MILLS OF CARROLL CO. ALONG BIG PIPE CREEK

Mrs. Reifsnider Writes Interestingly About Old "Institutions"

Middleburg Roller Mills better known as Crouse's Mill is owned and operated by Raymond Crouse. It is located near Middleburg on Taney-town road along Big Pipe Creek.

It is wood constructed and has a turbine which most mills don't have. The big snow storm in March 1958 tore away the flooring over turbine.

It was bought by his father Willis Crouse from Mr. Menges in 1889, who moved near Kingsdale, Pa., where he milled until his death. His daughter Charlotte Toms, lives there but couldn't give any information concerning her father with Crouse's Mill.

Mr. Crouse couldn't give much information either as they moved from Manchester to the mill when he was quite young.

It is still being used in full force to make flour, hominy, corn meal and feed. It has always been run by water power. Several times water was a little low but didn't have to use any other kind of power. Water is higher at present than has been for couple years.

The flour which is called Silver Leaf is sold in many stores also the other products.

McGUNIST MILL McGunist Mill known as Blooms mill is located along Frederick road near Hump Back bridge, within 1 1/2 miles from Keymar, along Big Pipe Creek.

It was built in 1847. It is stone and has 2 stores, with number of windows and a turbine. There was a man found dead in it but don't know if it was natural death or he was murdered.

William Bloom bought it from Mr. McGunist, Frank Blessing the present owner bought it from Mr. Bloom in 1923. It is being well preserved but not in use.

BUCKEY'S MILL Buckey's mill is located near Middleburg on Johnsview and Middleburg road along Big Pipe Creek.

Mr. Daniel Buckey owned and operated it years ago. He was first person to have an electric power plant in the community. It effected the telephone line. When it was running the line was so noisy, you could hardly talk.

Mr. George Simpson worked for Buckey later he bought it. It burned down and was rebuilt in 1908. After that it was not used for making flour. Truman Keefe the present owner stores feed there for his customers.

SPARS MILL Spars mill was near Union Bridge at forks of Feesersburg and Mackley road, near Sam Mackley's junk yard. Mr. Spar milled there 40 years ago or earlier. It hasn't been in use for about 35 years and is no longer standing.

WELLERS MILL Wellers Mill is at Maidensville along Union Bridge and New Windsor road. In 1750 Mr. Winters from Germany built the mill. After his death 1833 it was sold to Wm. Englemann, who ran it for 20 years. He then built a new mill in 1832 which now stands.

Mr. Englemann lost confidence in banks after his death $500.00 was found hidden between a strawstack and a feather tick. Money was found behind rafters of mill and house and under carpets. The house where he lived is the Hindes house now.

Next to own the mill was Thomas Haley E. Fisher and George Waltz. Mr. Waltz owned it for 36 years.

The original wheel of present mill was made of wood and known as an overshot wheel. The axle almost 2 ft. in diameter. The wooden wheel is 20 ft. in diameter and has 60 buckets upon its 60-ft. of circumference. Each bucket holds 10 gallons water. He made the machinery and began making hominy which is kept up to today. He also made flour and corn meal.

In 1904 he took some of his products to World's Fair in St. Louis, Missouri. He received a silver medal. This medal is owned by Joseph Weller the present owner, who bought the mill from Mr. Waltz. He uses Silver medal as a trade name on his hominy. He also cans tomatoes. His products are sold in Md. and Pa. stores.

The corn is soaked in water then put in a machine with a number of beaters, like a rough, dull knife. They go around and around corn is cleaned and then cooked.

The mill race is over a mile long. It is cleaned once a year and is quite a job.

There was a sawmill years ago connected to the mill and powered by water wheel.

So may the old mill wheels grind grain for generations to come.

PRESBYTERIAN PASTOR WILL BE INSTALLED

Tomorrow at 8 p. m. the Rev. William Martine Hendricks will be installed as pastor of the Emmitsburg and Taneytown Presbyterian churches in a service conducted in the Emmitsburg church by the Presbytery of Baltimore.

Mervel Weaver, minister, Frederick Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Jack M. Croup, minister, Lochearn Presbyterian Church; the Rev. William M. Hendricks, pastor-elect.

Address by the Rev. Earl E. Redding, Pastor EUB Church, Hagers-town. "The Wonders of the Modern World". Scripture St. John 12:23-37. Text verse 37. "But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him". Rev. Redding related he was President of this distinguished group of Endeavorers just 29 years ago and he owes much to "Christian Endeavor for Christ and the Church". We have seen many changes since the turn of the century. We are living in a wonderful age if we keep God in it, but there are millions of unbelievers, living for self only. Some believe in specialists, forgetting God who has prepared them all for us. Foolish is man believing in material things and not in God given things. Shall we consider America a Christian Nation? No America is a Nation with some Christians living in it. The sin of unbelief the barrier. We must live a life, to be able to say, "Lord I Believe."

Nominating committee report was given by Mrs. Claude Bohn, Union Bridge.

Due to the absence of Charles Hayward, Field Secretary the officers were installed by the Rev. Mr. Redding, President, Roger L. Nearly 50 youngsters enjoyed the third annual Fishing Rodeo sponsored by the Taneytown Junior Chamber of Commerce. SAFE AND CONTENTS STOLEN

A robbery was discovered at the Taneytown Southern States Cooperative Monday morning when an employee, Harry Hahn, opened the place for business.

Officer Emory Hahn, who was on duty nearby, was immediately summoned. He found that the thieves entered the building in the rear by cutting a glass in a window and then proceeded to the office and broke open the safe. The safe contained a small locked money compartment which the thieves were unable to open, so the entire safe was rolled to the side door on a bag truck and hauled away.

Officer Hahn called State Trooper George Wachter who in turn called in finger print experts from the Maryland State Police. A full investigation of the thievery is now underway.

"SPICE 'N EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning a smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.

I wish you health—life's greatest wealth! I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

With the opening number, "Thank Heaven for Little Girls" sung by that young old timer, Mr. Maurice Chevalier in "Gigi" at the Centre theatre on North Avenue means you are going to enjoy the show right from the beginning. That grand French Actor going on 70 whom I have seen since I was a little girl has not changed very much in all the years only that he is trifle stouter. Father Time has been kind to him! He still has all the charm, vivaciousness and much else and you will love the show to the very end. It has been filmed in Paris in the gay 1900's. The ladies will love the gorgeous gowns! Many say the styles today are so much nicer but—Ah! Ladies were really covered from head to toe those days! Another don't miss that one! It has been called, "The Fair Lady" of the screen. Leslie Caron is a dear and it would have added much if she had displayed her real talent of dancing a few numbers.

At the "Town Theatre" on Fayette Street the show "Indiscreet" with Ingrid Bergman and Cary Grant are the headliners and there was a packed house for those two special Stars. The acting is splendid and the story is of a famous actress who is in love with a man who pretends he is a married man until she discovers the truth and then the fireworks start and in the end, of course, they live happily ever after! Mr. Grant is much thinner—well—first time I saw Cary Grant dance and he was good. Ingrid Bergman truly is a beautiful woman, the kind of beauty this Correspondent likes to see.

Did you notice on T.V., Folks the other night that Dorothy Lamour is now far from a beauty with all those extra pounds? That did surprise me! As for Dorothy Kilgallon she is improving all the time in face and figure. Eh? She is a sweet, honey and substantial person even with all the glamour. She is the "IT" girl on that panel, "What's My Line?"

Well, Gentlemen, that did shock me to see Rocca fall at the Coliseum in Baltimore for I always was under the impression that he never missed being "The Winnah!"

And as for those girl Wrestlers—they are more alert than men and WOW that awful Nell Stewart Clutch! Bob Curtis was fast with the sleeper hold. What a tough one is that Boz Brown! Well, that's the sort of wrestling down at the Coliseum—Ortebeal!

Ladies, this Fall skirts will be still as short but the coat a trifle longer than the skirt. And as to those long chains around Milda's neck—many are to be worn at one time of all different types.

Folks, if you are contemplating purchasing a refrigerator by all means see the R.C.A. WHIRLPOOL! Never have I heard such a quiet motor! Had to place my ear bang up to the machine to find out if it was really running. It is constructed beautifully and even the small apartment size has all the grand features plus the fine hardware. One cannot hear the door close at all which pleases any housewife. That make will be my next buy! One look will convince you! And it consumes so little ELECTRICITY!

What a delightful and enchanting evening last Thursday evening at the George Washington Monument listening to the Municipal Band Concert with the leader, William Sebastian Hart. The well chosen numbers played were charming and the singers, Mr. Dan Entrakon and Mr. James Mitchell sang beautifully.

Old Baltimore was right there and I met some of the finest people. It was truly a Southern atmosphere with much hospitality. There was a huge crowd in fact not sufficient chairs. Cars were parked and many sat on the steps of the lovely Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Church. The leader truly had qualifications of the smile of Victor Herbert, a swing of John Philip Sousa, the dash of Damrosch and the spice of Pryor. Sheets of a number of choruses were presented to the pleased audience and then Mr. Mitchell led in the singing and the atmosphere was truly filled with charm.

When "Aida" was played so beautifully, I thought I again heard Caruso at the Metropolitan and "The Blue Waltz" brought back many memories! It is wonderful to look forward to these Thursday nights at 8 P. M. You will break any date to be one of the crowd!

Well, Folks, will be seeing you next week D.V. Have a grand week-end and be so careful when you drive. Don't take a drink even one little one for when you drink don't drive and when you drive don't drink I am, faithfully,

YOUR OBSERVEK.

ONE MORE STEP NEEDED

A news photo shows a huge quantity of 4-cent stamps being carted into a post office. This is symbolic of the fact that next August 1 first-class mail postage goes up a cent. So do the rates for other post office services with one exception—fourth-class matter, or parcel post.

The higher rates were approved reluctantly by Congress. But the post office deficit had gotten out of hand, and was passing the $700 million a year mark. On top of that, post office workers have been given a general pay boost which almost everyone believes is well-deserved. It obviously was essential to increase post office revenues.

The parcel post exception is the black spot in the picture now. It has long been a creator of heavy direct and indirect deficits, and has thus been taxpayer-subsidized. That will continue to be the case so long as its structure of charges is left unchanged.

To make matters worse, parcel post is the only post office service which is a direct competitor of taxpaying private enterprise. Private carriers operate on a national, regional and local basis, providing service by rail, truck and plane. Subsidized parcel post service under these circumstances is manifestly unfair—as well as needlessly costly to the public at large which must make up the deficits.

So one more step needs to be taken in postal rate revision—to put parcel post on a self-sustaining basis of operation.—Industrial News Review.

STAGE IS SET—FOR ANYTHING

In ordering the landing of 5,000 US Marines in Beirut, President Eisenhower responded to the call for help from Lebanese President Chamoun, provided protection for some 2,500 Americans in that country, and, no doubt, preserved the so-called Eisenhower "doctrine".

"I have come to the considered and sober conclusion", the President said in a special message of explanation to Congress, "that despite the risks involved, this action is required to support the principles of justice and international law upon which peace and a stable international order depend".

President Eisenhower also noted that he believed "that the US could not in honor stand idly by in this hour of Lebanon's grave peril."

The outcome of this writing is highly obscure. Our forces are continuing to mount in the Near East, the men ashore in Lebanon appear to be handling a delicate situation with familiar changes of imperialism and restraint and good judgment. In the UN, Russia's Sobolev is hurling the monopoly, and our own Ambassador Lodge seeks a UN protective force in Lebanon so that our own forces may be withdrawn.

However unready Russia may be to seize the military initiative, the President's action has placed the jittery peace of the world in the Kremlin's hands for the moment. If the Reds should choose to march, Armageddon could be here, and we wonder whether the jeopardy in which we stand today is any less than it might have been two years ago if we then "could not in honor stand idly by" while Hungarian patriots and the hope of a nation's resurrection perished in the bloody streets of Budapest.

While Washington appears to accept the philosophy that, as the Middle East situation has deteriorated, we had no alternative; it seems possible that our earlier 'support of the principles of justice' could conceivably have altered the course of history—even in the Suez area.—Washington—Exclusive.

EVENTUALLY—WHY NOT NOW?

Conservatives of both parties who have long complained that they had "no place to go", may soon have a haven—if the plans of Publisher Mark P. Haines of the Sturgis (Mich.) Journal should jell.

Mr. Haines would call his party the "Constitutional Party" and it would be dedicated to political integrity, fiscal realism and the return of self-government and self respect to the states and local communities.

"What is needed in this country", says Mr. Haines, "is a means and opportunity for voters to realign themselves into two realistic groups—conservatives in one party and the so-called liberals and social planners in the other".

Editor George Zarzy, of the Dowagiac (Mich.) News, in reporting on Mr. Haines' convictions and aspirations says that while the Sturgis publisher has not yet worked out the "mechanics" of his new party, he has been mulling over the problem since June. He is distressed, says Editor Zarzy, at the thought of men like Georgia's Senator Russell and Virginia's Senator Byrd having to occupy the same party with "the Morges, the Neuberger, the Mennen Williamses, the Humphreys and the Harrimans". He also feels that: "Millions of northern Republicans, sickened by their betrayal at Washington, would welcome a new leadership and a new party. The spenders, taxers, pro-labor groups and those who believe in a strong centralized government would make up the liberal party".

As leaders in the Constitutional Party, the Wisconsin publisher would welcome Vice-President Nixon, Senators Knowland, Byrd, Lausche, Smathers and Goldwater; Illinois' Republican Governor William G. Stratton and Florida's Democratic Governor Leroy Collins.

We think Mr. Haines should include well up in this list former Governor J. Bracken Lee, of Utah, who has turned his back in disgust on the Republican party and filed as an independent candidate for the US Senate—and who said: "There is no material difference between the Democratic and Republican parties in their fundamental beliefs. Both now stand for and support the same policy of high tax, waste and give-away programs."—U. S. Press Association.

FACTS AND OPINIONS

There are more than 12,000 companies involved in the production of oil in this country.

The Committee for Economic Development recently conducted a competition on the question "what is the most important economic problem to be faced by the United States in the next 20 years?" The predominant theme of the 50 winning papers was grave concern over America's goals, its sense of values and direction. The second largest group of winners picked inflation as the most pressing problem, while the third chose how to ward off a severe depression.

The keel for the world's first nuclear-powered passenger-cargo ship, the NS Savannah, was laid on May 22. She is so named in honor of the SS Savannah, the first ship to cross the Atlantic under steam, in a voyage that started May 22, 1819.

A spokesman for the American Farm Bureau Federation, the nation's largest farm organization, voiced strong support of a five-year extension of the reciprocal trade program before a Senate committee. He said: "It is not unreasonable to contend that the high and increasing standard of living enjoyed in our country during the past 25 years can be attributed in substantial part to the fact that we have had the trade program."

Fortune says that the upturn in the American economy is underway, and forecasts that within a year's time we will establish new records both in total output and industrial production. It expects the gross national product to rise about $20 billion in the next six months followed by a further rise of nearly $30 billion during 1959.

A new record for public use of the national wildlife refuge was set in 1957, when more than 8,500,000 people visited them for recreational purposes, the Wildlife Management Institute reports. Sports fishing attracted almost one-third of the visitors.

Bruce H. Nicoll writes in The Reader's Digest: "Do you know what goes on in a field of growing corn? From a small seed grows in eight weeks to a plant with over 1400 square inches of leaf surface—one of the most remarkable feats of growth in the plant kingdom. And in eight weeks the plant establishes a root system which, if laid end to end, would extend a distance of seven miles. There's a saying that in ideal weather you can hear the corn grow. It isn't quite that good, but the plant often does grow as much as four inches in a day".

The weather is ruled by the moon, so they say; and we find that the saying is true, for quite often it rains when the moon's at the full, and it rains when the moon's at the new.

When the moon's at the quarter, then down comes the rain; at the half, it's no better, I ween. When it's at the three-quarters, it's at it again, and mostly it rains in between.—Carl C. Helm.

The last week of July promises to be a busy one for Farm Bureau members and friends. All of the activities are being held at the Agricultural Center. To begin with, on July 26 the chicken barbecue is being held. If it proves successful it is hoped that it will become an annual affair. Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy the barbecue. The proceeds are to be used for improving the grounds.

Monday, July 28 marks the beginning of the summer membership drive. A kick-off meeting is being held at the Center under the leadership of John Bixler, membership chairman. Former State President, Wilson Heaps, is to be the main speaker.

Wednesday, July 30, the Associated young people are sponsoring their annual Farm Queen contest in connection with the talk-fest and talent-fest contest usually held later in the fall. This year there are 11 contestants in the Farm Queen Contest. Each one is sponsored by a discussion group.

Kay Kolb, radio announcer of WTRR will be master of ceremonies. As is the custom the names of the contestants will not be revealed until the judges have made their decision. There are still openings for contestants for the talk-fest and talent-fest contests. Anyone interested in competing should contact Roger Myers or Howard LeGore.

"CARROLL COUNTY ASSOCIATION FOR RETARDED CHILDREN ANNOUNCES 1958 CAMPAIGN CHAIRMAN"

Mr. Fern Smith, Finksburg, Md., has accepted the general Chairmanship for the 1958 fund raising drive for the Carroll County Association for Retarded Children, to be held in November.

In accepting the campaign post, Mr. Smith said, "the more citizens who accept responsibility in community action and planning, the better the community will be. I am grateful for the opportunity to head this campaign which has contributed so much in the past to help the mentally retarded children in Carroll County". He pointed out that local results in the past four years have already proven that, with proper education and training facilities, many of the mentally retarded can become productive citizens and lead useful, happy lives.

The new chairman plans to enlist many of the county leaders as members of his committee to raise funds for the annual campaign which opens on 17 November, 1958, and continues through 29 November, 1958.

For four years Mr. Smith has been one of the most active workers in the association. For the past two years he served as president. Prior to that he was Treasurer; served as 1st Vice-president in 1955-56; was delegate to the Maryland Co-ordinating Council and fund-campaign in 1956.

He is employed as Supervising Equipment Specialist at Fort George G. Meade, in charge of the Ordnance Inspection Division.

He is a member of the Westminster Methodist Church and an active member of local civic and veterans organizations.

Dividend Printing

There is one kind of printing that you want—printing that pays a dividend on the investment.

A letterhead with right sort of type properly balanced is a real business asset. It wins the approval of the person receiving your letter, and while he is in this frame of mind your letter is read.

The same reasoning applies to any other job of printing. Neatness, the right weight and kind of paper, the color of the ink, the selection of the type, all play an important part in the production of dividend printing.

We are equipped to give you that kind of printing. Let us prove it to you.

THREE EASY WAYS TO COMFORT CONDITION YOUR HOME THIS SUMMER...

ONLY MODERN ELECTRICITY MAKES THEM POSSIBLE!

1 An air conditioner makes your home or office a healthy, restful place to relax or work. And remember, besides keeping you cool, an air conditioner does four other big jobs —
Removes moisture
Keeps out dust, dirt and noise
Guards against pollen
Removes stale odors

2 An attic fan will drive out oven-like heat which is trapped in the attic, and pull in cool, fresh outside air. The quiet, gentle breezes sweep through every room and speeds evaporation of skin moisture. You feel cooler immediately... and all night long!

3 Ventilating fans are recommended for those living in apartments or rented homes where a permanent installation is not practical. They are easily installed, easily removed and may be plugged into any electrical outlet.

Community Justice

Lesson for July 27, 1958

SUPPOSE you hired somebody to put up a fence on your place, and you had a choice between two men. One of these would put up a fence that would sag and break; but he would be prompt and obliging about coming to make it right. The other man would put up a fence that will last for years without attention. You would have no hesitation which man to put on the job. The better fence-builder is the man who puts up a good fence, not the one who neatly patches up a bad one. Now justice, wherever you find it, is like that. Justice is more than making good a wrong that has been done. Justice at its best is keeping the wrong from being done.

Dr. Foreman

You Be the Judge

Justice reigns in community life, not when all suits at law are settled right—though even that would be remarkable. True justice—the mark to shoot at—will reign when human relations, including group relations, in that community, are such that law-suits will never be necessary. Such a goal is impossible? Well, yes... but so is the goal of a perfectly healthy community, so is the goal of a perfectly educated community; but doctors and teachers keep working — “working themselves out of a job,” and so it is that in the best community there will be the least patching-up to do, in homes, court-rooms, hospitals or on the mourners’ bench.

Remembering then that justice means simply right relationships between man, between group and group, let us note a few cases, none of them imaginary. It is plain in every case that injustice exists. The problem is: From the Christian point of view—that is, in Christ's eyes—what would now be the just thing to do? And could you suggest a better just thing that perhaps might have been done if someone had thought of it in time? You be the judge.

Case of the Seventh Church

There is a community barely large enough to support one church. There were six different denominational churches in it, and no member of any one of these would attend any of the others. Along came the representative of a seventh denomination to start still another congregation. When the ministers already “there” (though not one of the six lived there) protested, asking him if he didn't think the gospel was already pretty well represented, he replied with dignity: “The gospel is never really presented till we present it.” Is there something wrong here, and if so, what can be done, or what could have been done, about it?

Case of the Underpaid Cook

In a small southern town there was a Negro girl whose name makes no difference with the case. She worked for private families as a cook—and she was a very poor one—for five dollars a week. This was low wages but at that time it was what even the better cooks there received. The girl lived in a draughty crowded shack with her own and several other families, who, being of the race they were and living in the state they did, could afford nothing better. This girl first contracted tuberculosis and spread it around where she worked; and then she got in trouble with the law for prostitution; and finally died in an institution, after costing the state quite a bit of money. What do you think could have been done to prevent some of this, and why do you suppose it was not done?

Case of the Embarrassed Government

The United States Government is hoarding enormous warehouses full of butter and many other products, which it has bought to keep farmers in business. It would like to sell these in the world market, perhaps at auction; but when it tries to do so, it runs into strong opposition from other countries with which our government would then be in direct competition. Is there some injustice here, and if so, what can be done about it now, and what could have been done to prevent it?

MORE ON PRIVATE PLANTS

A senior executive of a large insurance company was asked why his organization buys its printing from commercial shops instead of setting up its own shop. His answers are very illuminating.

"There are several reasons. One is the very important problem of supervision. With a good manager, such an operation may be successful . . . but our growth and activities have become so great that we have enough problems without handling a printing operation besides.

"We have never gone into printing plant (operation) even to the extent of offset for the following reasons:

1. We have not felt we had sufficient volume to warrant it.
2. Without a complete plant, a partial installation would not be economical.
3. We want no Union problems.
4. By using one job printer we effect some economies.
5. By having to pay for our printing, we tend to cut down on printing orders.

"It is therefore our opinion that we will leave printing to the professionals."

Want The Best?

If you want the Best Fire and Windstorm Insurance you can buy for your money, see C. L. Gartrell. Figure things out for yourself. Some agents compare a Mutual Co. 5 year installment premium with a Stock Co. 1 year premium, I personally feel this is twisting the truth, so just don't listen to anyone. Get facts and figures from several different agents, then figure things out for yourself. I know I'll write your Fire and Storm Insurance business if you buy on a fact and figure basis.

Three D's Farm Milking Herd Dispersal

AUGUST 8, 1958, 1:00 P. M.

Taneytown, Md.

GEO. L. GUNTHER & SONS, Owners

Phone No. Taneytown Plymouth 6-3732.

Lunch will be available

Directions: The farm is located 3 miles north of Taneytown on Teeter Road, one mile west of the Taneytown-Littlestown Road (Rt. 194), 6 miles south of Littlestown. Signs will direct to the farm.

In the sale will be 26 cows, 1 bull and 5 heifers. The herd was established in 1947 with a group of exceptionally well-bred heavy milking cows and Nyala Supreme Commander as herd sire. "Commander" is a son of Fairlawn Peerless Ermine—17855-893-8 yrs.—Classified VG 3 times, one of the great brood cows. "Commander" was used for several years and sold for $3,300 to Golden Harvest Farms. There are still 4 daughters and much of the "Commander" blood in the herd. Another prominent sire used was Wayne Merry Man—Grand Champion Bull at Maryland State Fair in 1956.

In the herd are 5 cows recently fresh and 6 due shortly after the sale. At present 22 cows are producing an average of 31.8 lbs. per day. Three D's Guernseys have been shown regularly the past several years and more than held their own in local 4-H shows and Timonium both 4-H and open class.

This herd is very well bred with many of the prominent animals of the breed close up in their pedigree with a strong concentration of Green Meadow breeding.

The herd is T. B. accredited No. 59570 and Bangs Free No. 5945. Also selling a 250 gallon Wilson Bulk Tank (bought fall '57), 2 milking units—Surge and Universal—and other dairy equipment.
