New Teacher for Elementary School

First and Second Grade Classes Rearranged

Miss Mary Linda Riley of 1 South Miss Mary Linda Riley of 1 South Street, Hanover, Penna., has been hired to teach a third first grade section at the Taneytown Elementary School. Miss Riley is a recent graduate of Millersville State College, Millersville, Penna. Presence of another teacher will make it possible for Mrs. George Shower to teach a straight second grade section, relieving her of the combination first and second grade which she is currently teaching. Addition of a new teacher was made possible by added classroom space, provided in the new school addition which was opened following the Christmas holidays.

Since two new sections are to be formed, some resectioning of pupils formed, some resectioning of pupils was necessary and classes have been rearranged to provide an average of twenty-nine pupils in each first grade class and twenty-seven in each second grade class. All of Mrs. Shower's first grade children, which were the oldest beginners, have been transferred to Miss Riley, together with others from both Mrs. Gass's and Mrs. Stonesifer's rooms. Some second grade children have been taken from both Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Mohney's rooms to complete a straight second grade taught by Mrs. Shower. It is regretted that class-Shower. It is regretted that class-room attachments formed over the year will have to be disturbed; however, we have hoped for some time to reduce class size particularily in the lower grades. With this in mind, it is hoped that parents will under-stand the necessity for reassignment of children assigned to new sections.

Children at this time.

Children assigned to new sections are as follows: Miss Riley — Fern Bachman, Debra Clingan, Dennis Ebaugh, Robert Ellis, Robert Weber, Cynthia Cornett, Wanda Dodson, Wanda Ford, Virginia Jackson, Deborah Wiles, Glenn Smith George borah Wiles, Glenn Smith, George Pittinger, Antoinette Markle, Deb-bie Scheller, Steven Sentz, Kim Austin, Vicki Bauerlien, Martin Lieb-no, Donald Glass, Thomas Arvin, Donald Haines, John Smith, Justin Transfers to Mrs. Shower: Martha Miller, Esther Adkins, Gary Trump, Denise Jackson, Karen Amoss, Cynthia Fair, Linda Kehne, Marilyn Leister, Myra Copenhaver, Elaine Martin, Nancy Haifley, Kenneth Gillespie, Karen Gillespie, David Airing, Daniel Wantz, Bobby West, Louise Dowdell Louise Dowdell.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor, One man at least, in these wacky times, brags of and professes to enjoy his ability to roll with the punch. He is Marion Ellet, a regular contributor to the GREAT BEND (Kans.) DAILY TRIBUNE. "You Know", he writes in a recent piece, "it's getting to be real amusing, this sudden, almost hysterical cry of 'Do something, do something about wild Government spending'.

"This cry is coming from press and radio and from small banking publications which urge depositors to urge their bank presidents to 'do something, do something'.

Mr. Ellet went on to observe that a ocal broadcaster had warned the state politicos of a "revolt of taxpayers at the polls" unless they took action.

"And just where", he asks the man-with-the-mike, "shall we revolt to? Shall we revolt from the Republican party to the Democratic party which boasts of its you-earn-it-we'll-spend-it policy? Or shall we revolt from the Democratic party to the Republican party which is spending like wild in the separate states and which had eight years in Washington to cut Federal spending to the bone and did nothing? And where, precisely, are the bankers to turn with their demand to

"I am pleasantly amused at all this because I screamed my fool head off about Government spending during the Roosevelt Administration, and I got politely shushed. I hollered that Eisenhower was doing nothing about inflationary spending and I got shushed. And now that it's too late, everybody and his brother is screaming at the other guy to do something.

"And now I don't care. I have ac cepted socialism as a way of life, and I am having a very nice time living - a most amusing time. I do not like socialism or respect so-cialists (either Democratic or Re-publican). But it doesn't really matter so much what form of government you live under - until it be-comes a police state. Our socialism, unchecked, will eventually be a police state. But I'll not be here when that happens.

"I am sorry for the young people. But there is no turning back now. Neither party will check the trend. Neither dares to. For the public has grown too accustomed to the feed trough. Nothing but some sort of collapse will stop inflation now. And while we are waiting for that, I'll have the fun of watching the once complacent radio and press tear their hair."

Admittedly, there is more support for Mr. Ellet's prediction than for the hopes of those who are trying to "do something" for the return of representative and Constitutional Government. But there is a chance (bare and shivering, perhaps, but still alive) that with support and needling by press and populace the present Congress will kick the traces off the Administration buckboard, and start us, at least, on the long road back to sanity and solvency.

But you know and we know (as we suspect Mr. Ellet knows) that this can only happen with the guidance and leadership of the press. And we mean the GRASSROOTS press that will never quit while a press can still

Chairman of the overall county committee, Frank T. Dunham presi-ded over the meeting which indicated definite programs in the development of an industrial site inventory program and preparation of brochure material for ultimate distribution to major industries selected. Scott S. Bair, chairman of the subcommittee on industrial sites and development presented a special form proposed for the assembly of countywide information on available in-dustrial sites and proposed that the information be assembled under guidance of several members of the overall County Industrial Committee which included Janna Hare, Hampstead Area; Roy Robertson, Manchester Area; George Dulaney, Freedom Area; Kenneth Burdette, Mt. Airy Area; Charles Angell, New Windsor and Union Bridge Areas; and Frank T. Dunham, Taneytown

Charles Angell, Chairman of the sub-committee on brochures development, presented committee recom-mendations for a special insert to be included in a first mailing of the attractive brochure folders depicting county advantages to industry. It was concluded that the first insert deal with transportation facilities with future mailings on other special subjects of interest to the industrialist. Other sub-committee chairmen reporting were Charles D. Schaffer on utility availability and George Fream on brochure distribution.

Also attending Tuesday's meeting were County Commissioners Carr, Saylor, and Crawford and George A. Grier, Planning Director.

President Reifsnider appointed various committees and outlined tenta-tive programs for the coming year. The next regular meeting held January 17th at the Taney Inn was in charge of the Key Club and the highest praise is due the 23 young men who were present and by their department and training demonstra-ted their ability to shoulder any civic, economic, political or charitable problems that may arise when they as men, have stepped over the thresh hold that separates youth from adult

Key Club President, James Mc Curley, called for reports from his various committees and many were the stares of bewilderment, if not, incredulity as the elders heard how well the work of these boys is being done; also was indicated a willing-ness to help to serve and to achieve. The devoted interest of these young men to the praiseworthy principles for which their Club stands readily casts a glow of optimism for future days. Mr. C. S. Ecker, Supervisor of Physical Education for Carroll County was introduced and gave a very in-teresting discourse on Club Fellowship and Activity and what it can mean in the life of American youth if they will follow and work to attain or achieve the goals of service as outlined by many Service Clubs of our land.

The meeting was not only helpful to the young men present, but was thoroughly enjoyed by all present as the hand of fellowship was extended to these boys and best wishes offered for their future success as they move so swiftly toward that day when the problems, the cares and the welfare of their community will rest wholly -Yeats and fully on their shoulders.

the country. The lightning was a red color and it really cracked and whipped around the houses! One phone caller later said that it meant an Early Spring! Whoops nothing could be finer! Eh? And as in life always after the storm—the Sun shone brightly and Your Observer took a very long walk and Thanked God very long walk and Thanked God for the wide open spaces! The Gar-denia plant is still blooming beautifully and there are many "Oh's and Ah's" as they lean over and take a big sniff of the delightful fragrance! big sniff of the delightful fragrance!
The other day I heard this remark,

Viewing "A Pocket Full of Miracles" down at the Mayfair with the stars—Bette Davis and Glenn Ford

made me think of one of the Grimm's Fairy Tales. Bette Davis sells apples—big and shiny ones in fact the very biggest I have ever seen and many oustomers pay one dollar apiece! She sends the money over to her daughter who is abroad and calls it "spending money". A letter arrives to the swanky hotel where Betty Davis is friendly with the door man which leads the daughter to believe that her Mother has remyried and that her Mother has remarried and that gentleman is frightfully wealthy. Then another letter arrives stating the daughter is engaged to a Spanish Nobleman and they with his father—Count Somebody or other are coming to America to meet the Mother. Then, the fun begins and you do not know what to expect next as the preparations to meet the Nobility is really a task to have Bette Davis really a task to have Bette Davis transformed from the poor and dirty "Apple Seller" to a glamorous individual! It all ends happily ever after as all Fairy Tales do. However, you will enjoy it for Glenn Ford is really a sweet guy in fact he is superb in this picture and Bette Davis is excellent It is in Tachni calor and is cellent. It is in Techni-color and it truly is like it's name "A Pocket Full of Miracles!"

Letters from two Readers:

Dear Observer:

I have very dear friends whom I have known for about 25 years. They have a young dog which is huge for it's age of 6 months and no sooner than I enter the house, that dog jumps up at me just about ruining my clothes. Even if they let the dog out and have him enter the house he makes a jump for my lap! If the husband corrects the dog, his wife starts to cry! I do not want to give those friends up. They have had the dog since it was a puppy. Do you think it would mean the end of our friendship if I would suggest any thing? I do like dogs but not misbehaved ones. Signed, Constant Reader.

GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS

SIKESTON, MO., STANDARD: "Informed sources in Washington indicate that there is a serious threat that the King Bill (HR 7640) to federalize the unemployment benefit program will pass unless the businesses that pay the bill make their views known to their congressmen in the months ahead. The practical results of this bill would be that unemployment benefits would become a political football like Social Security and degenerate into a gigantic giveaway paid for entirely by business.'

PORT NECHES, TEXAS, CHRON-ICLE: "We will have a tough time selling our country to Africans and Indians and Chinese if we're not sold on it ourselves.

"It reminds me of two dogs I once had. When one of the mongrels came to the bank of a creek, fearing either discomfort or perhaps drowning, he would sit back on his haunches and howl - - oh, such weeping and wailing.

"The other dog, without batting an evelash, would plunge into the creek and continue the chase on the other side. It goes without saying which dog caught the most rabbits."

BOSTON, MASS., NEWS-TRIB-UNE: "Service stations collect federal and state taxes and sell gasoline as a sideline."

ALTOONA, PA., MIRROR: "... administration policy seems to come out as 'everyone ought to get a raise this year that corresponds to what we can afford without inflation. And everyone who thinks he is underpaid should demand a bigger raise than that.'

"So the big drive to combat inflation by keeping costs and prices in check depends upon how many union members think they are getting all they are worth."

WINSLOW, ARIZ., MAIL: "The old philosopher who claims we would be a stronger nation if we went without a few more meals and enjoyed fewer luxuries, may have been wiser than the present generation of Americans seems to think."

SPRING VALLEY, N. Y., LEAD-ER: "While fathers and mothers everywhere demand more education for their children, they're reading like mad themselves to keep up with the world.

"Book sales are double 1952's figures in dollars, in spite of competition from all kinds of recreation and other entertainment. What we like to hear is that 49 per cent of the people would feel quite lost without the newspaber, while only 28 per cent would feel that way if the TV broke down. According to the survey that developed these figures, said to be the most comprehensive of its kind ever made, we're doing better than we thought."

WAILUKU, HAWAII, MAUI NEWS: "You don't have the welfare state mentality in this country,' the president of the Irish Medical Society told the AMA News not long ago.' Voluntary activity,' said Martin Dyar, M. D.,' is a dominant feature of your fabric.'

"Dr. Dyar is correct. The people of this country have not developed a welfare state mentality, a state of mind in which the citizens seek security by bartering small pieces of freedom for large pieces of government regulation. So frail is this kind of security that many countries must accept aid from the United States to support their welfare states. Americans are now almost alone in rejecting this mentality of servitude. FOR THE BEST BUYS...IN EVERY SIZE... YOU'VE JUST GOT TO SEE YOUR FORD DEALER! COMPACT SIZE FAIRLANE SIZE BIG-CAR SIZE

No wonder Ford had the greatest November-December in history!

We Ford Dealers were first with a totally new size car-Fairlane! . . . We're first in compacts too, with the overwhelming acceptance of Falcon! . , . And we're first in value in full-size cars, with Galaxie, the car that gives you all the essential features of cars costing hundreds of dollars more!

What's more, we broke every sales record in Ford's history for November and December! Stands to reason then, that since we're selling so much more we can trade just that much higher . . . so we really can offer the best buys in every size!

We LIKE to demonstrate . . . We LIKE to make deals . . . We LOVE to keep you happy after you buy!

Pampering Baby

Pam-Purr rugs like the one our little photogenic friend is enjoying above are available in a rainbow range of new colors. There's a delightful mossy green, azure blue and a subtle rose-tinged sandalwood, along with soft, creamy pastels. Practical too, these can go right into the automatic washer. These soft, warm rugs made with Creslan acrylic fiber come in an assortment of sizes and shapes to meet every decorating need. Matching lid covers are available for use in the bathroom.

"Home-Made Modelling "Goop".

Boy Scouts of Troop 340, Riverdale, New York, use teamwork preparing a batch of modeling "goop" on a handy propane stove during the Greater New York Scouting Exposition. Several troops used the mixture to make kerchief slides, candlesticks and many decorative objects. It handles like clay but dries to a rock-like hardness. Argo edible starch and Morton Salt donated the two important ingredients.

To make this inexpensive modeling material: Mix 2 cups table salt in 2/3 cup water in a saucepan. Place over low heat and stir until thoroughly heated. In separate bowl, mix 1 cup edible cornstarch and 1/2 cup cold water; remove hot pan from stove and immediately add starch to salt mixture. Stir. It should thicken to consistency of thick dough (if it does not, return to heat for about one minute). Turn out on work surface and knead, just as with dough, until evenly smooth. "Goop" is ready for modeling but will keep for weeks if tightly wrapped in foil or saran. Drying time varies with humidity and size of object.

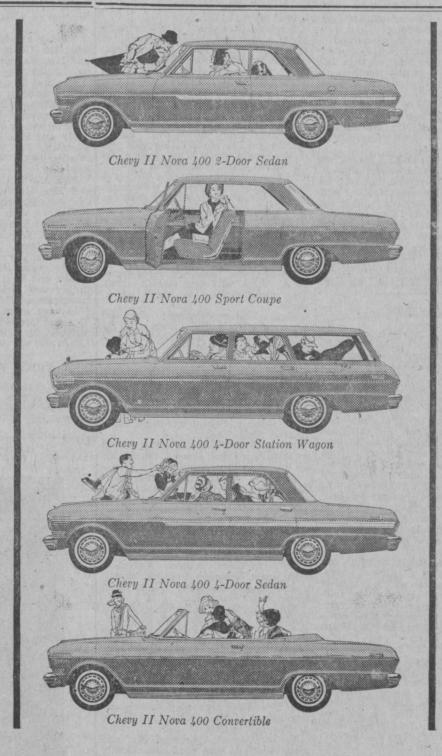

LIVELINESS AND LUXURY IN A FULL LINE OF LOW-PRICED CARS

Eleven new-size models make One-Stop Shopping easier than ever at your Chevrolet dealer's

Nothing fair to middling about the spacious and spunky new lineup of low-priced cars from Chevrolet! From the looks of these nifty top-of-the-line Novas (unmistakably new), you'd never guess they're so easy to own. Even some bigger cars wonder how we got so much full-size family room into such a parkable package—and such hustle out of a 6 that sips gas so sparingly. Your dealer will point out more reasons why luxury and a low price have never been more beautifully blended!

FAIRVIEW

In listening to the radio this news came over from the station W.T.T.R. Westminster, asking the people to write letters to the Senators in Washington so they can still come on the air at their original time. It seems they do not want them to come on the air until seven thirty. I believe I would be safe in saying the majority of the people depend on that station in the early morning hours as to how the roads are, how foggy it is, and also for the school children. Not every child can just step out the door unto the bus, they have a mile or two to walk. That means they have to leave home before seven thirty. There is not that much interference over the radio that people can not understand the news cast. So our hope and prayer is they leave it as it is.

Was Al Fuss, Littlestown, Pa., Mrs. asked about the barns. First, why Hannah Moose, Mrs. Howard Kump, Were they built with just two ends of brick and second, who built them? It appears that Maryland and Pennion Haines and granddaughter Linda and Ruthie Crouse, Mr. Claude sylvania are the only states that have Fissel, Mr. William Stambaugh, York, brickend barns. Carroll county has Pa. and Mrs. Lester Spangler, Bar-44 with Uniontown and Union Bridge areas having a large proportion of the 44. The earliest one is thought to is certain, the artisans who built the Mrs. Ruth Bowers, Mrs. Virgie brickend barns were men of talent Bowers and Mrs. Charles Shildt cal- and skill. No one willingly gives up a good life if he has been taught that comfort and security are his birthright. But what worries many parents is what will happen to American college students if at some future date students from other countries are successful in their search for comfort and security at the expense of America's comfort. Will our students remain unperturbed? No one knows. They don't know themselves, for if one asks them about the future they say: "Let the future take care of it-

Try praising your wife even though it might frighten her at first. There has been some talk of cutting down on the time allotment to small radio stations because they interfere with the larger stations. Well, we can do without all Baltimore stations but we can't do without WTTR. No one can really measure the comfort and service our local radio station has given Carroll County since it was built. The information it gives out when snow blocks the highways alone is sufficient to justify it being on the air early in the morning. WTTR has done more to maintain good relationship between different sections of our county than any other media of communication, for its service is for everyone. The men who pioneered the radio station and the men who have made it something worthwhile for the entire county deserve our confidence. It is worth fighting for to keep it on the air from sun up to sun down. American women are the best "yes-

WOMEN'S GUILD and MEN'S BROTHERHOOD MEETING

The Women's Guild and Men's Brotherhood of Emmanuel (Baust) United Church of Christ met Thursday evening in the parish house.

Mrs. Russell Bloom, spiritual life chairman was in charge of the program. The general theme of the first area of discussion is "Creating and Renewing the Church Through Me." A skit was given directing our thoughts to the theme "The Church of the Living God" (create—renew—within me). Mr. and Mrs. Denton Wantz served as man and wife who represented members of the church and Mr. and Mrs. Noah Warehime spoke as the conscience. This program helped us recognize that the church is not a building but people, people who worship and witness for the living God.

Mrs. Allen Morelock presided at the business meeting, when the secretary, Mrs. Wantz and treasurer, Mrs. Louis Baer reported. Four new reading course books have been added to the church library. Announcement was made that the father-son ban-quet will be held April 12 in the par-ish house. The annual mother-daughter banquet will be a going away banquet, if possible with a tentative date May 3. A musical program date has been set for Sunday evening, April 29, with Mrs. Larry Little and Mrs. Denton Wantz, chairman and co-chairman, Mrs. Ardel Stonesifer was appointed to purchase a blank-et to be given to World Service. The next meeting will be held February 15 with Mrs. Ralph Koons, leader.

THE ROAD OF LIFE

As we walk along the road of life: we find joy and also sorrow. We meet those who are always right, And they tell us that we are the ones that makes all the trouble.

It matters not which one is right, for in the grave we shall all sleep until

We know the right, and we know the wrong.
We know where to go for help when sin has got us down.
When we ask forgiveness for what we have done,
The hunder is lifted and it is passy to keep a travelling on The burden is lifted and it is easy to keep a travelling on.

The most difficult task in life for us to do. Is to humble ourselves, pray and seek his face.

We shall then hear from heaven, and God will direct our way to go.

This is as promised in the 7th chapter of II Chronicles and in the 14th verse.

Then they grow up and go away.

We think again of our existence, and we see the grave not to far away.

But this is life that we must walk throughout our day.

Each day let us give thanks to God for what he has given us in life: Then our path will bring more gladness and less of sorrow. Help me to forgive the ones who made me think that my work is done, It can never be finished, until I rest on yonder hill near my Mother.

With God above and we below, Let us work together without discord.
Your goal and my goal is heaven above.
May we reach it together in peace, tranquillity and in harmony.

NEW RECIPES ADD EXCITEMENT TO MEALTIME

Eating at home can and should be an exciting experience. But, as every homemaker knows, it takes a good deal of variety in menu-planning to achieve this feeling. And, while every new cookbook offers some assistance to those on the lookout for new dishes to add to their bill of fare, it is only the occasional publication that promises a particularly beloing hand.

Such a cookbook is Julie Benell's Let's Eat At Home (Crowell, $4.95). This book is a compilation of over 850 recipes and suggestions selected to make it exciting to eat at home. It contains the best recipes that Miss Benell has collected and tried during her career as a food editor and food telecaster.

Dieters will be glad to note, too, that Miss Benell has devoted a whole section to flavo. ful low fat, low cholesterol recipes—for those who want to reduce the cholesterol in their diet and enjoy good food

2 tablespoons cornstarch

2 tablespoons minced parsley 2 tablespoons minced pimiento 1/3 cup halved, blanched almonds

1/4 teaspoon pepper 4 cups cooked rice

1/8 teaspoon paprika

Here's just one of the many delicious recipes in the book: CHICKEN-SHRIMP-RICE CASSEROLE

2 pounds chicken breasts 2 tablespoons salt 2½ cups chicken broth

1 pound shrimp 2 3-ounce packages chive cream

1 cup light cream

Cook the chicken breasts in 1 quart water and 1 tablespoon salt until tender, about 30 minutes. Drain, reserving 2½ cups chicken broth. Remove skin and bones and cut the meat into thin slices. Cook the shrimp in 1 quart water and 1 tablespoon salt until tender, about 10 minutes. Drain, clean and devein. Cut large shrimp in half lengthwise. Soften the cream cheese, blend in the cream and beat until smooth. Blend the cornstarch and chicken broth, and add to the cheese and cream mixture. Add the pepper and cook over moderate heat until thick, stirring constantly. Spread half the rice in the bottom of a buttered 12 x 8-inch baking dish. Arrange half the chicken, shrimp, parsley, pimiento, and almonds over the rice and pour half the sauce over this layer. Repeat layers, then sprinkle with paprika. Bake in a moderate (350° F.) oven until bubbly and lightly browned, about 30 minutes. Serves 8.

Plant Southern States

Yes, Southern States Alfalfa can decrease your losses from winter-killing. It's winterhardy. Your winter-killing problems are over, or greatly reduced, when you plant Southern States Alfalfa Seed.

Just look at the safeguards you get. Southern States obtains its foundation stock from cold rugged mountain areas, not warm mild climates. Every lot is laboratory-tested before you buy. As further protection, Southern States handles only certified seed of the new improved varieties—no affidavit seed. And read that guarantee. Only winter-hardy seeds can support it.

So get top yields of hay without being robbed by winter-killing. Order your Southern States Alfalfa Seed now.

God Is Spirit Lesson for January 21, 1962

THE Greek language, in which the New Testament was at first written, has no way of expressing our English "indefinite article" a or an. Consequently the two sentences, "God is a Spirit" and "God is Spirit" would be exactly the same in Greek. So then, what die Jesus say to the Samaritan woman? Did He say "God is a Spirit" or "God is Dr. Foreman Spirit"? This is one of these places where Bible translation can't depend on the words only, for here two different translations would be equally correct, so far as the words go. One reason why practically all contemporary translations say "Spirit" in John 4:24 is that saying "God is a Spirit" might give the idea that God is just one among many spirits. God is Spirit fits better with all that the Bible tells us about God.

What is God like? The central meaning of "God as Spirit" is that God's nature is spirit. Water is liquid, earth, water, fire and air are physical; God is spirit. It is very hard to think clearly what this means, because we have never seen spirit by itself. We experience what it is to be spirit, ourselves; for man is partly body, partly spirit. Yet in ourselves spirit never is felt alone. It is extremely hard to be certain at any point in our experience what elements are "spirit" and what elements are physical, material. We know what spirit and matter are in close combination; we can observe matter without spirit every time we look at a rock or a raindrop. But spirit, pure and unmingled? Let us try to speak of a few of the meanings that Christian thinkers nave seen in this tremendous saying, so simple and yet so profound. No likeness of anything

Moses and not try to tell the Israelites that God is spirit. What he did say was something simpler. The people of God were forbidden to make any image or likeness of anything at all, in water, earth or air. The Israelites alone, among the people of the ancient East, had no status nor like any physical thing. Nothing that can be seen with the natural eye looks like God. Now this is very important. If God had some kind of body, if God were as de-pendent on his body as we on ours, then like all bodies, his would have to be at some definite location in space. You could point straight at God (let us say) at noon by the clock, but because of the way the earth spins, at midnight you would have to point in the opposite direction. Nothing that has a body can be in more places than one at one time. Everything that has a body, or is a body, has to move or be carried, from one place to another place. But God is everywhere all the time. All places are "here" to him. This could not be true unless Judgment and consolation This Christian belief (which we owe directly to our Master) that God is spirit, is not just a difficult doctrine. It is extremely practical, and that in two ways. For one thing, you cannot go anywhere and shut God off from following you. He does not need to follow you. He is always there. No door can be closed against him. This means that nothing escapes His eye. No recording angel is needed to keep your record. At the final judgment there is no need to summon witnesses, no wondering if they are telling the truth. God does not depend on eye-witnesses. His judgment is just because He is always at the scene of every Crime? Yes, at the scene of every sin too. In a human court a man may "get by with murder." He may build up a reputation he does not deserve. But no man can surprise God; your reputation with Him is no better than you are.

God is spirit.

The other very important practical bearing this truth has is that God is present in our darkest hours. We may be too ill to visit the bedside of a dying loved one. We m: arrive too late for a funeral. Bot God is never too late; the high God, the only God there is,-He is always there. We are never alone, and we need never feel alone. We may knew that no human sympathy ques penetrates to the inside ci our hearts; but God knows us from the inside as well as from without. O

Have Perfume - Will Travel

Don't feel like a stick-in-the mud if you haven't made a trip round the world. Why spend $2,000 to circle the globe by jet when you can get the exciting scent of far distant places with one squish of Desert Flower Cologne. This fragrance has a touch of lavender from France, Attar of Rose from Bulgaria, Bergamot from Italy, Vetivert from Java, Patchouly from Ceylon, sandalwood from India, balsam from the Americas, etc.

Vogue Color Cues Some anonymous soul once brain-washed his lady-friends with this bit of doggerel:

Blue is true Yellow's jealous Green's forsaken Red's brazen White is love Black is death.

Guess when he showed up in black tie or tights she was supposed to know that romance was dead.

We have much happier color cues from Vogue which says "the neon colors are going — if not gone. The new blues and greens are seen through an autumn haze. Reds have a look of berries and brick tones. Greens are earthbound, as mysterious as olive-leaf or tea-

(Continued from first page) it is too bad for a Master or Mistress is judged by the manners of their pet. Never the Pet judged by his owners. Just as any child if it is not taught, the criticism will fall all upon the parents and especially the Mother. If you are so close to these people why not be very frank with them and have not be very frank with them and have a talk with them? Tell them exactly as you have written to me. The dog will have the greatest of respect for the one who insists upon obedience.
Your Observer.

Dear Observer: I expect to be married very shortly and we planned living with my In-Laws for about a year until we get on our feet as I am working, too. I am not overly fond of my In-Laws and somehow I hesitate going there for a year. Will you please tell me if I am wrong feeling this way? Thank You!

Signed, Future Bride.

Dear F. B.:

I'll say you are wrong all around, first of all you stated you both have planned living with your In-Laws, have they planned and agreed with the set up, too? Take my advice and go to yourselves even if it is one room! It is never wise to live with In-Laws. Have you ever felt how thankful you should be to the parents for if it was not for them, this young man would that even before your marriage. Your Observer

Have a grand week end, Folks and fit snows don't drive, just remain indoors and if there is a church near by, put on your galoshes and dress for the weather and walk to The House of God regardless of the Denomination! Until next week end
