CHARTER NIGHT CELEBRATION AT THURMONT

Gov. T. R. McKeldin Addresses Kiwanians Wednesday Evening

Thirty-seven members and their guests of the Taneytown Kiwanis Club joined the Thurmont Club in celebration of that club's second charter night observation, Wednesday evening, May 2, 1956.

A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served by the ladies of Thurmont Lutheran church in the church's parish hall.

In the absence of the president, Vice-president Tolbert Lawyer called the meeting to order. Rev. Miles S. Reifsnider acted as toastmaster. Gifts were presented by Governor McKeldin, Governor of Maryland, to a number of the "dignitaries" present.

The last part of the Governor's speech was as follows: "It's good to be in Thurmont in the spring."

Indeed, it always gives a man a lift to get into the mountains—particularly these mountains of Western Maryland, where Presidents of the United States have come to recuperate from the pressures of the Capital and where, at times, momentous decisions of Government have been made.

In addition to such physical realities as cleaner air and expansive forests, the mountains have a symbolic value—the feeling of freedom—of individualism—the understanding of the dignity of each member of the human family. This feeling, this sense and this understanding are lost at times in the crowded cities with their essential interdependence.

This interdependence is good and necessary in an organized society, but each of us, while respecting it, should guard against its complete domination over the individual. Each of us should escape at times to the higher places—spiritually and physically—to the mountains of the soul and the mountains of the earth.

Indeed, I had such thoughts as these when I recommended to the General Assembly this year that funds be appropriated in the Capital Budget to begin the acquisition of land for a Pen Mar State Park. We do not want to lose this wonderful recreation area.

Yes, man should have the occasional opportunity to know abundant trees and clear skies—the opportunity to look down, not with disdain on any fellow human, but in contemplation from the heights.

He should have the chance to view from above the bigness of the earth—to revive his faith in the future—to realize that all is not lost because of the madness of a few boastful, breast-thumping dictators who never have looked down from a mountain top.

Even today in the Soviet Union, the fearful eyes of dictator-rulers turn watchfully to the mountains of the Caucasus and the Urals where many of the people are awakening to the call of freedom from the slavery of Communism.

Much of the new, more conciliatory attitude which those rulers assume before the world is due to their fears of the mountain peoples. They may never have heard of the motto of our neighboring West Virginia—"Mountaineers Are Always Free"—but they are aware by now that their mountaineers never quite submit to oppressive rule.

Those men of the Kremlin may tear Stalin from the heights to which his arrogance had raised him, but they can never tear down those natural symbols of human liberty—the mountains—homes of the eagles and of men with the look of eagles, and with the eagles' love of freedom.

Yes, it is good, as we weigh the worries of the world today to be in Thurmont in the spring.

It is good to come back to the mountains!

A CYNICAL POLITICAL BID

In vetoing the farm bill, President Eisenhower showed both economic wisdom and political courage—qualities which are sorely needed in high places in this country.

The character of the vetoed measure can be judged by the fact that, on the one hand, it established a soil bank designed to reduce surpluses, while on the other it provided for 90 per cent supports which would make more and bigger surpluses as inevitable as tomorrow morning.

The Portland Oregonian accurately described the bill when it said: "The farm bill passed by both house and senate Wednesday and sent to the White House—is a cynical political bid for the farm vote in November's election." This cynicism was not of a partisan nature—members of both the parties shared fully in it.

The President, in his post-veto radio and TV broadcast, said: "It was a bad bill for the country. In the months ahead it would hurt more farmers than it would help. In the long run it would hurt all farmers."

Finally, anyone who thinks high supports help agriculture would do well to read and remember this statement by Dr. George S. Benson: "In every year but one since 1947, farm income has declined—and in all these years until mid 1955, high rigid supports were in effect. It was under such price supports that our present farm problem developed. In other words, if high rigid price supports were the answer to our problem, we would have no problem."—Industrial News Review.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

RAYMONDVILLE, TEXAS, NEWS: "... Roadside protection—for both the man with the flat tire and those who must pass him—is provided for now in the Uniform Vehicle Code of the National Committee on Uniform Traffic Laws and Ordinances. Simple attachments to convert your turn-lights to this double duty are available now. They may soon be standard equipment on new cars. The question is: 'How much more blood must stain our highways before this flashing "disability flare" becomes mandatory?'"

MONTPELIER, VERMONT, EVENING ARGUS: "Now that Khrushchev & Co., in Moscow, have foreclosed on Stalin's reputation and are desperately working to make a bum out of him—so the grumbling multitude will have someone to blame for their misery—the clouds maybe lifting. We may yet see a Red sunset."

INDIO, CALIF., NEWS: "The House Agriculture Committee has approved legislation that would authorize the Department of Agriculture to go into the business of building big dams. If this bill becomes law, the nation will have three big dam building agencies. But we wonder if there is any taxpayer in the country outside the bureaucracy, who wouldn't agree that we have dam-building agencies aplenty right now?"

CUERO, TEXAS, RECORD: "The controversy over whether or not Shakespeare wrote his plays has raged for years. The time may come, if television continues to make inroads into people's reading habits, when it will be argued that they were really written by Sir Laurence Olivier."

A production worker today can purchase 2 1/5 lbs. of round steak as compared to 1 1/5 lbs. for an hour's earning in 1929. He can buy 2 4/5 lbs. of rib roast now as compared with 1 1/2 lbs. in 1929. Back in 1914 the worker could get only around 1 lb. of round steak and a little over 1 lb. of rib roast for the hourly wages he made that year.—Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Ford Trucks Cost Less!

The pay-off is in the payload! New Ford T-800 tandem-axle model lets you carry up to 3,000 lbs. more payload than most other 6-wheelers. GCW 65,000 lbs.

More loadspace than any other 1/2-ton pickup—up to 19 cu. ft. more! New Ford F-100, GVW 5,000 lbs., now offers full 8-ft. box. 6 1/2-ft. box is standard.

Ford costs start low—
Ford costs stay low...

Certified studies show Ford Trucks last longer than any of the other four leading makes

Compare Ford model for model with any other truck line and you'll find that, based on factory-suggested list prices, Ford has more models priced under competition than any other line.

But low initial cost is only one of the reasons why Fords cost less. Take resale value—it stays high, thanks to the demand for used Ford Trucks. Take operating costs—no other trucks give you the dependability of Ford's rugged chassis design with the gas and oil economy of a modern Short Stroke engine. Only Ford gives you a Short Stroke engine, V-8 or Six, in every truck—and at no extra cost.

Ford Trucks cost less to maintain because they last longer. This is a fact certified by independent life insurance experts. There are plenty of reasons why. Ford Pickups, for example, have the highest combined front and rear axle capacity in the half-ton field. Ford Heavy Duty engines have sodium-cooled valves that last up to five times longer because they run up to 225 degrees cooler.

When you take everything into consideration, you'll agree it costs less to own a FORD Truck. Before you buy any truck, see your Ford Dealer.

FORD TRUCKS
LONGER

Certified by independent insurance actuaries for the ninth consecutive year! Studies of over 10,000,000 current license registrations show that Ford Trucks last up to 9.9% longer than any of the other 4 leading truck makes!

DETOUR-KEYSVILLE

Wayne Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Myers, Myron and Richard Wilhide, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide were among those who were entertained by the Lions Club of Union Bridge at their regular dinner meeting on April 24th. Many boys and girls who are active in sports at the Elmer A. Wolfe school were guests at this dinner.

Mrs. Frank Zimmerman, of near Detour, was a guest at a luncheon at the Gettysburg Hotel on April 25th.

Dogwood lovers should remember to drive on the Keyville-Detour road to view the Dogwood trees in the Stonifer woods. The large trees have been cut away from the Dogwood making a real display for practically the whole length of the grove.

Mrs. Maurice Wilhide was a guest at the home of her son, Lloyd and Mrs. Wilhide, on Sunday.

The committee to plan for the Community Bible School at Keyville met on Friday evening at the Keyville church. Mrs. C. E. Priest heads the committee. The school will start on June 11 and end on June 22. This year it is planned to have a Ten-age study beginning at 7:30 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each of these two weeks.

Young people of Keyville and surrounding community please register for this study with Mrs. Carroll M. Wilhide. This is an experiment in Bible school work with the youth and it is hoped that the parents will do a lot of encouraging to help make it a success.

Jane Wilhide was a guest of her friend, Eileen Kiser, over the weekend. Eileen returned the visit Sunday afternoon.

Deborah, the young daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Marcum, of Frederick, was baptized at the Keyville Lutheran church, on Sunday. Mrs. Marcum is the former Miss Grace Flohr, daughter of Mrs. Mary Flohr, near Detour.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stine on their 25th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Stine's sister, Mrs. Gilbert Stine and Mr. Stine surprised them with a celebration on Sunday at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun were among those who attended the celebration in the afternoon.

Between 60 and 70 persons attended this anniversary open house for Mr. and Mrs. Stine.

Mr. Raymond Myers, of near Detour, has been on the sick list. He made a short trip to the hospital. The trellis for the 5 or 6 rose bushes across the road from the Myers home are very "eye-catching".

Lutherans who attended the Evangelism meeting at Upperco, on April 25th were advised by the Director of No. 2 District, Rev. Francis B. Myers, to go home and wipe every other engagement off of their calendar beginning with Feb. 1937 through Feb. 1938. The Lutheran Churches in the Westminster area and Deer Park will all or about all be having church services every night with a minister who is called a "Missioner" preaching the sermons. All the Lutherans are urged to plan to attend these services. There will be many members and non-members called upon and urged to come to these evangelistic meetings. Those who attended from the Keyville Lutheran Church were: C. E. Priest, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll M. Wilhide and Mrs. Mary Devibiss. Mrs. Emory Minnick, of the Union Bridge church, has charge of the publicity for this great effort.

It has been a pleasure to view, what I would estimate to be between 250 and 300 hyacinth blooms in the Thomas Fox garden at Keyville.

At 3 a. m. April 25, through a telephone call from their son Fred, of Midwest City, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide learned they had become grandparents of Douglas A. Wilhide at 1:15. Douglas arrived just an 14 hour too late to be born on grandma Bernice's birthday. Mrs. Wilhide is the former Miss Verona Caroni, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Caroni, of Indiana, Pa. Fred's address 549 E. Indian Dr., Midwest City, Okla. Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. Fry, Sandra, Joyce, Mike and Lois, of East Avenue, Baltimore, were visitors on Sunday of the Carroll Wilhides and her mother, Mrs. Maurice Wilhide.

One of the fields on the farm tenanted by the Howard Motter family, near Detour, has been divided. The shining new wooden posts for this long fence attracts the eye.

Mr. and Mrs. James Coshun, Detour, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun and family and Mary Helen and Betty Shibley, Mr. and Mrs. James Unglesbee and children, Dennis, and Gail and LeRoy Coshun, on Tuesday evening, April 24th, in honor of their son, LeRoy's 20th birthday.

The Junior Society of Christian Endeavor of the Keyville Church met at the church on Sunday evening. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Audrey Wilhide, Vice Pres., James Coshun; Secretary, Jane Wilhide; Treasurer, Eileen Kiser; Program Chairman, Judy Kiser. Jas. Coshun and Eileen Kiser had charge of the refreshments for the evening.

The High School Society of C. E. also had election of officers which resulted as follows: President, Harwood Tydings; Vice Pres., Robert Simmons; Secretary, Betty Shipley; Treasurer, Charles Young. For the social event for this month—this group will attend the Fun Night to be put on by the Seniors at Elmer A. Wolfe school on Thursday evening, May 3rd. The leaders for the next C. E. meeting on May 13 are John Kiser and Becky Wilhide. I understand that an effort to get film strips for this meeting will be made. Devotional Ch. Richard Wilhide, Membership, Lois Priest, Missionary, Beverly Priest, Social, John Young.

The Keyville United Church Women will meet on Tuesday evening, May 8, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. James Coshun and Mrs. Luther Keeney will have charge of presenting the topic. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adkins and family have moved onto the farm which was formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Kiser and is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Hans Steffen. Mr. and Mrs. George Fox have moved on the Hammond farm on the Carroll county side of Six's bridge which crosses the Monocacy. Mr. and Mrs. Fox are from the Woodsboro area. This farm had been vacated earlier in the year by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meadows and family who moved to their newly purchased farm, the former Morris Zentz place, at Emmitsburg.

Miss Beverly Priest is glowing with reports of her visit over the week-end to the Lutheran Deaconess House in Ruxton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Merle Wilhide of York, Pa., visited with his mother Mrs. Maurice Wilhide on Saturday evening. They enjoyed the fellowship of eating their supper together. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide and Mrs. Maurice Wilhide visited with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hoff and Donnie, on Sunday afternoon.

Gregory Clabaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clabaugh, of Detour, is very much on the sick list at this writing (Monday). Visitors in the Clabaugh home on Sunday evening were Mrs. Clabaugh's mothers, Mrs. Mary Coulson and a sister, Peggy Coulson and an aunt and Peggy's friend all from Hanover, Pa.

All members of the Executive committee of the Elmer A. Wolfe PTA are urged to attend the meeting to be held at the school at 8 o'clock on Monday evening, May 7th. Mrs. Clara Wilson, her son James and his wife and two sons of Lushy, Md., visited with her niece Mrs. John Young and family of Keyville on a recent Sunday. This was a real family reunion as Mrs. Wilson and her family had not seen Mrs. Young for twenty years. In the afternoon 30 persons gathered at the Young home, among them the 4 sisters and 2 brothers of Mrs. Young. The Young family hope to return the Wilson's visit sometime this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Duple are building a home in Keyville located beside his mother's home. Carroll Wilhide is recovering from a badly infected thumb. An addition is being made on the loafing shed at this farm.

A real construction project is underway at the home of Mr. E. J. Clabaugh near Detour. Part of the house has been torn down and will be rebuilt. I understand that this was an old log house and that the termites had really done their dirty work. More reasonable weather is hoped for, for this work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schildt of Detour are beautifying their property by the planting of shrubbery. Quite a number of loads of earth have been put on the land on the roadside of the Raymond Myers property at the junction of the Naylor's Mill Road and the Detour Road. This was a former well-kept beautiful garden but I understand it will now be a lawn. The additional earth will probably encourage motorists to take more time to go around that bad curve and not end up as an unwelcome visitor on the Myers lawn.

FEESERSBURG (A Voice from Carroll)

The Cub Scouts of Union Bridge were honored Sunday evening with a musical program in the Church of the Brethren in which all the churches of Union Bridge and nearby communities took part. Pastor Simmons in a brief address welcomed the cubs, parents and friends. The musical groups taking part in the program were: Union Bridge Methodist Choir; Middleburg-Johnsville Methodist Choirs; Senior choir of the Brethren church and the Junior Choir of the Mt. Union Lutheran Church was represented by Miss Alice Bohner and Miss Nancy Roelke who sang a duet accompanied by Mrs. Blaine Broadwater. The group singing was led by Mrs. Berkly Bowman and the choir accompanists were Miss Marguerite Anders; Mrs. Wayne Repp, Miss Patricia Rupp and Mrs. Doris Albright. Mrs. Albright also played an organ meditation. The cub scouts recited the Cub Scout Pledge and sang "America" under the direction of Mrs. Raymond Wright accompanied on the piano by Kin Wright, a member of the cubs. As pastor Simmons pointed out the cub scouting is important to the boy and to his community. It can be the beginning of character building which can influence a boy's entire life, and his attitudes toward the outside world. A community interested in scouting is a community building for the future.

And speaking of the future, Union Bridge is looking ahead in more ways than one. The widening of Main Street and the new pavements have given a new look to the town not to mention the convenience in parking when the project is finished.

The Baltimore Sun papers came out for Millard E. Tydings in the coming Primary election on Monday. In a brilliant editorial they gave their reasons. Mr. Tydings had a record when he served in the senate before that anyone could be proud of. "Time" magazine once wrote that he was among the top ten senators serving in the U. S. Senate. On the other hand Mr. Mahoney has no record at all except trying four times to be elected in Maryland and four times the voters said "NO." Ever since Governor Lane excused himself from politics, the Democratic party in Maryland has been torn apart by bitter rivalry for control of the party by several factions. If the party is ever to regain the prestige and respect it once held, it must have at its head a man every Democrat can have faith in. Mr. Tydings in my opinion is that man. Many voters stay away from the polls on primary day because they don't think it important. It is certainly important to see that the right man is nominated on Monday. The U. S. Senate needs Mr. Tydings and so does the Democratic party of Maryland need Mr. Tydings, but more important than either of these, the people of Maryland need to be represented once again by a man that knows his way around in Washington and one that Washington will know is around. Even if the temperatures hadn't soared to heat record levels we would have known that spring was officially here for the swallows returned to our barn on Sunday.

Students from private and public schools of Maryland met Saturday at Gilman School in Baltimore in a United Nation's Youth Conference to discuss world problems. The 250 students at the conference were greatly disappointed when Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt was unable to deliver her address to them because dense fog had grounded her plane in New York. However the conference proceeded and the students gained a greater understanding of the function and usefulness of the United Nation's organization.

The President of Goucher College made a speech on Saturday at the State Teacher's College at Towson. Among the many things he said worth repeating the following lines are a reminder to each of us that education should be everyone's business: "If we can afford two or three cars per family, if we can afford to spend billions annually on cigarettes and liquor, if we can spend many more billions on gadgets for making life more comfortable and more entertaining than we can surely find the money which is needed to build the schools and colleges and provide the best education and decently pay the teachers who staff them. If we cannot cope with this problem in a period of spectacular prosperity then we are truly bogging to national disaster." The president was not speaking idle words. For the last three months Dorothy Thompson has been comparing Russian educational systems with ours and she tells us it is far superior in many ways. Russia has produced many more scientists and engineers than we have and has raised the literacy of her population from 90 percent illiterate to nearly 100 percent literate and accomplished it in one generation. Scientific knowledge is the key to the future and yet we are behind Russia in producing students with a workable knowledge of physics, chemistry and mathematics. Any nation that does not value education is doomed and sometimes it appears that our parents understood this even better than we do. For they did without not only the comforts of life to give us an education but also did without the necessities. Our nation is rich enough to educate its people and still not have to do without either necessities or luxuries. But it must wake up to the truth that unless the coming generations are given the right education there will be neither comforts or necessities for any of us. Our enemies will see to that. If we are to keep our world leadership education must become everyone's business and this pinch-penny economy on schools and teachers must end.

Every family brags about something and I understand that this was an old log house and that the termites had really done their dirty work. More reasonable weather is hoped for, for this work. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schildt of Detour are beautifying their property by the planting of shrubbery. Quite a number of loads of earth have been put on the land on the roadside of the Raymond Myers property at the junction of the Naylor's Mill Road and the Detour Road. This was a former well-kept beautiful garden but I understand it will now be a lawn. The additional earth will probably encourage motorists to take more time to go around that bad curve and not end up as an unwelcome visitor on the Myers lawn.

OTTO—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, AMANDA C. who passed away, May 2, 1943.

Before our eyes you faded, Growing weaker every day, Patiently bearing your suffering Until God took you away.

To see you slowly leave us, As helpless we stood by, And drank the cup of bitter grief, The day we saw you die.

You heard a voice we couldn't hear, Which said, you cannot stay, You saw a hand we couldn't see Which beckoned you away.

Some day we hope to meet you In that land so bright and fair, For Jesus our Savior invited us, His beautiful home to share.

MR. & MRS. WILLIAM ABRA and granddaughter, MRS. WALTER PARSELEY.

OTTO—In memory of my dear mother, AMANDA C., who died May 2, 1949

A dearer mother never lived Nor one more fine and true Nor was a mother ever loved, More truly Mom than you.

The lonely hours that we have spent Are woven through and through, With golden threads of memories Dear Mom, just for you.

Loving daughter, MRS. WILLIAM STITELY.

Conversion

Lesson for May 6, 1956

CONVERSION is a religious word, but it wasn't originally, and isn't exclusively so now. We have all heard of people converted to communism, or from it. A young man drives a convertible,—that is, a car which can be changed from open to closed, or back again.

A business man converts a factory from war production to peace production. Conversion, in short, means change. But as Christians use the word, they do not mean just any kind of change. Every Dr. Foreman Christian's life, if it is a growing life, is a changing life. People who never become Christians at all may change their lives in various ways. The specially Christian meaning of "conversion" refers to the basic change from being non-Christian, sub-Christian or un-Christian to being a Christian.

Was Paul Peculiar?

Probably the most famous conversion in the history of Christianity was that of the man who later became the Apostle Paul. He was called Saul at the time, while as for being an apostle, he was on the contrary something rather worse than a "bad egg." He was an apostle of hate, persecuting and persecuting people for no other sin or crime than merely being Christians. His conversion was sudden, spectacular and dramatic in the extreme. It was so impressive that to this day there are some who think that if you are not converted in the way in which Paul was converted, you can hardly have been converted at all. On the contrary, the one God who works in Nature in so many varied ways, works in men in varied ways too. Just as there are no two people exactly alike, so it would be surprising if any two conversion-experiences were exactly alike. Paul was a special case, and God dealt with him in a special way. One might almost say God had to hit Saul on the head and knock him down, to bring him to his senses. There were many features of that conversion that seldom if ever occur in other cases.

From ... to ...

First and all-inclusive, in the universal features of Saul's conversion, is the fact that this experience meant a turning around. His life pointed, in a different direction ever after. Conversion means turning, and turning means a new course, a new destination, a new road. He turned from a negative to a positive life,—from being against, to being for. His entire energy had been spent in hating Christ and Christians. Afterwards his entire energy was devoted to the service of Christ and Christians. Before his conversion Saul was chiefly noted for his eagerness to tear down. Afterwards one of his favorite words, and favorite occupations, was "building up." He was turned from pride to humility, from trying to get what he wanted, to trying to do what Christ wanted. Before, he was a masterless man; afterwards, he himself often said of himself that he was a "slave" of Christ. But it was precisely in being body-and-soul devoted to Christ for life, here and forever, that he found the freedom from evil in his own life for which, as a masterless man, he had sought in vain. In these and in other ways, the conversion of Saul was not peculiar. All true conversion is a turning, from a negative, empty, destructive and fruitless life, to the "life in Christ," a positive, loving, constructive, brotherly life with much fruit of service.

The Thing, Not the Word

The word "conversion" occurs only once in the whole Bible (King James translation)—Acts 15:3. All the words together, like "convert," connected with this, make only fourteen out of the thousands of words in the Bible. But the thing is there, and that is the important point. One way of putting it is suggested by the story in Acts 9, which of course does not use the word "conversion." What happened there? Saul came into contact with Jesus; and instead of hating him any more, he worshipped him. He called him "Lord." That's conversion. But not all of it. Paul in later years told this story twice (that we know of—there must have been other times): Acts 22 and 26. He said about it: "I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision." Conversion is response to the touch of God. Conversion begins when we first take orders from Him.

PURINA grows big pullets, gets lots of big eggs

Here's why you can expect an extra basket of eggs per week from each 100 hens, compared to U.S. Average.

How'd you like to get an extra basket of eggs per week this fall from each 100 layers? That's what a nationwide survey indicates you can expect if you feed your pullets on a Purina Growing plan. And remember, that's during the fall and early winter when prices are usually most favorable.

Records from 1,033 farmers showed that each hundred pullets grown out on a Purina feeding program laid nearly 20 dozen extra eggs per week over the U. S. Average flocks during the four fall months—September to December.

Feed Growers in the new feed-saving Bite-Size checkers. Or, if you have grain, your Purina Dealer can show you how to feed a ration that's largely your own grain—with just enough Purina to make pullets grow right.

Where Corn Growing Profits Begin

The difference in seed corn cost per acre varies only about 70¢ whether you plant the best hybrid available, or the cheapest seed you can buy. But think of the difference in the profit you'll make from a corn that yields an extra 3 bushels, 5 bushels—or even more—per acre. So start your corn crop by planting a hybrid that will give you those extra bushels in the fall. Pioneer hybrids are known throughout the Corn Belt for their high yields and dependability, year after year.
