HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

On Wednesday, May 2nd, the 9B Civics class toured the city of Baltimore by bus, pausing at Pimlico, T.V. Hill, Memorial Stadium, Johns Hopkins University, Sherwood Gardens, downtown Baltimore, Pratt Street wharves and Smith Park. This was followed by a tour of Fort McHenry, birthplace of the "Star Spangled Banner".

In the afternoon the class journeyed to Annapolis, where they toured the State House, saw Government House, and visited the Naval Academy. A feature of this visit was a full-dress parade of Midshipmen. This was truly an inspiring spectacle.

The results of the Student Council elections for officers for next year, which were held on Thursday, May 3rd, are as follows: President, Hannah Lippincott; Vice-President, John Shorb; Secretary, Paula Brauning; Treasurer, Travis Dutterer; Reporter, Donna Hively.

The Student Council reports that the annual school picnic will be held on June 13 at Big Pipe Creek Park. Committees have been appointed for organizing this event.

Information on Obtaining Social Security Number

The time for summer vacation from school is rapidly approaching.

For some, school closing will mean a summer of carefree existence at the beach, swimming, fishing, and boating. To some, it will mean going to the mountains and the more rugged sport of mountain climbing. To most, however, it will mean summer work and the satisfaction of earning money and all of the personal gratification even a limited amount of financial independence brings.

If you are one of the vast number of students who will be working for the first time this summer, there are a couple of important things you should know.

You will need a social security account number. You may get an application for a number from your Post Office, from the local social security office listed in your phone book, or from your high school counselor. After you receive your number, be sure you show it to your employer so that he can record it in his records. This is of equal importance to the summer-time worker and to the graduate who will be starting his career. All employment is credited under the individual's account number. You should have only one number throughout your lifetime. If you lose your number be sure to apply for a duplicate of your original number.

If you will remember these points, you will be starting your working career with the least possible difficulty.

At the regular P. T. A. meeting Monday, May 14th, the Senior High music classes and part of the Chorus presented some excerpts from the opera "Martha". Faye Clingan was the moderator and Mrs. Wiley, the director.

The speaker for the evening was Mrs. Margaret Bailer, the County High School Supervisor of English. Her remarks were directed primarily to the Seniors.

After the meeting the Annual P. T. A. Party for Seniors and their Advisors was held. The Chairman of the party was Mrs. Ben Cutsail.

Final examinations for Seniors will start on May 25, 1962.

During the months of April and May members of the Future Teachers of America (F.T.A.) had the opportunity to observe classes at Taneytown Elementary School.

The monthly F.B.L.A. meeting was held on Tuesday, May 15. The sophomores who were interested in the commercial course were invited to attend, and also a group of girls and their advisor from Francis Scott Key were present to observe the club.

Mr. Andrew Mason, former principal of T.H.S. and now affiliated with the State Board of Education of Maryland, was the speaker. His topic was "The Changing World and F.B.L.A.". Paula Brauning and Carol Bair will attend the National Convention held in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Refreshments were enjoyed by everyone.

Mr. Robert Neal, history teacher at T. H. S., has submitted his resignation to the Carroll County Board of Education. Next year he will assume the position of Assistant Professor of History at Mt. St. Mary's College, where he will teach European History.

Mr. Neal graduated from the University of Virginia and received his Masters' Degree at Johns Hopkins University. He has taught social studies, world history, and Problems of Democracy at Taneytown High School since 1955.

The following members of Key Club have been elected as officers for 1962-63: Ronald Baumgardner, president; Travis Dutterer, vice-president; Keith McCurley, secretary; and Donald Koontz, treasurer.

The senior Class at T.H.S. will present a Class Night play, "The Other" (continued on page four)

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION REVERSES DECISION OF CARROLL COUNTY BOARD

IN THE MATTER OF THE
TANEYTOWN HIGH SCHOOL
CONSOLIDATION

Appeal to the State Board of Education

ORDER AND OPINION BY THE MARYLAND STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
MAY 16, 1962

This appeal was filed by the Mayor, the City Council, and certain residents of Taneytown, Carroll County, Maryland, from the decision of the Board of Education and the Superintendent of Schools of Carroll County to consolidate the Taneytown High School with the Francis Scott Key High School, beginning September, 1962.

An open hearing was held on this appeal on March 15, 1962, by the State Board of Education. The appellants were represented by counsel. The Board of Education of Carroll County was represented by its attorney. The Assistant Attorney General of Maryland appeared as legal adviser to the State Board. Testimony was taken and arguments were heard.

ORDER AND OPINION

After due consideration, the State Board of Education of Maryland is constrained unanimously to reverse the decision of the Board of Education of Carroll County in the matter of the consolidation of the Taneytown High School with the Francis Scott Key High School. The decision of the State Board of Education is based entirely upon the procedure employed by the Board of Education of Carroll County in arriving at its decision and in no sense constitutes a substitution of the judgment of the State Board of Education for that of the Board of Education of Carroll County as to the wisdom and advisability on educational grounds of consolidating the above-mentioned schools.

The steps in the procedure followed by the Board of Education of Carroll County to which the State Board of Education takes exception as a matter of policy are:

1. Within five months after an announcement of a policy regarding the consolidation had been made by the said Board, in which it was specifically stated that there was no intention of consolidating the Taneytown High School with the Francis Scott Key High School, the Board of Education of Carroll County reversed its decision.
2. In April, 1961, the Board of Education of Carroll County approved the general policy regarding school buildings, in which it made specific reference to the Taneytown High School: "It shall be the purpose of the Board of Education to continue its operation as at present, subject to sentiments of pupils and parents related to transfer to more modern and comprehensive organization." This policy statement was in accord with repeated prior assurances to the residents of Taneytown that consolidation of its high school with Francis Scott Key was not contemplated. By letter dated December 11, 1961, the County Commissioners stated that they would not have appropriated $100,000 in 1959 to renovate Taneytown High School, except for the assurance that it would continue in use as a high school.
3. The agenda for the meeting of the Board of Education of Carroll County held on September 26, 1961, did not contain the question of consolidation of Taneytown and Francis Scott Key high schools. Nevertheless, in the absence of one member, the Board decided to take this action.
4. Subsequent to this action of the Board of Education on September 26, 1961, protests were registered by certain residents of Taneytown and a hearing was held by the Board of Education on November 7, 1961, after which the decision to consolidate was reaffirmed. The record fails to show that between said dates the Board presented to the people the findings upon which its decision of September 26, 1961, to consolidate the two schools was based.

The State Board of Education recognizes the fact that the laws of the State clearly impose upon a county board of education the obligation to consolidate schools when in its judgment it is wise to do so.

"The county board of education shall consolidate schools wherever in their judgment it is practicable, and arrange, when possible without charge to the county, and shall pay, when necessary, for the transportation of pupils to and from such consolidated schools." Annotated Code of Maryland, 1957 edition, Article 77, Section 61.

The State Board of Education, however, has the legal responsibility of settling disputes and of advising local boards of education. For the guidance of the Board of Education of Carroll County, the State Board makes the following recommendations respecting the procedure in consolidating schools:

1. A local board of education, after it has made careful studies of the advisability of consolidation, should present its findings and recommendations to the general public. The findings upon which the recommendations are based should include: (a) the educational advantages of the consolidation; (b) an estimate of the financial savings or the additional costs which would result therefrom; and (c) the safety of the pupil transportation required to effect the consolidation.
2. A board of education, in advising the general public of its plans to consolidate schools, should make quite clear how such consolidation would improve the educational opportunities of the children involved.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

If you are not sure as to the "POWER OF A WOMAN" you should have been down at the 50th Anniversary of The Women's Civic League at the Washington Monument — "THE FLOWER MART"! Years ago, it was started by a handful of ladies and then it kept growing bigger and better as each year came on. Even that man who went to New York City, MR. BARNES agreed with the ladies to have the Mart at the usual place! First it was more of a flower affair but as the years went on, every type of item was sold and as one walks around, most everyone had a lemon (continued on 5th page)

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

We don't know whether you are shook up or not, but I suspect that Editor Charlie Deal of the KEY-NOTER, down in the Florida Keys at Marathon, was speaking for a lot of us when he wrote the following open letter to the White House and printed it in his "Five O'Clock Shadow Column" on April 19:

"Dear Mr. President:

"After seeing what happened to U. S. Steel for failure to confer with you before raising prices, I thought it best to write immediately.

"I have no desire to adversely affect 130 million people by raising prices, but an increase seems inevitable.

"Your post office department raises our mailing fees every year. And there are still more increases ahead. As such, it appears this newspaper may have to raise its subscription around fall by about fifty cents a year.

"Certainly, I don't want you to grab up our records for a grand jury investigation or have your brother (Attorney-General Bobby) levy anti-trust action against us. And this outfit is too small to be busted up into smaller companies.

"So, I'm taking no chances.

"I'd like to confer with you on this proposed fifty-cents increase, but for the life of me, can't see how I can get to Washington.

"All of my spare time is taken up working for the government. Preparing and signing a continuous flow of withholding forms, social security deductions and other bureaucratic red tape keeps my feet to the fire.

"I realize you wouldn't have the time to come down to the Florida Keys. And Bobby is probably too busy squeezing the life out of US Steel to get away. Teddy has a full schedule politicking and explaining away his college cribbing.

"But just maybe someone else could get away, maybe Ethel or .....

Charlie has not yet advised us on the reply — or who is coming. But Florida (especially the Keys) is a lovely picture setting.

Sincerely,

BOB TAYLOR

Yardstick Of Farming Efficiency

An over-sized yardstick helps farmer Lyle Schmidt of Hemlock, Mich., illustrate how he increases both yield per acre and harvesting efficiency in his corn fields. Key to the system is a new narrow-row corn picker produced by the New Idea Division of Avco Corporation. For many years corn has been grown in rows 40" apart — mainly because a horse needed that much room to draw equipment through the field — and conventional two-row corn pickers are still built to this width today. The narrower setting on this new machine enables Mr. Schmidt to harvest his corn in 28" rows, thus increasing the number of rows he can plant per acre. Until New Idea's picker for narrow rows became available, he harvested with a one-row picker, requiring twice as much time to strip his corn.

DEEPLY ENOUGH

Refrigerated ships carry seasonal crops of fruit and vegetables long distances. Miles of steel pipe connect all storage compartments to the refrigeration machinery where the valuable cargo is preserved.

Modern mining in the United States employs over 900,000 Americans ... produces an annual $15 billion! Miles of indispensable steel pipe honeycomb mines — acting as carriers for electric power, compressed air and feeder lines. Pipe is used to transport minerals and to pump water seepage to the surface.

CURRENT EVENTS FIFTY YEARS AGO

Postmaster McKinney is trying a postmarking machine which is used for backstamping and mailing purposes.

D. J. Hesson was elected lay delegate to the Middle Conference of the Lutheran Synod, which meets in Walkersville, next week.

John T. Fogle has been commissioned Justice of the Peace. James B. Galt who was also appointed has concluded not to lift his commission.

Charles Withrow of Cleveland, O. has been on a visit to his old home near town.

Next Friday, May 24th, is the date for closing the public schools of Carroll County.

Rev. Dr. W. B. Dutera of Salisbury, N. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Dutera of Taneytown was honored last week by being elected President of the Reformed Classis of North Carolina.

Copperville... Charles Young has renovated the interior of his house by papering and painting... Samuel Galt's are having a new porch erected to the front of their house... Mr. and Mrs. Wright of Arlington, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Wright's grandmother and uncle, W. H. Flickinger and family. They made the trip in their auto... Thomas Weishaar and wife of Hanover, visited Mrs. Weishaar's parents, Samuel Flickinger and wife, over Sunday.

Uniontown... Miss Eliza Zollickoff left on Tuesday for a visit to Philadelphia, with her aunt, Mrs. Ida Zollickoff... Harry Baughman of the Theological Seminary returned home this week... Milton A. Zollickoff received his commission last week as Notary Public for his second term... John Stuller is giving his house a coat of paint.

Harney... Leroy H. Null of the U. S. Battleship Vermont, now at Norfolk, Virginia for repairs, is home on a 30 days leave. His four years of experience in the Navy expired on May 12, so after re-enlisting for another four years he thought it right and proper to pay his home folks a visit.

How Blue Cross Serves The Nation

Blue Cross paid hospitals a national average of 93% of total subscriber income last year. This was possible for two reasons:

1. The nation's 77 Blue Cross Plans, all independent, private institutions, operate solely in the public interest and are incorporated under not-for-profit charters.
2. All Plans work closely with hospitals and have contractual agreements with them based on actual cost of care.

Highly trained personnel and the latest data processing equipment help Blue Cross Plans meet specialized local needs. Plans must also handle national accounts for industry and government with speed and efficiency. To do this, they have established their own central clearing office and a complex, country-wide communication network.

Through its "Medicare" program Blue Cross protects several hundred thousand members of the armed forces. And almost 3 million federal employees and their dependents are covered nationally. This is the largest group in the world covered by a single voluntary health protection agency.

Why More Foreign Trade?

K

One of the most important issues before Congress this year is President Kennedy's program to expand trade with the nations of the free world.

The Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, passed in 1934, authorized the President to bargain with other countries for the reduction of trade barriers reciprocally. As a result, the United States has become the world's greatest importer and exporter of both raw materials and manufactured goods.

This Act, which has been renewed eleven times, expires June 30 and it must be replaced by more liberal legislation to meet changing conditions in the world. The Administration's new program, embodied in the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, gives the President the authority he must have to bargain with the countries of the free world for the beneficial exchange of goods.

The union of several nations forming a common bloc, like the European Common Market, has brought about a challenging world trade situation. Unless we can negotiate agreements with those countries, their higher external tariffs will be a real threat to many of our farmers and manufacturers who must export. This could mean loss of employment for many—President Kennedy said that one out of every three workers is employed in manufacturing firms that export.

Under the new Act, the President will be able to negotiate successfully with the Common Market.

More U.S. foreign trade is the most effective answer to the Soviet economic offensive against the free world. In recent years, the Communist countries have more than tripled their trade with the less developed free nations whose products have not found easy access to the West. We can only keep these developing nations on our side if we open our markets to their products, and as they prosper they will need more and more of our products. There is no better economic weapon against communism than our willingness to trade with those countries on a fair basis.

American manufacturers who are efficient have little to fear from import competition. Industry can meet this competition by reducing unit costs of production and better marketing through improved technology and research. However, the few industries, firms, and workers that may be hurt by increased imports would receive assistance from the Government, under the proposed Act.

Expanded trade keeps costs and prices down because it stimulates competition, thereby warding off inflation. Above all, it helps us maintain our leadership in world affairs.

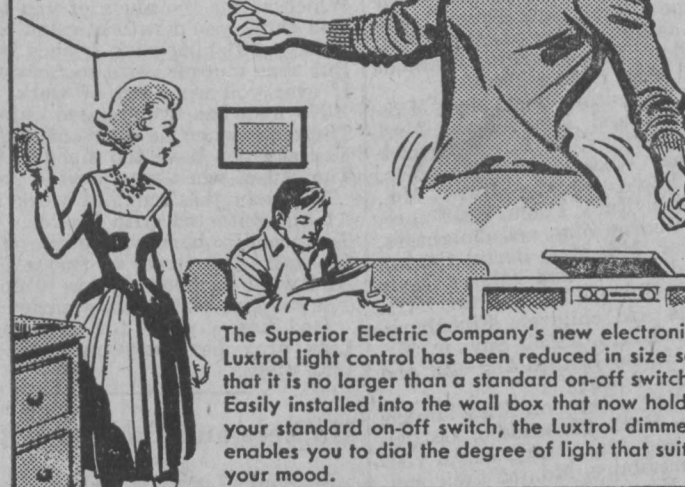

More trade, therefore, benefits the entire U.S. economy—producer and consumer—and, by helping to raise living standards in every country, helps to make a stronger free world.

Small Talk

In our age of miniaturization—even the things we use everyday are getting smaller! We have dime-sized watches, tiny turkeys, breast-pocket cameras and stereophonic tape recorders—even collapsible clothing!

The transistor radio is a perfect example. First models could fit in your hand... smaller models were then developed that could fit in your pocket... and now, you can get one built right into your eyeglass frames!

The Superior Electric Company's new electronic Luxtrol light control has been reduced in size so that it is no larger than a standard on-off switch. Easily installed into the wall box that now holds your standard on-off switch, the Luxtrol dimmer enables you to dial the degree of light that suits your mood.

Farmers who try to predict whether swine erysipelas will be a problem on their farms this year are engaging in a dangerous game.

For, swine erysipelas is probably the most unpredictable hog disease known in this country. Since the swine erysipelas organism is rather widespread in the soil and is very resistant, and because apparently-recovered animals may remain carriers and keep the soil infected, the disease is often there and can break out at any time, causing severe losses.

Swine erysipelas is common to all swine growing area. It usually results in great economic losses to the producer, through stunting and unthriftiness.

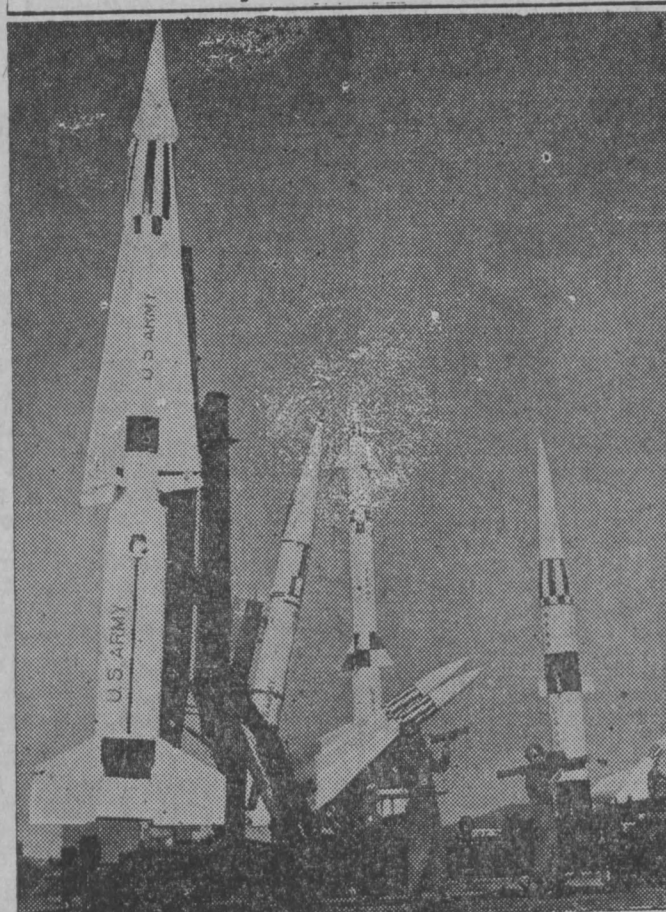

Enlarged joints are a symptom in chronic erysipelas. The disease often may also resemble hog cholera.

There are several forms of erysipelas. The most noticeable symptoms occur in the acute form and include light appetite, scours, stiff or painful gait and resentment at being disturbed. Symptoms may be overlooked easily in the mild form, but in chronic erysipelas the organisms localize in joints and cause swelling or arthritis.

One of the confusing factors in swine erysipelas is that, in the acute form, it may resemble hog cholera or salmonella infection. For this reason it is important to call a veterinarian for a diagnosis when any symptoms such as these show up. To determine the exact disease is always of first importance.

What are the best ways to fight swine erysipelas? Here are several that are recommended by authorities: Quarantine replacement stock. Provide pigs with well-balanced rations and plenty of clean, fresh drinking water. Have a veterinarian routinely vaccinate against the disease and follow his advice about disease control measures. Last but not least, raise animals according to good husbandry practices in housing, condition of lots, pastures and management.

Army Missile Might

The Army's entire missile arsenal is seen in action in a new motion picture now being shown nationally under auspices of Thiokol Chemical Corporation, builders of rocket engines for missiles and space vehicles. Film features TV commentator Chet Huntley as narrator. Shown here are: (L-R) Nike Hercules; Sergeant; Hawk; Nike Zeus; Pershing; La Crosse and two infantry rocket launchers aimed by soldiers in the foreground.

The sample party which was held at the Key School last week was very interesting and was a very successful financial venture.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Wilhide arrived home from their honeymoon Sunday evening. They had journeyed as far as Florida. Richard and Cassie were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Farmer in Albany, Georgia. This was the family with whom Richard stayed when he was in baseball training. They stopped for a visit with Mrs. Wilhide's Uncle and Aunt. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sorge and family in Washington, D. C. and with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Daniel K. Mrs. John Cosden, Naylor's Mill Rd. is home again after spending a delightful several weeks in Florida—Miami.

Seibert, and family Clear Spring. The countryside is still very beautiful. This must have been just the right kind of weather for the Dogwood, all the trees everywhere seemed to be white all over or pink all over with blossoms. The Pilot and the Carroll Record go to many out of state readers, many of them with whom I have contact, have been grateful to be able to see a little of the beauty of the flowers, lawns, etc. of our area through the eyes of these papers. Names of farms, roads, homes, description of many locations, may be boring to a degree to local readers, but seem to be helpful and interesting to non-local readers.

Rebecca Wilhide, student nurse at the Frederick Memorial Hospital, spent several days this past week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilhide and family.

The Union Bridge Lutheran Parish Brotherhood Chorus will sing at the Mission Study which will be held at the Keysville Lutheran Church at 7:30 p.m., May 20. Everyone who can attend this meeting is very welcome. Mrs. Charles Hauser, who has been heard speak several times in this country, is one who has a very vital message and who can pass it on to her audience with great emphasis. COME.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Metzler accompanied Mrs. Carroll Wilhide when she took her Aunt, Miss Ada Yoder, back to her home in Baltimore on Wednesday, May 9th. The Metzlers and Mrs. Wilhide called on Mrs. Wilhide's cousin, Miss Merle Yoder, Mrs. LeBrun and Mrs. Koons at their home in Towson before returning to Baltimore.

New telephone number — C. E. Priest — Spruce 5-2318.

Mr. and Mrs. Metzler and Miss Ada Yoder visited on last Monday with Mrs. Gertrude Warner, Frederick County, side of Detour. On Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Metzler called on Miss Vallie Shorb, Detour.

Mrs. Linda Harmer of Washington, D. C. or Arlington, Va., with her children and husband visited on Sunday with her grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Dorsey who resides in the Mrs. Bessie Myers apartment in Detour.

Mrs. Howard Smith (Nina) and Mrs. Norman Waltz (Betty) and their families of Frederick entertained most of the Oden Fogle family of near Union Bridge at a dinner in honor of their Mother, Mrs. Oden Fogle. This celebration was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Waltz and Bobbie, Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun and family, Redland, Keysville-Detour Rd., were among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Myerly of near Mumma's Ford Road, are receiving congratulations upon the recent birth of their daughter. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Myerly, the Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Angelberger.

Visitors on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wilhide were Mrs. Mehrle Adkins and Maria, Mrs. Richard Basham and Ricky, Mrs. Basham, Ricky and Mr. Basham of near College Park, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adkins and Maria.

The Keysville-Detour Homemakers Club is scheduled to meet on May 16th at the home of Mrs. Charles Stonesifer of "One Brother Farm", near Keysville.

Miss Stella Scott came to the home of her niece, Mrs. C. E. Priest, Mr. Priest and family, Forest and Stream Club Rd. on Friday. Aunt Stella spent the week-end. She too enjoys the spring beauty of this section and it seems to make a special effort to make one of her visits to the Priest family at this time of the year.

Mrs. Maurice Wilhide, 3028 East Avenue, Baltimore 14, Md., has not been as well as usual at the home of her daughter in Baltimore. She was visited on Sunday by her son Carroll and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Minnick.

It is expected that the Iris at the Weishaar place, Forest and Stream Club Rd. and the Iris, Rock Garden, Rhododendron, Golden Chain Tree and other plants at the Redland home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun, Keysville-Detour Rd. will be nearing their peak of bloom this week-end. These enjoy sharing this result of their hard work and God's giving the growth.

Those who journeyed to Clear Spring, the Daniel K. Seibert home, to see Richard and Cassie's wedding gifts and to visit the family on Friday were Mrs. James Coshun and granddaughter Debbie, Mrs. Edward Coshun and Libbie, Mrs. Carroll Wilhide and Beth, Mrs. Dharlys Fleharty, Ellen, Bruce, and Diane, Mrs. Mark Baumgardner, Mrs. Clyde Wilhide, Mrs. Charles Minnick, Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide, Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Metzler returned to their home on Friday, part the way with this group in order to also visit at the Seibert home. The Metzlers live in Altoona, Pa.

A VOICE FROM CARROLL

The Read's Drug store in the Westminster shopping Center gave every mother that visited their tea-room on Sunday a turkey or beef-steak dinner as a gift. The dinners were very appetizing and a real treat for mother. Needless to say the tea-room was crowded from 11 a.m. until closing time with not only mothers but fathers and children too. In spite of the heavy traffic, the waitresses managed to keep smiling and to give efficient service. Congratulations to Read's for making a hit with mother on her special day!

Paul S. Hyde, recently appointed superintendent of education for Worcester County schools addressed the Pocomoke High School seniors who were guests of the Rotary club at Pitts Creek Presbyterian Church. Mr. Hyde in his talk stressed the point that education is becoming more and more important and that youth must keep on learning. Education is really the only worthwhile inheritance that a family can give. But knowledge must be used if it is going to be beneficial to the individual and to the community. Youth faces many fears, but education can lessen many of the fears and tensions that beset the present graduate. Mr. Hyde expressed confidence in the new crop of high school seniors. It may well be that he remembered the confidence his teachers had in him when he was graduated from Elmer Wolfe School and Western Maryland College and how well he proved that their faith was justified.

The new library at Western Maryland College was open to the public over the week-end and many visitors went through the building. The visitor is impressed with the space and lighting as well as the colors. Noise has been practically eliminated. Individual study rooms are available without windows so that the studious girl and boy can really concentrate on bookfare. For day dreamers tired of study, the view of Carroll's countryside from the west side of the library is magnificent and may well be the excuse for closing a book on economics or English literature and steal away to the foothills of Uniontown or New Windsor to find the ghost of Keats or Shelly strolling under a maple tree. But we forget that poets are no longer popular. This is the practical age and it is reflected in the efficient new library. On the shelves are books we could not have read when we were students. It would not have been permitted. Its a wiser world now, for there is no excuse for ignorance. The mind should be allowed to go where it wants to go and learn what it desires to learn. Libraries if used, is the best weapon against bigotry. The opening of the new library is a great day for Western Maryland College for the students have needed it for a long time. It is also testimony that teachers beside teaching are men and women who lead ahead and plan for the future. May this breed of men and women flourish and continue to guide our youth into the path of learning.

The stock market continues to drop and people are blaming everyone but themselves. Remember, what goes up must eventually come down. You can't inflate a balloon too high without risking a blowout. We may learn not to be so greedy for money, though it is doubtful if that lesson will ever be learned.

The Women's Literary club was entertained Saturday by Mrs. Gertrude Zollicoffer at her home near Uniontown. A native of Pakistan was present and gave a brief talk on the cultural and political history of his country. There was a question and answer period that proved both interesting and informative. These impromptu discussions prove more enlightening then do the more formal lectures.

A citizen is a man who wants better roads, better schools, better public officers and lower taxes.

Overheard

A gentleman who kept two dachshunds to take care of his garden and lawn observed one day that one of them was missing. "What's the matter, Mose? Hasn't George showed up this morning?" "Why, boss, don't you all know? George, he's in the hospital!" "Hospital? How did that happen?" "Well boss, yo' see George he's been tellin' me every day for a week that he's gwine to lick his wife foh naggin' him. Well yestiddy she done ova-heah him."

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Frank Cramer is in the Gettysburg Hospital and has undergone surgery. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Idleness

You sometimes grumble at your task. Which seems too much of you to ask. You think you'd rather spend a day. A day of fishing with friends is play. But time and pleasure soon would irk. If ever you were out of work.

No man has ever longed enjoyed. The days when he was unemployed. You say you have too much to do. The out-of-work man envies you. The man that's out of work is not. At all contented with his lot. Too proud to borrow, beg or rob. He walks the street to find a job. And what he hopes for is to do. The kind of work that wearies you. God has a place for each of us. Lets pray earnestly until we find that place.

Mothers and Daughters Dine

St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Harney, held their annual Mother and Daughter banquet Tuesday evening, May 8 in the parish house.

With the group singing, "Faith of Our Mothers", the food was placed on the tables, followed with prayer by Mrs. Wilbur Reifsnider. The food being prepared and served by the men of the church, consisted of roast chicken and ham with everything to go with it. It was very delicious and very well prepared.

There were 100 or more present. The ladies thanked the men for preparing and serving the meal.

Mrs. John S. Harner led in group singing of several songs written by Stephen Foster. A reading, "Nobody Knows But Mother", by Miss Sandra Wise; a duet, "Tell It To Mother", by Mrs. Herbert Bowers and Mrs. George Naylor accompanied on the piano by Mr. John S. Harner; two selections on the piano, "Sonatina", and "After The Shower", by Miss Patricia Worley; a reading, "What Is A Mother", by Mrs. Wilbur Reifsnider; a duet, "Mothers Prayers Have Followed Me", by Miss Mary Katherine Shildt and Mrs. John S. Harner accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Horace Worley.

The speaker was Mrs. Howard Miller from Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown. Mrs. Miller spoke of True Motherhood, which was enjoyed by all present.

Geraniums were given to the Oldest Mother present, Mrs. John Waybright; the mother with the most daughters present, Mrs. Ernest Fream; mothers coming the farthest distance, Mrs. Harry Cline, Greenstone and Mrs. Virginia Simons, Arendtsville; the youngest mother present with daughter was Mrs. Irvin Ridinger and daughter Robin.

A duet, "Mother, A Word That Means The World To Me" by Mrs. Shirley Staley and Mrs. Ethel Patterson.

Mrs. Ernest Fream the president of the Ladies Aid Society made a few remarks.

The program was closed by all singing, "Good Night Ladies", and all repeating the Lord's Prayer.

If you can manage to stay scared all the time, these international crises won't bother you a bit.

The younger generation is more in needs of models than critics.

POLICE WEEK MAY 13 - 19

The President of the United States and the Governor of the State of Maryland have issued proclamations designating the week of May 13-19, 1962 as Police Week. They have also designated May 14th, 1962 as Police Officers Memorial Day.

The Congress of the United States and the Legislature of the State of Maryland have passed resolutions commending the Police for their constant vigilance and efforts towards proper law enforcement and for the service they have rendered the people of this Nation.

This Department will participate in ceremonies as follows: Local radio and press will be asked to make spot announcements to the effect that the week of May 13-19, 1962 has been designated as Police Week as a tribute to Police everywhere for their efforts towards proper law enforcement. May 14th has been designated as Police Officers Memorial Day and it is requested that all flags be flown at half-staff on this date in memorial to those Law Enforcement Officers who have lost their lives in line of duty. The Department will hold "Open House" during this week and encourage the public to stop at our installations and become acquainted with our personnel and equipment and our method of operation. The flags at our installations will be flown at half-staff on May 14th.

Mother and Daughter Banquet On Thursday, May 10 at 6:30 p. m., the women of Grace United Church of Christ, Taneytown and Keyville, enjoyed a delicious Mother - Daughter Banquet served by the Ladies Aid Society of Harney Lutheran Church in the parish house of that church. 132 members and guests were present to enjoy the evening.

Mrs. David Reifsnider, toastmistress, very ably carried out her duty in keeping the group entertained with funny stories between numbers on the program. The program included the following: Invocation, Mrs. William Wiley; group singing directed by Mrs. George Motter; Welcome, Linda Morelock; recitation, Elaine Martin; quartet, Phyllis and Joan Clingan, Mary Alice Myers and Vesta Reifsnider; song by a group of girls directed by Mrs. George Morelock; Dialogue, Mrs. Harry Mohney and Mrs. Otis Shoemaker; solo, Mrs. Donna Lee Swope; trio, Mrs. George Motter, Mrs. William Wiley and Mrs. Murray Baumgardner. Mrs. Glenn Martin distributed prizes to the following, oldest mother, Mrs. Jacob Stambaugh; mother with most daughters present, Mrs. Dubel; youngest mother, Mrs. Dwight Copenhaver. Mrs. William Dubel, president of Keyville Guild and Mrs. Otis Shoemaker, president of Taneytown Guild gave remarks. Mrs. David Reifsnider concluded the program with a poem very appropriate for the occasion.

The committee, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mrs. Glenn Martin and Mrs. Virginia Sanders deserve much credit for planning the fine Banquet, program and their distribution of gifts for everyone. Our thanks to each of them.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

stick candy in a lemon and thousands were sold. The grand tasting CRAB cakes were being cooked by the hundreds and that aroma was delightful. There were 60 booths and somehow there seemed to be more to sell this year. One added feature which was most convenient was the shuttle bus transportation for free from Baltimore and Howard streets, north on Charles street, east on Centre to Calvert and from Calvert to Howard Street.

Many of the ladies were attired in Colonial costume and of course I was dressed as always in the Spanish Costume of my Ancestors reading Horoscopes and I read 55 individuals! I sat there from 10 a. m. to 5:45 p. m. and met the Cream of Baltimore who were most friendly. There were quite a few people from Carroll County and I was so happy when they came up and introduced themselves to me and I want to thank them for all their kind words, that is what keeps this Column going! It was such a pleasure to meet those individuals, I can assure you and you and you!

Many were worried as to the weather but finally old Mr. Sun shone brilliantly although there was a terrific high wind. But of course that was preferable to rain. Of course, many of the Ladies had on huge Garden hats carrying the colorful slat baskets with flowers and potted plants. The policemen did a grand job, too, directing traffic — rerouting them to other directions. It was a day which they called "GOLDEN OPPORTUNITIES — THEN AND NOW!" Congratulations to those 600 ladies who took part in making it successful! Mrs. Gideon N. Stieff, was the chairman of both the 1952 and 1962 and she surely was in the 'know how'!

Now as to advertising, folks, that Allstate Insurance Company does everything it states on T.V. and is much more reasonable than any other insurance company. I was amazed when I saw the difference in Policies and how much more you get with "ALL-STATE" — that man who cups his hands and holds your house in them! So you see what I mean about continued advertising, nothing can compare.

Many have written asking me what I thought about the Elizabeth Taylor affair. Truly, I am shocked as thousands and I will be surprised if this ROMEO marries that CLEOPATRA!

LETTERS:

Dear Observer:

I am a Mother of five children and Mother's Day is such a sad day for me! Only the youngest son remembers and sends me a card as the wives of the others somehow are very distant to me and I do not know the reason. I rarely see them or my Grandchildren and it just breaks my heart. My husband tells me just to ignore it but I know he feels it too but never says anything about it but his expression is enough to make me realize what he is thinking. My sons all do what their wives tell them to do and seem to be a little fearful of them. I do not know what is wrong but those boys are so very different since their marriage. I know that the wives take the families to see their own parents and yet they never visit us. Is there something that you could suggest? I will appreciate it as my husband and I are both up in years. Thanking you!

Signed: Mother

Answer

Dear Mother: If I were you, I would call on them uninvited and ask them point blank if you have said or done anything to hurt them. Tell them how much you care about all of them. Hope it works and hope you will let me know.

Your Obs.

To A Miss H:

I could not write your letter in this Column and my advice to you is to go to your Clergyman and state facts as you did in your letter to me. I do not quite understand a girl with your intelligence to behave this way.

Your Observer.

Dear Observer: I wish that I could have a personal chat with you. I am 17 years of age and want to talk to you so much. How can I see you?

B. E. Y.

Dear B. E. Y.:

If possible come down on the Shaffer's Bus which stops right at my corner. Just phone to me a little ahead and I hope that I can help you. I'll be at the bus awaiting you.

Your Observer.

Have a grand week-end folks. Be kind to one another. Just think in 100 years, we won't be here! Until next week-end D.V.

I am, Faithfully,

YOUR OBSERVER

Kiwanis News

The Taney Inn was full of Roaring Lions and Klucking Kiwanians at the Interclub Meeting at which we lost the count at 70 due to the density (bodily, not mental) of the crowd.

The Lions were well tamed and trained as they mingled with Kiwanians in happy, hearty fellowship and proved they were real Lions with a Lion's appetite as the various items of a delicious dinner disappeared with Kiwanians kept busy passing the meat to the Lions.

After many smiles, handclaps and jovial chatter followed by a round of singing the old familiar songs the Lions were welcomed by President Leonard Reifsnider of the Kiwanis Club who also introduced the guests, two young men from the local Key Club and a Kiwanian from Westminster whose name we failed to catch and extend our apology for this omission.

The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Raymond J. Perry, Largest Lion Perpet, Mayor of Taneytown and chairman of the evening program who introduced the various members of the Taneytown City Council who were all present and roundly applauded.

Lion Perry then introduced the speaker of the evening Mr. Joe Bendel of the Urban Renewal Agency and his wife Rosemary, lately of York, Pa., now resident of Williamsport, Pa.

Joe gave a very thought provoking explanation of the Urban Renewal Agency stressing community responsibility of the residents and citizens of any community as related to the perplexing problems that sooner or later confront every community, and the necessity of planning for the future and guiding the growth of said community in such a way that future problems will be minimized.

If citizens would take inventory of their community and with eyes of constructive criticism provide for problems of the future in the way of homes, highways, schools, hospital and medical care and then plan to meet the needs that arise from increased population by working for and providing adequate employment, commodity needs, such as markets, stores, etc. religious needs, police and protective programs, recreational facilities, then the inventory would display three prominent and worthwhile facts viz knowledge of where you have been, of where you are, and where you are going.

Take care of today, but build for tomorrow should be the criteria by which every community could establish its own rules with the "Red Light" for those activities or projects that do not measure up to the ideals of good citizenship or community welfare and the "Green Light" for all that indicate a balance in financial abilities, local government and contented and inspired citizenship.

The closing remarks urged more active participation by the citizens of a community and a willingness to serve even though the service may sometimes be difficult and even hazardous to the citizen, yet no community can meet its problems unless a willing and conscientious citizenry stands ready to shoulder any and all burdens that may be required.

We are sure Joe's advice was well received as evidenced by the questions arising during a question and answer period. Taneytown with its problems of today and the future has been fortunate in having such a goodly number of its citizens hear and assimilate this sound advice so aptly presented.

The Kiwanis Club would hereby extend their thanks and appreciation to the Lions Club for their fellowship of the evening and the splendid program which all enjoyed.

Farmer Dies in Accident

An elderly Westminster area farmer was crushed to death Tuesday in a tractor accident on his farm. Gruver Jeremiah Morelock, 72, Westminster Rt. 7, died of crushing injuries of the chest following a tractor accident near his farm barn, 300 feet north of Maryland Rt. 97, one mile west of Frizellburg, at about 11:50 a. m.

Trooper 1-C R. W. Andrews, Westminster Barracks, Maryland State Police, stated Morelock was attempting to back his tractor to hook it up to a cultipacker when he lost control of the tractor and was pinned between the barn overhang and the steering wheel. The victim's cries for help were heard by his wife, Bertie Koontz Morelock, who ran to the barn but was unable to free the six foot, 265 pound man.

It is reported that she managed to turn off the motor and summoned help from Harold Sauble, a neighbor farmer. The two were still unable to free Morelock and Mrs. Morelock ran out to Route 97 and flagged down Trooper R. W. Ellis who happened to pass by.

Trooper Ellis radioed the barracks asking for the Westminster ambulance, but Morelock died just prior to the ambulance's arrival. He was pronounced dead by Carroll County Medical Examiner, Dr. James T. Marsh.

Mr. Morelock was a son of the late Milton and Susan Reinecker Morelock. He is survived by his wife, Bertie Koontz Morelock, and four children, T. Allen Morelock, Westminster Rt. 7; J. Ralph Morelock, Baltimore; Mrs. Raymond J. Dukehart, Westminster; Miss Betty K. Morelock, at home; four grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and one brother, William S. Morelock, Hanover.

He was a member of Baust United Church of Christ, near Tyrone; also a member of the Sunday School and served on the church consistory for several terms.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2:00 P. M. at the late home. The Rev. Dr. Edward R. Hamme, retired minister, Union Mills, will officiate. Burial will be in Baust Church Cemetery. Friends may call at the late home tomorrow evening. Arrangements are in charge of the J. W. Little and Son funeral home.

Puerto Rico Is Tourist Paradise

Reference to a nation's industry usually brings to mind manufactured goods, minerals, ores and the development of natural resources. But industry can take many forms. For example, the post-war years have witnessed the growth of a practically new industry, worldwide in scope: tourism. For every travel agency existing before World War II, there are twenty today.

The ceaseless development of high-speed commercial aviation, low tariffs, elimination of visas and other red-tape have opened up the whole wide world to the average travel-minded citizen. Formerly, the time and money necessary for a European vacation put such a jaunt into a once-in-a-lifetime possibility. Today, a fair version of the Grand Tour can be accomplished in three weeks and at minimal cost.

Tourism has had a marked effect upon the economies of such nations as Italy, Spain, France, Germany and Britain. Smaller countries such as Ireland, The Netherlands and Belgium have enjoyed their share. Although the mass exodus to Europe, Hawaii, and Mexico has, for several years, drained business away from many domestic vacationlands, it has served to broaden the horizons of the individual citizen and rid him of the shell of provincialism in which he has lived for so many years. Now that he has seen Gay Paree, Eternal Rome and the best of Blighty, he is beginning to realize the many things he has missed nearer to home — the West Indies and the Great Northwest for example. No spot is more than a few swift hours away from home base and out-of-pocket expenditures are nominal in this tropical island vacationer's paradise.

With the blackout of Havana as a vacation spot, other of the West Indies are zooming into the favor of the American and Canadian tourist. Thanks to the political aberrations of Fidel Castro and "Operation Boot-strap", the tiny gem of the Greater Antilles is looming larger and larger in travel plans. Although it has been in Uncle Sam's pocket since the 1898 Treaty of Paris that concluded the Spanish-American fracas, it remained as obscure as Tahiti until recent years. Now tourism follows immediately after manufacturing and agriculture as the island's major industry.

The influx of visitors to the island's principal city, San Juan, has over-taxed existing hotel and restaurant facilities with the result that several new luxury resort hotels are under construction, the largest (450 rooms) being the Americana of San Juan, a companion to the world's tallest hotel now a-building, the Americana of New York, and the world-famed Americana of Bal Harbour, Florida. The same architect, Morris Lapidus, who designed the other Americanas, as well as the fabulous Eden Roc and Fontainebleau hostleries of Miami Beach, has given his imagination full latitude in physical planning.

A 1,200-seat supper club will be equipped to present a full Broadway musical comedy. Public rooms and guest quarters will be modern yet reflect the classical elegance of the Spanish era. An Olympic-sized swimming pool flanked by cabanas, as well as a sugar-white beach, will be a joy to the amphibious set. The Americana of San Juan will begin to receive guests on November 29th of this year.

FINAL NOTICE

The last day, without penalty, on which to obtain your State Licenses to conduct business in Carroll County, will be May 31st, from 8:00 A. M. to 4:00 P. M.

All Licenses renewable by Law on or before May 1st of each year, will be subject to 10% penalty if not renewed before June 1st.

PLEASE do not wait until last day; get your license promptly.

Day of the Lord

Lesson for May 20, 1962

THESE lines are typed in faith. There is perhaps no more than an even probability that they will ever be printed. What with all the preparations for total destruction which are being made in Russia and America, and all the ways in which a war (again one of total destruction) can be started by sheer accident, one chilling sentence from 1 Peter seems to fit the situation: The end of all things is at hand.

Yet it is possible that these lines will be printed; and if the world lasts that long, we may be thankful. But if the world continues, fear will continue too, and crisis will follow crisis as far as eye can see. People will be asking, as they are asking now: Is this the end of the world?

No time—tables

We should remember that while an atomic catastrophe (you could not call it war) might well mean the end of the United States, the end of Russia and of Europe, the end of all we know as civilization, and the plunging of the rest of the race back into darkest barbarism,—that is still not the clean sweep to which the Bible looks forward. Second Peter and Jude, for instance, both picture a total destruction not only of the human race in its present form, but of the earth itself. By comparison with that, the disappearance of a civilization is a slight affair.

Now the writers of the New Testament, if you could have said to them, "It looks as if civilization is on its last legs," would have said, "Of course that's true." But they would not have fretted or feared for a moment. When the End came, most people would be terrified; but they did not expect Christians to be afraid. On the other hand, the early Christian apostles and teachers rejoined in looking forward to the Last Day, a day so all-important that they sometimes called it simply "The Day." However, no New Testament writer tried to set up a time-table. They did expect it in their lifetime, at first, but later books (2 Timothy for example) show that they realized the Day would probably not come while they lived. They left the WHEN to God.

What sort of person?

We catch glimpses, in various parts of the New Testament, of various ways people reacted to the likelihood of an approaching End of All Things. Some screamed for hills to cover them (how modern that sounds!), some gave up all ordinary business and spent their time just talking about the future, some (not the writers of the New Testament but other people) painfully tried to piece together mysterious prophecies from the Old Testament so as to predict the very time. Second Peter warns against too much calculation. The Lord's clocks and calendars are not geared to ours; a thousand years to us may be a day to him, and also vice versa. It may be later than we think, or earlier, we don't know. However, 2 Peter has no hesitation about predicting the End. You might almost think he could see the nuclear cataclysm: "The heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fire, and the earth, and the works upon it, will be burned up." But now see how he goes on from there. Since these things are so, "what sort of persons ought you to be?" The end of all that we know about will not be the end of us. Death is a deceiver even when millions die at one moment.

The Christian way

The writer Jude, who also has some pretty grim things to say about the End, concludes his short letter with a beautiful benediction. In one sentence he sums up the Christian attitude toward destiny. First, it is in God's hands, and we should not forget this. Second, God will keep his people—not necessarily from danger or suffering, but from "falling" into sin or despair. And most of all, Jude wants his readers to keep their minds on God and remember who he is; the only God, who saves us through Christ our Lord; the eternal God, whose kingdom and whose authority will not end when this little planet has vanished. Thinking of ourselves, we may well tremble; thinking of Him, our hearts are strong with hope.

HAPPY APPLE SUNDAES

Sundaes are blissfully easy desserts, for you start with scoops of ice cream and simply add the toppings. One jolly notion is to fill a large bowl with ice cream balls, set out a variety of toppings and let each one concoct his own Sundae. This is gleeful going. Here are some suggestions:

HAPPY APPLE GINGERED TOPPING
(piquant and spicy)

¼ cup chopped candied ginger 2 cups canned apple sauce
1 quart vanilla ice cream

Combine candied ginger and apple sauce; chill in refrigerator several hours or overnight. Place a serving of vanilla ice cream in individual dishes; top with the sauce. Makes 6 servings.

HAPPY APPLE ORANGE SUGAR SAUCE
(pungent and refreshing)

2 cups canned apple sauce 2 tablespoons orange juice
½ cup light brown sugar 1 quart vanilla ice cream
2 tablespoons grated orange rind

Combine apple sauce and sugar; heat until sugar melts. Cool; add orange rind and juice. Chill several hours. Place vanilla ice cream in individual serving dishes; top with the sauce. Makes 6 servings.

HAPPY APPLE PEPPERMINT CRUNCH TOPPING
(rosy as a posy)

½ cup crushed peppermint stick 2 cups canned apple sauce
candy or after dinner mints 1 quart vanilla ice cream

Combine candy and apple sauce; chill in refrigerator several hours, or overnight. Place vanilla ice cream in individual serving dishes; top with the sauce. Makes 6 servings.

Psst!

Do you have old-fashioned fencing?

Have you spent a lot of time,
money and hard work putting up permanent and expensive multiple-strand fencing on closely spaced posts? If you have, you are a victim of "old-fashioned fencing."
Smart farmers everywhere are installing modern
