SPECIAL MEETING OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

Plans Made for Instructions at Sykesville School

A special meeting of the Carroll County Board of Education was held on Monday afternoon, April 22, with all members present. The purpose of the meeting was to consider plans for continuing the program of instruction in the Sykesville School, which was partially destroyed by fire early Thursday, April 18.

The Board was advised, in a report given by the superintendent, of the details of the fire which had been reported by a passer-by to the Sykesville Fire Department about 2:30 a. m. on April 18. The center of the fire, at the time of the discovery, appeared to be in the administrative section of the original building. No solution to the cause of the fire has been determined. Lack of water was a major factor in limiting the efforts of the fire companies who responded.

The Sykesville High School was originally constructed in 1930 and two additions have been added; one of them in 1936, which included six regular classrooms and Industrial Arts shop. Another addition had been provided for use as a shower room for girls and later converted for use as a typewriting room. Another major addition in 1954-55 included a new heating plant and boiler room, toilets, shower room, gymnasium-auditorium, stage, kitchen, and cafeteria. This addition was connected by a corridor with the elementary unit, consisting of six class rooms and also connected with the original building, which was constructed in 1950. The same project created, out of the original auditorium space, a library, three classrooms and a principal's office with a visual aids projection room. The building, therefore, which was destroyed included a total of twenty-four teaching stations and was accommodating four hundred and seventy-seven (477) junior and senior high school pupils. The rooms were furnished with standard classroom furniture and teaching materials. Most of the typewriters and band instruments were salvaged. Some of the records are being sorted and re-filed to the extent that this is possible. During the weekend temporary classrooms were created in the auditorium and cafeteria so as to provide teaching stations when the high school is reopened.

The Board approved the reopening of the school for elementary classes on Tuesday, April 23, and the reopening of the high school on Monday, April 29, with high school classes meeting for one-half day sessions for the remainder of the year. Under this plan the junior high school will report for instruction during the morning session and the senior high grades, ten through twelve, in the afternoon. High school teachers will continue on duty throughout the day. The serving of school lunch will be discontinued and the holding of indoor athletic classes will not be possible under existing conditions. Teaching procedures in shop and science classes will be modified as circumstances require.

The Board directed that study be made regarding re-building of facilities as rapidly as possible. Also, the Board directed that no announcement be made at this time regarding plans for 1957-58, since the operation of school during the coming year will depend on progress made and on the result of planning.

The Board wishes to extend appreciation for the services rendered by the various fire departments and for the spirit of cooperation shown by citizens and others in connection with the very serious interruption to the local school program.

The Board adjourned at 4:30 p. m. to meet for a regular meeting in May, at which time it is hoped that more definite consideration can be given to the planning of school facilities for the area affected.

MEETING OF KI-WIVES

The Ki-Wives met at Tanev Inn, Monday evening, April 22. Guests were Mrs. Wilton Wallace and Mrs. Betty Dorsey of Bethesda, Md., Mrs. H. P. Sturdivant and Mrs. Ray Riley of Westminster, Mrs. Donald Piper, Mrs. Kenneth Koutz, Mrs. Mary Mohney and Mrs. Roy Phillips of Taneytown.

The meeting opened with the singing of one verse of America. The pledge to the flag was followed by the invocation by Kitty Royer. A memorial service was held for Mrs. A. H. Carpenter by Mrs. Miles Reifsnider, Mrs. Clyde Hesson and Mrs. George Harner. The speaker for the evening, introduced by Mrs. Charles Hopkins, was Frank Rosenberg, an advance student at the Maryland Institute of Art. He can best be described by quoting Betty Dorsey of Bethesda - "You are the most entertaining and best artist I've heard in quite a long time."

He explained character painting saying it must be quite simple, containing the one element that makes the person the individual. Paintings, too, have somewhat the characteristics of the painter. He discussed at length the qualities of the Old Masters. The most entertaining part was the drawing of caricatures of some of the members of the Ki-Wives.

Mrs. Naomi Baumgardner announced the Kiwanis Bake Sale for April 27 at the Firemen's Hall. She also called attention to the Fashion Show at Mt. Airy and the Inter Club meeting at Baltimore. "Thank You" notes were read from the Catherine Carpenter family, the Baltimore General Hospital, and Doris Crumpacker.

SCOUT NEWS

Carroll District Area Workers Hold Meeting

Carroll District Committee of the Baltimore Area Girl Scout Council held its regular meeting on April 17 from 1-3 p. m. at the Davis Library in Westminster, with Mrs. W. Glenn Speicher, presiding. Those present were Mrs. John Chenoweth of Taneytown; Mrs. Stanley Taylor and Mrs. John Barker of Gamber; Mrs. Maurice Hampshire of Hampstead; Mrs. Paul Harris of Manchester; Mrs. William Warner of Frizellburg; Mrs. L. Pierce Bowls of Mt. Airy; Mrs. Vernon Zink, of Reisterstown; and Mrs. LeRoy Campbell, Mrs. Garrett Weersing, Mrs. William Groff, Mrs. Frederick Wehrensberg, Mrs. Stanley Travis and Mrs. Truman Cash and Mrs. William M. David, Jr., all of Westminster. The committee welcomed Mrs. Vernon Zink, neighborhood chairman of Reisterstown, whose Girl Scout neighborhood will soon become a part of Carroll District.

Mrs. Speicher presented Mrs. Chas. J. Peltz, co-chairman of the Carroll County "Keep Maryland Beautiful" committee. Mrs. Peltz discussed the purpose and the activities of her committee; and suggested ways in which Girl Scout Troops (Brownie, Intermediate, and Senior) might participate in the drive to keep Carroll County "clean and green."

Mrs. Garrett Weersing, District Representative on the Council Camp Committee, stated that there are still openings for campers at Council-owned resident camps, Shadowbrook and Whippoorwill. Registration for these summer camps began on April 9. Each registered member of a Girl Scout Troop has received a camp folder. Mrs. Weersing further reported that six county troops have had, or are planning to have, troop camp week-ends on Council-owned sites this spring or summer. Those troops are Senior troop #1098, of Westminster led by Mrs. LeRoy Campbell; Intermediate Troop #753 of Westminster, led by Miss Anne Gorman; Intermediate #486 of Hampstead, led by Mrs. Alice Stump; Intermediate Troop #488 of Mt. Airy, led by Mrs. Howard King; Intermediate Troop #751 of Sandymount, led by Mrs. George Armacost; and Intermediate Troop #657 of Frizellburg, led by Mrs. John McCormick. These Troops will be camping for a period of 2-3 days at Camp Ilchester or Camp Deer Creek.

Mrs. LeRoy Campbell, Director of the Council operated Day Camp to be held at Stevenson's Spring Mill from July 22-Aug 1, stressed the great need for securing 20 volunteer counselors for the eight day Day Camp period. Counselors do receive compensation for their travel expenses to and from the Day Camp. Unless, however, the camp is adequately staffed, the camp will be unable to take its full quota of campers. Mrs. Campbell asked that each neighborhood provide at least four prospective counselors.

It was announced that a nature workshop for Girl Scout leaders and interested people will be held at the Brethren Service Center in New Windsor on May 24 from 10:30 a. m. to 2:00 p. m. Miss Frances Clemens of the Center will be the instructor. Reservations should be made with the Girl Scout neighborhood chairman, Mrs. Robert W. Smith, by May 20.

PASSES PENNSYLVANIA'S STATE BAR EXAMINATION

Daniel W. Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Shoemaker, Red Lion, Pa., who has been serving his clerkship with the law firm of Fisher, Ports, Mays and Beers, Friday received word that he passed the state bar examination.

The 26-year-old Red Lion native was graduated in 1956 from George Washington University School of Law where he was named "outstanding student" of the class.

Shoemaker, who already is a member of the bar in the District of Columbia, will formally be admitted to the Pennsylvania bar the first week in June, after he completes his clerkship.

Before going to George Washington, he attended Millersville State Teachers college and served two years in the Army. He and his wife live in Wyndham Hills.

He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Norville P. Shoemaker, Taneytown, and the Rev. and Mrs. S. R. Weybright, Detour.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davidson, Taneytown, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Vivian Marie to the Rev. Eugene A. Gardner, Waynesboro, Pa., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Austin Gardner, Hagerstown. Miss Davidson is a senior student at the Frederick Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, Frederick. The Reverend Mr. Gardner is assistant pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Waynesboro. A fall wedding is planned.

OFFICERS ELECTED

The following new officers were elected to serve the Monocacy Valley Post VFW at Harney, Md., for the coming year:

Commander, George E. Koontz; Senior Vice-Commander, Wilbur Gross; Junior Vice-Commander, Lloyd Kiser; Quartermaster, Ralph Vaughn and Adjutant, Roy B. Overholzer.

GOOD NEWS CLUB RALLY

There will be a county-wide rally for Good News Club boys and girls on Saturday, May 4, at 2:30 p. m. in the hall above the Carroll Record. Watch for further news concerning this rally in next week's paper.

ELEMENTARY P.-T. A. CONVENES

Excellent Program Presented to Audience

The Taneytown Elementary P.-T. A. held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening, April 23, 1957 at 8:00 p. m. in the school auditorium. The meeting was called to order by President Frank Dunham with the invocation following. There was group singing of "America", the flag salute, reading of the minutes by the secretary, and the treasurer's report.

The nominating committee reported the following slate of officers for the coming school year (1957-58): president, Frank Dunham; vice president, Mrs. Mildred Jester; secretary, Glenn Bollinger; treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Dunn. Motion was made and passed for the secretary to cast a ballot in favor of the named nominees.

The annual bake sale was announced to be held in the Firemen's Building on Friday, May 3, 1957. This sale will be in charge of Mrs. Lewis Baer.

Principal Frank Wargny brought to the attention of the association the fact that the Teachers Association of Carroll County has submitted a plan of salary increase to the County Commissioners and asked for a motion to be made to permit the president of the local P.-T. A. to appoint a committee to interview the County Commissioners in the interest of the salary increase. Mr. Wargny stressed the necessity of the increase not only from the financial standpoint but mainly because it would afford a better advantage to keep good teachers in the county, and to secure new teachers, when necessary, who would come in the category of well-trained teachers. A motion was passed for a committee to be named, which will be appointed by the president in the near future.

Mr. Wargny announced the program for the evening which was in two parts. The first part was musical, presented by the pupils of the school. There were five numbers given by the third grade pupils on their flutes and rhythm band instruments. Members of the rhythm band were: Eddie Null, James Stonesifer, Nina Bell, Linda Clem, Linda Heffner, Douglas Wantz, Sheldon Shealer, Jr., Dennis Fair, Robert Koons, Jr., Lamar Wagerman, Daniel Wilhide, Elaine Null, Connie Nusbaum, Louis Lanier, Ralph Green, Joe Fleischman, and Calvin Harmon. The sixth grade pupils entertained the audience with group singing, a solo by Steven Fessler, and two vocal selections by Carolyn Surbey accompanied by her ukulele.

Miss Dorothy Shires, State Supervisor of Pupil Personnel and Parent Education was the speaker for the evening. She chose as her topic "Problems of Adjustment in School and Home". Miss Shires stressed the importance on the part of parents to support the teachers in the role they play in the life of the children. She further discussed how parents can judge progress in their child, how we can have our children considerate and able to accept responsibility, how to help our children be successful, and how to discipline our children.

Miss Shires has a most pleasing personality and her talk was very interesting and helpful. She was secured by the Parent Study Group of the school.

After adjournment, light refreshments were served.

EDUCATOR TO TALK ON CHINESE JADE

Dr. Frank Kramer, former head of the Education Department of Gettysburg College, will speak on Monday, April 29, at 8 p. m., (Daylight Saving Time), at Grace Lutheran Church, Westminster.

Dr. Kramer's topic will be "The Carving of Chinese Jade". A colored film showing the art of carving jade will illustrate his talk. While studying Mineralogy in school, Dr. Kramer developed his first interest in jade. This was further heightened by his wife having lived in China.

This program is being presented by the Carroll County Sub-League of the Woman's League of Gettysburg College, to raise funds for the enlargement and renovation of Brua Hall, on the college campus. All members and friends are invited to attend this most interesting program which has been enjoyed by many. There will be special music and refreshments.

Our speaker for the evening, a member of our class, also a teacher of our class sometimes, Mrs. Naomi Baumgardner, gave us a very fine example of Housecleaning, "Our Homes, Our Minds and Our Hearts." Then we had a short business meeting and closed by all singing "Love Divine, All Love Excelling".

There were 19 members and 5 visitors present. Delicious refreshments were served and games were played. Refreshment committee, Catherine Fritz, Helen Halter, Alice Fuss, Elizabeth Hawk and Catherine Haner. Program committee, Alberta Lanier and LaRue Allender. Games, Ruthanna Kiser and Phyllis Smith.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning a smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer.

Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The Most Unforgettable Character I Ever Met. The members of the congregation of the Swindell Methodist Church were very much alarmed when the eyesight of the little Deaconess of 90 years of age was failing fast while she continued all the activities and especially when she crossed the big and wide thoroughfare on the way to the church.

Miss Ford always had such faith that nothing would happen to her and that every driver would be most careful when they saw her in the street. Although, she realized only too well about her sight leaving her so rapidly she did not want to give up the work which was her very life. The members met one evening to discuss the situation and each one hesitated telling Miss Ford until my Minister explained the reasons to her to the best of his ability. She listened most intently and made no remark but appeared shocked and disturbed. That sad picture was one of a child being told that she could not do the thing she was doing any more. The evening was tense and each one sighed and just looked at each other with tears in their eyes.

A week or so later, I was asked to drive Miss Ford to her new destination of a Convalescent Home where only three other ladies lived. This was the most difficult task that I ever did in my life—to drive that little body away from the church she loved and her life's work. The car stood at the curb of the church entrance and somehow I felt that Miss Ford wanted to be alone in the Kindergarten room.

I waited for half an hour before I walked in and there I saw the little Deaconess on a high stool reaching into the shelves of the huge closet taking out all her earthly possessions—very old dolls, children's toys and books. I quickly walked over to her and lifted her down off the stool, held her in my arms. She gave a big sigh and as I looked at her face and then in the eyes of blurred sight, I saw the tears for the first time. "Will you please, Mrs. Love give these things to my pupils of the Kindergarten class!"

We finally walked out to the car. Miss Ford was holding the smallest little black satchel I ever saw. I took it from her until she was seated in the car. Suddenly, she said, "Oh, please just wait one more minute as I want to place this book of Robinson Crusoe on the basement window sill for a little boy might come along and pick it up!"

No young girl was more sprightly and quick in movements than Miss Ford and she was back in the car in seconds. She then directed me to the new Convalescent Home for which she had made arrangements where she remained a month before going to live with her two sisters in Elkton.

This was all I knew at the time of her personal life as she never talked about her family. I learned much this day as I sat in the Funeral Home from elderly ladies who had known the family for many years.

On my last visit to Miss Ford's home in Elkton as I entered the door, Miss Ford was slowly making her way down the stairs, grasping the banister and as I looked at her, I realized her sight was completely gone. She said, "Oh I know who it is I'll be there in a minute!" Then smiling she added with her wonderful sense of humor, "This old Ford ain't what it used to be!"

Today, in the Service my Minister said, "I was Miss Ford's Pastor for eight years but I always felt she was my Pastor!"

Everyone who knew Miss Ford loved her and the children all through the years whom she taught are now grown but have remembered what she had really meant to them in all her teachings.

She was truly Goodness in every turn—the Most Unforgettable Character I Ever Met!

Well Done, Thou Good and Faithful Servant! I am, Faithfully, YOUR OBSERVER.

MEETING OF WOMEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The Young Women's Bible Class of Trinity Lutheran Church met on Wednesday, April 24, 1957 in room 4. Mrs. Gladys Nusbaum had charge of the meeting. "All Hail The Power Of Jesus' Name" and "Just As I Am" was sung by the group. Scripture by Mrs. Jenny Reever, Prayer, Mrs. Ruth Naylor, Reading, Mrs. Nadine Riffe, "Dogwood Tree", Piano solo, "Surprise Waltz", Cindy Nusbaum; instrumental duet, "The Ties That Bind" by Sandra and John Shorb; saxophone solo, "God Of Our Father" by Don Allender.

Our speaker for the evening, a member of our class, also a teacher of our class sometimes, Mrs. Naomi Baumgardner, gave us a very fine example of Housecleaning, "Our Homes, Our Minds and Our Hearts." Then we had a short business meeting and closed by all singing "Love Divine, All Love Excelling".

BLACK SATURDAY

The halting of US Mails for the alleged lack of funds with which to carry on—and for the first time since the establishment of postal service in the Colonies in 1737—should dramatize for all Americans the idiocy of our global do-gooding.

While swarms of US "experts," busy-bodies and subsidized sightseers roamed the earth scattering largesse, the mails stood still—mails loaded, ironically, with our income tax returns; with millions of urgencies both private and business; with the springtime burden of baby chicks and other perishables.

In Washington, the shame of it seemed not to penetrate very deeply. "Strategic" mail—to the White House and the Congress—went through. Whether you wish to consider this as strategic as the mail that keeps business rolling throughout the nation—and taxes flowing into Washington—is your privilege.

The President has said the Postmaster General "came to me before he did it" and that "he acted with my complete approval". The Chief Executive left the clear impression that if and when Mr. Summerfield ran out of money again—he'd stop the mails again.

It is true the stoppage was brief, the estimable damage and delay due to a mailless Saturday and the ensuing pile-up may have been negligible. But so, we feel sure, were the savings—if any. The irreparable damage is to the public pride, the public conviction that the mails must go through; and to the pride of the thousands of career postal people who have dedicated their lives to making good the proud boast of the US Post Office:

"Not snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds." But the New Republicanism is something else.—U. S. Press Association.

TRACTORS THEN AND NOW

Writing in Agricultural Leaders' Digest, E. R. McIntyre tells of "Tractors Then and Now." He compares the tractors of the mid-thirties with those available today.

The old tractors did a good job. They saved labor and cut production costs. They played an honored role in the agricultural revolution. But they don't compare with their present day counterparts in any particular. The modern tractors are more powerful. They are capable of more work in a given period of time. They require less maintenance. They have all sorts of valuable features, running a wide gamut from electric starters to hydraulically controlled hitches, that were unknown in the old days.

Just about every farmer will agree with this. But what is not nearly so generally understood is what has happened to farm machinery prices, in relation to farm labor costs and the return the farmer gets for crops.

Mr. McIntyre covers this ground clearly. Farm labor prices have risen faster than the machinery prices—and the result is that it took 312 fewer days of hired labor to buy a 20-30 HP tractor in 1956 than in 1940.

In 20 years, the prices paid farmers for corn and wheat have risen by 137½% and 117 per cent respectively. Yet a typical tractor costs only about 46 percent more than its predecessor of 20 years ago—and it is a far superior machine.

The farmer who buys a "tractor now" gets a better deal than the farmer who bought a "tractor then."—Industrial News Review.

How many are your household goods worth—including everything from kitchen gadgets to that new TV Set? The chances are long that any rough estimate you make will be far below the true figure. They're also long that, if fire strikes and destroys those goods, your insurance will be dismayingly inadequate when it comes to replacing them. In that case, you'll have to dig deep into your own pocket to make up the difference—or go without.

Harlan Smith tells the story, in the March issue of Household magazine. He obtained estimates from insurance experts. He found that if your income is $3,000 to $5,000 your furnishings and clothing are worth $2,500 to $4,000 if you live in an apartment and $3,000 to $5,000 if you live in a house. If you're in the $5,000-$7,500 income bracket you have $3,500 to $4,750 worth of these items if you live in an apartment and $4,250 to $6,750 worth if you live in a house. So it goes—up and up.

Why do most people have much more money tied up in household possessions than they realize? One reason is that the items are usually bought over a long period of time, and we forget the investment. Another—and very big—reason is that economic devil, inflation.

A chest of drawers you paid $50 for some years ago would cost well over twice that now. So would just about everything else you bought in the past.

Mr. Smith cites the case of a mathematics professor who was "good with figures, except his own." He had $15,000 insurance on his house and $2,500 on the contents. Then fire struck—and his total insurance was just $9,500 short of covering the loss.

Don't be in that position if fire—which destroyed property to the tune of $1,250,000,000 last year—strikes your home.—Industrial News Review.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

NORWALK, CONN., HOUR: "Three years after the start of the monthly investment plan, by which small investors are enabled to buy stock on a pay-as-you-go basis for as little as $10 a month, a surprisingly large number of people have become stockholders in various corporations, and are continuing to build up small estates for themselves. They are taking advantage of the installment buying to share in the wealth and growth of American industry and accumulating a nest egg for the long pull."

GLENWOOD, IOWA, GLENWOOD OPINION-TRIBUNE: "It may be worth your life to consider not only your car's condition but also your own limitations each time you slide in behind the steering wheel."

LENNOX, S. D., INDEPENDENT: "Definition of a socialistic bureaucrat, and there are plenty of them in government: 'one who has nothing himself and is willing to share it with everyone else'."

ABILENE, KAN., DAILY RE-ELECTOR-CHRONICLE: "Efficiency, economy and the elimination of pork barrels offer us the only hope of reducing the cost of government."

CROSBY, MINN., COURIER: "There are now 51,000,000 persons under 40 years of age who have had one or more shots, leaving 58,000,000 without Salk protection. The goal of the spring vaccination program on which the American Medical Association, the Public Health Service and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis are concentrating is to see that as many as possible of the 109,000,000 individuals under 40 in the nation receive at least two shots of vaccine by June 30."

NORTHPORT, N. Y., OBSERVER: "We say that most smalltown people, or rural folk, have a sort of dignity of simplicity which is both wholesome and refreshing, and which is one of the characteristic traits of the typical American."

GARNER, IOWA, LEADER: "Our business is no different than others in the community. We are faced with constantly increasing costs—and frankly economic conditions in this area have not been good enough to make it possible for us to increase charges and keep up with our increasing costs. The situation was intensified recently with announcement of the big paper mills that print paper is going up another $4 per ton—which will mean that it will cost us more than three times what it did 20 years ago."

ONIDA, S. D., WATCHMAN: "The Right to Work Law, in brief, gives all South Dakotans the right of employment, be they union members or not."

CARLSBAD, N.M., CURRENT-ARGUS: "Electric utilities of the United States are gambling more than $2 million a day that 1957 will be a better year than last year's record breaker. During 1956, the industry spent $2.9 billion for construction of generating, transmission and other facilities—far above the average of the decade. These utilities have demonstrated they can, and will, undertake needed and practical projects, of the size required."

FAIRFAX, MINN., STANDARD: "Big business? It is very foolish indeed to rave about big business ruling the country—what is really ruling our country today, is—unionism!"

KNOXVILLE, IOWA, EXPRESS: "It is claimed that Lincoln freed the slaves from bondage. Now these same slaves, or their offspring, are still in bondage to a government which is master, demanding reports of all kinds—socialistic demands for your money, all according to the 'planners' in the government that finally will control your every move, to remodel your entire life according to the way they see that it should be lived. You guessed it, it is to be done by more and more vicious taxation."

TOPEKA, KAN., HOUSEHOLD: "Half the homes in many subdivisions have no insurance on furnishings. Yet even in modest homes these may be worth $1,000, $5,000, $6,000."

STERLING, ILL., DAILY GAZETTE: "We just wonder if it is generally known that there are 151 taxes on a loaf of bread?"

They tell us Heaven's streets are paved

With bright and shining gold, And grandeur and magnificence, Those pearly gates withhold, But I hope God plants roses there, Within that sacred place, And lilies lift white chalices, With loneliness and grace, Earth's gold lures men to lives of crime,

And causes hearts to harden, So in my bit of Heaven, please, Dear God, plant me a garden.

—Anna M. Carroll.

SURVEY FOR RETARDED CHILDREN

A survey is being made by the Carroll County Association for Retarded Children to determine the number of pre-school retarded children in the county.

Authorities emphasize that training for the retarded at a very early age is most important, and it is expected that the results of this survey will indicate the need for a pre-school class for retarded children in Carroll County. If so, it will eventually be financed, or partly so, by funds appropriated by the State Legislature under a bill providing for pre-school training for all handicapped children.

Meeting the needs of these pre-school children has been one of the objectives of the Carroll County Association for Retarded Children since its organization in 1954. Parents interested in this training program may contact Fern L. Smith, Finksburg. Telephone, Westminster 635-5-M-2.

DIED

THEODORE W. WELK Theodore W. Welk, 85, Pleasant Valley, died Wednesday at 5 a. m. at his home after a heart attack. He was a son of the late Henry and Savilla Starmer Welk. His wife, Alice E. LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Customer: Your new Plymouth 6 telephone number goes in use on Sunday morning, April 28, at 12:05 a. m. (five minutes after midnight Saturday). A new method of dialing your local calls, which is fully explained in the information pages of your new telephone directory, is also effective at the same time.

After 12:05 a. m. Sunday, tear out the temporary number card which is now on your telephone showing your present telephone number. Underneath you will find your new PLYMOUTH 6 number. Then, in order to make calls to other Plymouth 6 telephones, dial the first 2 letters of the Central Office name (PL) followed by the 5 numerals of the telephone number.

For example: To call PLYMOUTH 6-9970, dial PL6-9970. Seven pulls of the dial - two letters and five numerals.

Continue to place all other calls in the usual manner.

Remember - all Taneytown telephone numbers will be changed. Before making a call, refer to your new telephone directory to obtain the new number. Please do not call from memory.

If you have any questions regarding this change or your telephone service in general, please call your Business Office.

Very truly yours, PAUL M. MORELOCK, Manager

Dr. George Schochet, Deputy State Health Officer of Carroll County, today issued a statement explaining the use of miniature X-ray films in the community survey to find the unknown cases of tuberculosis in Carroll county.

Diagnosis of tuberculosis is never made on the basis of the first miniature films taken at the mobile X-ray unit, he said. "The small 70 millimeter films used for a mass X-raying project of this kind represent a great saving in time and money. Their purpose is to 'screen out' cases that might show suspicion of tuberculosis," Dr. Schochet explained.

"When a person's miniature film is negative, that means he is free of tuberculosis at this time. If the film reveals shadows, a larger X-ray must be taken for further study, to find out just what the trouble is. It does not mean that the person necessarily has tuberculosis."

A person can be requested to have a second picture for any of several reasons—a blurred "picture" or a technical imperfection of either film or machine—as well as because of shadows on the first film that might indicate illness. Every person whose miniature X-ray does not show a healthy chest is urged to go to his doctor or to the health department clinic for a second X-ray.

When the second film shows suspicious shadows or signs, further clinical and laboratory tests must be made before a diagnosis of tuberculosis is considered.

Reports will go out within six to eight weeks to individuals or to the doctors they have indicated if the small film X-ray is unsatisfactory for any reason.

The community X-ray survey which opened on April 15th is sponsored by the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association, the Maryland State Department of Health, and the Carroll County Health Department.

MEDICAL AND CHIRURGICAL FACULTY OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty will be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, May 1, 2 and 3, 1937. Scientific sessions, as well as the business sessions, will be held in the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty Building at 1211 Cathedral Street in Baltimore.

Dr. C. Reid Edwards, President of the State Society, and the Committee on Scientific Work and Arrangements anticipate that many physicians residing in this area will attend the annual meeting.

C. & P. WILL GO ON DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME

When Maryland goes on daylight time, nearly 2,200 clocks on switchboards and in telephone buildings, will be set forward by C. and P. maintenance forces.

If an operator is timing a long distance call at 2 a. m., when the change is to be made, the switchboard clock she is using to stamp the time on the ticket, will not be changed until after the customer has finished talking.

MEETING OF CHURCH WOMEN

The 66th meeting of the Middle Conference of the United Lutheran Church Women of Maryland Synod will have the Spring Conference, Tuesday, April 30, 1937, at Mt. Zion Haugh's, Ladysburg, Md.

Registration begins at 9:30. The morning session at 10:00. Mrs. Christie Zimmerman, a missionary on furlough from India, will be the speaker.

A fine program of worship and fellowship is promised.

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

Two summer school scholarships are available to teachers interested in special education. One scholarship is being offered by the Westminster Civitan Club and the other by the Carroll County Association for Retarded Children.

Any teacher having qualifications which meet the requirements of the Carroll County Board of Education for an elementary school teacher is eligible.

Interested applicants are asked to contact Fern L. Smith, Finksburg, Telephone Westminster 635-M-2.

WITH OUR ARMED FORCES

FORT JACKSON, S. C.—Private Clarence L. Albaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence K. Albaugh, RFD 1, Taneytown, Md., has been assigned to "C" Company, 2d Battalion, 1st Training Regiment for eight weeks of basic infantry training.

During the next eight weeks he will be learning the fundamentals of being an infantry soldier. This includes classroom lectures in such subjects as military courtesy, first aid, map reading and personal hygiene. He will also learn to fire the M-1 rifle on several ranges.

After this eight weeks of training, the trainee is given about 14 days leave after which he may or may not return to Fort Jackson. If he returns to Fort Jackson he may attend eight more weeks of individual training or an Army school. Fort Jackson offers schooling in several specialties associated with an Army Division.

Fort Jackson is one of the country's largest infantry training centers and also conducts a program of training for young men training under the provisions of the Reserve Forces Act of 1935.

MEDITERRANEAN (FHTNC)—Carroll W. Shay, fireman, USN, of Route 1, Westminster, Md., is serving aboard the attack cargo ship USS Muliphen with the 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean.

The Muliphen is taking part in amphibious assault training exercises with the fleet.

The ship visited Gibraltar; Malaga, Spain; and Bari, Italy. She is scheduled to return to Norfolk, Va. in May.

How Advertising helps you

BY CHARLES B. ROTH

Advertising Teaches THE head of one of America's great universities sat on the same platform with the head of one of America's great advertising agencies. It was the advertising man's duty to introduce the educator, which he did, identifying him as one of the most eminent of educators and head of one of the world's greatest institutions of learning.

After acknowledging with graciousness this introduction, the college president said: "You, sir, are a greater educator than I or anyone else in my place. For advertising, which you represent so successfully, conducts the greatest school for adults—children, too, for that matter—in the world."

And then he pointed out that through advertising America had become a well-informed nation; not only in values or qualities of merchandise, but advertising long ago outgrew such narrow boundaries, but in ideas and issues as well.

What he said is true. By that same token, the advertising pages of the newspaper ceases to be merely a guide for those who have needs to fill and money to buy. It really becomes an encyclopedia of current living. In those pages you can find practically anything you want.

Future historians, studying our current civilization, will learn more about us and how we lived from reading the ads than the news section of the papers. For each generation put down its story in the things that it found essential to life and comfort.

When you pick up your newspaper, read the ads carefully, which is the habit of intelligent people, you may not think you are "going to school." But you are. It is a pleasant "school," one easy for you to attend, but its learning is no less important or lasting for that.

The late Will Rogers was wont to say so often it became his slogan that all he knew he read in the newspapers. He knew a good deal. And anyone who will read the newspapers, not alone what is printed in the news columns, but also in the ads will know a good deal also.

He will not only know what is interesting to know, but he will know how and where he can spend his money to best advantage. Which is also important knowledge.

Shrovetide Hot-Cakes Do Double Duty!

Call them what your section of the country prefers—griddle cakes, flapjacks, or pancakes . . . make them from a mix or from "scratch" . . . in any case you'll find this double-duty recipe a special treat for Shrovetide days as well as all during Lent.

The off-the-griddle treat in the photo shows an Apple-Nut filling, for which you might like to substitute crushed pineapple for the apple sauce, for the sake of variety. The breakfast-type filling, with an accompanying fruit or chopped vegetable salad, would make a wonderful quick-'n'-easy luncheon or supper dish. The perfect topping—Log Cabin Syrup, of course.

Shrovetide Hot-Cakes Prepare pancake batter using a pancake mix. Bake on hot griddle, allowing about 1/2 cup batter for each cake. Spread one pancake with either of the fillings given below and cover with a second pancake, in the form of a sandwich. Serve hot with butter and maple-blended syrup.

Apple-Nut Filling: Spread lower pancake with hot spiced apple sauce and sprinkle with toasted chopped pecans.

Scrambled Egg Filling: On one pancake spread scrambled eggs and sprinkle with minced cooked bacon, chopped ham, or fried dried beef. Top with another pancake.

WHY PEOPLE GROW OLD—

Age is not a matter of years! It is a state of mind;
So, do not pine for the years left behind!
Babies born in the year 2000 will have 200 years to go;
And, there are many reasons why that is so.

If I could only live life over! many oldsters say—
(How often we hear it said in our day);
The truth is, you can, if you go God's way;
And, do not listen to what mortals say.

Men of 100, they tell us, in some future day
Shall not be cripples and old and grey;
Those centenarians shall only be in their prime,
Because life is not measured by flight of Time.

Even now, some reach the age of 152—
(At 120, they say, they seem like they are new);
All their days they had dined on a simple fare;
But, modern living caused death and despair.

An Arab, one Salo Abu Musa, now at 105
Is cutting his 3d set of teeth; and much alive!
And, there are many others like him, they say,
Who ignore modern doctrines, and go the old way.

We plant posts, called years, to mark flight of Time—
(Each year we plant one, as older we climb)—
Not knowing we are marking a channel, they say,
For our arch enemy, Age, to come our way.

There was once an old city in Italy, the papers say,
Which could only be reached through a channel in that day;
So, they planted posts to find their way;
But, pulled them up, when sea rovers drew near they say.

And, that is how we should do in our day—
Pull up the posts! Don't let Age come your way!
God sent you here to become like Him, they say,
So, you are always safe, if you go His way.

Here is how we find things on Earth to-day—
Three Luciferian churches in France they say;
Their members worship Satan; and, go his way.
Because they all fear him the papers say;

But, Satan is non entity, the servants all say;
So, why be a bird and fear a scarecrow like they?
At the very beginning a scapegoat he was meant to be
To bear man's iniquities; and, from mortals flee.

Living cells taken from dead bodies they say,
When properly fed live on and on from day to day;
Not only that! They grow, experts now say;
And continue to live after one has passed away.

Single cell animals never die a natural death;
They live on and on until crushed out of breath;
So, scientists are now asking each other—why
Multi cellular animals, like man, really need to die?

Age and Death are not stages of existence, they say—
(That is the consensus of great doctors to-day)—
Man shall always have a body, biologists say—
Because God intends he shall be that way.

The body we see goes to dust, they all say;
But, the man who lived in it goes on his way;
That is why we make so many trips to earth they say—
Man must build a body which shall not decay.

400 years ago, Ponce de Leon sought the Fountain of youth;
When it was right within himself, had he known the truth;
That is a secret we all shall know
When we learn to know God, and the right way to go.

What is responsible for youth and age?
Here is the answer as told by a sage;
"Youth looks forward for something better, some day,
Age looks back, and sees only death and decay.

The whole transaction is a mental state, they say;
So, until we learn who we are, we go the old way;
That is how God teaches both you and me;
And, that is how we are made fit for Eternity.

Youth pictures a body full of pep, we say;
Age sees a critter getting old and grey;
We have been trained to expect such things they say
And what we fear always comes our way.

At the age of 40 or 50 we all cease to climb,
Because we think we are long past our prime;
Man never even dreams that he is destined to be
In future ages, a god among gods in Eternity.

But, that is why God sent him this way;
He wants him to be perfect in the endless day;
Like Jesus, he too shall some day walk on the sea
When a man like Jesus he turns out to be.

We are told we can no longer look for growth;
So, we lay down the fiddle; and, live in sloth;
If we hold our own, we think we are doing well
When, on those around us, age begins to tell.

But, no one living can continue to hold his own,
He must either go forward or stand alone;
He must move, or, Life will pass him by;
And, he shall be a "has been" to every eye.

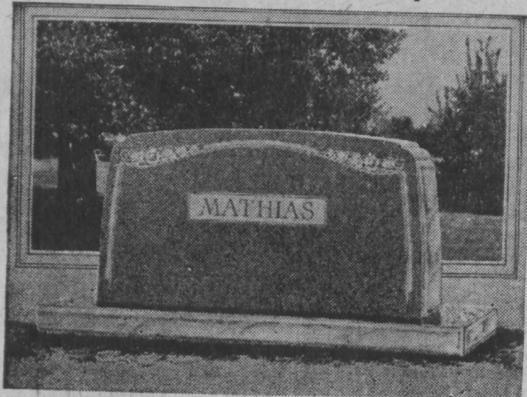

Does your body wear out? Of course it does, they say;
But with this difference, it renews itself each day.
If you cut a finger, or get hurt in any way
Your master chemist will fix you up, we say.

But that chemist is the same in me as in you
He lets us all do as we want to do!
He says to us all: "Take a pill; and, you shall see
It is far better than it is to listen to me."

That is where all of our physical troubles begin?
(The day we start on drugs; and don't listen within!)
Your chemist pays no more attention to you;
So you live in fear and your skies are no longer blue.

CAPTION: National Award. Richard Eichenman, student at Elmer Wolfe High School, Union Bridge, accepts certificate of honor for winning entry in 20th annual School Press Project. L. to R. Henry J. Kanowica, principal, Rev. Frederick R. Seibel, president of Carroll County Tuberculosis Association, Richard Eichenman, Mr. Imogene Yaste, faculty advisor, Dorothy M. Rinehart, executive secretary, of the TB Association.

The Elmer Wolfe High School received a certificate of honor in recognition of its award winning entry in the 20th annual school Press Project, jointly sponsored by the National Tuberculosis Association, its affiliates, and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, at an assembly.

The article, written by Richard Eichenman, 11th grade student, was cited by a national panel of judges for its journalistic excellence on the subject of tuberculosis. It was judged on accuracy, originality, journalistic style, evidence of research and understanding of the subject matter, on the assigned subject, "What's Needed to defeat TB?"

In making the award, Dr. Frederick R. Seibel, president of the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association, stated the purpose of the project was to help schools develop responsible citizenship by giving the students the incentive and the opportunity to investigate and report on a major public health problem as it affects their personal life, their school life and the life of their community.

"Student participation in activities of this kind gives them a thorough understanding of TB, a communicable disease that takes the lives of more than 300 Marylanders and attacks over 2000 now victims in our state each year", Dr. Seibel stated.

An animated color cartoon entitled "Rodney" was shown by Mrs. Dorothy M. Rinehart, executive secretary of the TB Association, to show how one teenager met and conquered tuberculosis. Each student received a pamphlet entitled "TB Through the Teens."

This and other tuberculosis control activities carried on by the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association are financed by the annual Christmas seal sale.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lesson
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Background Scripture: Genesis 1-2
Devotional Reading: Psalm 104:1-13

God Made Us Last

Lesson for April 28, 1957

THE readers of this column will not all read Genesis in the same day. Some will take it pretty literally, others will take the early chapters in it as picture-stories, parables in half poetic form. All readers, it is hoped, can agree on one point: that whether we take these stories literally or as parables, the meaning is the same in any case. We do not have to go grubbing in obscure corners for the meanings and messages of Genesis. The book was not written for people with complicated minds. The meanings it conveys are on the surface, or so near it that the simplest readers can see them.

Dr. Foreman

The Earth Is Man's Home

From the second story of creation which we find in Genesis, in chapter 2, the story which concentrates on man himself, we can select some outstanding impressions which the story makes, and no doubt was intended to make. First of all, this earth is the home of man. That is its principal use. Man came late to the planet; God made us last. We did not make our appearance here till all was ready for us. Some thinkers have thought of man as a sort of homeless creature, dropped into this earth almost by accident, fitting in nowhere. Quite the contrary; man might be lonely and restless on some far galaxy, but not on this green earth. Man, furthermore, being at the top of the ladder of creation, is master of this planet. This does not mean he is master of the universe. It may be discovered some day, as the science-fiction boys have already suggested, that men may some day find themselves on another planet, but as intruders, only to be thrown out or destroyed. But on this earth man has a right to live, and to achieve mastery. In Genesis 1 (where the horizon is wider than in Gen. 2) man is told: Replenish the earth and subdue it. Man, in short, is to work together with God in bringing order and completeness to the planet which is his rightful home.

Top of Creation

Let us pursue that thought about the top of creation a little further. This story in Genesis presents man as made from dust, and all other living things, both plants and beasts and birds, are likewise sprung from the dust by the power of God. Man has a kind of kinship with all of life, and therefore, as Albert Schweitzer has said, must have a reverence for life. Man cannot give life to himself nor to any other creature; and should be very slow about taking life of any sort. Nevertheless it is much nearer the truth to say that the creation is made for man, than that man is made for the rest of creation. Not that God intends everything in the world to be used. It is an interesting point that the trees of Eden are not all good for food; some of them are simply beautiful to see. The beauty of the world, sometimes its useless beauty (like a sunset) is for man alone, just as its usefulness—sometimes its unbeautiful usefulness—is appreciated best by man alone. Only man can heat the arctic and cool the tropics; only man can bring his foods from the ends of the earth.

"One Man Is No Man"

The Greeks had a slogan: One man is no man, meaning that we each need the help and companionship of others to live at all, as human beings. The story of the first man as told in Genesis illustrates this in a moving way. God sees that this man is incomplete, though he is set in the midst of great beauty and has work to occupy mind and hands. So God produces all the other animals; but man can only talk about them, not with them. So at last another human being is made. Before, there was only a man alone; now there is a human race. This is not science, not intended to be; but it is a profound truth. Man is made for community. Without it, sinks to the brutes' level. In community a man becomes human. And yet if the only companionship man finds is human, he has still missed his destiny. For man was made for fellowship, above all, with God. Only as friend of God can man become what God intended him to be.

COCCIDIOSIS
This disease still causes heavy losses among poultry. Look for such symptoms as loss of appetite, huddling, and watery or bloody droppings. Young birds often die rapidly in severe outbreaks. Survivors usually are unthrifty, poor doers.
My Recommendation: Give Dr. Salsbury's Sulquin in the water at first sign of coccidiosis. Prompt treatment saves most birds. Or use Ren-O-Sal to prevent the spread of cecal coccidiosis in the flock. Call on me for help, advice and products for poultry.

Recently, Purina research workers asked poultry staff men in 9 leading poultry states to estimate the total amount of feed required—on the average—to grow a pullet in their states. Shown here is the average of the figures they supplied, compared with Purina feed requirements based on records of thousands of pullets raised at the Purina Research Farms.

FEED REQUIRED TO GROW OUT PULLETS*
	Light Breeds	Heavy Breeds
9-state average.....	23.1 lbs.	28.0 lbs.
Purina Program average...	19.3 lbs.	23.8 lbs.
Saving per pullet on Purina...	3.8 lbs.	4.2 lbs.
Saving per 1000.....	3800.0 lbs.	4200.0 lbs.

*From day-old to laying here's how to grow 1000 sturdy, big-framed Purina pullets on 2500 pounds less feed

Most poultry raisers recognize that Purina Growing Chows have the quality and ingredients to grow sturdy, big-framed pullets. But not all realize that Purina Chow efficiency often makes it much lower in feeding cost than feeds with cheaper price tags. The comparison in the table above shows the important difference in number of pounds of feed needed to grow out Purina pullets, compared with the average in 9 leading poultry states. Rather than to claim the full amount of saving shown in this comparison, the Purina Research staff rounded off the figures to 2500 pounds less Purina Chow for light breeds, and 4000 for heavy breeds. This saving of feed increases the feeding value of Purina complete Growing Chow by 60¢ to 80¢ per bag (100 lbs.)... or $1.20 to $1.60 a bag extra value for Growing Chow fed with scratch grain.

Thousands of poultrymen have found that they can use high-quality feed... and make money doing it. We know this, and we're anxious to show you how you may cut feed cost with your pullets.

Pullet Health Hint—Now, with Purina Liquid Poultry Wormer, you can worm each 100 pullets for less than 25¢! Best time is when they are 10 to 12 weeks old, with a second treatment just before housing if your ranges are used heavily. It takes only one dose in the drinking water. Order Purina Liquid Poultry Wormer right here at the Store with the red-and-white Checkerboard sign.

The best time to overcome a bad temper is before it gains control.

The Navy requisitioned its first airplane on May 8, 1911. It was constructed of wood, canvas and bamboo and capable of flying at least 45 miles an hour.

"Maybe you can't take it with you, but these days where can you go without it?" —Pearl Bailey.

Run across any good $10,000 bills lately? Said to be 770 of them in circulation, biggest denomination of regular currency Uncle Sam makes.

Q: How far can a deer travel into the woods?

The classic answer to this old problem: "Only to the center. Thereafter, he is running out of the woods."

Q: How far can a farmer travel, on one of those monthly bill-paying trips, before he starts running out — of energy and patience?

Answers to this may vary; but the most satisfactory solution to the problem is to pay monthly bills by mail — with checks.

Where Corn Growing Profits Begin

The difference in seed corn cost per acre varies only about 70c whether you plant the best hybrid available or the cheapest seed you can buy. But think of the difference in the profit you'll make from a corn that yields an extra 3 bushels, 5 bushels—or even more—per acre. So start your corn crop by planting a hybrid that will give you those extra bushels in the fall. Pioneer hybrids are known throughout the Corn Belt for their high yields and dependability, year after year.
