Hope you did not miss the display of beautiful China at the China gal-leries of Samuel Kirk and Son on North Charles Street at Franklin. It is Royal Crown Derby pronounced, Darby. In the exhibit there are about 300 piece valued more than $100,000. The Gentleman was out for lunch so it meant a man who knew very little about the details explained it to me to about the details explained it to me to the best of his ability.

Here is the story of Derby China which began in 1750 when William Duesbury, in association with Andrew Planche made the first piece of China in the town. This was very soon after it's introduction into Europe by Bottger, the German Pioneer of the ceramic art in the early part of the eighteenth century. Derby China quickly attained national fame under Duesbury's direction and the factory was so well established by 1769 that the famous Chelsea Porcelain factory was also acquired.

was also acquired.

The year of 1773 was an important one because the Derby factory was visited by King George III, who took a considerable interest in its products, both the pand subsequently and to both then and subsequently and to mark the occasion granted Duesbury a Patent to mark Derby China with the Crown and from that date Derby China became known as Crown Derby!

China became known as Crown Derby! There is a dinner-plate which was handed to me (and that one did surprise me) which was worth $1,000 which has a 24-carat gold applied layer which is burnished. The plate is unusually heavy and it was purchased by the Duke of Wellington. It was amazing to hear it ring as I tapped it due to the fact that it has been fired (into the China) ten times. Believe it (into the China) ten times. Believe it or not but this plate can be ordered to-day at $12,000 a dozen! One of the very old or antique pieces is a Vase which cost $9,000.

The pattern which Queen Elizabeth used or selected for her private use was on display. It is most beautiful in shades of Mauve with layer after layer of gold. This sells for $500. for just one dozen dinner plates. The only difference is that the Queen has The English Crown in the centre of each piece.

It is really too bad that the display of "Royal Crown Derby" only lasted for the five days of this past week.

Almost forgot to mention that a recent order from a Persian Gulf Oil

The brilliant Operatic Star simply shines which I think is far superior to any previous show in which he appeared. It truly is a real "Comeback" peared. It truly is a real "Comeback" after his absence of three years. He is thinner, too.

It presents Lanza as a peasant who sings in the fields of California just for the love of it. Joan Fontaine appears as a very rich and beautiful woman (and her gowns surely are an eye-full) which will please the ladies and the men, too who pays for the singing lessons of Damon Vincente as the story goes and soon he is on his way to the Metropolitan in New York. This girl furiates the singer being in love with a Sculptor and although he reaches the top, he is broken hearted in fact becomes ill and takes a plane for Mexico. He meets a Spanish beauty who is a very popular Star in Mexico who really saves the day for the singer. You will love when he sings, "Ave Maria" in a very old Mexican church. Your Observer was thinking of the days at the Metropolitan seeing it all again carrying me back to those wonderful days (and it is wonderful to reminisce) if it is all pleasant when I heard Caruso, Melba, Tetrazzini, Caro-olina White, Mary Garden, Geraldine Farrar and numerous others. Mario Lanza makes one think so much about Caruso as his voice is very much like the singer who was famous. You will like Sarita Montiel, too, I am sure.

PRAISE FOR A VETO

A survey of editorial comment following President Eisenhower's veto of the farm bill shows widespread approval of the action. The President was praised for showing political courage in a matter of the utmost difficulty, and for refusing to bow to expediency.

The bill itself, as many editors pointed out, was a hodge-podge of inconsistencies and would have made the surplus problem worse-and more costly to the taxpayers. It would have undermined the legitimate, long-range interests of the farmers themselves.

There was no possibility of the bill being passed over the veto. And it is a question now whether there will be any new major farm legislation this year at all, though the President is pressing for his soil bank

There can be no permanent solution to the farm problem under any policy that encourages production for storage as against production for consumption. Means must be found for moving the bounty of the land into the homes of consumers. One such means is aggressive promotion. That has been done lately in the case of meat-a commodity in strong supply-and with success. And, judging by the available evidence, only a minority of livestock producers want government aids and controls that go with them. The majority want a free enterprise economy. That should be the goal of all agriculture.

GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS

HIGHLAND, ILL., NEWS LEAD-ER: "By fighting cancer with a check we are helping scientists to conquer cancer through research; we are helping cancer patients with a wide variety of comforting services at home and in hospitals; and we are helping the American Cancer Society to spread life-saving knowledge of cancer throughout the nation."

COUPEVILLE, WN., COURIER: "One of our primary editorial policies will be to create an interest in local government. This purpose is founded on the fundamental belief that a true and working democratic federal government is based on strong small units of democratic self-government such as is found in small cities and towns. We believe that strong democracies at the very core of our life will protect us from dictational tendencies of government on higher levels." ELDORADO, KAN., TIMES: "No longer will government employes be dismissed because of tales told behind their backs by anonymous informers who cannot be faced and cross-examined. The Federal Court of Appeals for the Ninth or Pacific Coast circuit recently ruled that without such confrontation no one could have a fair chance to defend himself. The Justice department has decided not to appeal this decision to the Supreme Court. It therefore stands. The court struck a solid blow for freedom." PLAINFIELD, IND., MES-SENGER: "Memory is often shortlived especially if present conditions seem a little unfavorable. But a friend of the Messenger has checked the records and reminds voters, especially farmers, that ... the top price for hogs under OPA was $15.45 ....With hog prices at $16.00 they are still 55 cents per cwt. over the New Deal limit price of $15.45. Perhaps it is well for all of us to refresh our memory."

first to squeal.

The Tuberculosis X-Ray unit will be in Detour, Keymar Middleburg, Linwood and Uniontown, May 15th to x-ray, free of charge, any person 15 years old and older. Every person should have a chest x-ray to learn whether he or she is free from tuberculosis and to discover the disease early . . . when cure is the easiest. Remember there is no charge, no undressing, it doesn't hurt, takes only a few minutes, the reports are confidential and everyone is sent a report. Tuberculosis can be cured nost quickly when found and treated early . . . before signs and symptoms appear. You can check your lungs quickly. Step up to the x-ray machine
... take a deep breath ... hold it for a few seconds ... that's all. Doctors recommend a chest x-ray each year to find TB early. Protect your family rourself and your friends. A person with TB is a menace to everyone he or she comes in contact with. If everyone would have a chest x-ray, tuberculosis could be eradicated in a very short time. But it will take coperation on everyone's part if this is ever to be accomplished. The following persons will assist the technicians with the x-ray unit on Tuesday: Detour, Mrs. Howard Franklin; Keymar, Mrs. Truman Leakins; Middle burg Mrs. Donald Six. An electric iron, like any other household appliance, needs attention once ever so often. When used to iron starched clothes it tends to accumulate some of the starch on its surface and if the starch isn't removed at regular intervals the surface becomes rough and rupples the clothes while ironing. We have found out from experience that the best way to remove the starch from the bottom of an iron is to wait until the iron is cold, then wipe the surface with a wet cloth, dipped in some good cleansing powder. Never, no never use scouring powder or steel wool, for they will scratch the iron, making it unfit to do a good job of ironing again. After the iron has been cleaned, heat it slightly and run the surface over wax paper. The iron will then be ready for use and will work as slick as a new one.

For the first time, voters in our district used voting machines in the primary election on Monday. After one understands the machine, it is very simple and we like it much better than the written ballot. So do the precinct workers. For the machine eliminates the all night counting of ballots. It is too early to say whether the machine voting kept many away from the polls on Monday but we can assure anyone who may have stayed away for that reason, that the voting machine isnt anything that a first grader couldn't master in two minutes. Since the average voter is sup-posed to have the intelligence of a fifth grader one can readily see there

The Mt. Union Lutheran Mission-ary Society held its regular monthly meeting in the parish house Monday evening with 25 members and guests present. Mrs. Helen Crouse, president of the society presided with Mrs. Cleon Wolfe serving as leader. The topic for discussion "Ambassadors of Goodwill". Mrs. Lowell Birely gave a short talk on our attitude toward foreigners. She pointed out that we don't always treat people from other lands with the same respect and ourtesy that we would expect if we were visiting lands outside our own boundaries. Instead we look upon them often with suspicion and prej udice. A program was presented the Christian Endeavor group which included prelude music by Nancy Roelke; piano and trumpet duet by Linda and Dale Miller; and a piano solo by Brenda Lightner, Mrs. Lee Fink sang a solo. Refreshments were served following the program. We want to commend Mr. Richard Stultz for his interest in seeing that Union Bridge will sometime in the future build a recreation center or park. For about five years that we know of different groups have talked about such a project. But it has nev er gotten out of the talking stage. What is really needed is an energetic eader to fuse the different interests nto one big interest and work toward a common plan. Union Bridge has three baseball teams at present and all of them need a permanent dianond. The children need a swimming pool and the older people need a park for picnics and family reunions. citizens of Union Bridge agree that all these things are needed, but no one seems to know how to go about starting the dreams into a reality. What is needed is just a beginning like securing 12 acres of land near the town and laying out a plan. Taneytown has a nice recreation park and they started out a little at a time. Each year something new added and it is a fine place for family outing. Union Bridge could do the same thing and would do it if only some one would make a begin-

To err is human . . . and sometimes it is the best thing that could happen Five women in Baltimore were picked at random the other day by a reporter and asked this question: What do you think is the contribut. ing factor in teenage deliquency All five said it was absence of the parents from the home too much of the time. None of the five believed that a mother should work away from the home unless it was abso lutely necessary. They thought that parents should give more of their time to the children instead of handing them material things. They thought every child should be made to do certain jobs at home and help to earn their spending money instead of just handing them an allowance. I can agree with everything the five mothers said. How about you?

after a day keeping three noisy, energetic and fun-loving grandchil

was caused by lightning striking a when three or more get together? If you are a teenager its two-toned convertibles and dates, in that order, whether you are a girl or boy. If you are in the 40-50 age group its ill health and finances. If you are a young parent its all about junior, and if you are over 60 its about the "good old days". Some one said that they could close their eyes and listen to conversation and tell the age of every one talking.

Some people want, a written statement from God that He really exists.

NUAL ALUMNI BANQUET

Cards will be sent within the next week to all known T.H.S. Alumni in this part of the world announcing the Annual Alumni Banquet and Dance. A fine program is planned to follow the banquet with classes holding reunions allowed a few minutes for participa-tion. Bob Kersey's orchestra will furnish the music for dancing till midnight, which will round out an evening no one will want to miss.

Because this evening is planned and offered to the Alumni members and offered to the Alumni members and their guests at less than cost, it is very necessary that reservations be made early and accompanied by the full price of the banquet and dance. Reservations should be accompanied by check or money order, name, address, and graduating class. These should be sent to James Fair, Taneytown, Md., who has charge of tickets. Reservations may not be accepted af-Reservations may not be accepted af-ter May 28 but if circumstances force cancellations the money will be refunded if word is received by May 31.

A very large crowd is anticipated this year, especially since the classes of '51, '46, '41, '36, '31, and '26 are planning reunions. These classes will have reserved tables and response has been very good. So it is quite possi-ble that a capacity crowd will be reached and some of our people disappointed.

Since it is quite possible that mistakes or omissions are made in the addressing of over 700 cards, some Alumni may not receive their card. If this happens to you, please notify some active member, officer, or ticket committee member at once.

ASCENSION DAY

When I was a boy, the old horizon hung low, Many superstitious people, I used to know, On Ascension day they refused to work; So, countless duties, they used to shirk.

If a man wore a shirt made on that day The lightning would strike him, they used to say; So it was with labor of every kind; On that day, laborers were hard to find.

They all went fishing on Ascension Day; The exigencies of Time can wait, they would say; Such actions they thought God would approve And seemed to make them feel more at ease.

Men did not know our Wonderful God Who made this earth; and, on it once trod; For, in spite of all the evil things we do, He convenes, and acts like He never knew.

Our God is Love; He never holds spite; Instead, He watches over us day and night, So, mortal man should bow his head in shame, When he fails to hallow His Holy name.

Just think of what He is doing for man!-All because it is a part of His plan To make this earth a fit place to be When he goes from time to eternity.

The ancients all pictured God as a man; They knew nothing about His ineffable plan; They imagined He did as they would do If they had a similar job to put through.

But, our God is not a mulipulator of clay; So, He did not create man, the way men say; Ever since man first appeared on earth, He has come by way of physical birth.

God does not practice legerdemain, To every mortal on earth that should be plain; He creates the thing which produces the thing; So, in that way, things continue to bring.

The chicken; the egg; the tree; the fruit; the cow; the milk; The bee; the honey; the silkworm; the silk; In the same way, we are told, He created man, From the very beginning, that has been His plan!

We have heard heaven preached ever since birth; But, when Jesus was here, He talked about earth; For it is here that man is fitted to be A son of God; and reign in Eternity.

This earth is God's school-house where all must be Taught to practice love and charity; So, until we are perfect, we must all return, It is here the fires of hell still burn.

When Jesus appeared to St. John, the scriptures say, His contenance was like the Sun at noon day; So it shall be with you some future day; For, you shall be like Him the scriptures say.

The heaven Jesus spoke of, experts say,
Are what we call the 4th Dimension today;
It was there He went on Asgension Day
And now rules in a body of glorified electricity, they say.

The 4th Dimension is God's storage house in the skies. From there He sends to earth its supplies; The Sun puts the vitamins in plants everywere Which help to make them a complete bill of fare.

If you pack lunch boxes for your children or husband, here are some suggestions that may prove helpful:

- 1. Put wooden tooth picks into the top of cakes or pies before wrapping them. This will keep waxed paper from sticking to icing or meringue.
- 2. When packing thermos bottle filled with hot liquids, pre-heat it first with hot water. Pre-cool it before filling with chilled liquids.
- 3. To give extra flavor to sandwich fillings, cream butter for spreading and add horse radish, minced onion, grated cheese, catsup or chopped parsley.

Cupcakes baked in paper muffin cups stay fresh longer than if they are baked in muffin tins.

Lighting in your home should add decorative touches as well as protect eyesight. Our Home Service Advisors will be glad to give you free assistance in planning and arranging your home lights-both indoors and out. For this free service, just call our local office.

Don't throw away leftover mashed white or sweet potatoes, wrap them in waxed paper, chill or freeze and fry as needed.

Automatic washers may be used to dye fabrics, bath mats and so forth. Our local Home Service Advisor will be glad to advise you about this unique use of a common household appliance.

To re-heat scalloped dishes, add a small amount of water, milk or gravy, toss lightly to re-moisten and place in 350° oven until heated.

For All Men

Lesson for May 13, 1956

STRANGE as it seems, one of the hardest things for Christians to get through their heads and into their hearts, is that the Gospel is for all men. Some people have actually believed that God has two lists, and everybody's name is on one or the other; one list is of the people whom God intends to save, and the other is the list of those whom He has no intention of saving. This notion is out of line with the New Testament, especially such a clear statement as I Timo- Dr. Foreman thy 2:4: "God our Savior, who desires all men to be saved." Others, as we all know, somewhere back in their minds are very slow to believe that the Gospel is really for all men.

"The Believers Were Amazed"

Prejudice is not new in the world, not new in the church. The very first Christians had their prejudices and some of them never recovered from them. We are told that the Roman army officer Cornelius, and his whole household -presumably servants as well as family - were converted, the believers who came from Jerusalem with Simon Peter were amazed, "because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on Gentiles." These Jerusalem believers were all Jews, and Cornelius and his household were all Romans-or some other race, perhaps Egyptian or Greek-and Jews had long supposed that being the "chosen people" meant that God would have dealings with them, and with them alone, of all the races in the world. The "Gospel" was for God's people; and the Romans weren't God's people—as those first believers saw it. So when it was obvious that some Romans had accepted God, and God accepted them.

Prejudice, Modern Style

Is the Gospel for all men? No, some would seem to be saying. Only for white people. If it is for anybody else, let it be somewhere else but where white people worship. The gospel can't be preached to any ears but white ears in the white man's church. A preacher in a large all-white congregation reports having received grateful telephone calls from members of another race-men and women who don't get very much out of the sermons in the only churches where they are admitted; so they have stopped going to church and have to "make do" with the radio. Is the Gospel for all men? No, a great many American church members seem to be saying when the offering plates are passed. These members may spend generously for their own congregation. They will put out big money to build an educational plant, or an entire new church. They will buy the preacher a new car. But money for missions? Not a cent from some of these people.

God Loves All Sorts

It was not only the first believers who were "amazed" that Romans could become Christians. Believers today are shocked from time to time in the same way. The fliers in the great war who were shot down over jungles, expecting death, only to find in those rainforests people singing Christian hymns; the prisoner in a Japanese concentration camp who found that one of his guards knew Jesus; the traveler in Russia who finds that there are real Russian Christians even today; these have been amazed too. But such surprises occur not only across the seas; they can happen across the tracks. Many persons show that they don't expect the Gospel to do any good except to some one kind of people. For example, everybody knew Billy Graham could reach the masses of Englishmen, the ordinary kind that will flock to a sports arena to see any kind of sensation. But when Billy Graham proposed to visit Cambridge University, many people advised him not to go. You'll never get anywhere with university students, he was told. It's the old story, the Gospel is for some people, not for all. Sometimes it's the other way around. People well-polished with education and filled with culture to the eyeglasses, don't want certain "other kinds" of people in their church: it might "lower the tone!" No-God loves all sorts; and if we profess to be his people, we had better learn to love other sorts than our own. .

Thanks, Farmers,

For 50,000,000 Tons of Purina Chows

On April 5th one of the 41 Purina Mills made the 50 Millionth Ton of Purina Chows.

It is a glorious achievement and we are mighty proud. If all the 50,000,000 tons were here today they would fill a Checkerboard train over 21,306 miles long and reaching four-fifths of the way around

So you profit-minded farmers have cast your vote for far more Purina Chows than any other feed.

And the real credit goes to you progressive livestock and poultry feeders. You kept asking for more and more and better and better feeds. You kept Purina Research busy making better Chows—Purina Mills humming to fill your needs—Purina Dealers working

So, we say to all of you from the bottom of our hearts:

"Thanks a million for 50 Million Tons of business."
