Daddies and Laddies

Oh, the world is filled with daddies—
Not a place but has its share;
And they're loved by the little laddies,
Here and there and everywhere;
And each little laddie's daddy
Thinks him better than the rest,
And each daddy's little laddie
Loves his own dear daddy best.
And there are so many daddies,
Plain and handsome, poor and rich,
'Tis a wonder little laddies
Can distinguish which from which.
But at picking out his daddy
All the laddies stand the test.
For each daddy's little laddie
Loves his own dear daddy best.

—Dennis McCarthy.

RURAL WOMEN'S SHORT COURSE

Being Held at University of Maryland June 20th to 25th

Maryland homemakers attending Rural Women's Short Course on the University of Maryland campus, June 20-25 will spend one of their evenings with 4-H Club members. They'll see Maryland 4-H'ers in a program of unusual interest and variety.

Vera Mae Ernst and her brother, Calton, Washington County, take lead roles in a program designed to show how young people Learn, Live and Serve through 4-H Club projects and activities, according to Charlotte Conaway, assistant State 4-H Club agent.

A chorus composed of 4-H members from several Maryland counties and a square dance group from Howard County will give a light touch to the evenings program.

Club members taking part in the program have received training through pageants presented at State 4-H Club week.

Written by Mrs. Billie Marie Howes, the program shows the development of the 4-H boy and girl through projects, activities and the inspiration and guidance of the local leader.

Mrs. Howes, wife of the Massachusetts state 4-H Club leader, is directing the presentation on June 23 at 8 p. m. in the University of Maryland Armory.

The author and director of this program for Rural Women's Short Course is well acquainted with 4-H Clubs. She has staged seven pageants during State 4-H Club Week at the University of Maryland.

She is able to inspire young people to give their best because she is inspired by young people.

Mrs. Howes says, "We sincerely believe that every young person has within him a bit of showmanship of make believe. When he once releases this to help others put over an idea, he will never be able to hold it down so tightly again."

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawn.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

"Life with Father", "Bringing Up Father", "Father Knows Best" and much else has been said and written about FATHER! And just as Mother's Day, these last few years we have had a "Father's Day" and that is just how it should be all the way and I think you know just what I mean.

It has always been so odd and strange to me why many individuals feel and think that Father does not possess the feeling that Mother does. A Father takes it all out in thinking and is truly more emotionally upset way down deep inside than we realize. I have seen so many cases almost an every day affair where something happens in a family and the head of the house is grinding his teeth and worried sick. Why do you think so many men have heart attacks? It is mainly due to the worry, anxiety and much else

CURRENT EVENTS
FIFTY YEARS AGO

The wheat and rye in this section looks fine, but the grass and corn are short, but healthy. Clover is especially short, while timothy with a favorable season, will yet yield a fair crop.

The Taneytown Savings Bank is to be extensively remodeled, in the near future. The front of the building will be changed, and the interior fitted with new oak counters and furniture, so arranged as to be more sightly and convenient than at present. A concrete pavement will also be put down in front of both Bank and drug store.

Mr. R. S. McKinney attended the annual meeting of the State Pharmaceutical Association, held in Baltimore this week.

The "real thing" in street cleaning was performed on Thursday, by most of the property owners, on Baltimore St. The mud was scraped off down to solid bed and carted away. The good work started at the square and was contagious continuing almost without a break to the railroad, the result being a street cleaner than for years.

Mrs. Mary A. R. Bishop died at the home of Mr. Samuel Harner, this district on Sunday evening in her 91st year. Funeral services were held at the Lutheran church on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Bishop was one of the oldest persons in this section. She leaves several children, among whom are Samuel Bishop near Taneytown and Henry Clay Bishop, near Harney.

Grinder-Hooper.—On June 11th, 1910 at Union Bridge, Md., by Rev. E. W. Stoner, Mr. Claude V. Grinder and Miss Lula W. Hooper, of Franklinville were married.

Frizellburg.—The County School Board has men at work covering the public school house here with Carey roofing. Frank Hailey and his workmen who are engaged in putting it on say it will make a substantial covering.—Our saddler, Howard Dern is having his shop painted this week, giving it a more progressive appearance.—While playing ball at his home Master Glenn, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Warehime, accidentally fell and broke the bone of his left leg between the knee and thigh. Dr. Luther Kemp adjusted the break and the boy is on his way to recovery.

OHLER REUNION

Annapolis mother reports
telephone saves $22⁵⁴ and 32 hours in two weeks...prevents destruction of neighbor's wooded land

Mrs. Whitmore talks to her husband who called to ask if she needs anything from town.

We recently asked Mrs. John Whitmore to keep a two-week "diary" of her family's telephone calls—estimating the amount of time, money and traveling, if any, each call saved.

Mrs. Whitmore has a teen-age daughter, Betsy; is active in her community PTA and serves as president of a 160-member women's club, the Severn Town Club, in Annapolis.

She found that the telephone saved 32 valuable hours and $22.54 in expense, including the cost and trouble of 269 miles they did not have to travel.

But Mrs. Whitmore says, "While the time and money our telephone saves are important, the job it does is often more important. For instance, one call was to a neighbor across the lake—to tell him we could see what looked like a fire in his woods. It was a fire—and required three companies to bring it under control. How can one estimate savings on that item?"

If you should ever keep a telephone diary, we think you, too, would find that your telephone pays for itself many times over—not only in money it saves but in pleasure and usefulness.

A VOICE FROM CARROLL

The strawberry season was at its peak here in Carroll County last week and many gardeners with just two rows of plants found themselves deluged with the fruit. A fitting song title could be echoed from garden to garden with the words "Meet Me In My Strawberry Patch and Bring Your Ice-Cream Freezer Along." This was one year when the members of our family had enough strawberries. We finally invited some friends in for "A pick them yourselves" party. It proved to be very popular as the friends were from the city and the first time they were ever turned loose in a strawberry patch. This taste of country living was just too much for them for now they are in the market for a small farm just to raise berries. We hated to put a damper on their enthusiasm by telling them about the many hours of back-breaking toil it took to produce the strawberries they picked in one afternoon. We thought it would be more fun to let them find out all by themselves.

The members and friends of the Carroll County Historical Society will be guests of Woolery's district when they meet in the Dutch Picnic Grove at 6:30, June 23, with each person bringing his own box supper. Immediately following supper a meeting will be held nearby in the Social Hall of Trinity Lutheran Church, at which time Eugene Ensor and George Magin and his sons will describe the culture, distilling and marketing of wormseed oil. Carroll County is internationally famous for having the highest rating in the world for this product which grows exclusively in Woolery's district. Mr. Ensor and members of the Pomona Grange have presented the Historical Society with a replica of the George W. Magin wormseed still. The Historical House current exhibit is a collection of compasses loaned to the Society by J. Harry Koller.

Do you believe that faith is what you go on when you don't know? Someone asked me this question and I had no answer, but I have been thinking about it ever since. So far, the answer still eludes me.

It's illegal to hire a youth under 18 to operate a power lawn mower in Kentucky. A state law forbids employment of minors to operate hazardous power-driven machinery. Well, we have never understood the reasoning of southerners. They allow their children to marry at 14 and then drink moonshine liquor at any age but then turn around and protect them from machinery or is it really work they are protecting them from and not danger?

Charles H. Minsch of Uniontown received a degree from Wesley Methodist Seminary last week, of bachelor of sacred theology. He is the father of eight children and has served as student minister for three Methodist churches in and near Uniontown, for the past two years. He plans to return to Kansas in the near future.

Thrift is a wonderful thing... and who hasn't wished that his ancestors had practised it more.

Miss Nancy Roelke left Friday for Ocean City, Maryland where she has accepted a job at Hotel Rideau for the summer.

In one week, everyone will have a special opportunity and a special urge to show how much they appreciate father, because Sunday, June 19th is Father's Day. Whether you give him a jaunty sports car or a bucking lawnmower the idea is to let him know that he is important and that you are fond of him. What ever you do flatter his masculine vanity and his manly ego. Fathers need flattery and they love being fussed over though they will deny it. They like being the center of attention for one day, so spread it on. One of the American women's short comings is the shabby way they often treat the men in their lives which include fathers. Sentimentality and fathering isn't a woman's exclusive right. Men often starve for these two emotions too. So make Dad happy and let him know he is the greatest guy living and the most important one in your life.

The faculty and student body of Frostburg State Teacher's College went on record last week as opposing a plan to make the school a branch of the University of Maryland. The other two teacher's colleges located at Salisbury and Towson also oppose the move.

If you don't get what you want it is a sign either that you seriously did not want it, or that you tried to bargain over the price. Kipling

There is a perfume in the evening air these June nights made up of honeysuckle, rose petals and freshly cut hay that defies all description. It intoxicates the senses and brings to memory the dreams and romances of bygone years. It refreshes the soul and stimulates the mind into believing that the world is a wonderful place to live and all that is in it is good, kind and beautiful. The smell of June is like a bewitching potion that can change the ordinary into something grand and overpowering. No wonder June is the month that sets the mood for the rest of the summer to follow, and no wonder July and August don't come up to full expectation for June is perfect and who or what can match perfection.

Our cat just presented us with three kittens. Two are beige color and one is tiger striped. If anyone would like one as a pet please call in about three weeks when they will be old enough to leave their mother.

Plattery will get you some where... so start talking.

Meeting of the Carroll County Planning & Zoning Commission

The Carroll County Planning Commission met on Friday, June 10 for purposes of fully discussing an interim zoning ordinance for the County. While the draft being discussed limited some zoning control to set-back lines for all buildings, Board of Appeals approval for junk yards, airports, race tracks, rifle ranges and trailer camps, members of the Planning Commission felt that additional uses should be considered as objectionable in type.

Accordingly, Commission members Miller Richardson, Russell Royer, Clarence H. Shaw, J. Randolph Shilling, and Charles W. Saylor agreed to review prior to the July meeting a detailed list of possible uses which may be injurious to the County without some control as to location. From out list additional uses to those considered above might be included in a final review.

While the matter of temporary zoning protection has been determined advisable by the Commission, any proposals will be presented to the many county organizations and the general public before the Board of County Commissioners receive any recommendations from the Planning Commission.

Bible Study Program Champion

For the first time in the 8 year quizzing history of Hampstead, (Md.) Youth for Christ, a fellow has successfully quoted the New Testament books selected for the international teenage Bible study program, sponsored by Youth for Christ International. Larry Martin son of a Hampstead roofing contractor, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Martin, has quoted with word-for-word accuracy eight New Testament Epistles in less than two hours to Mrs. Earl W. Schultz, Sr., official listener. To be eligible for the award, quoting had to be done in blocks of at least five chapters, with word-perfect-accuracy and without assistance. This extra study has not prevented the 16 year old junior from being a good academic student at the North

Larry Martin, North Carroll junior, smiles after quoting 30 chapters of the New Testament as part of the Hampstead (Md.) YFC Bible quiz program.

Carroll High School in Carroll County, or from being an outstanding school athlete and member of several County championship teams.

Larry also works part time and is very active in his own church, where he normally attends six meetings each Sunday.

He is now competing for a position on the six-man team that will represent the local rally at the Eastern Regional playoffs held at Ocean City, N. J., June 23-30. National finals are held at Winona Lake, Ind. in July. The national winners will attend the YFC Congress in Bristol in August. As the result of quoting the entire 30 chapters, he will not only be awarded by $250, prize but also a $100. bonus. This money, applicable only for further Bible training, will be deposited to Larry's account in the Hampstead educational fund for future use.

This award system may be among the most unique in the Nation. It was originated by the Hampstead rally six years ago to encourage Bible memorization among teenagers. Since 1955 local quizzers have earned more than $3200., half of which has already been utilized by those who are now enrolled in colleges across the nation. This money is raised by gifts from rally teenagers and adults.

Twice during the eight years that Hampstead YFC has participated in the Bible quiz program, it has produced the Eastern Regional Bible championship team which in 1955 and 1956 represented the East in the national finals at Winona Lake, Ind. More than 2000 teams were entered in the international competition last year.

Food For Thought

The last quarter of a century has seen a decline of more than 30 percent in the mortality rate in the United States. The sharpest decline began about 1940 with the introduction of the newer anti-infectives.

In 1940, 7,000 children died from whooping cough; last year, 310. The difference? Prescription drugs! Mass production of poliomyelitis vaccine has made possible an 85 percent decrease in the number of new cases!

In 1946, 16,000 Americans were stricken with diphtheria; in 1959, fewer than 1,000!

In 1945, more than 50,000 persons died of tuberculosis; today, with new drugs, the death rate is down 75 percent!

YOU LIVE LONGER—CHIEFLY BECAUSE OF THE NEW DRUGS STOCKED IN YOUR PHARMACY. Ten years have been added to the average lifetime in the last thirty years!

Same as Father

There are little eyes upon you. And they're watching night and day. There are little ears that quickly take in every word you say; There are little hands all eager To do everything you do. And a little boy who's dreaming Of the day he'll be like you. You're the little fellow's idol, You're the wisest of the wise, In his little mind about you No suspicions ever rise; He believes in your devotedly, Hold that all you say and do. He will say and do in your way When he's grown up just like you. There's a wide-eyed little fellow Who believes you're always right, And his ears are always open, And he watches day and night. You are setting an example Every day in all you do For the little boy who's waiting To grow up to be like you.

Caramel-Chocolate Cookie Treat!

The dessert problem is more than half solved when you've a batch of homemade cookies at hand, to team up with a fruit in season, with ice cream or with a combination of the two. Both caramel and chocolate chips are used in these chewy drop cookies, with coconut and cereal adding flavor and texture.

Caramel-Chocolate-Coconut Chews
¼ cup chocolate chips
¼ cup caramel chips
2-¼ cups corn flakes (well packed but not crushed)
½ cup flaked coconut
¼ cup sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine chocolate chips, caramel chips, cereal, coconut, and sugar. Mix well. Then add eggs and vanilla and mix well. Let stand 5 minutes. Drop by teaspoonsful onto greased and floured baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Remove from baking sheet immediately. (If cookies begin to stick, hold baking sheet over direct heat for a few seconds.) Makes about 3 dozen cookies.

Chocolate Flavors Milk Coolers

For warm weather refreshments, nourishing milk beverages are favorites with all members of the family, from the youngsters to grandparents.

Since chocolate is a favorite flavor of milk drinks, there is great interest in the new instant Dutch chocolate flavored mix which blends instantly and easily with hot or cold milk. It is vitamin-mineral fortified with Vitamins B1, B2, D and iron, and is made entirely of imported Dutch cocoa.

A delicious pick-up in warm weather is a tall icy cold glass of milk in which two heaping teaspoonsful of instant Dutch chocolate flavored mix have been stirred. For variety, a scoop of ice cream may be added, or a dash of mint, almond or vanilla flavoring. For example, Dutch Mint Cooler is a delightful accompaniment to cookies for snack time.

Dutch Mint Cooler
(Makes 4 (8-ounce servings))
1 quart milk
½ to 1 teaspoon mint extract
1 cup Borden's instant Dutch flavored chocolate mix

Dissolve Borden's instant Dutch chocolate flavored mix in milk. Stir in mint extract. Pour into serving glasses. Garnish with whipped cream. Serve immediately.

Chicken For Hearty Appetites On Father's Day June 19

Chicken Imperial, the 1959 grand national prize-winning chicken recipe in the National Chicken Cooking Contest, was named by the Father's Day Council as the official dish for Father's Day, June 19. Selection of the official chicken recipe was made by the Home Economists of the Poultry and Egg National Board, Chicago.

Tender, young broiler-fryers are used for this appetizing dish. Cut into halves, the chickens are oven-baked until crisp and golden in a tantalizing sauce, gently spiced with curry, oregano, mustard, garlic and paprika.

Should the weather permit your moving outdoors for your Father's Day dinner, you'll find that "Chicken Imperial" makes a fine picnic fare. Serve the chicken piping hot, accompanied with shoestring potatoes and a large salad of crisp greens with tomato wedges. Lemon-meringue pie with mugs of steaming hot coffee provides a fine finish to Father's Day dinner served indoors or out.

Chicken Imperial Father's Day Style

|--|---------------------------------|
| 2 broiler-fryers, 2½ to 3 lb. each, halved | 1 to 2 teaspoons curry powder |

| ¼ cup butter or margarine, melted | ½ teaspoon dry mustard |
| 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce | ½ teaspoon garlic powder |
| | ½ teaspoon paprika |
| | 2 or 3 dashes Tabasco sauce |
| | ¼ cup chicken bouillon or broth |

Season chicken halves with the salt. Place in shallow baking pan skin side down. Prepare basting sauce by blending the remaining ingredients. Brush chicken with this sauce. HOW TO KEEP A SPOTLESS KITCHEN

It's been said that the kitchen is the hub of the home. Today's busy housewife will certainly agree. She can wash, iron, cook, serve meals, even talk on the telephone—all without moving more than a few steps around her well-designed kitchen. Because so much of her family's life is centered here, the modern mistress of the mansion takes particular care to keep her kitchen hygienically clean and shining bright.

Here's how she does it. After each meal, she'll wash and put away all the dishes, scrub the sink and sweep the floor. At regular intervals, she'll clean the inside of her refrigerator with a baking soda solution, and use a disinfectant in the soapy water when she mops the kitchen floor. Dishcloths and towels are always spread out to dry after use, and are laundered frequently in a good detergent.

The careful homemaker will also take steps to prevent the invasion of her kitchen by insect pests. Keeping sugar bowls, flour canisters, and all food containers tightly closed is of prime importance, as well as clearing away any crumbs or spilt food that may attract the bugs. Whenever necessary, she'll spray all cracks and crevices under the sink and along baseboards with a reliable insecticide, such as Black Flag's Ant and Roach Killer. Available in a push-button pressure pack can, this is a residual spray which contains Dieldrin and Malathion as the primary active ingredients. Its killing power lasts for weeks, and it has been proven the housewife's best defense against ants, roaches and all crawling insects.

Air Conditioning Today Keeps Doctor Away

Summer comfort is merely a bonus in an air-conditioned home, say families who have cooling systems.

The real benefit is better summertime physical and mental health.

Air conditioning eliminates summer slump in appetites for the entire family. A cool kitchen makes cooking hot, nutritious meals a joy instead of a chore. The oven comes into use more often, and it's the pastry that bakes, not the cook.

Controlled temperatures and humidity, plus clean, filtered air provide relief for victims of asthma, hay fever, heart trouble, and heat rash. Clean air, minus pollen, dust, soot, and the germs that often accompany them, helps cut down respiratory illnesses.

Better appetites, better sleep, and the comfort of cool, even temperatures inside the house make heat-wave irritability a thing of the past. Summer-long family relations are happier.

Today, the average family can afford the benefits of air conditioning. In a clean, dust-free house laundry and cleaning bills are lower, and furniture upholstery stays cleaner. Better health means lower doctor bills, and less need for expensive drugs and medicines. These savings help greatly to offset the cost of operating a cooling system.

Most important to air conditioning economy and efficiency is proper insulation to keep summer heat out of the house. Mineral wool installed in recommended quantities in wall, ceilings, and floors cut both the cost of the cooling equipment need and expense of operation.

A further benefit of insulation is a reduction in the cost of winter heating fuel, and a healthier, draft-free house in cold weather.

Good Fruits

Lesson for June 19, 1960

CHRISTIANITY is not an impossible religion. Some people think it is, but they don't understand it. Two very common mistakes are made at this point. One is to think that Christianity is essentially a set of dogmas, a creed too complicated to understand. Now of course, if you are going to talk about God, you are sure to strike mysteries sooner or later, in the nature of God. God cannot be put into words. But Christianity is not words, though it has words. Christ did not choose his first followers for their theological skills. The other mistake is to think that Christianity consists of the perfect performance of very difficult deeds. And since all of us who are honest must confess that our deeds are not terribly difficult and we do not do them with spectacular success (to say the least of it)—and so we are inclined to give up Christianity, because it's "not possible."

What you can't see

The truth is, Christianity is neither ideas you can't grasp nor deeds you can't do. Nevertheless, Christianity is concerned both with ideas and with acts. In the Sermon on the Mount Jesus concentrates on acts: actions and habits, but also motives, for motives are part of every action. He speaks of them plainly, and also poetically. His figure of speech is "fruits." He mentions false prophets, and offers a simple way of telling a false prophet from a true one. "By their fruits you shall know them," he says. We must bear in mind that Jesus did not say, "By their fruits God knows them." God's wisdom sees into the hearts of all women and men, sifting the bad from the good. We ourselves can never fully explore one another's hearts. Indeed, who of us can fully explore his own heart? Who knows the full truth about his own motives, desires, disposition? When grain first comes out of the ground, a tiny green shoot, only an expert can tell whether this is wheat (say) or rye. It all looks alike to the city man dashing through the country. But when harvest time comes only a very unobservant city visitor could mistake wheat for rye.

What you can see

It is we human beings who need to see the fruits before we can tell about the plant, be it grain or tree. Kindly observe how practical Jesus is. He talks of "good fruit," not "perfect fruit." Some odd thinkers have thought that Christ, in the Sermon on the Mount, was doing his best to discourage us, to show that the Christian life is impossible. On the contrary, doesn't it sound as if Jesus were trying to encourage us? He assumes that people admire good fruit, and that there can be good fruit in their lives. Let us put that into non-poetic language. Jesus teaches here that all men understand what good actions are, that all men prefer—in others at least! good actions; and that we can tell whether a man is good by watching what he does. To make all this perfectly plain, Jesus draws a sort of picture of the Last Judgment. Some persons who have been quite "orthodox"—that is, they always gave him the high title of Lord—will miss eternal life, because their lives show no fruits that can be called good. Right opinions never make up for wrong actions.

Not for credit

Jesus had little use, on the other hand, for people who were all wrapped up, so to speak, in their own good deeds; people who called attention to themselves and considered themselves better than others; people who want to be sure God notices their good actions so that they will receive proper credit. In Matthew 25 Jesus draws a picture of the Last Judgment which shows the kind of good deed which God finally rewards. The people who will stand at Christ's right hand are those who have done good as well as been good; but what kind of good? Unconscious acts, that is, acts which come out of a person's real character rather than being undertaken as a demonstration of one's own righteousness. Unselfish acts too; doing yourself a good turn (and how slick we are at it!) is not Christ's idea of good fruit.

THE MAN GOD PLANNED

We develop Spiritually according to one great plan—
(God's way to make a god of every man);
So, the physical man is only the beginning, I find,
Of the wonderful creature God has in mind.

The human cycle for earth is one billion years long;
Since it started, there has been many a theory;
But, the man we see is only the beginning I find
Of the man who was planned in creative mind.

When the natural man finds his unfoldment here
He is ready to enter the next cycle, I hear;
It is then, according to God's great plans;
That he shall imitate Jesus and be a Christ man.

But, before the advent of that promised day,
He must make many visits to Earth, they say,
For, to be like God, like Jesus he must be
Else we could not call him a deity.

So, the natural man is only the beginning, I find
Of the man planned by creative mind;
Through countless incarnations he must go—
He must be made perfect here below?

Jesus was the first man of earth's cycle they say,
So we all must learn to be like Him some day;
That event took place one billion years ago;
So, man's progress, here on earth, seems slow.

Jesus immortalized His body; and said: "Follow Me"
I will be your guide through eternity;
Sin brought death to man's body, they say;
So to emulate Jesus, is our only way.

As you study the doctrine of Jesus, you shall find
That the body is included as well as mind;
Mind makes man what God wants him to be
But the body shall play a big part in Eternity.

Jesus said: "The Father and I are one";
And, you can say the same—yours, too, are His Son;
But, man never starts in God's likeness to grow;
Till some of life's secret he learns to know.

So, when man becomes perfect he shall be
Like Jesus, who once lived in Galilee;
He commanded the winds, walked on the sea;
And the same power is promised to you and me.

Then, let us all rejoice; and follow the plan,
Which God has made for every man;
For, God is a Spirit Being; and, so are we;
And, with Him we shall spend Eternity.

For 33 years, Jesus was the "Light of the world";
Every place He went, God's flag was unfurled;
And, that exactly, how God wants us to be
For, we are all a part of His Great family.

Jesus Himself, also said: "I Am the Way";
So, why listen to men; and do as they say;
God sent Him to earth to tell of His plan
To make the whole earth a heaven for man.

The way Jesus listened to God, we all can see;
Like a Father to Him, God seemed to be;
No matter what He asked, God helped Him to do—
(That, too, was a lesson for me and you?)

This beautiful earth of ours shall some day be
The Paradise Home of both you and me;
But, we must learn to know God; and go His way,
Before we shall see the dawn of the endless day.

King-For-A-Day Cake!

Make a cake for Dad's Day! Make it a "king" for Dad the "ruler" of the household. Frost a round cake made with a mix and sprinkle with chocolate-coated flaked coconut—leaving a "part" in the middle of those glossy tresses! To prepare coconut: melt a package of sweet cooking chocolate and mix in a can of flaked coconut, toasted. Spread on cookie sheet, separating flakes with a fork. Chill.

Other Decorations: (1) Dad's "face" is a round pan or box for the cake to rest on. Cover it with pale pink paper and make pink paper ears... fastening them on with Scotch tape. Make features with colored pencils; or cut from colored paper and paste on. (2) The crown is cut from gold paper and fastened with tape. (3) The bow tie would make a fine Father's Day gift.

You'll need: a round cake made with a mix
a can of Angel Flake Coconut a package of sweet cooking chocolate
