CONG. BREWSTER GIVES REPORT

Representative of 2nd Congressional District Writes:

This column is the first of what I plan will be a weekly report to the people of the 2nd Congressional District.

The 86th Congress of the United States convened in the Capitol at noon on Wednesday, January 7. Maryland is represented by Tom Johnson from the Eastern Shore; Eddie Garmatz, George Fallon, and Sam Friedel from Baltimore City; Dick Lankford from Southern Maryland; John Foley from Western Maryland; and my correspondents from Baltimore, Carroll, and Harford counties. My offices are located in Room 1608 of the New House Office Building. This building is about one block to the west of the Capitol. Our office will be open all week days and one-half day on Saturday. I hope that any of my constituents who are visiting Washington will call on me—I will be glad to see you, and herewith offer my assistance in any problems my constituents may have.

My good friend Bill Townsend, of the Baltimore County Bar, is serving with me as my Administrative Assistant. He will handle the official office work when I am occupied with legislative matters.

We have three extremely capable, pleasant, and friendly secretaries working with us. These young ladies have, between them, a total of 31 years experience on Capitol Hill. I know they will be invaluable to me in serving our District.

On returning to my office after the opening of Congress on Wednesday, I was very pleased to find several hundred of my friends there to visit with us. I cannot here express my gratitude to all who came to Washington to join with me on this pleasant occasion. In the office were old friends and new—members of the county bar, county officials, businessmen, my family, and many, many others. I only hope that my visitors enjoyed their stay in Washington as much as I enjoyed their company.

I believe that the most important job facing the 86th Congress will be to promote the military strength and economic security of our country without endangering our liberties and fiscal structure. We are faced with a continuing struggle against a country whose entire philosophy is hostile to the American way of life. This Congress must make every effort to strengthen our existing armed forces, to develop the most modern weapons in the ballistic missile and nuclear field, to strengthen our friends throughout the world and to make certain federal programs at home beneficial to all citizens, and to prevent further wasting away of the dollar because of inflation. All this and more must be accomplished without jeopardizing our economic structure. I hope that the Congress will ultimately enact a balanced budget—and I mean a budget that is honestly balanced without any form of new taxation.

On Friday the President of the United States delivered his State of the Union Message to the Members of the 86th Congress. Present were Cabinet officers, Ambassadors from other countries, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and members of the Supreme Court, as well as the Members of the House and Senate.

The President outlined a broad legislative program in his message. I will certainly give the proposals advanced by the Chief Executive my most careful and objective consideration. I believe that each issue must be judged on its own individual merit and must not be either adopted or discarded because of partisan considerations.

MARCH OF DIMES CARD PARTY AT ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

The annual March of Dimes Card Party will be held at the Taneytown Elementary School on Thursday evening, January 29, at 8:00 in the school auditorium and library. Mrs. Theodore Jester is General Chairman of this year's party. She will be assisted by the following committee chairmen: publicity, Charlotte Shorb and Frank Wargny; prizes, Mrs. George Harman; refreshments, Mrs. Claude Nusbaum; tables, Stanley King.

After dinner, the regular business session began. This being the time for an organizational meeting, Mr. Crouse directed each committee chairman and the members of his committee to present their objectives and their thoughts for the coming year. The presentation of the objectives for Kiwanis were read by several members of the club. The highlights of the Kiwanis Theme, "Build Individual Responsibility", which can be manifested in so many ways, challenges us as follows:

1. To apply the highest moral and spiritual values in every human relationship.
2. To provide expanded programs for youth with increased emphasis on Key Clubs.
3. To arouse community concern for education that develops youth to the highest potential.
4. To use and develop wisely our natural resources through sound conservation practices.
5. To support safety program and law enforcement.
6. To increase public understanding of the causes and treatment of mental illness and assist the mentally and physically handicapped.
7. To utilize the experience and the talents of our senior citizens.
8. To champion high standards and practices in business and public affairs.
9. To strengthen understanding and friendship and promote it as a pattern of good will and peace.
10. To reaffirm the blessings of freedom and democracy.

These objectives and theme form the banner and guideposts which mark the paths we have chosen to tread in this our day. Ours is a changing world and it issues a challenge which demands and answer. Our answer is that we will dedicate every effort to "Build Individual Responsibility".

Mr. Howell Royer, Inter-Club Chairman gave a report on the Inter-Club meeting held at Westminster on Tuesday, January 6th. Those attending from Taneytown Kiwanis were, Elwood Baumgardner, George Crouse, Howell Royer, George Shower and Norman Graham. Mr. Royer reports at this meeting they witnessed the presentation of the awards made to members of the Westminster Club for perfect attendance record from one year to 27 years which is most encouraging to all of us. We, as fellow Kiwanians should follow this example and set it up as our objective for the coming year.

Following the session of the regular meeting, a special board meeting was called by the president, at which time plans were made for the Shrimp and Oyster feed to be held February 25th at Crouse Motors.

This concluded the business portion and the meeting adjourned.

HEART OF THE MATTER

An influential member of Congress proposes a study of ways to meet the Federal government's need for ever-increasing sums of money.

This caused a reader of Wall Street Journal to write that the real answer to the budget problem is to reduce "the government's need for more and more money."

If that isn't fundamental, nothing is.
—Industrial News Review

ONLY THE BEGINNING

The Eighty Sixth Congress of the United States is in business. In place of the traditional preliminary shadow-boxing and jockeying for position, members of the Republican minority rushed into bare-knuckled battles over party leadership in both houses.

With Senator Everett Dirksen of Illinois victorious over Kentucky's Senator John Sherman Cooper for Senator Knowland's former post as Floor Leader, the Senate conservatives gained stature in the gathering storm over filibuster rules.

The surprising victory of Rep. Charles A. Halleck over veteran Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., for leadership of the House was a different story. Here, in this battle between conservatives were no ideological differences. Mr. Martin, dazed by the turn of events, noted it was his "first defeat in public life in 50 years", and charged that three Presidential aides and the cohorts of Vice President Nixon worked to unseat him. The purpose, according to the political theorists, was to provide a more aggressive leadership in a stepped-up effort to keep the augmented Democratic foe divided or off-balance.

In a thinly-veiled warning against rough tactics by the Republican members, Speaker Sam Rayburn, whose 77th birthday marked the beginning of his ninth term in his now traditional post, indicated that he'd be nice—if the Republicans were. To a hushed House, he observed portentously: "We'll be as non-partisan as we're allowed to be."

There will, however, be partisanship in the new Congress, and it is likely to become more violent than any the Capitol has seen in this century. But it will not be the partisanship of Republican versus Democrat. It will be the show-down or the beginning of the show-down, between conservative versus radical in which party lines will be obscured—at very least. It will be a battle in which the followers of Senator Harry Byrd and those of Senator Styles Bridges can fight shoulder to shoulder in what may be a last-ditch effort to save the nation from economic dissolution and from socialism, the kid-glove Communism that seems some sort of goal in human depradation and global misery.—U. S. Press Association.

DISASTER—AT BARGAIN RATES

TVA, our tax-fed, electric power octopus, has just bought new 54,000 kilowatt hydroelectric generators at a cost of $2,637,135 US tax dollars—dollars which were bundled up and shipped to a foreign manufacturer in Baden, Switzerland.

Three American firms who bid on the generators were left out in the cold simply because they pay their workers much too well to be able to compete with overseas producers for the business of their own Government.

If, however, the TVA directors had elected to follow the spirit of the "Buy American" act—rather than the destructive interpretations imposed by executive order and the council on foreign economic policy—the generator contract would have gone to the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co., of Milwaukee, the lowest US bidder.

That Allis-Chalmers and Milwaukee needed this business is apparent from the fact that the firm had laid off some 2,300 employees—who might have been restored to the pay roll in the final weeks before Christmas. That these workers felt entitled to consideration is understandable since, in the 25 years of TVA operation, they and their fellow citizens of Wisconsin had contributed nearly $25 million of their tax money to this ruthless Federal impediment to free enterprise.

Both the company and the unions representing these unemployed workers spoke up promptly (if unsuccessfully) in their behalf! We thought, said Allis-Chalmers, "that the people of Milwaukee and the citizens of the US should be aware of what was happening. We felt they had a right to know how their tax moneys were being used abroad and by so doing, taking work from our American wage-earners. It is quite evident that no American firm can compete in the heavy electrical equipment market with foreign bidders whose labor costs are one-third those in the U.S."

Union leaders demanded that the TVA directors be fired for being "calloused and indifferent to the plight of unemployed Milwaukee workers", and protested TVA's failure to give Congress time to investigate before awarding the contract.

But nobody heard—any more than they heard the fulmination of John L. Lewis against TVA in 1954, when he charged that body with abusing its economic power in purchasing millions of tons of coal "at starvation prices" and in utter disregard of "safety standards and health conditions".

It is therefor high time that the people, whose authority ranks even that of TVA, demand reversal of a Federal policy that can only destroy one American industry after another—and ultimately, the economic system that is the tap-root of national strength and independence.—Robert Nelson Taylor.

FACTS AND OPINIONS

President McDonnell of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States foresees a bright future for small business. He points out that the business failure rate declined from 92 per 10,000 firms in 1900 to 72 in 1957. At the same time, the number of firms, most of them small, grew from 22 per 1,000 population to about 25.

New Jersey has adopted the country's toughest highway speed laws. License revocation for exceeding the posted limits will be mandatory. On the first offense, revocation will be for 30 days; on the second for 60 days; on the third, for an indefinite period.

Last summer two special co-operative promotional sales campaigns were conducted on behalf of fresh lemons under the National Association of Food Chains' 22-year-old Farmer Retailer Marketing Program. Sales increased almost a quarter over the comparable period a year before.

The estimated number of households in this country increased 6.8 million, or 16 per cent, between March, 1950, and March, 1958, says the Census Bureau. On the latter date there were 50.4 million households. The total population was 172.3 million.

Five years ago, foreign car sales amounted to about six-tenths of one per cent of the U. S. market. The 1958 figure was about 8 per cent.

According to a survey conducted by Nation's Business magazine, executives of leading U. S. companies expect 1959 to be a good year for the economy. Of more than 175 executives polled, 93 per cent predicted an increase in sales. A high percentage said they planned to spend more than in 1958 on product improvement, introduction of new products, and expansion of plant and facilities.

Since its founding in 1937, Ducks Unlimited has conducted what The Wall Street Journal describes as "a sort of privately-supported foreign aid program in neighboring Canada", with the support and financial assistance of the provincial Canadian governments. More than 725,000 acres have been flooded, and a like amount seeded and set aside as marsh and grassland. The result: North America's duck population has recently been estimated at more than 150 million—a 500 per cent increase since 1937.

C. James Proud president of the Advertising Federation of America, says: "Government officials who seek to tax advertising are like amateurs who try to remove an appendix. They are very apt to lose the patient. It is important to remember that advertising has traditionally been considered a cost of doing business, and not a product in itself. All businesses using advertising pay their fair and full share of taxes."

Ralph T. Moore writes in the Oregon Voter: "The first move in all dictatorship, left or right, is to get rid of the middle classes from which leadership toward personal freedom always derives. This move has been quite largely accomplished in the U. S. through stupid, confiscatory of the $10,000 to $50,000 per year brackets. We are therefor ripe for dictatorship and it will be progressively harder to avoid one that will come dressed in the habiliments of democracy."

Selecting The Proper Tax Form

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Maryland Society of Certified Public Accountants, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

If you are one of the millions of American taxpayers who spends the lion's share of his income feeding, clothing, housing and entertaining his family, chances are there is very little you can do to reduce your 1958 federal income tax bill—but you owe it to yourself to try.

First of all, decide which of the two individual tax forms you are going to use to report your income. If you choose the wrong one, you may automatically cut yourself off from a possible tax savings.

The easiest way to file is to use the simple 1040-A Form. It's a card the size of a check, on which you answer a few simple questions and have the choice of either computing your own tax or letting the Government do it for you.

You are permitted to use the card form if your gross income consisted only of wages, dividends or interest totaling less than $10,000, and if you did not have more than $200 of gross income apart from that listed on your W-2 withholding slips.

Facts to Consider
Before deciding to use the card Form 1040-A, you should consider these facts:

1. Your tax will be figured from a table which allows you a deduction of about 10 per cent of your income instead of itemized deductions for contributions, taxes, interest paid; medical and dental expenses, etc.
2. There is no provision in this form for filing as the "head of household", as a "surviving spouse" or for claiming special credits for dividends and retirement income.

If you are sure that these two points would not cost you any tax savings, and your income is within the limits for filing a Form 1040-A, you might as well use this simple card form.

Whether to Itemize

When you elect to use the regular Form 1040, you still must decide whether to itemize deductions or take the standard deduction which usually amounts to about 10 per cent of your income or $1,000, whichever is less. Generally, you will save by itemizing deductions if you:

- (1) Own real estate
- (2) Had unusual medical expenses
- (3) Had deductible child-care expense
- (4) Suffered losses from fire, storm, accident or theft
- (5) Made fairly large charitable contributions

If you are supporting a dependent, although you are unmarried, you may be able to qualify as a "head of household" and figure your tax on a special table that gives you part of the advantage enjoyed by married couples filing joint returns.

You may qualify for a "head of household" status if you provide more than half the support of a parent and more than half the cost of maintaining the parent's household even if the parent does not live with you. You cannot claim a "head of household" status if you file a Form 1040-A.

The 1040 Form is arranged again this year so that a taxpayer whose income was entirely from wages needs to use only the first one or two pages. Pages three and four are for other types of income and for computing the special credits for dividends and retirement income.

The instructions which come with your tax forms give further information on how to select the correct tax form. Help is also available from the Internal Revenue Service.

Many thanks to all of those who have called and given news for this column—and to those who stopped by with it written down—and to those who make me feel welcome to ask for news over the phone.

Randy, young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Weisheit, Forest and Stream Club road, has been on the sick list this past week-end.

Miss Carol Wolfgang, Washington, D. C., visited with her sister, Mrs. William Fleharty and family, Forest and Stream Club road this past week-end.

Betty Shibley of Branchville Road, College Park, was a guest at the John Young home, Keyville, this past Saturday and Sunday. Betty stopped to see a number of friends in this community as well as seeing a lot of them at Keyville Lutheran on Sunday.

Mary Helen, Shibley was also a week-end guest in the vicinity. Both girls were returned to their homes on Sunday by Charles Young.

Robert Hood spent a leave this past week-end with his wife Betty (Young) and young son, Bobby. He returned to Newport, R. I., his present Naval Station, on Sunday.

Mrs. Rachael Bostian and Mrs. Sophia Dennis had charge of the United Lutheran Church Women's meeting on Jan. 5. The topic concerned South America. Due to illness and to the bad weather, quite a number of persons were absent.

Those who enjoyed chicken and oyster dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stambaugh near Detour on Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Burnell Buckingham and children Rosanne, Beatrice and Burnell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gist and son Bradford Lynn, Mrs. Patsy Buckingham and Raymond Mathias all of Westminster, J. Curtis Stambaugh Taneytown; Mrs. Charles DeBerry, Keyville; Ronnie Keyton, near Mt. Union, the host and hostess and children Janet, Larry and Judy.

Mr. Thomas Fox and daughter, Virgie Ohler, of Keyville, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Overholzer, of Harney, were supper guests on Wednesday evening, Jan. 7, 1959, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ohler and family, near Taneytown.

Clay Hahn's sister, Mrs. Louise Pentz and friend called on him at the Carroll Wilhilde home on Saturday. They then called on a cousin Mrs. Emma Hiltbride and family, Legore. Mrs. Pentz and her friend returned to Trenton, N. J. the same day.

After five days of therapy at Johns Hopkins last week Clay Hahn was able to bring his artificial arm home. Then, on Monday, due to some soreness from wearing the arm he had to leave it at Hopkins, where he will return later for therapy when the soreness leaves.

I understand that Mrs. Virgie Ohler, of Keyville was very much on the sick list this past week-end.

The one in the long black dress in the picture concerning the play is Mrs. Clyde Wilhilde. This picture was published in the National 4-H News in an article concerning Miss Margaret Smith who has been a 4-H leader at Long Green, Md., for 28 years. Miss Smith has never failed to send wedding anniversary cards to two of her former members Mrs. Clyde and Mrs. Carroll Wilhilde. I suspect that she remembers in this way every girl who has ever been in the Long Green 4-H Club.

The Keyville-Detour Homemakers Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Carroll Wilhilde, Key-De-Blue Farm on Thursday, Jan. 15. A polio movie will be shown. Mrs. Lloyd Wilhilde is co-hostess.

Sammy Fleming, son of Mr. Carlton Fleming, Taneytown, was a Saturday guest of Lewis Ausherman.

Word has been received through the Towanda paper that the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks, Buddy, is ill with pneumonia. The Marks visited in this vicinity during the holidays.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Ausherman, Irene and Lewis, Forest and Stream Club road visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Zimmerman, of New Market. The next day the Zimmermans had lunch with the Aushermans at their home.

Robert Cramer, Mrs. Cramer and Anita, of Sykesville were supper guests on Monday of his cousin, Maynard Ausherman and family.

A number of people in this vicinity are attending the Farm Show, at Harrisburg.

I just learned that Mrs. Charles DeBerry, mother of Mrs. William Stambaugh, near Detour, is a former correspondent for the Pilot. She wrote when she and her family lived on the Myers farm, located next to the Forest and Stream Club road, and then when she and her family moved to Copperville.

Last Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Noah Warehime and two children, Chippy and Helen of Mayberry visited with the Ausherman family. Dinner guests with the Aushermans on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cramer and Sharon and Connie of Mt. Pleasant.

The Terra Rubra 4-H Club will meet on Monday the 14th of January at the home of Peggy Knouse, Key-mar, with Patsy Stonestifer as co-hostess. Mary Lou Sappington is song leader for this group.

Mrs. Steve Dennis is better after taking a turn on the sick list.

Word from the South, Donbigh, Va. near Williamsburg, at least Mrs. Dan (Dora) Brunk and her children were delighted with the more than 12 inches of snow which fell there recently. This is a place where it is unusual to have any amount of snow.

The Cdr. and Mrs. Luther L. L. Dilley family, including Bill, Pat, Jan and families, Mrs. Margaret Waite, grandson Mike and Pat Newman of Silver Spring were unable to visit friends in this community over the holiday as they had planned due to illness. Bill returned to Raleigh, S. C., Jane to Clearwater, Florida and Pat to Philadelphia. It is hoped this family can reunite at Detour some time during 1959—they are former residents of Redland, now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Coshun near Detour.

The newly built 6 cow milking parlor with pipe line milkers and bulk milk tank was put in operation on the Carroll Wilhilde farm on January 8.

Too few people took advantage of the attending of the fine program which was planned and presented by Mrs. Margaret Price, Guidance Counselor at Elmer Wolfe School, on January 12. The Band, under the direction of Mr. Spearing, is a real joy to listen too.

UNIONTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Smith son Evan Jr., Mrs. Sam King, Mrs. Grace Lansinger and Mrs. Lawrence Smith spent the day recently with Walter Selby and family of Hanover.

Those who spent Sunday with Mrs. Lawrence Smith were Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Markle daughter Linda, Mrs. Grace Lansinger all of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Legore and family; Mr. and Mrs. Evan Smith son Evan Jr. and Mrs. Sam King.

Mrs. Grace Lansinger returned home on Sunday after spending some time with Mrs. Sam King and Mrs. Lawrence Smith.

Mr. James Hahn of near Taneytown called on his sister, Mrs. Wilbur Devilbiss on Monday evening.

FEESERSBURG (A Voice from Carroll)

Most people, if asked what is the most important thing in their life would hesitate before answering and think awhile, but really the most important thing in anyone's life is food. Without it our existence would be of short duration. We spend most of our life working for it and thinking about it. Food or the lack of it has caused most of the world revolutions and kings have lost their thrones because there wasn't enough food for everyone. During the last war, food was used as a weapon and a very effective one it turned out to be.

It is no wonder then, that today newspapers devote most of their pages to advertising all kinds of food and an equal number of telling housewives how to prepare tempting meals. Americans especially are concerned about what they put into their stomachs and do more complaining about food than any other people. If one is a patient in a hospital the first thing he says when he returns home is whether the food was good or bad. If a student goes off to college the first thing he writes home about is the food he is getting. Inmates of prisons riot when the food becomes too bad and even University students become monotonous. Some years ago a very popular book was titled: "You are What You Eat." In fact a person's personality as well as his health depends upon his food. Food can be comforting as well as nourishing; inspiring as well as nutritional; depressing as well as fattening and can cause illness as well as good health. Although food is a necessity to life it can also bring death if used unwisely. The unwise use of alcohol has caused untold suffering and so has the unwise use of food contributed to human suffering.

Maybe the whole course of mankind would be entirely different if the need for food wasn't so acute and so difficult to obtain. Men must earn their bread by the sweat of their brow" is as true today as it was in the period when the prophet first uttered the words. And its just as well that he must work and worry for food. It keeps him out of mischief.

About two years ago we wrote in this column that we thought it unwise for our nation to admit political refugees from other countries because they bring with them their hates and dislikes and eventually our country would pay the price for harboring them. Today we are beginning to pay. The riots in the cities when visiting officials arrive in this country are the work of refugees who cannot see the work of refugees who cannot see outside their hatred and attempt to build a new life in the country that offended them. Riots and bombings are not the real American way of showing displeasure. The ballot is, Americans have a strong sense of fair play and of forgetting the past. If the refugees wanted to show displeasure by violence they should not have left their own country. When they accept the hospitality of another country they should show their good manners by adopting the code of ethics of their foster country. Hatred begets hatred and if refugees want to breed that kind of environment they should be sent back to their own country and perpetuate the hatreds that have kept Europe in turmoil for hundreds of years. There should be no room for them in our country and not one dollar of the taxpayers money be spent on keeping them here.

Did you know that when you change addresses you must notify the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles? We learned this the hard way. An officer stopped us Suctive on Route 40 because of a defective tail light and asked to see our license. That is when we learned that we should have notified the Commissioner about our new address. We are passing the information on so that others may profit by our error. Today we have asked a dozen people if they knew this and all of them said no. It pays to read the back of your license.

Bob Hope predicts that by 1990 cars will have become so long that each end will have a license plate from a different state. Maybe they won't go that far but they're almost to the point where it will take two parking fees and two parking meters.

This is a joke that we never get tired of repeating although our readers might. "The blood bank has been in town again and we are feeling like one of the Indians who reside in the neighbor state of Pennsylvania. A tourist gazed in awe at this befeathered and resplendent citizen and asked: "Are you a full-blooded Black-Hawk?" "Nope," replied the redskin, "I'm a pint sking".

Former President A. Earl Shipley will describe some interesting and important court cases in Carroll County. This display of 63 pieces from Mrs. Leiter's 850 piece collection of early English lustre provides an opportunity to see part of one of the finest collections of lustre in the United States. The rarest item in the collection is a camphene lamp which burned a distillate of turpentine which was highly explosive. A pair of Wedgewood candlesticks, historic subjects, raised designs of painted flowers, scenes, resists, and transfers make up this unusual collection. Visiting hours 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. Monday through Saturday.

4-H — F.F.A. WORK AT AGRICULTURAL CENTER On Saturday, January 10, fifty-five 4-H members, leaders, F.F.A. members, and teachers worked at the Agricultural Center, near Westminster, in preparation for their new cattle barn. In sub-freezing weather, these individuals were sawing down trees, burning rubbish, and cleaning the grounds. A county-wide 4-H F.F.A. project, these individuals are preparing for a better and bigger fair for 1950. At a recent meeting of 4-H leaders and F.F.A. teachers, it was decided that the Carroll County 4-H Fair be renamed to the Carroll County 4-H F.F.A. Fair. In order to accommodate the additional entries by F.F.A. exhibitors, it was decided to build a new cattle barn. To date, the united efforts of these two organizations have cleared land for the new building and have hauled logs to two saw mills — to Mr. Paul and Neal Hering and to Millers. In addition, the 4-H advisory committee, consisting of Mr. Claude Basler, Mr. Cecil Murray and Mr. Donald Bollinger, have awarded an excavation contract to Mr. Ralph W. Stone-sifer of Taneytown. He will level the land for our building and clear a road-way to the swine barn; thus making it more accessible.

Mr. Robert Shirley, local leader of the newly formed Frizzelburg 4-H club, was elected treasurer of this joint building project. All clubs and F.F.A. chapters can mail donations to him.

The actual raising of the cattle barn is expected to take place in approximately 2 to 3 weeks.

BULLETIN ON FARM INCOME TAX IS AVAILABLE

"Farmers Tax Guide", will help farmers clear up man's income tax questions, and for some it may mean considerable savings in income taxes, says Art Hamilton, University of Maryland farm management specialist.

The Tax Guide is a new bulletin recently issued by the University of Maryland Extension Service. You can get a copy of "Farmers Tax Guide" from your County Agent, who has a supply which are free for the asking, Hamilton said.

If you have a gross income during the year of $6000.00 or more, you must file a report. Gross income means the sale of products before expenses are deducted, he added.

If at least two-thirds of your gross income is from farming and your business year starts on January 1, you have two choices in filing a report:

1. File your return and pay the tax on or before February 15.

2. File an estimate of your tax and pay by January 15, then file your return by April 15, Hamilton recommended the first choice.

For help in filling out the tax report and answers to questions on forms; capital gains and losses; cash or accrual basis; farm records for tax purposes; patronage refunds; and social taxes, see your County Agent for a copy of the new tax bulletin.

Many thanks to all of those who have called and given news for this column—and to those who stopped by with it written down—and to those who make me feel welcome to ask for news over the phone.

Randy, young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Weishaar, Forest and Stream Club road, has been on the sick list this past week-end.

Miss Carol Wolfgang, Washington, D. C., visited with her sister, Mrs. William Fleharty and family, Forest and Stream Club road this past week-end. Betty Shibley of Branchville Road, College Park, was a guest at the John Young home, Keysville, this past Saturday and Sunday. Betty stopped to see a number of friends in this community as well as seeing a lot of them at Keysville Lutheran on Sunday.

Mary Helen, Shibley was also a week-end guest in the vicinity. Both girls were returned to their homes on Sunday by Charles Young.

Robert Hood spent a leave this past week-end with his wife, Betty (Young) and young son, Bobby. He returned to Newport, R. I., his present Naval Station, on Sunday.

Mrs. Rachael Bostian and Mrs. Sophia Dennis had charge of the United Lutheran Church Women's meeting on Jan. 5. The topic concerned South America. Due to illness and to the bad weather, quite a number of persons were absent.

Those who enjoyed chicken and oyster dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stambaugh near Detour on Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Burnell Buckingham and children, Mrs. Rosanne, Beatrice and Burnell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gist and son Bradford Lynn, Mrs. Patsy Buckingham and Raymond Mathias all of Westminster, J. Curtis Stambaugh Taneytown; Mrs. Charles DeBerry, Keysville; Ronnie Keyton, near Mt. Union, the host and hostess and children, Janet, Larry and Judy.

Mr. Thomas Fox and daughter, Virgie Ohler, of Keysville, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Overholzer, of Harney, were supper guests on Wednesday evening, Jan. 7, 1959, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ohler and family near Taneytown.

Clay Hahn's sister, Mrs. Louise Pentz and friend called on him at the Carroll Wilhilde home on Saturday. They then called on a cousin Mrs. Emma Hiltbride and family, Legore. Mrs. Pentz and her friend returned to Trenton, N. J. the same day.

After five days of therapy at Johns Hopkins last week Clay Hahn was able to bring his artificial arm home. Then, on Monday, due to some soreness from wearing the arm he had to leave it at Hopkins, where he will return later for therapy when the soreness leaves.

I understand that Mrs. Virgie Ohler, of Keysville was very much on the sick list this past week-end.

The one in the long black dress in the picture concerning the play is Mrs. Clyde Wilhilde. This picture was published in the National 4-H News in an article concerning Miss Margaret Smith who has been a 4-H leader at Long Green, Md., for 28 years. Miss Smith has never failed to send wedding anniversary cards to two of her former members Mrs. Clyde and Mrs. Carroll Wilhilde. I suspect that she remembers in this way every girl who has ever been in the Long Green 4-H Club.

The Keysville-Detour Homemakers Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Carroll Wilhilde, Key-De-Blue Farm on Thursday, Jan. 15. A polo movie will be shown. Mrs. Lloyd Wilhilde is co-hostess.

Sammy Fleming, son of Mr. Carlton Fleming, Taneytown, was a Saturday guest of Lewis Ausherman. Word has been received through the Towanda paper that the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks, Buddy, is ill with pneumonia. The Marks visited in this vicinity during the holidays.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Ausherman, Irene and Lewis, Forest and Stream Club road visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Zimmerman, of New Market. The next day the Zimmermans had lunch with the Aushermans at their home.

Robert Cramer, Mrs. Cramer and Anita, of Sykesville were supper guests on Monday of his cousin, Maynard Ausherman and family.

A number of people in this vicinity are attending the Farm Show, at Harrisburg. I just learned that Mrs. Charles DeBerry, mother of Mrs. William Stambaugh, near Detour, is a former correspondent for the Pilot. She wrote when she and her family lived on the Myers farm, located next to the Forest and Stream Club road, and then when she and her family moved to Copperville.

Last Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Noah Warehouse and two children, Chippy and Helen of Mayberry visited with the Ausherman family. Dinner guests with the Aushermans on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cramer and Sharon and Connie of Mt. Pleasant.

The Terra Rubra 4-H Club will meet on Monday the 14th of January at the home of Peggy Knouse, Key-mar, with Patsy Stonesifer as co-hostess. Mary Lou Sappington is song leader for this group.

Mrs. Steve Dennis is better after taking a turn on the sick list. Word from the South, Donbigh, Va. near Williamsburg, at least Mrs. Dan (Dora) Brunk and her children were delighted with the more than 12 inches of snow which fell there recently. This is a place where it is unusual to have any amount of snow.

The Cdr. and Mrs. Luther L. L. Dilley family, including Bill, Pat, Jan and families, Mrs. Margaret Waite, grandson Mike and Pat Newman of Silver Spring were unable to visit friends in this community over the holiday as they had planned due to illness. Bill returned to Raleigh, S. C.; Jane to Clearwater, Florida and Pat to Philadelphia. It is hoped this family can reunion at Detour some time during 1959—they are former residents of Redland, now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Coshun near Detour.

The newly built 6 cow milking parlor with pipe line milkers and bulk milk tank was put in operation on the Carroll Wilhilde farm on January 8. Too few people took advantage of the attending of the fine program which was planned and presented by Mrs. Margaret Price, Guidance Counselor at Elmer Wolfe School, on January 12. The Band, under the direction of Mr. Spearing, is a real joy to listen to.

UNIONTOWN

Those who spent Sunday with Mrs. Lawrence Smith were Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Markle daughter Linda, Mrs. Grace Lansinger all of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Legore and family; Mr. and Mrs. Evan Smith son Evan Jr. and Mrs. Sam King.

Mrs. Grace Lansinger returned home on Sunday after spending some time with Mrs. Sam King and Mrs. Lawrence Smith.

Mr. James Hahn of near Taneytown called on his sister, Mrs. Wilbur Devilbiss on Monday evening.

FEESERSBURG (A Voice from Carroll)

Most people, if asked what is the most important thing in their life would hesitate before answering and think awhile, but really the most important thing in anyone's life is food. Without it our existence would be of short duration. We spend most of our life working for it and thinking about it. Food or the lack of it has caused most of the world revolutions and kings have lost their thrones because there wasn't enough food for everyone. During the last war, food was used as a weapon and a very effective one it turned out to be. It is no wonder then, that today newspapers devote most of their pages to advertising all kinds of food and an equal number to telling housewives how to prepare tempting meals. Americans especially are concerned about what they put into their stomachs and do more complaining about food than any other people. If one is a patient in a hospital the first thing he says when he returns home is whether the food was good or bad. If a student goes off to college the first thing he writes home about is the food he is getting. Inmates of prisons rot when the food becomes too bad and even University students do the same thing when meals become monotonous. Some years ago a very popular book was titled: "You are What You Eat". In fact a person's personality as well as his health depends upon his food. Food can be comforting as well as nourishing; inspirational as well as nutritional; depressing as well as fattening and can cause illness as well as good health. Although food is a necessity to life it can also bring death if used unwisely. The unwise use of alcohol has caused untold suffering and so has the unwise use of food contributed to human suffering. Maybe the whole course of mankind would be entirely different if the need for food wasn't so acute and so difficult to obtain. "Men must earn their bread by the sweat of their brow" is as true today as it was in the period when the prophet first uttered the words. And just as well that he must work and worry for food. It keeps him out of mischief.

About two years ago we wrote in this column that we thought it unwise for our nation to admit political refugees from other countries because they bring with them their hates and dislikes and eventually our country would pay the price for harboring them. Today we are beginning to pay. The riots in the cities when visiting officials arrive in this country whom the refugees dislike and the recent bombings of Jewish temples are the work of refugees who cannot out aside their hatred and attempt to build a new life in the country that offended them. Riots and bombings are not the real American way of showing displeasure. The ballot is. Americans have a strong sense of fair play and of forgetting the past. If the refugees wanted to show displeasure by violence they should not have left their own country. When they accept the hospitality of another country they should show their good manners by adopting the code of ethics of their foster country. Hatred begets hatred and if refugees want to breed that kind of environment then they should be sent back to their own country and perpetuate the hatreds that have kept Europe in turmoil for hundreds of years. There should be no room for them in our country and not one dollar of the taxpayers money be spent on keeping them here.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Valentine spent Monday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. George Bowers, Taneytown. Mr. Bowers has been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer LeGore visited with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence LeGore in Greenville on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bower and family were Monday evening supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Ridinger.

Saturday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Yealy were Mrs. George Hines and mother and daughter and Mrs. Ida Hines of Baltimore and daughter of Littlestown.

Did you know that when you change addresses you must notify the Commission of Motor Vehicles? We learned this the hard way. An officer stopped us Sunday on Route 40 because of a defective tail light and asked to see our license. That is when we learned that we should have notified the Commission about our new address. We are passing the information on so that others may profit by our error. Today we have asked a dozen people if they knew this and all of them said no. It pays to read the back of your license.

While it is still called the Polio Foundation and part of the money is used for polio victims the Foundation has increased in scope and now includes research for rheumatoid arthritis and congenital birth defects. Bob Hope predicts that by 1990 cars will have become so long that each end will have a license plate from a different state. Maybe they won't go that far but they're almost to the point where it will take two parking fees and two parking meters.

This is a joke that we never get tired of reading although our readers might: "The blood bank has been in town again and we are feeling like one of the Indians who reside in the neighbor state of Pennsylvania. A tourist gazed in awe at this be-feathered and resplendent citizen and asked: "Are you a full-blooded Black-Hawk?" "Nope", replied the redskin, "I'm a pint short".

No one can deny that we have been having real winter weather. The north wind put emphasis on this. The skaters have been taking advantage of all the ponds frozen over, but the ducks don't think too much of it. LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Carroll Record, Taneytown, Md. Dear Sir:

At this time we would like to say "thank you" for the splendid publicity you have given to our Christmas Seal Sale.

We feel that if it had not been for your wonderful cooperation we would not have been nearly so successful. At this moment we are about 2% ahead of this time last year, with returns still coming in! We are striving for a goal of $10,000 and we have less than two thousand dollars more to go.

I wish to thank the neighbors and friends for the acts of kindness rendered me during the illness and death of my sister, Mrs. Nettie S. Angell, the Prayers and gifts that was brought us at Xmas time. The use of the ambulance conveying my sister to the Hospital and for the flowers and sympathy cards, to the Berean Bible Class, Ladies Aux., the Taney Rebecca Lodge No. 83 and all other acts of kindness, the beautiful flowers at the funeral parlor, from my neighbors and friends. All were very much appreciated, also thanks to the pallbearers, and Pastor who helped to lay my sister Mrs. Nettie S. Angell away. Again, we say thanks to all, for their acts of kindness.

4-H — F.F.A. WORK AT AGRICULTURAL CENTER

On Saturday, January 10, fifty-five 4-H members, leaders, F.F.A. members, and teachers worked at the Agricultural Center, near Westminster, in preparation for their new cattle barn. In sub-freezing weather, these individuals were sawing down trees, burning rubbish, and cleaning the grounds. A county-wide 4-H F.F.A. project, these individuals are preparing for a better and bigger fair for 1950. At a recent meeting of 4-H leaders and F.F.A. teachers, it was decided that the Carroll County 4-H Fair be renamed to the Carroll County 4-H - F.F.A. Fair. In order to accommodate the additional entries by F.F.A. exhibitors, it was decided to build a new cattle barn. To date, the united efforts of these two organizations have cleared land for the new building and have hauled logs to two saw mills — to Mr. Paul and Neal Hering and to Millers. In addition, the 4-H advisory committee, consisting of Mr. Claude Basler, Mr. Cecil Murray and Mr. Donald Bollinger, have awarded an excavation contract to Mr. Ralph W. Stonecipher of Taneytown. He will level the land for our building and clear a road-way to the swine barn; thus making it more accessible.

Mr. Robert Shirley, local leader of the newly formed Frizellburg 4-H club, was elected treasurer of this joint-building project. All clubs and F.F.A. chapters can mail donations to him.

The actual raising of the cattle barn is expected to take place in approximately 2 to 3 weeks.

MEETING OF CARROLL COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Historical Society of Carroll County announces the first meeting for 1950 will be held at the home of the society 206 E. Main street, Westminster, Thursday, January 29 at eight o'clock. Former President A. Earl Shipley will describe some interesting and important court cases in Carroll County.

The Christmas exhibit of copper lustre ware on loan from Mrs. Frederick Leiter, Upperco, will remain during the month of January. This display of 63 pieces from Mrs. Leiter's 850 piece collection of early English lustre provides an opportunity to see part of one of the finest collections of lustre in the United States.

The rarest item in the collection is a camphene lamp which burned a distillate of turpentine which was highly explosive. A pair of Wedgewood candlesticks, historic subjects, raised designs of painted flowers, scenes, resists, and transfers make up this unusual collection. Visiting hours 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. Monday through Saturday.

Cost of Greatness

Lesson for January 13, 1950

THERE is a religion which specializes in destroying desire. If you wish to be saved, they will tell you, you must stop wishing for anything, even to be saved. You must go farther than that, you must get rid of the wish to get rid of all wishes. The happy man is he in whom all desire is dead.

Jesus never indulged in such talk. He had no hard words for ambitious men. Of course it made a different story, when men were ambitious for the wrong reasons or for the wrong things. But ambition as such, he never condemned.

Dr. Foreman

Two of his nearest friends told him one day, not too privately either, that they wanted to sit at his right hand and his left when at last he should be King. That was another way of saying they wanted to share his power and his greatness. The other disciples were disgusted and angry; but not Jesus. All he said was, in effect: Greatness has a price; are you prepared to pay it?

The Towel

The price was a cup that must be drunk; a baptism to be undergone. It is quite plain that these are figures of speech, as Jesus used them to those ambitious brothers James and John. For Jesus was never baptized after that, and all the cups from which he drank were ordinary cups such as all poor families used. This price-of-greatness Jesus himself illustrated by what he, greatest among the great, was and did. At the last supper, it was remembered afterwards what Jesus had done besides presiding at the meal. He knew he had come from God, knew he was going again to God, and that the Father had given all things into his hands. Surely these words spell greatness beyond comparison. Yet know his greatness, "he took a towel." (The story is in John 13.) The cost of greatness is to become a servant. The mark of greatness is not power-over, but service-to.

The Teaching

Well, you might say, that towel incident was something special. Jesus sat among those men as their acknowledged Master; if for a few moments he took the part of a slave, a personal valet, he soon enough put on the teacher's gown again. Is there some way of serving others where we are, as we are—is there any way in which a teacher, for instance, can be "servant of all" without leaving the classroom or putting on an apron? Again Jesus shows us the way. All through his public life he was a teacher. What he had to say was more than personal opinion, it was a message from God. Yet Jesus was always humbly at the disposal of those he taught, with all their stupidity and selfishness. Much of his teaching, if not most of it, was simply speaking to questions or remarks other people made. When a heckler would ask him a question, he seldom brushed it off. He never said, "I am too busy to answer you," or "Your question is too stupid for words." On the contrary, he met people where they were and answered the questions they had, not the questions they doubtless should have had. So the professional man or woman can take his profession as a mere ladder to the big money, or as a means of humble service, in Christ's name and spirit.

The Cross

For Jesus, being at the service of others was not a matter of keeping office hours, of "being available." That was much; but there was a last and highest point. Day by day he spent himself for others. But at last he gave his life, not bit-by-bit, hour by hour, but all at once, poured out like wine of sacrifice. The Son of Man, he said of himself, did not come to be served but to serve... But what did it mean, to him, to serve? The servant's towel was dramatic. The serviceable teaching was less dramatic, more useful. But these did not reach far enough. When his saying about "not to be served but to serve" was remembered, they remembered the end of the sentence: "to give his life a ransom for many." Jesus' road to greatness took him straight to the Cross. No by-passes lead to greatness. Thinking over the roll-call of Christian heroes—the reader may name his own—one quality is found in them all: they loved themselves last.

Is My Baby All Right?

Thousands of Infants Are Born Each Year With Major Defects

Editor's Note: This is the first of three articles on birth defects, the leading childhood health problem, by Dr. Thomas M. Rivers, medical vice president of the National Foundation, noted pediatrician and dean of American ophthalmologists.

By THOMAS M. RIVERS, M.D., Medical Vice President, The National Foundation

The first question every woman asks immediately after the birth of a child is: "My baby—is my baby all right?"

In most instances the answer is yes. Then the mother relaxes with a sense of fulfillment and joy.

But sometimes a baby is born with birth defects, known technically in the medical profession as congenital malformations. Then expectancy turns to anxiety and grief—the most heartbreaking grief a woman can know. If the defects are serious, the entire family may face a lifetime of mental, physical and economic strain.

On the positive side there is this to say: Significant birth defects occur in only a relatively small portion of the infants who come into the world every year. Some defects can be repaired by surgery. Others can be so improved by the modern science of rehabilitation that by the time the child reaches maturity he may be capable of leading a normal life and doing useful work. Above all, many in-born defects can be prevented by knowledge and simple precautions.

Beyond this lies ever greater hope for the future. Until recently birth defects have been neglected. But now medical science is tackling this problem that lies so close to the hopes and fears of every prospective parent. An organized, concentrated attack at this stage has brought about vast improvement in the care, rehabilitation and eventual prevention of malformed children.

Hopeful Promise

The news that the National Foundation (originally the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis) has taken up the challenge of birth defects is a hopeful promise for the future. The National Foundation is the voluntary health organization that educated the American public in the care and prevention of polio. With March of Dimes funds its grantees planned, set up and carried out the prodigious research program that produced the Salk vaccine and a whole series of history-making medical discoveries. It is not unreasonable, therefore, to expect from its sponsored scientists equally important advances concerning the causes and treatment of congenital malformations.

Major Unmet Problem

Birth defects are probably the major unmet childhood medical problem. They are caused only by accidents as a cause of crippling and disability in children. They cause the death of 34,000 infants, or one-fourth of all U.S. infants who are stillborn or die annually within the first month of life.

Children born in this country each year with significant birth defects number about a quarter of a million. Approximately half of these are doomed to serious crippling or prolonged disability. Combinations of defects in one child are not unusual.

There are over 600 different kinds of birth defects. Some are minor like poor eyesight, flat feet or color blindness. These present no major hazard to the normal functioning of the child. More serious defects, widely known and recognized, include harelip and cleft palate, clubfoot, missing extremities, congenital cataracts and brain injuries.

Rarer, but just as serious, are spina bifida, a deformity of the spinal vertebrae; encephalocele, a deformity similar to spina bifida except that the skull instead of the spine is open; and hydrocephalus, an accumulation of excess fluids in the cavities of the brain (commonly known as "water on the brain").

Main Categories Listed

Birth defects are grouped in the following main categories: Malformations of the skeletal structure, with an estimated 112,700 afflicted infants annually surviving the first four weeks of life; disorders of the central nervous system, 32,500 infants annually; skin anomalies, 30,000; congenital heart and vascular disease, 29,000; urogenital malformations, 27,500; eye disorders, 14,100; gastro-intestinal malformations, 12,000; other anomalies, 6,700.

But these figures do not tell the whole story. The importance of birth defects as a medical problem is growing. According to the Vital Statistics of the United States, the number of children who died as a result of congenital malformations rose from 12,413 in 1939 to 20,012 in 1953. At the same time, the number of malformed children who survived into adolescence and maturity continues to grow. One reason is that techniques of diagnosis have so improved that some defects not obvious at birth can be found and treated earlier. Another is that modern surgery keeps alive many malformed children who would once have been doomed to early death. Furthermore, deaths from normal child diseases have been radically reduced by antibiotics and other modern medical measures.

A Big Challenge

There is another way in which the problem of birth defects offers a challenge of the first magnitude. This lies in the realm of popular attitudes and public education. Largely as a result of hearsay, folklore and ignorance, many of the congenitally malformed are socially stigmatized. This unjust stigma often attaches itself to the parents as well as to the child.

It is important, too, to correct parental attitudes in relation to defective children. If the sense of stigma were removed, parents would be more willing to take their children to appropriate medical facilities for diagnosis and treatment. As with most health disorders, the earlier a birth defect is detected, the more successfully it may respond to correction or rehabilitation.

Break Down Taboos

All this calls for a program of public education not unlike that which broke down popular taboos preliminary to controlling such major health problems as venereal disease, cancer, tuberculosis and polio. Once these attitudes have been modified, we can establish a "climate" of thought favorable to the support and understanding of a concerted advance on the challenge of birth defects.

Besides birth defects, other areas of March of Dimes activity are polio, arthritis and virus diseases.

(In his second article of this series, Dr. Rivers will discuss the causes of birth defects and what can be done about them.)

Man's Smallest Enemies

Tiny Virus Causes Many Ills From Common Colds to Polio

Editor's Note: This is the first of three articles on viruses, the harm they cause, what is being done about them, and even what good they may do, by Dr. Henry W. Kumm, chief of virus research for the National Foundation. Dr. Kumm spent 23 years on the investigation of malaria, yellow fever and yaws while with International Health Division of the Rockefeller Foundation.)

By HENRY W. KUMM, M.D., Chief of Virus Research, The National Foundation

So far as we know now, viruses are man's smallest enemies and among the most deadly. Invisible to the naked eye, and difficult to see even with the best optical microscopes, viruses have caused man sickness, pain, death and crippling since the dawn of history.

Everyone is familiar with the effects of viruses. We have all had common colds, which are due to viruses. We may know someone who has been crippled by the virus of polio. We have heard of yellow fever, hepatitis and smallpox. These are all due to viruses that attack man. There are other viruses that attack lower animals and plants. These may be serious, too, for disease can devastate a food supply as it destroys the health of a man. We are apt to think of viruses as essentially the same from one day to another and from one year to another. But this is not so. Many viruses are constantly changing their characteristics—growing more or less harmful.

Here is a recent example. Influenza has been known for many years. Each year it causes some deaths. But after the First World War something happened to the influenza virus. It became more deadly. And it killed 20 million people in an epidemic that encircled the world.

When Vaccine Was Developed

The development of the Salk vaccine through research supported by your March of Dimes is well known. At the time the vaccine was developed, polio was an increasing disease. One year's incidence might drop from the year before, but over a period of years the disease was gradually crippling more and more people. How far it would have gone without the vaccine no man can tell.

Thus, in studying virus diseases, scientists are not dealing with a static problem. They know that a virus disease that is rare today may become common tomorrow. They are dealing with an ebb and flow of nature that no one understands. This is why research into even rare virus diseases is necessary, for these ailments may be tomorrow's epidemics.

Furthermore, research into one virus often turns up information which may help the understanding of others. A great deal that we know about viruses, for example, has come from studies of a particular virus that causes what is known as mosaic disease of tobacco plants. Not very many people are worried about this disease as such, but studies of the virus that causes it have contributed to the fight on polio and to efforts to control all virus disease in man.

Likewise, March of Dimes-supported work on polio has contributed to our understanding of other viruses. Techniques developed in connection with polio are now being applied to the study of mumps and measles. An experimental vaccine against viruses allied to the common cold has already been produced by government scientists, using procedures developed by Dr. Salk for the polio vaccine.

Progress Being Made

Progress is being made against viruses and it is important. Not only does it bring us closer to control of the virus diseases for which we still have no answer, but it is helping us to understand other health problems as well.

Virus disease is a major phase of the expanded program of the National Foundation. Other areas of March of Dimes activity are polio, arthritis and birth defects.

(The second article by Dr. Kumm will discuss questions for which answers are sought through virus research.)
