TOUR OF HOLY LAND

Rev. and Mrs Robert Benner's 35-Day Trip

Rev. and Mrs. Robert C. Benner, Pine Grove, have returned from a plane trip overseas during which they visited 16 countries in 35 days. The nine people taking part in this event represented Lutheran, Presby-terian and Methodist faiths. Rev. Benner is pastor of St. John's Luther-an Church, Pine Grove, Pa.

The tour concentrated on the Holy Land, and places of special religious significance in Europe. Whenever they stopped at a place directly related to the life of Christ or the route traveled by St. Paul, the group held a special service. The scripture relating to each particular place was read, and com-bined with meditations and a study session.

The Pine Grove pastor relates that he saw at least ten truckloads of cleaned used clothing and food from the Lutheran World Relief in the United States, at Augusta Victoria Hospital, on the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem. He said he was tremendously impressed with this visual proof of the Lutheran World Relief work since he knows that people in Schuylkill County have made many contributions to it.

In the Garden of the Tomb at Jerusalem the party of clergy and professors held an Easter service. They also held a Christmas service in the Field of the Shepherds at Bethlehem, waiting until the stars had come out at night to enact this religiously significant service.

When Rev. and Mrs. Benner left the United States with other members of the party, they first landed in Copen-hagen, Denmark, then went on to Geneva, Switzerland; Rome, Italy, where they heard the Pope give his benediction; then to Athens, Greece; Cairo, Egypt; Lebanon, Damascus in Syria, then to Ammam in the Hash-mite Kingdom of Jordan.

Rev. Benner says he was amazed with the progress of the irrigation program of the last six years. The desert has been made to "blossom like Delores Dupo" a rose" with its plants and orchards. They met many religious leaders, and

Moslem leaders. They went to Mt. Zion, Tel Aviv, then to the Island of Cyprus and visited churches there which date back ited churches there which date back to the Crusader's era. From Cyprus they flew to Greece and Acropolis where Paul preached. During four days back in Rome they visited the St. John's Cathedral, St. John's and Mary Major churches and the catacombs where early Christians were buried. Continuing on the route home

In London, the group of nine visited St. Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Ab-bey, then went through Shakespearean territory and to Oxford University. They saw the John Wesley church in London, went to Scotland to St. Giles Church and saw wheat being harvested in that country.

Other high points of the tour included seeing the Pyramids in Cairo and having dinner at the Ameno House where Roosevelt and Churchhill had their Cairo conference.

In Jerusalem, the group met a Dr. Cross, a professor of McCormick Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Chicago, who is an expert on the Old Testament. He is translating documents found in the Dead Sea area, which are being preserved in jars. These include Old Testament books such as one a thousand years older than the book of Isaiah. The documents appear as dried leaves in the

MEETING IN THE HOLY LAND

Dear Mrs. Love, It was our good fortune to journey to the Holy Land this summer. Had a trip we shall always cherish.

In Damascus, Syria, (where Paul was converted) we met Rev. Robert Benner of Pine Grove, Pa. He expressed great interest in our work at Asbury Home and evidenced an un-derstanding of it. We commented on it and he told us he always reads your articles and he especially liked the article you wrote on the Home. Isn't that interesting? Over 7,000 miles from home and to be meeting a Lutheran minister who knew our work, through you.

Our best wishes to you and Brother Love. The Baltimore East District comes to the Home on Sept. 15. Hope both of you can come.

will be one of the highlights of your lifetime to plan now to do so.

At this very minute your columnist is way up on the mountains in one of the grand rustic cabins where I will rest for the night, the place called "Skyline Hotel", located 4,000 feet above sea level. The mileage is 35 miles from Luray, Va.

Yesterday, we paid the visit to "Skyline Caverns" where we remained over night at the "Bower's Motels". The illuminated and interesting caverns are breathtaking and as one of These Caverns are the most modern improved upon. Every few minutes another tour starts and Tommy told me he has about eight a day as well as the other guides. These Caverns were discovered December 17, 1937 by the geologist, Walter S. Amos of Winchester, Virginia and officially opened for exhibition by the governor of Virginia, April 13, 1946. It is located in Front Royal, Virginia.

There is such a mystery about the entire atmosphere with the running stream underground where the huge fish are fed by the guide as the tourists gasp. There is a 37 foot waterfall, travertine draperies, fluted collike a fairyland.

Pennsylvania states! We all know that limestone caverns were formed thousands of years ago by the action of water (impregnated by acids from vegetation of various forms) flowing or seeping through solid limestone. The beds of 88.65 | clay between the limestone were gradually washed away leaving only the stone itself. The lower strata of rock formed the floor of the cave and the 110.85 upper strata the ceiling. As the clay 125.00 was removed by the constant flow of water, the remaining solid rock was formed into great rooms and avenues. There is the Ball Room where the 75.00 dancing took place years ago which 75.00 is one of the largest rooms in any 20.10 cave in the world! "Elfin Ramble" is 50.00 even larger being about 300 feet wide by 500 feet long and the ceiling is 140 feet high. As you walk through these delightful caverns, it is inter-70.00 esting to observe the results of the untiring work of nature through the ages gone by and which is still active. The Luray Caverns were discovered 45.00 in 1878 and are also opened to the public every day of the year. The temperature remains 54 year-round (so you must take a coat along.)
There is much to see in these caverns as you enter the grand vestibule from the spacious lobby that you imagine you are in another world of enchantment! I could write on and on about the entire fascination of it all but I'll leave that to you! What a wonderful place for the honeymoon—right here at "Skyline Hotel"!

So long, folks, until next week D. V. If you cannot manage a long va-cation do try and spend just a few days in these parts for it will mean a vacation long to be remembered.

RAPS BUTLER AND HARRY

The Republican National Chairman denounced former President Harry S. Truman recently as a "bitter, frustrated man." Leonard W. Hall said Mr. Truman was jealous of President Eisenhower's accomplishments and popularity.

Mr. Hall issued an angry statement in reply to Truman's speech to Democratic editors at French Lick, Indiana, recently. Hall also criticized the Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler. He said Butler had made a "vile attack" on Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Hall's comments on Butler were echoed by Senator Gordon Allott, Republican of Colorado. The Senator said in a separate statement that the Democratic chairman had made an "unwarranted and gutter-politics" attack on the Vice President.

The "intemperate" Truman-Butler statements, Hall said, provided "an unfortunate forecast of the type of campaign planned by the Democrats for next year."

"With no real issue to take to the people," the Republican leader declared, "it's obvious that they are going to rely on personal attacks on President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon.

"But the hate-mongers will have a tough assignment to make their attacks stick. All the bunk coming from French Lick can't hide the facts of record high employment, great prosrecord high employment, great prosperity and peace which have been achieved by the Eisenhower-Nixon Administration."

Truman, in a speech to the editors, accused President Eisenhower of "misrepresentation and demagoguery" ever since his election. He said the President had never missed a chance to "befuddle the issues."

Butler, at a press conference, described Mr. Nixon as "the least popular" Vice President of the last 35 or 40 years. He said his goodwill tours abroad were "malarky" and "a nice way to see the world at taxpayers' expense."

Hall asserted that Truman's own administration had been noted for "high taxes, unemployment and vacillating and ineffective foreign policy which culminated in the Korean 'police action.' "

"He is jealous of President Eisenhower's accomplishments and can't stand the comparison with Eisenhower's tremendous popularity," Hall

He added that it was "a good thing Truman knew when to quit his office, but it's unfortunate he can't take retirement with dignity and grace.

"He doesn't present a pretty picture with his name-calling and brickbats. That may be the technique he learned in the Pendergast school of politics but it hardly fits the role of elder statesman which he tries to as-

Hall said Butler's attack on Nixon "is the kind of thing that reinforces the average voter's intention to vote the straight Republican ticket next

He said the Nixon good-will tours had been heralded throughout the world as promoting better understanding and world peace.

Senator Allott charged that Butler "seems bound and determined to shatter the splendid bipartisanship this nation has enjoyed in their foreign policy over the past three years."

He said Butler's "unprovoked attacks on our foriegn policies are a disgrace," adding that the chairman "does a dis-service to the nation" when he criticized the Nixon tours.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

NORTHPORT, N. Y., OBSERVER: 'In Italy . . . a state-imposed guaranteed annual wage has caused mass unemployment. Employees hesitate to take on the responsibilities of hiring new workers. The largest power company stretches out a five-year building program to 10 or 15 years to avoid the liability of hiring new crews. The manufacturer of Italy's fast selling new motor scooters prefer to pay overtime wages at double and triple rates - - to hiring new workers who would come under the GAW. The same thing could happen

SHELDON, IOWA, MAIL: "The elements in our country that for one reason or another wish to weaken private enterprise . . . have succeeded in many cases in forming the idea in the public mind that private enterprise has become a detriment. They do not mention what they would substitute for private enterprise, but about the only thing that can be substituted for it is extreme control by the government, which is state socialism."

The estimated number of families looking to the Red Cross for assistance exceeds 10 million and continues to mount. After the immediate relief needs have been met, the gigantic task of rehabilitation begins. The estimated total cost is now 1 billion, 600 million. The minimum quota of $800 has been assigned to the Carroll County Chanter But it is the carrols the ty Chapter. But it is the earnest hope of Chairman Irvin M. Hahn that it will be substantially oversubscribed. Because of these facts the Red Cross must be free to make special appeals whenever the situation demands, it cannot be included in the annual federated fund popularly called the Red

President Eisenhower started the Emergency Fund drive with a ringing appeal; "It goes to people who are in need, to human beings, not just to cleaning roads and rebuilding schools but to people who are hungry or cold and have no place to go. In my opinion, everybody within the sound of my voice will sleep better tonight if he turns in everything he can spare to meet this great disaster that has happened to our fellow Americans."

He climaxed his speech by handing over his own generous contribution. Carroll Countians can follow his example by handing over their gifts to Carroll County Red Cross Head-quarters or to any local bank.

'What was his creed? I do not know his creed, I only know That here below, he walked the common road And lifted many a load, lightened the task, Brightened the day for others toiling on a weary way: This, his only meed; I do not know his creed. What was his creed? I never heard him speak Of visions rapturous, of Alpine peak Of doctrine, dogma, new or old; But this I know, he was forever bold To stand alone, to face the challenge of each day, And live the truth, so far as he could see The truth that evermore makes free. His creed? I care not what his creed; Enough that never yielded he to greed But served a brother in his daily need; Plucked many a thorn and planted many a flower; Glorified the service of each hour; Had faith in God, himself, and fellow-men; — Perchance he never thought in terms of creed, I only know he lived a life, in deed!

Female 'Ham' Operates Highest Chicago Station

CHICAGO-When and if disaster should strike Chicago, Mrs. Grace Ryden, one of the key figures in amateur radio operation, will be ready for it.

Mrs. Ryden is president of the Young Ladies Radio League and one of the top "hams" in the midwest. She was recently appointed head of the Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Services, known as RACES, in Chicago.

She operates the highest "ham" station in Chicago-with an antenna 140 feet above the ground in the President Hotel. She and her fellow members of the Young Ladies Radio League have also opened a joint station in Gompers Park Fieldhouse, Chicago, which can transmit a distance of 100 miles and have plans for a second unit capable of transmitting coastto-coast.

Like most top-notch operators, Mrs. Ryden finds her chief problem that of keeping equipment in good working order for any emergency. This problem was aided recently when she was awarded a $300 scholarship on radio repair and maintenance by a radio and television school.

Now, she's ready for any emergency. She says, "In the event disaster strikes and all telephone and radio, and television service is wiped out, we will carry on, even if we have to hitch our radios to automobile batteries."

Determined? Sure, she is. She adds: "Never underestimate the power of a woman. Just give us the equipment, the training, and the know-how, and we will carry on in any emergency."

Twisted Root Top Antidote in India

WASHINGTON-For more than 3,000 years the twisted root of a low-climbing plant with pinkishwhite blossoms has been used in India as an antidote for snake and insect bites, fever, intestinal ills, insanity and insomnia, and as an aid in childbirth. For the past two decades, the root, called "rauwolfia serpentina," also has gained unprecedented popularity in India in the treatment of hypertension (high blood pressure), says a Bombay physician.

Dr. Rustom Jal Vakil told a session of the American Heart Association that he has employed auwolfia serpentina in more than 3,000 cases of high blood pressure in the past 14 years. The first clinical reports to appear outside India on its therapeutic value have caused the drug to attract international interest and physicians in many countries are testing the hypotensive (pressurelowering) properties both of the crude whole root and the individual alkaloids (chemical comknown to contain.

The drug has a soothing effect on the general nervous system, a property which has led to its testing with the mentally ill. Patients report that it gives a "sense of well-being," improves appetite, increases capacity for mental and physical effort, and enables them to sleep better.

Piano Still Basic Beginner's Instrument

CHICAGO-The piano is still the basic instrument in American musical education, say the results of a poll of 1,000 instrumental music directors all over the country.

With study of music zoomingthere are now about 7,500,000 chilrden learning to play an instrument, the American Music Conference says-brass instruments, strings, fretted strings, reeds and percussion instrument have grown rapidly in popularity. But 76 per cent of the music educators say the piano is still the best instrument for a student to start on.

More than 95 per cent of the educators in large and small schools agreed that the student who has studied piano learns a second instrument more easily and rapidly.

The instructors chose both melody or pre-band instruments and piano "keyboard exeprience" as the most effective ways to teach note reading. In "keyboard experience" the piano is used as a means of teaching the fundamentals of music to whole classes, rather than teaching piano playing directly.

Mighty Spinach Drafted in War On City's Smog •

NEW YORK-Spinach has been drafted for Los Angeles' war on smog, says Wilfred M. Noble, air pollution plant specialist of Los Angeles County.

Spinach, petunias and annual blue grass are now being put to work by the Air Pollution Control District in test stations throughout the Los Angeles area to determine the causes, occurrence and intensity of smog, he said. A number of plants have been observed to display a distinctive damage pattern when exposed to smog, and a study of this damage yields much information helpful to the smog control program.

These studies have also shown that gasoline and automobile exhaust fumes are potential factors in the production of smog. Smog, damage has been estimated to cause $480,000 annual loss in vegetable crops alone in Los Angeles County.

Animal tissue cells are similar to plant cells in many ways. Because of this, Mr. Noble stated, the district will widen the scope of present experiments with vegetation. The researchers plan to isolate single plant cells and study the effects of various pollutants in order to determine why certain cells are more sensitive than, others.

Damage to plants, induced by artificial smog in the laboratory, might serve as a botanical tool to study the growth and development of leaves, he suggested.

Only plant cells in a specific stage of maturity suffer this damage, which has not been described previously.

Rapid growth causes an increase in the width of the band of some plants. A high concentration of pollutants causes injury to the more resistant cells so that larger areas will be affected. Extended periods of exposure, repeated daily, may cause an overlapping of bands in some plants which normally have wide bands of

Buses Replacing Red School Houses

WASHINGTON — The big yellow school bus is pushing the little red schoolhouse off the American landscape.

Although there remain 45,000 one-room schools (some still red), the number is shrinking at the approximate rate of 10 a day. School districts have been enlarged. Modern steel, stone and glass structures, each housing hundreds of pupils and 10 or more teachers, are replacing the elementary classrooms where four or more grades studied and recited side by side.

Educators believe advantages of consolidation outweight the good points of the "little red" schools. Progress in road building and motor transportation has made it possible to hire more and better-trained teachers. Larger buildings offer better facilities at lower cost per pupil.

In the school year 1917-18, 196,-000 one-room schools represented 71 per cent of all the country's school buildings. By 1940, the number had dropped to 114,000, and by 1952 only 51,800 singleunit buildings were left.

Most of the remaining oneteacher schools offer instruction only up to the sixth grade. Using primitive equipment, they are scattered in rural areas. A few cities still have single-room build-

A Birthday's A Gay Day!

The sunniest day of all to a child is his very own birthday. And mother's own sunshine party cake, complete with gumdrop men marching around the sides, will bring happy beams to the faces of all small guests. So easy for mother, too, when she can make this sponge cake from a package of angel food mix with but a few additions. Plan a birthday party soon and make it truly bright with this child's delight!

Children's Party Angel Cake

3 egg yolks, unbeaten 2 teaspoons grated lemon rind 1 package Swans Down Angel Food Mix 1 cup water 2 tablespoons sugar 1/3 cup water

Empty Flour Mixture into small bowl. Into large bowl, measure 1 cup of water. Add the bag of Egg White Mixture and stir until moistened. Beat hard with sturdy egg beater or at highest speed of electric mixer until very stiff peaks form when beater is raised. Sprinkle in sugar and beat about 10 seconds longer.

To flour mixture in small bowl, add egg yolks, lemon rind, and ½ cup water. Beat until blended. Pour over the beaten whites and fold in, using about 30 fold-over strokes to blend.

Pour batter into ungreased 10-inch tube pan. Cut gently through batter to remove large air bubbles. Bake at once in a moderate oven (375°F.) 35 to 40 minutes. Cake is done if top springs back when pressed gently with finger.

Cool cake by turning pan upside down at once, propped up from table.

Town's Volunteer Firefighters Pay For Tough Jobs

MADISON, W. Va.-On one who ter's night the volunteer firefighters of Madison jumped out of their warm beds and, dressing as they ran, converged on the fire house. They raced more than a mile to a farm home, extinguished a blaze in the living room and were cleaning up-all within nine minutes.

Madison's firefighters actually pay for the privilege of such service. Themselves unpaid, they pay dues, receiving nothing in turn from their work except the thanks of the 2,000 citizens of Madison. Their uniforms, equipment and fire house and trucks never have cost residents a penny in taxes.

To perform this fiscal miracle, the volunteers have in the past three years built with their own hands a handsome fire house of concrete block and frame construction, and by collecting and selling metal scrap have raised the funds for two fire trucks, an emergency ambulance, the latest in oxygen equipment — a "Pheolator" - for reviving victims of breathing stoppages, and miscellaneous tools and appar-

When the siren goes, day or night, an assortment of citizens converge on the firehouse - a truck driver, a former bomber pilot, a grocer, a printer, the mayor-all bound by a common purpose: To serve the community as good neighbors.

They have to be good neighbors, since they do it for free. Says one volunteer: You can't pay a man (enough) for getting up in the middle of the night to go out in zero weather, over icy roads, to risk his life putting out

Plenty of Uranium Left to Discover

NEW YORK - Uranium prospecting in this country has hardly scratched the surface of the United States' potential, according to leading suppliers of atomic and geophysical instruments.

In spite of thousands of newcomers already in the field, and the vast new areas already prospected, the North East of the United States is practically virgin territory. Prospectors have been concentrating around Colorado, Utah, Wyoming in the past. Now full-time and holiday prospectors are finding uranium in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Florida and even in New England. Some of the "hottest" uranium-bearing ore in the entire continent was recently discovered in a New Hampshire stone quarry. The extent of the radioactive vein is being investi-

Among geologists, the presence of uranium in New England is not unexpected since nearby Canada has long enjoyed the same vigorous interest in uranium prospecting as our own Southwest.

Two-Year-Old Survives Near Tragic Accident

LOUISVILLE, Ky. - Two-yearold Philip Ray Hibbs can consider himself mighty lucky after an incident which happened not far from his back yard.

His mother said the boy unlocked a rear screen door while she was in front of the house. A single railroad track is about 20 feet from the rear of their house.

A moment later Mrs. Hibbs heard a switch engine pulling several cars and heard Philip Ray crying. He ran to her, indicating by gestures that the slow moving train had struck him and knocked him down.

Some Days One Can't Seem to Get Ahead

PHOENIX, Ariz.—It seems that some days a fellow can't even make a dime.

A 65-year-old man was held here recently for investigation after a raid on a poker game in a local park.

Detective Gordon Selby said the man admitted overseeing the games for several months, selling packs of cards for 75 cents each, renting table covers for $5 and charging 25 or 30 cents for a

"What it amounted to was col-lecting rent off City property," Selby said.

He quoted the man as saying: "I'm just a poor man who has to make a living.'

Caught Off Guard

BOONE, Iowa-During a talk on firearms before some 200 members of the Iowa State Policemen's Association convention here recently, W. H. Williams, special agent in charge of the Omaha F.B.I. office, asked for a revolver for use in a demonstration.

Not a single one of the officers present had his gun along.

Buick Hardtops by the Hundreds

With Buick building hardtops at the rate of more than 50,000 a month, these two and four-door models, lined up at the factory awaiting shipment to dealers, represent only a few hours production. Buick pioneered the hardtop in 1949 and builds almost twice as many as any other manufacturer. The new four-door hardtop, shown in the foreground, also is a Buick first. Nearly 25 per cent of all current retain orders are for the new four-door hardtop sedan which was put into production in March of this year.

A Nation's Worship

Lesson for September 4, 1955

IT WOULD be very nice to wake up some Sunday morning and find that everybody in America had decided to join our church. Suppose that up to now you had belonged to the First Universal Church of All Angels, and there was only one con-gregation of that denomination in your town, along with maybe six or eight other denominations. But suppose that on this Sunday morning as you walked would find the Uni- Dr. Foreman versal-Church-of-All-Angels sign on every church building you passed. Suppose you learned by the morning paper that this was because the President of the United States (himself a prominent member of your denomination) had issued a Directive ordering all churches to come over into this one - or be abolished entirely. Well, you would know that was a dream . . . because this is free America, and there is not and constitutionally can never be an official, government - supported, national, established religion.

The Nucleus So when we talk of "a nation's worship" in America we can't mean what we would mean in a country where everybody is dragooned into one single kind of church, a country where to be born into the nation is to be born into the church at the same time. Still, there is sense in talking about the nation at worship, for take us by and large, we do worship; the church is too prominent an object in every landscape to be overlooked. And even in free America where church and state are separate, we can learn something from the ancient Hebrews who combined church and state in one. The first thing we learn is not to be discouraged by the fact that many people don't go to church at all. The whole story of Ezra and Nehemiah, the prophecies of Haggai and of Zechariah, show us that there were great masses of indifferent people in Judea after the "Return" and the restoration of the worship at the high altar in Jerusalem. There were the same difficulties with a program that we have: preaching fell on many a deaf ear, just like now. Worship is now, and has always been, carried on, in the true sense, not by the masses but by a nucleus of devoted men and women.

The Opposition

The Jews who returned to Palestine to get their religion organized and under way again, with public services and all, found out another thing which we Americans might as well learn,-indeed, we have learned it. That is, not only is there indifference to religion, but it has many enemies. It is nothing but prettified nonsense to suppose that everybody in the world means well, that we all desire the welfare of society. It is contrary to the facts to believe that even those who do not worship with us and will not join us nevertheless wish us well. Don't deceive yourself. There are in America, as there are everywhere, people who are "plain mean." There are businesses that injured people, businesses that contribute to crime, indeed some businesses that even a not-too-moral police force labels as crime. Those who live by the profits of these enterprises just hate the church; let's face it.

Can Government Help?

Now in ancient Palestine, say Zechariah's time, not to mention earlier times, church and state helped and supported each other. King and high priest might even be related. Especially after the Exile, church and state became practically one. In our free America-and we would not wish it unfree, for a moment-can the government do anything to help the church? Readers who belong to Sunday school classes can start a very interesting discussion by asking that question, How can Government help the church? Ought Government to try to help us? One way, surely, by which the State can aid the church, is by laws which will keep the Lord's Day free, so far as possible, from work-day necessities. Another way is by setting an example. When leaders in government set an example of sharing in the public and private worship of God, the nation is all the better for it. (Based on outlines copyrighted by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. Released by Community Press Service.)

Scientists Study Camel's Ability To Withstand Fever

DURHAM, N. C.-Two Duke University scientists who headed an expedition to the Sahara Desert have returned with new knowledge of one of the world's most astounding beasts—the camel.

The zoologists are Dr. Knut Schmidt-Nielsen and his wife Dr. Bodil Schmidt-Nielsen, who took their three children with them on an expedition to a desert oasis 500 miles inland from Algiers. The undertaking was financed by the Guggenheim Foundation, UNESCO and the U.S. Government. Dr. Schmidt-Nielsen says the expedition gathered extensive data on the camel's heat regulation mechanisms, water conservation and kidney function. The camel can stand increases in body temperature of as much as 11 degrees Farenheit, he says, an increase equivalent to critical fever in man and most animals.

Perspiration in human beings keep body temperature at constant level, the zoologist explains, while the camel begins sweating only after a considerable increase in body temperature and even then does not drip with perspiration. This stinginess with body moisture is one of the reasons camels can go for weeks and months without a drink of water.

The camel does not have a special compartment in his stomach, hump or elsewhere for storing water. Dr. Schmidt-Nielsen says, pointing out that the hump consists mostly of fat.

The experimental work included weighing camels by means of a massive scale and canvas sling; analyzing blood and urine samples; and dissecting camels for study of stomach, kidneys, and other organs.

Remote 'Uncle' Not True Missing Link

WASHINGTON - An extremely remote "uncle" of mammals and man still survives after at least 300,000,000 years.

Such is the coelacanth, the ancient fish abundant as a fossil coeval with the earliest dinosaurs, two living specimens of which have been found in the Indian Ocean. When discovery of the first living fish of this supposedly longextinct group was announced a few years ago, the creature was widely described as a "missing link." This is far from true, says a report issued by the Smithsonian Institute. While they may represent a missing link in one sense (they are close to the original condition from which the landdwelling back - boned animals arose) and they do breathe air, they lack one important featurethe ability to breathe air through their nostrils. They could not adapt themselves to the land when their habitats started drying up and found shelter only in the sea. Indications were that they ventured into deeper and deeper water with the millenniums but underwent no major physical change. The refuge of great depths probably enabled them to survive.

Water Heater Potential Bomb If Not Protected

CHICAGO - The careful motorist, fully alert to the hazards of driving in heavy traffic, may, without knowing it, be running a far greater risk to life and limb when relaxing in the comfort of his own living room.

He may be sitting over a potential bomb in the basement if the water heater is overheating and building up latent explosive en-

Most explosions are caused by lack of the proper safety controls in the form of pressure and temperature relief valves. Some "protected" heaters may explode if the temperature safety valve has not been checked periodically to insure proper operating efficiency.

Coast-to-Coast Air Miles Shortened

WASHINGTON-On September 30, New York and San Francisco stood 2,600 air miles apart. Now the straight-line flying distance is only 2,260 miles.

East and west coasts have not moved closer together, nor have the airlines found a shortcut. The difference lies in the word "miles."

After five years of preparation, civil aviation in the United States has officially switched from statute or "land" miles to nautical miles and knots in reporting distances and speeds. Pilots, tower operators and weathermen now use sea language, as military airmen of all branches have done since 1947.

Mauling the Masher TORONTO—A 72-year-old grandmother told police how to handle men who accost ladies on the street at night. Mrs. Tonette Fontaine said that when a "heavy-set fellow" grabbed her by the arm as she waited for a streetcar, she grabbed a rock and hit him "a whack on the head he won't forget" and then got on her street-

Let Vegetables Add Variety To Winter Meals

I T'S just as important to consider the color and flavor of meals as to make certain they're really nutritious. Even plain, cold weather fare can be wholesome and gay if you will do something special with vegetables.

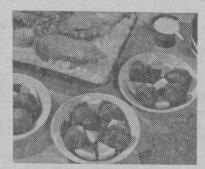

Here are canned beets ready to add both color and an orangetangy flavor to your menus:

Orange Glazed Beets (Serves 4) 14cups orange juice tablespoons sugar

3 tablespoons butter or substitute 2 tablespoons cornstarch

2 tablespoons lemon juice 1 No. 303 can whole beets, drained Salt and pepper

Tender whole beets cooked in a refreshing orange-lemon juice sauce with orange pieces make a delicious winter vegetable. This vegetable is especially delightful with roast duckling.

juice. Mix well and add to orange juice mixture. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add beets, salt, pepper and orange. Mix well and heat to serving temperature.

Cabbage and carrots are in plentiful supply at the markets. When prepared in this way, they are delightful

Braised Cabbage (Serves 6) 3 tablespoons butter

3 cups shredded fresh cabbage 1 cup shredded raw carrots ½ cup stock (beef or chicken)

Melt butter in skillet with tightly-fitted cover. Add cabbage, carrots, stock, salt and pepper. Cover closely and simmer over low heat for 15 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Top with grated cheese, if desired.

Save Money on Children's Wear

Clothing youngsters on a s budget is something of a trick many homemakers have discovered, but with some thought it can be done.

Doing the sewing yourself is one item, but there are others which experienced mothers have found.

Growing Clothes

Clothing specialists are now designing children's apparel which will actually "grow with the child." You'll find that clothing of this type costs a bit more than one size, but then the materials are durable and construction is excellent. This new clothing expands simply by your pulling out a seam or thread at expedient places, and behold! you have another size. You can incorporate these ideas into your sewing, too, by making a garment larger than your pattern. Hems, pants legs and waists can easily be made larger and tucked in cleverly until the material is needed. Selecting Styles

Styles you select in children's clothing has a lot to do with how long the child can wear them especially if he or she is growing rapidly.

A good illustration of this is in little girl's coats. A happy choice is a coat with a full back and raglan sleeves, both of which will give growing room, Cuffs may be added to lengthen the sleeves.

In dresses select those with an indefinite waistline and roomy sleeves. These two features alone make a dress "growable."

You can add extra length to most dresses by ripping out the stitching at the waistline and setting in a belt, wide or narrow, as is needed.

Blouses and Shirts If you make or buy button-on blouses and shirts, select those which are long. This will permit lengthening by lowering the but-

Front and back yokes can be replaced on many shirts, blouses and dresses with a contrasting fabric. You may find it essential to cut a larger armhole, and then add contrasting sleeves to the armseye. Too short blouses which are still roomy enough through the shoulders might be limited to wearing with jumpers and pinafores rather than combining with skirts in which their brevity is noticeable.

KITCHEN TIPS

NUMBER 4

Here are some hot weather suggestions from the Home Service kitchens of the Potomac Edison System. We hope they will help make your summertime living easier and more enjoyable.

For especially delightful summer drinks, make ice cubes of lemonade and use them in iced tea or other beverages. And don't forget, ice cubes will keep, without sticking together, in your freezer. Keep a supply on hand for unexpected guests.

When packing fruit in sirup for freezing, drop a crumpled piece of freezer cellophane on the liquid to keep all the pieces of fruit under the juice during the freezing process.

Why not keep an assortment of frozen desserts in your freezer or freezing compartment of your electric refrigerator. Your family and guests will enjoy selecting their own favorites.

For a free booklet on home freezing, "Frozen Assets," just drop a card to the Home Service Advisor at your nearest electric company office.

Be thrifty with left-over coffee-freeze as coffee ice cubes. They keep iced coffee cool without diluting it.

And for free assistance with any of your home electrical problems, call the Home Service Advisor, POTOMAC EDISON CO., TANEYTOWN, MD
