There was a feeling in the atmosphere of the operatic crowd and I observed there were as many gentlemen of all ages as there were ladies present. The Bolshoi Ballet will always linger with me and truly it is like opera for the more often one attends a performance, the more desire you have to go to another.

Don't miss this grand and worthwhile show. One dance called "Spring Water" was most invigorating in every step as your imagination comes to life immediately with this charm fully than I have ever seen it all down through the years. This is the show witnessed by Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth of England. WOMAN'S WORLD

Sandwiches Give Meal Satisfaction For Family, Guests

NO matter where you spend the summer, the problem of serving hungry people will always be there. The best way to take care of the situation is to have a good stock of sandwich making materials on hand so you can serve at a moment's notice.

Then, there's another thing about sandwiches, too, which any homemaker will appreciate. The makings for sandwiches can be set out buffet fashion and family and guests can make their own.

Toasted Pickle Sandwiches (Makes 8 sandwiches) 16 slices white bread Prepared Mustard Mayonnaise 1 cup sliced dill pickles 8 slices Swiss cheese 8 slices bologna 1 egg, beaten

½ cup milk

Salt and pepper

Butter Spread bread with mustard and mayonnaise. Arrange pickles, cheese and bologna on 8 slices of bread. Cover with remaining slices. Beat together egg, milk, salt and

The eating is easy, and the serving is, too, when sandwiches are main fare for light summer meals. Keep fillings on hand so you can serve at a moment's notice, or let the family make their own varieties from the "Makings."

pepper. Dip sandwiches into egg mixture. Fry in a small amount of butter in skillet turning once to brown both sides

Corned Beef Filling

(Makes 21/2 cups) 2 cups corned beef, ground 2 tablespoons prepared horseradish

1/3 cup mayonnaise 2 teaspoons prepared mustard ½ cup pickle relish Dash of cavenne

Combine all ingredients and blend thoroughly. Use between buttered bread slices or buttered

Pink, Gray Lead In Bath Colors

Surveys show that American homemakers are far from fickleminded when it comes to bathroom colors. Pink and gray still lead the color parade after being on top for several years.

Blue, which once showed strong signs of becoming really popular, has slipped into a new low in the homemakers esteem.

Pink and gray are virtually tied for top honors, while tan, red, yellow and green are third, fourth, fifth and sixth choices. The newcomer to the list is red which in past years was rarely chosen. The other colors have always been popular.

White has climbed upwards on the list. It's now seventh choice and is being used more and more often in the roomy, expensive bathrooms in homes priced above

Larger Baths

Homemakers, tired of postagestamp baths they have lived in for many years with their lack of storage facilities and decorations are striking for bigger and better bathrooms.

Trends show that bathrooms are preferred if they have storage for cleaning supplies, towels and washcloths and cosmetics. The dressing table lavatories are becoming popular because of the drawer space which they can provide for milady's cosmetics.

Storage can also be built into the walls. One innovation is the bulkhead which is placed at the end of the tub which will provide shelves for towels, mats and extra soap, cleaners and tissues. Hampers can also be built in.

Durable Materials For wainscoting, surveys show that ceramic tile is used three times as often as any other quality surfacing materials. Quarry tile is also popular for floors because it gives an easily cleaned

Decorative wallpapers which have been specially designed for bathroom use are good for use above the wainscoting. These are specially coated so they can withstand the steamy conditions in the bathroom and are far heavier than wallpaper for other rooms.

When God in His wisdom created the earth, He planned in a manner so wise, For He wanted the blessings of peace to abound

In places where earth's beauty lies. He created high mountains, green valleys, and hills, Great rivers and lakes and blue

And there's majesty, strength, and grandeur and charm And much peace and beauty in these. But God wanted perfection, so He created flowers,

And in garden their beauty we share, For they in their loveliness glorify

And His love and His peace linger

The disease is called three-day measles ter Fran, on Saturday night. because it usually lasts that long. Early symptoms are a slight head cold, sore throat, headache and possibly a fever. It resembles ordinary measles the first day, scarlet fever the second and spring fever the third. The patient wants to sleep the day away and prowl around the house during the night. The rash starts to fade in 24 hours and is gone by the third day. The glands along the back of the neck swell and knots form below and behind the ears. The enlargements may last two weeks or more. There is rarely any complication with three day measles but common sense should be used in protecting the patient from cold and in seeing that plenty of fluid is consumed. INSURANCE COUNSELLOR HONORED -

James H. Fair, F.I.C., 100 Mill Ave., Taneytown, Md., who represents Lutheran Brotherhood Insurance, has so distinguished himself by his skill in the Fraternal Life Insurance field that he was awarded a Certificate of Outstanding Achievement in 1957 by his professional association, the F.I.C. Association at the annual meeting in Chicago, Ill., May 2, 1958. The Award reads as

(The F.I.C. above) "Paid for $150,7 000 or more Fraternal Life Insurance in each of the previous two years and gave Quality Service to his years and gave Quality Service to his Clients resulting in 90% or higher Persistency. It is evident by this achievement that the above Society he represents, the members he has the represents, the members he has been solved and his local community have wicked I feel riding like this."

Much cheered Sandy replied, "Then had confidence in him and have been strengthened by his conscientious service. Therefore, the Association is pleased to honor the above F.I.C.

with this distinguished award.

In order to receive the F.I.C. designation and be a member of the Association, an insurance counsellor studies an extensive Basic and Advanced training course, passes two sealed examinations and meets cer-tain production requirements. He then must, by skill and consistent service to his clients, earn their full confidence in order to receive the above Award.

We feel sure his clients, friends and neighbors in his local community will wish to join with us in congratulating him on this outstanding achievement. This is why we're giv-ing you this News Release, for the F.I.C. above, indicated that your paper was his favorite home town news publication.

Gifts and Glory

Lesson for May 11, 1958

SUPPOSE it were your problem. Suppose you had several thousand people, all of whom had recently been slaves, and their ancestors before them for hundreds of years. These people had no Bible, no church. Their masters had been very religious people, but the gods their masters worshipped were nearly all animals, and if not animals, then a river, or the sun. or the emperor and his family. Now suppose you had these ex-slaves off by Dr. Foreman themselves trying to make them realize the truth about the only true God. How would you make God real to them?

Splender of God

That was Moses' problem. God inspired him not with one answer but with several. One way by which he made God real to these very primitive people was in the provisions for the worship of God. Essentially this was very simple. God was provided with living quarters, the same type of home that all the people had, namely a tent. This tent was to be right in the very center of their encampment wherever it might be-for the people now lived the life of wandering desert nomads. When we today speak of the "house of God," we mean a church building which is filled, we hope, with people. But the Israelite "house of God" was a tent in which nobody at all lived, a tent which only a very few privileged priests could enter, a tent for God alone.

It was so small that even if it had been filled, only a few dozen people could have got in. But it was near. "God lives in the midst of us," they could say. And it was beautiful. The people themselves gave the materials to build it, and the very listing of these materials suggests a brilliant gleaming beauty,-gold, silver, bronze, fine twined linen, onyx stones . . By the beauty of God's house the people were every day reminded of the splendor of God.

The Best For God

Moses might have built that tent for God, the Tabernacle as we call it.—he might have built it himself. Very likely he had the resources with which to do it. But the thing was to be done by the people. Everybody was encouraged to contribute. Further, they were en couraged to give the best they had. the most costly materials they owned. That was the first church building campaign on record. The house of God was not to be made of scraps left after every one else had been well housed. The house of God was to be erected out of gifts which had cost the givers a great deal. There's an obvious moral to all this. Now, as then, if all that people devote to the worship of God is what they can well and easily spare; if God's worship comes from life's leftovers; it will mean very little. Here is a modern church member who contributes to his church—to the building fund or to any other need—only his spare change. He gives to God's worship not even an hour a week on an average; he never goes when the weather is bad or when it just "doesn't suit him."

Glory of God

The Old Testament says that the "glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle." Jewish tradition says that this "glory" was a light so bright no man, not even Moses, could endure the sight of it. Be that as it may, what does it mean in this twentieth Christian century, with all we have learned from the New Testament, for the glory of God to fill the house of God? For so it should be. There is dullness, emptiness enough in this world without our having to go to church for it. In God's house we long to find God's glory. What is it we are really looking for? Saint Paul tells us that the glory of God is in "the face of Christ." Here is a thought for every one who has a heartinterest in the worship of God. When is a Christian church filled with the glory of God? Surely when Christ is seen there, when he fills the church. But in the New Testament, the church is not a building. it is people. So a worshipping congregation is filled with the divine glory when it is a congregation of those in whose lives Christ himself is living, when Christ is not only proclaimed by the preacher but is active in the minds and hearts and service of those who know and love

LEARN TO KNOW GOD-

"Learn to know God", the Scriptures say—
To reach perfection, there is no other way!
You and I are like Him in embryo; But, to be exactly like Him, we have far to go.

For "God is Love", the Scriptures also say—
That is one attribute we all must display
And, there are many other things we must do
To be like God; and, not like me or you.

In the heavens above us, there are millions of stars—Millions of Worlds and Suns just like ours!

No lack of wealth or profession do we see; For, God made them all for His great family.

God did not look out for Self as man would do;
They are all homes for people like me and you;
And, on them, with us, He has promised to be,
Both now and through all Eternity.

Look at vegetation in the countries all around; Nature, one of God's angels, oversees the ground; Nothing but abundance do we see; And, He does it all for you and me.

God's Love is broader than the boundless sea-From the moment of birth, He pampers you and me; Then too, He is making this earth a paradise to be When the time arrives for its great jubilee.

The birds, the animals—(even fishes in the sea!) All are happy; and, contented, seem to be; To them, Nature holds out a lavish hand—Just so we see things all over the land.

So the puzzle to me, as I advance in years
Is, "Why do mortals have so many fears?"
Jesus said: "Your Faith, knoweth ye need these things",
So, each one of the seasons, its edibles, brings.

Then, why does man not trust God as the animals do?

Jesus said, He thinks less of them than He does of you;
You were made in His likeness, the Scriptures say;
So, listen to Him; and, do things His way!

About the exhaustion of coal and oil men have fear; But, such things shall last through all the years; Vast oil fields lay untouched, prospectors say; And, still bigger ones shall be found some day.

God knew His great family on earth would increase; (And, He wants us all to live in peace!)
o, "The whole earth is full of His glory", they say; Then, let us all praise Him, as we go our way!

There is an abundance here for every one;
To make use of coal and oil we have only begun;
God saw how, in the future, things would be;
So, nothing but abundance do we see.

"The earth is the Lords", the Scriptures also say;
And, a Paradise it shall be some day;
The Bible tells us that we are God's hands;

So, let us all help Him to carry out His plans. What we need is Faith, Bible writers all say; So, learn to know God; and, do things His way! God saw at the beginning how things would be;

So, here He trains us to live in Eternity. Man needs the faith of a Columbus in order to see Just how, in the future, things shall be; But, God knew; and, it is a part of His plan To make this earth the future home of man.

Knowing this is to be true, I can't see why Man lets every chance to do good escape his eye; For, when a brother he makes of every man, He shall learn to know both God and His plan.

The birds and his animals look ahead, we say;
So, mortal man, awake! Do things their way!
Through the summer they are all busy as bees, they say
Getting ready for winter with its skies of grey.

They are all puppets in God's Great hands; So, they do as He says, and obey His commands; And, that is how mortal man should do; For, through him, God is making all things new.

We are all here to help carry out God's plan To make this old Earth a heaven for man; So, like our Great Father we should all try to be, If we hope to live and reign in Eternity.

That is why God sent Jesus to earth, they say;
He came to tell us of the endless day;
So, here all of God's sons are taught to know
Now in future ages they all must go.

HAMPSTEAD YOUTH FOR CHRIST DEDICATES SECOND BUS IN LESS THAN TWO YEARS

A streamlined 33 passenger, aluminum-sided red and white over-the-read coach was dedicated debt--free by Hampstead Youth for Christ last Saturday night to meet an increasing need for teenage transportation in an expanding ministry which now includes YFC clubs in seven junior and senior high schools in the area. There are 2,000 such clubs across the nation and in seven foreign countries. Earl W. Schultz, Jr., director of the Hampstead rally was cited as the 1957 "International Director of the Year".

This is the second pusher to be purchased by the rally in less than two years. The first, which is also a 33 passenger luxury coach, has been used for weekly transportation to the Saturday night meeting, for various teenage retreats and for several months has even been used as the meeting place for one of the YFC clubs. When this bus was made available to the community last summer, more than 250 people from many denominations took, the saven consecutive Friday night excursions to the Rilly Graham Crusade, held in Madison inations took the seven consecutive Friday night excursions to the Billy Graham Crusade held in Madison Square Garden, in New York City.

HYFC is held every Saturday night, 8 p. m., in the Greenmount Church, one mile North of Hampstead on Route No. 30.
