Program of Entertainment Planned

The Hustler's Class of Grace United Church of Christ Sunday School has planned a humorous program of fun and entertainment for next Tuesday, August 16, at 8 p. m. in the parish house.

This class of Senior High School youths has arranged this night as a project whereby they hope to make a generous contribution to the organ fund through the use of their various talents.

The program is to consist of skits, pantomimes, musical numbers and ventriloquism. High-lighting the entertainment will be a playlet entitled "Wedding Shoes" which increases with laughter and delightful satisfaction as the plot thickens. Good acting will be evidenced as the young thespians put themselves wholeheartedly into their parts while much action takes place upon the stage.

A free-will offering will be received. Everyone—young and old—in the community who appreciates good, wholesome local talent is cordially invited to attend this night of humorous entertainment by helping to fill the parish house.

A NOTE OF THANKS

The Mayor and City Council wishes to thank the various Organizations and individuals of Taneytown who contributed so generously of their time, talent, and cash toward the recent successful Oriole Day in Taneytown. An endeavor of this nature must of necessity, be a combined effort, and that it certainly was. Complete cooperation was the by-word of the day and it manifested itself in the way every phase of the visit was so smoothly carried out.

The Orioles have expressed their thanks through Mr. Robert N. Wine-sett. His letter to the mayor is quoted in part: "My Dear Mayor: May I take this opportunity to thank you and members of your Council on behalf of the members of the Baltimore Orioles, their wives, and myself for the wonderful reception that we received in your town this past Monday. Let us assure you that each and every one enjoyed themselves very much, and hope that they will be invited to return again in the near future. I am sure also that they will benefit much from this association. For myself personally, it is hard to say in words how very happy and impressed I was with the reception, and I shall not forget your splendid assistance along with all your people. It is this kind of unity that makes this country great as it is. May we always keep it that way. Again may I sincerely thank you and your people for the fine job you did in making our visit one that will long be remembered by each and everyone. With sincere best wishes, and kindest personal regards, I am*****"

In light of the apparent success of this venture perhaps we should consider entertaining the Birds again next year. We will appreciate comments along these lines.

The Mayor and City Council

Use of Electricity Increases

The average residential customer of the Potomac Edison System continues to rank well ahead of his national counterpart in the use of electricity, and as a result recently passed a significant mark.

John W. Morgan, District Manager of The Potomac Edison Company here announced yesterday, that for the first time, the annual average usage of electricity by residential customers of the Company reached and passed the 4,000 kilowatt hour mark. The actual figure, for the 12 months ended May 30, was 3,692 kilowatt hours, which is 316 kilowatt hours less than the local mark.

The company official pointed out that power usage by residential customers in this area has considerably more than doubled during the past decade. In June, 1950, the average residential customer served by PE was using only 1,825 kilowatt hours per year.

The best way to make ends meet is to get off your own.

MEETING OF MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL

Property Owners in Taneytown Requested to Mow Weeds

The regular monthly meeting of the Mayor and City Council, Taneytown, was held on Monday evening August 8th with all members present.

The treasurer's report was reread as follows: Receipts for the past month $4,487.39; Expenditures $6,238.79; leaving a balance of $7,001.93. Parking meter fund balance $3,408.64.

A discussion was held on the possibility of adopting a Visitor's Parking and or minor traffic violation warning form. This would be given out of state offenders in lieu of a ticket for first offenses. Particular reference was made to salesmen calling on our merchants who might overlook our meters, etc. A sample form will be prepared and discussed further at the next meeting.

It was reported the new water tower is ready for operation and will be placed in operation as soon as the Health Inspector gives his OK.

It was decided to give serious consideration to the formulation and use of a City Budget for the next fiscal year. A series of special meeting will be held starting August 22nd to determine just what is involved. After these exploratory meetings the Council will attempt the establishment of a budget without the employment of outside help. However, if it should prove beyond the scope of the Council outside Consultants will be called in. It is felt that after the first Budget is set up it will be a comparatively simple matter to prepare the Budget for succeeding years.

Complaints were aired concerning the time lapse between sprayings for mosquitoes. This operation is fairly expensive but the Council decided to spray more frequently to satisfy the wishes of the citizenry.

In the discussion concerning the large mosquito population it was observed that one contributing factor is numerous vacant lots grown up in weeds. Two Councilmen were appointed to make a survey of these lots and report back at the next meeting which will be held on the 22nd. Appropriate action will then be taken in accord with the provisions of the Ordinance covering this situation.

Meeting of Hesson-Snyder Post Auxiliary

President Marie Ott then opened the meeting to old and new business. Joint installation will be held on August 18, at 8 p. m. with following officers to be installed: Pres., Marie Ott; 1st vice-pres., Catherine Myers; 2nd vice-president, Gladys Haines; Corresponding and Rec. Sec'y, Marie Smith; Treasurer, Maye Baker; Historian, Pearl Bollinger; Chaplain, Regina Foreman; Sergeant of Arms, Irene Unger; Color Bearer, Mahalla Mikkell Emma Stitley; Sick Committee, Emma Stitley. All members are asked to be present.

Our (fiscal) year will now be from August 1960 to August 1961.

A letter was read of the installation of officers at Francis Scott Key for any members who wish to go August 16.

The following program was present-

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health--life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way--help to bring you happiness!

Little "Eva" arrived, folks! A precious all black Cocker Spaniel which I have just named after the register her as "Lady Evadne"! Calling her "Eva" for short! She is just seven weeks old! And as I type this column she is sitting here right beside me.

Ladies, those big and beautiful bags of Tapestry of yesteryear surely are in until late Fall. All in different designs and scenes. To be most stylish, your hair must be cut real short but don't have that done unless it is more becoming to you. Everything as to clothes for women and I mean everything is really going RUSSIAN---and even to wedding attire! How odd that seems! Eh? And as for getting thin everybody's doing it---even more so by my advice to you is to have a check up at your Doctor's office. The little future bride from the dime store of whom I had written about in a previous column went on a diet with no consultation whatsoever and now she is under a Doctor's care as she reduced too much and too soon! It is O. K. just to do the following as to no second helpings and eat much less of bread and potatoes and sweets plus a favorite exercise and especially that wonderful rolling on the floor and that way you lose pounds.

Your Observer does not have a potato in the house-----ever!

No doubt, you watched on T. V. all the Convention but it was mostly Channel 11 for me as the No. 2 was just too, too much with their Commercial.

Senator Jack Kennedy surely made big blunders first--by his awful speech about America in his stay in the state of California. Then, too his choice of Johnson whom he really selected himself due to the fact he has fear in his heart for the future with that Russian K.

The next thing, he engaged a JAZZ TOUR for his presidential campaign! How cheap can he get and that was cheap as during intermissions at each place, there will be pitches for votes! To think of such a thing for the biggest job in the world--our Presidency. All I can say and write is---"GOD HELP AMERICA!" if he should get in! When you apply for any position in life, folks what is the very first thing they ask of you? WHAT EXPERIENCE HAVE YOU HAD? Eh? What experience has Kennedy had to be placed at the head of these United States? Your Observer, I am thankful to state is "Independence" always votes for the best man and the best man and most qualified for so sacred a position is NIXON and wonderful Ambassador HENRY CABOT LODGE! What a team, folks they will make---what partners in this great business of ours! It was truly thrills, chills, tears and much else filled with enthusiasm as I watched that nomination and which I predicted months ago. And that was sincere, too, folks as you must remember that Nixon previously did no campaigning!

Don't forget the musical program at the Stadium on the 9th of Aug. (and all for free) underneath the Stars! Eight P. M. is the time.

Here is the "No-Bake Cheese Cake" which many have requested. Mix together 2 envelopes, Knox Unflavored Gelatine, cup sugar and 1/4 teaspoon salt in the top of a double boiler. 2-Beat together 2 egg yolks and 1 cup of milk; add to gelatine mixture. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until gelatine is dissolved and mixture thickens about ten minutes. 3-Remove from heat; add 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind; cool. 4- Stir in 3 cups creamed cheese (cottage) 24 oz. sieved, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Chill stirring occasionally until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. 5- While mixture is chilling make crumb topping as follows: Mix 2 tablespoons of melted butter, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1/2 cup graham cracker crumbs, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon and 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg; set aside. 6- Fold 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten and 1 cup heavy cream whipped into chilled gelatine mixture. 7- Turn into 8" spring form pan and sprinkle top with crumbs. Chill until firm. If desired 8 or 9 square or 9x5 loaf pan may be used. Line with wax paper and press crumb mixture in bottom of pan. Turn in gelatine mixture. Chill until firm. Unmold! Umm Good! This reads like a lot of trouble but it is explained in detail and very simple to make. You will serve 5-6 servings. Be sure you follow directions without substituting and you will have a perfect Cheese Cake with no cooking!

Have a grand weekend, folks. And if there is a dog at your house by all means give him a big drink of fresh water several times a day for I know you would not like to drink stale water which has been standing for hours. Until next week D. V.

I am, Faithfully,

YOUR OBSERVER.

ed: Prelude- Mrs. Blanche Lookingbill; Hymn- "Rise Up, O Men of God"; Scripture- Mrs. Alice Reifsnider; Prayer, Mrs. Kaye Mohny; Special Selection- "Take it to the Lord in Prayer"-Miss Estella Study; Solo- Mrs. Doris Mehning; Guest Speaker- Mrs. John Whitmore- presented the topic- "Responsibility- to the church, to the home, and to voting"; Trio- "Do You Love My Lord?" Misses Phyllis and Joan Clingan and Faye Martin. Offering, Hymn "Take My Life and Let it Be"; Closing prayer, Mrs. Harold Anders.

Disciplining children is a thing of the past but unfortunately while they gained at one end--they are losing at the other.

WHO ARE YOU WORKING FOR

Suppose you earn $4,500 a year, and put in a 40-hour week.

If that's your situation, said the Citizens Public Expenditure Survey, you work all day Monday and until 1:45 p. m., Tuesday without making any money for yourself. The money you earn in that time all goes to the government in taxes.

If you earn more than $4,500 a year the amount of your time given to the tax collector rapidly and progressively increases. And if you get into the really big income brackets, very little of your working time results in take-home pay for you.

It's commonly said and believed that defense costs are almost solely responsible for the present burden of taxation and the size of the federal budgets. But the fact remains that, in the 1955-61 period, defense costs rose only 12 per cent, while non-defense items rose 43 per cent.

As the survey sees the situation, "If we Americans spent more time trying to get our tax money spent wisely, we'd have enough money left to make us happy—and not the raft of worries caused by the lack of it."

GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS

LOUISBURG, N. C., TIMES: "The quicker the United States gets tough with the Castro regime, and the tougher Washington gets, the better chances will be that a friendly democratic regime will replace the pro-communist government in Havana."

BOONTON, N. J., TIMES-BULLETIN: "We are pleased with the report of the American Bible Society that it distributed a record of 17,650 917 volumes of the Scriptures in this country and abroad last year. The figure exceeded by a substantial margin the average of 15,000,000 for the six years previously. Nothing but good can come from this record distribution of the Bible, the very best book any one can read."

MILES CITY, MONT., DAILY STAR: "As schools around the country closed for the summer, a number of campaigns were started to help teenagers get summer jobs. It was a good idea."

"But the drives, often sponsored by local and state governments, are running into some snags."

"Local regulations requiring working certificates even in summer and the Federal minimum wage requirements, social security and income tax deductions often make hiring temporary help a lot of trouble."

"The day of the casual summer job, such a help to eager youngsters in other days, seems to be passing—one more casualty of creeping public and private bureaucratization."

TERRE HAUTE, IND., TRIBUNE: "No one need be 'taken' by fast-talking operators. The Securities and Exchange Commission is glad to advise citizens about questions to ask before investing. Reputable investment men will do the same. And, lacking expert advice, common sense suggests a checkup on a company's assets and prospects before investing in its future."

RITZVILLE, WN., JOURNAL-TIMES: "One of the most unnecessary government spending programs you can imagine is multi-billion-dollar spending for Federal 'public power'. Investor owned utilities could do the job just as well, and perhaps a little more efficiently. There is actually little difference in cost. The big difference is that public power pays little taxes, and at the same time it eats into our American system of individual, free enterprise."

OSWEGO, KANSAS, INDEPENDENT: "According to press reports the staged revolts with the Communists, the Labor Unions and the Socialists in Japan, calculated to withdraw the invitation to President Eisenhower to visit that country, cost the Communists a considerable cash outlay. Report is that they paid the participants $1.65 a day. And in Japan that is said to be in the upper class wage group."

HURLEY, WIS., MINER: "The trouble with war is that it leaves a few people in shekels, and the rest in shackles."

NAZARETH, PA., ITEM: "The playing of the 'Star-Spangled Banner' means nothing to many children of today. Recently at a public gathering the band played the 'Star-Spangled Banner' as their last number and the number of children that ignored the music was appalling."

"Our suggestion to battle this indifference is for parents to set an example and teach their children by sitting at STRICT ATTENTION when the 'Star-Spangled Banner' is played on TV or radio."

"Remember children learn these disciplines mostly in the home and respect of our National Anthem must be learned early in life."

CURRENT EVENTS
FIFTY YEARS AGO

Mr. Whitfield Buffington, of Philadelphia, in the employ of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, spent the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Buffington.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. E. Wheeler left, on Tuesday to be absent over three Sundays. On the 16th they will embark on a steam trip to Boston, and will visit various New England points of interest. There will be no preaching services in the Lutheran church, this Sunday, but the following Sunday, the 21st, the pulpit will be supplied in the morning by Prof. C. F. Sanders of Gettysburg College.

State Grange Pic-Nic. The thirteenth annual picnic and reunion of the Maryland State Grange opened Tuesday under most favorable circumstances. The rain on Monday had laid the dust and made everybody happy. The parade of automobiles and the inspection of the roads on which the King Split Road Drag had been used starting from the Penna. R. R. Station at 11 a. m. The party was made up of Messrs. Walter B. Thompson, Div. Eng. N.C. Railway, Elmira, N.Y. (a native of Maryland), J. H. Plummer of Baltimore, Stonesifer, Dorn and Perry of Union Bridge, President Garner, Commissioner Fink, Congressman Goulden, Dr. Roop, Messrs. E. E. Reindollar, E. F. Smith, Milton Ohler, George Winemiller and others. The Westminster and the Bruceville roads, where the Drag had been used were found in a much better condition than others. President Garner opened the literary exercise; he gave a history of the affair from its inception when half dozen enterprising farmers banded themselves together for mutual improvement and advantages, down to the present successful affair. Judge H. M. Clabaugh, a Carroll Countyman owning Antrim with its 500 acres, and now distinguished Chief Justice of the District of Columbia Supreme Court formally opened the reunion and fair. Hon. M. E. Walsh of Westminster followed Judge Clabaugh with an earnest eloquent speech in favor of country home life. At this point, President Garner presented Congressman Goulden of New York an old Taneytown boy, a member of the Grange, and owner of two excellent farms in this vicinity. The Taneytown Band gave several concerts. 2000 People were in attendance. Thursday, the third day of the picnic and at 12 o'clock the estimate was 10,000 persons. Aside from the many permanent buildings some fifty tents are on the grounds. The exhibits of wheat, rye, oats, the various fruits, poultry, quilts etc. the products of our farmers were of a creditable and gratifying character.

For shower or club entertaining, make and bake a simple cookie a day or two in advance of the party. Make the frosting on party day, so cookies have the freshly baked look. This recipe makes a pint and a half... twice the recipe will reward you with a quart and a half of easily made refreshing Chocolate Mint Sherbet—economical and good tasting when made with nonfat dry milk.

Syrup's A Summer Topping!

Put a ring of red roses around two of Summer's good foods: ice cream and maple-blended syrup! Serve them together in interesting ways such as these: (1) Scoop ice cream into balls... roll in flaked coconut, tinted, toasted or plain; pour on maple-blended syrup. (2) Make a sundae-or-pancake sauce: Heat a cup of maple-blended syrup, add about a cup of diced unpeeled canned apricot halves and a bit of grated lemon rind. Serve warm or cold. (3) Top crisp hot waffles with coffee ice cream... pour on Log Cabin maple-blended syrup. For any of these simple recipes—roses to you!

Maple-blended Ice Cream Pie

1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted 2 cups flaked coconut

Combine butter and coconut. Press evenly into an ungreased 8- or 9-inch pie pan. Bake in slow oven (300°F.) for 30 to 35 minutes, or until golden brown. Cool.

Fill crust with vanilla ice cream, using 1 1/2 pints ice cream for an 8-inch crust and 1 quart for 9-inch crust. Decorate with a maple sugar leaf, if desired. Serve at once, or freeze. At serving time, pour maple-blended syrup over the cut pieces.

Vision and Call

Lesson for August 14, 1960

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC name for it is "vocation;" the Protestant name for it is "calling." They mean just the same thing, the call of God to a man or woman for special service. Protestants and Catholics as well are now beginning to expand the meaning of the word. It is being seen by many, though others are slow to see it, that God may call a man to be a grocer or a farmer just as well as to be a minister of the Gospel. No Christian, surely, has any business staying permanently in a job where God does not want him to be. The more you believe in the will of God, the better you can see that it is really not good at all to choose your own way without asking what God's will is. The wiser you believe God is, the more eager you will be to learn what he has for you to do.

Dr. Foreman

When Half-Gods Go

"When half-gods go, the gods arrive," a poet said. Let us say that better: When half-gods go, then God arrives! How did God arrive to Isaiah? That man was perhaps the most famous, certainly one of the most distinguished of the Hebrew prophets. How the call of God came to him, he tells us in chapter 6 of the book of his prophecies. In some ways the story is hard to understand; but in other ways we can put it into a modern dress, so to speak, and get a good deal from it. To put it shortly, Isaiah's call came when he saw the Lord. But when did he see the Lord? He dates it so that all his readers would identify it. "In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord," he writes. That was like 1865 or 1945, when two great presidents died. King Uzziah had not been a perfect king, but he had been a strong one. People had leaned on him as they always lean on a "father-image," whether a Lincoln or a Roosevelt or a DeGaulle or any one else. Isaiah (being out of the top drawers in his country, a friend of the royal family) had leaned no doubt on the good king Uzziah. When he died, Isaiah was ready for the vision God had not sent him before. God became real to him, in a time of disaster and loss, as he had not seemed real before.

Isaiah was not carried away by rapture when he saw God. The sight of the Divine Majesty (as many saints have learned can be a terrible experience. The first thing Isaiah feels is shame for his sins, sins which God deals with not by washing them away but by burning them away. To put this into common language, perhaps, too common: Isaiah has to begin by getting right with God. God was calling him to be a prophet, or as we would say, a preacher. An important part of a preacher's business is to condemn men's sins. But no preacher can lead others to the forgiveness of God who has not felt that forgiveness himself. No preacher has the right to condemn other men's sins if he spares his own.

A Sense of Human Need

A Christian leader, being asked what a "call of God" is, replied: "A call consists in realizing a need and realizing one's own ability to meet that need." So it was with Isaiah. He hears the voice of God saying "Who will go...?" and he cries out, "Here am I, send me." Not all God's messengers and servants have heard literal sounds that they could have taken off on a tape recording machine. But the point is always the same: Men are seldom if ever aware of the needs of the world until God has touched them. What is it to be a minister of the Gospel? Without that strong sense of God, a minister is only another career man who makes a living by preaching rather than by raising hogs or selling light bulbs. Without the vision of God, a young man asks the same questions about the ministry that he asks about any old job: What does it pay, how about promotions, bonuses, my chance to be rich and famous? But once God has touched a man, the ministry is seen as a challenging opportunity to be God's man, and to help others to find him, regardless of salary or security. All the questions vanish in "Here am I!"

PARAKEET POINTERS

by Philip Marsden

The R. T. French Company

FIRST STEPS FOR TALKERS

Birds don't "learn to talk." They merely learn to imitate sounds which they hear often enough, and like.

What makes the budgie, or parakeet, (as he is called in this country) the wonderful talker he is? First, his wonderfully sharp hearing; second, an unusual ability to consciously control his throat muscles to produce any sound he wants; and third, a phenomenal memory. A knowledge of these factors will help you understand your bird's mechanism and become a better tutor.

It's important to remember that your pupil will mimic sounds that he likes much more quickly than other sounds. Therefore, set out from the start to make him like you and the sounds you make. Make him your pal; win his complete confidence and trust.

How to do this? Well, you've just brought home a new baby budgie and installed him in his cage, complete with seed (on the floor to begin with, please!) water, cuttlebone, toys, mirror, etc. You can see from his manner that he's scared stiff. Approach the cage gently — all movements must be slow until he's used to you — and tell him his name in a quiet, friendly voice; repeat it several times over a period of 5 to 10 minutes. Treat him like a child and you can't go wrong.

Talk to him like this several times during this first day, giving him plenty of time to adapt to his new surroundings. In the evening, when he's tired, you can start finger-taming him. I regard this as a very important step in the establishment of a mutual confidence, and it will have an enormous effect on the bird's eventual "talking" abilities.

Approach the cage very slowly and gently. Open the wire door and insert your hand, with your forefinger extended. Be sure that if the bird panics he can't dash out and hurt himself. Repeating his now-familiar name to him quietly, move your hand almost imperceptibly towards him until your finger rests against his tummy just in front of the legs.

A slight upward pressure will make him climb on to your finger (or fall backwards off the perch!) and as he steps on you should give him the command "UP" in a clear authoritative voice. Once on your finger, make him then get "up" on to the swing, then back "up" on to your finger. Do this for about five minutes at a time, repeating the practice several times during the evening.

Exercise your budgie as often as you can be bothered, praising him each time he obeys you. Within a week or so he will get "up" every time you tell him to. Don't let him out of the cage until you can rely on his obedience or you'll have to chase him to get him back in again — and there goes all that confidence you've worked so hard to build up. During all this time — apart from the actual training sessions — you should repeat his name to him every chance you get as a preliminary to more specialized teaching.

Waterjet 'Elevator' Gives Baby Salmon A Big Lift

This is a story about smolts, or baby salmon, who once tried to go to sea the hard way but now get there more directly with the aid of a waterjet 'elevator' provided by a Pacific Coast newsprint mill at a cost of $90,000.

The details of this unusual arrangement, one of many measures taken by paper producers to help conserve wild life and natural resources, were reported in Newsprint Facts, published by the Newsprint Information Committee which is composed of a representative group of Canadian newsprint producers.

Smolts, as sportsmen and nature lovers are likely to know, are spawned in inland waters by husky parents who have fought their way upstream from the sea. The fingerlings spend their first year of life in the lakes. Then instinct points them downstream to find the ocean where they will grow to maturity.

At this point, the newsprint mill begins to have trouble unless it takes steps. Making newsprint is an aqueous business. The newsprint company in question gets its water — 30,000 gallons per minute — from a lake six miles from the mill.

Until recently, the water line originated in a deep well in the lake. Flow of water to the intake was misconstrued by the baby salmon. They thought they had found the start of a stream going down to the sea and although they were right in a way, it was nevertheless a mistake. Entering the well by the thousands, they were kept out of the pipeline by screens. But the velocity of the inflowing water — about half a foot per second — and turbulent water action, churned them into a salmon salad.

Fisheries officials and company engineers worked out a new system. They drove sheet piling into the lake bottom and constructed a flume-like arrangement to channel water to the intake at a more sedate pace.

At an appropriate point, wire screens, revolving vertically, strain out the baby fish and carry them up to a shower of water. The waterjets, in elevator-fashion, flush them uninjured back into the lake.

At this point, if the smolts are at all smart, they will turn about and find a better way to the sea where they can grow up to be coho, spring, dog, or chum salmon, as the case may be. If they want to go back for another ride on the revolving screens, that's their affair and it does them no harm.

Little Farmer With A Big New Idea!

Evidently this very young farmer intends making hay by hitching his tractor to his dad's new mower—the largest of its kind in the U.S. The new machine, equipped with a giant ten foot cutter bar, is made by AVCO Corporation's New Idea Division. It will mow as much hay in six hours as a seven foot machine can cut in 10 hours, due to the longer cutter bar and faster mowing speed.

Life isn't fair to us men. When we are born, our mothers get the compliments and the flowers. When we are married, our brides get the presents and the publicity. When we die, our widows get the life insurance and the winters in Florida.
