Lord's Prayer. AN OPEN LETTER

Taneytown, Maryland Tuesday, Feb. 13, 1962 An Open Letter to:

Carroll County Board of Education: Mr. Samuel Jenness, County

Superintendent of schools for Carroll County. Dear Board Members and Mr. Jenness; This missive is to insist that you make public your so called White Paper which you propose to present to the Maryland State Board of Educa-tion. This paper, I gather, is an at-tempted rebuttal of the various points made before your group by the At-torney for the Taneytown Citizens' Committee concerning the proposed consolidation of Taneytown Sr. High School and Francis Scott Key. It is my understanding that White Paper is the term our Government assigns to an official document which is represented to contain a true set of facts and/or information which would tend to set the record straight on an uneasy and sometimes unsav-ory situation. The White Paper may in some cases amount to censure; in others an attempt to ameliorate re-lations. All I ask then is an oppor-tunity to see this document in the public press, before February 28th, in order that the citizens of this county, whom incidentally, you are appointed to serve, not dictate to, may check the authenticity and acmay check the authenticity and ac-curacy of the statements contained therein. May I remind you that half-truths, used for purposeful mis-rep-resentation, become outright lies. Another thing I, as a taxpayer, would like to know: Mr. Jenness told the Taneytown Citizens' committee that economy was not the consideration in the consolidation of Taneytown with Key. Yet, we learn through the grapevine, that just the opposite story is being given our good friends in other parts of the county. Inci-dentally, Mr. Jenness, don't attempt to deny the first statement; too many people heard you this time. It would be interesting to know how you would go about proving that the proposed move would result in a saving to the taxpayers of Carroll County. You will be required to maintain the same physical plant at Taneytown; you will not reduce the num-ber of teachers in the county; You must add the cost of additional transportation; and taxpayers all over the county, please note; If this con-solidation takes place, the County Commissioners will be required to allocate in excess of one/half million dollars for the construction of a suitable road from the Taneytown area to Key. We simply would not al-low the lives of our children to be en-dangered because you have decreed it is necessary to transport them 7 miles over a road that might have been entirely adequate for old Dobbin and a buggy. Sometimes, it appears that our administrative agencies have taken leave of their senses; handing down arbitrary decision after arbitrary decision with no apparent justification. I want you as well as the public to know that your decision in our case was anticipated. All we did was go through the motions, based on the premise that, just possibly, we were dealing with intelligent, civic minded Ladies and Gentlemen, who would at least listen to our plea with open minds. Events proved us wrong. I want you to remember that, in a Democracy, such as ours, there is always a higher authority to which you may appeal. Our Committee shall continue to appeal until our Dem-ocratic rights are realized. If some toes are stepped on along the way, that is unfortunate, indeed. With every confidence of ultimate

FROM ANNAPOLIS Bills Being Introduced Explained

The 1962 session of the Maryland General Assembly started off with a bang, there being 19 bills intro-duced the first day in the House of Delegates and an equal number in-troduced in the Senate. The second day the total of bills introduced in the House was raised to 37 and to 30 in the Senate. As usual the State Budget, making appropriations for the operation of State Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1963, was the first bill introduced. Also, in accordance with custom, the Capital improvements Bill was the second one introduced, authorizing a State Bond issue of $19,642,100.00 to make certain capital improvements in the State.

A bill was introduced into the Senate which would permit spouses and dependents of service men, mem-bers of the Merchant Marines, and other enumerated persons serving with or attached to the Armed Forces, together with civilian members of the United States, and spouses, depen-dants, all of whom reside outside of the United States, to have the privilege afforded to an absentee resident ored guest and was him in the Senate was a property held Lion Lyles installed into the Tan-eytown Lions, Lion Cub Delmont Koons, Sr. who was sponsored by Lion Donald Baker. Lion Remsburg then presented to the Honored guest and Speaker and their wives, gifts of appreciation and respect from the club. to register and vote by mail. Another bill which was introduced in the Senate was a proposal that ever, if the joint tenant is a survivor, he is forced to pay an inheritance tax on what is really his own prop-erty. The present bill would exempt that surviving joint tenant from the payment of an inheritance tax under such circumstances.

A "Public Accomodations Bill" was introduced in the House of Delegates as House Bill No. 12. This would prohibit, subject to fine, denial of ser-vice at public places solely because of race or color. "Public Places" for this purpose are defined as places offering sleeping facilities or meals to the public, including premises serving alcoholic beverages. Under this particular bill the definition excludes boarding houses and lunch counters at bowling alleys and swimming pools. Prosecution can be initiated only after investigation by the Attorney General and with the ap-proval of the local State's Attorney. Other bills were introduced to amend the Constitution to increase the members of the House of Dele-Apparel for Spring and Summer will be featured March 13, at 8:00 P. It was truly for "The Love of A. It was truly for "The Love of A. Dog" down at the Armory last Sat-urday and Sunday! There, they were all breeds and in fact there were two new ones of which I did not know. The "Lhasa Apsos" and they were sweet! Their history is most interesting with the unusual back-ground. This pedigree goes back over 800 years when they were bred by mystic priests of Tibet. The breed has significance in Tibetan religion and is given credit for being lucky to have around shop or home. This to have around shop or home. This breed was first imported into the United States in 1930, when a travelbreed was first imported into the United States in 1930, when a travel-ing naturalist brought back a pair given to him by the Dalai Lama. They are the ideal size for home and apartment. Their coloring is lion-like as indicated by the breed's Tibetan name, "Abso Seng Kye" — meaning the Bark Lion Sentinel Dog! They have adorable dispositions and have exotic coats of fur and will event-ually be with American dog lovers— the coming dog! If you are interested, the owner and Breeder who sells them, address is Phyllis Fulton — 1933-47th St. N. W., Washington, D. C. There were 634 entries and the grooming was simply worth the price of the ticket. There were 86 Breeds and it all was most fasci-nating. And only one of it's kind was brought over from Japan when he was 4 months old, Called, "Japanese Akita" and the owner, Lieut. Col. F. J. Orso was the proudest man you ever saw! That dog was beautifully mannered. Always remember the owner is judged by the manners of his pet, never the dog judged by the owner! Many times dogs behave more beautifully than children and that is due to the training from the time of being a puppy. There was a Schnau-zer named, "Excess Baggage" and the owner, a cousin of our former Governor McKeldin. A Daschund the owner, a cousin of our former Governor McKeldin. A Daschund which was quite unusual for it was a Wire-haired dog and the first of it's type I have ever seen. He was a war old and his new "Under Fel year old and his name. "Lucky Fel-la", cute? Your correspondent has introduced a measure to require contractors to hold moneys in trust paid to them by the person or persons by whom they are employed to the extent that these moneys are paid for the purpose of purchasing materials and supplies being used in the building being so constructed by the contractor. The failure to hold such moneys in trust until paid to the material supplier or suppliers will be punishable upon con-viction by fine and/or imprisonment. Many innocent persons have been obliged in the past to pay their con-tractor for supplies and materials used in the construction of their buildings and have later been forced to pay these obligations again because the contractor's failure to pay these bills. NOGALES, ARIZ., HERALD: "In the Shasta-Cascade wonderland of northern California, the officials of Trinity County are in a state of confusion. Some time ago, centralists from Washington told the county it could apply for help as a depressed area-thus qualifying for low interest loans, technical assistance, urban renewal money and relief to blighted industries.

"But let Editor William F. Asbury of the Weaverville, Calif., Weekly Trinity Journal tell the facts of life: 'No one applied for help - and we were still designated as a depressed area!'

Butane boils and bubbles even though beaker is filled with ice cubes. It is rapidly turning into vapor-the way boiling water turns into steam. Butane's ability to vaporize at low temperatures helps Super Shell gasoline give you quick starts in cold weather.

One of Super Shell's 9 ingredients can boil on ice. Helps your car start fast for top performance on coldest days.

TVEN in zero weather, a car in good L mechanical condition should start in 3 or 4 seconds.

If it doesn't, could be that your gasoline isn't vaporizing fast enough. Winter can have that effect on gasoline.

Shell scientists take care of this problem by including an ingredient called Butane in Super Shell's 9-ingredient formula. Butane can hardly wait to vaporize. It will even boil on ice and turn to vapor (see picture above). Fast vaporization, fast starts. It's that simple.

Note: in very cold weather, Super Shell gets an extra dose of Butane.

Quick-starting Butane is only one of Super Shell's cold-weather ingredients. There are three in all. Read how the other two can also help you when winter's doing its worst.

Pentane mix-for fast warm-ups The Pentane mix in Super Shell's winter blend helps speed the "warm-up" process inside your engine. Pentane mix works like kindling in a log fire. It ignites easily -gets everything going faster.

"Anti-icer" fights icing stalls

The third cold-weather ingredient in Super Shell's winter blend is an anti-icer. Its job is to fight carburetor icing. This phenomenon can lead to sudden stalls when you least expect them.

Shell's "anti-icer" coats vital carburetor parts with a very thin chemical film. This film discourages critical ice buildup and cuts your chances of icing stalls.

How Super Shell's other ingredients help you get top performance

Now you know about three of the nine ingredients in today's Super Shell. Here's how the others help to give your car top performance.

TCP* additive helps restore the power that combustion deposits can take away. "Cat-cracked" gasoline is for smooth, even power with a purr.

*Trademark for Shell's unique gasoline additive. Gasolina containing TCP is covered by U.S. Patent 2889212.

Alkylate helps control "high-speed knock." Gum preventive helps keep carburetors clean inside.

Anti-knock mix gives extra resistance to knock.

Platformate is for extra mileage.

P.S. When you drive in for a tankful of Super Shell, ask your Shell dealer to check your anti-freeze. It's a small precaution, but it could save you a lot of trouble.

ideas who do not own a pet. On Monday evening, I went to see "The Seventh Annual Orchid Show" at Hochschild's. Believe me, the C R E A M of Baltimore was there and I do love the real Baltimore was there and I do love the real Baltimoreans. This is where true Southern Hospi-tality really starts! Right in this grand State of Maryland (I would not want to live in any other State) and I have been in many all over and I have been in many all over these United States. There were 80 exhibitors but it seemed this year that there was more of a Tropical atmosphere prevailing throughout the entire show and I thought of Flor-ida. The Orchids were lovely and really appeared like wax. All colors and arranged beautifully. Many were disappointed in the individual exhibits stating those were not to compare with last year's showing. Years ago when a lady received an Orchid, she knew that she was tops in the heart of the gentleman but now al-though the flower is beautiful and most fragile, thousands are taking to growing them, so therefore they are not the rare flower as in former years. Here's a cute one-a friend of mine during the cold snap was wear-ing one of those "Red Riding fur hoods"! She went into the bank with which she deals and the Teller said, which she deals and the Teller said, "Oh, Good Morning, Little Red Ri-ding Hood. Have you seen the big bad Wolf?" The quick reply was, "No, but I'm still looking!" There are many sales in the Hochschild Dept. Store which they call, "Building Sales!" And that, for sure, all over the store. The aptire call, "Building Sales!" And that, for sure, all over the store. The entire first floor is being renovated. It was only a daily Philadelphia newspaper, but the thought promp-ted the action, and here it is. A neighbor drove her father to the Airport as he is a Col. in Paris, for Uncle Sam and while at the Airport she saw the Philadelphia Inquirer and when she returned before leaving for when she returned before leaving for Long Island that evening, I heard a knock on the Patio door and this is what she said, "I haven't a minute but here is a Philly paper for you as I remembered you were hown and I remembered you were born and reared there!" So you see, Folks what I mean when I write about, "It is the little things in life that count!"

It is so much more wonderful riding with the masses on the busses for there is so much interest and so much to learn about people. It was in the Randallstown bus that I met a new little friend. He was sitting on the opposite side next to the window and from where I sat in another seat, and from where I sat in another seat, we looked at each other and we smiled! Suddenly that little fellow edged his way to me past the indi-vidual sitting beside him. He wore glasses and he started up the cutest glasses and he started up the cutest conversation asking me who I was and where I was going. Before I could reply he said, "My last name is Cook and I am in the first grade of St. Ann's school!" He continued on and never have I met a smarter lit-tle fellow. I could not begin to write all of his conversation. As it must him all of his conversation. As it was his stop soon to get off, he said, "Good-bye, I hope I meet you again and I'll tell my Mother I met you!" So you see that little boys too are made of "Sugar and Spice'n Everything Nice" Eh? Then coming home on the nice Schaffer bus last night there was a little boy sitting on the front seat. The bus was crowded and he seemed to edge over closer to the window for me to sit beside him. And this I did! He smiled and quickly offered me chewing gum and C O U G H D R O P S ! Somehow I just im-agined he was hungry and I asked him if he had his dinner and he said that he had missed the noon bus and he was going to see his Aunt who 'resided in Westminster! I then asked him if she would not be worried about him and he immediately said, "Oh, yes and how!" Then he Then he told me that he and his 13 year old sister were going down to Florida during vacation next summer. He is 12. I said, "How are you going?" He replied, "by bus" and I told him if he belonged to me I would not permit him to take that trip. He assured me that everything would be O. K. Cute! We said, "Goodbye" and he watched me until I was out of view as the bus sped on.

death penalty. This is not the place to argue about capital punishment, only to point out that it shows how after all these centuries, human life is still known to be the most important life on earth, and any damage to it a serious crime

But suppose I harm myself and myself alone? Isn't that my affair? It is your affair if you mean docs it concern you. It is your affair if you think that harm you do) yourself injures no one else. You wouldn't think of chopping your hand off, but if you did, the law would take you in charge. You have no right to injure yourself,-by hatchet, alcohol, simple neglect or otherwise; much less to destroy yourself. You do not live alone, you are surrounded by others. Well and strong, you are a benefit to the community; injured or dead by your own fault before your time, you are a burden. you have turned your back on the human race, you have delaced God's handiwork.

MRS. GOLDMAN FINDS PHONE SAVES 21 HOURS OF TIME AND TRAVEL IN TWO WEEKS

Mrs. Daniel Goldman, of Baltimore, recently completed a two-week "diary" of her family's telephone calls. For each call she also estimated the amount of time, travel and money that was saved by telephoning. At the end of two weeks, the Goldmans' telephone diary showed savings of 21 valuable hours, 293 miles of travel and $22.38.

Mrs. Goldman, who is the mother of four young children (all under ten years) and is active in charitable and community affairs, finds her telephone invaluable. She says, "I don't think our family could accomplish two-thirds of the things we do without the telephone."

What would a telephone diary show in your home? You'd probably find, too, that your phone does far more for you ... than the little it costs.
