. In that scene he makes this very effective statement: "The oath of allegiance you are about to take, plus the papers you will receive, will not make you citizens of the United States." "These things give you only the rights and privileges of citizenship. You make true citizens of yourself in the ways you assume your responsibilities as such. You do this by taking a personal and active part in the affairs of your community and the nation. You vote. You serve on the jury when called. You pay your taxes honestly. You respect and obey the laws."

"And, you use your voice, your right of free speech to call public and governmental attention to the facts about anything you feel is unfair or harmful to you and your nation."

"That is the only way to be a citizen and not just a tenant of the United States."

SHOPPERS CAN'T SHOP BECAUSE CLERKS DON'T CLERK—

The Michigan Farm Bureau service tried out a sales efficiency check in Lansing, Mich., stores during Easter week. They sent out 27 of their branch managers with $10 each with instructions to spend it all quick—within a half hour. The frustrated shoppers returned at the end of the specified period with the report that they had spent only $56.80 of the $270 because clerks couldn't or wouldn't wait on them. Not one of the shoppers had been able to spend his full $10 and abide by the rules. Most reported a tremendous indifference on the part of the clerks, most of them completely ignoring the customers. Maybe that's the reason for the "recession".

X-Ray Sees TB

The doctor can "see" tuberculosis in an X-ray picture before there are outward symptoms of the disease. Mass X-ray surveys of apparently healthy people to find unsuspected cases of TB are aided by the Christmas Seal Sale now being conducted by the voluntary tuberculosis associations.

Make Your Own Santa and Reindeer

HERE'S A JOLLY THREESOME—Santa, sleigh and reindeer—you can make yourself to decorate your home this Christmas. They are easy to make out of plywood or hard board from full-size paper patterns. These patterns, featured in the November Woman's Home Companion, come separately. You can put Santa indoors by the fireplace, the sleigh piled with packages on the porch, the reindeer prancing along on the lawn, or use all three as shown above. (ANS)

AMERICANS SMOKED 392 BILLION CIGARETTES IN 1952. IF LAID END-TO-END THIS NUMBER WOULD STRETCH 18 1/2 MILLION MILES, OR 740 TIMES AROUND THE WORLD AT THE EQUATOR. IF THIS NUMBER HAD BEEN DIVIDED AMONG THOSE BETWEEN 20 AND 60 YEARS OF AGE, IT WOULD HAVE MEANT 215 PACKAGES OF CIGARETTES FOR EACH PERSON.

CURRENT EVENTS
FIFTY YEARS AGO

The Drum Corps, Fire Company and Band, with the "Juniors", gave a street parade, Thanksgiving Day afternoon. The business houses were generally closed, and the day, on account of disagreeable weather conditions, was rather dull and quiet.

The receipts of the Firemen's Thanksgiving Dinner including contributions amounted to $130.00.

Alva O. Reid, of Niagara Falls, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Reid, was married at the English parsonage to Miss Jessie Price, of Clifton, Toronto, Canada, on Thanksgiving morning. His many friends here wish him a happy and prosperous future.

Prof. Howard Slagenhaupt, formerly of Taneytown, who is teaching at Laurel, Del., is at his home in Littlestown, the schools at Laurel having been closed on account of an epidemic of typhoid fever.

The standpipe was dressed with a brand new shiny black suit this week, the first it has had since it was built.

The Carroll County Grange will meet in the Opera House, Taneytown, on Saturday, December 3rd. The meeting in the afternoon will be public.

David M. and Samuel H. Mehring are now full legal owners of the Central Hotel, a property which has had, until now, a somewhat varied history.

Taneytown Celebrates.—Torchlight Parade in honor of Republican victory.

The Republican demonstration in Taneytown, on Tuesday night, in celebration of the election of Roosevelt and Fairbanks, attracted an immense crowd of people.

For over an hour the parade was in motion. The First Regiment Band of Westminster, Double Pipe Creek Band, Union Bridge drum corps, Mayberry Band and Taneytown Band and drum corps, furnished the music and large delegations were present from Union Bridge, York Road, Mayberry, Middleburg, Harney and other points.

There were numerous decorated wagons, floats and grotesquely costumed riders, as well as torchbearers, both on foot and horseback.

Rapp-Koons.—George Albert Rapp and Miss Ella B. Koons both popular residents of Taneytown, were united in marriage, on Tuesday afternoon, at the home of the latter, by the Rev. Wm. E. Wheeler, pastor-elect of the church. Mr. Rapp is chief painter at J. H. Reindollar's coach works, and is an expert in his line; the bride is a daughter of Mrs. Wallace Koons.

WM. WINCHESTER CHAPTER MEETS AT THE HISTORICAL HOUSE

The William Winchester Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution met at the Carroll County Historical House on Friday, Nov. 12, 1954 at 2 p. m. Mrs. F. Donald Shriver and Mrs. Edgar G. Barnes, co-hostesses. Mrs. Wesley A. Pickens, Regent, conducted the meeting which was opened with a prayer by the chaplain, Miss M. Louise Mathews. The minutes of the September meeting was read by Mrs. Helen Reese, Treas., due to the absence of Mrs. Frank T. Parish, Recording Secretary. Following the reading of the Treasurer's report a welcome ceremony to the new member, Mrs. Cameron Lee, was conducted by the Regent. The President General's message from the November issue of the National DAR magazine was read by Mrs. James T. Marsh. This was followed by a five minute program on National Defense.

Mrs. Edgar G. Barnes, State Registrar, reported on the meeting of the State Board of Management, State Society DAR which was held in Baltimore last week. Thumbnail historical sketches of the chapters are to be compiled by the State Historians during the year. Members of the chapter are asked to send old clippings or pictures of previous meetings and activities to Miss Bessie Clemson.

A finance committee of four members, Mrs. James T. Marsh, Chairman, Mrs. Harry C. Reese, Mrs. F. Donald Shriver and Mrs. Wilbur M. Shreeve, was appointed by the regent to plan the budget for the ensuing year. The committee will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 30, at 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Harry C. Reese, Uniontown road.

Mrs. Allen Feeser, chairman of the Chapter House Committee paid tribute to Mrs. J. Pearre Wantz, Sr., Organizing Regent of the chapter, who worked so diligently and efficiently during the formative years and later guiding and helping those who followed as regents. Miss Janet Thomas, Chairman of the State Chapter House accepted an antique mahogany tilt top table which will be placed in the chapter house. Presented by Mrs. Feeser, the table is given in memory of Mrs. Wantz and bears an engraved plate provided by her daughter, Mrs. David H. Taylor.

Mrs. Irving L. Browhan, State Chairman of Approved Schools gave an interesting talk on the approved schools stressing the present need of equipment and used clothing. The chapter will send boxes of used clothing to the schools late this month. Members are urged to send clothing to Mrs. Wilbur M. Shreeve, Chapter Chairman.

Good Citizenship Medals were presented to the outstanding boy and girl in the county 4-H clubs, Nov. 4, 4-H achievement night. Nellie Polk Dorsey, Freedom Club, and Pete Judge, Hillsdale Club, received medals which were presented by Mrs. James T. Marsh.

Guests were, Miss Janet Thomas, Mrs. Irving L. Browhan, and Mrs. Henry P. Hall, Baltimore, Mrs. Norman B. Boyle, Mrs. Russell Benson and Mrs. Samuel Bare of Westminster. Following the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Wesley A. Pickens presided at the tea table.

The next chapter meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. David H. Taylor at 1:30 p. m. Dec. 10th.

About 923 per cent of the Nation's 5,382,134 farms had electric service as of June 30, 1954, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This compares with 90.8 per cent electrified on June 30, 1953, and 77.2 per cent electrified at the time of the 1950 Census.

THANKSGIVING

We're thankful on Thanksgiving day, For all good things that comes our way.

We're thankful to our God above, For the Great Redeemer's love, We're thankful for our nation great, We're thankful for our church and state.

For our town we love so well, And for our neighbors that are swell, For our home and loved ones too, And for the love that is so true, We're thankful for our life and health, We're thankful for our little wealth, We're thankful for our work and play, That we must meet from day to day, We're thankful for the food we eat, That helps to make our life complete, We're thankful for the clothes we wear.

We have enough and some to spare, We're thankful then that we can share With the ones who need our care, We're thankful for the sun and rain, And for the fields of golden grain, We're thankful when the clouds roll by,

There's a silver lining in the sky, We're thankful that there is no war, And may there never be no more, We're thankful then that we have peace,

And may it never, never cease, We're thankful for our flag unfurled, That brings help to all the world, We're thankful for the world so good, We're thankful for the brotherhood, We're thankful too, once in a while, That we can give a pleasant smile, There are many blessings by the score That we are very thankful for, And still there's many blessings yet, That we receive and then forget, When we're unthankful now and then, Forgive us all, dear Lord, Amen.

POLANDMEN TO MEET AT INTERNATIONAL SHOW

According to word received by Jas. Ricketts local Poland China breeder, the 76th annual meeting of the Poland China Swine Registry Association will be held in Chicago on Tuesday evening of "International" week. This great Chicago Meat Animal Classic always falls on the week following Thanksgiving.

The Poland China is the world's largest swine registry, with more than 2½ million hogs recorded to date. Its annual convention draws breeders from all major hog producing states. One of the special features of the banquet which will be held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 30 is the presentation of trophies to the exhibitors of Grand Champion barrows over all breeds at State Fairs and National Shows.

Singled out for special recognition this year is the Illinois 4-H club boy, Roland Anderson, of Leland, Illinois, who exhibited the Grand Champion barrow over all breeds at this year's National Barrow Show. His 230 lb. Poland China swept aside all competition at the Austin, Minnesota show which is popularly referred to as the "World Series of Swineedom." He will again be a competitor at the International, where he has three Grand Championships over all breeds with his Poland to his credit.

The banquet will be followed by a business meeting and the election of officers.

IN THE INTEREST OF RETARDED CHILDREN

The Carroll County Association for Retarded Children held its first meeting on Thursday, Nov. 11, at 8 p. m. at the Carroll County Medical Center.

Mrs. Josi Hirsh, Psychologist, introduced the speaker for the evening, Mr. Sigmund Poland of the Maryland Coordinating Council for Retarded Children, Inc. Dr. Lyndon Myers was appointed as temporary chairman, and Mrs. James R. Langdon as temporary secretary-treasurer. It was decided that the Association would meet on the first Wednesday, of each month, the next meeting to be on Wednesday, Dec. 1, at 8 p. m. at the Carroll County Medical Center.

FEESERSBURG

(A Voice From Carroll)

We will celebrate this week our annual Thanksgiving Day. Like most customs, this day has changed somewhat with the changing times. The turkey still holds its honored place on the menu, but the traditional dinner with food piled above one's chin on a high dining table is on its way out. This year frozen TV turkey dinners are being advertised and there will be hundreds and hundreds of families who will buy them and eat them in front of their television sets. There is much to be said in favor of this form of Thanksgiving dinner but to those of us, use to a family get-together at grandmothers house, a TV dinner leaves us cold. One of the strongest links in our national life is the family tie and no where does this show itself more than at Thanksgiving day. For most people make a special effort to return to their parents home and to the small towns where they grew up. This is the day set aside to bring the newest grandchild home to be overwhelmed and bored by the grandparents, aunts and uncles. This is the day when young Johnnie shows off his new convertible to his envious cousins and this is the day that Susie flaunts her half carat diamond on her left hand to an admiring and relieved audience. This is the day that grandfather for the tenth time says he is retiring and Grandmother says she is getting too old to fix next years dinner for thirty people. This is the day when Uncle Jim shows films of his trip to Alaska and Aunt Alice displays her son's picture in the uniform of an air force cadet. This is America's day of family living—it's pride—it's false illusions—it's deep contentments and it's way of saying "thanks" to a bountiful past and a promising future.

No visitor to the United States at any time has made himself more popular with American dairy farmers than premier Mendes-France. He drinks milk instead of wine which in France is equivalent to Liberece playing a bagpipe instead of the piano, or seeing Godfrey drinking Nescafe instead of Liptons tea. We just wish the Premier of France could have tarried long enough in Washington to have converted some of our official hostesses into serving milk products instead of so many bubbling beverages. The women have a fool-proof alibi as to why they don't drink milk—their bulging waist lines. At least they think its fool proof but actually milk alone will not put on weight.

The teen-age group from the Mt. Union Christian Endeavor Society enjoyed a day of Fellowship with the Keysville group on Sunday, at the Keysville Lutheran church. There was a continuous program beginning at 3 p. m. and lasting until 9 p. m. Supper was served at 5 p. m. Rev. Donald Warrenfeltz and Mrs. Claude Bohn accompanied the young people from Mt. Union. Rev. Yaste and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide were the leaders of the Keysville group.

Maryland farmers should be on the look out for a new breed of rabbit said to be located in near-by Pennsylvania. These rabbits are being brought into the Keystone state by sportsmen and there is no law to stop them. This new breed of rabbit is very destructive. One island off the coast of Spain was stocked with these rabbits and the rabbits not only ate all the vegetation, but burrowed tunnels under all the buildings which caused the buildings to collapse. So far none of these rabbits have been seen in Maryland, but it wouldn't take a rabbit long to jump the boundary line and knowing the breeding habits of this animal it wouldn't take long for one pair to produce enough ancestors to stock the whole United States.

Dr. Vincent Peale has a new book out called "The Power of Positive Thinking." It is leading all book sales in the non-fiction class, and anyone familiar with Dr. Peale's writings and sermons will understand why. Dr. Peale has combined the Christian Philosophy with Psychiatry and the results have proven the answer to millions of persons seeking guidance and help in solving their social and emotional problems. Dr. Peale offers positive action in solving problems instead of the passive resignation attitude most religious leaders assume. Dr. Peale believes that religion is a seven days a week adventure and not just an excursion on Sunday.

As the problem of discipline in our schools looms up as the number one headache facing parents and teachers today the parents where they have failed. Ask themselves where they have failed. For, much as we parents hate to admit it, the responsibility for unruly children are the results of our training or lack of it. When we adults look back upon our own parents and the means they used to control us, we have to admit that spanking was our greatest fear and our most effective punishment. The next means of punishment and the next most effective was the taking away of privileges. In a recent interview by Gallup about 40 per cent of parents believed in spanking, while 25 per cent believed in denying the child privileges. Each child is different, and one form of punishment can be more effective than another but it is this parents opinion that no child can be raised with any respect for authority without a decided spanking once in awhile up to the age of nine. And the teachers should be given the authority to spank children under certain conditions too. While many parents may disagree violently with this, they cannot deny that something drastic must be done to make the children respect their teachers and schools more. It is alarming to hear about some of our teachers and discourtesy in our local school, from boys and girls whose parents no doubt are ignorant of what is going on in the class rooms. We write often about the shortcomings of our schools and now it is time to write about the shortcomings of ourselves as parents of school children. Let us view our children through the eyes of the teachers once in a while and maybe then we will see Mary and Jimmy in a new light. A teacher recently told me that the greatest contribution parents could make toward a better school system was to send the teachers well nattered boys and girls.

Every American boy grows up with the chance of becoming president—that is just one of the chances he has to take.

Like one Senator said—there seems to be more politics in Joe McCarthy's elbow than pain.

Among the many blessings we have to be thankful for on Thursday is the right to think and speak out loud.—Ruth Roelke.

MARRIED

WEAVER-FREEMAN

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Holiness Christian Church, Keymar, Md., at 2:30 p. m. on Sept. 25, 1954. Miss Lois Margaret Freeman, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. P. E. Freeman, Keymar, became the bride of William Lawrence Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle Weaver, Littlestown, Pa. Rev. Paul E. Freeman, father of the bride, officiated. He was assisted by Rev. Albert Kehler, Carlisle, Pa. The church was decorated with white gladiolus, palms, ferns and lighted candles. Miss Bertie Devilbiss, organist, played the traditional wedding marches. Miss Doris Scarborough, aunt of the bride, was soloist. She sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "Always." The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white waltz-length gown of chantilly lace with a pleated skirt of net over satin, topped by a chantilly lace jacket, with a peter pan neckline and long sleeves tapering to points over her hands. Her fingertip veil of illusion, edged with chantilly lace fell from a Juliet pearl trimmed cap. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid from which hung white streamers entwined with stippled flowers. Miss Rebecca Freeman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length gown of yellow organdy. It featured a scalloped neckline, wide sash and full skirt, with a headdress of white flowers and veil, and carried a bouquet of pastel colored chrysanthemums and pompons with rainbow ribbon. Miss Shirley Furry, Union Bridge, and Miss Virginia Shorb, Rocky Ridge, friends of the bride were bridesmaids. They wore pink and blue ballerina-length gowns matching that of the maid of honor and carried matching bouquets. Pvt. Wade Weaver brother of the groom, served as bestman.

Ushers were Stuart and Robert Peterson, Littlestown, Pa. Mrs. Paul Freeman mother of the bride, wore a black suit with black and white accessories and a corsage of pink and blue pompons. Mrs. Hoyle Weaver, mother of the groom, wore a gray suit with navy blue accessories and a corsage of pink and blue pompons.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Union Bridge Firemen's Hall for about 225 guests. The bride chose for her traveling a knitted suit of turquoise, blue with white trim, red accessories, and an orchid corsage. The couple and an orchid corsage. The bride took a short trip to Wilmington, Del. They are now residing at 104 Wimert Avenue, Westminster, Md. The bride is a 1954 graduate of Elmer Wolfe High School and entered the Western Maryland College this fall. The groom is a 1952 graduate of Taneytown High School.

DAYHOFF — STOVER KRUG — STOVER

Two sisters, Misses Ruthanna Stover and Mary Christine Stover daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stover, near Taneytown, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony, on Friday, November 19th, in the Lutheran church parsonage, in Cumberland, by the Rev. Hickman Bowerson, uncle of one of the grooms.

Ruthanna became the bride of Earl Whitehill Dayhoff, New Midway, son of Mrs. Rhoda Dayhoff and the late Mr. Raymond Dayhoff Taneytown.

Mary Christine became the bride of Roland Krug, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Krug near Taneytown.

After a short wedding trip together the couples returned to the home of the brides where they will stay until January 1st, when they will live in Taneytown.

WEISHAAR—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, JAMES CLEVELAND WEISHAAR who passed away one year ago, November 28, 1953.

The stars are shining brightly, Upon a silent grave, In it lies our precious one We loved but could not save.

He bade none a last farewell He said goodbye to none, His loving heart just ceased to beat, And suddenly he was gone.

He had a smile for everyone, A heart as good as gold, To those who knew and loved him, Memories will never grow old.

Though his smile is gone forever And his face we cannot touch, We will never lose sweet memories Of the one we loved so much.

By his WIFE and CHILDREN and great-grandson IN MEMORIAM

WEISHAAR—In sad but loving memory of my dear father, JAMES CLEVELAND WEISHAAR, who passed away one year ago, Nov. 28, 1953.

A happy home we once enjoyed, How sweet the memory still, But death has left a loneliness The world can never fill.

A beautiful memory, a smiling face, A broken link we can't replace, Till memory fades and life departs.

You bade no one a last farewell, You said goodbye to none, Your loving heart just ceased to beat, And suddenly you were gone.

We often look at your photograph, You are smiling and seem to say, Don't grieve for me, I'm only resting, For we will meet again some day.

Your memory is all we have now, Your cares are all at rest, You will not be forgotten, dear father, By the ones who loved you best.

By his daughter and grandchildren MRS. HELEN M. RIPPEON WEISHAAR, James Cleveland one year ago the 28th.

I do not forget you Nor do I intend I think of you often, And will till the end. Gone and forgotten by some you may be But dear to my memory you ever will be.

By his Grandson ELMER E. RIPPEON USN IN MEMORIAM

STRUBINGER and KEEFER—In memory of our dear daughters, Oneda Hiltbricker Strubinger and Ethel Hiltbricker Keefer

Flowers will bloom in the Summer, In the Autumn it will rain, But the face of our dear loved ones, We would like to see again.

We saw you fading like a flower, But could not make you stay, We nursed you with tender kindness, Until God called you away.

The world may change from year to year And friends change from day to day, But never will the one we loved, From memory pass away.

By parents and sister, MR. and MRS. WALTER HILTEBRICK and MRS. JACK HESLEY.

IN MEMORIAM In loving remembrance of our beloved husband and father, CHARLES A. BAKER, who departed this life two years ago November 27, 1952

Two years have passed since that sad day, When you left without saying "Good-bye", For you were taken so quickly away And we know not how or why.

Only those who have lost can tell, The pain of parting without a farewell To have, to love, and then to part, Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.

Because God knew your work was o'er, Your children taught and grown, He called you Dad to come and dwell Where no more work is done.

When the golden sun doth never set And the sky's forever blue, Is there we hope in God's good time Dear Dad to be with you.

Sadly missed by his WIFE and CHILDREN Your not forgotten dear Grandfather Nor ever shall you be As long as life and memory last We shall remember thee.

For all of us, you did your best, O God, grant you eternal rest. By his GRANDCHILDREN

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

(Continued from first page) ed in some way or other and always rare—never cooked as some say like a piece of shoe leather. Meat should never be cooked that way. Every small child should be served meat once daily and you will see him thrive in no time. Another lady writes that she only has a very small room to do the rolling exercise and asks what she should do. Move the furniture back as far as you possibly can and roll over even if it is only twice or three times. That will suffice and bring about results. Do this to the tune of one record. There is a new little gadget out now which I saw on T.V. the other night in "The Citrus Fruit" 20 Questions program. It is a "Shorter Cut" for Grape Fruit. You can send for one for 35 cents. That show comes on Tuesday evenings. Watch for it for details.

Have you used Pream? It is really "The new way to cream it" is to "PREAM" it! Send for a free booklet to Sally Ross, Box 959-d Columbus 16 Ohio. That way you will and can have "Cream" in your house all the time. And the nice part is that "Pream" will keep even without refrigeration. A spoonful of Pream on top of your hot coffee instantly dissolves and I am sure you will like that one for the convenience plus the goodness!

A middle aged husband writes to ask me what kind of a gift he should buy his lovely wife for Christmas. Whatever you do, please purchase something personal as your lady will love you for it. Not something around the house which you would purchase any time for you know you will get that gift to the house anyway!

All women love expensive perfume, a fine hand bag, a very special crocheted stole in white or pastel shade (whichever one would be more becoming) then there is the jewelry today as to very handsome pieces.

The "Torsio" dresses are in good. Ladies and getting more "Torsio" all the time! Those "Can-Can" petticoats are truly glamorous and there are racks full in every store of every type and description for that nice daughter of yours! The prices vary.

A letter arrived recently from a woman in W. Virginia who was surprised that I did not like West Virginia! To that one, I must reply that on clear days, I love the drive all over the mountains but I would not have any desire to live in that State just as I feel about Maryland. I prefer this State in preference to Pennsylvania although I was born in Philadelphia. (Never look through Narrow Windows regardless of the subject!)

Mrs. Housewife, don't forget to purchase KEEBLER'S TALL HOUSE COOKIES! They are as fine as their advertisement! Ummmm good! So delicious for a midnight snack or lunch or soups!

Visiting "the Food Show" at the Armory last Thursday night was interesting and I learned much by asking questions. First of all I was amazed to learn that 16,000 nightly arrive and on Sunday afternoon there were 18,000! This one you will be glad to know. Very often you have heard someone say, "Hot Dogs" always taste so much better outdoors than at home! The better to that one is, never, never boil them, instead grill, broil, steam or fry them as they are cooked already when you buy them. Then I learned from the manager of "Majestic" products that good Mayonnaise can be tested in this manner before purchasing. "Remove the lid and hold it upside down and if the contents still remain put that is excellent Mayonnaise". The manager told me very frankly that "Hellman's (my favorite) uses more eggs than Majestic as the latter uses more vegetable oil!" "Spoon Bread" is new on the market only since March 4 and that one from Roanoke, Va. The very first cookbook in America was called "The Competent Housewife", published in Williamsburg by William Parks which was merely a revision of one published in England for the English. It has another name, too, "Accomplished Gentlewoman's Companion". That was the year of 1742. As to "Spoon Bread" it is a mix, only water to be added and can be purchased in any grocery. The President has asked each Governor of all States to cooperate in making safe driving Day program a success. Our Governor has set the date for December 15. The goal is for every community in this broad, motorized land to go through that period without a single accident. You and you and you try to do your part and keep it that way for 365 days of the year! And here's a cute one seen in a Knotty Pine living room. "Ve git too soon oldt and too late schmart!"

Have a grand week end, Folks. Be zood and be careful. Until next week D. V.

Faithfully, YOUR OBSERVER

20th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

On Sunday, November 21, at 2 o'clock a very pleasant surprise was given in the social room of Trinity Lutheran church, Taneytown, Md., in honor of the 20th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dougherty who were married on Nov. 17th, 1934, in the Woodboro Lutheran parsonage by the Rev. J. Frank Fife.

After an enjoyable program delicious refreshments were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dougherty and son, Harry, Jr.; Rev. and Mrs. Glenn Stahl and son Barry and daughter, Cheryl Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Stitely, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wantz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wolf and daughter, Patricia; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dougherty and sons, Ronald and Harold and daughter, Lois Elaine; Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Stitely, Jr. and Mrs. Carroll Dougherty and son, Larry; Mr. and Mrs. George Bohn and son Darrell and daughter, Nancy; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anders and son, Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lind and son, Dale and daughter, Joan Louise; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walters and daughter, Patricia; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ashbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. James Fair and son, Dennis and daughters, Diana and Beverly; Miss JoAnn Wolfe, Mrs. Della Liday, Mrs. Mildred Dougherty.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Koontz, Taneytown RD No. 1, observed their Golden Wedding anniversary Tuesday evening, Nov. 16. A dinner was served in their honor at Bankers Restaurant.

Theodore B. Koontz, son of the late Abraham and Clementine Koontz and the former Sarah Dutterer, daughter of the late Jerome and Mary Ellen Dutterer of Silver Run, were married Nov. 16, 1904 at the home of the bride by the Rev. J. Stewart Hartman, pastor of St. Mary's Reformed Church Silver Run. They are the parents of two children, Mr. Vernon L. Koontz and Mrs. Norman Houck, both of Taneytown. There are three grand-children and one great-grand-daughter.

Those attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Koontz, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Koontz, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Houck, Pfc. and Mrs. Richard Koontz, Shirley and Bernard Koontz.

FATHER

A Father is a thing that is forced to endure childbirth without an anesthetic.

A Father is a thing that growls when it feels good and laughs loud when he's scared.

A Father never feels worthy of the worship in a child's eye. He's never quite the hero his daughter thinks, never quite the man his son believes him to be, and this worries him, sometimes. So he works too hard to try and smooth the rough places for those of his own who will follow him.

A Father is a thing that gets very angry when the first school grades aren't as good as he thinks they should be. He scolds his son, though he knows it's the teacher's fault.

Fathers are what give daughters away to other men who aren't nearly good enough, so they can have grandchildren who are smarter than anybody's.

Fathers make bets with insurance companies about who will live the longer. One day they lose and the bet's paid off to the part of them they leave behind.

I don't know where Father goes when he dies. But I've an idea after a good rest, wherever it is, he won't just sit on a cloud and wait for the girl he's loved and the children she bore. He'll be busy there, too, repairing the stairs, oiling the gate, improving the streets, smoothing the way.—Paul Harvey.

WITH OUR ARMED FORCES

Robert Sentz, freeman, USN son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sentz of 5 Frederick St., Taneytown, aboard the battleship USS Wisconsin, has participated in the year's largest Atlantic Fleet Training exercise, coded for brevity as "LANTFLEX 1-55." The fleet exercise extended over much of the Eastern Atlantic, and culminated in an amphibious assault on Onslow Beach, N. C., November 16-20. Some 50,000 Nav and 26,000 Marine personnel and more than 200 surface ships, submarines, Naval and Marine air units took part in the maneuvers. The exercise was designed to test the readiness of the fleet to carry out its war-time job of controlling the vital Atlantic sea lanes.

Would you like to have the World Premiere of Warner Bros. "The Silver Chalice" held here in Carroll County? Chairman Joel W. Cook and co-chairman P. G. Goffman discuss final arrangements with Presidents of Carroll County Tuberculosis Association Rev. Frederick Seibel for participation of Carroll County citizens in the 50th anniversary Christmas Seal Sale campaign. The County Association having the highest receipts for the first three days of the campaign, November 22, 23 and 24 will be the winners and have the honor of the first showing of the film which is one of Warner Bros. most important releases for 1954-55. The executive secretary, M. Kathryn Diffendal will wire the results to the Seal Sale Director in New York before midnight of the 24th. The winning association will be determined on the basis of the highest per capita three day mail sale returns. Popular radio and TV Art Linkletter will announce the winner and appear at the typical Hollywood "production" premiere. The promotion for this event will be a continuing feature of the CBS Art Linkletter "House Party" radio and television program.

CONTEST - CONTEST - CONTEST The Taneytown Grain & Supply Co., purchased October 15, from the farm of Emanuel Overholtzer, four Berkshire pigs 5 days old. These pigs were placed in the display room and put on Purina Pig Startena without a milk ration or milk replacer. At the close of 4 weeks the pigs were then divided with two pigs in each pen and the weight of each pen was equal (35 lb. pigs). The pen of two pigs named Ike were fed a home ration while the pen of two pigs named Mike were fed Purina Pig Startena and Purina Sow and Pig Chow (mixed 4 to 1) with corn. Each pen has been fed this ration for 4 weeks. THE CONTEST Starting November 29 and running for 2 weeks to December 13, the public is invited to estimate the weight in difference, if any, there will be between the two pens of pigs by the end of 4 weeks after they have both been placed on the same ration Purina Pig Startena and Purina Sow & Pig Chow (mixed 4 to 1) with corn. By the close of the contest, the pigs will be 13 weeks old. PRIZES The prizes will consist of the following: 1st prize: 1 Large Barn Broom 2nd prize: 1 Purina Knife 3rd prize: 1 Purina Automatic Pencil At the close of the contest, another Contest Auction will be held when the highest bidder will have a chance to get four fine pigs. Watch this paper for reports of winners and notice of Auction. 11-25-3t

ANNIVERSARY DINNER

The 50th Anniversary Dinner celebrating the birth of the Christmas Seal was held at Hoffman's Inn by the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association on Monday evening. Rev. Frederick R. Seibel, president, introduced the following guests: Dr. Elmer P. Sauer, Superintendent of Mt. Wilson Hospital and director of the Md. State tuberculosis hospitals, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hayes from Springfield State Hospital, and Mr. Frank Gibson, field representative from the Md. Tuberculosis Association. The board members introduced themselves and their guests.

Mr. Gibson gave a brief report on the history of the Christmas seals, explaining that they originated in Denmark in 1904. The seals have philatelic value today, some people owning entire collections dating back to 1904 when they started in this country.

The film, "A Fair Chance", dealing with the problems of rehabilitation, was shown by Mr. Gibson.

The executive secretary, Mrs. Kathryn Diffendal, stated that the Christmas Seal Sale Campaign will open on Nov. 22nd and the Mobile Chest X-Ray survey will be conducted in Carroll County from Dec. 9 through the 23rd. The board members were given publicity materials and asked to secure volunteer workers in each community.

Rev. Joel Cock, chairman of the 1954 Seal Sale campaign, reported on the speaking engagements which he has had in Carroll County before service clubs and stated he had been well received. The film, "A Fair Chance", has been shown and is available to any interested group.

Rev. Seibel stated that on Nov. 5 six student nurses and the supervisor from Mercy Hospital observed in the Chest Clinic at the Carroll County Memorial Medical Center conducted by Dr. Sauer. The equipment recently purchased by the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association, consisting of a camera and a projector with case and sound equipment, was used to take pictures.

This clinic is held twice monthly and is one of the services made possible through the local association by the purchase of Christmas seals.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Emmitsburg, Md., Nov. 15, 1954
To the Editor of The Carroll Record:
Dear Sir:

This writer would like to reply to some statements made in your paper by the lady from Feessersburg concerning grades on report cards. Most of us men believe in letting the ladies ramble on about this and that and only interfering when necessary for the sake of accuracy. Above all we wouldn't want to hurt their feelings.

But now the lady while lamenting the appearance of many low grades on report cards, jumps to the conclusion that these low grades are given by teachers for group punishment purposes, and, typical of her sex, she assumes that her conclusion is correct and then proceeds to deplore it, even though she says she doesn't blame the teachers.

This writer would like to point out that there are many reasons why pupils make low grades particularly the first part of the term. The teachers, their methods, and their subjects are new to the pupils and the pupils are new to the teachers, which tend to get learning off to a slow start; and then there are pupils who are slow to learn anyway. There is also the jolt most elementary pupils get when the change is made to the High School from the elementary school, which means harder and more advanced subjects, and teachers who have the colleges on the other end pleading for higher grade standards.

All teachers realize that the higher they hold the standards, to a certain limit, the higher the pupil will strive. So the writer has a lot of respect for the teacher who gives low marks, for we know his standards are high.

It is not for us parents to lament the high standards, it is for us to get behind our children and see that they strive harder. A kite goes up against the wind but when the wind stops blowing it falls helplessly to the ground.

MARY MITCHELL

Answers Questions on Teen Age Modes, Moods and Manners.

Q. Dear M. M.: Please outline for me a good hanky wardrobe for my teen-age son and daughter, who are soon going to boarding school?—P. L.

A. Congratulations, P. L. on thinking of these important details. We suggest, for her, three conservative prints, several hankies embroidered with her name or initials, and for dressy occasions, Swiss embroideries on sheer white cotton. For him, colored-woven handkerchiefs in shades of brown, red or navy on white for every day, and at least six plain white linen or cotton ones for best wear.—M. M.

Q. In shopping for my daughter's school wardrobe, I find she has very definite ideas — not always good. How can I circumvent them.—H. B.

A. This interest is healthy — when she is making an obvious mistake, discuss where she'll use it and suggest things for specific occasions. An occasional mistake can be a lesson well-earned.—M. M.

Q. My child is spending the night with a friend's family. What sort of gift could she give to show her appreciation?—E. H.

A. A charming and correct "thank-you" gift for your daughter to give would be a pure white linen, lace-edged handkerchief for her friend's mother, and an exact duplicate for the child. Mother-daughter gifts are becoming extremely popular, and are a very thoughtful present.—M. M. (ANS)

FROST BITTEN FACTS

FIRE HYDRANTS IN SOME NORTHERN COMMUNITIES ARE TREATED WITH ANTI-FREEZE IN ORDER TO WITHSTAND SUB-ZERO TEMPERATURES.

CHARCOAL FIRES CAN BE STARTED QUICKLY, EASILY AND SAFELY BY POURING A SMALL AMOUNT OF ANTI-FREEZE OVER THE BRIQUETTES BEFORE IGNITING.

STEEP WINDING HILL DOESN'T BOTHER RESIDENTS OF NEW ENGLAND TOWN NOW THAT ANTI-FREEZE FILLED PIPES HAVE BEEN PLACED BENEATH THE PAVEMENT TO KEEP OFF SNOW AND ICE.

AUTOMOBILE COOLING SYSTEMS ARE EXPECTED TO USE 80 MILLION GALLONS OF ANTI-FREEZE THIS YEAR.... GOOD TIP—DON'T REUSE OLD ANTI-FREEZE THAT CAN CAUSE SERIOUS DAMAGE.

SURGEONS USE ANTI-FREEZE CIRCULATING IN A REFRIGERATED BLANKET WRAPPED AROUND THE PATIENT TO REDUCE FLOW OF BLOOD IN CERTAIN DELICATE OPERATIONS.

MARYLAND WILDLIFE

Prepared by the MARYLAND GAME AND INLAND FISH COMMISSION

COTTONTAIL RABBIT

(Sylvilagus floridanus. Derivation, "sylvilagus" from Greek and Latin meaning woods rabbit, and "floridanus" from Latin meaning of Florida.)

RANGE: Found in all sections of Maryland including town or country, more common in crop farming areas.

BREEDING: Breeds several times a year—first being as early as January and February. Four to seven born thirty days after breeding; hidden in hollowed fur-lined depression among vegetation; tiny, naked, helpless, each about four inches long; by two weeks run from nest. Mother makes nest and protects young. Life span to eight years, few live beyond 1 year because of predation; serves as a "buffer" for smaller rodents since larger meat-eating animals prey extensively on the cottontail.

HABITS: Usually when danger approaches will thump the ground with its hind feet to warn others of approaching danger.

MANAGEMENT: Food—a variety of plants including herbs, tree bark, and vegetables. Varies in numbers through years. Sheds fur in May-June again in September-October. Management practices includes field border and thicket plantings of woody shrubs, evergreen trees and shrubs, plot or strip plantings of grasses and legumes to provide winter food; nesting and escape cover. Brush piles along woods edges and small waste areas is desirable.

VALUE: Pest as crop and tree destroyer. Appeals to hunters for flesh and sport but carrier of tularemia; fortunately, few cases in Maryland. Fur used in manufacture of felt hats. Animals not profitably raised in captivity.

Time of Trouble

Lesson for November 28, 1954

THERE is nothing modern about trouble. Nothing old-fashioned either. You can't be up-to-date in any century if you don't know about the troubles going round. If you met William Shakespeare and Julius Caesar and Buddha and Methuselah all at once, the one thing you could all talk about and understand one another perfectly (provided you spoke the same language) is Trouble.

Dr. Foreman

Fears
"We have nothing to fear except fear itself," said a great American President. That is sometimes true, but only when there is nothing really to be afraid of. At any rate, ever since the human race began, people have been afraid both of what was likely to happen and what not likely to happen. They have been afraid of what was really there, and afraid of ghosts born of their own imaginations. Fear is not all bad; when it is no more than knowing the danger exists, it is a good thing. It is good to know that poisons hurt, that there is a ditch across the highway, that the curve ahead is a sharp one. A healthy fear of such things is good and keeps us alive. But there is fear which is paralysis, "butterflies in the stomach," first cousin to panic; and this kind of fear only adds to whatever danger or trouble there may be. Now we can read, in Psalm 46, that poet's pointed words about fear; and it is plain that men in his time had the same terrors as ourselves. One feels here the dread of violent change; and is not exactly that, under its current form of communism, what we are terrified of in our time? One feels in this Psalm also the dread of war; and in our times with the H-bomb and the C-bomb threatening us—not just the boys that go to war, but every man, woman and child on the planet—who can sleep with an easy mind?

Loneliness
Another kind of trouble is loneliness. Psalm 142 brings this out; the writer felt that no one was on his side, no one even cared whether he lived or died. He speaks too of the worst kind of loneliness—or one of the most painful kinds—that is to say, being in prison. We should remember always that there are in this world today an estimated eighty million refugees, that is to say, people who have literally no home and are, perhaps for the rest of their lives, strangers in strange lands, people who live behind barbed wire, people nobody wants. We cannot forget the millions of others who would perhaps rather be refugees, if they dared, than live where and as they have to live, as slaves of some police state, under the lash of taskmasters from whom there is no appeal. But even if all the cruel governments in the world were abolished tonight; even if all the millions of refugees found home and shelter; there still would be as there have always been, millions who could echo the Psalmist's plaint, "No man cared for my soul." Loneliness—the first men knew it, on dark hunted nights in a wilderness they did not understand and could not yet control; the last men will know it, on a dark hunted day among the skyscrapers fleeing vainly from the invisible poisons of the radioactive air. And in between the first men and the last, where is the human being who has not at some time or other felt himself deserted and alone?

God Is Our Help in Trouble
The Psalm-writers knew all this; and yet they could sing. They sang because above all the troubles of time they kept touch with the eternal God. "He will help," they said. How does God help the believer in time of trouble? He does not always help by keeping an umbrella of miracle over the heads of the saints. Not even Jesus was without tears and death. Read these Psalms to see how God was their "help in ages past" as he is "for years to come." Men of faith, they were able to rise under their troubles, they found courage through contact with the God of all. They knew, as we sometimes forget, that God made this world, that it is still His, that above all earthly powers in His sovereign power; that in His own time, in His own way, His will be the victory. Let's Think

by G. H. ENFIELD

THOUGHTS FOR THOUGHT

The weakest thing in the world is a Christian without Christianity.

When parents can't control their kids, what can the teachers do? Classrooms without teachers is one answer.

Some funerals are very sad. Especially when a rich uncle dies without making a will.

One disadvantage of an automobile: you can't spend any length of time with relatives. They want you to move on.

The light of youth sometimes darkens the home.

Some people have converted their digestive system into a storage house.

Mountains are to climb. Not to bump your head against.

If as much publicity were given to the faithful few in our churches as is given to those who attend card parties, perhaps others would be inclined to go to church occasionally.

How different modern day parents are from their children! The parents don't get their own way.

I believe in free speech, but not in the quantity one hears on street corners at election time.

Two fellows were walking down a city street One said to the other, "Honest, she's the prettiest girl I ever saw; nineteen. Guess there's no law 'ginst' looking at her."

Today's Chuckle:
Notice in a Scotch church; "Those in the habit of putting buttons instead of coins in the collection plate will please put in their own buttons and not buttons from the cushions on the pews."

"Surely there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off." Proverbs 23:18 (RSV)

The source of many failures is inside of those who fail.

If to yourself you would be true, Always strive the best to be and do.

If teachers knew as well as parents which children should be promoted, one of their difficult problems would be solved.

It requires qualities some people don't possess to be considerate of others.

Some men are like 'safes', even their wives don't know the combination well enough to get money out of them.

How often 'taste' makes 'waist'.

One thing the average person doesn't understand even when he reads it: an insurance policy.

The blindness of some people becomes the eye-opener of others.

Warm friends sometimes become hot enemies.

What destination one reaches depends on what route one takes.

The three waves most common are hot, cold, and permanent.

Before recommending his hair tonic, many a barber should start a virgin growth of his own.

The things you allow to motivate your actions determine your spiritual stature.

"He who corrects a scoffer gets himself abuse, and he who reproves a wicked man incurs injury." —Proverbs 9:7 (RSV).

The traffic in New York is so bad that the guy behind me got the hiccupps and hit my bumper seven times.

A new youth drug has been discovered which they say will bring new hope to men over 50. Hope we got; it's results we want!

The weather has been just awful. Now I know why they call it Indian summer—Ugh!

PERSONNEL AND TEACHERS MEETS

The Western Maryland Branch, National Guidance and Personnel Association, held a November meeting at the Westminster High School. Mrs. Urith Shipley presided over the group which includes counselors from both Frederick and Carroll County schools, classroom instructors, and personnel people from business.

The speaker for the evening was Mr. C. Rogers Hall, Trial Magistrate. Mr. Hall discussed some of the violations of law which bring youth before the magistrate. He emphasized that many young people who come into contact with the law have had a limited amount of school and show little understanding of the responsibilities of citizenship. Mr. Hall paid high tribute to Carroll County's prominent and competent Judge James E. Boylan, Jr.

The next meeting of the Western Maryland Branch is scheduled for Jan. 11, 1955 at the Frederick High School. Persons interested in attending should contact the counselor at your local high school.

Don't worry about the idiocies of the younger generation. You were like that and look how well you turned out. —Robert Quillen.

If men were as unselfish as women, women would very soon become more selfish than men. —John Churton Collins.

'My strong habitation'

SAFETY, or freedom from danger, is never determined by a geographical location or the type of occupation in which one is engaged. The protection of God, divine Principle, is available everywhere and at all times, for omnipresence cannot be restricted and omnipotence knows no boundaries. The reality of God, good, is our guarantee of safety.

King David, who was described as a man after God's own heart (1 Samuel 13:14), was keenly conscious of the unfailing protection of his heavenly Father. Time and time again he experienced complete immunity from danger, in the savage wilderness, in the treacherous intrigue of Saul's royal court, and in the heat of violent warfare. With the assurance of a tested faith, therefore, he could sing (Psalm 71:1-3): "In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion. Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me. Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me: for thou art my rock and my fortress."

Christian Science, which was discovered and founded by Mary Baker Eddy, makes practical the words and works of the Master, Christ Jesus. It teaches that this "strong habitation" is as near as one's own thought, for it is the realization of the perfection of God and His creation, that creation which, the Bible tells us (Genesis 1:31), God saw was "very good." There is no situation so fraught with dangerous possibilities that we cannot at once withdraw into the safety of the Father's house—the consciousness of the presence and power of God—and thereby find ourselves secure from harm.

Whether we are in a foreign country or in our own home, we can never be outside of Love's omnipresence; whether we follow some comfortable, homely routine or battle the hosts of evil in their attempt to destroy freedom, we are never beyond God's omnipotence. If we but turn with David's childlike trust to God, the divine source of all wisdom, love, and health, we shall find that there is no situation, no circumstance which can rob us of God-given protection. This state of consciousness is indeed a "strong habitation," an impregnable fortress, which the mortal beliefs of accident, disease, and death cannot invade.

Those with relatives or friends engaged in activities which at times seem hazardous in the extreme can add much to the peace and well-being of their dear ones by constant, prayerful acknowledgment of God's perfection, which will have increasing evidence of man's God-given dominion. In her "Miscellaneous Writings" Mrs. Eddy voices the prayerful thought which should be known for every service man and woman today (p. 263): "How blessed it is to think of you as 'beneath the shadow of a great rock in a weary land,' safe in His strength, building on His foundation, and covered from the devourer by divine protection and affection. Always bear in mind that His presence, power, and peace meet all human needs and reflect all bliss."

The infinitely wise Mind which created man is responsible for man. God will neither forget nor neglect His own, and we may safely trust in the divine assurance of unfailing protection. . . . —The Christian Science Monitor.

THANKSGIVING FEAST BEGINS WITH BREAKFAST

WHY LIMIT THE BIG THANKSGIVING "FEED" to dinnertime? Every part of the day deserves to emphasize the spirit of celebration . . . especially breakfast since it's so often the whole basis for a successful day.

This agreed, what is it that pleases the entire family—Mom, Pop and Junior? One pretty good idea is certainly the favorite cereal—Sugar Crisp—served with a favorite topping in bowls according to the size quantities consumed,—a big bowl, medium bowl and baby bowl as this picture shows. As for what sort of toppings for the individual servings of pre-sweetened wheat cereal, try sliced canned or frozen peaches for Pop, a baked apple for Mom and sliced bananas for the young ones. Then complete this appealing, though simple meal with toasted English muffins with butter and jam along with hot coffee for adults and tall glasses of milk for the minors. Ummmm, how good can breakfast get?

Another of the wonderful features about these crispy sweet puffed wheat kernels is that because they are pre-sweetened no sugar is needed. Milk or cream is merely added to serve as a cereal. Designed with a three-way appeal, Sugar Crisp is equally good as a snack, a snack, and a confection. Youngsters find it a welcome snack when watching TV, and ideal for times when friends drop in unexpectedly and refreshments are served. Eaten plain or with milk one thing for sure—it's easy eating. Safe Summer Driving "BRAKES" Give Yourself the 8 out of 10 deaths and nearly half of all non-fatal auto and truck accidents are caused by bad brakes.

In re-lining brakes, cleanliness is most important. A greasy fingerprint on lining can prevent proper braking action.

Motorists should be sure "SAE Specification 70R" brake fluid is used. About one-third the brands on the market are inferior—and dangerous, according to a car maker's survey.
