LIONS CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Many Activities Announced and Planned

A movie entitled "White Wonder," prepared as a public service by Morton Salt Company, was exhibited last ton Salt Company, was exhibited last Tuesday evening through the courtesy of Merle S. Ohler at the regular meeting of Taneytown Lions Club in Taney Inn under the program chairmanship of William T. Albaugh.

President John T. Hottinger opened the affair, which was a special ladies' night, the Rev. Edmund P. Welker pronounced the invocation, and group singing was enjoyed under the direction of Lion tamer Stanley W. King, with Harry I. Reindollar officiating at the piano.

After the Inn's tasty ham menu and the annoying rounds of Tail twister Fred B. Garner scrounging dimes for little or no pretext, the president welcomed the fair sex, especially Miss Sandra Remsburg, guest of her father, Singleton E. Remsburg, and the club's newest member Delmont E. Koons, and Mrs. Koons.

The presentation on salt, the "white wonder" of the dinner table and wonder" of the dinner table and chemical laboratory, factory and highway was most enlightening, for few of us dream how important are few of us dream how important are the uses of sodium chloride in our world today. The household hints too were welcomed by the ladies, e.g., as a remover of table stains caused by hot pans, a rug cleaner and brightner, or to smooth the rough spots beneath a steam iron. An unusual, added attraction was the auctioning of various items at-tractively wrapped, but sight unseen, by the well-known auctionier and member of the Maryland House of Delegates, Thomas R. O'Farrell. This pontion of the program was arranged by Immediate past-president Glenn O. Reaver on behalf of the Convention committee the proceeds point tion committee, the preceeds going towards delegates to that District 22W Atlantic City gathering May 30 to June 2. The highest price paid was for a live chicken, whose identity was unmistakably betrayed beforehand, at least to occupiers of the head table, where the bidding was conducted Convention delegates were then balloted upon, and the results announced by Chairman C. David Hilterbrick to be Lions Lewis R. Baer, Hottinger, Homer Y. Myers, and Kenneth C. Shorb, with Charles I. Little and Lion Shorb, with Charles I. Interest and the Carolina room of the Carolina ro their memberships. Lion Remsburg announced a return of some $200 from donations towards the AM-FM radio given away at the Shrimp and Oyster Feed March 13; President Hottinger stated that a complete report on the entire project will be made later, when all bills are 9, however, realized some $149 for Chiropodist at 222 N. Liberty. No the club's community betterment other Dr. could be any more gentle funds. Three members of the club and kind and the time he is finished in. The Buddy Deame Hop of March will be graduated next month from as he takes your feet from his lap, the Roaring Lions public speaking courses which are under the districtwide leadership of Lion Remsburg.

The Nominating committee of Lions Reever (chairman), Robert W. Feeser, and J. Alfred Heltebridle, presented their slate of next year's officers, namely Lewis R. Baer for president, Frank O. Wargny for first vice - president, Thomas H. Smith, second vice - president, C. David Hilterbrick, third vice - president, Kenneth C. Shorb secretary, Delmont E. Koons, Lion tamer, Singleton E. Remsburg tail twister, singleton E. Remsburg tail twister, and Frank T. Dunham and Thomas H. Tracey directors for two years. Nominations from the floor will be received at the next meeting, with the election to be held on the following one.

The president announced the availability of tickets for those interested in the Roaring Run clubs third charter might April 7 at Frock's Sunnybrook Farm for dinner and dancing to Gene Frock's orchestra; also he has tickets to District 22W's third annual Hospitality night April 14 at the Venice restaurant, Hagerstown, dancing to follow.

He concluded the evening by calling attention to a national television show, "Route 66," for the evening of Friday, March 30, which will base the plot for its program at the Lions Kerville, Texas, Crippled Children's Camp. The camp itself receives full credit during the show, and at the end its name is superimposed on the Lions International emblem.

The next meeting of Taneytown Lions will be Past-presidents' night on Tuesday, April 10, when Lion Heltebridle will be in charge of the program.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" With all my heart, I wish you every morning A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

This Column is just for the Ladies! You have heard "TOPS" from time to time and now it has started all over again and this time stronger—which means taking off pounds! If you are interested call T.E. 3-4625. This would be fine before you don that bathing suit this summer for it. bathing suit this summer for it surely brings grand results!

Now, as to the next hat you pur-chase, Ladies be sure it is the very best your purse can afford and that even if you pay more for it than your dress or suit as there is nothing more flattering than a good hat. Do not go out on the street with Pin Curls, it looks just awful and as to those scarves around your head, always makes me think of the Foreign women in the fields and everything has it's place. Chimese and Japanese wo-men do not wear hats either and why men do not wear hats either and why copy them. As to skirts, if you do not have a good looking pair of legs be sure your skirt or dress hem lime is below your knee. Do not wear pants or shorts unless it is in your own back yard! Pointy shoes are still being shown and as to discarding those for a square toe, the women realize that the pointy affairs give glamor to the leg and they still persist wearing them even on the city streets. Do not wear any rouge or streets. Do not wear any rouge or eyemake up during the day unless it is a slight touch of lip stick and if you do not have eyebrows. The deep red nail polish seems to be a thing of the past. And as to your hair-do's. Never let your hair down as I have stated in these Columns. Many women make the mistake of going to the Beauty Salon once or twice to have an attractive hair-do and then have an attractive hair-do and then it is neglected after. As to any future bride—do not have a different type of hair-do unless you are going to keep it that way all the time. I have never seen a bride that was not attractive for she gets a special hair-do and that makes her appear so differently—and—then it goes back to the same old way!

Ladies, did you read in the papers last week and that exactly ¼ of the page as to advertising from Hochschild Kohn and Co. Sh—sh sh sh sh—"A BRA THAT YOU WEAR TO SLEEP!" Then it goes on to state what a wonderful idea! UGGH! Of all things—whoops! What next?

what a wonderful idea! OGGH: Of all things—whoops! What next?

"Mum is the word when it comes to that nice Mrs. Rockefeller. She appeared so sad leaving the state of Nevada. Eh? There must have been Chalfonte hotel, capable of seating one thousand Lionesses. Club presidents also have the privilege of suggesting names for convention committee assignments from among mittee assignments from among with her on T.V. How pleased all the with her on T.V. How pleased all the as she looked on as her famous As-FURRIERS must have been to see her first fur coat and that a very handsome Leopard. She appeared much vounger as she waved, bye". Did you notice?

Before you get your next pair of shoes and only if you have hurty feet, be sure and visit that nice you will say as you walk the very first block that you truly have, "Hap-py Feet" Your feet can change the entire expression of your face. So don't let that happen to you. His _Dr. Grooms.

Plan Ladies, for The Flower Mart at the Washington Monument and come for the day, the second Wed-nesday in May. It really is like visiting a country abroad and that either Spain or Italy. You will love every bit of it and Your Observer will be right there D.V. in the Spanish Dress plus Mantilla just like her Spanish ancestors.

There was a "Charmer" down at that glamorous store, the May Co. demonstrating the fascinating new dress tie which can be worn in different styles and that will give oomph to your new or old suit. Never have I seen a more wonderful person-ality and there was a crowd right there. She had eyes like F.D.R. and I teased her a bit and said, "I wish I was a Widower instead of a Widow! Now Ladies, you can purchase, "Pledge" in a smaller size can—89 cents so you see how that advertisement really sold me! And as to those soups being advertised—Ummm good! "KNOOR'S" from abroad.

When you are down town, do stop at the window of Mitchell's Fur Co. on Howard Street and see the real garden of a hat, priced $150.00. As I stood there, I honestly thought of a garden in England! A lady writes and asked if she should have her hair tinted for Easter. That is entirely up to this question. Why not get just a rinse which washes out after three shampoos and that way you would know if you would like to go into it further as to a permanent

Today, is the birthday of my former sister who passed away a little more than a year ago and Violets were her favorite flower. Instead of having flowers placed on her grave, I have a bunch right here in my room beside me and the delightful aroma brings her very close to me!

WORTHY OF SHYLOCK

The latest on revision of the crazy quilt federal income tax system is a plan now before Congress to enable the government to get more of its taxes from a citizen's earnings before he receives them. It would withhold 20 cents of every dollar of dividends, interest earned on savings accounts in banks, savings and loan associations, etc. If more taxes are withheld than owed, the taxpayer could apply to the treasury for a refund. There are already withholding taxes on wages and salaries.

A depressing aspect of the bill is the lack of confidence shown by the government in the honesty of its citizens — it treats them all as dis-honest in order to catch the few who

Tax revision can go one step far-ther — require , that all salaries, wages and earnings be paid to the government, and then have the government return to each individual or company whatever might be left to , them after the tax-gatherers had done their work. Sounds crazy, but that would make it easier to deal with a nation of crooks.

ONLY DEMOCRATS FOR JUDGES? - The New York Times: "President Kennedy has just named two Democrats to be judges of the Federal Eastern District Court of Missouri. He had previously made $85 judicial appointments, of which 85 judicial appointments, of which 81 are Democrats.....Of these 85, seven had been reported to him by the American Bar Association—before he chose them—as 'not qualified' to serve......It is shocking that President Kennedy should have named to the Federal bench anyone whom the Bar Association found to be unqualified to serve.....It is shocking that President Kennedy should have named to the Federal bench anyone whom the Bar Association found to be unqualified to serve especially in view of his public pledge that 'only those of unquestioned ability will be chosen.' Apart from competence, the fact that all but/one are Democrats violates a sound political principle he himself laid down when he was still a Senator. A judge should be beholden to no one, least of all to any party or public official."

Readers Tell All In Newspaper Study

Secrets of the newspaper reader have been laid bare in an exhaustive research project recently sponsored by the Newsprint Information Committee with the cooperation of the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association. Five thousand interviews were conducted with randomly-chosen citizens at 622 sampling points throughout the nation. Evidence was gathered which advertisers are now finding valuable in planning ad campaigns in news-papers of every size.

That was the object of the committee, whose members are six Canadian newsprint mills with an avowed stake in the welfare of newspapers. The mills are: Abitibi Power & Paper Co., Ltd.; Anglo-Canadian Pulp & Paper Mills, Ltd.; Anglo-Newfoundland Development Co., Ltd.; Donnacona Pa-per Co., Ltd.; MacMillan, Bloe-del & Powell River, Ltd.; and St. Lawrence Corp., Ltd.

And here's what was found,

Of the 54,000,000 households in the continental United States 80.4 percent or more than 43, 000,000 buy at least one daily newspaper on the average day.

Four out of five adults (21 and over) and 77 percent of all persons between 15 and 20 read a newspaper any given adults every weekday are 125, 000,000, with teen-agers ac-000,000, counting for another 12,750,000 readings.

Average - day readership daily newspapers is high in metropolitan areas and smaller communities alike.

The newspaper gets active use. Within the past week, four out of five readers have talked to others about newspaper items. Fighty - three percent have clipped something cut within the past 90 days. Twenty-three percent clipped ads.

People feel considerably closer to the newspaper they read than to the TV channel or adio station they listen to mo

Termite Traps

Before long the termit who nibbles at decayed wood may spell his own doom. E perimenters have found a sub-stance in rotting wood that makes an effective bait to lure termites into traps.

Moving Disease

The origin of lung cancer isn't as simple as it sems, a scientific report ind ates. About half of reported cases stem from cancers that egan in the lung. No one know how many of the others began else-where in the body and spread to the lung. Lung cancer accounts for about two percent of annual deaths.

Maryland has been outdone, so far as heard from, in the matter of an egg-eating champion. Two citizens of New Market, Frederick County, recently "put away". 48 and 49 eggs, each, but now a news item from Wilkesbarre, Pa., makes their accomplishment look small. The item says: "Billy" Wright, the heavy weight member of the Wilkes-Barre police force, ate 64 raw eggs for his dinner as a test of his epicurean abilities. "Billy" is said to have been authority for the statement that the 64 eggs are merely a starter in a course of training which he plans to undergo preliminary to undergo preliminary to issuing a challenge to "Hungry Joe," of Bloomsburg, Pa., who at present holds the record for being the long-distance "eater" of this section of the State. "Billy" rested awhile after is dinner but leter resumed his his dinner, but later resumed his duties as if nothing out of the ordinary had happened.

Prepared by American Foundation for Animal Health

Most swine producers have probably noticed that baby pig anemia is becoming more of a problem these days.

This is probably due to two factors. First, with today's continuous farrowing programs, more pigs are born during colder weather, are more closely confined, do not get out on pastures where they can get needed iron and copper from the soil. Second, our soils are becoming more lacking in these elements. That also means further increase in Baby pigs should be watched for signs of anemia.

Today, as a result, this is one of the most widespread killers of baby pigs. Anemia is costing farmers such heavy losses that it has been selected as one of the prime targets for National Livestock Loss Prevention Year in 1959.

What can the swine producer do about the problem? First, he needs to recognize its symptoms early. If anemia progresses too far, the veterinarian may be unable to save the affected pigs. And, often those which do recover are unthrifty.

Treatment needs to be started promptly. Symptoms include listlessness, weakness, pale membranes in the mouth, lips, snout and around the eyes and loss of appetite.

One method of preventing anemia is to put sod in the pigs' pens. However, this is unsanitary, and many soils are becoming deficient.

In some cases, iron and copper tablets are given by mouth.

The newest method is to have a veterinarian inject a special, long-acting iron solution directly into the pigs' muscle tissue. Many authorities now favor this because corrective dosages are controlled, and results seem dependable.

Anemia as a potential baby pig problem is going to be with us from now on. The wise farmer will plan to cope with it as a regular part of his operations.

Marriage is a gift of God.

God has ordained marriage, as recorded in the Bible -"Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh."

Marriage is to be monogamous (one mate).

The trinity of the family points to the oneness of marriage. Every child is the child of one father and one mother. This forms a trinity which can never be broken.

Marriage involves vows and oneness that takes place in God's presence and is granted as His gift.

Strawberry Jam-With a Plus!

There's nothing like a new kind of jam for perking up breakfast... for giving a bright touch to a plain everyday sort of pudding... or for layering with vanilla ice cream in a sherbet glass. And, Almond Strawberry Jam is easy to make—really easy, when you follow exactly the directions given in this recipe.

STRAWBERRY ALMOND JAM Almond extract Sliced blanched almonds 41/2 cups prepared fruit (about 2 qts. ripe strawberries) 7 cups (3 lbs.) granulated sugar

1 box Sure-Jell fruit pectin Piace 1/8 teaspoon almond extract and 1 tablespoon sliced almonds in bottom of each scalded glass (or in just one or several of the glasses, if desired.) Crush completely, one layer at a time, about 2 quarts fully ripe strawberries. Measure 4½ cups into a very large (8qts.)

Measure sugar and set aside. Add powdered fruit pectin to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Stir to mix with almond extract. Cover jam at once with 1/8 inch hot paraffin. Makes about 11 medium glasses.

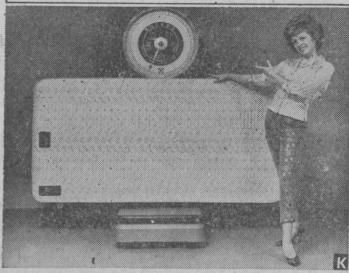

TIPS FOR SAVING TIME

Honest Weight—No Springs

When Mr. and Mrs. Homemaker set out to buy a mattress today, there's more than ever available in the comfort line to help induce a restful and healthy 40 winks. One of the latest innovations in the mattress industry has been the use of a "chemical wonder" called urethane foam. Its composition is made-up of millions of tiny air cells adding a permanent resiliency that makes sleeping on urethane like sleeping on air.

Already well established as a cushioning material in home furnishings, airplane and auto-mobile interiors, urethane foam offers many practical features as a mattress material. Like the one above, many mattresses using this new material are all urethane and are not dependent upon springs and other prod-ucts to provide the ultimate in comfort, durability and nase! ria and other microorcanic of handling.

Urethane mattresses are nonallergenic, odorless, moisture resistant, and never lose their shape. Bantam weight home-makers cheer the near weight-lessness of urethane foam mattresses-even a pint-size gal can lift, turn or carry the mattress with ease. From the Mobal Chemical Company, where the basic chemicals for urethane mat-tresses are made, comes news that, through a newly patented process, urethane can also be made resistant to fungi, bacteand bitter winter in 1610 killed over 400 and nearly ended the Jamestown, Virginia colony-destined to become the first successful English colony in the world. Settlers had no Then in 1612 enterprising settler John Rolfe planted a new type of tobacco. His later marriage to Pocahontas assured peace with the warlike Indians Shipped to England, Rolfe's tobacco was an immediate success, putting Jamestown in business. This marked the start of our foreign trade and the U.S. tobacco industry, 350 years ago.

Lemon Pudding Takes To Cake

A versatile short-cut to modern cooking is packaged pudding and pie filling mix. Here lemon pudding makes a flavorful filling for an elegant cake roll.

1 package Jell-O lemon pud- 1/2 teaspoon salt ding and pie filling mix 3 eggs
1 cup sifted flour 1 cup sugar 2 teaspoons double-acting bak- 1/4 cup water ing powder 1 teaspoon vanilla

Prepare pie filling as directed on package. After filling is thickened, pour into a bowl. (To avoid surface film, place waxed paper directly on surface of hot pudding.) Chill.

Meanwhile, measure sifted flour, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Beat eggs with rotary beater or at high speed of electric mixer until thick and lemon colored. Add sugar gradually and heat until light and fluffy. Blend in water and vanilla. Gradually fold in flour.

Pour batter into 15x10x1-inch pan, which has been greased on bottom and sides, lined on bottom with waxed paper, and greased again. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 12 to 15 minutes, or until take springs back when touched lightly with finger. Turn cake out onto cloth which has been sprinkled lightly with confectioners' sugar. Quickly remove paper; roll cake, rolling cloth up in cake.

Cool on rack.

Beat cooled filling until smooth and creamy. Unroll cake and spread with filling. Roll up again, leaving end of cake underneath. Chill. Sprinkle with additional confectioners' sugar, if desired.

Winter cycling presents a hazard similar to winter driving, when pave-ments are slick with sleet or packed snow. Slow down before rounding a curve...take hills with brake cutting speed...if tires are worn smooth, better stay off bike till skid conditions melt. Youngsters breaking in a new sled should avoid streets used by motor vehicles...never hitch on the back of a car or truck.

Skaters and skiers often protect their eyes against the glare of sunlight on ice or snow by wearing dark glasses. From the American Optometric Association comes the reminder that — if you value eye health — cheap colored glass isn't / the answer. Treat your eyes to properly ground sunglasses. Rock 'n' Reap, Agronomists Conclude After 42-Year Study

Farmers who apply rock phosphate to increase crop yields are helping to build the soil's supply of phosphorous as well. according to a long-term study conducted at the Oklahoma Ex-periment Station, Stillwater.

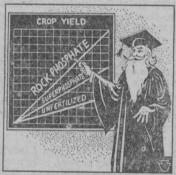

On a plot where 500 to 1,000 On a plot where 500 to 1,000 pounds of rock phosphate per acre was applied every four years, crop yields were as much as 30 per cent higher than fields on which no phosphorous fertilizer was applied. And the amount of available phosphorous in the top six-inch layer was almost 300 pounds per acre aigher than the unfertilized area. nigher than the unfertilized area.

The fertilizer test program covered a 42-year-span. A third test plot on superphosphates showed an increase over the unfertilized plot, but results fell short of the rock phosphate area. Superphosphate was applied at the rate of 125 to 150 nds per acre per year.

for example, totaled 5,697 pounds per acre on the unfertilized plot; 6,843 on the superphosphate area and 8,035 pounds per acre on the rock phosphate

Because less phosphorous is found in soils than any of the other two major plant nutrients, the build-up figures are particu-larly important. For available phosphorous, the three plots had analyses totals of 15, 86 and 314 pounds per acre respectively, while the total phosphorous contents were 363 pounds per acre in the unfertilized plot; 522 pounds in the superphosphate-treated area, and 754 pounds in the section where pounds in the section where rock phosphate was applied.

There have been many postwar phenomena affecting the American way of life, not the least of which has been the appearance and development of the motel or, to put it more elegantly, motor lodge. These homesaway-from-home dot our highways from coast to coast and from the Gulf of Mexico to the northern habitable edges of c r hemisphere. The idea has even caught on abroad and it's not unusual to find, in rural Ireland, a streamlined, split-level, motor a streamlined, split-level, motor inn rubbing blows with the ruined castle of some Hibernian king. Now that our highways are at the near-saturation point in the number of rural caravanseries, the motor lodge is moving into the downtown areas of our big cities and entering into direct competition with standard hotel operations and meeting with tremendous acceptance. New hotel structures are, of course, meeting the motel threat by incorporating garaging facilities within their premises. A most favorable portent for the success of this operation will be its proximity to the Broadway theatre district, the new Coloseum, the big museums and the seum, the big museums and the Lincoln Center for the Performa stone's throw of the Hudson River tunnels and the West Side Highway, which serve the west, upstate New York and New England.

Christ the Center Lesson for April 1, 1962

JESUS CHRIST is often called the center of the Christian faith, and with good reason. True Christian faith is quite definite, however mysterious some of its aspects may be. Just "I believe" doesn't make a Christian out of you. Mohammedans believe, so do Pharasees and Jews and Spiritualists and Mormons and Buddhists. So, for that

Dr. Foreman matter, do Voodoo witch-doctors and devil-worshippers. Everybody believes something; just believing-in-general isn't Christian. It is not eyen common sense. What can possibly be meant by "believing" or "faith" without faith in something or somebody? A "believer" who isn't in the least sure of what or whom he believes is as pathetic a figure as a "Goer" who has no idea where he is going. Just "going" will get you nowhere; so just "believing" gets you nowhere

Center of grace

Christ is the center of Christian faith, the pole to which faith's compass swings. This is true first of all because Christ is the center of God's grace. As the New Testament writers use that word "grace," they most often mean by it the undeserved but freely given favor of God to men. Paul puts it in a nutshell in I Tim. 1:14: 'The grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love which are in Christ Jesus." Grace—faith—love—Christ Jesus: they all go together, Paul cannot think of one apart from the rest. The kind of world we have to live in sometimes discourages us about a God of love. If we believe that God is a God of love, there must be a strong reason for our faith, something because of which we believe, to offset all that in spite of which we believe. And this "something" is Jesus Christ.

It is because we believe him to be God's gift to us. to each one. of us who will take him,-it is because we understand as St. Paul did that Christ's life and even death were for our sakes, that he literally poured himself out in sacrifice for us,-that we find in Center of redemption There are many ways used in the New Testament, by Paul and others, to describe in metaphors what we call Salvation—for Salvation, we must always remember, is the main aim of all religions. Salvation is what God does to rid us of what despoils and ruins us, namely sin; Salvation is the name of all that brings man out of the "far country" and into his Father's home. One of the words, used sometimes in place of "Salvation," is "Redemption," or literally "Buying Back." The picture is of wretched people who are being held for ransom, suddenly set free through the payment of the price demanded. Christ is the ransom, it is he who paid the price, who was the price, of our freedom from sin, our being "alive to God" as Paul put it once. So Christ is the center of redemption. Without him we would be unredeemed. Almost in the same sentence Paul calls Christ the Mediator between God and man. He is the Bridge, the Way. It is he who opens the door to God, it is he who breaks down our opposition, makes us as one with God. Center! How could Christ have any other place?

Center of hope Because some Christians have not seen clearly the meaning of Christ and Christianity for this present life and world, and have as good as said that we don't begin to "cash in" in our faith till after we die, other Christians have fled to the opposite extreme, and found the entire meaning of Christianity in this world and time. Today there is a swing of the pendulum back toward where it used to be, though not all the way. We can see that both ideas are true: our religion is for today, tomorrow and always. Christianity is a religion of hope, and that needs to be remembered in dark days like the present. This earth will pass away, and God knew it when he made it. But that does not spell the end for God's people. Christ will come again. The "appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ" -though in ways we may be surprised to see—is a constant hope of the New Testament. So Christ is again the center of faith, for he is the center of our hope. (Based on outlines copyrighted by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Community Press Service.)

Beautiful Buns For Brunch

For morning coffee or brunch, here's a new recipe that's deliciously different . .

- 1/2 cup milk 1/4 cup butter
- 1/3 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 package dry yeast
- Sweet Chocolate Tea Buns

 1/4 cup warm water

 2 eggs, beaten

 3-1/2 cups flour (about)

 1 package Baker's German's

 Sweet Chocolate
 - Sweet Chocolate 3/4 cup orange marmalade

Scald milk. Add butter, sugar, and salt. Stir until butter is softened and sugar is dissolved. Cool until mixture is lukewarm. Meanwhile soften yeast in the warm water.

Add yeast mixture and beaten eggs to milk mixture. Add 2 cups of the flour and beat well. Add enough of the remaining flour to make soft dough; mix thoroughly.

of the flour and beat well. Add enough of the remaining flour to make soft dough; mix thoroughly.

Place dough on lightly floured board, cover, and let rest 5 minutes. Knead dough 5 minutes. Place in lightly greased bowl, cover with a damp cloth, and allow to rise in a warm place until dough is doubled in bulk, about 1-1/2 hours.

Meanwhile, chop half of the chocolate; combine with marmalade. Punch down and rol! out dough into a 18x2-inch rectangle. Spread chocolate mixture on dough to about 1/2 inch from edges. Roll up tightly, beginning at wide side. Pinch edges of roll together to seal well. Cut into 1-inch slices and place cut side up, a little apart, in a lightly greased 13x9x2-inch pan. Cover with a fowel and let stand in a warm place until almost double in bulk, about 40 to 45 minutes. Bake in a moderate oven (375°F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Turn out onto plate immediately. Meit remaining chocolate over hot water; drizzle over buns. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar and chopped pecans, or toasted slivered almonds. Serve warm. Makes 16 to 18 buns. Today's Electric Ranges Stay Cleaner, Clean Easier better electrically, they cook cleaner, too.

Manufacturers have gone all out to make this year's electric ranges cleaner to cook with than ever before. The cleanability that's built into the 1962 models is a bonus homemakers appreciate because automatic cooking is even more fun when there's no fuss afterward.

The new electric ranges are designed to stay cleaner during cooking and to be easy to clean when the cooking's done. Automatic controls and timers help prevent boil-overs and burned food, and, in case food is accidentally spilled, a raised lip around the outside of the cooking top keeps liquids from ruring top keeps liquids from run ning off.

Sleek designs with continuous surfaces and rounded corners which eliminate dirt-catch Sleek designs with continuous surfaces and rounded corners which eliminate dirt-catching cracks and crevices also mean cleaner cooking, as domany other design features. Among these are surface elements that lift up or can be completely removed, and reflectors that can be replaced or removed for washing.

Electric ovens may have re-

Electric ovens may have replaceable foil liners, or the whole oven may slide out for easy cleaning. Oven doors drop down or are removable and some makers of the Knorr soups.

Soup Makes U.S. Jobs

Senator Everett M. Dirksen, left (Ill.R.) shown in his office before hosting Senate colleagues in Senate dining room to luncheon featuring dehydrated soup. Reason: soup imported from western Europe for manufacture in this country, provides new jobs for Americans, serves Senator with illustration of "gold flow in reverse". Shown with the Senator is William T. Brady, chairman of Corn Products Company, makers of the Knorr soups.

At a special luncheon in Washington, Illinois' Senator Everett M. Dirksen used the dehydrated soup appearing on the Senate dining room menu to show his guests a reverse in America's gold flow. The soup, according to the Senator, is a western European brand now being manufactured and disbutched in this country. New manufacturing facilities for making Knorr soups have created hundreds of jobs for Americans, he explained, and a sizeable capital investment outlay. Both represent a reverse direction in the troublesome gold outflow in America's international trade balance, Senator Dirksen said.

Picture Pretty Pineapple Luncheon Salads

Arranged to look like colorful whole pineapples, these picture pretty salads made a lovely and unusual entree for light lunch pretty salads made a lovely and unusual entree for light luncheons. Golden chunks of canned pineapple stud the outside of the salads and contribute their delectable sweet crispness to the creamy cottage cheese base. Dates and walnuts add texture interest to the cottage cheese and colorful garden greens add a springlike garnish. Orange rolls, tea and chocolate cake complete a delightful luncheon for your favorite garden or bridge

PINEAPPLE PICTURE SALAD

- 1 pint cottage cheese 1/2 cup chopped dates
- Canned pineapple chunks or
- Date strips and walnut cup chopped walnuts Small leaves of greenery halves Small romaine leaves Shredded lettuce

Lightly mix cottage cheese, chopped dates and walnuts. Place small leafy greens on each salad plate and center with a mound of shredded lettuce. Top with half of the mixed cottage cheese. With a spatula form it to look like a fresh pineapple half. Arrange pineapple chunks in even curved rows on top and separate each row with date strips. Put 3 walnut halves at base of pineapple, 3 romaine leaves for the crown. Serve with French or creamy type dressing. Makes 2 salads.
