KIWANIS ENTERTAINS TEACHERS

Program Followed Dinner at Taney Inn

The Kiwanis Club was pleased to have 34 Taneytown teachers as their guests last evening at the Taney Inn. President Eddie Howarth, who was in particularly good form, introduced those guests who were present other than the teachers. They were as follows: Key Clubbers John Reeve and Allen Baumgardner, Mrs. Miles Reifsnider and her son Sammy, Miss Marsha Reifsnider, Mrs. Brihart and Mrs. Kemper of Uniontown, Mr. William Osgood of Westminster, and Mr. Samuel Jenness, the superintendent of the Carroll County School system.

Mr. Wargny, the principal of the Taneytown Elementary School, introduced the following persons: Mrs. Gass, Mrs. Stonesifer, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Mohney, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Koutz, Mrs. Perry, Miss Shreeve, Mrs. Lanier, Mrs. Wargny, Mr. Leese, Mrs. Crawford, who very graciously "agreed" to lead the group in singing "fugny" songs, and Mr. Miller. Mr. Wargny made some very pleasing and appropriate remarks and introduced Mr. Mason, the principal of the High School, who introduced in turn the following High School teachers: Mrs. Sanders, Mr. Weigle, Miss Bankert, Mr. Musser, Mr. Neal, and Mr. Massie, Mr. Minnick, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Shipley, Mrs. Osgood, Miss Feeman, Mrs. Welker, Mrs. Yeecke, Mrs. Seibel, Mrs. Rebert, Miss Brown, Mr. Decker and Mrs. Eddie Howarth who has been substituting for Mrs. Yingling, who only recently returned from the Gettysburg Hospital.

Mr. Mason was in charge of the program and introduced as speakers four recent and very attractive "pilgrims" to the old countries: Miss Mary Jim Wantz, Miss Carol Jean Ensor, Miss Alene Brown, and Miss Carol Jeanette, who was "Miss Maryland" in a very recent year.

Miss Wantz spoke of her tour, which had been arranged by the American Travel Co., and which took her through the Scandinavian countries and Holland. She was particularly impressed with a train ride above the timber line in Sweden, with the dungeons at Elsinore Castle, the amusement parks which go far toward replacing the gloomy night clubs which are so frequently found in most other countries of the world, and with the art museum at Copenhagen which is supported by the Carlsburg Brewing Co. of that city.

Miss Wantz had trouble finding any wooden shoes or baggy bloomers in Holland, but apparently short leather pants and suspenders are still frequently seen in Germany.

Miss Ensor spoke interestingly of England and Scotland. Her trip was planned by the Bureau of University Travel, and she was much impressed with the leadership provided by that Bureau. She related an interesting anecdote concerned with Sir Walter Raleigh and the famous Spanish Armada which she heard from a kindly lady in Plymouth, England. She explained the interesting origin of the term "red tape", and enjoyed the opportunity of seeing Vivian Leigh and her husband in "Titus Andronicus" on the evening of the day that the British Legion was thrown out of the Miss Parliament.

Miss Brown, who likes Coco Cola cold, chronicled her visit to Switzerland and Belgium. She reported that her efforts to learn the word for ice in many languages were crowned with success when she finally, in Italy, received a Coco Cola properly cooled—not hot, nor submerged in ice cream as had been the case more frequently than she cared to admit. She enjoyed unusual accommodations in the remains of a building of the feudal period in Bruges.

Miss Jeanette rode Vaporettes and gondolas in Venice, was submerged with art in Florence, had a "semi-private" audience with the Pope in Rome, came within two feet of the bones of St. Peter, was charmed by the blue grotto in Canri, interested at Pompeia, grateful for Latin, disappointed at seeing so many tourists in France, made dizzy with 3400 reflections of Boy Scouts in the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles, and was pleased with Parisian coats, the Venus de Milo and the "Winged Victory".

The girls were fluent and exceedingly interesting speakers. The Kiwanis Club was very grateful for having heard them.

President Howarth provided the "pinale" with appropriate and not-so-appropriate remarks, and exhorted Kiwanians to bring "food-stuffs" to the Fire House on the morning of the annual Kiwanis "Kids' Day".

STATEMENT FROM C. & P. TELEPHONE COMPANY

"Naturally, the Company is disappointed that their rate proposal cannot go into effect immediately under bond. We will not be able to proceed at once with the service improvements and the plan for wider range calling we had hoped to put into effect and the greatly needed rate relief will be delayed for several months. However, we are confident that the evidence to be presented at the forthcoming hearings will fully justify all of our rate proposal."

WESTERN TRIP

Baumgardners Describe Visit with Relatives and Friends

On Labor Day week-end Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Baumgardner, Taneytown and Mr. and Mrs. Lake F. Baumgardner and son Harry, Baltimore, returned home from a three week trip through the Middle West which included 13 states and also part of Province of Alberta, Canada.

While they were in South Dakota they visited the Ranch of Mr. John Smith, of Reva. This was a very fine cattle ranch. Mr. Smith was in a nearby town that particular day to a cattle sale and we were very sorry we missed seeing him. While in that same state we traveled into the Badlands and Black Hills. The Badlands is a federally owned tract of 122,972 acres of scenery which is an outstanding example of soil erosions caused by sand and storms. There is very little vegetation if any. Here also is the remains of prehistoric animals from the Badlands you cross the Pikes and go into the Black Hills. These timbered slopes really look black in contrast to the praries that surround them. There are two small towns in the Black Hills which are a real part of the old west. "Deadwood" which is known for such characters as "Wild Bill Hickok," "Calamity Jane," "Poker Alice" and many others. Also "The Broken Boot" gold mine and although there is still gold in the ore, the mine isn't operating at this time. Another Gold Mine we visited was the "Hosesake Mine" in Lead, S. Dakota. We took a planned tour through this mine and we were told this was the largest operating Gold Mine in the United States. During the tour we were also told that it takes one (1) ton of black ore, which is mined as far as two miles in the earth to produce 3/10 of an oz. of Gold. All the gold mined here is bought by the U. S. Government.

Another small town that lies in the Black Hills is Spearfish. This town is noted for the summer home of the greatest of all plays, "The Passion Play" starring Josef Meier. Mr. Meier who originally came from Germany has prepared for this role of the "Christus" from childhood. As everyone well knows "The Passion Play" is the story of the Resurrection. The play takes place in a natural amphitheatre in the Hills outside of the town of Spearfish. The stage alone takes up two and one-half blocks. The natural background is a perfect setting for this truly great play. During the winter months this same play with the same principal actors and actresses is given in Lake Wales, Fla. LIONS CLUB CHARTER NIGHT

The Taneytown Lions Club celebrated their 10th Annual Charter Night Tuesday evening at the Peter Pan restaurant, Urbana, Md.

About ninety-four members and guests enjoyed a fried chicken dinner. The charter night committee composed of Merwyn C. Fuss, Delmar Riffle and Robert Feesser secured a fine program which opened with the singing of "America", followed by the pledge to the flag. Invocation was offered by Rev. Edmund P. Welker. Group singing followed by greetings from the toastmaster and introduction of guests and presentation of clubs. A quartet from the Gettysburg Lions Club was enjoyed by all present. Remarks from the president, Ralph W. Stonesifer followed, and presentation of awards was made.

The evening's speaker was Rev. Charles M. LeFev, pastor of Washington Square Methodist Church, of Hagerstown. His topic was "Sleeping Giants."

Representatives from the following clubs were present: Frederick, Hagerstown, Mt. Airy, Union Bridge and Gettysburg.

Official guests present were District Governor Carl Thomas and Mrs. Thomas of Frederick, Deputy District Governor Russell Marsh of Union Bridge, International Councilors Alvin Renn and Mrs. Renn of Frederick and Murray Ryan and Mrs. Ryan of Mt. Airy.

All past presidents of the Taneytown Club were present except Hoke E. Thomas. They are: J. Robert Ommert, M. S. Ohler, Robert W. Feesser, Harry B. Dougherty, S. E. Remsburg, Homer Y. Myers, Wilbur O. Thomas, Raymond J. Perry and J. Alfred Heltebride.

TRIP TO SWEDEN

Mrs. Otto Olsson returned home Tuesday, Sept. 3, from a trip to her native country, Sweden. Mrs. Olsson left New York, May 29th, on the steamer Gripsholm and arrived June 6th at Gothenburg, Sweden.

Just a short time before the boat landed, Mrs. Olsson, hurrying to see it dock, fell and broke several small bones in her foot. Because of the swelling she had to remain in bed three days before the foot was put in a cast. The cast was on for five weeks.

After three and a half years away what a warm welcome it was for her to see the flags of her country waving, for it was the Swedish flag day.

At Helsingborg, she visited her father, Mr. Helge Johansson and a brother and sister, also Mr. Olsson's mother, Mrs. Nathalia Olsson and other members of his family. While there, she visited two other sisters, living at Landskrona and Karlskrona.

On the return trip at the boat near New York Harbor, and she got a glimpse of the Statue of Liberty, she had a fine feeling on being back in the U. S. A.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

(Your Chatty Column)
With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The most unusual dry weather lasting for so long a period surely has caused many to put on their thinking caps. Eh? The huge lawn next to the stream here at the bungalow has remained a beautiful green due to the moisture each night and the dew is still most evident on the blades of grass each morning. The two beautiful pink dogwood trees are filled with red berries as I have been told means that those signify the trees are getting ready for winter!

The little bridge just for "Your Observer" has been built by a neighbor across the stream due to the fact that I fell in one day trying to jump across to the Zenia flower bed!

Many mothers, no doubt were happy this week to have school open once again. Here's to any Teen-ager. What ever you do be sure and graduate from High School as it is impossible to secure a position without that certain piece of paper!

Gentlemen, I do hope you did not miss the Rocco bout last night with the Jap Wrestler. Rocco is loved more by the public than any wrestler anywhere. He surely took much punishment last night with the artful tactics of his opponent.

What a sweet note arriving from Kathryn Murray of the T.V. Show which will go off the screen for the winter! That nice little woman who always says, "Now for a little fun in your life—try dancing!"

Now, for those unanswered letters—A lady who says she is a teacher in the public schools and who has had another position offered her which pays her more money wants to know if she should accept the new position or keep on with teaching.

Reply: If I were in your place, I don't think that I would want to give up that wonderful profession of teaching. Nothing equals it only Nursing. From your letter it reads as though you really love children and that is the entire secret of being a teacher.

For a few more dollars that you would get with this other position you would begin to realize that it was not worth the change and besides someday—who knows—you may have taught A FUTURE PRESIDENT OF THESE UNITED STATES!

"I am a teen-ager and the reason I am coming to you with this letter is because we always read your Columns in our house and that will mean your answer will satisfy the entire family! I have been wanting to quit school as I just am not a real scholar, and it seems that it all is so dense to me that I cannot grasp subjects in fact I hate school. My parents do not approve of me quitting as I have two more years to go before I graduate (that is if I ever do). I like to go out on dates but my parents do not agree with that one also stating girls should not remain out late at night. I know you will understand. Please answer soon. Thank you!" Signed, Well, Miss Teen-ager, I must agree with your parents deep down in my heart for the two reasons which you request the replies. First of all, your letter which I could not place all in the Column due to lack of space sounded pretty nice if you wrote that yourself and intelligent and not the dense scholar as you stated. Please, do go back to school at least until you are certified that little white paper—the certificate or diploma as that is the very first thing you must hand in when you seek your first job! As to going out on dates, I do not think your parents would object if you are home about 10:30 or the latest at 11 P. M. It is always nice to go out in couples and that way there is more fun. By all means listen and take heed to your parents then you will never, never have any regrets!

And this from a Widow—"I have been a widow for a little more than a year. All my children are married and I have a large home which I find very lonely and I cannot seem to get accustomed to it although one hears that time erases everything in sorrow. I have been left comfortably wealthy. Please advise me." Answer—Why not just to your liking and get a new one set by the house. Be interested in others not yourself. Giving love to others will pay off big dividends. Go to church where you can mingle with many fine happiness right there. You will not be lonely if you always keep close to God. As for marrying or as you stated having the chance—that does not sound so good—for it would be taking a chance as you did not state you love the man—and that should come first by all means. You can apply yourself to much by doing charitable work. Good luck!

So long, Folks. Will be seeing you next week D.V. when I will write about the "VIRGO" individual. Until then, I am,

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.
