C. OF C. HELD MONTHLY MEETING MONDAY

Plans Being Made for Annual Banquet

Taneystown Inn played host to the Chamber of Commerce on Monday evening, June 15th. The regular business meeting followed the serving of dinner.

Postmaster Burke reported through Mr. Murray Baumgardner that he anticipates no difficulty in being able to provide a public mail box for the added convenience of the residents of Taneystown. The suggested location is at the square on the Lambert Electrical Store corner.

August 6th has been established as the date for the annual outing of the Chamber. The McCormick Spice and Westinghouse Electric plants of Baltimore will be toured.

Mr. Frank Wargny questioned the progress of Zoning in Carroll County and suggested the Chamber take an active interest in the project. After discussion, it was decided that a committee should be appointed to follow Zoning developments in the County. President Ohler appointed the following Committee: Chairman, Mr. Frank Wargny, Mr. Neal W. Powell, and Mr. Harry Mohney.

Mr. Sam Breth suggested that it would seem appropriate to recognize our local industries that were initially sponsored by the Chamber, through the media of a Industry Appreciation Night. Representatives of the four industries involved would be invited to a dinner meeting with a suitable program arranged for the occasion. The suggestion found acceptance by the group and it was decided to hold the affair on September 21st. The program committee will be in charge of arrangements.

November 12th was set as the date for the annual banquet.

President Ohler advised that a July meeting will be necessary this year. The meeting, which will be a dinner meeting at Taneystown Inn, was set for 6:30 p. m., July 20th. Attendance has been good at the Chamber meetings but there is always room for improvement. How about a real big turnout on July 20th.

TANEYTOWN STUDENT HONORED

A Taneystown youth, John Lieb, will be "packing his old kit bag" today for an exciting trip.

John is to be among fifty high school boys to be sponsored on a "Weekend With Scientists" by the Heart Association of Maryland. He will join the other students tomorrow (Friday, June 19th) at 4:30 in Baltimore to leave for the College Park campus of the University of Maryland. There they will meet with eight of this area's leading medical research men for three days' conversations about medicine and biological research.

John is a student at Taneystown High School. He was selected for the honor of this trip because of his talent in science.

Another Carroll County taking part in the event is Andrew Dietrich from Westminster Sr. High School.

The other boys taking part in the Heart Association sponsored event are from schools in Baltimore City, Baltimore County, and Anne Arundel and Howard Counties.

Dr. Douglas Carroll, chairman of the Health Careers Subcommittee of the Maryland Heart Association has explained the "Weekend With Scientists" project. He said, "The Heart Association is anxious to bring gifted young students into the medical and biological fields. By bringing such talented youngsters as this young man from Taneystown High School into contact with our research men, we hope to give the boys an understanding of the needs of the medical research field and an appreciation of the satisfactions to be found in this vital work."

In addition to Dr. Carroll, the scientists to meet with the students this weekend are: Dr. Reubin Andres and Dr. Francis P. Chinnard, of Baltimore City Hospitals; Drs. Richard Ross, J. Frank Supple III, and W. Gordon Walker, of The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine; and Drs. Leonard Scherlis and Robert T. Singleton, of the University of Maryland School of Medicine. Dr. Carroll is Chief of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation at Baltimore City Hospitals.

A feature of the "Weekend" which has excited much interest among the students is a scheduled showing of a movie of an actual heart operation. Plans for the three days include ample opportunity for recreation and informal chats with the scientists.

Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever

Recently, a Carroll County child was admitted to a Baltimore City hospital with "Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever." This very serious disease is contracted by an individual through the bite of an infected tick. Luckily, most ticks found in the County are not infected, but since one cannot readily distinguish between an infected and an uninfected tick, all should be treated with suspicion.

Prevention of the disease depends primarily upon the exercise of personal care and protection against tick bites. Persons exposed in areas known to be infested with ticks should examine their clothing and bodies and remove and destroy all found without squeezing or crushing.

Ticks should be removed from persons or pets with tweezers or with a piece of paper between the fingers, preferably after first dousing them with some material like Kerosene. Following removal, the affected skin area should be cleansed with antiseptic, the tweezers should be sterilized with heat or chemicals, and the hands should be washed with soap and water.

CO. COMMISSIONERS EMPLOYEES ASSISTANT

$14,000 a Year Man Comes from Harford County

The County Commissioners on Tuesday, June 9, 1959, unanimously adopted the resolution proposed by them on May 4, 1959 for the employment of a qualified person to serve as Technical Assistant to the Commissioners, which resolution thereafter was published in full in several of the County newspapers in compliance with the law.

At the hearing on this resolution held at the County Office Building on June 1, 1959, a number of citizens appeared and voiced their opposition, and it was disclosed that a concerted effort by advertisement and personal contact had been made by a group calling themselves "Taxpayers League of Carroll County" to encourage attendance at the hearing by other citizens in order to impress upon us the extent and magnitude of the opposition on the part of our people to the employment by us of a qualified person to assist in the execution and administration of our policies in the many fields of government now requiring our attention. It should be said that we expected that there would be extended vocal opposition from many of the individuals who did attend and express their several opinions.

Polio Alert - 1959

Current statistics for the entire United States reveal that so far this year the number of new cases of paralytic poliomyelitis is twice as great as it was for the previous year. Closer scrutiny of the figures disclose that the majority of these new cases are among children, younger than six years of age, who have only partial protection or no protection at all. No new cases have yet been reported in Carroll County or the entire State of Maryland, but as the polio season has just begun, one cannot predict at this time what may occur.

In a recent Carroll County survey it was learned that among school-age children the level of protection was satisfactory, but that in the age groups of zero to five (pre-school) and seventeen to forty, the level of protection through vaccination was very poor.

You cannot be urged too strongly by health authorities to have susceptible members of your family inoculated by your private physician without delay. If you start now there is still time to develop at least some degree of immunity. There is little comfort or consolation for those families afflicted with a serious disease which could so easily have been prevented.

Free vaccination clinics are held at the Health Center in Westminster each Tuesday between the hours of 1:30 p. m. and 3:00 p. m. for anyone between the ages of about two months and twenty years who is unable to visit his private physician. Only the first two shots and a booster are given at the Health Department.

The Carroll Record
Taneystown, Maryland
Dear Sir:

We are now completing our three (3) year tour of duty here in Bordeaux, France, and are due to return to the States about 4 July 1959. This has been a very enjoyable tour of duty by being able to visit the different countries such as: England, Germany, France, Spain, Italy, Austria, Holland, Belgium, and Switzerland. Our favorite country was Holland. The hospitality of the people was so wonderful. When you arrived there you got the feeling that you were almost back in the States from the appearance of the buildings, roads, and the way the people live. All of the countries have something different and interesting that a person desires to see.

When we return to the States, we will be assigned to William Beaumont Army Hospital, El Paso, Texas. We would like to extend our appreciation and thanks to the Carroll Record for sending us the hometown paper and enabling us to keep up with the hometown news.

Would you please discontinue the paper as of this date. Upon our return to Taneystown, we plan to visit the office and give you our new address.

Sincerely,

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

I REMEMBER PAPA.

I remember Papa in all his loving, kind and thoughtful ways and his wonderful patience with his eight children (and I was the seventh). Papa always seemed to have time those days with his children—he never said, "After awhile, I am too busy now!" He was most considerate at all times with each one and always taught us that my Beloved Mother was first to be considered.

I remember dear Papa helping me with my school studies on the long winter evenings—hearing my lessons and when examinations were coming up and I used to worry about them, he immediately would tell me to rise early the next morning to refresh the studies in my memory at that time in the mornings when my mind would be clear! He always seemed to remember so much in History of the slightest skirmish and the two leading figures. Even their names! I remember Papa each year walking hand in hand to meet my new teacher and the Principal of the school. Papa always taught us to be kind to one another and never fuss and if we did have any misunderstanding to clear it up as he would say, "Never hold wrath when the Sun goes down!" And the day I was eighteen Papa said, "never marry for money but the very biggest thing in life—love—and then everything else will follow beautifully!"

Papa always said, "Be punctual in every engagement and when you make a promise—keep it and when you fail in anything in life and day, remember there are other days to follow to make it all perfect!"

I remember dear Papa how proud he was when he used to call us—his four daughters—"his four lovely graces!"

I remember just how Papa looked at me the night I had on my first real evening dress and when I stood in the doorway in the living room, he said, "How beautiful you are tonight—just like your Mother when I first met her!"

I remember the delightful Fall Saturdays with Papa when we used to board a street car and ride to the very end and hand in hand we walked through the woods to go Chestnut Hunting.

Papa always taught me to shoot off the revolver on the 4th of July pointing skyward! He knew that was a big thrill for me.

Papa always took such an interest in my dolls—there were 21 all in a row which I kept from year to year and he was thrilled choosing the names for them.

Ah! I remember dear Papa each day at Sundown with the parted curtain looking up to the Heavens praying and I would stand silently until that special prayer was finished!

He named me "his last rose of summer" and always enjoyed hearing it played just for him and now and then I play it and a tear slowly falls as I remember!

I remember the two nights weekly, and I felt so proud as I would lead dear Mama and Papa following the Usher down the aisle of the Metropolitan Opera House in Philadelphia.

I remember when three of the girls were stricken with that awful Scarlet Fever and I was more ill than the other two girls. I was just three years of age and the disease left me blind for three months! Papa bought a child's rocker for me and a Canary bird where I sat all day listening to the song. And—oh remember those prayers of dear Papa's asking God to restore my sight. Never have I heard prayers like those since on the lips of anyone! That big day arrived. It was just getting dusk—it was wintertime and suddenly I screamed, "Oh, Papa I can see!" His voice quivered as to convince himself that it was really so, he said, "What am I holding up, my Pet?" "Your pipe, Papa!" Taking me in his arms and holding me tightly, I can hear his sobbing right now as he cried, "Thank God! Thank God!"

And finally I said, "Oh, your hair, Papa! It used to be so black!" Running my hands over his thick hair. It had suddenly in those three months turned snow-white!

Oh! there is so much more I could tell about Papa!

Yes, I remember Papa!

HORSE SENSE—AND TRACTORS

The farm equipment companies of this country put safety high on their list of objectives. The machines are designed to reduce hazards of operation to a minimum. Yet an appalling number of accidents, many of a most serious nature, continue to occur each year.

The prime reason why this is so is simple: Individual carelessness, ignorance, and indifference.

As an example, modern tractors have power take-offs. The revolving shaft presents a major hazard if left bare, so shields are provided. But to keep the shield properly in place is apparently an inconvenience to some farmers. So, it has been found, the shields are often removed—and injuries and fatalities follow.

A few years ago, at the Iowa State Fair, a little survey was made on the farm equipment accident question. Of some 600 people who filled out cards, only one thought the machines were at fault. All the others placed the blame on human frailty of one kind or another. They also made various suggestions like these: Slow down. Don't get too tired. Be alert. Follow manufacturers' instructions. Use the shields provided. Stop machines before adjusting or servicing. Use safety lights and reflectors when on public roads at night. Buy good machinery and maintain it properly. Keep children away from the machines.

Advice couldn't be simpler—or sounder. Safety, so far as modern farm equipment is concerned, is just a matter of down to earth horse sense.

Commissioners Employ Assistant

Since the time of the hearing we have been directly contacted by a large number of responsible citizens who expressed hearty approval of the action proposed by us, and their opinions confirmed our own that the services of a man who is qualified to perform the prospective duties outlined in the original resolution likely would be worth to the County much more than the salary that was stipulated.

It is not our purpose to make critical comment of those who find themselves in opposition to the course we have chosen in our effort to give Carroll County efficient and economical administration of its affairs, but it was evident to us that many of our citizens have little familiarity with the demands that are continuously being made upon us for increased and extended services which are coming to be regarded as essential county functions. It should not be necessary to mention these in detail, but nearly everyone realizes that the demands for more and better roads, expanded educational facilities, and some semblance of long range planning to insure the orderly development of our County in this era of unprecedented increase in our population, make it humanly impossible for a Board of Commissioners serving on a part-time basis to personally deal directly with all the attendant complexities of administration.

None of us presently serving as Commissioner professes to be a technically trained specialist, capable of formulating and finally determining all phases of county governmental policy, and then personally and directly performing all the work required in the execution and carrying out of such programs as may be adopted by us. Our county government has grown to be big business, with the taxable basis now about four times what it was twenty years ago. Yet the governing body itself (the County Commissioners), fortunately is exactly the same, with substantially the same powers and duties, as it existed many generations ago.

We have not asked that the basic structure of our government be changed. It was well conceived and has served us adequately. But it must have administrative and technical assistance properly to carry out its mission as the demands upon it expand and increase. When our office as Commissioners was created the Board was able to function with a low tax rate and a meager staff of workers. Then the duties were very limited, since we had local school and road districts enabling local affairs in those categories to be handled almost exclusively by the folks in the district areas.

That was before the days of motor transport, hard roads, consolidated schools, industrial development and expansion, planning for population increases, public health and welfare, agricultural extension, alcoholic beverage regulation at the local level, prospective public housing, prospective sanitary control, waste disposal centers, trailer camps, etc.

These added burdens, plus many others, which result naturally from our growth and social progress, when brought to the awareness of any reasonable mind, impel it inevitably to the conclusion that the need is here now for extensive improvement of our administrative processes. The alternative would be to continue to administer the affairs of a multi-million dollar corporation, spending millions of dollars of tax revenues each year, wholly by the individual performances of a part-time executive agency that has functioned without any material changes or expansion since the days when our grandparents attended one-room schools, studied their lessons by kerosene lamps, and went to church on Sunday in the family surrey.

Numerous suggestions were made by citizens who appeared at the hearing, in part as follows:

1. Let the State Employment Commissioner hold an examination for applicants, to fill a position for which we would prepare the specifications.

2. Let the people vote on the proposition to determine whether or not we need help we are seeking.

3. Appoint a County-wide Citizens' Committee to consider the matter and probably select the man, if it is decided by such a committee that one is needed.

To these suggestions we say:

1. Were we to write specifications for a position requiring the varied types of experience that the man we have selected enjoys, then either he would be the only applicant who could qualify, or we would have to employ two or three men and break the job into as many parts.

2. The Commissioners have no legal means available to them to submit one of their resolutions to a County-wide referendum. Such a vote can only be provided for by the Legislature and the Governor, and the next opportunity for it would be in November, 1962, which will be the same election at which our successors will be chosen.

3. During the past four years we have used Citizens' Committees selected by us in many fields and upon many subjects, whenever we felt the need of such help. These fine citizens responded admirably in every instance, and their final judgments either have been adopted by us, or held in abeyance for future consideration and action. Not a single recommendation has so far been over-ruled, and we fully expect to resort to the use of such committees again. However, we must reject the idea that a County wide committee of citizens should be asked to determine whether the County Government administered by us needs administrative help, and if so, to select the helper for us.

We, therefore, with first hand knowledge and experience, and with full consciousness of our obligations as public officers to all the citizens of our County, have unanimously decided to adopt the resolution mentioned and to employ the man we have found, who possesses all the qualifications of education and successful experience necessary to assist us in giving our constituents a more efficient and economical administration of their public affairs. Of course, as the Resolution and the contract of employment expressly provided, the Board of County Commissioners will continue as heretofore to formulate and adopt official policy, and will dictate and control its execution, but we honestly need competent and responsibly subordinate assistance and support, and we are convinced that we have acted advisedly and in the interest of our people.

CURRENT EVENTS

FIFTY YEARS AGO

The twelve o'clock turning out of the street lamps has its disadvantages, and we trust that before long the authorities will see their way clear toward giving us light all night. Taneytown is no longer a little cross-roads village and it deserves all the light possible.

Mrs. John J. Reid and little son, Maynard, are spending the week with Mrs. Edgar McCauley, at Arlington, and with other friends in Baltimore.

Master Francis Shaum was badly injured last Saturday evening, in a runaway accident at the Farmers' Warehouse, where he made some purchases. His horse, in some way got beyond his control, upset the wagon and threw him out, cutting his head badly and breaking one of the bones of his right leg below the knee. He was promptly fixed up by Dr. Roop.

Early Closing Notice! The following Merchants have decided to close their store on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, at 6 o'clock commencing June 21st, until further notice be given. D. J. Hesson, C. Edgar Yount, M. A. Koons, J. Wm. Hull, D. M. Mehring, H. S. Koons, Mrs. M. J. Gardner. The following have decided to close at 9 o'clock the same evenings. N. B. Hagan, Sponseller and Otto, Samuel Ott, John McKellip, R. S. McKinney, S. W. Plank, D. B. Shaum, C. E. H. Shriner, S. C. Reaver, J. S. Bower, M. H. Reindollar, R. B. Everhart, H. S. Hill. All of the above have decided to close at 11 o'clock on Saturday nights. The Taneytown Business Men's Association.

The new 1-cent pieces now being made at the mint in Philadelphia will be put in circulation by July 1, when 150,000 of the new coins will be ready for use. The new pennies which were designed at the Philadelphia mint, will replace the familiar Indian head with the likeness of Abraham Lincoln.

Frizellburg.—Bear in mind the Granger's festival in the hall, this Saturday night. An interesting game of ball will be played here, this Saturday afternoon, by the Uniontown boys and our home team.—Cherry picking is in full blast, and your correspondent has no time to write a longer letter.

Harney.—Fream and Shildt are at work painting the Hotel Harney; it makes considerable improvement.—Harry Wolf's house is moving along rapidly this week.

Father's Day, June 21st. This little poem is for every Dad.

There are little eyes upon you, and They're watching night and day;

There are little ears that quickly take in Everything you say.

There are little hands all eager to Do every thing you do;

And a little boy who's dreaming of The day he'll be like you.

There's a wide-eyed little fellow who Believes you're always right.

And his eyes are always open And he watches day and night.

You are setting an example, in Each kindness that you do,

For the little boy who's waiting to Grow up to be like you.

"The Last Full Measure Of Devotion"

MEMORIAL DAY brings to mind the famous words of Abraham Lincoln: "The Last Full Measure of Devotion." That devotion is full when one gives one's life in sacrifice for one's country, for a noble cause, for an ideal, and for one's God. Our late Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, gave the last full measure of devotion toward securing world peace and good will among men of all nations of the earth. Elemental deficiencies of civilization are won and kept by men and women who give themselves in full measure of devotion. The half-hearted cannot give wholeheartedly. Lukewarmness cannot raise the temperature for any cause.

A soldier's monument is a mute reminder of the last full measure of devotion to his country. A ruined temple in warfare is a stark and gruesome reminder of the enemies of those ideals for which the temple was dedicated. Hear the words of a London physician: "It takes all our time to keep ourselves fit to live and perhaps to die for something more glorious than life." A stalwart Christian father, with the compassion and tenderness of the heart of a woman, said, after having lost a son in World War II, and another in Korea, "If the sacrifice of my sons has served to bring peace a little nearer to mankind, then it has not been in vain."

To those who mourn by the tombs of their dead what strength and hope and assurance to immortality are derived from Jesus' words: "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die."

To decorate the graves of our dead may keep their memories green, but we honor them only as we live and sacrifice for the causes for which they died—freedom, justice, democracy, and education for mankind everywhere, of every race and nation.

MEMORIAL DAY is an indication of the ability of a people to cherish their dead, and to remember their sacrifices, devotion to duty, unselfishness, and willingness to live, fight, march, and die for Freedom, Democracy, and Brotherhood.

Miss Arlene Frances Naylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Naylor, Taneytown, and Ensign Michael Dennis Okerlund, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray F. Okerlund of Long Island, N. Y. and Kabul, Afghanistan were married Saturday June 6, at 2 p. m. in Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown. Rev. Stanley Jennings officiated at the double ring ceremony. The sanctuary was decorated with palms, candelabra and altar vases of white gladioli, delphinium, carnations and baby's breath. Miss Haezel Hess played the traditional Nuptial music and accompanied Miss Sandra Shorb who sang "Because" "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace over taffeta with a tight-fitting bodice with a round neckline and bracelet length sleeves, a bouffant skirt in ballerina length trimmed with tiny satin bows. A short veil of silk illusion was attached to a bandeau of silk braid. Her bouquet was bride's roses, gypsophylla, an orchid nestled in tulle and flowing white taffeta streamers. Her only ornament was a gold necklace a gift of the groom.

Miss Suzanne Lawyer, a college classmate, served as maid of honor. She wore a yellow taffeta with fitted bodice, a bouffant skirt in ballerina length with an overskirt of white lace and long flowing yellow streamers from the waist at back and a yellow braided head - band. Her bouquet was yellow and violet mums with a shower of yellow ribbon.

Mr. John Riedesel of Seat Pleasant, Md. was best man and Mr. Pete Eagan of Oxon Hill, Va. was usher - both college class - mates of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore Mauve Organza over taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of white roses and blue delphinium. The groom's parents were unable to be present as they are now serving with the State Department at Kabul, Afghanistan.

A reception was held in the Sunday School Auditorium to a small group of relatives. Mrs. George Naylor Jr., sister - in - law of the bride served the wedding cake and Miss Vivian Wolfe, a cousin, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Dorothy Sensenbaugh, a cousin, was guest registrar.

For going away the bride chose a white dress trimmed with blue velvet, white accessories and the orch

Irrigation Can Be Profitable

Increase Profits On Specialty Crops

Irrigation may be profitable on sandy soils where the water supply is close or where specialized crops are grown, says R. C. Hay, University of Illinois agricultural engineer.

On major crops in most of the Illinois soils there is no great need for irrigation, as the soil can hold enough capillary water to give sufficient plant growth. Irrigating soils like clay loam would not increase yield enough to pay for the equipment and labor.

Irrigating high-value specialty crops and hybrid seeds, however, will increase profits enough to justify the cost of expensive equipment.

Availability of plenty of water is often the major problem in irrigation. It takes plenty of water to do the job.

Hay says water supply is usually the major problem in irrigation. If you are located along a large stream of water or over a high well-water table and have a sandy soil that won't hold capillary water, it would probably pay you to irrigate.

If you intend to have an irrigation well, it must have a minimum capacity of 500 gallons per minute. It takes 27,000 gallons of water to put an inch of water on one acre of land.

The irrigation well will cost as much as $30 a foot to develop, and the pump and power unit will cost $2,000 or more. The pipe, sprinkler heads and fittings to irrigate a 160-acre tract of land will cost about $13,000 on the average.

Feeding From Farm Ups Beef Profits

Corn silage can be worth up to $200 an acre when it produces yields of 18 to 19 tons per acre and is fed to quality beef cattle.

That's how Warren Huff figures he can make the best return from his 240 acres of crop land.

According to John Doneth, extension farm management specialist at Michigan State University, Huff is aiming for this kind of return with silage by using a high-powered fertility and soil improvement program on a straight corn rotation.

Besides that, Huff is an experienced hand at feeding quality cattle and has some top-notch ideas about labor efficiency, says Doneth.

Huff has the capacity to turn out 1,000 head of fat cattle a year. He buys some shell corn to put on a choice to prime finish, but says the profits come from turning farm produced feed into marketable beef.

Feed handling on an operation of this size is a big job, but Huff is equipped to do it with the least possible effort. He uses a self-unloading wagon to haul both silage and grain in one trip from the silo unloader to the feed bunks in his completely covered feed lot.

Huff prefers this system to a conveyor feed bunk directly from the silo because it gives him a chance to make more changes in his plans as he moves through the feeding period. He says, "Conveyors tie you to a frozen position."

An angle hook for your barn door is easily made by bending a piece of 1/4-in. rod as indicated. Hook is pivoted inside the door by means of two large staples.

Marbles, Music, Arts, Cooking, Boys' Clubs Have Something For Every Boy

Millions of parents who have long been plagued with that perennially plaintive boyish complaint of "nothing to do," are now finding increased reason to hope that all may not be lost.

From marbles to music, art to archery, crafts to cooking and swimming to singing, half a million youngsters are now being offered a whole new world of "things to do," at more than 500 Boys' Clubs of America throughout the country.

Operated on the idea that every boy wants a chance to fulfill his natural creative impulses, these clubs are also turning out thousands of good citizens.

Open to all boys, regardless of race, creed, or economic background, Boys' Clubs of America have been fighting juvenile delinquency and promoting Juvenile Delinquency since the organization's founding in 1906. Such very tangible proofs of the Boys' Clubs pudding as Connecticut's Governor Ribicoff, baseball's Joe Di Maggio, and the entertainment world's Irving Berlin, Dick Powell, Eddie Cantor, the Georges Gershwin, Burns and Goebel, and many others, have been forthcoming with almost monotonous regularity ever since. So too have lawyers, surgeons, industrialists, labor leaders, clergymen and others who have distinguished themselves.

Naturally, if not unfortunately, the percentage of Boys' Club members who "graduate" to such lofty heights is not great. More importantly, Boys' Club members are given the same opportunity to learn and benefit from those vital human characteristics which will be of lifelong value to all of them.

Leadership potentials are watched for and directed through Leaders' Clubs. Musical talents are uncovered through glee clubs, choirs, orchestras and bands. Acting ability shows up or is learned in the production of Boys' Club plays. Printing, woodworking, painting, writing, whatever the talent or interest, the Boys' Club seeks it out, encourages it, polishes it and—very often—starts it on its way to success.

Small wonder then that, under the leadership of Herbert Hoover, its very active board chairman for almost 25 years, the Boys' Clubs of America organization is now experiencing its greatest growth. Doubled in size since World War II, the Boys' Clubs may soon provide a very suitable answer to any prouder—but harried—parent pondering an answer to "... But what can I do then?"

Spring Cleaning in the Modern Manner

Spring cleaning is a breeze today, thanks to new cleaning equipment techniques. Now, a mere slip of a bride can keep her house sparkling clean provided she knows how to select the right vacuum for her cleaning needs.

For those who are about to start the annual cleanup, here are tips from the Singer Sewing Machine Company, makers of the unique Golden Glide vacuum cleaner, the Roll-A-Magic budget canister, the Magic Carpet upright cleaner and the convenient Magic Mite hand cleaner.

Most homemakers will appreciate the convenience of the canister models, with their many attachments to ease cleaning chores. The dusting brushes make quick work of moldings, picture frames, louvered screens and Venetian blinds. The upholstery brush is used for chairs and sofas, and for such special jobs as dusting the fabric-covered speaker of the hi-fi. The new revolving brush attachment does a thorough job on carpets.

Save energy by pulling the canister along on its wheels rather than lifting; stand it on end for cleaning stairs or for extra height in reaching high places.

If you are proud of the fine wall-to-wall carpeting in your home, the upright cleaner is probably your choice. For above-the-floor cleaning, invest in the tiny hand-cleaner, which performs many specialized cleaning jobs without attachments.

NOTICE!

The following RESOLUTION, embodying RULES AND REGULATIONS for the administration of dog licensing, etc., was passed by the County Commissioners of Carroll County on June 1, 1959, and ordered published in a newspaper in Carroll County once a week for four successive weeks, in order to provide any person, firm or corporation adversely affected thereby an opportunity to be heard by the County Commissioners in opposition to the adoption of such Rules and Regulations.

Any person, firm or corporation adversely affected by said Rules and Regulations and desiring to be heard in opposition thereto may appear before the County Commissioners at their office in Westminster, Maryland, on Tuesday, July 14, 1959, at 2:00 o'clock p. m.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the County Commissioners of Carroll County were authorized and empowered by Chapter 807 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1959, in order to safeguard the health, safety and public welfare of the residents of Carroll County, to pass rules, regulations or resolutions for the purpose of carrying out certain powers vested in them by said Act, particularly to provide for the appointment and compensation of Dog Wardens, the sale of dog licenses, the keeping of records of such sales, the designation of persons to make such sales, and the taking into custody and the disposition of any dogs found running at large within said County; with power to delegate by written contract the enforcement of such rules, regulations or resolutions, the establishment of a Dog Pound for the collection, disposition and destruction of stray, injured and sick dogs; and for the use of the revenues arising out of the sale of dog licenses.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the County Commissioners of Carroll County, Maryland, in order to safeguard the health, safety and public welfare of the residents of Carroll County, and in accordance with the authority granted by Chapter 807 of the Acts of 1959, do hereby make and establish the following Rules and Regulations for the purpose of carrying out the powers vested in them by said Act.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. SUPERVISION AND ENFORCEMENT

A. Appointment of Dog Wardens

The County Commissioners of Carroll County, in accordance with the provisions of Sections 191 (b) and 194 (c), (e), and (f) of Article 56, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as enacted by Chapter 807 of the Acts of 1959, shall appoint such number of persons as in their judgment may be necessary to serve as Dog Wardens in Carroll County, Maryland, who shall on behalf of the said County Commissioners be charged with the supervision, control and licensing of dogs in Carroll County.

B. Qualifications

Any applicant for the position of Dog Warden must be an adult male who is a resident of Carroll County, and who shall have had at least two or more years of police, dog training, and/or animal welfare experience.

C. Duties

The said Dog Wardens shall have all the powers of a Constable or Peace Officer, including the right to request the issuance of a summons; the serving of a warrant of arrest, or for the replevin of a dog; to make arrests, prosecute charges in connection with unlawful acts or violations of these Rules and Regulations; and it shall be the duty of the duly appointed Dog Wardens diligently to seek out, pursue and to deliver to the County Dog Pound, all unlicensed dogs found in any part of Carroll County; to collect all dead dogs found on public grounds or highways and either to bury or otherwise effectually dispose of all such carcasses; to destroy critically sick or injured dogs found on public grounds or highways, or whose destruction is requested by their owners; and to respond promptly to all requests directed to them by the Carroll County Health Department, The Carroll County Humane Society, Inc., the Mayor or City Council of any of the incorporated towns of Carroll County, or a member of the general public, relating to the proper enforcement of these Rules and Regulations.

D. Salary

The Dog Wardens so appointed shall receive for their services such compensation as may be determined by the County Commissioners.

E. Equipment

The County Commissioners shall furnish said Dog Wardens with such vehicles and other necessary equipment as may be required for the execution of their duties as herein set forth.

F. Jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of each of the Dog Wardens appointed hereunder shall be County-wide; but the County Commissioners may assign certain areas or districts of the County to each Warden within which he shall carry on his principal activities hereunder, and shall be responsible for the enforcement of these Rules and Regulations within his particular area or district.

G. Supervision

The Dog Wardens appointed hereunder shall be County employees subject to the supervision and control of the County Commissioners of Carroll County, and such other agencies as the County Commissioners may hereafter designate. They shall serve at the pleasure of the County Commissioners, and their services may be terminated at any time upon one month's notice, or they may be removed for cause, after due hearing, without the requirement of notice.

2. LICENSING OF DOGS

A. Dog License Requirements

It shall be unlawful for any person to own or harbor a dog unless licensed in accordance with these Rules and Regulations. Licenses shall not be required for dogs under the age of six months which are not at large. The license period shall run for the calendar year, namely, from January 1 to December 31, inclusive; except, however, that any license issued under the provisions hereof as of July 1, 1959, shall be valid until December 31, 1960. Thereafter all licenses shall be issued as of January 1 for the ensuing calendar year.

B. Individual Dog Licenses

Every person owning or harboring a dog within Carroll County shall apply either orally or in writing to the County Treasurer, or to a Dog Warden, or to such other person or organization as may be designated by the County Commissioners, for a license certificate and tag for each such dog owned or harbored by him, excepting dogs kept under a kennel license as provided for in the following subsection, and such application shall state the name, sex, breed, age, color and markings of each such dog and be accompanied by a fee of $3.00 for each dog regardless of sex. The persons or organizations designated by the County Commissioners to issue such licenses, except the County Treasurer and the Dog Wardens shall be entitled to receive for their services in issuing licenses the sum of 50¢ for each such license issued by them and shall report all license sales and remit all license fees collected at the end of each month to the County Treasurer on report forms furnished by said Treasurer. The license fee above provided is due and payable as follows:

(1) On or before January 1st and not later than March 1st in each year, the owner or harbinger of any dog six months old or older shall pay the license tax as herein prescribed; except, however, that any license issued under the provisions hereof as of July 1, 1959, shall be valid until December 31, 1960. The license tax due as of July 1, 1959 shall be paid not later than August 31, 1959.

(2) If a dog shall become six months of age or an unlicensed dog of licensed age shall come into the possession of any persons at any time during the first six months of any license period, the full license tax for the current calendar year or current license period shall be paid forthwith by said owner.

C. Kennel License

A kennel license is meant to cover one pack or collection of dogs kept on a single premises, however owned, whether maintained for breeding, treatment, boarding, sale, training, hunting or other purposes and including pet shops where dogs and other animals are on sale and the one tag securely fastened at a prominent place on the enclosure shall cover all dogs kept there within the limit of the license issued. Such license permits, when under close supervision, hunting dogs, or dogs for breeding purposes or sale, to be taken from the kennel to the hunting field and hunted or taken for exercise or showing, and returned to the kennel in similar manner but does not permit any dog kept at the kennel otherwise to leave its limits without an individual license and the wearing of an individual license tag.

For protection and identification of Kennel dogs in transit between the kennel and the field as above provided they must wear collars or harnesses with kennel identification marks by name or number attached thereto and furnished by the kennel, which may be removed only when under supervision in the exercise or hunting field.

Kennel licenses are due and payable on or before January 1st and not later than March 1st of each year, or when beginning operations; except, however, that any license issued under the provisions hereof as of July 1, 1959, shall be valid until December 31, 1960. Thereafter all licenses shall be issued as of January 1, for the ensuing calendar year. The license fee for kennels owning or keeping not more than twenty dogs shall be Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars, and for persons owning or keeping more than twenty dogs the license fee shall be Fifty ($50.00) Dollars, and the names of all persons owning, operating or interested in the kennel at the time of taking the licenses shall be written on the back of the certificate and the stub; and the name and address of the owner of each dog kept in such kennel and records giving full data concerning sales or other disposition of dogs from such kennels shall be kept on file thereat and available for inspection by the Warden or other Peace Officers at all times.

A kennel shall not be operated in such manner as to defraud the County of the license fee applying to dogs which cannot legally be covered thereunder, or in any manner to violate other provisions of this subtitle; the primary purpose of a kennel license being to relieve owners of dogs kept at a kennel and never being allowed to run at large, from the necessity of taking out individual licenses for such dogs.

D. Penalties and Fines

Every dog license, either individual or kennel, shall be procured before January 1st or within sixty days from the time when by the provisions of these Rules and Regulations it is due and payable, and any person violating either by failing or refusing to comply with any of the provisions of Section 2 (A.) hereof, shall be liable to prosecution and punishment in accordance with the provisions of Section 199, of Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition).

Payment of the license tax subsequent to the issuance of a summons or warrant by a Magistrate or other court for failure to do so within the time required shall not operate to relieve said owner from the penalties provided. Any dog not wearing a license tag of the proper calendar year shall prima facie be deemed to be unlicensed and in any proceedings under these Rules and Regulations the burden of proof of the fact that such a dog has been licensed, or is otherwise not required to wear a tag at the time, shall be on the owner of said dog.

E. Disposition of License Fees, Penalties and Fines

The County Treasurer shall keep receipts of dog license fees, penalties, and fines, and expenditures incident to operation and enforcement of these Rules and Regulations in a separate account, and all receipts shall be expended only for the proper operation and enforcement of the provisions of Sections 191 to 199, inclusive, of Article 56 of the Code, as amended, for no other purpose.

F. License Certificates

The County Commissioners, not later than November 1st each year, shall furnish the appointed persons with a supply of license certificates together with the corresponding metal tags and dog census books, in sufficient quantity to cover all requirements for the following year. Certificates shall be serially numbered in books of 100 each with triplicate stubs all of which shall provide spaces in which shall be recorded the following data: Election District, full name, home address with street and house number, or rural route and box number, telephone number of owner, and the name, sex, breed, age, color and markings of the dog. In case of loss of a license tag the owner thereof may procure a duplicate license for use during the balance of the year by surrender of the old certificates and the payment of fifty cents (50¢).

G. License Tags

The County Commissioners shall prescribe and furnish annually to the County Treasurer to accompany the license certificates, metal tags to be issued as herein provided. Such tags shall be of different shape each year, not over one inch in size and on one side shall bear the name of the County, number of the corresponding certificate, the words "Dog License", and the year of issue underneath.

Only one tag shall be issued for one individual dog or one kennel license and no tag shall ever be transferred from one dog to another dog or from one kennel to another kennel. Excepting as provided under Section 2 (c) hereof, governing kennel license, no dog shall be permitted to be at large without wearing a collar or harness with its individual license tag attached thereto and no person, except the owner of a dog or his duly authorized agent, shall remove such tag from a dog unless such removal be necessary because of accident or injury to the dog, or to permit hunting dogs to pursue game during hunting or training seasons.

H. Seizure and Disposition of Unlicensed or Untagged Dogs

A Dog Warden or other duly authorized officer shall seize any unlicensed dog. Every dog so seized shall be properly cared for and fed at the expense of the County until disposition is made thereof as hereinafter directed. Provided, however, that said officers shall not be required to take to a pound or shelter any dog suffering from serious injury or wounds or from contagious or infectious diseases, and they are hereby given full authority in their sole discretion immediately to dispose of such afflicted dogs in the most humane manner possible under the circumstances.

The owner of any dog seized as above provided may redeem it from the Warden or Dog Pound within 96 hours from the time of its apprehension by presenting current license certificate and tag and paying a pickup charge of Two Dollars ($2.00), and the board bill at the rate of One Dollar ($1.00) per day for the time the dog is held at a duly established public pound or shelter.

If not so redeemed within the time stated or while it is still being held and not actually sold or otherwise disposed of by the Warden, it shall be the duty of the said Warden to dispose of said dog either by sale to any person wishing to adopt it, or by destruction in the most humane manner possible. Provided, however, that the Warden shall not release to an owner a dog that is known to be vicious, or one having an infectious or contagious disease; the same shall be forthwith destroyed; with the exception that if any such dog is suspected of having rabies it shall be held for a period of at least ten days for observation before it is destroyed or otherwise disposed of.

It shall be the duty of the Warden upon learning of a dog being suspected of rabies immediately to investigate the case, confer with the owner, and if in the Warden's judgment or the judgment of any licensed veterinarian called in consultation there is reasonable ground to believe the dog may have rabies, he shall immediately impound the dog at the owner's home if satisfactory facilities are available, or at a public pound or shelter, and keep it completely isolated from all persons and animals for a period of at least ten days; and if at the end of the period of observation the dog seems fully recovered of its malady or shows that it has no further symptoms of rabies, the Warden shall then release the dog to its owner who shall be liable for the board bill for said dog at One Dollar ($1.00) per day for the period of its detention at any public pound or shelter.

I. Disposition of Dead Dogs

The owner of any dog which has died from disease or any other cause shall forthwith provide for the cremation or burial of same. If he fails to do so, a justice of the peace or police officer, after notice to said owner, shall direct the Warden to dispose of the carcass, for which service the said justice of the peace shall require the owner to pay to the County the sum of Two Dollars ($2.00) in full settlement for the services rendered, after a hearing before the Trial Magistrate.

If the owner of any dead dog is not known and after inquiry cannot be found, the Warden shall dispose of said carcass by cremation or burial.

3. DOG POUND OR SHELTER

The County Commissioners may provide for the construction of a dog pound or shelter, or may contract with Carroll County Humane Society, Inc., or any other competent agency, for the use of a suitable dog pound or shelter, to which every dog seized in accordance with the provisions of these regulations shall be taken and cared for at the expense of the County.

The provisions of Sections 191 to 199, inclusive, of Article 56 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (1957 Edition) shall be rigidly enforced in Carroll County and it shall be the duty of the Dog Wardens as well as other public officers charged with responsibility by said statutes to effect such enforcement.

5. SEVERABILITY

If any section or part of a section of the above adopted Rules and Regulations is held by any Court to be invalid or unconstitutional, the same shall not invalidate or impair the validity, force and effect of any other section or part of a section of these Rules and Regulations, unless it clearly appears that such section or part of a section is wholly or necessarily dependent for its operation upon the section or part of a section so held invalid or unconstitutional.

Passed and dated at Westminster, Maryland, this first day of June, 1959.

A Strong Country

Lesson for June 21, 1959

THE STORY of King Jehoshaphat in the Bible gives us a valuable illustration of what a "strong country" or nation is, and also how the various parts of institutions of a country support one another. When the words "strong" or "weak" are used of nations today, the meaning usually is a military one. A strong nation is one that would be likely to win a war if it got into one. Now the kingdom of Judah, which had been pretty weak, revived its military strength under Jehoshaphat's leadership. He reorganized the army itself and also rebuilt the fortresses that guarded the strategic points in Judah. But there were other nations which were even stronger from a military view, and they did not outlast little Judah. There were other forms of strength in that nation.

Support of Education

In those days there were no colleges, no schools in our sense of the word. Most of what we now teach in school was still unknown; we would call that civilization "barbaric" if it existed today. Nevertheless, even bookless people need education. King Jehoshaphat saw to it that the schools went to the people. He routed the priests, Levites and princes out of the capital city where most of them seem to have gone, and sent them around the country to teach the people where they lived. We can observe similar movements today in the village schools of India or the folk-schools of Denmark. Many Americans seem to think you can't have real education without big expensive plants (including gymnasiums bigger than anything else); but where countries are small and poor, as Jehoshaphat's was by our standards, you have to do something simpler.

Support of the Courts

King Jehoshaphat knew that even an educated and well-church-ed nation needs good courts. His strong charge to the judges he appointed is still as good as new. (Incidentally, we note that he saw to it that every town had a court. If courts are not available, if they are too far and too few, you get the "west-of-the-Pecos" stuff, which is really not law at all.) The king advised the judges to make their decisions in the fear of God, not of men. Courts which make only such decisions as they know will be popular are basically unfair. A court must not ask: Will everybody like this? but is this fair and just in the sight of God? Furthermore, the king warned those judges against partiality, or taking bribes. "Peddlers of influence" were a nuisance in those days as well as these. A court or a judge that can be bought, a lawyer who thinks only of his fee and his fame, are obstructions to justice. Some one has said that the whole purpose of the law is to protect the weak from the strong. And when courts are too weak to do that, the whole country slides into weakness and decay.

Support of the Church

Little if anything is said about organized religion in Jehoshaphat's time. We may assume that the temple worship was going on, and we know the king suppressed many of the local shrines or "high places" as they were called. The trouble with those "high places" was that they tended to get off the track and actually become centers of idol-worship, sometimes of a repulsive sort. But the significant thing about this king's attitude to religion was that he expected it to push out into the other institutions of society. When his army was in a tight place, he prayed, "We do not know what to do, but our eyes are upon Thee." He reminded his judges that God was their Judge. He sent both priests and Levites out to teach. It takes not only a strong army, strong educational institutions and strong courts to make a strong nation; a strong religion is needed as the base of it all. But the strength of a nation's faith is not shown in its far-flung organizations nor in the number attending public worship. The test of a nation's professed religion was then and is now: Does it work out into the country's whole life?

SHORT STORY

Dedicated Aviator

By Allen Wishert

THE tiny Hummingbird is a bundle of T. N. T. Jet propelled rocket-ship and H-bomb are combined within its small frame. It can rout any bird twenty times its size with a rapier-like bill and jet diving speed.

Bill Chandler watched from the window as the little fellow artfully executed maneuvers with the speed of light, darting from flower to flower. Bill wished he was so equipped, making it possible for him to dart, not from flower to flower, but from girl to girl. However, he loved Janice too well to really consider any such movement. He hadn't twenty, only one to fight.

As for pretty Janice Lawton, she had been so petted and spoiled that she expected everybody, Bill included, to Rock and Roll whenever she mentioned a number. But Bill, who had loved Janice ever since they were big enough to make mud-pie's together, was too proud and a little too stubborn to let her run his life.

Bill knew her main reason, although engaged, she had been seen with that well-to-do city fellow,

The landing gear froze as he hit the runway.

George Wallace, who had taken abode in the village awhile ago.

The night of their break-up, the conversation went something like this:

"Janice, why are you so suddenly objecting to my work?"

"It is dangerous, for one thing. Beside I want to look forward to more than just being an aviator's wife."

"When we became engaged you knew I was an aviator. What brought on the sudden change?"

"I—I suppose," Janice faltered . . . "because lately I've been meeting successful people, like George Wallace. I've stepped into another world, and I must keep stepping."

Bill took the cue. He stepped out of the picture.

Nevertheless, as the days passed, Janice hoped that Bill would make some sort of an overture for a reconciliation, but he remained as silent as a church mouse.

Three weeks from that fateful night, Bill was flying into port, the landing gear froze as he hit the runway, the plane swerved and fell on its side. It didn't crack-up, nor was there any fire, but when they hauled Bill from the cabin his left leg was broken.

An hour later, upon receiving news of the accident, Janice rushed to her mother.

"Mother," she sobbed, "I've just got to go to Bill."

"Very well, dear," replied her mother. "But take into consideration; Mr. Wallace may not approve."

"Then he can disapprove," said Janice briskly. "No man is going to run my life."

When she arrived at the hospital, a nurse indicated the white bed on which Bill was half asleep, his leg hoisted and held in position by weights.

She weaved her way around other white beds and stood over him.

"Ha!" he exclaimed, breathing laboriously. "Strange what a fellow see's when delirious."

Janice sobbingly, leaned over and kissed his lips.

"Gee-ma-nettie," he muttered, a smile was in the making. "That seemed real."

"Darling," quavered Janice. "It was real, really real."

"Then unreal another one." The smile had reached its peak.

Janice obeyed, joyfully.

"Oh, Bill, I didn't think I wanted to marry a flyer, but a little bird kept telling me I couldn't love anybody but you."

"That same little bird has been humming and jet-diving around my ears and heart, too. Listen, honey, shut off the water works and kiss me again."

Again Janice submitted to authority.

"Soon as they unwrap this left hind leg of mine we'll be married. Will I still be flying?"

"Always," blurted Janice. "I've wanted to be the wife of an aviator."
