HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

On Thursday, March 9, the Student Council sponsored a Clean-up Day. The last period of the day was given over to cleaning the high school building. All students participated wielding dustcloth, broom and mop— to help make the school shine for Open House the next day. The Clean-up Day project was accounted a success.

On Monday, March 13, the Taneytown High School Band gave a concert at North Carroll High School.

The Open House held on Friday, March 10, was well attended. More than 150 visitors, parents and friends, registered on the guest list. All visitors were given a tour of the building to see the new library, class room, cafeteria and kitchen facilities and the new offices. They also saw the projects set up in the auditorium for the Science Fair. In the cafeteria refreshments were served and a special group from the school orchestra and band played many melodies that were enjoyed by the visitors.

Many thanks are appropriate to all who had a part in the Open House and Science Fair. All students and teachers may be proud of their achievements because all parents and visitors were very complimentary about

Senator Weant Reports Two Weeks' Activity of Legislature

As of March 3 there had been introduced in the House of Delegates some 564 pieces of Legislature while in the Senate, up to date, there had been introduced 369 bills. Of course, many of these bills are local bills and do not need the consideration of all of the members of the Maryland Legislature. However, a great percentage of Legislation introduced is of a statewide nature and must be carefully considered by all of the Legislative members. These figures can give our readers some idea of the great volume of Legislation which goes through the "Legislation which goes through the power the Mayor and Council of Westminster to carry out Urban Renewal projects involving the clearance and redevelopment and rehabilitation of slum areas or blighted areas, including the acquisition of property for such purposes with certain provisions in regard to such acquisition by the exercise of the power of eminent do-As of March 3 there had been in-erved to the states respectively, or the people."

A regular meeting of the Carroll County Board of Education was held on Tuesday, February 28, 1961, with Vice-President Clifton W. Warner

The Board heard a general report regarding the operations of schools during the snow season and approved certain administrative actions taker during this period.

Approval was given to the minutes of the January meeting and the finan-cial transactions of the month were reviewed and given approval. The Board acted to accept resigna-tions from Anne E. Clark, Mount Airy High School, and Frances Clayborne, obert Moton High School. The Board took action to approve contracts for new teachers and replacements, many of these being for assignment to teaching positions in September, 1961: Mary Eckart, Robert K. Haines, Joan A. Hesson, James G. Barnes, Jr., Patricia Patterson, Phyllis G. Ensor, Donald L. Stenley, Elizabeth K. Burney, Robert G. Hinkle. The Board was notified of the prospective retirement of Miss Ivy Fowler from service as a teacher in the New Windsor School.

Miscellaneous actions were taken in connection with maintenance staff personnel and correspondence including recognition of a successful cloth ing collection, current enrollment re orts, certificate renewal policies and bus route adjustments. The Board also heard recommendations from the Superintendent in connection with the correspondence about various admin istrative items. Approval was given for the sale of three vehicles, as earlier advertised, and approval was given for the exchange of a main tenance truck and the purchase of a replacement, as well as one staff auto-mobile. The maintenance truck pur-chase was approved from the Westminster Motor Company and the staff car exchange from Harken Ford of Westminster. Another transaction approved was the purchase of equip-ment for anthracite coal burning at the Robert Moton School.

At 11:00 a.m. the Board received and opened bids on the proposed Westminster School to be located on the grounds of and adjacent to the West-minster Jr. High School, consisting of a twenty-four room elementary school building with cafeteria-auditorium, music room, offices, etc. Bids on the music room, offices, etc. Bids on the project were as follows on the General Contract: I. H. Crouse & Sons, $385, 000.00; Frederick Construction Co., $361, 064.00; Hicks-Tate, Inc., $312, 770.00; William H. Sands, Inc., $354, 700.00; E. E. Stuller Construction Co., $337,900.00; Thurmont Construction Co., $349,989.00. Action was taken by the Board to defer awarding the general contract until certain reports are eral contract until certain reports are received from the architect. Bids received for the Mechanical Work were: J. H. Allender Sons Co., $116,000.00; John R. Crocker Co., $118,998.00; Geo. L. Harner, $113,381.00; Heer Brothers, Inc., $127,367.00; Mt. Airy Furniture and Appliance Co., $124,966.00; Geo. H. Schuman Co., $122,320.00; Harry Sparks Co., $132,300.00; Westminster Hardware Co., $112,882.00. The Board took action to approve the low bid of took action to approve the low bid of the Westminster Hardware Co. for this aspect of the work. Electrical bids were as follows: Angell's Electric Co. $33,300.00; Conway Electric Co., $42 739.00; Industrial Power Co., $37,670 00; Mid-Town Electric Co.; $38,862. 00 Miller-Leskey Electric Co., $42,000.00; J. E. Schaeffer, $32,475. 00; Windsor Electric Co., $47,000.00 Action was taken by the Board to accept the low bid of J. E. Schaeffer for that a special meeting of the Board will be called to approve the general ontract in the near future.

The Board was advised of plans for the holding of a short professional teachers' conference on April 17 to ta e the place of the cancelled meeting originally scheduled for January 27. The school calendar for 1961-62 was approved

Board considered the recommendation and proposal of the Super-intendent that steps be taken to explore possibilities, and plan, perhaps, for the establishment of junior college facilities in Carroll County with th idea of opening in September, 1962. After discussion and in view of the fact that much activity in this area i taking place throughout the state, the Board directed the Superintendent to proceed with planning and to make proposals to the Board in connection with this project as soon as possible. The Board was given certain information regarding proposed legislation effecting school operations and now under consideration at Annapolis, in cluding proposed changes related to position to the teachers' college mer-ger in general and the Frostburg proassignment to teaching positions and that the cost to those attending the teachers' colleges would be substantally increased.

The Board considered at the request of the County Commissioners a suggestion that reconsideration be given to the earlier action approving he four-room addition cafeteria-kit-chen addition to the Taneytown Elementary School. After discussion motion was made and passed directing that no change be made in the con-struction plans for the Taneytown Elementary School and that the our-room cafeteria-kitchen addition be continued. Adjournment was at 12:30 p.m.

BULLETIN:

Super Shell with 9 ingredients now contains 1 quick-start component; 1 fast warm-up ingredient; 1 mileage booster; 1 anti-knock mix; 2 octane boosters; 1 gum preventive; 1 anti-icer and new improved TCP-to give your car top performance

Read the facts about today's Super Shell. You'll learn why each of its nine ingredients is essential if you want top performance from today's engines.

a decade ago. That's why your in today's Super Shell.

Test drivers, noted for conservative statements, call many recent engines "critical." In fact, some say that you may not know how good your car's engine really is, simply because it is running below peak efficiency. Today's Super Shell is designed to help correct this state of affairs.

Read on to learn exactly how Super Shell helps every car deliver its top performance.

in Super Shell is so volatile it's kept underground.

The Butane in Super Shell is Shell uses eight million dollars' like the priming charge in a shotgun shell. Its quick-firing volatility is what gets you started fast on cold days. Butane, in fact, vaporizes so easily that it is kept under pressure - 22 million gal-

2. The fast warm-up ingredient in Super Shell acts like kindling for a fire.

The fast warm-up you get with Super Shell comes from its Pentane mix. Pentanes are "kindling" molecules-split from heavier hydrocarbons.

They release their energy quickly, giving you top coldweather performance in a hurry.

1. The quick-start component 3. The mileage booster in Super Shell owes its energy to carloads of platinum catalyst.

super-energy components-such as benzene, xylene, toluene.

These three alone release 11 than the best 100-octane aviation gasoline.

The super-energy of Platformate is teamed with the eight other ingredients in Super Shell, where it gives you that welcome extra mileage.

4. The anti-knock mix in Super Shell is so effective that one teaspoonful treats a gallon.

To detect the slightest trace of knock, Shell scientists depend on an astonishing set of instruments. This registers the faintest knocks on a delicate picture tube, and then photographs it with a high-speed camera.

Such data help Shell research men to prescribe an anti-knock mix so effective that one teaspoonful per gallon of gasoline can boost the octane rating 5 full points.

5. & 6. Both octane boosters in Super Shell have a story. One is linked with Jimmy Doolittle. the trick. The other comes from heating petroleum to 900 degrees.

Jimmy Doolittle helped pioneer the first of these high-octane ingredients for Shell aviation fuel. in your refrigerator. It can choke It is called Alkylate.

The second octane-boosting ingredient is "cat-cracked" gasoline for power with a purr. This is petroleum that has actually been cracked under 900-degree heat and catalytic action.

The result is a super-octane ingredient that asserts its authority the moment you put your foot down.

7. The anti-gum ingredient in Super Shell uses a chemical "policeman" to guard against gum-fouled carburetors.

Even the purest gasoline can form gum when stored. This gum clogs carburetors and fouls automatic chokes. But, with Super Shell, you needn't worry. A special gum preventive does

It acts like a policeman controlling a mob. Regulates unstable elements to help keep them from clotting. Hence no gum problem.

8. The anti-icer in Super Shell takes care of the most mysterious stalls of all.

Super Shell's formula is adjusted as often as eight times a year to beat the weather. For example, whenever the temperature is likely to drop below forty-five degrees, an anti-icer is added.

Why add anti-icer at fortyfive degrees? Because, even at that temperature, frost can form in your carburetor just as it does your engine dead.

Super Shell's anti-icer tackles the problem by discouraging ice from sticking to metal parts. Result: you can forget about carbu-

9. TCP in Super Shell increases power, mileage and plug life.

In 1953, Shell first introduced TCP*-a revolutionary additive that neutralized certain harmful effects of combustion deposits.

Today, Shell has developed a new improved TCP, cresyl diphenyl-phosphate.

TCP can give your car as much as 15 per cent more power and up to 17 extra miles per tankful. It can also make spark plugs last up to twice as long.

Ponder these statistics. They can have a refreshing effect on your car bills.

One of the astonishing things about the Russian educational spstem is that no girl or boy is deprived of a college no girl or boy is deprived of a college education because of lack of finances. 680 suppers were served Saturday at the turkey and oyster supper at aversion to "eggheads" at any age in school, high school, or college, is in-tended for study, and the emphasis is on high marks in the classroom rather than on a high score on the football field. Every opportunity is taken in publications, speeches and lectures to impress upon the young people the need for a serious attitude in studies and also in free-time pursuits. This may partly explain Russian children spend so many hours poring over chessboards instead of talking over the telephone. This attitude of earnestness has its roots in the Soviet classroom.

All of us are willing to forget the cold, snowy winter that has just left is but how can we? It has played navoc with our county roads and when we drive over some of them we won-der if we might not sink in some of the holes in the roads and never be found. The worst one is the Keymar-Middleburg-Mt. Union road. The road crews of course can't be everywhere at one time, but it seems that this road with its heavy traffic should have been repaired before this. Driving over this stretch of road after dark is a real safety hazard.

Already he has been able to borrow part of it, but the remainder he must raise himself. Wayne mainder he must raise himself. Wayne has decided to contact school, civic and church groups and ask them to partally sponsor his exchange experience n return he promises to speak before hese groups upon his return to the United States. Since civic and cultural groups are always seeking speakers for their meetings we think this is a good bargain. Also private citizens may want to help this young man with his finances. If so, get in touch with him at the collection. him at the college. These student exchanges are going to do more to end the "cold war" than all the atomic bombs that can be assembled.

In our part of the country, the lowly rabbit is looked upon as a pest or a target for a hunter, but in the north where the winters are long and grim, nature depends upon the rabbit to maintain a balance among the wildlife of North America. It is the snowshoe hare that keeps starvation away from the wolves, foxes, lynxes, cougars, owls and all the other animals, including man that lives in the north. And how does he do this? By giving up his own life as food. He doesn't do this either willingly or heroically, but by the law of nature. Even though he is hunted by so many natural enemies, mother nature has provided him with a protection. In warm months the hare is brown, but each autumn white hairs come into the brown coat and in about ten weeks he becomes pure white. At the same time snow begins to fall and soon the hare and snow blend together to make a perfect match. Many animals of the North spend most of the winter sleeping and require little food; the large carnivorous animals and birds are the who died nine years ago, and a sor ones that have the grimmest battle of the late Reuben and Mary Ellen

Revival Services

Walnut Grove Dunkard Brethren Revival services will be held in the Taneytown Evangelical United Brethren Church beginning Sunday night, March 19th and will continue to Wednesday night, March 29th, at 7:30 p.m., nightly. The Rev. H. Philip Kissinger, III of the Shepherdstown, Pa., EUB Church, will be the messenger of the Word each night beginning Monday night. The Rev. Kissinger is a grad-uate of Bob Jones University, Greenville, S. C. and he has served for two years as Chaplain in the States Army. He was appointed as pastor of the Shepherdtown parish United this past October.

There will be special music each night with congregational singing of gospel songs. The public is cordially invited to hear this fine young me senger of the Word from the Bible.

A Special Week With Real Meaning

Being celebrated this week in Maryland and the 49 other States is a special event of real significance to millions of Americans. It is National millions of Americans. It is National 4-H Club week, During National 4-H Club Week, the 725 4-H members in Carroll County will join 2,250,000 throughout the Nation in a variety of activities designed to call public attention to the achievements of the 4-H clubs and to the advantages of 4-H club membership for oth ages of 4-H club membership for othages of 4-H club membership for other boys and girls not yet enrolled in the organization. We are happy to be able to help out in this cause

The 4-H Clubs are an organization of young people interested in learning by actual practice how to be better

y actual practice how to be better farmers, better homemakers and bettact with the Agricultural Extension Service and the agricultural experi-ment stations. They benefit from the guidance and cooperation of the pub-lic education system; civic groups, city, county, State and Federal gov ernmental organizations; and business and industry leaders. They have as volunteer leaders in their activities thousands of farmers, homemakers and other adults interested in the future of the State's young people.

The 4-H clubs have pioneered many improvements in farming and homemaking in Carroll County, Md. But no less important is the character building that results from membership and active participation in 4-H work. Many farmer 4-H members now hold prominent places in agriculture and other walks of life.

There is a place in 4-H work for many thousands of other young people—and for many other adults who want to make a contribution to the welfare of youth and the progress of the State by lending a hand with 4-

FORT JACKSON. S. C., March 10 Recruit Paul D. Roop son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl David Roop, Rt- 1-M. Taneytown, Md. has been assigned to Company C, 7th Battalion, 2nd Training Regiment at Fort Jackson, S. C., for eight weeks of Basic Combat Training. This is his first phase of six months active duty training with the U.S. Army and a part of the obligation he incurred upon enlisting in the Army Reserve. His Army Reserve unit is Highfield Guard, Highfield, soldier to become a better rifleman less time than previous methods. In this program most of his training consists of firing his rifle at pop-up targets at unknown distances on terrain which duplicates combat areas.

Other highlights of his intensive training include squad tactics, bayonet and hand-to-hand combat, and crawling the infiltration course while

(Continued from first page) the necessity of having the rules suspended. This is done for the purpose Meade, Md. of allowing the members of Legislature to spend the remaining time of this session, which ends on Monday, April 3, 1961, in considering those Bills which have not as yet been disposed of.

There has been considerable amount of local interest shown in Senate Bill No. 266. This Bill would have provided that the excess of salaries for personal services above the lowest wage rates is not to be considered as an expense of a public service company in computing its rate of return. In short, this Bill was aimed at abolishing the wage differential now existing in payments made to telephone company employees throughout the various areas of the State of Maryland.

Several hearings were scheduled for Senate Bill No. 266 but each was postponed and the Bill was finally withdrawn by its proponents in favor of considering the same subject mater over the bargaining table. Other Bills which have attracted zens are House Bills Nos. 233, 234 and ch attention among our local citi-b. These Bills deal with the Public Library Service throughout the State. While there was much interest shown in these Bills, it is our understanding that the Committee which considered hem could not be certain of the exact effect these Bills would have if ted into law and the Committee herefore referred the matter to the egislative Council for further study.

o doubt, similiar Legislation will be recommended for passage by the legislative Council in the next session of the General Assembly. Since there has been a number of condemnation cases instituted in Carroll County in the past, we thought it might be interesting to mention here that Senate Bills Nos. 402, 403, 404 and 405 have been introduced as a result of a study which was made this past summer by a sub-committee of the Legislative Council. These Bills would have drastic affects on the condemnation laws as they now exist. Among other things they would require that the property taken be described by metes and bounds. They would define the term "Fair Market Value" and would fix the factors determining Fair Market Value in condemnation proceedings. They would also amend the provisions and compensation for mov-Barley... ing expenses where property is con-

For the dog lovers we would report that the Prince George's County Del egation and Delegate Joseph Tidings have introduced House Bill No. 643 which would add Section 77A to Article 41 of the Annotated Code of Maryland to declare the Chesapeake Bay Retriever to be the Official State

Further times have been set for hearings on the Budget as follows: on Tuesday, March 21, hearing on the Department of Employment Security and on Wednesday, March 22, the State Roads Commission.

E. O. WEANT, Jr. State Senator for Carroll County.

Service Offered Farmers

Recently the Soil Conservation Service, working with farmers in Carroll County, was asked to state briefly its origin, purpose, and how it is contributing to the economy of the County. Grover Zimmerman, Soil Conserva-tionist, on loan to the Carroll Soil Conservation District, indicated 3 things that they are engaged in at the present time.

On request, and with proper agreements we supply the following to the District and the farmers.

District and the farmers.

1. We make Soil Surveys to get the physical facts on which to base Conservation work. These surveys are made in cooperation with Land-grant Colleges and other interested agencies, and are published by the Department. This is part of the National Cooperative Soil Survey. The Land data are recorded on aerial photographs, copies of which are given to farmers copies of which are given to farmers in the course of farm planning.

2. We help cooperating farmers on the ground to develop and apply Conservation plans that provide for efficient and profitable use of their land. These technicians include soil conservationists, as well as engineers woodland, biology, agronomy, and other Agricultural specialists, depending on the problems. We help farmers plan and use the combination of measures needed to control erosion, preserve and improve their soil, and conserve water resources.

3. We help district governing bodies carry out an information program that is keyed to the specific needs of the District and which serves as a tool in speeding up acceptance as a tool in speeding up acceptance and application of conservation practices needed in the District program.

As of Dec. 1960, the Soil Conservation Service was working with 1, 800,000 District cooperators operating on 560 million acres of land, of these cooperators, 965 are in Carroll County, farming 111,895 acres of land, Of this farming 111,895 acres of land. Of this 88,987 acres are covered with sound conservation practices. Zimmerman stated, that these works of improve He will be taught rifle marksman-ship under the U. S. Army's Trainfire program which enables the modern satisfactorily in the District.

Three Cheers For The Cupcakes

All set for a party with cupcakes and punch. The cupcakes may be made from a mix, from scratch, or bought from the bakery. The frosting alone will bring on the cheers. It is an uncooked frosting made with Skippy peanut butter, Karo syrup and the usual confectioners' sugar. Teenagers will have fun making the frosting and making the punch, too. It is an easy flavorful one. Cream Cupcakes

1 cup sugar

2 teaspoons baking powder 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup corn oil 1/2 cup milk

1 teaspoon vanilla 2 cups sifted flour Beat eggs with rotary beater; add sugar gradually and beat until light; add vanilla. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Combine corn oil and milk in measuring cup; whip with fork until creamy. Add to batter alternately with flour mixture, beating until smooth after each addition. Pour batter into paper-lined, or greased and floured, muffin pans. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 20 to 25 minutes or until cakes test done. Makes 18 medium cupcakes.

Peanut Butter Frosting

3 to 4 tablespoons milk 2 cups sifted confectioners' ½ cup Skippy creamy pea-nut butter

1/3 cup light Karo syrup 1/2 teaspooon vanilla

Cream Skippy peanut butter. Add Karo syrup and vanilla; blend. Add milk and confectioners' sugar alternately, beating until smooth and creamy after each addition. Add just enough milk to make a spreading consistency. Makes enough for 18 cupcakes.

Party Tea

1 cup orange juice, fresh 3 ounces tea or equivalent tea bags 1 quart boiling water or canned

1 cup light Karo syrup

3 quarts water
1 cup lemon juice, fresh, bottled or 1 can frozen

Lemon or orange slices to garnish Cherries to garnish Ice for bowl, cracked or Pour boiling water over tea. Let it steep about 6 minutes. Strain. Cool. Stir in corn syrup. Add water, lemon juice and orange juice. Mix well. Chill in refrigerator, if desired. Fill punch bowl about one-half full of ice cubes or cracked ice. Pour cold tea into bowl. Garnish with orange slices and cherries. Makes 24 servings.

Fertilizer is your best investment

Cut feed costs by topdressing your pasture this Spring

THE part of your milk check that winds I up as profit in your pocket depends mainly on how much money you've got to pay out for purchased feeds. Realizing this, cost-conscious dairymen will produce more of their cows' feed intake from pastures by topdressing early this Spring with highquality Agrico fertilizer. These 7 reasons show why topdressing pastures makes good

- Improves the milk-making capacity of your pastures by promoting denser, healthier growth . . . higher in protein and total feed value.
- 2. Gives 7 to 10 days of earlier grazing.

Busy mother of three finds telephone gives 21 extra hours in two weeks...saves $1738 and 200 miles of traveling

Mrs. H. Richard Duden of Annapolis recently kept a two-week record of all her family's telephone calls. For each call she also estimated any expense, time and traveling that were saved by being able to telephone.

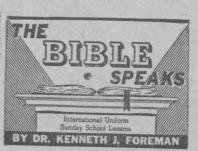

At the end of two weeks, her tally showed that the telephone had given them almost a full day of extra time, and had saved far more in traveling expenses than the cost of their telephone service.

Whether it was a call to summon a washer repairman or rounding up the youngsters, the phone made busy days easier.

Mrs. Duden found, too, that some calls provide pleasure and peace of mind that can't be measured in time or money saved. For instance, her husband who is an insurance representative and football coach, had to make a business trip to Florida. His Long Distance call to the family went into a "special" category of her telephone diary.

Perhaps you might like to keep a diary to see what your telephone does. We think you'd find, too, that your telephone saves much more in time, trouble and expense -than the cost of having it.

Bible Material: John 17. Devotional Reading: John 17:1-11.

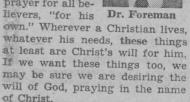

For His Own

Lesson for March 19, 1961

WHAT ONE of us needs, another does not. In a worship service in the church, the minister cannot offer the same particular prayers which any one person present might rightfully pray; for the circumstances vary from person to person. Nevertheless a minister may offer prayers which every one there may take to heart. So it was with the great prayer of Christ written down in John 17. This was a prayer for all be-

This prayer is full of requests, yet it is far from a "gimme" prayer. The reader may profitably sit down and think what makes this different from so many of our request-prayers. Meanwhile we can high light for a moment four gifts Jesus asks from his Father for those who have been "given him." One is joy. This is commonplace enough, by the sound of it. Who does wish to be happy, who does not pray for happiness for his friends? Yet this is different from ordinary happiness. "That they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves," Jesus prays. This is not commonplace. The reader is invited to think it out. What is the difference between ordinary happiness and the kind of joy that we can think of as characteristic of Christ? 0

"Koep Them From The Evil One" We wish we had the actual words Jesus prayed in; probably Aramaic. The Greek language of the New Testament has no way of distinguishing between "evil" and "the evil one"—that is, Satan. So we have to ask: Did our Lord pray that "his own" should be kept from evil or from the evil one? There is not space to give all the reasons for thinking that probably Jesus meant the evil one. Certainly we are in contact with evil of some kind all the days of our lives, evil in our own hearts if nowhere else.

"That They May All Be One"

It is a shame to argue about this great prayer of Christ, but it is a fact that this simple request, "that they may all be one," has had many meanings put on it. The least this can mean is twofold: (1) that all the members of a Christian congregation shall be one in heart; (2) that every individual Christian shall feel in his heart, and practice in his life, a Christian brotherliness and harmony with all other Christians. Now that is so simple that it sounds like a truism, that is, something so obvious that a fool might have thought of it. But whatever it may sound like, Jesus never said anything more difficult. The mere fact that he prayed for unity of this kind shows that it cannot be achieved without God's help. How easy it is to be in harmony with people just like us! How hard it is to feel any harmony with people who are different! But that is just what unity calls for.

"That They May Be With Me"

Evangelists talk of deciding for Christ. That is the right way to start. But times come when we are called on to decide with Christ. The great and perhaps most searching question to be asked of Christians is: Are you with Christ? He prayed for that; do you? But most students of the Gospels believe Jesus was thinking also-or perhaps chiefly, for he was facing death-of the life beyond this life. It is putting the emphasis somewhere besides the center when we talk of heaven and hell. The question for this life goes into the next too: Are you with him? To be with him is what heaven is; to be without him is what hell means.

Every morning and every waking hour, the Christian may well ask himself: Is the way I am spending this hour a way that brings me closer to my Master or is it going to make him strange

These days in news reports we are hearing much about rivers. Flood waters have caused them to overflow banks and as they rush onward to mingle with the sea they leave a trail of destruction, heartache and loss.

On second thought, in spite of the fury of their flooding, humanity is still their debtor. Rivers have always been the birthplace of civilization. They loom very largely in the annals of human history. In fact, when the curtain of history rises we find a people already possessing civilized developments on the banks of the Nile. Man paddled or sailed up a river to begin the history of another nation. America was born on the water and cradled in the mouth of its many great rivers. The French on the St. Lawrence, The Dutch on the Hudson, the Swedes on the Delaware, the English on the James and the Potomac; the Spanish on the Mississippi from which they paddled inland to spread their culture in the new land. ture in the new land.

Most every nation venerates some great river which flows its domains and praise it in song and story. Even little Ireland sings, "where the river Shannon's flowing" England has the Thames which one Englishman said was not "mere water". It was "Liquid History". France has its Seine, Germany not "mere water" It was "Liquid History". France has its seiene, Germany its Rhine, Egypt its Nile, while the Hindu believes that to die on the banks of the Ganges or to drink before death of its waters is to secure everlasting felicity.

Most of the greatest cities of the world are on the banks of rivers. Rome sits majestically on the Tiber, London on the Thames, Paris on the Seine, New York on the Hudson, New Orleans on the Mississippi and our beautiful National Capital on the banks of the Potomac.

All rivers are "Liquid History". The records of the worlds great rivers constitute themselves, to all intents and purposes the history of the race. Today our minds are confused with African troubles and the jumble of rames of new states or governments reaching for national recognition, but the student who has mastered the history and hydrography of the Niger, the Congo, the Zambesi, the Orange and the Nile, has little more to learn about Africa.

about Africa.

Even our Bible with its Psalms and prophecies are colored by this phase of Judean life. The Psalmists were forever singing about the river. Although Ezekiel dreamed of a broad river rushing out of Jerusalem, yet the Jews never forgave the frowning Providence that denied to their fair city a river. They heard how Babylon stood proudly surveying the shining waters of the Euphrates, how Nineveh was beautiful by the Tigris and Thebes in stately grandeur on the Nile. ly grandeur on the Nile.

Life is sometimes called a river, the river of life, flowing onward passing the landmarks one after another infancy, adolescense, maturity, then the quietness of old age, soon to mingle with the sea of immortality. Yes! Life, the river, flowing onward across the plain, through rough and torturous passes, on into the valley to be lost in the sea of immortality.

Early American Bath & Bed Coordinates

IF EARLY AMERICAN is your choice of decor for your home, you'll be delighted to hear that you can choose coordinated home fashions in towels, sheets and blankets in a charming early American "Patriot" design. News comes from The Cannon Homemaking Service, of a fringed towel ensemble that features on a white background, an early American medallion print in harmonizing tones of blue and lilac, pink and green or yellow and brown.

You can find charming combspun percale sheets and pillow cases with borders in coordinated colors and pattern. The light-weight year-round blanket, shown on this bed, carries out the same "Patriot" design in similar colorings. Even shower curtains, bathroom window drapes and cafe curtains are in the same design. What fun to have your bedroom and bath charmingly coordinated in an early American theme.

Comment from the Capital -

WHAT DO WORDS MEAN?

by Vant Neff

IMPERIALISM: According to our dictionary it is the policy or practice of seeking to extend the dominion of a nation. The Commies constantly denounce us for "imperialism". Yet the rec-ord proves that this nation, in ord proves that this nation, in the Pacific, the Caribbean, Afri-ca and Asia has helped sover-eignties attain and keep their independence. The Communists are not fools, though. Their mis-use of words like "imperialism" is part of their calculated plan to distort our thinking. For ac-cording to the Marxist-Leninist terminology. "imperialism" is terminology, "imperialism" is monopoly capitalism which seeks world domination by various means of oppression, exploitation, enslavement. Yet the "Yankee imperialists" are the same ones who have given away billions of dollars to help con-quered nations, backward countries and former foes.

COEXISTENCE: Do you think it means living together each in his own sphere? Not in the Communist scheme of things. According to Khrush-chev himself, as he told Adlai Stevenson, it means that "if the principles of non-interference were accepted" by us, "it would improve the international cli-mate." But "what went on in the Communist part of the world was none of the United States' business." In other words, according to the Communists, we must stay away from anything they do or attempt. But they have the right to attack, criticize and interfere, anywhere.

DISPUTE: You may think dispute is a contention between two or more parties with some rights on each side. But that is not the way the Com-munists use the word. For in-stance, when Red China seized the territory in the north of India, the fact that the Indians resisted, the Chinese labeled the incident a dispute. Or, when Castro seized American prop-erty in Cuba, the Communists called the American resentment,

AGGRESSION: We have always believed the word to mean — the first or unprovoked attack. Not so the Communists when we got tired of Cuba vilifying us and we stopped doing business with them, we were called "aggressors" by the Com-mies. Whenever and wherever in the world we resist a Com-munity grab we are called ag-

ILLEGAL: You think that means unlawful. And it does.

Even the Communists who term nations, in and out of the United Nations, illegal, have not twisted the word — they have twisted its application. In their lights, it means anything we do or say which differs from their policy or path of conquest their policy or path of conquest — is, illegal!

LIBERATION: In English or any language the word means, the act of releasing from bond-age. That is not the way the Communists use the word or act. For instance, when the Red Chinese overran Tibet it was termed, liberation. Any and all the countries in Europe and the Far East which were invaded and placed under Communist domination were called "liberated". Sometimes the Communists vary the term for enslaving a nation, and sometimes, especially when it is accompanied by a large army, the Communists call the act peoples liberation! liberation!

These are a few examples of how the Communists are using your language to indoctrinate your mind. They are artful, for with the misuse of words they link completely distorted facts which they hope you'll believe, when repeated frequently enough. And when they further add to this a barrage of propaganda, it is difficult to separate the fact from the fiction. In fact it has fooled some good minds in this country. Let's remember the old proverb: "Fool me once—your fault;"

"Fool me twice—my fault;"

Hearty Lenten Luncheon

Lenten meals will sparkle when they include homemade eating from the oven! There's nothing more tempting to the palate than tender, piping hot corn sticks—and, there's nothing as easy to make when you start with a package of your favorite corn muffin mix. No one will ever guess that you began with a convenience food when the tasty results hint a remembrance of Grandma's day!

A sprinkling of sesame seed give these corn sticks a toasted, nut-like flavor—so enhancing to the tender texture and delicate flavor of corn. Strips of cheese and hard-cooked egg slices atop a fresh vegetable salad complete the main part of this hearty menu:

Heat oven to hot (400°F.). Grease corn stick molds and place in oven while it is heating. Empty contents of package into bowl; add egg and milk. Blend only until dry ingredients are thoroughly moistened. (Batter should be slightly lumpy.) Fill hot corn stick molds half full. Sprinkle sesame seed over batter. Bake in preheated oven (400°F.) about 15 minutes or until golden brown.

Desserts for Children to Fix

NOTHING WILL PLEASE THE CHILDREN MORE than having a hand in making the desserts for their own party. Little hands love to be busy. So—mother will make up these Cheery Cherry Desserts ahead of time—all but the trimmings and let the children add the finishing touch. She will make the cherry gelatin and let it chill in pretty sherbet glasses. Then she'll make the vanilla pudding, the instant kind, chill it and spoon it over the gelatin mixture to set. the gelatin mixture to set.

Now here's where the children come in. They can use alphabet oat cereal to spell out their names on top of the desserts, as shown, in the photograph. They will love the idea!

Cheery Cherry Dessert

1 package (3 ounces)
2 cups cold milk
cherry gelatin
1 package Jell-O Vanilla
Instant Pudding cherry gelatin

1 cup boiling water

1 cup alphabet oat cereal Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add cold water. Pour into sherbet glasses, filling half full. Chill until firm. Meanwhile, pour milk into mixing bowl. Add pudding mix and beat just until well blended, about 1 minute. Let stand to set.

About 15 minutes before serving, stir pudding until smooth.

Spoon over gelatin, sprinkle with cereal. Makes 6 to 8 servings. 1 cup cold water

Use Curves With Curves

Accessories with curved lines are best choices with French Provincial and other furniture designs with graceful curves.

In the room illustrated, it might be a temptation to hang a rectangular painting above the elegant new French Provincial console organ by Hammond. But a rectangular wall accessory could not easily become a part of the grouping. The curved one test it belongs, and the organ and the wall accessory become a paint of decorative unit.

herry wood, available nova choice of new light or dad, finishes this French Provincial styled organ, accepts gold, bronze, or has as harmonizing color tones.

Try placing curve with curve for a new decorator look.
