ANOTHER STATEMENT REGARDING THE TANEYTOWN SCHOOL SITUATION

What a disappointing day for Taneytown when on July 19 the Carroll County Board of Education acted to defer further consideration to our request for additional facilities at the Taneytown Elementary School. The citizens of Taneytown have paid substantial sums for new Senior High Schools in all other parts of the County and we must continue to fight for an eight room addition to our elementary school which would be completely filled within a few years. What other action did the board take? That they will transfer out of our district and send our elementary children to Union Bridge and perhaps to Uniontown. We have been fighting to block any transfers from our schools and we continue to be ignored. What a sorry day for our County School system when parents will rebel against such transfers.

It is easy to recognize that the members of the Board of Education do not care whether they serve the interests of the people. Surely the concern of the citizens of Taneytown was not duly weighed. If the members of the Board of Education had to depend upon a general election by the people whom they serve, surely all districts would be treated fairly in the educational facilities provided for all the children of our county. What a disgrace to Taneytown to deliberately take away elementary students when the Board agrees that our High School should be larger. How can it grow when its blood is being drained away. Soon it will shrivel and gradually our Senior High School will be pulled away. Who can blame us for rising to the occasion and strenuously making our objections known? We realize the Board of Education is not the highest appealing body and we will continue to fight for that which we justly deserve. We ask our people to band together regardless of political affiliation and work toward a common goal. "To educate our children from our own district, in our own schools, in our own town, for which our taxes are assessed and for which they are paid."

All were requested to assist in serving of banquet with Mary Ridinger as chairman of the kitchen and Louise Strickhouser and Thelma Mummert as Co-chairmen of Dining Room. At a previous meeting the Aux. had as their guest the past and newly elected officers of the Carroll County Aux. THE ORIOLES COME TO TANEYTOWN

Monday, July 25th was Oriole Day in Taneytown—Marking the culmination of weeks of planning between Bird officials and interested persons in Taneytown. The two men largely responsible for making it possible for the citizens of Taneytown to rub elbows with the popular Birds are Mayor Raymond Perry and Mr. George W. Crouse. These two public spirited men deserve a sincere vote of thanks. Of course, there were innumerable others who gave unselfishly of their time and money to make the visit possible. The Taneytown Rod and Gun Club and The American Legion are two organizations whose efforts contributed considerably to the successful entertainment of the Orioles. Not to be forgotten is Mr. John Hottinger president of the PTA, through whose efforts we had the services of the Taneytown High School Band to lead the Bird parade through Taneytown. Your writer could go on naming names and giving credit lines for column after column but that is, of course, impossible. It is hoped that everyone who assisted in this fine endeavor will bask in their own little warm glow for having assisted in bringing a moment of happiness to the young and old of our fine community.

The Birds arrived in Taneytown something before 4 P. M. They were escorted in motorcade, by State Trooper Lee Dedman, to the Rod and Gun Club where they were entertained by a reception committee until about 5 P. M. While there they particularly enjoyed trap shooting which was supervised by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and Mr. Charles Anders. It might be noted that the Birds and the Lady Birds were awe struck by the beauty of the Rod and Gun Club grounds.

At 5 P. M. the Birds were taken to Taney Inn, being met outside by a tremendous delegation from the Frederick-Carroll Midget League. Your writer has been informed five teams were present—two teams from Union Bridge who are known as the Orioles and Braves—two teams from Taneytown who are known as the Cubs and Cards and the Woodsboro team. Inside, representatives of the various organizations joined the Birds in a sumptuous repast that would delight the palate of the most discriminating gourmet. Mr. Tom Albaugh and his capable staff are to be congratulated.

After dinner, about 6 P. M. the Bird Parade, led by the Taneytown High School Band and the Frederick-Carroll Midget League Teams proceeded to Taneytown Memorial Park. At the Park numerous autographs were signed by the Birds. The following players and their wives were introduced to the large gathering there: Jerry Walker and wife, Gordon Jones and wife, David Nicholson and wife, Hoyt Wilhelm and wife, Jackie Brant and wife, Marv Breeding, his wife and his wife's sister, Billy Hoft and wife, Gene Stevens and wife, Skinny Brown and wife, Jim Gentile and wife, Brooks Robison, Chuck Estrada, Ronnie Hansen, Steve Barber and Bat Boy Billy Little. The introductions were made by Mr. Robert N. Winsett, of Westminster, Publicity man for various organizations. Mr. Winsett had been instrumental in arranging the Birds visit and assisted in the supervision of the days activities.

After the introduction the Birds watched the beginning of the ball game between the Taneytown and Woodsboro teams of the Frederick-Carroll Youth League which Taneytown won by a large margin. At approximately 8 P. M. Bird Day was over in Taneytown much to the disappointment of all concerned.

As the Birds were leaving Hoyt Wilhelm made in substance, the following statement "We would have liked to participate longer with the Little Leaguers inasmuch as they are the ones who enjoy and need this kind of assistance, but due to traveling in caravan and considering the wives of players, they had leave when they did." All the Birds indicated that they would like to do the same thing next year.

However, the Birds entertainment was not quite ended. The Birds as well as the Mayor and City Council and their wives had been graciously invited by Mr. Ralph Hoffman, Westminster attorney, to spend the rest of the evening at his spacious and lovely home. Mr. Hoffman's guests enjoyed ping pong, pool, a bowling game, baseball talk, etc. Finally, to climax a most happy day the entire group gathered around Mr. Hoffmann's electric organ, with Mr. Bob Cooke who is Mr. Hoffman's associate at the double console, for a good old fashioned song fest. We might suggest that any interested talent scouts arrange for an audition by Skinny Brown—he has a fine singing voice. The goodbyes were reluctantly said and the Birds "flew" back to home plate in Baltimore.

GOVERNOR'S BANNER TO TANEYTOWN

Glade Valley's Dorsey Hands Lions' Banner to Dougherty

Harney Fire Hall was the stage for a moving address by International counselor Roland F. Young, Baltimore, last Tuesday evening, July 26, in a large gathering of Taneytown Lions, their ladies, and visiting notables come to pay honor to Harry B. Dougherty, Governor of western Maryland district 22W, in his home club of Taneytown. President Glenn O. Reeve presided over the singing of the National anthem and pledge to the flag, following a piano recital by Miss Sandra, daughter of Lion and Mrs. Kenneth C. Shorb, and the Rev. Edmund P. Welker pronounced the invocation.

Merwyn C. Fuss, toastmaster, presented Mmes. Naomi Dodder and Anita Skiles vocally in "With a Song in my Heart" by Hamblen, and Rodgers and Hammerstein's "You'll Never Walk Alone" (Miss Hazel Hess accompanying), to prolonged applause. He then introduced those seated at the head table, telling a story in his inimitable fashion about each of them: Taneytown's Immediate past-president and Mrs. Delmar E. Riffle, President and Mrs. Reeve, Mrs. Fuss, Gov. and Mrs. Harry Dougherty, International counselor (Past district governor) and Mrs. (Past district governor) and Mrs. Lawrence A. Dorsey, and the Rev. and Mrs. Welker.

Lion Dorsey was prevailed upon to introduce the notable guests, and he began with the governor's cabinet and official family. Zone chairman Harry Bosley from distant Lonaconing; Charles and Mrs. Keeney, Yellow Springs; and Fern L. and Mrs. Smith, Roaring Run; Deputy district governors Charles I. and Mrs. Joy, Libertytown, Unionville; and Charles G. and Mrs. Petry, Westminster; Public relations chairman and Mrs. Harry E. Filler, Glade Valley; and Cabinet secretary and Mrs. Homer Y. Myers, Taneytown.

International counselor Dorsey then proceeded to the distinguished roster of other international counselors, Massey Roe (who was also formerly an international director), Hagerstown; Clarence O. and Mrs. Fishpaw, Westminster; Murray D. and Mrs. Ryan, Mt. Airy; Mrs. John W. Morgan, Frederick, representing her husband; G. Robert and Mrs. Lyles Hagerstown; Russell H. and Mrs. Marsh and daughter Ruth, Union Bridge; and Carl C. and Mrs. Thomas, Frederick.

Toastmaster Fuss, introducing the evening's speaker, Roland F. Young, Baltimore, enumerated many phases of his background which recommended him—charter member of the Brooklyn Lions Club, graduate of Polytechnic Institute and Johns Hopkins University, executive vice-president of Patapsco Engineering Company, eminent in fraternal circles a good church member—and he ably lived up to a high reputation as successful past district governor of Baltimore's Lions district 22A.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" With all my heart, I wish you every morning A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

For the Love of a Dog! I walked into the waiting room of a prominent Veterinarian with my precious in my arms as she had been getting one large lump after the other. One on each shoulder and around her throat up to the top of her ears! A Doctor previously thought it was gland trouble and then he added, "They may be tumors and again they could be cancerous". As I studied that Doctor's expression, I realized he was putting it to me very lightly and I quickly said, "Dr. you don't think she is going to die?" He looked right in my eyes and said, "If she does, I want you to get another dog immediately!" So that hot day as I held her close to my heart as I opened the door of that waiting room—most every chair was filled with ladies holding their pets on their laps! I stood there a minute and looked around and finally walked over to a chair and sat Sugar down. I sat at the other end of the table on another chair "OH" "She is truly the most beautiful Cocker Spaniel I have ever seen. I never saw such a glossy and beautiful coat and such a deep red-gold!" This kept up for many minutes until a lady plucked up courage to ask me what was wrong with her as she did not appear sick. "She has Cancer which is spreading rapidly over her body!" I replied and then I broke down as everyone else did in that room. One lady started to walk up and down the room and I heard a scream from a dog in the operating room. The (continued on page four)

No Good News Club Meeting This Summer

There will be no Good News Club outdoor meetings this summer as originally planned. The teachers had hoped to have a 6 weeks summer program as in past years, but due to vacation, camp activities and detailed planning for the fall Child Evangelism classes, the outdoor meetings will not be held.

A special swimming party for Good News Clubbers, 10 years old and over, will be held on Friday, August 12 at 7 p. m. at Frock's Pool, Westminster, to which the Taneytown children are invited. The children all over the county will be guests of Mr. Frock and will not be charged any admission to swim. Refreshments will be on sale. This is the regular "Fun Night" for older Good News Clubbers throughout the county which has been conducted once a month since February.

The following Taneytown children spent a week at Mountain View Bible Camp, near Manchester, Md., during July: Danny Shriner, Karl Nusbaum, Bobby Lookingbill, Johnny Zent, Eddie Green, Susan Miller, Beverly Miller, Connie Jean Nusbaum, Vicki Abrecht, Jackie Bair and Peggy Jo Smith, Debbie Mort, Littlestown and Beverly Utz, Gettysburg, also attended with the Taneytown girls. Mrs. Kenneth Nusbaum and Miss Valerie Nusbaum served on the staff for one week as Counselor and Junior Counselor.

The regular Good News Club season will begin in October and will be announced at a later date.

King Heads Legion's West. Md. Dist. Long Gets Top Local Spot

Stanley W. King was unanimously elected Commander of the Western Maryland District of the American Legion at the pre-convention caucus of the Western Maryland District held in Taneytown on Friday, July 15th. His election was ratified by the Department (State) July 23rd. The Western Maryland District is comprised of Frederick, Washington, and Carroll Counties. The attainment of this position is not only a great honor for King but gives considerable prestige to Taneytown inasmuch as this is the first time a Taneytown Legionnaire has held this high post. We wish King well in this new endeavor.

Commander King has announced that he has appointed Neal W. Powell to serve as Western Maryland District Adjutant for the Legion year 1960-61, which is, of course, the term to which King has just been elected.

On Thursday, July 21st, Hesson-Snyder Post #120, The American Legion elected its officers for the Legion year 1960-61. The Post welcomed to its highest position Russell Long who was elected Commander by a substantial margin. Long has been a faithful and diligent Legionnaire and has more than earned the honor that has thus been afforded him.

The balance of the newly elected slate of officers is as follows: 1st. Vice Commander, Paul A. Rodkey; 2nd Vice Commander, Richard M. Rohrbaugh, Adjutant, Attorney Donald M. Smith, Chaplain, Robert Wantz; Finance Officer, James D. Fiscus; Service Officer, Kenneth A. Bair; Sergeant-At-Arms, Clarence Harner; Historian, James C. Myers, Sr.; Sr. Color Bearer, Robert Boone; Executive Committee, Clifford Ott and Charles E. Conover.

These Legionnaires will be installed in office at the regular Aug. meeting which will be held in the new Post Home on Thursday, August 18th at 8 p. m. It is hoped that this meeting will be well attended in order that the new officers might be given the right kind of a send-off.

Your mistakes are yours—don't blame them on the other fellow.

MISTAKEN EMPLOYERS

Many employers, apparently, are not concerned with the proposal to increase the federal minimum wage, and to extend the wage-hour law to cover some 11 million workers, largely in retail business, who always have been exempt. The employers in question pay more than the proposed higher rate, and are now within the law's jurisdiction.

But those employers are sadly mistaken if they believe the proposals would not affect them. For, as the publication Washington Report points out, "Increasing the minimum produces an escalator effect." Workers in the higher brackets naturally want to maintain their differentials, and they demand and receive increases. Thus, a whole new wave of wage inflation is generated.

In Washington Report's words, "At a time when many are concerned about intractable pockets of unemployment in depressed areas, our worsening competitive position in world markets, a rate of economic growth considered too slowly by some, it is highly inadvisable to enact a bill which would simultaneously raise costs and prices, cut real purchasing power, and create more unemployment." These are the inevitable results when there are increases in wage costs which are not compensated for by increases in worker productivity. And the federal wage-hour takes no account whatever of the productivity factor.

THE DOOR IS OPEN

In various quarters, there is a belief that the era of worldwide inflation that followed World War II has ended or is ending.

The Portland Oregonian, in taking notice of the thinking, says this: If the postwar inflationary era is, indeed, ended it means that the United States will have to obtain more production at lower or no increased costs. If we are to stay in competition with the highly efficient countries of to avoid, among other things, costly western Europe and Japan, we'll have strikes such as the one in steel. That ill-advised conflict threw the doors wide open to good, cheap foreign products against which it will be extremely difficult to shut them again."

In other words, signs point to increasingly tough competition in the world markets. And American employment, like all facets of American prosperity, will depend on our ability to meet it.

GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS

MYRTLE CREEK, ORE., MAIL: "Just what, in the long run, have we solved by our enormous and expensive farm subsidy program? You can still go broke, or get rich, in the farming business—just as in every other type of independent business—depending upon how hard you work, how shrewdly you operate, how timely you buy and sell, and how happily many elements over which you have little if any control contrive to deal with you. You can not expect to push a button on the anonymous machine that is government and expect it to provide suitable solutions for everybody."

NORWALK, CONN., HOUR: "Nothing reveals the absurdity of the drive for all-out federalization of everything as clearly as the proposal to establish a new cabinet position. The proposed post is a department of urban affairs."

"If it is ever formed it ought to be called a monument to the dead spirit of America. It would mark the end of local responsibility which is the motivating power of good government in the United States...

"Proposing a new bureau to remedy the shameful neglect of local government is a manifestation of the decay of democracy."

CANTON, GA., TRIBUNE: "American tourists who go abroad and sneer at local custom or deride conditions that do not compare favorably with the United States may lose this country much of the goodwill that it is winning through its programs of assistance..."

"While the average American is a well-behaved individual, there are some self-deluded big shots who think themselves superior to everybody else and therefore entitled to preferential treatment everywhere. These objectionable individuals make difficulties for well-mannered and courteous travelers and reflect upon the community of their origin."

CHESTER, ILL. HERALD-TRIBUNE: "Someone has said that failure to take part in politics has its penalties, the greatest of which is to be ruled by your inferiors. This should be ample reason for all of us to vow that politics after all, is our business, as is the destiny of this land of ours..."

"We can have good government if we are vigilant and determined in our effort to attain it."

SAN MARINO, CALIF., TRIBUNE: "Arizona's Senator Barry Goldwater, easily the dominating personality on today's political spectrum drew wild applause and standing ovation in the packed auditorium of New York's Hunter College day after the summit collapse."

"I am not as worried about Russia," he said, "as the lack of moral might in this country of ours."

HUMBOLDT, IA., INDEPENDENT: "With Russia trying to destroy the United States' position in the world, both as a military power, and as a world leader of free nations, there should be no political party lines drawn by either party. National defense is not political. It is a fight for survival."

NEW HAVEN, MO., LEADER: "Fiscal affairs are at the heart of the democratic process. Citizen concern over taxes originally led to our representative form of government. If democratic government is to survive, not only in this country but in the world, citizens must somehow gain control of government spending and taxes, instead of letting them dominate their business and personal lives."

McGEHEE, ARK., TIMES: "According to an AP dispatch last week, Premier Khrushchev is reported to have said, 'There is much in Christ common to us Communists'."

"How about the freedom loving Ukrainians in the 1930's who were resisting collectivism, and the man-made famine conducted by Stalin's lieutenant, Khrushchev, in which 7,000,000 Ukrainians died?"

"There have been, and are, but few instances where the practices of Communists or Communism have had any resemblance with any of the teachings of Christ."

FACTS AND OPINIONS

Correspondent James Morris of the Manchester Guardian, which is one of England's most respected newspapers, recently visited Russia. In a dispatch he said: "You must take on trust... the staggering Soviet claims of industrial expansion, rocketry, atomic energy, agricultural initiative, and all the bragging that sometimes overcomes your Tourist guide. You cannot check for yourself... I will be bold and brash. I do not believe all the Russians say. I sniff at their statistics. There seems to be something illusory, deceptive, misleading in the air of Russia today, something that niggles at my intuitions and sharpens my skepticism."

One hundred and twenty-four years ago, reports the Tax Foundation, the Federal government discovered it had a $28 million surplus. It solved the problem by distributing the money to the 24 states of that time, ostensibly on a loan basis. From that little economic acorn, great oaks have grown. In fiscal 1960, Federal grants of all kinds to the states came to $7.4 billion. The figure for fiscal 1961 is estimated at just a little less—$7.1 billion.

Rail travel safety has recorded such gains that people are now safer on trains than at home or almost anywhere else. Final figures for 1959 show that railroads set an all-time passenger safety record, achieving a performance nearly four times better than travel by bus, 13 times that by domestic airlines, and 45 times that by automobiles. The 1959 record included only one fatality in a train accident out of a total of 350 million train riders.

The nation's biggest health problem is overweight, in the view of Dr. E. Vincent Askey, new president of the American Medical Association. He adds that we Americans are eating more and better but exercising less—"As a result, actuarial statistics show that an alarmingly large number of persons are seriously overweight, and obesity and long life usually don't go together."

A price of $162,000 paid for a seat on the New York Stock Exchange a few months ago was the highest in nearly a quarter of a century. An Exchange seat is not a piece of furniture, but conveys the right to buy or sell securities on the floor of this market place. The highest price ever paid for a seat was $625,000 in February 1929.

Felix Morley writes in Nation's Business: "Social life, becoming ever more complicated and interdependent, demands disciplined behavior from all participants. Carried to the extreme, this discipline can lead to the virtual slavery enforced by communist dictatorships. Omitted altogether, the lack of discipline results in anarchy. The role of the educator, whether parent or teacher, is to point the golden mean between the two."

According to Newsweek, an estimated 6,600,000 American citizens will spend about $2,600,000,000 on foreign travel this year, a 10 per cent gain over 1959. The foreign travel bill is larger than for any other foreign commodity—more, for example, than we will spend on foreign automobiles, textiles and iron combined.

During the last five years, says the Chamber of Commerce of the U. S., the number of school classrooms constructed was sufficient not only to house enrollment increases, but to replace annually about 16,000 standard or abandoned classrooms.

O. Garner, President; Chas. E. H. Shriner, Sec. Frizzellburg.—The home of Jacob Null last Sunday was the scene of a birthday anniversary in honor of his 66th year. The children and grandchildren were there and spent a jolly day.—We are having dust baths every day, especially when the autos go through at high speed.—Charles Maus and wife of Baltimore, are here on vacation and are stopping several days with his sister, Mrs. Harry Rinehart.

Real Reform in Farm Life. There can be no real reform in farm life unless the farmer grows as well as his crop. He can grow only by achievement—by accomplishing something of which he may be justly proud. As soon as he begins to achieve and to grow he will become watchfully discontented with his unnecessary hardships and limitations. He will want a better house in which to live, a better school for his children and better public roads.

Can't afford to Hold Office.—We often hear it said that certain men "can't afford" to accept nomination for nor even to be elected to certain high offices—they are too poor. In a recent contest for nomination to Congress, through the voting primary system, the successful candidate spent over $40,000, with the election expenses yet to be met. (The salary of a Congressman is $7,500 a year or $15,000 for a term.)

Mrs. John E. Davidson.—Mrs. John E. Davidson died at her home, on Baltimore St., last Saturday evening. She was in her 59th year of age. In addition to her husband, she leaves one daughter, Miss Anna. Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Hahn, survive here as well as two sisters, Mrs. Hezekiah Study and Miss Sarah Hahn of this district and two brothers David H. of near Tyrone and Jacob in Pennsylvania.

AFTOSA

Few are the countries of the world where the livestock owner does not live in dread of seeing the above notice tacked upon his gate. For he knows that if his animals become infected with this disease they will waste away and never regain normal weight and milk production.

He also knows that once aftosa hits the only way to stop it is to kill off all livestock in the entire infected area!

But the economic losses caused by this animal ill—formally named foot-and-mouth disease, but more commonly known as "aftosa"—are not limited to stock owners. Today aftosa is a world problem. Here are a few reasons why:

- Because aftosa control and eradication measures are expensive to governments.
- Because in a world where too many millions are already undernourished, aftosa is the number one cause of loss of animal protein.
- Because aftosa cuts down international trade by forcing aftosa-free countries to bar animal products coming from infected lands.

Only Australia, the Guianas, New Zealand, Norway, Sweden, and the western hemisphere north of Panama are free of aftosa. Yet even these areas run danger of infection as the aftosa virus can be carried in bones, blood, milk and hides as well as fresh, dried, canned or even frozen meats.

Taxes National Economies
In stamping out six aftosa epidemics between 1900 and 1930, the United States suffered direct and indirect costs totalling almost $200 million.

Therefore when aftosa broke out in Mexico in 1946, the U.S. found the need to protect its own livestock at one with its sympathy for a sister republic's plight. Both countries fought shoulder to shoulder for six years before aftosa was eradicated. The cost: $130 million to the U.S. and more than $500 million to Mexico.

In South America, Argentina alone estimates aftosa costs it $150 million a year.

When aftosa suddenly appeared in limited areas of Canada's Saskatchewan province in 1954 all shipment to the United States of Canadian breeder and feeder cattle was abruptly halted. In the few months before the outbreak was put down Canadian farmers lost millions of dollars of customary revenue.

Pan American Center Set Up
It was in recognition of aftosa's international dimensions that the 21 American Republics jointly founded the Pan American Foot-and-Mouth Disease Center on the outskirts of Rio de Janeiro in 1951.

Administered by the Pan American Sanitary Bureau, and financed through the Organization of American States' Technical Cooperation Program, the Center's purpose is to aid the countries in controlling and eventually eradicating aftosa from the hemisphere.

The Center trains anti-aftosa workers, provides the countries with consultants, organizes multi-national campaigns, furnishes reference laboratory and diagnostic services, and carries out research.

Center experts hope soon to produce a vaccine that will protect livestock for much longer periods than do any in present use. Such a vaccine could mean aftosa's eradication.

(continued from first page) lady run out of the door into the street and did not come back while I was there with Sugar. Then those ladies seated told me that her dog was just hit by a car and had a broken hip and broken leg. I sat there awaiting my turn and Sugar's big eyes turning to me asking me what it was all about. I got up an patted her and whispered "All right!" and the confidence was there again! Again, the folks right there said, "I could not place my dog on a chair like that for she would not mind in anyway!" Then, I explained that you have to begin to teach them like children from the time they are four or six weeks old. "I never saw such a beautifully behaved dog! It went on and on and my heart was breaking! A lady who was standing and whom I thought was Hostess or Receptionist came over to me and whispered with big tears in her eyes, "Don't have her operated on no matter what the Doctor states for she will die plus all the awful suffering!" I looked in that girl's eyes and picked up my precious pet in my arms and out the door I walked and brought her back home!

Farm Safety Week, July 24-30

The 17th annual National Farm Safety Week will be observed July 24-30. Theme of 1960 Farm Safety Week is "Enjoy Farm Life—Practice Safety." The week, proclaimed by President Eisenhower, is sponsored by the National and State Safety Council and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Purpose of the special observance, as described by Dr. Paul E. Nystrom, Director of Extension, University of Maryland, and Chairman of the Maryland Farm and Home Safety Council, is to emphasize accident prevention among farm families. More than 3,000 persons are killed each year by farm work accidents — more than in any other major industry, Dr. Nystrom points out. More than 11,000 farm dwellers are killed annually in all types of accidents. A million or more farm people are stricken each year by accidental injuries and accompanying disabilities. Many farm organizations are preparing special programs in observance of the week. First day of the week-long event, Sunday, July 24, emphasizes "Reverence for Life."

FISHING LINES By DICK WOLFF
If you can cast a plug into a tea cup at ten paces or snake out a fly line 160 feet—head for Detroit.
The national casting contest opens in Warren, near Detroit, August 16. The country's top anglers will be showing their form and competing for tackle handling honors in the annual competition held by the National Association of Angling and Casting Clubs. Records are waiting to be broken by the right combination of man and equipment.
The U.S. team to compete in the International casting tournament will be picked from among the winners. Last year's seven man squad set three world's records, and won twelve international championships in Scarborough, England, competing against the best casters from sixteen nations. The 1960 International Competition will be held in Zurich, Switzerland Sept. 5 through 10.
Tournament events include skish distance and accuracy requiring the use of standard fishing tackle, and unrestricted events which also are a proving ground for tackle improvements.
Earlier local competitions leading to the national, and the national itself, have stimulated such innovations as shooting tapered fly line and fast taper spinning and bait rods proven in practice, and adopted as standard gear.
In 1946, a new bait casting reel called the Ambassador, was developed by the Swedish for long distance and accuracy casting. All but a few accuracy competitions have since been taken by it. It has also taken record fish.
Casting competition is not divorced from angling. On the contrary, good casters are better than average fishermen, International casting champion Johnny Dieckman also holds the National Fresh Water Fishing Championship. Casting is an art with an object—more successful, more enjoyable fishing. When long casts are needed to reach into inaccessible pools—the top caster will have the fish. Good tackle and sure casting skill means more time to concentrate on fishing fun.

HOW TO SPOT LAWN WEEDS
PLANTAIN DANDELION CRABGRASS
Each year there are more garden chemicals to help home-owners keep a lawn weed-free and beautiful. But to use them safely and effectively the gardener still faces the problem of identifying the weeds he's out to kill. Here are some tips from gardening experts to help you recognize and combat the common weedy pests:
BROAD-LEAF PLANTAIN forms low-lying clumps of broad, green leaves that may escape your eye—and the lawn mower's blade—all season. In late summer, however, you'll know the weed is there by its tall, thin seed stalks. Recommended control is a 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T solution, such as Antrol's Hose-Spray Weed & Brush Killer, applied early in the season before plantain becomes tough.
DANDELION, though relished by gourmets, is a pest to lawn owners. Its broad green leaves and yellow flower are easy to spot, and it can be combated easily with thorough spray treatments of 2,4-D or 2,4,5-T. The chemical is a hormone that kills weed plants by forcing them to outgrow themselves.
CRABGRASS seedlings look bright green and harmless early in the season. By middle or late summer, develops matted patches that choke out turf plants. It often turns purple or brown in early fall. Use an amino methyl arsonate spray—Antrol's Hose-Spray Crabgrass Killer—to wipe out the pest.

Road To Ruin

Lesson for July 31, 1960

THE BIBLE often speaks obscurely. There is much in it which is not clear even to men who have spent a lifetime of study in it. This is particularly true of the Old Testament prophets. They are hard for us nowadays, for several reasons. One is the translation, perhaps. But even the original is difficult, partly because many names of places and persons are used, and events are referred to, which are now unknown to us. Then the manuscripts were not always kept carefully (of course the original copies have been lost long since) nor copied accurately. And sometimes, on top of all that, the writer puts his thoughts in a very jerky, back-and-forth fashion. That is what we have in the prophecy of Hosea. In fact, most experts believe that we do not have continuous straight-away writing in this "book," but only what we today would call sermon notes instead of written-out sermons.

Dr. Foreman always kept carefully (of course the original copies have been lost long since) nor copied accurately. And sometimes, on top of all that, the writer puts his thoughts in a very jerky, back-and-forth fashion. That is what we have in the prophecy of Hosea. In fact, most experts believe that we do not have continuous straight-away writing in this "book," but only what we today would call sermon notes instead of written-out sermons.

Then and Now

Frankly, there would be little use in struggling to find out what Hosea is driving at, if he has nothing to say to our day and time. The book would be interesting as history, it would give us an insight into far-off times. But it would not speak directly to us. The reason why the church cherishes Hosea, and the other prophetic books of the Old Testament, is that we believe God still speaks through these words to us. Wherever we find a parallel case, wherever we find conditions today much like conditions in ancient Israel, whenever we find a prophet revealing the will of God regarding conditions which have parallels in modern times, there we hear the authentic voice of prophecy across the years.

One way in which Hosea's time and ours parallel, is that his nation of Israel was undergoing a period when they would have said enjoying a period—of prosperity such as had never been known before. Our level of living rises and rises in America. It may be true that our poor people possess certain luxuries unknown even to the rich and great in ancient Israel. But luxury is a comparative thing. The point is, as compared with a century ago the U.S.A. is a land of tremendous comfort and luxury, the most lavishly luxurious country in the world. So, as compared with a century before Hosea, his nation was far "fatter" as he would put it than it had ever been.

Luxury

Luxury is something nearly everybody wants. But a flame is something every moth wants. And one is about as dangerous as the other. There are invisible dangers in the luxurious life. One is that it makes cowards out of people. An Indian poet put his finger on it: When a man thinks of comfort first, he said, he has given up his freedom. He becomes such a slave to his comforts that he will not fight to preserve them. Not only so, but luxury eats into a man's moral strength. We have seen in our time how men and women cheated on the TV quiz programs. They knew they were not honest but they excused themselves by the fact that they were making their lives comfortable on a scale their school-teacher salary — or whatever it was — could never reach.

Destruction

Whenever a great nation has collapsed, the final catastrophe has usually been preceded by a period of immense wealth and luxury. It has been true of ancient dynasties in China. It was true of Hosea's Israel. It was true of Greece and Rome, of Carthage and Spain. It can be true of ourselves. The nation that runs to luxury has the means to preserve itself, but it has lost the will. Besides, a nation that clings to luxury is falling into idolatry. For an idol is, essentially, something for the sake of which you will sacrifice everything else. In times gone by idols were made of wood and stone; now they are made of chrome and porcelain and steel and aluminum. God has withdrawn his protecting hand, before now, from idolatrous nations. Will he make us an exception?

While There's Hair There's Hope

Think women take pains with their hair? Take another look at a typical man in action.

Despite the hours the vast majority of American women spend in beauty salons, a man will often devote much more time to his locks—especially if he thinks they are thinning.

Men use hair tonics and shampoos by the gallon; they plaster their heads with creams and oils; their barber bills add up to a phenomenal sum and they spend unrecorded hours massaging, vibrating and brushing their scalps.

"The time spent on hair is good and beneficial," says Lynn E. Akers, international authority on hair retention. "Many of these measures contribute to the prevention of baldness. The tragedy is that too many men resort to them too late for self-treatment to be effective."

As a result, many seek professional help, which keeps Akers' international chain of hair and scalp clinics humming. "When a man or a woman (30% of his clientele are women) comes to us for help, he or she is usually suffering from a condition that has been developing for many years," Akers declares. "We have two jobs. We must eliminate the baldness-producing condition, and then make sure that the hair becomes strong and healthy."

"Premature baldness usually starts many years before hair loss becomes evident—often in the teens," he says. "Incidentally, scientists have exploded the myth that baldness is hereditary. No one can cure it, but it often can be prevented through good scalp hygiene." The rules are simple. Shampoo at least once every seven days, and brush and massage the scalp as often as possible. When brushing or massaging, the head should be down to bring the blood to the scalp area. Elbows should be kept down to prevent shoulder blades from pinching off this blood supply. And, brushing should be done from the back and sides of the head up and over the top of the scalp.

Akers has one more bit of advice. "Hair is a living, growing part of the body and reflects the general condition of the individual. Therefore, to keep hair healthy, the body must be kept healthy through proper health habits and diet. Follow these rules and you will have a head start on keeping your hair handsome and vigorous."
