C. OF C. MET MONDAY EVENING AT TANEY INN

School Question Discussed and Plans Made

The regular monthly meeting of the Taneytown Chamber of Commerce was held Monday evening, October 17th, at Taney Inn.

Mr. Arch Carpenter, Chairman of the Roads Committee, announced that a meeting has been arranged with the State Roads Commission for 11 A. M. Wednesday, October 18th to continue discussion on Routes 340 and 140. He further announced that a new plan has been conceived, which we hope will overcome the obstacles that have prevented the completion of the Harney Road. The new plan involves a relief route for Harney. It is presently anticipated that construction may be accomplished next year.

The Industrial Committee, speaking through its Chairman, Mr. Frank Dunham, reported the Taneytown Dress Company in partial operation in the new building. It is noteworthy that the move is being accomplished without loss of production or loss of time by employees. President Ohler suggested a tour of these new facilities by the Chamber if it can be arranged. This suggestion met the approval of the membership.

It was decided to carry out essentially the same Christmas program as before. Mr. Frank Dunham will chair this activity.

The nominating committee, consisting of Mr. Raymond Perry, Chairman, Walter Crapster and Walter Harner placed the following names in nomination.

President—Merle S. Ohler
1st Vice-President—Frank Dunham.
2nd Vice-President—Alfred Heltebride.

Secretary—William T. Albaugh
Treasurer—Murray Baumgardner
Executive Committee—Merwyn Fuss
Charles Arnold

There were no additional nominations from the floor.

President Ohler will represent the Chamber on the Citizens Committee being formed for the purpose of obtaining a reversal of the Carroll County School Board's recent decision to transfer Taneytown Senior High Students to Francis Scott Key next September.

This issue was then discussed at great length.

The entire group present expressed great concern over many misconceptions and deliberate untruths that are being circulated in the press by uninformed or otherwise motivated persons. The applicable facts in this case will be presented in official discussions, however, it is felt that the record should be set straight on a few of the more glaring bits of expulsive and the redundant, vituperative verbal barbs that are pricking our alligator skin.

Our entire attitude is one of candor and no truculence is intended or implied.

First of all, the officials of Taneytown High School PTA were assured by the Carroll County Superintendent of Schools from the very beginning that it was not intended that Francis Scott Key would ever serve the Taneytown District.

Secondly, our existing facilities at Taneytown High are adequate; there being no thought of building a new structure.

As far as empty rooms go, what is the difference whether they exist at FSK or Taneytown, not to mention the added cost of transport if Taneytown students are forced, against their will, to attend FSK.

We have been accused of being opinionated, superior, aloof, and selfish. This is far from the truth. True, we are a proud lot, proud of our heritage, proud of Taneytown, proud of our High School, and proud of our kids; but, we do not think that we are better than any other community. We want the very best for our children and our considered opinion is that the retention of Taneytown High School is one of the things that is best for them. What is so horrible about wanting our school where, in the truly American scheme of things, it belongs, and that is in the community which it serves. There is considerable nostalgia attached to Taneytown High School. A large percentage of our community is made up of Taneytown High alumnus and alumna.

Their association is one of the most active in this part of the country. It is inconceivable to them of Taneytown without a High School. Aside from emotional considerations, the statistics which we hope will prove our case are voluminous and impressive. They will be presented before the proper people at the proper time.

It is hoped that these few brief remarks may prove enlightening.

NEW STREETS FOR TANEYTOWN

City Council Awarded Contract for Work to be Done

The Mayor and City Council met in special session on October 16, 1961 to receive and open bids on several new proposed street projects.

The Mayor and City Council are happy to report that the entire new street program as outlined by the Street Committee can be a reality and was let out to Maitland Bros. of Littlestown, the lowest of three bidders. Bids were also secured from Cline Bros. of Frederick and Thomas, Bennett and Hunter.

Work to be completed by the end of October is as follows:

1. The alley back of the Lutheran Parsonage down to the Taneytown Recreation Park to be macadamized.
2. An extension of the black top on the Roberts Mill Road starting at the entrance to Taney Drive.
3. A permanent base for the other half of the street leading from Taney Drive to the John Chenoweth — Glenn Bollinger property. (This street to be macadamized in the Spring, funds permitting).
4. A permanent base for Taney Drive stopping at Baumgardner Avenue. (This street to be macadamized in the Spring, funds permitting).
5. The street leading off of Broad Street behind the Luther Luckenbaugh — Ted Jester property through the Trailer Court stopping at the Robert Mills Road to be macadamized.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

A nice Boy Scout rang the bell and presented me with one of those booklets "If an A T T A C K comes..." reprinted from The Evening Sun paper of Baltimore. Those "Fall Out Shelters" of which I wrote in a previous Column is really something to bring a smile. On T.V. the other night one man of a family exhibited the one he built so fully equipped even to the complete kitchen and all under ground and as Your Observer—observed—I thought, "Where in the world does that man think he is going to get the gas or electric for that stove?" I would not want to survive to see the suffering and the horrible remains! It would mean the very end of Civilization—so who would be gaining by this awful W A R ? Facing facts and not putting my head under the sand as an ostrich would do is the answer if anyone asks me.

"CITIZENS OF TOMORROW"

Wednesday, October 25 is the big day for the picture taking of your youngsters! The Record is having pictures taken of all children who are brought by their parents or other guardian to the Fire Hall, Taneytown, between 10:00 A. M. and 5:00 P. M. absolutely free of charge.

The Record wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature, "Citizens of Tomorrow", a series of photographic studies of local children. Children who have been photographed for this feature in previous years are especially invited to return, so that we may see how they have changed. The more we get the better the feature will be, so the cooperation of the mothers and fathers is urged.

It often seems to parents that children are little one minute and are grown up the next, so fast does a child's growing stage pass. Here is a splendid opportunity to catch a likeness of your child or children at the present stage for the pleasure you will get out of it in future years and for the pleasure you will enjoy in seeing it in print. You will want to clip it from this, your home town newspaper, and preserve it for the youngster when he or she grows up.

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures. Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the Record nor even a reader. You do not have to purchase pictures either, though you may obtain additional prints by arranging direct with the Studio representative if you want them. This is entirely up to you! No appointment is necessary. There is no age limit. If you wish to make an appointment phone: Mrs. Ethel Garber at PL 6-6166 however, no appointment is necessary. You may come at any time during Studio hours. All children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Photography will be handled by the Dansville, New York office of Woltz Studios of Des Moines.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1961

PROFILE OF A HOMETOWN PUBLISHER — EDITOR

The main difference between the jobs of the metropolitan publisher, or editor, and his counterpart in the Hometown field, is that the country publisher's job is harder.

Getting out a great daily is so complex that its publisher's big responsibility is to paper, ink and machines. He doesn't have to get out (in fact, he can't get away) to gather news. It comes in automatically—over the wire services and via releases. He reports to no one but himself.

This is not meant to be derogatory to big city newspapers. They perform their own kind of service: are good ad, news and entertainment mediums. But it is to make a fair comparison of the two great fields: roughly 1,500 giants vs. about 10,000 small-town, small-sized, local newspapers.

While the big fellow reports to no one but himself, the small-town publisher reports to every man, woman and child in his town and in the community his paper serves.

Time was, back in the horse and buggy days, when country journalism, in many cases, was composed of cracker-barrel gossip, poker, green eye shades, high stools, hand presses—some natural talent and a whole lot of hard-headed common sense.

But times have changed. Our head man still is a tough guy (wouldn't be much if he wasn't) but he does it with a smile on his face—usually.

One of the big reasons for his toughness is that he is very much the town's watch-dog and interpreter of his local government. He interprets the doings of his local people, too. Actually he's the town's historian.

Also, he is the town's leader. Every worthwhile, local enterprise begins and ends in his office, or in his brain. He leads just about every club and local organization. He heads the drives—all of them. He "clothes the poor, visits the sick and buries the dead."

This new kind of publisher has new kinds of fights on his hands. While the big brother is fighting unions and taxes, he, out there in the grass roots, is fighting for FOI—Freedom of Information; Freedom of the Press, and freedom to live the wonderful kind of life that only is found out there in the sticks, where houses are homes, neighbors are friends and there are trees on every street.

This friendly, knowledgeable man has led it to, and advanced with this town, to a new awareness, a new sophistication, a new prosperity.

He's still a country boy, but no longer a slave. He's got a trained, professional staff now. He can get away, not just to fish but to foreign lands. Every one would be surprised, if a survey were taken, to see how many Hometown publishers and editors do just that each year.

PASTE IT IN YOUR HAT

Come next spring, you'd better have your number on that "declaration of estimated tax" (deadline April 15th). If you have a Social Security number, that's it. If you don't, you get a form at the post office or an office of the Internal Revenue Service.

From there on, you're a number to Uncle Sam's tax collectors, and to every organization that reports on payments made to you. If you forget it on your income tax return, it will cost you five bucks. And the penalty will be the same every time you fail to supply it to any source of income that requests it. And that ain't all.

Congress hung this one on your eye on September 26th - to give the IRS a full-Nelson on every taxpayer. We predict tattoo artists will be coming back - strong!

Nursing Chow is easy to mix and feed; calves love it. You feed one 25-lb. bag from four days to one month of age. Started the Purina Way, calves grow fast, fatten early, produce lots of milk.

Here's why Purina Nursing Chow is "milk plus."

wants pictures of all the children in this area to publish in a future series entitled "Citizens of Tomorrow". To make it representative of the entire trading area we want pictures of as many youngsters as possible. There is no age limit, neither is it necessary to be a subscriber to this newspaper. Therefore, we ask the co-operation of all the parents (and grandparents, too!) to help make this a success. The Studio hours and location are shown below. Just take your children there and several poses will be taken free of charge by a nationally known children's photographer who specializes in feature photography for newspapers. All proofs will be shown and you select your favorite pose for publication. There is no charge or obligation. You may, if you wish, order photographs for gifts or keepsakes from the studio, but this is entirely up to you.

Apples promise to be plentiful, of good quality, and cheap. Nuts of all kinds, likewise.

Taneytown stores are well prepared for Fall business, with attractive stocks at right prices. They seem determined not to leave just cause for anybody to go away from home to buy.

The Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Maryland, which is holding its 92nd annual convention in the Taneytown church this week opened its program on Wednesday evening with a good attendance of clerical and lay delegates present. The synodical sermon was preached by Rev. C. F. Steck, D. D. of Washington, D. C. President of Synod. Rev. L. B. Hafer pastor of the church, warmly welcomed the Synod to the church. Former meetings of the Maryland Synod were held in this church in 1830 during the pastorate of Rev. J. N. Hoffman; in 1863 during the pastorate of Rev. Levi T. Williams; in 1884 during the pastorate of Rev. O. C. Roth and in 1898 during the pastorate of Rev. D. F. Garland.

Tyrone Wm. Yingling breaks the record in this section for cutting corn; he cut thirty-one days. Misses Annie and Sadie Flickinger of Copperville spent Sunday with Bessie Yingling. Nelson Bankard and family of Pleasant Valley spent Sunday with friends of this place. Mrs. Bankard is spending the week with her brother and sister, John Marquet and Mrs. W. U. Marker. Collectors are around collecting money for the purpose of drilling a well at Baust church for the benefit of the church and school. Geo. Baumgardner and family of Halltown, W. Va. spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this place. George Hymiller and wife, spent Sunday with Henry Hymiller and family of Mayberry. Harney Revival services are being held in the U. B. church of this place. The many friends of Rev. Young are glad to know that the U. B. Conference has seen fit to return him to this charge for another year. Our Political candidates are beginning to make the rounds, all seem to have a friendly smile upon their faces. After election some of them will undoubtedly change and look like vinegar barrels. J. W. Fream has moved into his new home and his many friends will now find him on the square fixed up for business.

The United Lutheran Church Women of Emmanuel (Baust) Lutheran Church met Wednesday evening, Oct. 11th, at the home of Mrs. Martin Koons, Taneytown. Mrs. George Sanner led in devotions. The meeting opened by singing hymn, "O That the Lord Would Guide My Ways," followed with scripture and prayer. Hymn, "We plough the Fields and scatter the good seed on the land." The leader, Mrs. Sterling Zimmerman presented the topic, "How Big Is My World?" Sixteen members participated in the following topics: Modern Parables, Self-Test, How Is My Vision? Medication and Dedication, and Enlarging Mental Horizons. The aim of the lesson was to discover the extent of our knowledge of the needs of our world, and our attitudes toward these needs; to try to understand the vital relationship between our mental outlook and spiritual development and how these effect our service as Christian women; to consider ways and means for enlarging our vision and thereby increasing our service.

The Thank Offering thought was read by Mrs. Myrtle Zentz. Mrs. Harry K. Myers was in charge of the business meeting. Seven members agreed to spend Thursday, October 19 at the Church World Service Center, New Windsor, to help sort and pack clothing. Our projects for the month, layette and school kits for needy children in Latin America. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Carroll Weishaar, Tyrone.

Emmanuel (Baust) Lutheran Church congregation held their annual Fellowship Supper, Saturday evening, October 14th in Baust Parish House, with 72 members and guests present. All joined hands in singing, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," before partaking a bountiful meal fit for a king.

Kenneth Lambert was master of ceremonies and introduced the guests for the program. Bob Hook and his musicians (the Bishops), entertained with special music and song. A trio, Charlotte Shorb, Louise and Tamara Myers, sang several numbers. Kenneth entertained with jokes. Mrs. Gilbert Stine gave several humorous readings and received loud applause. Mrs. George Sanner thanked the committees for their splendid cooperation in making the dinner and program a success. In closing all sang: "The More We Get Together the Happier We'll Be," and prayer by pastor, Seth S. Hester.

O suns and skies and clouds of June, And flowers of June together, Ye cannot rival for one hour October's bright blue weather. When on the ground red apples lie In piles, like jewels shining, And redder still on old stone walls Are leaves of woodbine twining. When the lovely wayside things, Their white-winged seeds are sowing, And in the field still jakes and fair, Late aftermaths are growing; O suns and skies and flowers of June, Count all your boasts together, Love loveth best of all the year October's bright blue weather.

enters they see a tremendous sign across from one end to the other and in large letters, "THE HOME OF THE FUTURE!" God Forbid! There before the very eyes of the people was a "Fall-Out" Shelter! How awful to think that we would be going back as the way the "CAVE MAN" lived! U G H !

And thinking of places to live such as an apartment or apartments being built today, you will do everything to buy that home instead of renting an apartment according to the article in "The Good Housekeeping Magazine". The Architect states the real reasons of those apartments!

Every time I hear on T.V., "Look, Mom—no holes!" That boy or girl stands before me on another program with "Look, Mom, my report card—no CAVITIES!"

What a wonderful Sermon, I listened to by Dr. Clemens yesterday morning, titled, "WHO ARE YOU?" at the Mt. Vernon Place Church at the Monument. My church where I was Christened years ago and then joined after the passing of my Minister.

Never go shopping in the grocery store before you eat your dinner or when you are hungry otherwise you will buy much more.

Did you know that Bob Cummings is so enthusiastic about Chiropractic treatments that he has one grand table in his home and takes these treatments each night just as Sophie Tucker does?

Thinking of T.V. hope you did not miss the one called, "Mrs. G. goes to College" that loveable character of Mollie Goldberg last Wednesday night. She plays the role of a widowed Grandmother who is thirsty for learning. After 11 years of High School, Sara Green is determined to complete her education in College and is a "Freshman." Gertrude Berg writes the scripts herself so keep in mind, Channel 2—9:30 P. M. on Wednesdays.

Do you really "Sing Along With Mitch?"—try it one evening for the words are right there on T.V. those catchy tunes of yester-year! Gives one a lifter-upper!

Now, here's a cute one—believe it or not. A lady was presented with a dog—a puppy with the blood of a B O X E R and a D A S H U N T and she rocks him to sleep every night in her lap! Oh—FOR THE LOVE OF A DOG! Remember that old saying, "He leads a life of a dog?" Well, today it seems that the dog rules the household for they have grand lives if you ask me. Eh?

Seeing "Two Women" with Sophia Loren, the Italian actress as Cesira and Eleanor Brown as Rosetta, her daughter at the "Mayfair" was a most intense drama and both were excellent in this picture. I do not recall of seeing Elenora Brown before but she played her part well as to the character. It is very emotional and leaves one with such a hatred for War and those awful soldiers of that country. The story is that Cesira and her child flee from Rome where the Mother operates a grocery store to get away from the bombs and you see them walking sometimes in their bare feet, in the very hills where Cesira was born! They live amongst the peasants but the horror of the War and all it's terror catches up with them. That man Sherman stated the real facts what he said about W A R! You may not like the story but the acting of Miss Loren was and is superb. In fact I never cared for her before in any play. Those Moroccan Soldiers reminded me of Cannibals! Nuff Sed! It will make your heart ache when you see the suffering of the little 13 year old daughter.

So long, Folks. Have a grand week-end. Be sure and be kind and loving to one another! Life is so short! And to think Life Could Be Beautiful! Will write of the Sign of "LIBRA" in my next Column—those born from September 20 to October 20.

Until next week D. V. I am,

Faithfully,
Your Observer.

CONTROL DUTCH ELM DISEASE

Three operations, sanitation, spraying and fertilization, are necessary to prevent the spread of Dutch elm disease which kills many trees every year, say T. L. Bissell, Extension Entomologist and L. O. Weaver, Extension Plant Pathologist, University of Maryland. The disease is spread by bark beetles that breed in diseased trees, collect fungus spores on their bodies, then fly to other trees.

Sanitation means the prompt removal and destruction of diseased trees and the pruning of injured and weakened limbs. Trees must be cut down to the ground because stumps contain a reserve of infective material. This operation should be completed by April 15 when bark beetles begin to emerge. Dutch elm disease causes tissues under the bark to darken and is identified by the isolation of fungus spores from infected wood.

Trees are sprayed in late winter with DDT to kill the bark beetles that fly in from nearby infected trees. That is, the spraying is a preventive to keep healthy trees from becoming infected. It should be done before the tree buds open. Spraying of shade trees requires power machines which can throw insecticides to the top. This dormant spray application will also reduce the likelihood of infestation of the foliage by elm leaf beetles which appear in May and June.

Tree vigor is the best insurance against Dutch elm disease, says Bissell and Weaver. Beetles feed on the bark of a healthy tree but they cannot establish their brood under bark where there is a strong flow of sap. Fertilizer applied before Spring will give the trees the necessary vigor. Allow 2 pounds of a 5-10-5 fertilizer for each inch of trunk diameter measured 4 feet above the ground spread it over the whole ground from trunk to a few feet beyond the tips of the branches. It is well to put the fertilizer in holes spaced at regular intervals so it will not wash away.

Control of Dutch elm disease is most effective when all trees in a community are cared for. If some trees are neglected others in the neighborhood are endangered, the specialists say.

FROM THE APPEALS BOARD OF THE ZONING COMMISSION

The regular meeting of the board of Appeals of Carroll County was held at the County Office Building, Westminster, Maryland on Friday, October 13, 1961, at 1:30 p.m.

After receiving applications and hearing testimony the Board issued Zoning Certificates to the following persons: Mr. Eldon Wagner, for a car lot; Mr. William Mann, for a trailer location; and Mr. Charles Mitten, for a trailer location.

The application of Mr. Jerome Kaufman, to locate a trailer on Brown Road was denied by the Board. The Board in its decision stated that Brown Road was a residential area and it felt that the location of a trailer there would adversely affect property values and retard residential growth. Also, objection to this application was voiced at the hearing by a group of area property owners.

"One play or rather one decision cost the Colts a victory Sunday, or so say most of the Baltimore players and coaches."

—The Baltimore Sun

The Colts were on the Bear 5-yard line. It was third down and only inches to go for a first. Unitas called a line plunge. Everyone thought they had made it but when the pile was untangled, referee Emil Heintz put the ball on the 5-yard line. On the next play Unitas slipped, and the Bears took over.

Can the Colts blame their loss on Heintz? Some say yes; while others reply no. Personally, I agree with the latter. In football, or any other game, a team has to accept the breaks as they are distributed. Why place the blame elsewhere?

Last week, their main problem was blitzing linemen. Because of this problem, the Colts have shifted to a new formation, commonly called the Shotgun. It resembles the Double Wing or Quick Kick Formation. This puts Unitas six or seven yards behind his line, therefore giving him time to get the ball away. What more do the Colts now need? Here's hoping Weeb has something else up his sleeve. If so, when is he going to unveil it? The Colts are now in fifth place. Is it possible for them to win the flag? From what they've shown so far this year, I would say yes. There is a great possibility that Green Bay, now on top, will stay there. The world of Pro Football, however, is full of never-ceasing wonders. Anything can happen...and usually does. Therefore, the Colts still demand respect and admiration from their fans as well as from their fellow players throughout the league. If this isn't their year to win, it could very easily be the year in which they'll pull upset victories over league-leading teams.

Green Bay's Star

Paul Hornung, blond, dimpled, and outspoken, represents the most versatile weapon in the arsenal of football. Paul is twenty-five years old, six feet, two inches tall, and tips the scale at two hundred and fifteen. Most important of all, he boasts firm, muscular legs.

In 1960, while leading Green Bay to the Western Conference Championship, he broke an all-time record by scoring 176 points. Paul has the ability to carry out anything he undertakes. He can run for touchdowns, throw passes for touchdowns, catch passes for touchdowns, kick extra points, and also kick field goals.

This season, however, the pressure will be heavy on Paul. In 1960 he scored more points than any other player in football history. This season he must fight even harder to maintain the record he has established. Haunted by a crippling injury that can return at any time, Green Bay's triple-threat is the Number 1 marked man in pro football.

And so ends another column—this one being expressly dedicated to the football fan.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce a Mensa et Thoro, by the Complainant, Lewis J. Hare, from the Respondent Eva. V. Hare. The Bill recites the marriage of the parties on March 11, 1944 at Madison Illinois, by a regularly ordained Minister of the Gospel. That the Complainant has been a resident of the above address and of Carroll County for more than one year immediately prior to the filing of this Bill of Complaint of a Mensa et Thoro. That three children have been born as a result of this marriage namely, Mary D., age 15 years; Linda L., age 9 years; Lewis J. Hare, Jr., age 7 years and that these minor children are presently living with the Respondent at the address aforesaid. That ever since the said marriage the Complainant has always conducted himself as a faithful, affectionate and dutiful husband toward the Respondent and a kind and loving father toward the children and his conduct has been above reproach. That on or about August 31, 1961, the Respondent without just cause or reason, together with her cruelty of treatment toward the Complainant, did then and there desert and abandon him and that this was the deliberate and final act of the Respondent. The Complainant has lived separate and apart from the Respondent ever since. That a reconciliation between the parties is without hope or reasonable expectation thereof. IT is thereupon, this 15th day of September 1961, by the Circuit Court for Carroll County.

Ordered that the Complainant, Lewis J. Hare, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some weekly newspaper, printed and published in Carroll County, once a week for four successive weeks before the 23rd day of October 1961, to give notice to the absent non-resident Respondent, Eva V. Hare, of the object and substance of this Bill of Complaint and warning her to be and appear in this Honorable Court in person or by Solicitor on or before the 8th day of November 1961, next, and file a Plea, answer or other defense within fifteen days thereafter, showing cause, if any, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

G. Bucher John
Clerk of the Circuit
Court for Carroll County

I hereby certify that on this 16th day of September, 1961, a copy of the above Order of Publication, was sent by registered mail to the Respondent at the address aforesaid.

Being Related

Lesson for October 22, 1961

WE CAN'T help it. When we marry, we discover we have not married one single person, we are suddenly in the midst of more in-laws than perhaps we had reckoned on. But this should not surprise us. Already at birth we are related to people we never saw before and did not choose. They might not have chosen us, either, to tell the truth, if they had known how we were going to turn out! That's life. From beginning to end we are related, willy-nilly, to people we hardly know or don't know at all, as well as to people we do know and love. Being related is the inevitable human experience, along with death. The Christian way of life, at base, is simply recognizing our relatedness more and more, and living up to it.

Being Related to Other Christians

Saint Paul, that world-famed letter-writer, never finished a letter without having something to say about a Christian's relationships. Most of the troubles in the church and in the world come from, and in turn produce, perversions, dislocations or disturbances in relationships among people. It would not solve all our problems if each of us could be shut up in a tight little cell all his life; for then we should never be human. But we can't live an unrelated life no matter how we tried. So what the inspired Apostle has to say about relationships is always just what we need. The world has changed in appearance since New Testament times, but the inter-relatedness of men is a more vital problem than ever.

In Phil. 2:1-18 and in Colossians 3, most of what Paul has to say is directly on the problem of the relation of Christians to other Christians. It's a mistake to think that just because you are a Christian, that you will never find other Christians a problem, or that they in turn will have no problems caused by you. This writer has lived at various times in communities in which every one was a professed Christian; but personal relationships could get to some acute crises all the same. Paul found this to be true in the Christian communities (churches) to which he wrote. The most common destructive factor, often, was quarrels, sometimes over important but sometimes over trifling matters. Paul's remedy is always the same: Be like Jesus, and put yourself in the other person's place. Easier said than done? To be sure; but remembering it is the will of God, we can have good hope that he will bless our every effort to live as the family of God.

Being Related to Outsiders

Being related to outsiders presents another problem. They do not recognize us as brothers and sisters; if they did, they'd have gone a long way toward being insiders. But how can we be related to uninterested or even hostile persons? Here we have to remember what has already been said: We are related, no matter how we botch the relationship, it's still there. The question remains, though,—if the other party wants to have no part of us; if we're dealing with people who are uncongenial, mean, not Christians by intention or in fact, persons who don't know the first syllable of brotherhood, who profess no interest in God or his people; yet who are related to us in some way or ways (as e.g. by marriage, business relations, social contacts and so forth), then what? Paul puts it into one big little word: SHINE!

Can We Grow?

What Paul means, no doubt, is that the start of Christian relations is to be a Christian first. Even if the other person is not a Christian, you can be one. Even if the world around you is dark, you can shine.

Probably there is no need to ask the question: Can we grow in our Christian relationships? That does not mean having more friends. It may have little to do with friendships. It means being more Christian in all our relationships both with the Christians and non-Christians, with the neighbors you see every day and also the people you never actually see. Of course we can grow in this as well as all that is good—if we are really alive!

... and guarantee your satisfaction with our work

"The family no longer is satisfied with ordinary resort facilities," resort owners in Wisconsin report. "They aren't satisfied with the husband going fishing while the women and children just sit around."

"People demand more and more outdoor recreation for all members of the family."

This seems to be a trend that is taking over in all parts of the country, not just in the northern tier of states. Women are buying golf clubs, helping Dad to pick out the outboard boat and companion Mercury motor, buying archery equipment — everything with an eye to participation.

Surveys show one out of every four fishermen (if that term can be used) is a woman, and surely little girls as well as bigger ones are counted in that number.

But this is perhaps one of the reasons that Mama and the kids just won't hold still any more while Papa goes running off to Minnesota or Canada or Florida with his fishing buddies for a week in the wilds. Now they insist on going along, and in accompanying the old boy in his daily jaunts on the lake.

Personally I think it's a lot of hokey.

I have nothing against a woman fishing, neither do I against her breathing, which are pretty closely related anyway. But I don't want one along on MY fishing time. Let her do it on her own time, in her own boat.

Mr. Little Merc 80 outboard and myself make up a twosome that has had some mighty fine times together on lake and stream, and I'm not about to let any woman come between us. The first thing you know she'd be wanting one of my flyrods, or ask to be allowed to start the engine and run it as we trolled. Then I'll bet money she'd start catching fish.

Gone would be the days of delicious solitude, trolling along on a sparkling lake with nobody to talk to but an outboard motor and a horizon full of nature. Which is the way fishing is supposed to be, anyway — contemplative, not competitive.

And just as sure as day follows night if you put a man and a woman in a boat together, fishing, you have competition on your hands. She'll try to catch fish, and he'll HAVE to outcatch her for his own self-respect.

Not for me. Buy 'em their own boat, and their own Merc outboard, and their own fishing rod. Then turn 'em loose ... if you can!

TI 8-6867Baxter family amazed to find telephone saves $65
in two weeks

Mrs. Baxter makes a call on the phone that kept her in close touch with Gail while Gail was in Miami representing Maryland in the Miss United States Contest.

We recently asked Mrs. Robert E. Baxter, of High Point, to keep a two-week telephone "diary" of all her family's telephone calls—estimating the time, travel and money each call saved. At the end of two weeks, her "diary" showed that their phone calls had saved 42 valuable hours, 799 miles of travel and $65.

"What an enlightening experience this has been," says Mrs. Baxter. "We never dreamed our little Princess phone could save such an amazing amount of time and money."

Mrs. Baxter said that their telephone is important in other ways, too. "While my daughter was in Miami for the Miss United States Contest, my one request was that she call home each night."

What would a telephone "diary" show in your home? Chances are you'd find, too, that your phone gives you back far more than its low monthly cost.
