HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

New Windsor and Taneytown to Play Off Tie

County champions of Class "C" schools will be determined Thursday night, February 28, when the Taneytown Tigers and the New Windsor Tigers battle it out at Western Maryland College. Since these two schools tied for second place in the county league, a play-off is necessary to determine which team will compete in the state tournament at U. of Md. in March.

In order to see the movie Anastasia, the Jr. High Dramatic Club on February 12 went as a group to the Towne Theater in Littlestown. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Henshaw and son Bill, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett, Mrs. Oscar Wolfe, Mrs. Charles Anders, and Mrs. Seibel, the club sponsor.

Class Sees Swine Show

Jack Bowers, by scoring 192 points out of a possible 200, won fifth place and a Hampshire swine in a judging contest at the Maryland Hampshire Swine Show, Frederick, Md., Feb. 22. Other members of the agriculture class who attended were James Colson, Charles Becker, Clyde Weant, Edward Cluck, Robert Devilliss, Robert McKinney, John Angell, Ray Arrington, Billy Doyle, Larry Hively, Glen Hoffman, Gene Moose, Ronald Shriver, Fern Rodkey, Billy Stonesifer, Grant Harman, Lee Barnes, Reese Poffenberger, teacher, accompanied the group.

Mrs. Urith Shipley, vice-principal and Andrew Mason principal attended on Tuesday, Feb. 26, in Washington, D. C. a discussion group meeting on What Are Some Promising Administrative Practices in the Senior High School? They also saw a pageant depicting a century of educational progress and development, including the significant professional achievements of the National Association of secondary school principals.

Final games of the Carroll County Invitation Basketball Tournament will be played on the Western Maryland College court on Saturday evening, March 2.

JAYCEES PLAN BROOM SALE

The Taneytown Jr. Chamber of Commerce met Monday evening at 7:30 P. M. at the American Legion Home in Taneytown. President Edw. Sauble called for reports from the various committees. The profit making committee reported that the Jaycees will sell brooms on Friday, March 29th in order to raise funds to carry on community activities. These will be the best quality brooms and will sell for only $1.50. Five hundred brooms have been ordered for this occasion and it is hoped that all of these can be sold in one evening.

The special activities committee reported that the Chamber has undertaken the job of painting the grandstand, fence posts and dugouts at the community park. The committee has obtained a sprayer for the job through the courtesy of The Southern States Cooperative in town. This activity will take place the latter part of March.

It was announced that a team of Jaycees would take part in the donkey basketball game which will be held in the Taneytown High School.

A vote of thanks is given to the citizens of Taneytown who helped make the Jaycee bake sale an overwhelming success.

Following the regular business meeting several interesting films were shown to the members present.

The publicity committee will meet with the profit-making committee on Tuesday evening at 7 p. m., at the home of Harry Dougherty, Jr.

MEETING OF KI-WIVES

Forty six Ki-Wives, Kiwanians and guests met on February 26, 1957 at 6:30 p. m. at the Kiwan Inn for dinner.

President Naomi Baumgardner announced that to date about 130 pairs of eye glasses have been donated. This surely shows a fine spirit of "helpfulness to others" on the part of the citizens of Taneytown and surrounding communities and the Ki-Wives want to take this means of thanking each and everyone of you who donated them.

Mr. William Stiner, Warden of the Maryland State House of Correction, was with us and spoke to us concerning the penal institutions of Maryland. Mr. Stiner said there are 5 such institutions in the state with a total of 5,300 inmates, 2,200 of which are in the Md. State House of Correction where Mr. Stiner is Warden.

The aim of these institutions is not so much to punish the inmates, but rather to rehabilitate them. They are given jobs on the 1200 acre farm which produces much of the food that is used as well as canned in their own cannery. They also make clothing, paints, soap, insecticides, cinder and concrete blocks as well as desks and chairs. This institution also has its own well equipped hospital.

Movies are shown on Saturday afternoon and evening for the inmates and on Sunday there are church services for all faiths—Catholic, Protestant, and Jew!

Mr. Stiner was very gracious in answering a number of questions which were asked following his talk. We were certainly fortunate in having with us and I know we all came away from the meeting feeling that we had a much better idea how our penal institutions are operated.

LUTHERAN MISSION RALLY FRIDAY

Dr. Harold R. Albert Will Be the Speaker

The Carroll County Lutheran Evangelism Mission will close Friday evening with a Mass Rally in Alumni Hall, Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md., at 8 p. m. The speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Harold R. Albert, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dr. Albert has been pastor of First Lutheran Church in downtown Pittsburgh since Sept. 1, 1955. Prior to that he served St. Paul's Lutheran church, Springfield, Ohio, from 1938 to 1941; and First Lutheran Church, Lorain, Ohio, from 1941 to 1955.

He is a graduate of Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, with the A.B. degree in 1935 and Hamma Divinity School with the B.D. degree in 1938. He received the degree of Master of Sacred Theology from the Oberlin Graduate School of Theology in 1945. Wittenberg College conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in June, 1953.

Dr. Albert frequently participates in preaching missions and has done so in such cities as Milwaukee, Omaha, Philadelphia, and Fort Wayne. He has been on the preaching staff in such resorts as Chataqua, N. Y., and Lakeside Ohio. He also served as chaplain and preacher at the convention of the United Lutheran Church in America. In local affairs, he is a member of the board of director of Passavant Hospital, and is a trustee of the Pittsburgh Experiment.

His Sunday morning sermons are regularly broadcast over Pittsburgh radio stations. As a result of these broadcasts, sermons are mailed weekly to shut-ins and other radio listeners over a wide area.

The Massed Choir of 182 voices will sing for the Rally. It is hoped and prayed by all concerned that Alumni Hall will be filled to capacity for this great service. Everyone is welcome.

The final mission service in Trinity Lutheran church, Taneytown, will be held tonight, (Thursday), at 8 p. m. The guest minister, Rev. Phares O. Reitz will preach on "This is Most Certainly True". The combined choirs of the church will sing. The officers of all organizations, members of standing committees, and all Church School workers will meet in the Sunday School auditorium following the service.

The pastor, Rev. Stanley B. Jennings, and Lay Chairman Harry Dougherty and Glenn Bollinger report that Trinity's effort is proving to be one of the most successful in the area, and is certainly one of the finest programs ever experienced in Trinity.

Attendance at the services has been excellent, enthusiasm and interest running high, and results of visitations very encouraging.

It is estimated that nearly 150 persons participated in the 24 hour prayer vigil held last Saturday and continuing through until the Sunday School hour Sunday morning. This is very commendable and should mean much in the life of Trinity church. Taneytown was well represented at the Leadership Rally held in the Westminster High School last Sunday. A capacity crowd estimated at 1200 heard Dr. Franklin Clark Fry give a challenging and provocative sermon. 26 members of Trinity choir sang in the combined chorus.

PLANS PROGRESS FOR DONKEY BASKETBALL

Rules for the donkey basketball games to be played at Taneytown High School on Wednesday March 13, were released recently.

Few restraints are imposed upon team members. They can push and struggle for the ball by any known method and anything can happen. Players can retrieve the ball and pass it only if they are mounted or if they have the reins in their hands. A player can ride the length of the floor with the ball but cannot hold it more than fifteen seconds. Baskets must be made while mounted. Players can substitute any time they wish merely by walking onto the floor and taking the other player's place. There are no out-of-bounds, time-out, or fouls.

Participating team line-ups from the Kiwanis Club, American Legion, Jaycees, and the Fire Company are being completed and will be announced next week.

Seniors report that tickets are having a brisk sale.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Senator Flanagan Makes His Weekly Report

The Green Bag, like the Ground Hog, casts its shadow over Maryland in February. There were some surprises, but most of the office holders were reappointed for another term. Here in Carroll County the Governor accepted the recommendations of the State Central Committee, but this was not the case in Baltimore county, where the republicans have won a decisive victory in the local council. The leaders there are very much disturbed that changes were made contrary to their wishes. Mr. Merwyn Fuss, Taneytown business man and community leader, was appointed to the State Board of Embalmers replacing John Byers of Westminster, who did not seek reappointment since he has been recommended for the postmastership. The republican committee has increased the number of Justices of the Peace in the county as an accommodation for motorists who can post collateral without making the long trip to the county seat.

The Comptroller of the Treasury appeared before the Senate Finance Committee this week and left the following figures for us to digest as to tax receipts: Income from admissions $477,767; Alcoholic Beverages $8,872,696; Gasoline $448,061,955; Income 484,262,407 and Retail Sales $416,912,238. In addition the General Department collected the following: Real and Personal Property Taxes, $7,448,998; Loan Repayments by Counties $4,541,273; Franchise, Deposits of Savings Banks $220,274; Gross Receipts Public Utilities $7,335,247; Rolling Stock of Persons other than Railroads, $49,043; Death Taxes $4,221,447; Miscellaneous Fees, Fines and Forfeitures $1,451,029; others $2,881,214. That's where the money comes from.

In concluding his remarks before the committee, Mr. Tawes warned that sales tax may fall as much as $1,000,000 short of expectations. Last week the Efficiency and Economy Commission thought that the tax had been underestimated. So, again the experts disagree. As for myself, I would rather see the tax run over than be short and throw the state deficit into deficit spending or require new sources of revenue. I hear people discouraging surpluses. I like them. There have been differences of opinion as to what the surpluses should be used to accomplish. Some would like to use this money to reduce the State debt with the hope that some day we could be on a pay as you go basis. We have been using them to help balance the budget the coming year. For the last several years the national economy has been such that the personal income has increased to a degree that more taxes came into the treasury than expected. This has helped to meet the annual growth of the budget without new taxes. If we have reached a plateau in national incomes the holiday is over and next year we must either cut expenses or find new income or raise the rate of present taxes.

The Ways and Means Committee voted to withdraw State financial support from the Baltimore Association of Commerce. They decided to strike out the $21,250 the Governor had included to aid the association in carrying out its program to boost the port and attract industry. The City has already appropriated a like amount. Since the Port Authority was formed last year, they felt that this would be a duplication of effort and if any money came from the State it should be used to attract industry in a statewide basis rather than given to the Association of Commerce primarily to help Baltimore City. I'll buy that.

More teacher-pay bills have been introduced. Eight hundred dollars across the board have been asked by the school authorities, $400 in 1957 and a like amount in 1958. Many find this too much to absorb at this time. I hope some compromise can be agreed upon as they are entitled to an increase in my opinion. New or additional revenue must be found. Lowering the sales tax exemption from 50c to 14c would provide enough to give the teachers about $300 this year and next February the situation could be studied again for 1958.

LIONS NEWS

The Taneytown Lions Club met on Tuesday, Feb. 26, at Taney Inn with President Alfred Heltebride conducting the meeting.

BROTHERHOOD MEETING

Due to Lenten Services, the Men's Brotherhood of Trinity Lutheran church will meet on March 4th (Monday evening) instead of the regular meeting night. Special guests of the evening will be a group of men from St. John's Lutheran Church, of Thurmont, Rev. Eugene McBirk, Pastor. Mr. Weldon Shank of that same church will be the guest speaker. ## TANEYTOWN TROOP'S EVENTFUL FEBRUARY

Boy Scouts Quite Active During Winter Month

The Boy Scout birthday month of February began with a swim at Frederick YMCA for 17 of this younger branch of Troop 348, Taneytown, when Lewis R. Baer and Assistant scoutmaster Robert J. Rock helped transport them. Mr. Rock provided a quiz on First aid at the following meeting, when the opening game of Steal the Bacon, quite a favorite, was introduced to a large number of boys who are working on their candidate test for registration as full-fledged Boy Scouts. This list includes Thomas Albough, Ronald Bowers, Bernard Knox, Donald Koontz, Charles Mason, Wayne Putman, Terry Riffe and Gerald Tracey; probably Wayne Hively should be added, for swimming was right down his alley, and last Thursday Edward Simmons reappeared.

PRESBYTERIAN FRIENDSHIP GROUP MEETS

The three Presbyterian churches, newly organized as a Friendship Group held their second meeting in the Piney Creek Social Hall Wednesday evening, Feb. 27, with a good representation from each congregation.

The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Charles Stambaugh as program leader assisted by Mrs. Evelyn Peterson. Mrs. Paul Snider was chairman of the refreshment committee. Mrs. Stambaugh opened the meeting with devotions which consisted of Scripture reading, sentence prayers and hymns.

Mrs. Stambaugh, assisted by Mrs. Peterson presented two skits relating to family life, which led to a discussion by the group on Christian principles in everyday living. Following this was an inspirational message from Mr. Davidson.

The chairman of the organization, Mr. Harold Hamilton, took over and conducted the business of the meeting. Mrs. Snider and her committee graciously presented their part of the program which was delightfully pleasing and satisfying to everyone.

The meeting began and ended in a spirit of cordiality and friendship, and with an unanimous feeling that it was good to have been there.

The next meeting will be with the Emmitsburg Congregation.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

Final plans are being completed for the first community World Day of Prayer Service for boys and girls, 6 to 14 years, in the Parish House of Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church, March 8, 1957 at 4:30 p. m. The theme for the service is "For all His Benefits to us". Mrs. Stanley Jennings will bring the message. Special music is being provided by the Junior Choir under the direction of Miss Margaret Shreeve. They will sing "Steal Away" and "The Vision of My Saviour" with Dennis Baumgardner and George Rue as soloists.

Church School teachers are urged to attend with their classes, so that the boys and girls in our community can clasp hands with other boys and girls and adults, too, the whole world round on this one day set aside for Prayer, the first Friday in Lent, annually.

The offering from the service will be sent to the National Council of Churches to be used for missions.

Mrs. Ellsworth Lambert is in charge of the arrangements for the service.

Arthur Garvin, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Mr. Harold T. Lutz, LL. D., of the Sun Papers of Baltimore. His topic was "The Personnel of the Newspaper." He told of everyday editions of a big city newspaper. A question and answer period followed.

Mr. Samuel Breth gave a report on the Industrial Committee and introduced Mr. Wilmer Barnes, a new member.

Refreshments were served.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning. A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth! I wish you days near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

That Precious Cocker-Spaniel, "Sugar" sure does love the snow as the recent big snow, she scampered all around the huge lawn of the Parsonage and even started eating it! She thought it was placed there just for her!

It does pay to advertise, advertise and advertise!

Julius Gutman's store in Baltimore were a few days ahead for the big George Washington birthday sales as theirs started on Monday and one could not hardly walk around. The values were terrific. Beautiful scarfs that were $1.50 for the wee price of 39 cents! Such whooppers, too!

Attending a Minister's wives' meeting for lunch, too at Hochschild Kohn wanted to visit the Orchid Show there first and arrived early. I hope, folks you did not miss that one! As I stepped from the elevator there was this beautiful and massive display of all types and colors of Orchids both large and small. It was the second annual Orchid Show held for three days and adjectives really could not describe the beauty of it. Of course there were Blue Ribbons and all that went with it but there is a certain something when anything is held in Hochschild's and that all down through the years ever since my arrival here from Philly and they say it was long before that! As I walked around with the crowd, I never was so tempted in my life reading the signs all over the place, "Please do not touch!" One time, I really pulled my hand back for they appeared like wax and I did not want to touch just one! The one which appealed to me was the booth of the Ruhl Flowers, 206 Saratoga St., there was the Orchids all arranged so beautifully and with much sentiment—A Child is born, The First Prom, Farewell—Ama Mater, The Easter Parade, the Wedding day, the Silver then Gold anniversary and last—at Rest! That was a sweet and interesting story which was called, "The Orchid's Use During Our Lives!"

Nice? Years ago when a lady was presented with a white orchid it was something wonderful as they were always grown in foreign countries but not so today for they are all colors, all sizes and grown so close to home that the orchid now is sold on the corners of the streets in any big city and the cost so little.

Following up my Column of last week—"Are you a Christian or a Gentile?" This one seemed to fit in. After the delightful luncheon at Hochschild Kohn Co. there was a speaker—the wife of a Rabbi telling about her home life and what she does in the Parsonage. She explained that a Jewish Mother comes first in the household and she is much responsible for the religious training of the children. Now, that is as it should be in any home. Eh? She showed us the symbols and the most interesting objects of the home. All were in small size such as the Torah, the Mizpah and much else and each one had a real story. I love and admire anything the Jewish people do for they are so very substantial. You never hear of Jewish children going astray or delinquent, you never hear of drunkards! They all lead a beautiful home life and this is because those families pray together! And Love is the word! It was all a delightful three hours which I would not have wanted to miss.

Now, Ladies this is for you, the real secret of a beautiful figure and obtained right in your own home by the STAUFFER plan! It is nationally advertised in all popular magazines and it is for the woman who would prefer to take this wonderful treatment in her own home instead of a Salon. This posture, Rest consists of 3 sections—the center section and two removable extensions made of tubular aluminum frame bars and easily cleaned plastic webbing. You lie down one hour a day and if you so desire, you can watch T.V. or play a record. It can be purchased on the monthly plan. The Esquire magazine printed Harry Von Zell on this wonderful device. He has lost 40 pounds and everyone says he looks ten years younger! The Stauffer-Slimmed ladies says, "That Life Never was so wonderful!"

Get in touch by phone or card with Mrs. Georgie Baublitz, Forest-7-4679 or call her at 1724 Taylor Avenue—Northfield 8-1610. She will bring it to your home and give you the treatment and after that all is so simple. You can arrange the machine in various positions just where you desire to lose the flesh. Be sure you tell them that you read about it in this Column and ask for the pleasing personality of the above name.

I hope you are not missing that nice Bachelor and teacher winning all the money—up to 143,000 dollars now!

Talking to a policeman in Baltimore—Number 1600 on Park Avenue as he was walking along to tag cars parked in prohibited spots. I said, "Oh, Officer, tell me truthfully, I don't you dislike putting on those tickets? He smiled and said, "Well, that's my business but I do some thinking when I do give them that final tag!"

See you next week D.V. Have a grand week end, folks and do drive carefully. Go to church regardless of the Denomination and don't make excuses by being absent if the weather is wet. You know, you would attend a show if you had the tickets! Eh? I am,

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

"NOTHING SELLS LIKE NEWS-PAPER ADVERTISING"

"At the retail level, nothing sells like newspaper advertising if the product has news-worthiness, is priced right, and if in-store promotion follows through."

That statement was made the other day by a Philadelphia advertising man, speaking at a sales forum. He gave the example of one of his clients who gained $8 million in retail sales over a three-months period for an advertising expenditure of less than $100,000. He added: "The real pay off of this promotion came as the result of newspaper advertising."

The other and newer media have their place—but they can't supplant the newspaper. That goes for the papers in the little towns no less than those in the great cities.—Industrial News Review.

SHORT STORY

Leap Together

By Allen Wishert

WHEN a young man and a young lady discover they are in love, and neither have the courage to mention it, that little fellow with the bow and arrows is misplacing his shots.

21 years ago this morning at 2:03, Charlie Norwood made life's first touchdown. A couple of years later, Lillian Collins was in the line-up as the girl of his dreams.

For years Charlie had looked forward to this day, the day he was to become junior member of his father's firm. He would have a private office, and, of course, a private secretary. It would not be Lillian Collins, she served his father in that capacity, but at times, surely she would enter his office, imparting wisdom from the senior member.

This morning he stepped off the elevator onto the sixth floor, walked to the door of his father's office. The lettering on the glass panel

"Whenever I make the leap, I'll not make it alone."

read: "Charles M. Norwood, Sr., Oil Wells, Inc." He stepped inside, the office was vacant of human habitation, otherwise it was the most elaborate set-up he had ever barged into.

His father couldn't be far away, probably to the cooler for a drink, or, possibly to the other end of the hallway.

An open window invited him, he went over, lifted a foot and let it rest on the sill. Leaning forward, he looked down upon the street six stories below.

"Don't attempt it, a body draped on the sidewalk disrupts traffic."

Lillian Collins, his father's pretty secretary, and the woman he loved, was standing at the desk with a fistful of legal documents and she was smiling. It wasn't the first time he had been thrown completely off balance by the horizontal lengthening of those enticing lips. However, he had never arrived any closer than speaking distance.

"You have the wrong impression," said Charlie. "Whenever I make the leap, I'll not take it alone."

"One never knows," replied Lillian. "A few customers make their exit in that manner."

"As bad as that, eh?" asked Charlie.

"Investors select queer landing fields, some jump from windows, others leap into marriage."

"The last mentioned is the leap I had in mind."

"Does any of the stock in the Charles M. Norwood, Sr., Inc., offer inducements?"

"It does." The effort of keeping his arms dangling at his side, was painful. "I'll make an investment when the other party is agreeable and ready to transfer legal possession."

"Shall I make a few notations?" asked Lillian, poised with stenographers note book and pencil.

"How long will we be alone?"

"Probably the entire afternoon. Your father, when he left, advised me not to put in any over-time waiting on him."

Charlie went to the desk, seated himself in the swivel chair behind it. Lillian did likewise at the end. He clasped both his hands back of his head, leaned back and stared at the ceiling, a manherism his father often adopted while concentrating.

"Take a letter, please."

"I'm ready, sir," said Lillian, placing pencil to pad.

"To whom it may concern . . . Got it?"

"Got it."

"Scratch it."

"Scratched."

"Let me think." Once more Charlie leaned back in the chair. "A business letter should contain an element of—er—well—business. What is the name of that client? Oh, yes, I have it. Ready?"

"Ready."

"My dear Miss Lillian Collins," he dictated.

"Just how do you spell that last name?"

"With a capital C. Paragraph; I love you, will you marry me?"

He signed the statement, wrote the word; "Yes," below his signature. She signed, making the deal authentic.

"Now," he said. "We will make the leap together."

WOMAN'S WORLD

Modified Bouffant Is Forecast for Styles in Hair-Do

WITH your head full of hopes and plans for the new season, you're probably wondering about what's new for hair styles. At the head of the list for all hair fashions is the modified bouffant, a slight variation of the really full hair dress which came in during the past few months.

This type of hair dress may be varied in many ways. It suggests a modified curl and it may also be a line movement gently lifted away from the head.

Of course there are several other provocative styles, too. If you can wear your hair in an up-do fashion, there's the feminine version of the Empire style with a pretty swirled pattern borrowed from the Napoleonic era.

Here's one of the new hair styles called modified bouffant. There's a simplified fullness and some fluff achieved with a 40-curl home permanent to give the hair body and manageability.

You may want to consider one of the Victorian coils which feature demure bang fringes, ear cupping curls and bustle backs.

Select Becoming Style

The choice, you see, is large. Your problem, then, will be to select the style that does the most for you as well as the one which can be cared properly and easily in line with the demands of your schedule.

If you don't feel that you can decide, have an expert cut the hair and shape it for you. Each of the predominant styles can be modified to fit your own particular features.

Success in any hair style, be it modified bouffant or wavy whirls and scrolls, bloused out sides or bustle backs depends upon a permanent wave to keep the hair in place. This is true whether the hair is thick and hard to manage, or if it's baby fine and requires body. Without a wave, new coils will soon look droopy and untidy.

Put Some Variety In Meat Dishes

Your meat budget will show a nice bonus if you learn to prepare some of the different cuts of meat in tempting ways. These meats are economically priced, but are favorites among those who have learned to enjoy them.

Beef tongue is one of the most delicious and tender of meats, especially when it sparkles with cherry sauce:

Tongue with Cherry Sauce

- 1 beef tongue
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 1 cup broth
- 1/2 teaspoon whole cloves
- 1 bay leaf
- 1 cup red sour cherries, drained
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 2 tablespoons butter

Simmer tongue in salted water until tender, about an hour per pound. Trim and remove skin. Cut in slices, placing in baking dish. Mix together brown sugar, cornstarch and broth in which tongue was cooked. Add cloves and bay leaf; cook until thick, stirring constantly. Add cherries, lemon juice and butter. Bring to a boil, pour over tongue and bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven for 20 minutes. One pound of tongue serves three.

Oxtail Stew

(Serves 6-8)

- 1/2 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 2-pound oxtail, disjointed
- 1/2 cup fat
- 1 cup tomato juice
- 1 cup water
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 4 whole allspice
- 1 bay leaf
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1 cup chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 8-ounce package broad noodles

Combine flour and salt; roll oxtail pieces in seasoned flour. Brown in hot fat. Add all except last two ingredients. Simmer for 3 hours, or until tender. Add lemon juice. Cook noodles in boiling water until tender. Remove allspice and bay leaf from stew. Serve stew over hot noodles.

HIGHWAY CONDEMNATION MEETS WITH HIGH PROPERTY VALUES

If county juries award large sums in highway condemnation cases, should these values become the basis for future property assessments in the particular neighborhood involved?

The State Roads Commission says "yes" and suggested such a course to the State Tax Commission at its regular meeting this week.

If a property was assessed at $20,000, and a jury brought in a verdict against the State for $40,000, such a procedure if adopted would result in a doubling of the real property assessments in the section of the State involved.

The suggestion was made by John J. McMullen, Western Maryland member of the Commission.

The Commission obviously felt that property owners sitting on a local Circuit Court condemnation jury might not be so generous in awarding high prices for neighborhood land plots if they realized their own property might be reassessed at a higher tax rate as a result of their action.

At its weekly meeting Robert O. Bonnell, chairman of the Roads Commission criticized the system by which juries determined just how much the department would have to pay for needed land.

He said they usually seemed to hit halfway between the Commission's appraisal of the property and the value set upon it by the owner.

Emphasizing the financial problems of the Commission, Mr. McMullen estimated that condemnation awards had increased 61 per cent during the last three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Files of Lancaster, Penna., visited with Mrs. Bessie Myers on Sunday. Mrs. Files is the former Miss Josephine Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Miller. The Millers are all former residents of Detour.

The Mother's Club of the Elmer Wolfe School (Mothers of the first six grades) will meet on Wednesday, March 6. A person who is called a "Reading Demonstrator" will be present and will demonstrate reading with the members of either the 4th or the 5th grades. Mrs. David Cramer, who is acting as president, urges all mothers who can possibly attend to come. The person who demonstrates reading has a very good message for the parents. Often persons in this type of work come a great distance, hence, a small attendance is quite discouraging. February's Mothers Club was attended by 34 persons.

The apartment in the home owned by Mrs. Bessie Myers in Detour will be vacant at the end of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Burrier are moving into one of the Detour Bank Apartments. Mr. and Mrs. Carl White recently vacated the apartment in the Detour Bank building. They are living in a trailer which is located near Franklin's used car garage.

Mrs. Maurice Wilhide is better after having been on the sick list, probably keeping in style by getting a touch of the virus.

Mrs. Baxter Dougherty and Mrs. Raymond Anders are improved, this family is very handicapped when both ladies of the house are unable to be about their usual work.

The Detour Postoffice was moved on last Saturday and Friday to its new location at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Dougherty. The telephone number for the Post Office and for the residence of Carroll Dougherty is Union Bridge 4444. The number 4448 which got you through to the other location of the Post Office and Dougherty's Store is going to be given to another family. Mrs. Dougherty, the Postmistress, tells me that the Post Office will be opened at 7 a.m. and closed at 6 p.m. However, the lobby of the P. ### FEESERSBURG

(A Voice from Carroll)

Do you like the kind of conversation that one might expect exploratory? The kind that solves no problems, that has no intention of changing another's opinions but rather like a surgeon operating on a patient act the way he does, an exploratory conversation is one that probes into another's mind to see or rather to learn what makes an individual think the way he does. Nothing is quite as interesting or stimulating then to be a part of such a conversation. If three or more individuals can get together for three or four hours of such a talk session and come away without rancor toward anyone or anything, but with a contented belief that they have passed a couple hours of companionship with several other mortals without benefit of television, radio or other external entertainment than the art of conversation is not dead at all. People do like to talk . . . not gossip, if they have an interested listener. Taxi-cab drivers are supposed to be America's number one philosophers but we have found that most people have very wise opinions on most matters. Many times they are afraid to express them for fear of ridicule but once they feel at ease with a person and open the flood-gates of their mind many brilliant thoughts tumble out. Communication between individuals can be the best entertainment in the world and also the most provocative.

The combined choir of 175 voices from all of the twenty-four Lutheran churches in the county sang Sunday afternoon in the auditorium of the Westminster High School which opened the Lutheran Mission Rally. The Rally will continue for four days with the final closing taking place in Alumni Hall, Western Maryland College. The choir will furnish the music for this event also. There are an estimated six thousand Lutherans in Carroll and so far over 90 per cent have participated in the rally. The Mt. Union Lutheran church has been filled to full seating capacity at all the services. The Rev. Millard L. Kroh has been the missioner at Mt. Union.

According to information received from Annapolis the Maryland Assembly is devoting more time to helping racing and fishing than to education. Some lawmakers, pretending to be interested in slashing the proposed budget made great headway last week when they decided to eliminate one public library with a salary of $1500 per year. With a proposed budget of about 300 million dollars that is indeed a head start. And who needs librarians anyway. What we do need and badly are a few more race tracks and fishing rights. School teachers, class rooms and libraries are only for those who need education. What good is education? It doesn't take much to know a two dollar bill when one has it and any moron knows that it only takes two bucks to place a bet on the daily double. Education? Who needs it? Surely not Maryland. A state with so many thoroughbred horses doesn't need to worry about educated children. After all the race tracks will take care of all delinquents and ex-school teachers can get a job as stable hands or if they are underweight from not eating too often they might even land a job as exercise boy. He is the person that takes the horses out for their morning work out. We have every reason to feel confident that members of the Assembly will do everything possible to see that the fish and horses of our State are assured a place in the future. If these weighty problems our teachers and schools may get some attention. But bear in mind we do not guarantee it.

Very soon now the coughs and sniffles of winter will give way to a common ailment called "Spring Fever." Already there are signs that old man winter is putting away his woollens and getting ready to oil the garden tractor. Our two doves arrived last week and seem to be shopping around for a place to build their nest. And early spring flowers have put their heads out of the ground to see if the world is still going around in the same old way. And as usual about this time of year the seed catalogues and the Almanac have a place in our daily reading. There is something of magic in the thought of another spring. A whispered promise of beautiful days to come and a physical knowledge that the promise will be kept.

Isn't some young lady from the Union Bridge area going to enter the Miss Carroll County pageant? There are only six entries so far from the entire county and none from this part of Carroll. There are several girls from the senior class at Elmer Wolfe School who should enter. Remember, nothing ventured . . . nothing gained.

Recently a farmer approached a tax-expert to have his income tax report filed out. He apologized for the conditions of his farm accounts. "You see," he explained, "if I kept my books correctly I am pretty sure they would show that I am broke. This way I don't know how bad off I am."

DID YOU KNOW...

Did you know?—A gold nugget found in 1869 weighed 157 pounds. Ice hockey is at least 200 years old. Ocean waters contain billions of tons of gold. Britain's war with France in 1695 was partly paid for by a tax on bachelors. The Romans used short hand as early as 63 B.C. Baby birds often eat more than their own weight in food daily. Water power accounts for only five percent of all the energy produced in America. Modern Egyptian mothers believe that an evil eye accounts for any sickly appearance in their babies. Half of the vegetables consumed in the United States are grown in family gardens. Ink normally accounts for three to five percent of total printing expenses of newspapers. An ancient remedy for fever was to wash water over the patient and onto a frog, to which the fever was supposed to pass. (Courtesy of the Encyclopaedia Britannica.)

ECONOMISTS SAY

—that every baby born in the United States today creates a lifetime demand of at least 15 tons of paper. With four million new babies predicted in the next twelve months, that's 60 million tons of paper! Small wonder paper production is planned to double in the next 20 years.

THE POWER OF GOD

The being you are is not the person we know
He is only God's Son in embryo;
He came here to earth some lessons to learn;
And, when that is finished, he shall return.

The physical body is only the home
Of one of God's Sons in which to roam;
He would never be satisfied here to be
For he knows he shall live through eternity.

So, for him, God has what we call a fixed plan
To make of him a perfect man;
He is God's mouth, His eyes, His hands;
It is he who executes all of God's plans.

This earth is God's school-room, don't you see?
Where man is trained to live in Eternity;
God has thousands of things for him to do
When his pilgrimage here is through.

The various bodies in which we live here
Are only new homes in which we appear;
Like the rivers we must come and go
Till all of Life's secrets we shall know.

It is here Life's lessons we must learn—
Here is where the fires of hell still burn!
Here we are taught how man must be
Else he could not live in Eternity.

Many great souls of the far distant past
Among the immortals by men are now classed;
But, God sends them back to show us the way
Our bodies must be in the endless day.

Every time a new child comes to visit earth
Many people imagine it is a new birth;
But, it is only a part of God's great plan
To make of him a perfect man.

This is not your first visit to earth;
It is only another try through another birth;
And, so it shall be till God in man we see
And we are made fit for Eternity.

These are things every mortal should know;
So, we are sent to learn them here below;
God is too good and too wise to take us away
And to let us suffer from day to day.

In your last incarnation you came a different way
In order to learn a different lesson, they say;
And, so it shall be with both you and me
Till we go from Time to Eternity.

There are 12 attributes which, in man, we must see
Before he becomes like Jesus of Galilee;
And, those trials must be seen in every man
Because it is a part of God's great plan.

These visitations are made by the same peoples, they say
Only they come in a different way;
Just so it shall be with you and with me
Until we go from Time to Eternity.

There are many lessons which man must learn;
That is why the fires of hell still burn;
It is a sin to say God made a Hell
And sends His children there to dwell.

It is always the same being who come and goes—
He keeps coming and going till Life's secrets he knows;
These bodies of ours could not survive in the endless day;
So, man must be perfect in every way.

God and man live together—don't you see?
That is why man in a perfect body must be
Man must learn to be like Him in every way
Else he could not live through the endless day.

Our "God is Love", the scriptures say;
And Nature, proves it from day to day;
It is He who declares to man what is His thought
So, all our inventions by Him are wrought.

Without God and His love mortal man could not be;
For, He is his Life through Time and Eternity;
God is even with us in the hell we make
And, puts out the fire, just for our sake.

Such love and mercy has never been known
As God to His foolish children has shown;
And, the reason He does so is not hard to see—
He is preparing us all for Eternity.

I can't tell you how; but, let me here say
God shall make of this earth a heaven some day;
There shall be no more night; and, we all shall see
The blazing lights of Eternity.

INCOME TAX FACTS No. 2 Selecting the Correct Form Saves Tax Dollars

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. These articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants, and the Maryland Society of Certified Public Accountants in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

The government gives you the alternative of using the simplified income tax form 1040-A, the "short form" 1040, or the "long form" 1040, depending on the amount and circumstances of your income. Selection of the wrong form may cost you unnecessary tax dollars.

The easiest form to file is the 1040-A, and according to Treasury records, one out of four taxpayers use it. To be eligible to file a 1040-A form, your total income must be less than $5,000, consisting entirely of wages subject to withholding (or of wages, dividends, and interest, providing not more than $100 of such income came from a source outside that listed on your W-2 slips). The simplified form makes no provision for "Head of Household" status or itemized deductions. If you use this form, the government will figure your tax and send you either a refund or a bill, if you so desire. However, for the first time this year, you can compute your own tax on form 1040-A and either send in the balance due with the return or show thereon the amount of refund you have coming.

Whether to Itemize

Should you decide to use the regular form 1040 you still have the choice of itemizing deductions or using a standard deduction which amounts to about 10 percent of your income. If your income was less than $5,000 and you use the standard deduction, you determine your tax from the special table given in the instruction book.

You are likely to save by itemizing if you:

- (1) Own real estate
- (2) Had unusual medical expenses
- (3) Had deductible child-care expense
- (4) Suffered losses from fire, storm, accident or theft
- (5) Made fairly large contributions

It is important to remember that if you incur such expenses as transportation, meals or lodging in connection with your work, check carefully the instruction book to find how these expenses may be deducted even though you decide to use the standard deduction.

If your deductions are close to 10 percent, it is wise to itemize them and figure your tax both ways to see which results in the smaller tax. As the Treasury Department has pointed out: "The law expects you to pay your correct tax—no more—no less."

Married Couples

Most married couples save tax dollars by filing a joint return instead of separate returns. This is because the tax is figured on a joint return as if the husband and wife each had one-half the total income (even though the wife may actually have had no income). Income-splitting, as it is called, may bring the couple down into a lower tax bracket.

Watch for the exceptions, however. If you had capital losses or unusually high medical expenses, you will be wise to figure both joint and separately to see which results in less tax.

If you are supporting a dependent and maintain a home for that person although you are single, widowed, divorced or legally separated, you may be able to qualify as a "head of household," and figure your tax on a special table which gives you part of the advantage enjoyed by married couples filing joint returns.

Surviving Spouse

Also, if your husband or wife died in 1954 or 1955, and you have as a member of your household a dependent child or stepchild, you are entitled as a "surviving spouse" to the same income-splitting benefits this year as you would have on a joint return—unless you remarried before the end of 1956. The privilege to file as a surviving spouse applies to the first two years following the year in which your husband or wife died.

The instruction book which comes with your tax forms gives further information. Help is also available by telephone or at offices of the Internal Revenue Service. The Revenue Service urges you to consult a properly qualified advisor if you decide to seek outside help.

4-H Vows to Slay Highway Dragon

More than two million 4-H members are waging an all-out attack on the fire breathing dragon of traffic fatalities which menaces the safety and happiness of American motorists.

Led by the eight national winners of General Motors scholarships for outstanding 4-H safety activities, the 35th National 4-H Congress has pledged to "Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents."

The national winners and 34 other state winners received all-expense trips to the 4-H Congress in Chicago from General Motors, awards donor for the program for the 12th consecutive year.

"Traffic accidents take nearly 42,000 lives each year—one every thirteen minutes," the national winners told newsmen.

Young People Most Deeply Affected

Young people should be the most concerned about cutting this toll because it is our futures that are the most deeply affected.

Increased driver training, more courtesy on the highway and stricter observance of traffic laws were the safety experts' suggestions for top weapons in the fight against accidents.

Typical of the group was Richard Mitchell of Denver, Colo. who is president of the Colorado Teenage Traffic Safety Association. He has staged a number of Teenage "Road-e-os" to test driving skill.

Safety Season Always Open

"If a motorist is alert, skillful and consistently careful, he has a good chance of RETURNING from his destination instead of just ARRIVING there," he said.

Other national winners included: Earl Lee Norton, Attala, Ala.; Anita Mae Wenger, Powhattan, Kansas; Richard Parsons, Parsonsburg, Md.; Clyde Templeton, Olin, N.C.; Ella Lou Hembree, Braman, Okla.; LeRetta Hales, Spanish Fork, Utah; and Marjorie Rauwerdink, Sheboygan Falls, Wis.

Here is the slogan all the GM award winners suggest to everyone alike: THE SEASON FOR SAFETY IS ALWAYS OPEN!

Who Is This?

Lesson for March 3, 1957

WE ALL like to know what people think of us, but sometimes all we really want is compliments, or else we ask out of idle curiosity. Jesus asked the same question most people ask some time or other: Who do men say I am? But it was not curiosity or pride, with him. He knew better than any one that what men thought of him was vital—not to him, but to them. What people think of Christ affects their whole lives. Is he no more than a picturesque figure out of the past? Then we can safely ignore him. Is he a wise teacher, no more? Then we can put his teachings together with those of other great teachers and add a few nuggets of ideas from him to the wealth of the ages. But suppose he is more—?

Dr. Foreman

They thought they had seen him. Nobody in Jesus' lifetime thought of him as a priest. The priests were professional religionists; but Jesus did not make that sort of impression. He reminded people of no priest, rather of prophets. Many spoke of him by the name of well known prophets—John the Baptist, Elijah, Jeremiah. Of course they did not literally think these men had risen from the dead; but it was almost as if they had. Incidentally, the modern reader might look up the three prophets whom Jesus was thought to resemble. They were anything but gentle, meek and mild. At all events, they were men whose authority did not come to them from a position, an institution. They were men whose power and authority came from within; men carrying their commissions direct from God.

The One Lord

One might think that no higher category could be found for Jesus than Prophet—one sent by God, speaking the word of God. But Jesus once called himself "more than a prophet." So it was his closest friends thought of him. Peter's "Great Confession" is well known. Speaking not for himself but for all—for the question was put to the group: Simon Peter said (as Matthew reports it) "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God." The words should not lose their force because of familiarity. Peter does not use the language later theologians were to devise. He does use words which a Jewish man of the first century could use—but they were not words Peter could have applied to any one else. Christ means Messiah, King, God's special chosen King, to usher in the World's New Age. No Jew looked for two Messiahs. Peter was saying to Christ: There have been many prophets; but there will never be more Christs than one. You stand alone, with none to match you, none beside you. For Messiah was not only a unique title, there was nothing above it. Furthermore, the word Christ implied a great deal more than Prophet. You could take a prophet or leave him,—his messages might not be for you at all. But the Christ was to be every man's Master, Lord of Israel, Lord of the world. Before a prophet a man may keep the silence of respect. In the presence of the one Lord a man must bow in reverence, asking, What wilt thou have me to do?

Eyes of Faith

What did Jesus mean when he said to Peter, "Flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven"? He meant that Peter and the rest of the Twelve (not Judas!) could see with eyes of faith what the Pharisees and priests never saw. It is always possible to doubt the full meaning of Jesus Christ. In his life time there were a great many who listened to his teaching and watched his miracles and never believed in him at all. Belief in Christ is never forced. It is not like believing that two and two are four, or that the paper you are reading is printed in black ink. The deity and lordship of Christ can never be demonstrated like a proposition in logic or a theorem in geometry. Our relation to him must be personal. All personal relations are carried on by faith, not mathematical demonstration. A man and his wife, a father and his son, even a merchant and his customer, live with each other and trust each other by faith. The eye of love, the eye of loving faith, sees what mere sunlight never shows.

Company's Coming!

HOLLYWOOD — Dale Evans and Roy Rogers chuckle while Bullet gives the word to Pat Brady that they are to be hosts to three contest winners and their families, who will be flown here in the spring. Bullet is no doubt telling Pat the winners will spend a day at the ranch, another day at fabulous Disneyland and a day at Paramount Studios visiting with some top screen stars.

Pat seems tickled with Bullet's report. Maybe he is wishing he were young again just so he could enter the contest sponsored by Baker's Instant Chocolate Mix, a product of General Foods, and win the first prize. Roy is going to telephone the 15 second-place winners and send them $100 worth of Roy Rogers' equipment and toys. And another 1,000 winners will each receive a replica of Roy's shooting irons finished in 14-carat gold plate, plus holster.

The contest closes February 15, 1957. Details may be obtained at grocery stores.

Expect to MAKE MONEY when you buy our chicks!

EXPECT TO MAKE AN EXTRA 40¢ TO 60¢ PER PULLET CHICK

If you are interested in chicks with bred-in ability to lay far better than average—and make more money—please come in and check our records.

Our strain is capable of laying 200 eggs per bird a year—often more. This is at least 20 eggs a pullet more than the U. S. average.

With eggs figured at only 2¢ apiece, you stand to make 40¢ to 60¢ per chick more than you can get with chicks of average breeding.
