LIONS CLUB OBSERVES CHARTER NIGHT

15th Anniversary Celebrated in Smithsburg

The quaint old Holiday Barn near Smithsburg, Maryland, was the scene last Tuesday, September 12, of Taneytown Lions Club's fifteenth charter night celebration, & delegations from Glade Valley, Freedom District, Taylorsville-Winfield, Westminster, Libertytown-Unionville, Roaring Run, and Emmitsburg were present for the festivities in a program provided by Past-presidents "Glenn O. Reeve, chairman, Harry B. Dougherty, and Homer Y. Myers.

President John T. Hottinger presided over the regular opening, the invocation was by Lion the Rev. Edmund P. Welker, and a fried chicken and baked ham dinner was served to the more than 125 members, their wives, and guests. Chairman Reeve introduced the many eminent guests, namely International director and Mrs. G. Robert Lyles, Past international director and Mrs. Massey H. Roe, District Governor of 22W and Mrs. Arthur M. Moats, Deputy district governor and Mrs. Fern L. Smith Zone chairman and Mrs. Carroll W. Fritz, Cabinet secretary and Mrs. Paul C. Waggoner, and International counselors Lawrence A. Dorsey, Harry E. and Mrs. Dougherty, Alvey V. and Mrs. Renn, and Carl C. and Mrs. Thomas Myron R. Tracey also was present as the guest of his father, Thomas H. Tracey.

A barbershop quartet from Emmitsburg consisting of Weldon, Odell, and Lee Shank, and Ralph McDonald, favored with four selections in two groups, beautifully rendered a capella — "Down by the old mill stream" and "Aura Lee", and again after the speaker, "Carolina" and "A little talk with Jesus".

The heat and humidity being great and the place, alas, boasting no air conditioning International Director Lyles, introduced by Toastmaster Reeve as the evening's speaker, was mercifully brief in his remarks. He brought greetings from International pres. Per Stahl of Sweden, congratulated the club on its six years of perfect attendance, for having twelve charter members present that evening, and for contributing so greatly to the fine district 22 showing at the international Atlantic City convention by sending there the Taneytown high school band for the July 21 parade.

His talk, entitled "Sidewalks", dealt with those of yesterday, today, and tomorrow. The ancient brick sidewalk laid down in the year 1917 that lies in front of the house of the Misses Brining in Taneytown he likened to the start of Lionism, which also saw the light of day in that year. Just as the bricks are interlaced with sand, so the slogan symbolized by the word LIONS, "Liberty, intelligence, our nation's safety" and the organization's motto, "We serve," are executed in activities of public service which, more numerous than the grains of sand that form the sidewalk's foundation—bind all Lions together in deeds of service to their respective communities. "Lions International was building yesterday, is building today, and will build tomorrow. After fifteen years of service to the people of your community, what better opportunity than here and now to plan for the next fifteen years? It is your birthday, a time to analyze failures and successes, to seek out the future good, establish programs of worth and value, and anticipating to our children that the important role of Lionism in our community will never diminish. It is a world of new dimensions, new concepts, and new challenges."

Closing announcements made by President Hottinger included one of a directors' meeting Thursday, September 14, in the Potomac Edison building at 8 p.m. Any outstanding Community birthday calendars should be turned in promptly; one team already has theirs complete. The Silver Run-Union Mills club asks if Taneytown would like to compete with them in a donkey baseball game on September 19, Taylorsville-Winfield is having a public chicken barbecue Saturday the 16th at Winfield school from 1:30 p.m. until . . . . . The next meeting of Taneytown Lions will be on Tuesday, September 26, when Merwyn C. Fuss will have charge of a program entitled "Faculty Night" honoring the community's teachers.

SOCIAL SECURITY FOR MEN AT AGE 62

The age at which men can apply for social security payments has been changed to 62, according to L. J. Gillespie, Field Representative of the Baltimore (North) social security office.

Until now, men had to be at least 65 before they could make application for payment unless they were disabled. For several years women have been able to claim their social security payments at a reduced amount when they were 62. Men now have the same opportunity. Mr. Gillespie stated that a man's payment at 62 would be reduced because he would be getting paid three years earlier. By reducing the amounts of payments at age 62, he will get about the same total payments as he would be waiting until 65. A claim must be made before any payments can begin. If you would like more information about payments for men at 62, see your social security office at 3107 Greenmount Avenue, Baltimore 18, Maryland.

Mr. Kenneth Crouse, office manager of Crouse Motor Sales and member of the Jaycees has been named Director of Competition for the Taneytown Punt, Pass and Kick program, to be held October 14 at Taneytown Memorial Park.

Announcement of the appointment of Mr. Kenneth Crouse was made by George W. Crouse, owner of Crouse Motor Sales, local sponsor of the competition. Mr. Crouse also announced that judges for the new competitive event for boys aged six through 10 will be Mr. Elwood Baumgardner local business man and member of the Kiwanis Club, Mr. Raymond Perry, Mayor of Taneytown, local business man and member of the Lions Club, Kenneth Nusbaum, Sales Mgr. of Crouse Motor Sales.

In the competition, boys will be judged on the distance and accuracy of their passing, punting and place-kicking. Top winners, one from each age group, will receive football uniforms and may have the opportunity to compete in the national eliminations, depending upon their scores. Warm-up jackets and footballs are prizes for the winners of second and third place, respectively.

Scores of the top winners in the Taneytown competition will be compared with scores of other winners in this area, and the best five youthful football specialists will pass, punt and kick for national honors at a home game of the Baltimore Colts in November.

Taneytown boys within the age limits now may register at Crouse Motor Sales, Taneytown, Md., when accompanied by a parent or guardian.

The P. P. & K. program is being sponsored nationally by the Ford Division of Ford Motor Company.

Johnny Units of the Baltimore Colts, Yale Lary of the Detroit Lions, and Paul Hornung of the Green Bay Packers—three of the best players in the National Football League—have teamed together to write an instruction booklet on passing, punting and place-kicking for the information of Taneytown area boys who will compete in the Ford Punt, Pass and Kick competition scheduled for Oct. 14th at Memorial Park.

Units, daring quarterback who twice led the Baltimore Colts to the NFL championship, details the tips which made him into one of the greatest passers in NFL history. Lary, the league's best punter in 1959, outlines the important rules to follow in getting off long and straight punts, while Hornung, the all-around player noted for his place-kicking skill, reports on ways to angle field goals or get off booming kick-offs.

The illustrated booklet, which also includes directions on properly performing body-building calisthenics, is being given to each grade school boy aged 6 through 10 who register for the Punt, Pass and Kick competition at Crouse Motor Sales, Taneytown. Entrants must be accompanied by parent or guardian.

At the time of registration, boys also are given a Punt, Pass and Kick badge, and a copy of the official 1961 National Football League guidebook. In the competition, Taneytown boys will be judged for the accuracy and distance of their punting, passing, and place-kicking, as they compete for prizes of football uniforms, warm-up jackets and footballs. Boys will compete only in their age groups.

The five best P. P. and K. specialists in the area covered by telecasts of the Baltimore Colts home games then will compete in the national competition, which for this area will be held at the Baltimore Memorial stadium during a November home game.

Prizes for the five national winners, provided by the Ford Division of Ford Motor Company, will include an all-expense trip for the winners and their fathers to the NFL Championship game, a visit to Washington for an official White House reception, and trophies.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

And now the "RUBBER PLANTS" are to the front again as in my childhood as our home as many others boasted of these plants. What care we used to give them washing the leaves with soapy water and they always appeared like wax! Now, as I think back they really did give a room a certain oomph! If you are interested in purchasing any—Grant's on Lexington street have a big assortment. And so very reasonable $1.57 and up according to size.

Thinking of plants and things of a Breath of God—my nice neighbor brought over a large bunch of the vine called, "Wondering Jew"! How glamorous it has made the dining area appear as they are growing beautifully and I placed them in the silver bowl which belonged to Johns Hopkins and presented to me by a relative—Arthur Hopkins. I always was thrilled to have my husband Christen babies from the Pulpit from that bowl and the Congregations always knew there was a story to that one. Arthur Hopkins is still living and is past 90 years of age! He is the nephew of the big giver of the famous hospital.

Just think, Sears at Mondawmin have stocked one department already for T O Y S for Christmas and thinking of Christmas — one lady writes that she has every gift already wrapped which she purchased at special sales in the big stores.

If you desire, Ladies to have brown sugar in the house at all times, the only way to really keep it from getting hard is to wrap the box in silver foil paper and it will keep fresh for months.

Are you taking those exercises along with the gentleman on Channel

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1961

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

FARMINGDALE, N. J., BOOSTER: "Many Congressmen are of the opinion, that if the world crisis is as bad as the administration paints it, we should forget a lot of the social experiments that the administration has fostered."

CLARKSDALE, MISS., PRESS REGISTER: "With great fanfare the Tennessee Valley Authority announced a reduction of eight per cent on electric rates. Within 24 hours it became evident that TVA hadn't reduced rates at all, and that few users of TVA electricity would find their electric bills any smaller."

"The purpose of this deception wasn't announced, but... it turned out that TVA merely suggested the lower rate schedule to the co-ops, municipal systems and other distributors of electricity it produces. The wholesale price for current is unchanged."

"The government, through the Federal Trade Commission, eagerly pounces on a merchant or a builder who deceives the public about his prices. Who's going to keep the government honest?"

APPLE VALLEY, CALIF., NEWS: "If a stranger were to ask a random group of Americans if they favored the Communist type of government, the majority would react with an indignant 'certainly not'. Yet too many people these days, those same people who profess to be violently opposed to totalitarian forms of government, are thinking and acting in a manner that must put a glow on the face of the Kremlin. As long as there are people who favor the acquisition of financial support from the government and people who prefer to have the government control and operate any type of business that should be handled by private enterprise the threat of government control—which is a totalitarian type of government—will be much too much in evidence."

PLANO, ILL., COUNTY NEWS: "The federal government is, among other things, the largest electric power producer in the country, the largest insurer, the largest lender and the largest borrower, the largest landlord and the largest tenant, the largest holder of grazing land, the largest holder of timberland, the largest owner of grain, the largest warehouse operator, the largest ship owner, and the largest truck fleet operator. For a nation which is the world's principal exponent of private enterprise and individual initiative, this is a rather amazing list."

KLAMATH FALLS, ORE., HERALD: "It... is certainly the time to put all governmental spending under the public glare and start pruning those programs which are not of immediate importance to the overall problem of national defense. "A sound defense is necessary, and we will gladly pay the cost. But let's not spend money as though it were going out of style."

WADESBORO, N. C., MESSENGER & INTELLIGENCER: "An American and a Dutchman were talking. 'What does your flag look like?' asked the American. "It has three stripes," said the Dutchman, "red, white and blue. We say they have a connection with our taxes. We see red when we talk about them, white when we get out the bill and we pay till we're blue in the face." "That's how it is here," said the American, "only we see stars, too."

CURRENT EVENTS
FIFTY YEARS AGO

Taneytown is apparently to have a big cigar factory as has been noted elsewhere in this issue. This should inspire some of our capitalists to build a lot of houses and give the town a chance.

Rev. John C. Thompson, the Rector of the Church of the Sacred Heart, Lancaster, Pa. and a nephew of Col. Goulden, spent Wednesday here as the guest of Louis J. Hemler. Father Thompson expressed admiration for this beautiful section, the former home of his mother, a Miss Weirick, whose father for many years lived at Trevanion.

Carroll County will have a good apple crop without being unusually large.

Elder John Utz and wife have returned from a three months trip to the far West—Colorado, Nebraska and the Rockies.

The Taneytown Band has been engaged to furnish music at the Hanover Fair, on Thursday, Sept. 21st.

Frizellburg—Corn cutting is in full blast and many are done—Public school begins next Monday. The little tots are aware of it, and are making ready to be on time. The house has been cleaned and looks inviting for their reception. There will be auction at Warehouse's store room in this place Saturday afternoon.

Copperville—The farm owned by Mrs. Ridinger, deceased has been sold privately to J. T. Stultz and son J. Zieber Stultz. Roy Hiner of near Marker's Mill is staying with his grandma while his grandpa is sampling fertilizers for the Agricultural College.

Mayberry—Oscar Lemmon of Mayberry and Blanche L. Myers of near Silver Run were married last week. Jacob Bemiller, wife and daughter, Pauline, of near Pleasant Valley spent Sunday with Mrs. Bemiller's parents, Wm. E. Lawyer and wife.

LEAVES IN HISTORY

Lewis and Clark found tobacco a big help in blazing the trail through Indian territory to the Pacific in 1804-06. They shared tobacco with every tribe they met, paving the way for future trading and settlements.

Even the feared Comanches would peacefully approach wagon trains to beg for tobacco. The Indians grew tobacco, but they preferred the white man's leaf.

During the Colorado Gold Rush of 1859, when 50,000 prospectors rushed west, tobacco was sold for its weight in gold dust. Today, 17,000,000 Americans depend on tobacco for all or part of their livelihood.

A VOICE FROM CARROLL

We have just learned that optimists are not as popular as the persons who look at life through doom and gloom bi-focals. In fact, the smart set of every community are determined that they will not listen to anything or anybody that has a happy thought about the future or even the present. It is a brave person that voices any happy or optimistic views about any subjects including the weather. People prefer to hear that the world is in a mess; that we are doomed to all sorts of evil things and that there isn't an honest soul left in the world. If some one points out that things are no worse then they were a hundred years ago and in many cases a lot better, and that future is no more uncertain than it ever was, the listeners look at the poor optimist, raise their eyebrows and silently steal away. This is not the kind of thinking they prefer to listen to.

Its time to plant bearded iris if next spring you want the satisfying pleasure of seeing purple flags waving along your garden path. Don't make the mistake we did and plant them in an acid soil. Three years ago we moved some from a place where they had bloomed so well to a spot which we thought would be ideal. For a time they grew and then suddenly died. We learned that the second spot was too acid and too wet. Iris like people do better when their feet are kept dry.

At Timonium Fair the most fascinating exhibit was the fall-out shelter. Thousands visited it but we wonder how many will really build one. Out of curiosity we ask everyone we meet if they are going to build one. So far, not one person has admitted that he has a fall-out shelter or is going to build one. His reason for not building is that it would be useless. One man expressed it this way: "Suppose I did build a shelter in my basement, and an attack came during the day. I work at a plant 50 miles from my home. Do you think the shelter would do me any good? My children go to school ten miles from home. Do you think the shelter would help them? My wife suffers from claustrophobia and couldn't stand being shut in a shelter. So you see a shelter would do my family a very little good. We will just have to take the risk of whether the leaders of the great powers keep their sanity or not. A woman told me this: "No, we are not going to build a shelter. If I have to sit in a concrete box for two or three weeks and then come out to nothing but ruin and devastation and with no assurance that I can survive after that, then I think its best to go in the beginning. What will really save us is to let every person tell his government that we have had enough of this childish nonsense of playing with bombs and to act like men with maturity and solve all problems with wisdom and not insanity. We mean all governments in the world, not just two." So much for shelters but may we suggest that you read, "A Nation Of Sheep" by William Lederer.

While man continues to make bigger bombs, Nature herself put out this week a death dealing device in the form of Carla. It was a terrifying display of might and fury made up of water, wind and strength. Just watching it on television one got the feeling of utter helplessness in the face of terror. Even if one loves the sea and nature, there was no love left after seeing the immense waves beat the shoreline to pieces and to know that nature on the rampage has no compassion for man or his efforts. When the sea is again calm and the wind soft and gentle, what of the people who must return to find their homes gone and their means of earning a living gone too. Surely the rest of the nation should help these people in what ever way is needed. For through no fault of their own, nature bestowed on them trouble and sorrow from which it will take a lifetime to recover.

If you don't want children to hear what you're saying pretend that you are talking to them.

Life today is like living in a pressure cooker with a stuck safety valve. How to get it unstuck without blowing up the house seems to be the major problem.

Overheard in Westminster shopping center: A five-year-old to her mother who had just refused to buy her a toy, explaining that she didn't have the money. "But Mother, you can borrow it."

The most disliked task of house-keeping for many is the job of ironing. One of the drawbacks of this task is that it requires skillful hands but not mental exertion. The mind is left free to wander in all directions while the body is moored to the ironing board. Women have different ways to make the job interesting. My favorite method is to move the ironing board to different rooms. Sometimes we set it up in the living room or a bed room or out on the porch. Another way to vary the tedious task is to take a coffee break every hour. Ironing can seem more interesting if you don't iron the same type of laundry at one time. Mix shirts with pillow cases and then a dress followed with a tablecloth and then back to shirts again. Listening to the radio can keep one's mind occupied and off the amount of ironing still in the basket. But above all do wear a comfortable pair of shoes and stand on a rubber mat.

No doubt you have already heard about the young husband who came home one evening from work and found his wife knitting tiny things—seat covers for their Volkswagen.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, It was the will of God to remove from our midst, our beloved friend and associate BERNARD J. ARNOLD, who for many years has occupied a position of prominence in our community and has served as the faithful and loyal President of The Carroll Record Company, Taneytown, Maryland, from Aug., 1946 until his death August 12, 1961. Having had the best interests and advancement of the institution at heart at all times. Being always willing and able to give good counsel and advice and to give generously of his services even to the extent of self sacrifice.

Therefore Be It Resolved, That in his death we have sustained a loss which will be deeply realized by everyone connected with our organization. The loss to the Community in the passing of one so loved and respected is impossible to estimate. The example he has set for years in his Church life, Family life and service to his fellowmen should be an inspiration to us all, and his sudden demise leaves a vacancy which cannot easily be filled.

Be It Further Resolved, That we the Directors of The Carroll Record Company consider the death of Bernard J. Arnold a great personal loss and we will always cherish his loving memory. It has been an honor to have been associated with him.

Resolved, That we express our deep sympathy to his bereaved family and that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the Company, a copy sent to the family and a copy printed in The Carroll Record.

"Being fat usually is the result of living from hand to mouth, hand to mouth."—Walt Streetlight.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

(Continued from first page) 11 from 9 to 9:30? And that every week day. Many I know are enjoying it all with him.

The other day was a guest in a lovely new home near Randallstown and the day was the 45th wedding Anniversary for that couple. Believe it or not the husband made ice-cream with an old fashioned hand turner as he did for the family all down through the years. Ummm good!

If you have one of those old fashioned piano stools up in your attic, do bring it down and call Mr. Gerald Koren or write him, for he surely has made the one I used to sit on to practice appear glamorous and now am using it for the Vanity. His phone number is OL 6-3500 and the address is 8410 Billson Rd., Randallstown. He and his partner surely know that business!

It is cute of course to hear people remark about the "Kennedy Rocker" but those rockers were just plain porch rockers which were on everybody's old or new porch when I was a little girl in Philadelphia. Lately, I snapped a picture of "Mary" my pet Cocker-Spaniel on one of those rockers. How cute it would be for a Calendar for Christmas for The Carroll Record!

Letters:—Dear Observer:— My mother passed away several years ago and lately my father remarried and although his wife is devoted to my father, somehow I cannot call her "Mother". I call her by her first name. She makes my father a grand wife and his happiness is all I care about. I know you are a Step-Mother and would like your opinion on this. Thanking you! Signed Constant Reader.

Dear Reader:—Your letter was sweet and deep and I know your conscience must be pricking you just a little realizing this lady is making your father such a fine wife and considering your father first in everything as you say that is all that matters. Why not ask her about calling her "mother"? I know that you really want to do just that having the respect for her that you do. We never used that awful word in our home—Step! I think it is very cruel. There will be so much happiness in your entire household. I think you may be a little spook. Are you? Your Obs.

Dear Obs:— What do you think of the following? We were visiting friends and across the street there was being built a new home. My husband went over to look at it and bought it almost on the spot without consulting me and my things were on the way moving into it before I realized it! Even the draperies were made before I moved in and they are the type that I do not care about that I call, "Funeral Parlor" affairs covering not just the windows but the entire side of the walls. They were terribly expensive. My husband gave up just about everything—our shore and his boat and much else just for this home and you never saw a man so happy. Why are men so selfish? I go around sort of in a trance half the time and I keep having a lot of company so as I do not worry too much about it. It is just a relief to write this to you. Signed. Trying to be happy. Folks, I am not going to make any reply to that letter either right here or a personal one but I want all husbands to read the above before buying any house that is supposed to be a home and I think you know just what I mean.

Next week will be writing about "CONTACT LENSES"! Have a grand week-end, Folks. Be kind to one another and especially thoughtful and considerate. Life is so short. Will be seeing you next week. D. V.

I am, Faithfully, Your Observer.

THE UTICA CHARGE CHURCH NEWS UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Seventy-one persons attended the picnic of the Utica United Church of Christ held on the parsonage lawn in Lewistown recently. Refreshments and games were enjoyed. Arrangements were made by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Warner.

The church school of Mt. Pleasant United Church of Christ held their Sunday school picnic at Braddock Heights with approximately 100 people present. Mrs. Margaret Mullican was in charge. A short business meeting was held with Mrs. James Tucker presiding. Plans were made for the booth at the Frederick County Fair. Mrs. Ode Fuller is in charge of food. Mrs. Margaret Mullican, Mrs. James Tucker, and Mrs. Herman Lochner will prepare a schedule of workers.

The Women's Guild of the Mt. Pleasant United Church of Christ held their picnic on the parsonage lawn in Lewistown with about 30 people present. After the picnic lunch, the following vespers program was presented by Mrs. Miles Reifsnnyder. ### The Insect World by Waldman

No larger than a quarter inch in length, the bothersome flea can leap phenomenal distances! If a man could jump equivalent distances he'd cover 300 to 600 feet in a single bound!

Fleas were the villains in one of the most serious epidemics in history—the "Black Death" or bubonic plague! It wiped out more than half the population of Europe in the Middle Ages... was carried from rats to man by fleas!

In our time, scientists have kept these pests under control. One of the most effective new pet powders is made with an insecticide base called "Drianeone," a development of Fairfield Chemicals, FMC Corp. Pet powders made from this base are fatal to fleas yet provide long lasting comfort and protection to pets.

Plum-Perfect Preserves

We're lucky about Plums! Everyone can have them! In all sections of the country, plums are plentiful and varied in their many types and hues—but it wasn't always like this. Back in the 12th century a Chinese emperor decreed that only the upper classes might eat plums!

So—make the most of this colorful fruit... and try this easy recipe for making excellent and spicy jam for Winter use.

Spiced Plum Jam

Yield: about 11 medium glasses (5-1/2 lbs. jam)

- 4-1/2 cups prepared fruit (about 3 lbs. ripe plums)
- 1/2 to 1 teaspoon each, ground cloves, cinnamon, and allspice
- 7-1/2 cups (3-1/4 lbs.) sugar
- 1/2 bottle Certo Fruit Pectin

Step 1: Pit (do not peel) about 3 pounds fully ripe plums. Cut in small pieces and chop. Add spice and 1/2 cup water; bring to a boil and simmer, covered, 5 minutes. Measure 4-1/2 cups into a very large saucepan. (Sour clingstone plums give best color and flavor. If sweet plums or freestone prune plums are used, substitute 1/2 cup lemon juice for 1/2 cup of the prepared fruit.)

Step 2: Add sugar to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and at once stir in fruit pectin. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with 1/8 inch hot paraffin.

FISHING LINES By DICK WOLFF

Columnist Dick Wolff is "out fishin'" today. In his absence, guest columnist Ed Moore, Fishing Editor of The New York Journal American, reviews Wolff's new book "Fishing Tackle And Techniques", published by E. P. Dutton & Co.

When we learned more than a year ago that Dick Wolff was writing a book on fishing tackle we were most anxious to see the completed work. Dick, whom we have had the privilege of knowing for a good many years, is a thorough man who has always come up with answers that not only are replies to the questions, but which are in a form that can be understood by the questioner. His approach to fishing tackle should be, we thought, most interesting.

Well, it was. Not only is his book, "Fishing Tackle And Techniques" interesting, it's enthralling. We've been in the "fishing editor" category for a good many years and we've never before come upon a book on fishing tackle that does the job as this one does — which is the way it should be done.

If we can put our conclusions up here we would say that this is, without any reservations, the best book on fishing tackle that has ever been printed.

You see, Dick Wolff thoroughly understands every single thing he has written about in this book. That's the first requisite of coming up with an authoritative work.

Then he wrote it so that you and I and every reader can understand it. There's no point in writing something that can't be understood for that accomplishes nothing.

Bait casting, fly casting, spin casting, spinning, reels, rods and line are all taken up, discussed thoroughly and understandably, and all well illustrated and diagrammed.

The selection of tackle, balancing, and the technique of its use is fully discussed with, most important, the reasons for each decision. Nothing is glossed over. There's no bias for or against any type of tackle. It's all based on plain fact.

Following each chapter (and the chapters are devoted to one subject only) is a series of questions which cover the most common queries on that phase of tackle selection and use. If these questions don't happen to include your specific query, you will find that the answer is contained in the chapter itself.

"Fishing Tackle And Techniques" by Dick Wolff is the equal of and probably superior to, any half dozen books on fishing tackle ever printed in its value to the angler, novice or expert. It's the best investment you can make toward your own understanding of your tackle and enjoyment of its use.

"Fishing Tackle And Techniques" is available for $4.95 at your local book store from the Garcia Corporation, 968-76 Park Avenue South, New York 10, N. Y., or by writing E. P. Dutton & Co., 300 Park Avenue South, N. Y.

Proof Is in the Eating, Says 4-H'er

The pretty Pennsylvania 4-H miss pictured here is typical of her sisters throughout the land who can bake a mouth-watering loaf of bread or pan of golden rolls. She is like some half-million 4-H'ers enrolled in a baked foods project, reports the National 4-H Service Committee.

It was just 10 years ago that 4-H Club girls took up baking as a serious project governed by rules and certain well-defined objectives spelled out by the Cooperative Extension Service. It was then that the demonstration aspect of good baking practices was launched as a national awards program, according to a 4-H Service Committee spokesman.

The awards were made possible by Standard Brands, Incorporated, and as the years went by, they were increased considerably. Today, six national scholarships of $400 each are given to the highest ranking girls. An even dozen will qualify for expense paid trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago the last week in November.

For the best two-girl team demonstrators in the state and for the individual 4-H demonstrator as well, Standard Brands provides a $50 U. S. savings bond for each. Medals are expected to be given to an estimated 2,500 girls this year who win county recognition. Participation in the 4-H bread demonstration program last year increased by 23 per cent over 1957, according to the National 4-H Service Committee. This seems to indicate that "homemade" bread is not a lost art.

DENIM MEN OF AMERICA

THE CLOTHES WE WEAR

Latest fashion news for Fall is a man's business suit made of denim—the first revolutionary use of natural fibers in years. America's 1,100,000 apparel production workers (many denim-clad themselves) produce the greatest variety and quantity of clothing in the world. 21,000,000 dozen shirts and 15,000,000 dozen blouses alone are made yearly, for the market where Americans invest an annual $23 billion in clothing and accessories—women and children spending twice as much as men and boys!

Almost non-existent before 1920, informal wear now accounts for half all sales of men's clothing: 2 out of every 3 shirts are for sports wear. Given to charity in the end, $100,000 worth of used clothing is exported annually to underdeveloped areas such as Africa—where worn American shorts sell for 20 cents!

Pastors Needed

Lesson for September 17, 1961

NO OTHER religion but Christianity has anything like a pastor. They have monks, priests, "holy men," religious beggars, preachers; but no pastors. When the Christian religion began, there was no precedent for pastors. Nobody drew up a diagram of church organization and put the pastor into it. This particular "office" (a very dry word for it) of the pastorate grew into existence as the church grew. Certain men proved to be indispensable doing the kind of thing that pastors do, and so the pastor began to be a long-lived institution.

A man first

A good pastor is a man first. You can't take a misfit and make a pastor out of him. There is no other occupation in the world like it, there is no other that calls for so many different kinds of skills. We have a picture in the New Testament—your might say a set of snap-shots rather than a full-length movie—of a young man developing into a pastor: namely, Titus, a close friend of Paul. He traveled with Paul around the rim of Asia, as a missionary; but he was much more than an ordinary traveling companion. Paul was a Jew and Titus a Greek, yet Paul depended on him and he depended on Paul. Titus was not there, Titus was his second self; if Paul could not reach a church, he would send Titus in his place. This was not merely formal, so that Paul would be "represented;" Titus was sent into some pretty troublesome and ticklish situations, but always made good. He could operate in a team or on his own. We see him as a young man (so young that Paul called him "my child") with a firm character, with high ideals; a reliable, dependable man, a real leader of men. Other things being equal, the better the man, the better pastor he will be.

Worker with people

Not all friendly men make good pastors; but a good pastor must be a good friend, as he must be a good man. He needs to be sympathetic with the people of his church and community; but unlike so many of our friends the pastor will never be quite satisfied with us. For his high and difficult aim is to produce better Christians, to help every one he knows to become a Christian, if not one already, and to be a better Christian if the Christian life has already begun. He is a kind of gardener of souls, and that is a harder kind of garden to care for than orchids. Titus must have had tact, because Paul used him so often as a trouble-shooter; he had sympathy with other Christians, we never hear of his getting into church fights and arguments; the good pastor identifies himself in his mind's eye with those with whom and for whom he works,—he takes us as we are—but does not leave us as we are. This, we remember, was the way of Jesus.

Help wanted!

The church of Christ has always had officers and leaders, from the first. But the church came first, the officers and leaders grew out of the needs of the Christian community. No church-full of people really gets on very well without leaders. In Louisville, Kentucky, there is a congregation which for many years had as its pastor a bank president, who declined to take any salary from his congregation. But however it's done, such a leader is always needed. There aren't nearly enough.

The best service a church can render to the world is to produce young men who will volunteer for the Christian ministry, especially as pastors. But how is this done? The experience of Titus gives us a hint. Paul took this young man with him, he drafted him, so to speak, into the service of Christ and the church. It is quite true, as Christians are aware, that only the Holy Spirit can call a man to the ministry. But God's call often reaches men, as it reached Titus, through the suggestion, help and example of older Christians who are God's messengers to the young and undecided. Does your church encourage its young people to listen for the call of God?

Now Machine Washable Wool Sweaters!

Pure wool sweaters which can be machine washed and tumble-dried have eliminated one more headache for the housewife who knew this as a painstaking hand operation frequently with less than satisfactory results. Here for the first time Frank Titelman, president of the Puritan Sportswear Corp., (left) and Dr. Gerald Laxer, director of the Wool Bureau's Department of Science and Technology, demonstrate how a wool sweater chemically treated at the mill can be laundered in the home without shrinkage. The treatment is called Dylanize, a trade mark, and has been used equally successfully in the manufacture of wool blankets. The sweater emerged from a 22-minute warm cycle in the automatic washer and then from the tumble drier as fluffy as new. Researchers described this a major break-through in the easy care of pure wool sweaters.

Is Your Bike Ready for School?

More than 5,000,000 students depend on bikes for transportation. Before school starts, have a reliable repairman check your two-wheeler after its summer of hard riding.

Grammar school children ride bikes, not only for transportation, but for the physical fitness important to growing bodies. Bicycle riding for 15 minutes a day gives the "vigorous" exercise requested by Pres. Kennedy to raise the nation's fitness level.

Whether children use them to ride to school, for recreation or to make extra money delivering newspapers, flowers, groceries or messages, bikes are versatile, economical vehicles. Make sure yours is inspected soon and ready for a year of intensive use.

"I have very heavy eyebrows and don't think they're very attractive. Should I pluck them?"

As Plucking is an emergency measure and should be reserved only for those hairs that cannot be trained to lie in an arch with the rest of the eyebrow. These are usually found straggling across the bridge of the nose or straying underneath the brow toward the eye.

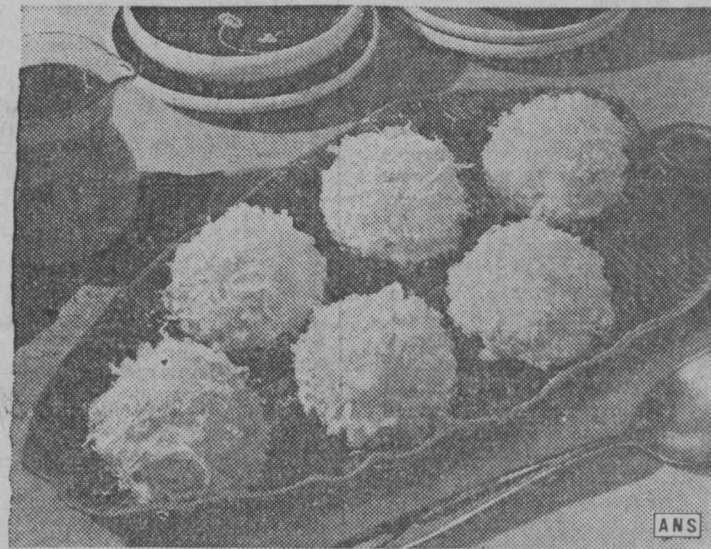

When you pluck, remove one hair at a time and dab the spot with anti-septic to ward off any danger of infection.

You can train your eyebrows to lie in attractive arches by brushing them with an eyebrow-brush dipped in cold cream. Heavy eyebrows can be a beauty asset when they're tidy and nicely shaped.
