THANKS

The members of the Taneytown Volunteer Fire Co. wish to thank everyone who helped make our 1962 Carnival a success, especially to those who donated their convertibles for the parade, to the Ladies Auxiliary for their help in serving the food and to all outsiders who helped in the car tent, bingo and eating tents.

The car was awarded to Winter W. Wright, of Hampstead.

The announcement of our net pro-fit will be made in the near future. ROBERT BOONE, EUGENE EYLER, DAVID SMEAK,

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Remember that song — "Daisies Won't Tell?" They bring back the song due to so many this year appearing on the home lawns, a bunch here and there. All songs have a story and I wonder what that one really was. Eh?

On nice warm evenings folks be

On nice warm evenings, folks be sure and take off your shoes and stockings and walk on the grass and that even if you only have a little back lawn or front. There is something so wonderful about it that is so different from anything else. It brings a smile to your lips and you say, "Thank You, God!" Let your say, "Thank You, God!" Let your feet breathe and you will truly have feet breathe and you will truly have happy feet!

Hope you did not miss the grand show from Carnegie Hall on TV, with Carol Burnett and Julie Andrews.

Never before did Carol Burnett appear so beautiful in face and figuire!

Now, here's to the Jaycees in any town! At the last bus stop North of Randallstown from Baltimore, I noticed a grand "waiting bench" which will be there many years, made of heavy California Red Wood and attached on cement. On each side of the bench was planted identically; flow-heavy California Red Wood and attached on cement. On each side of the bench was planted identically; flowers and bushes. On the top slat of the bench in gold lettering was this "The Courtesy of Jay-cees", Nice?

A letter arrived from a lady—Mrs. E. S. stating that she read in my Column as to that grand shampoo by Cuti-cura and how much she likes it. Just keep it up and in a year, you will have a very healthy suit of hair.

Another letter arrived as to flying "Old Glory", not alone on holidays but every day of the year. (Remember the one I always had in a prominent corner daily, near Taneytown?) Now you may obtain a copy written by Dr. S. L. DeLove which is entitled, "Can We Have The Flag Too Much"? That all for free simply by writing to the following, I. H. A. 2720 Devon Avenue, Chicago 45, Ill. This is truly a classic in it's field and it has been used annually on the 4th of July by radio stations throughten

4th of July by radio stations throughout the country. Over 400 stations used it last year and was announced by Carl Grayson. It is a free copy as I stated. Last year there were over 3,000 requests for it..... They will supply as many acquired to the state of the st ply as many copies as you need and you will enjoy and appreciate your flag more than ever before!

Now, as to the inquiry about the wig makers purchasing your hair. There is only one place in Baltimore and that is the following address, Leon Goodman 809 Cathedral Street and the phone number is Mo 4-9760. It brings good prices for real hair. The other concern, Richard Hartwich, on Garrison Blvd., purchases hair from the European women and the Wigs are made in Germany or a foreign country. Their prices run from $98.00 to $250.00. Your head is measured and the Wigs made abroad and all of real hair. Duty is paid by the business concern twice — over seas and when it lands in America! Ugh!

While sitting being fitted for a white pair of shoes in that store of "Van Dyke and Bacon," on North Charles Street at Lexington, a dear little aged lady came in and said to the salesman, "Please tell me how your shoes run in price?" He told her and she walked out. But, folks it is best to do without something else to buy those wonderful shoes. If your feet hurt, your entire express-ion of your face is a different you. You and you will never regret, even if they cost more than the average pair of shoes. They last much longer, too.

Don't forget, folks to change the water every hour for that Pet around your house or better still, give him a fresh drink of water whenever he asks for it. Just think how much you would enjoy a stale drink of water! Until next week end D. V. Have a grand week-end. Don't wait until you feel badly to go to church but keep going regularly regardless of the Denomination.

I am, Faithfully, Your Observer. P. E.'s Safety Record

A safety record, never before equalled in the history of the Potom-ac Edison System, was recognized last night when nearly 200 employees of Potomac Edison's Frederick District were honored at a banquet, celebrating the completion of "One Million Man-Hours of Work Without a Lost-Time Accident."

Featured speaker at the banquet was PE President R. C. Mac Donald, who presented utility company employees with a special citation from the Edison Electric Institute and told those present, "This is an accom-plishment of which you should be quite proud, especially so since this is the first time any district in the Potomac Edison System has reached this goal.
This fine accomplishment shows what can be done when employees are continually alert and safety conscious, both at work and at home. It is my hope, as I know it is your de-sire and intent, to see a continuation of this fine record."

The Frederick District employees

the Frederick District employees set this commendable safety record by working from August 23, 1959 through May 11, 1962 for a total of 1,000,378 manhours without a lost-time mishap. It is the first time in PE's history that a single district has reached this goal.

Others on the program, which was held at Mealeys Hotel, were District Manager, John W. Morgan, who acted as Toastmaster and William Sweeney who gave the invocation. 1962 Carnival Committee

GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS

ANGOLA, N. Y., EVANS JOURN-AL: "A whole cult has arisen in America which thinks it necessary to expend federal funds for all manner of purposes, from building our schools to cleaning up the trash in our back yards. They claim it is unnecessary even to attempt to balance the budget. No thought is given to the erosion of public confidence in the future of the dollar. No greater error can be made. The financial trickery which other nations employed to 'revaluate their currency led to tremendous privation among their citizens misery, depression, unemployment and even actual starvation."

PRENTISS, MISS., HEADLIGHT: "We see where a Muskogee County, Oklahoma, judge has decided to retire because of welfare abuses. Judge J. F. Beavers, 'sick and tired of welfare abuses I have seen reflected in my court' was especially critical of aidto-dependent-children cases in which he said mothers of illegitimate children are 'rewarded for their promiscuity.' Said Judge Beavers, "these mothers were not interested in anything but getting on the relief roll ..... once someone gets on the relief roll, he or she never gets off. My philosophy of life doesn't go along with this "give-away" trend of the times, so I felt it was time for me to leave public life.'

"Wouldn't it be a big help in this day of socialism and give-away if more people shared Judge Beaver's views?

VIRGINIA, MINN., MESABI DAILY NEWS: "Everybody - including the wild liberals - know that giving away the nation's patrimony, paying out more than is warranted by productivity and all of the devices which provide government handouts must sooner or later be halted, or catastrophe will engulf America. It is only because the many have been thrifty and saving that it can go on at all."

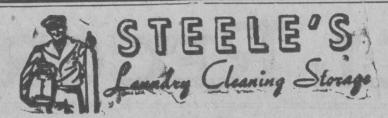

CELINA, TEXAS, RECORD: "There ought to be more women working for the government in Washington. Just think of all the fun they would have moving those bureaus around."

Back Yard Barbecue

Now that summer is here, the favorite place to eat is out of doors, so why not cook outside, too? Chicken is a 'natural' for a barbecue, especially when marinated in this lemon sauce. Make up the sauce in advance, marinate the chicken, then relax while someone else sees to the cooking of the corn on the cob and the chicken—it can't be basted too much!

Barbecued Chicken

Rinse and thoroughly dry three broiler-fryer chickens. Prepare Lemon Barbecue Sauce, and pour over the chickens. Cover and place in refrigerator for at least 1 hour, preferably longer, basting occasionally with sauce, and turning chicken. Place the chickens on the spit, and cook until tender, basting frequently with the lemon sauce. This should take from 1½ to 2 hours. Serve with hot rolls and roasted corn on the cob.

½ cup Mazola corn oil ½ cup lemon juice ♥ ¼ cup water

Lemon Barbecue Sauce 1/4 teaspoon pepper 2 tablespoons brown sugar ½ teaspoon paprika 1 tablespoon chopped onion 11/2 teaspoons salt Combine all ingredients in a heavy saucepan. Heat to boiling point, then simmer for about ½ hour to blend flavors. Mix thoroughly before each basting.

SIDEWALKS OF TANEYTOWN AND IMPOSING PENALTIES FOR THE FAILURE THERE-

BE IT ENACTED AND ORDAINED BY the Mayor and City Council of Taneytown:

SECTION I. That within ten (10) hours after a snowfall the owners and occupants of all improved properties and the owners of all unimproved properties, shall remove, or cause to be removed, such snow from the sidewalks abutting upon said properties to permit free and unencumbered passage of pedestrians upon said sidewalks and to prevent an accumulation of ice or the creation of hazardous walking conditions.

SECTION II: In the event the responsible person or persons shall fail to remove such snow upon said sidewalks, or shall permit an accumulation of ice there-on or shall permit such sidewalks to remain in a hazardous condition for more than ten (10) hours after any snowfall then the Mayor and City Council of Taneytown may, at the cost and expense of the responsible person or persons, cause the removal of such snow, or ice or may make safe any hazardous condition resulting from an accumulation of snow or ice, which charge or expense shall be a lien upon the property affected and shall be collectible in the same manner as taxes levied upon such property.

SECTION III: In addition to the provision of Section II herein, it is further provided that any persons, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this Ordinance, from and after the effective date hereof, shall, upon conviction thereof before any proper Trial Magistrate or other proper Judge or Magistrate, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than Five Dollars ($5.00), nor more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00), and costs, for each violation.

SECTON IV: All Ordinances inconsistent with the provisions hereof are herewith repealed to the extent of such inconsistancy.

SECTION V: AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED AND ORDAINED By the Mayor and City Council of Taneytown that this Ordinance shall be inserted in The Carroll Record, a newspaper published in Taneytown, for two successive weeks prior to April 27th, 1962, the effective date hereof.

STOP NOW-VACATION LATER

Vacation time means one thing-getting the bags packed, stored in the car and driving off to your favorite summertime hideaway.

But hold on! There are a number of things you should remember before taking to the road, if you want every moment of your vacation to count. And the first is to have your car inspected by your neighborhood service station dealer before leaving.

Don't be afraid to ask your service station man about any unusual noise. The time to catch little troubles is before they become big ones, so have your service station man go over the car from stem to stern.

And, warns the Purolator Automotive Research Bureau, don't drive a station wagon with the tail gate open any more than necessary. Carbon monoxide fumes from the exhaust can flow right into the wagon. Also, if riding with the windows closed makes you the least bit dizzy, or gives you a headache, let your service station man check your muf-fler and exhaust system—carbon monoxide may be leaking into your Air pressure in tires should be a "must" check-point. Remember, the best way to shorten the life of your tires is to drive when they are too soft or too hard. Your dealer should check the alignment of your wheels, too, to save on tire wear.

To get the most miles for your dollar, have a new air filter installed. It's a good way to get up to three more miles to the gallon. Your dealer will check the sticker on your door to tell when you last changed your oil and oil filter, and he'll remind you that a change of both costs a

A VOICE FROM CARROLL

The Carroll County Tuberculosis Association report that the mass chest X-Ray survey has been comoleted in Carroll County and that 2416 persons over 18 years of age took advantage of the chest X-Ray unit. The association takes note that there were 1747 of this number who had an X-Ray before in a five-year period. Some 242 had never been X-Rayed before, while 427 had been X-Rayed longer than five years. This survey was supported by the local T. B. Association with the co-operation of the State and County Health Departments. This is one of the services provided by Christmas Seals. Mrs. Ethel Cook, executive secretary of the Carroll County Tuberculosis has just received a supply of literature on influenza, pleurisy, hay fever, emphysema and tuberculosis which are all diseases of the lungs. This literature is available to the public free at the office of the association on Main Street in Westminster. Especially the young people should read the facts about the connection between smoking and respiratory ail-ments. If they were acquainted with this information, many would never stant the smoking habit.

Members of the Historical Society of Carroll County will meet this week at the Historical House to pay tribute to Miss Lillian Shipley, who is re-tiring as curator of the Historical Home after serving in this capacity for nine years. Miss Shipley has served history loving Carroll countians well, by being a model curator. Visitors to the Historical Home on Main Street in Westminster not only ame away a little more respectful of Carroll County's History but also aware that in meeting Miss Shipley they had encountered the kindness and charm of a real southern lady.

Not every person can walk out of their back door and come face to face with a snake coming up the walk. This was the situation confronting us Sunday evening. It was just an ordinary garter snake but it may as well have been a copperhead for the fright it gave us. Even Mike, our man-eating dog backed off and decided he had urgent business in the opposite direction. The snake was as frightened as we were and just as surprised to have his Sunday eve-ning stroll interrupted. Where he was strolling to or crawling to we never learned, for his adventures were ended permanently by a man with

This is the 26th year that June has been set aside as the Dairy Month in which the dairy industry is recognized for its important contribution to the Nation's health and welfare. Here in Carroll County the production of milk on the farms is the most mportant work that farmers do. It s the basis on which 90% of the farmers depend to keep their farms in operation as far as money is concerned. Like everyone else, the dairy farmers operate on a close margin of profit and sometimes no profit at all. America's consumption of milk is not what it should be. In relation to other foods, milk is all important as it gives all the necessary vitamins and calories necessary for good health. But Americans do not take full advantage of this. If parents would hand their children a glass of cold milk instead of a bottle of colored water, they would be giving their children better health, and save on doctor bills as well. Milk is the first food a child gets and all children owe their lives to the white fluid. Why change to colored water? City dwellers riding through Carroll County often admire the well-kept dairy farms and remark that they would just love to be a farmer. We wonder how long they would last at getting up each morning at 5 and working until 9 for 365 days a year with no Sundays off and no vacation; milkng the cows twice a day and in between cleaning the dairy barn, making hay, plowing and cultivating fields, building fences and other jobs too numerous to mention. Too few people buying a quart of milk in the stores know or even care how much work and worry it takes to produce milk. All the consumer knows is what it costs him per quart. This is the reason for June Dairy Month, to bring a better understanding between the consumer and the dairy farmer. This is important for they need each other. The dairy farmer could not stay in business with out the consumer and the consumer must under-stand that milk is his best food buy

To destroy the Western tradition of independent thought it is not

Why do women wear high heels?

To make them tall? No, not at all. It's a hangover from the days when the Chinese women bound their feet to indicate to the other Chinese that they did not have to work for a living but had plenty of servants to fetch and carry for them. Laugh if you want to, but remember the crinlolines which were designed mainly to hinder honest work. And we still have the corset, though the corset is not the suicidal contraption that it once was. And now we have the high neeled shoe, higher than ever. All women whose business it is to demonstrate idleness to the world wear high heels, because high heels is a lear indication that the wearer is ot obliged to exert herself. You are thinking that all or almost all working girls at the moment are wearing nigh heels and therefore this reason ing of mine is untrue. Subconsciously all women secretly yearn for a life of ease and the high heels are just a way of expressing this yearning. Send all your letters of protest to Dr. Kildare or Ben Casey.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Mr. Charles B. Winter, of Hanover; who passed away last Wednesday. The family has our deepest sympathy.

Have you ever thought how much real heartbreak there is in just one copy of the daily newspaper? Then, multiply this by all the newspapers printed in the country and in other countries! Of course, we realize that newspapers are sold on the basis of the sensational and breath-taking experiences of life. Nevertheless, even a casual perusal of the day's news leaves us with an awareness that Christ and his church are very much needed in today's world of mechanical and material wonders!

"In this world the most dissatisfied people are those who seek happiness for themselves. The happiest people are those who work to make others happy.

CARD OF THANKS

To the Fire Co. for the ambulance and to those who assisted, also for the many, many cards and flowers, and especially the eight ministers who visited me with scripture and prayers; for the many other prayers offered in my behalf. To all those who assisted my wife in going to and from the Hospital and all others who were so kind, in any way. Again, many thanks.

The 14th Annual Conference of the Maryland Municipal League was held in the Commander Hotel at Ocean City on June 10th thru June 12,1962. Being a public servant, serving the people of Taneytown to the best of my ability, I feel I should report to the people some of the things that tack place at this conference I was took place at this conference. I was very happy to attend as a delegate along with our good mayor, Mayor

Perry.
The Maryland Municipal League has a membership of 136 cities and towns in the State of Maryland. The President of the League is Edward L. Williar, Mayor of Union Bridge. The Council Chairman is J. Harold Grady, Mayor of Baltimore. One of the Vice-Presidents is Phillip Goodman Press. Presidents is Phillip Goodman, President of the City Council of Balti-

The Conference opened on Sunday afternoon, June 10, at 2:30 P. M., with Haynes Pridgen, Clerk-Treasurer of Takoma Park, talking on "Mu-nicipal Finance Problems." He stressed the importance of small towns having adequate records, adequate budgets, living according to the bud-get, monthly financial statements, valuation of capital assets and yearly audits.

During the same session Albert W. Gault, Director of Finance for Rock-ville, spoke on Municipal Bonds, the selling and issuing of bonds and the preparing of necessary information for brokers.

At 3:30 P. M. William Linthicum. counsel for the League, spoke on "Municipal Legal Problems." He cited some examples of the legal problems that towns of the state have been involved in, annexation problems, taxation on partial year levels and the Home Rule Authority Act. At this same session Alan Beals, Secretary of the League, spoke on Urban Renewal, defining some of the requirements for urban renewal such as bligh, slums, relocating of people, the various planning commissions and At 5:30 P. M. a reception was held for all delegates and guests in the Beach Lounge at which time everyone was able to meet representatives from all over the state. At this time the delegation from Frostburg, Md., appeared in wide hooped skirts and high silk hats in celebration of the P. M. Sesquicentennial Celebration of their I w

Monday morning, June 11th the conference opened with a Welcome Address by Mayor Hugh T. Cropper of Ocean City. He told of some of the storm damage suffered by Ocean City and the ways in which they were able to recover as quickly as they did from the storm damage.

At 10 A. M. the Opening Session began with a panel consisting of 3 speakers, the first of which John Shriver, Director of State Fiscal Research Bureau, spoke on the necessity of all courties municipalities and ity of all counties, municipalities and the state getting on the same fiscal year basis due to the various tax problems involved among the three groups. The fiscal year that all is trying to change is the July - June Fiscal Year.

Henry F. Hubbard, Personnel Officer, District of Columbia spoke on the Merit System for employees where equal opportunity based on qualification should be the ultimate goal. The ultimate is to get the best people based on merits giving the best service available to the citizen.

John Coffman, Public Relations Consultant, Takoma Park, spoke on Municipal Public Relations. He stressed the telling of the people how town government works, give the citizen current information on city work and pointed out how the citizen can participate in town government by advising the Mayor and City Council on improvements that should be made in the town, by coming out to vote and by discussing town reports with their neighbors.

In the afternoon at the 1:30 sesion John Funk, Chairman of the State Roads Commission spoke on the Road Program of the State. He stated that the original 12 year program of road building has fallen by the wayside in that 7½ years of money has been spent in 3 years of work. Only major projects will be completed such as the Beltway around a few other important program of the state. Baltimore and a few other important projects. George Hubley, Director of the Department of Economic Development for Maryland spoke on Economic De-velopment. Their major work is in the location of new industry into the state and the development of the Md. Tourist Trade. Maryland is 7th nationally in personal rising income and also 7th in industrial growth.

Robert Brown, Chief of the Bureau of Environmental Hygiene, Department of Health, spoke on Pollution Control. Water is their major field Control. Water is their major field in that Recreation is the biggest sinin that Recreation is the biggest single factor to contend with over the next 40 years since the entire program of Recreation is geared around the water supply of the state, hence, the great concern of water pollution.

The 2:30 Session was centered around "Small Town Problems." Olon-Zo Fike, Housing Consultant Department of Public Health, spoke on Housing Codes. First of all a town must know the nature and extent of declared that an emergency exists.

Edmund C. Mester, Executive Assistant to the Governor spoke on Municipal Home Rule. He recommended that all town officials acquaint them-selves with Article 11 E of the State constitution which lists the responsibilities that town officials are charged with. Even though town gov-ernment is strictly in the hands of any Mayor and City Council, the general assembly can set maximum town tax rates and total bonded indebtedness. However, the citizens of the town must vote on this also.

Carlton R. Sickles, Member of the House of Delegates spoke on StateLocal Sharing of Revenue. State

LITTLE LEAGUE ELBOW

A Florida radiologist puts some of the blame on parents for an elbow injury common among hard-throwing ballplayers in the 9-to-14 age group and known as Little League elbow. Dr. Byron G. Brogdon says that not enough "warming up" may be a factor in causing this injury —a separation or even a multiple fracture of the elbow bone knob, which until adolescence is not completely joined with the main bone. Overly ambitious parents sometimes share the blame for junior throw-

Overly ambitious parents sometimes share the blame for junior throwing too hard, he adds.

Radiologists—physicians specializing in the use of x-rays for diagnosis and treatment—have found a surprising number of these cases, usually among young pitchers. When a boy throws the ball hard, his inexperience or poor coordination can result in sudden tension on a tendon connected to the elbow, causing the bone to give way. When swelling and pain develop, the youth should be taken to a physician. Too many of these cases are treated improperly at home with unhappy results for the boy, doctors report.

Benefits of Electric Living Shared by Entire Family

Man of the house. Dad, like everyone else, reaps the enjoyment of good lighting for his books and evening newspaper, as well as the security of safe, properly-engineered wiring. But he gets extra enjoyment from adequate wiring to handle such things as power tools and the print dryer in his darkroom. If he's especially fortunate, his Gold Medallion Home may have heating cable in the driveway and sidewalks to melt snow and save his heart and energy.

Lady of the house. Mother probaby won't admit it, but she gets more from total electric living than anyone. Electric heating, for example, is the cleanest type available. That means less housecleaning, less means less housecleaning, less in later life.

The entire family enjoys more comfort and convenience in a house designed and constructed to provide the utmost in total electric living.

But does an all-electric house, such as a Gold Medallion Home, provide extras for individual family members? It does, and here's how:

Man of the house. Dad, like everyone else, reaps the enjoyment of good lighting for his books and evening newspaper, as well as the security of safe, properly-engineered wiring. But the gets extra enjoyment from adequate wiring to handle such things as power tools and the

When God Has Won Lesson for June 24, 1962

THE bloodiest book in the Bible is the last one, Revelation. Weird and terrible, its pictures tell the story of the war between good and evil, between God and Satan. In this war God's servants suffer agonies, and are indeed tempted to despair. Yet in the end the victory is God's, and his faithful people share it. A note running from Dr. Foreman first to last is "overcome," "conquer," "victory." While all the books of the Bible point forward, more or less, this is specially true of Revelation, which through all the red fog and the darkness focuses on God's final triumph.

God keeps promises

As every one is aware, this strange book has aroused innumerable arguments over its precise meaning, especially in details. But the main point is agreed on by all serious students of it: GOD WILL WIN. This does not get rid of all the questions we may have about it. These last two chapters, for example: Do they refer to something still in the future, or do they refer to something going on now? Are these pictures of heaven, or are they pictures of this earth in some future era? Let us venture a suggestion which might include both these possibilities. Let us try taking what is said in these famous and beautiful chapters, as an assurance, made in word-pictures, of what it will be like when God's great war with evil on this earth and in this universe is crowned with victory. If you like to think of this as in heaven (because we have heard this so often at funerals), or on the renewed earth in a new universe, either way this is the kind of world which it is God's intention to bring forth, the kind of world which will be a fit home for his people. It is a world in which all the good promises of God will be fulfilled.

What manner of world will it be, the world of the heart's desire of the God who is Love? We can note only a very few of its special glories. For one thing, it is a world with evil shut out. Not only ceiver of men, been destroyed at long last, but all those human beings who have said to evil, Be thou my good, are shut out,-all the unclean, the cowards, those who love and make lies. Evil, as we have all long since discovered, has many forms. Wickedness is only one form of it. There is also suffering, and this can be of the heart and mind, not only of the body. But there shall be no more pain, no more crying nor tears; so we know that when God has won his victory, all the dark burdens that weigh now on the souls of men, even those griefs in which no evil mingles,-these will all have vanished. The last enemy, will lie conquered, and only Life fill all God's new world.

'And night shall be no more.' Considering how often, in the Bible and out, darkness is a symbol of ignorance and error, we may believe, and the Christian church does believe, that in God's world, when it finally dawns, (and indeed in heaven now) the mists of half-knowledge and groping ignorance that now surround even the wisest mind, will be blown away in the dawn-wind of eternity. "-and God Himself will be with

Best of all, and including all that is good,—God himself will be with his people; giver of life, of light, of healing and of comfort.

Here some one may think of a question. Are not all these things true in this life, here and now? Do we not have eternal life? Is not God here on earth as he is everywhere? Are there not rare spirits in whom good has driven out evil? Does the Spirit of God not already bring light and healing and peace?

Yes, this is true. God grants to his people, here and now, such "foretastes of heaven" as assure of his presence and power, stir us to strive with him, and give sure promise of victory at last. Heaven has its colonies on earth. Wherever true, unselfish love has its flower and fruit, wherever faith and hope join with love to make this dark life brighter,-in every Christian heart and home, in every fellowship where the Spirit of Christ draws all together, there God's world already comes. LUTHERVILLE FAMILY FINDS TELEPHONE CALLS SAVE 28 TRIPS TO TOWN IN TWO WEEKS

Not long ago, Mrs. Charles O. McAtee, Lutherville housewife and mother of two, kept track of all phone calls made by her family for two weeks. For each local telephone call that eliminated a trip in person, she estimated the time, travel and money saved.

And here's what the diary showed at the end of the two weeks: 567 miles of driving, $45.92 in car expenses and 34 hours ... all saved the easy way ... the telephone way. Telephone calls to the cleaner, the garage, the dentist, and department stores saved her countless steps and wasted motion. Mrs. Mc-Atee's enthusiastic reaction to the results of the diary? "It's really amazing how much time and effort your telephone saves you."

What tale would your telephone diary tell? You, too, would probably be amazed at how much your phone gives in return for its low monthly cost.

Crops - ike Cars - Need The Right Kind of Fuel

When your car fail - you can't always blame the weather. Chances are, it's either some thing wrong under the hood, or you've run out of gan.

Similarly, when farm production drops, or the products are-n't up to par, or the plants appear to be diseased, very often the cause is under the soil or due to a shortage of some vital nutrients.

In recent years, more and more problems have been traced by research agronomists to de-ficiencies of magnesium. But symptoms of the deficiencies have for years been blamed on DISEASE OR DEFICIENCY? "Sand drown" is a good example. This "disease" of tobacco plants was commonly associated with acid sandy soils, but in 1922, scientists established the fact that the problem was actually due to a magnerical magnerical statement of the same o nesium deficiency.

Potatoes are another example, where a number of maladies have been traced to magnesium deficiencies. Both firmness and texture of potatoes are affected by the amounts of magnesium available to the growing plants.

One important function of magnesium that has been illustrated in potatoes and other vegetables is that it makes phosphorous more readily available to the plant, says Dr. J. C. Engibous, manager of agricultural services for Interna-tional Minerals & Chemical Corporation.

MORE PEAS PER POD Researchers at the Univer-Researchers at the University of Wisconsin found that magnesium was the only nutrient element that tended to influence the number of peas in a pod. They followed this with the explanation that increased phosphorous uptake was probably responsible for the increased yield, and that the magnesium made the phosphorous more readily available to the plant. the plant.

And sugar beet yields have been substantially increased by the application of water soluble magnesium to sandy or sandy-loam soils in California, Colocado, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska and Ohio

Importance of magnesium, particularly water soluble magparticularly water soluble magnesium in a form such as sulfate of potash mognesia, has been recognized by many state soil laboratories. Among them is the Soil Science Department at Michigan State University, which has added a magnesium test to its standard soil analysis program. This laboratory tests more than 75,000 samples tests more than 75,000 samples every year.

Apples, citrus, corn, alfalfa, wheat and grapes and legumes such as soybeans have been benefitted by increasing the supply of magnesium in experi-mental cultures and later in commercial orchards, gardens and on farms.

In many areas, dolomitic limestone is used to sweeten the soils, but in this material, magnesium is in an insoluble form, and often takes a long time to get to the plant.

A more immediately available form—that can be applied directly or in a mixed fertilizer—is sulfate of potash magnesia.

-Magnesium compares to the oil or gasoline in automobiles because it is the central atom of chlorophyll—the green ma-terial that enables plants to

Most important aspect of sulfate of potash magnesia is the fact that it offers an immedi-ate cure for deficiencies, much as a quick trip to the repair shop or another gallon of gas-
