This summer while many young people are vacationing 28 boys and girls are reporting to school each day. ## GOVERNMENT SPENDING: 2 QUOTATIONS

"Government spending for social programs, no matter how worthy, should be kept to a minimum until there is government income available to finance them. All government spending is financed either by taxation or by inflation, which is a hidden form of taxation. In both cases, these taxes are eventually added to the cost of production and find their way into the price level. . . . I am confident the public is not fully aware of the economic dangers now overwhelming us."—Harold H. Helm, chairman, Chemical Bank New York Trust Co., 1962.

"Revenues must cover expenditures by one means or another. Any government, like any family, can for a year spend a little more than it earns. But you and I know that a continuation of that habit means the pothouse."—Franklin D. Roosevelt, 1932.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The RAINS have come! How thankful we should be! The ground was hard as a rock that even to plant a tiny plant it was most difficult. Well you no doubt read that at 73, Charlie Chaplin in England (that old time Comedian) is a Father again which I think makes number 12! That one dozen besides his other grown sons by former wives! UGH!

A delightful place to eat, Folks is the grand restaurant called, "40 FATHOM" at 10 North Park Avenue between Baltimore and Fayette Sts. The sea food is something very special and like their slogan, "Particular Dinners for Particular Palates!" The service is excellent and quick! Take your next guests there to dine and . . . Betcha—you will go back time and time again.

The "Page and Shaw" candy of which I wrote about in a previous column means just this—the underneath layer is just as good as the top "show" part! UMMMMM good! Ladies, if you are in need of a Door-Stop and if you have an old, old hand iron—just give it a nice coat of black enamel after you have cleaned it good and then when dry if you cannot paint, purchase attractive Decals in the dime store. That fills the bill of the expensive door-stops of today. Everyone will admire it!

Be sure you have your linen closet beautifully equipped and tied with ribbons and then for a delightful aroma when opening the door, place your favorite scented soap on a dish unwrapped behind the linens. You will get many compliments. You can replenish linens when on sale.

Just think, Folks how anyone can take your place and do a better job sometimes. Take Jack Paar for instance on the late show! He did not have a bit of talent but a very refined and sweet face and a good talker. Now for each week there has been different ones and the result—well—they all are loaded with talent—PLUS! See what I mean!

Now my dear readers—the following is something for you to consider especially if you are retired as the age is from 18 to 70! "THE PEACE CORPS". If you are talented with a special skill, if you have excellent health and if you have a willingness to share your skill with others. . . . Then you may be able to make a significant contribution to peace and understanding—through "THE PEACE CORPS". The salary is $75. a month. Qualify, Couples are eligible. Of course it means that you both can qualify if there are no children under 18. You are sent to Foreign country with a preference possible of one to which you would like to go. The time is for a duration of two years. That includes training.

The following are the countries to which you may be sent unless you have a preference of one of them—Cameroon, Ceylon, Chile, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Ecuador, Ethiopia, Ghana, India, Ivory Coast, Iraq, Liberia, Malaya, Nepal, Nigeria, Peru, Sierra Leone, Togo and Tunisia. Write to Peace Corps, Wash. 25, D.C. You must pass a Physical test plus a record from your own doctor. There are many College educated people who are joining this wonderful Organization. You are sent to Puerto Rico for a month for the training period with a month of Physical conditioning in a camp. The purpose of this Camp is not for building muscle but for building confidence. This is also a test of the ability to adapt to a new problem and situation. However, you will read much more when you are sent the literature on the "Peace Corps." It surely is well worth every bit of it for you and you.

And this was one of the nicest compliments of my entire life. Recently, my youngest Step-Son has had quite a problem as his wife has been in the hospital for the past three months and there are four children! The things he has been doing and accomplishing is simply beyond describing. When he visited me with the children, I said, placing my arms around him, "You are truly Mr. Wonderful!" The quick reply brought a lump in my throat, "Mother, I am not Mr. Wonderful but you are Mrs. Wonderful. If it had not been for your teachings and training, I would never have had the back-bone that I have now!" Well, Folks—we never did use that awful word of "STEP" anyway! It was truly the "Love-Lines" and not the "Blood Lines."

Have a good week-end. Always think that in some way, each day, you may be able to give someone something of which may register in their life! Until next week D.V.

I am,
Faithfully,
Your Observer.

WITH THE ARMED FORCES

Sergeant Schildt, a jet aircraft mechanic, is the son of Mrs. Maud E. Schildt, R. F. D. No. 2, Frederick. The Sergeant and his wife, the former Shirley M. Null of Taneytown, Md., have three children. Sergeant Schildt, who entered the service in September 1951, is the son of Raymond W. Schildt of Taneytown.

There are two ways of achieving success: By putting your shoulder to the wheel or putting your head on the shoulder of the man at the wheel.

College Park, Md., July 16 — Dr. Paul E. Nystrom, director of extension for the University of Maryland College of Agriculture, will retire on December 31, 1962, it was announced here today.

He has held this position since 1955 and has been associated with the university since 1931.

Commenting on Dr. Nystrom's retirement, University President Wilson H. Elkins said: "For more than 30 years, Dr. Nystrom has made many contributions to Maryland agriculture and to farm and home programs—as farm management specialist, county agent leader, head of agricultural economics and marketing and, since 1955, as director of the extension service.

"The achievements of his distinguished career will not evaporate with his retirement; they will remain as a solid foundation on which future development in these areas will be based."

Dr. Nystrom, a native of San Jose (Calif.), holds degrees from the University of California and Harvard University.

He came to Maryland as a farm management specialist and subsequently held a number of important positions in the university's College of Agriculture including associate professor and county agent leader, assistant to the president of the university, professor and head of the department of agriculture economics and marketing, and director of instruction for the College of Agriculture.

In addition to his academic duties, Dr. Nystrom serves as a member of the extension committee on organizational policy for the American Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities. He also is a member of the Board of Trustees of the National 4-H Foundation, and of the executive committee of Epsilon Sigma Phi, a fraternity of cooperative extension service employees.

Dr. Nystrom is a member of the Governor's Committee on Migratory Labor, and a member of the Baltimore Market Authority.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,
"Publishing a hometown newspaper has many compensations," writes Editor Ray K. Dover of The VALENTINE (Neb.) NEWSPAPER, "but being well-liked is not one of them. Everyone," he says, "hates the editor." More specifically:

"An editor who takes a firm stand on controversial issues, and tries to print all the news in an unbiased manner, may be respected (in a fair-minded community), but he will never be popular. 'Sooner or later,' promises Mr. Dover, 'such an editor will tread on the toes of everyone who reads the paper, be he friend or foe, neighbor or stranger.'"

This editor lists as the "prime sources of an editor's woes," weddings, obituaries and court news, noting such pitfalls as failure to describe grandmother's dress in the wedding story or to include Uncle Joe's favorite poem in his obit. Those whose names appear in the court news, he says, come in two types: the abused, who suffered rank injustice; and the noble, who admit their guilt, but wish their names withheld to protect the sensibilities of others.

"We have often pointed out," he writes, "that we don't make the news, we just print it. All anyone needs to do to keep his name out of the court news is to stay out of court."

"Other ways to incur the wrath of readers are: Disagree with them on a school issue; misspell their names; give another church more space than you do their church...decline to work at night on a rush printing job for someone who would have ordered it out of town to begin with had he not been in a hurry... etc. etc. etc."

"We sometimes think," concludes Editor Dover, "what really irritates readers is the crusty old editor's refusal to drop dead. That seems to be the only way to please a big majority at one time."

Mebbe so. Certainly the thing most wrong with this strife-torn world of ours is the people in it. But, let the hometown editor drop dead and what happens? Grief is manifest on all sides. The Text from all pulpits is We Mourn Our Loss. The Marts of Trade close their doors for the funeral. And in their hearts the grippers of all species know the town will not be quite the same again. There is no hatred toward him, people were merely being their selfish selves. Come to think of it, they loved the Editor!

Sincerely
BOB TAYLOR

28 PUPILS ENROLLED IN DRIVER EDUCATION COURSE AT TANEYTOWN JR.-SR. HIGH SCHOOL

This summer while many young people are vacationing 28 boys and girls are reporting to school each day. Under the direction of Mr. Paul Beale these pupils are engaged in learning the skills and fundamentals necessary to be mature safe drivers. Their classroom work begins at 9:00 a. m. and lasts one hour. During the remainder of the day they take their turns driving the 1962 Ford Driver Training car. At the conclusion of the course each pupil will have spent six hours behind the wheel, 18 hours of observing other drivers and 30 hours of classroom instruction.

Throughout the nation it has been found that students who have had Driver Education have less than half as many accidents as ordinary drivers. 40,000 persons are killed and a million and a half injured on the highway each year. With Driver Education this eventually will be cut in half.

Pupils who satisfactorily complete the course in Driver Training will be eligible to take the examination for the state drivers' license without the regular sixty-day card. In order to foster participation in a driver training program many insurance companies grant special considerations to persons who have successfully completed a Driver Training course.

The Crouse Motor Sales of Taneytown is furnishing the new automobile used in this training program. The following pupils in the Taneytown area are presently enrolled in the Driver Training course: Ronnie Anders, John Baker, Carroll Crum, Carol Remsburg, Marian Dunham, Virginia Fink, Toby Gladfelter, Connie Hahn, Beverly Harner, Linda Lieb, Peggy Knouse, Linda Olier, Oscar Pogle, Ronnie Haines, John Hawk, Eddie Howarth, Cindy Nussbaum, Joan Reindollar, Bruce Rodgers, Dan Shriner, Nancy Robertson, Jo Ann Sell, Tom West, James Wojtkowiak, Eddie Koons, Tom Lawrence, Robert Miller, Keith McCurley.

GOVERNMENT SPENDING: 2 QUOTATIONS

"Government spending for social programs, no matter how worthy, should be kept to a minimum until there is government income available to finance them. All government spending is financed either by taxation or by inflation, which is a hidden form of taxation. In both cases, these taxes are eventually added to the cost of production and find their way into the price level. . . . I am confident the public is not fully aware of the economic dangers now overwhelming us."—Harold H. Helm, chairman, Chemical Bank New York Trust Co., 1962.

"Revenues must cover expenditures by one means or another. Any government, like any family, can for a year spend a little more than it earns. But you and I know that a continuation of that habit means the poorhouse."—Franklin D. Roosevelt, 1932.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health-life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The RAINS have come! How thankful we should be! The ground was hard as a rock that even to plant a tiny plant it was most difficult. Well you no doubt read that at 73, Charlie Chaplin in England (that old time Comedian) is a Father again which I think makes number 12! That one dozen besides his other grown sons by former wives! UGH!

A delightful place to eat, Folks is the grand restaurant called, "40 FATHOM" at 10 North Park Avenue between Baltimore and Fayette Sts. The sea food is something very special and like their slogan, "Particular Dinners for Particular Palates!" The service is excellent and quick! Take your next guests there to dine and . . . Betcha—you will go back time and time again.

The "Page and Shaw" candy of which I wrote about in a previous column means just this—the underneath layer is just as good as the top "show" part! UMMMMM good!

Ladies, if you are in need of a Door-Stop and if you have an old, old hand iron—just give it a nice coat of black enamel after you have cleaned it good and then when dry if you cannot paint, purchase attractive Decals in the dime store. That fills the bill of the expensive door-stops of today. Everyone will admire it!

Be sure you have your linen closet beautifully equipped and tied with ribbons and then for a delightful aroma when opening the door, place your favorite scented soap on a dish unwrapped behind the linens. You will get many compliments. You can replenish linens when on sale.

Just think, Folks how anyone can take your place and do a better job sometimes. Take Jack Paar for instance on the late show! He did not have a bit of talent but a very refined and sweet face and a good talker. Now for each week there has been different ones and the result—well—they all are loaded with talent—PLUS! See what I mean!

Now my dear readers—the following is something for you to consider especially if you are retired as the age is from 18 to 70! "THE PEACE CORPS". If you are talented with a special skill, if you have excellent health and if you have a willingness to share your skill with others. . . . Then you may be able to make a significant contribution to peace and understanding—through "THE PEACE CORPS". The salary is $75. A month. Quality, Couples are eligible. Of course it means that you both can qualify if there are no children under 18. You are sent to a foreign country with a preference possible of one to which you would like to go. The time is for a duration of two years. That includes training. The following are the countries to which you may be sent unless you have a preference of one of them—Came-roon, Ceylon, Chile, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Ecuador, Ethiopia, Ghana, India, Ivory Coast, Iraq, Liberia, Malaya, Nepal, Nigeria, Peru, Sierra Leone, Togo and Tunisia. Write to Peace Corps, Wash. 25, D.C. You must pass a Physical test plus a record from your own doctor. There are many College educated people who are joining this wonderful Organization. You are sent to Puerto Rico for a month for the training period with a camp. The purpose of this Camp is not for building muscle but for building confidence. This is also a test of the ability to adapt to a new problem and situation. However, you will read much more when you are sent the literature on the "Peace Corps." It surely is well worth every bit of it for you and you.

And this was one of the nicest compliments of my entire life. Recently, my youngest Step-Son has had quite a problem as his wife has been in the hospital for the past three months and there are four children! The things he has been doing and accomplishing is simply beyond describing. When he visited me with the children, I said, placing my arms around him, "You are truly Mr. Wonderful!" The quick reply brought a lump in my throat, "Mother, I am not Mr. Wonderful but you are Mrs. Wonderful. If it had not been for your teachings and training, I would never have had the back-bone that I have now!" Well, Folks—we never did use that awful word of "STEP" anyway! It was truly the "Love-Lines" and not the "Blood Lines."

Have a good week-end. Always think that in some way, each day, you may be able to give someone something of which may register in their life! Until next week D.V.

I am,
Faithfully,
Your Observer.

FACTS AND OPINIONS

David Lawrence writes: "The road to socialism is plain to see. The administration, however, can shift its course and start in earnest to travel the road of sound capitalism and free enterprise. It cannot assume the function of an omniscient supervisor with a club in his hand. It must let the laws of supply and demand and of competitive influences operate. Then labor will find itself compelled to become realistic, too, and there will be a pause in excessive wage demands and a chance for American business to get on its feet again."

Benefits already promised, and enacted into law, will require a 48 per cent increase in Social Security payroll taxes between now and 1968. The current maximum of $150 a year will rise to $222; the 1968 rate for the self-employed will be $231. Costs of the proposed measure which would provide medical benefits to anyone drawing S.S. benefits would have to be added to these. Those costs are estimated to be at least $1.1 billion for the first year, increasing to about $5 billion annually within 10 years.

Walter Briggs of the Herald Tribune News Service writes: "The world is rapidly on the way to smothering itself, the demographers warn us. There are too many people, they warn, on too few acres for such nations as India and Red China to feed themselves. The tidal wave of human birth is diluting the accomplishments of economic assistance to many of the under-developed countries. Unless something is done, much of mankind is doomed to eternal poverty."

Recent driver reaction tests conducted by the Vision Conservation Institute indicate that yellow traffic markings are 35 to 50 per cent more visible than white markings under all weather conditions.

Whether a major tax reform bill can be passed in Congress even next year is doubtful. That is the view of Chairman Mills of the House Ways and Means Committee. He also said that current tax rates are too high and tend to blunt incentives and stifle economic growth.

From the report of the United States Citizens Commission on NATO (a group created by Congressional action, and approved by Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy): "The new European Common Market, including Britain and other countries which have applied for membership, will represent in population, resources and military potential a force rivaling that of the United States. A trade partnership between the Common Market and the United States... would create an economic colossus which would dwarf the Soviet bloc. Unification of the foreign policy and defense facilities of the Allies vis-a-vis the Soviet bloc would create such an assertion of spirit and power that the cold war could subside."

In 1961, Americans consumed roughly 150 billions gallons of petroleum products--a total equal to 830 gallons for each man, woman and child.

From the Wall Street Journal: "Business growth, as the President observes, ultimately rests on an economic confidence in the nation's ability to invest and produce and consume. The nation's potential growth is enormous. But it is not unreasonable to ask why there should be exuberant confidence in a Government that so far seems bent on curbing the people's incentive to produce, consume, save and invest."

According to Advertising Age, the top 100 national advertisers spent $1.7 billion for publication and TV advertising last year.

"I've Shipped More Milk Than Ever Before"

• When Dairyman C. R. Pool, Westminster, Maryland, switched his cows to Southern States Dairy Feed, his milk production—and profits—jumped way up. "Last month I shipped 37,449 pounds of milk from 34 cows," he says. "The month before that—37,470 pounds. And this was not just a spurt of the season." "To me this proves that a good way to establish a steady milk flow is to use Southern States Feed," says this profit-minded dairyman.

MONEY-SAVERS

Answers to 8 questions on car care that Shell dealers often hear

Shell dealers answer thousands of questions every year. Here are 8 that crop up all the time. The answers have helped many motorists save money. They may do the same for you.

1 What's that funny noise I hear? All cars make some noise. But be particularly alert for any squeals, squeaks, clicks, or rattles that crop up suddenly. Could be anything from a sticking valve lifter to a loose wheel lug. Ask your Shell dealer to help you track down any unusual noise. You may save yourself a big repair bill later on.

2 How can I get more mileage from my tires? Rotate all tires, including the spare, every 6,000 miles. Drive at moderate speeds. Tires can wear twice as fast at 70 miles per hour as at 45. Avoid fast cornering, "jackrabbit" starts, sudden stops. Try not to bang tires against curbs. And check your tire pressure frequently.

3 Do I really need a lube job every thousand miles? Yes — unless you have one of the newer models that doesn't require it. But with any car, remember that frequent lubrication offers your serviceman a chance to spot trouble before it costs you a lot of money. That's why Shell dealers give you a bumper-to-bumper inspection with every Shelllubrication.

4 Can knock hurt my engine? Usually it's more annoying than harmful. But persistent knocking hampers performance and can lead to engine damage. That's why Shell scientists are such sticklers about knock. They even listen for it with stethoscopes and insist that Super Shell contain no fewer than three knock-fighting ingredients.

5 How can I make my battery last longer? Here are four suggestions: 1. Let your Shell dealer check your car's electrical system. Worn wires and loose connections can drain power. 2. Always maintain battery water to the proper level. 3. Avoid prolonged idling with radio turned on. 4. Go driving! Long drives help charge your battery.

6 What does TCP do? Shell's unique TCP* is a combustion control additive. The hot piston device above shows one way TCP works. The glowing deposit on the left has not been neutralized with TCP. In your engine, glowing deposits can ignite fuel too soon, wasting fuel and power. Deposit on right has been "fireproofed" by TCP. No glow — no power loss.

7 How often should I change oil? The American Petroleum Institute recommends an oil change every 30 days in winter, every 60 days during summer.

Note: New Shell X-100® Premium is the first premium motor oil that leaves no additive ash deposits. It fights four other internal troubles that can shorten engine life.

8 Why do my tires wear out on just one side? Most likely cause: wheels out of alignment. Result: your tires drag against the road and wear unevenly. Unbalanced wheels can also cause uneven wear and make your car shake or shimmy. That's why it's a good idea to keep tires balanced and have wheel alignment checked twice a year.

Now a question for you

Is your car giving you top performance? If there's any doubt in your mind, try a tankful of today's Super Shell. It contains 9 ingredients including a gum preventive, three knock-fighters, "cat-cracked" gasoline, a mileage booster, an anti-icer, quick-starting Butane, and Pentane mix for fast warm-ups.

*Trademark for Shell's unique gasoline additive. Gasoline containing TCP is covered by U.S. Patent 2889212.

A VOICE FROM CARROLL

Americans are from time to time accused of being a leisure class without knowing what to do with its leisure. And others say that Americans are too fat or too lean because they sit in front of a T.V. screen instead of taking part in sports. Neither of these statements happen to be true. Consider some figures from last year when it was found that over 28 million Americans went fishing; 36 million bought rented or borrowed a boat and took to the water; 8 million played tennis, while 9 million played soft-ball. There were over 8 million would-be Arnold Palmers that took to the golf course, while 7 million tried to rival Mrs. Kennedy on water skis. There were 50 million home gardeners not to mention the millions that pushed, pulled or were dragged by lawn-mowers around a plot of grass twice a week. Include in this impressive list a few million swimmers and sun worshipers, and millions of skin divers who prefer the briny deep to the sun. And don't forget the tourist who need plenty of energy and steady nerves to buck the traffic to get where they are going. The ones that played baseball haven't even been mentioned nor the ones that go out for Little League, nor the horseshoe pitchers, nor the horseback riders. If Americans don't know what to do with their leisure then no critic can tell them, for never before have Americans been so conscious of the great outdoors and the wonderful enjoyment it offers.

We are happy to read that Professor E. Paul Torrance of the University of Minnesota believes that the nonconformist child is truly the creative genius of his class. It is a discouraging fact that it is a rare teacher who knows how to handle the creative child. It is easier to have a well-behaved child in the classroom, sitting quietly, conforming to accepted patterns, than to be challenged by the antics of a noisy troublemaker. Dr. Torrance says that the creative child should be given the opportunity to be different, to use his imagination and to be a nonconformist. He states that the child who is forced into a conformity role will be an easy victim for brainwashing when he is an adult.

It is often suggested by those that are still young that a course should be given on how to grow old gracefully and intelligently. It's a good thought but unfortunately most people when old age hits them, are no longer intelligent and what they may have learned about growing old is no longer with them. This prayer learned early in life might help if said day after day: "Lord, Thou knowest better than I know myself that I am growing older, and will some day be old. Keep me from getting talkative, and particularly from the fatal habit of thinking I must say something on every subject and on every occasion. Release me from craving to try to straighten out everybody's affairs. Make me thoughtful, but not moody; helpful, but not bossy. With my vast store of wisdom, it seems a pity not to use it all . . . but Thou knowest Lord, that I want a few friends at the end . . . seal my lips on my many aches and pains . . . they are increasing, and my love of rehearsing them is becoming sweeter as the years go by. Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally it is possible that I may be mistaken."

The oil-well drilling is putting both Keymar and Carroll County in the spotlight. Tourists from far and near arrive at Keymar, both day and night to see the drilling. It's fascinating, of course, for not since the twenties has there been a search for oil in Carroll. Whether the citizens dream that our county might rival Texas in oil is doubtful. Some seem more concerned about what will happen to the farm-land than in oil millions, while others look at it as a good tourist attraction. There must be some laying awake at night dreaming what they will do with so much money but very few. The people of Keymar are skeptics and are not much taken up with day dreaming. They are willing to wait until the oil comes in before getting excited.

One thorn of experience is worth a whole wilderness of warning. James Russell Lowell.

IN THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

Nestled in the blue, whispering waters of the Caribbean, St. Croix (pronounced croy), Virgin Islands, is fast becoming the fashionable U.S. resort in the West Indies!

Approximately 23 miles long and five miles wide, St. Croix was discovered by Columbus in 1493 and was governed under six different flags before it was acquired by the United States in 1917.

Visitors call the island's weather "best in the world." Average temperature is between 70 and 80 degrees — delightful trade winds provide natural air conditioning! Seven miles from Christiansted, the island's capital, lies the Grapetree Bay area, site of St. Croix's newest, largest resort and 500 acres of beach-front properties.

The Grapetree Bay Hotel, located right on the Caribbean shore, combines country-club living with Danish modern decor. Visitors stay at the hotel's cottages, main-house or guest villas... enjoy entertainment every night, water-sport in the bay, sea or free-form pool, golf and tennis.

Five lovely old Danish estates bordered by the sea to the east and sugarloaf mountains to the west, comprise the Grapetree properties. They are being developed for retirees and people who want their vacation homes on the sunny Caribbean isle.

Comfort and the joy of tropical living are combined in the new community on sun-splashed St. Croix.

It's Spoon Lickin' Good!

Small boys may not understand about the laws of sanitation, but they know a good thing when they taste it.

Few things taste better to children than peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. Jam is as good, maybe a trifle better, than jelly with peanut butter. It is also cheaper and more quickly made and easier to spread than jelly.

All berries, slipskin grapes, apricots, peaches and plums can be turned into delicious jam. Reliable recipes come with the better known brands of fruit pectins. The cooking is quicker and the yield larger when pectin is used. However, if your plums are tart and you don't want to use pectin, here is a good way to make the jam. Better make several batches if you want the children to leave any for the breakfast toast.

Plum Jam

Use any tart variety of plums

8 cups chopped plums 1/2 teaspoon salt
6 cups sugar 2 cups water

Wash, drain, pit, chop and measure plums. Add sugar, salt and water. Boil rapidly until mixture thickens. This will be about 9" F. above the boiling point of water in your locality. Pour boiling hot jam into pint or half-pint fruit jars. Put dome lid on jar; screw band tight.

NOTE: Jam may stick and scorch if not stirred constantly while cooking.

Champion Corn Grower Paul Ratliff
Harvests Record 283 Bushel Corn Yield

Again in 1961 it was Paul Ratliff of Baldwin, Mississippi who grew the highest yield reported anywhere in the world. He harvested 283 bushels of corn from a measured acre.

Following are excerpts of an extension information release from the Extension Editor of Mississippi State University: "Booneville, Miss.—The yield of 283 bushels of corn from a single measured acre is the report this year from the famous Ratliff demonstration in Prentiss County, Miss.

"This is the same acre on which the 304 bushel yield credited with being the world's highest to date was made in 1955 by Lamar Ratliff, who was then a 16-year-old 4-H Club member."

Cultural practices in 1961 were similar to those of the past. Key factor in Mr. Ratliff's big corn yield was the use of a high capacity Funk's G-Hybrid especially bred to plant thicker and make better use of fertilizer.

Since 1952, this same acre has grown 2,457.69 bushels of corn for a ten-year average of 245.76 bushels.

How To "See" a Sore Throat

by DAVID E. GREEN

The first step in determining the nature and seriousness of a sore throat is to examine your child. You can usually see a sore throat if you know how to look for it.

Using a good light (a flashlight is perfect) and a tongue depressor, take a quick look into the child's throat. If you see only mildly pink areas and there is no high fever or accompanying symptoms, it is usually safe to wait a bit and give the irritation a chance to clear up with home care. However, if the throat is an angry red, call your doctor and let him decide what the next step should be.

A good many of the sore throats most mothers have to deal with are not serious. Most of them come and go in a short time without ever turning into long-term illness. They'll respond well to proper at-home care, including the use of mouthwash and gargles.

Gargling, always recommended by doctors, can now be doubly effective since the development of Iodine which retains all the germ-killing powers of iodine. Also used as a mouthwash, Iodine kills bad breath germs and completely eliminates food odors.

Another aid for anxious mothers is a decongestant inhaler like Nasal-are which should be used if your child's sore throat is accompanied by a stuffed up nose or nasal drip.

Career Notes

By RUTH WADE RAY

The time when America's high school graduates will march down the aisle and into their chosen careers is near at hand. But career selection begins (or should) long before graduation. We find that creative people often do not understand how to put their talent to use.

Since Ray Vogue is the oldest professional arts school in the nation, many high school graduates come to me for advice. I tell them how we decided upon our six varied courses which utilize creative ability and prepare talented students for business success.

Beyond the Tears
Lesson for July 29, 1962

WHEN a disaster falls which you have long predicted, when your warnings have been cast aside year after year, when the thing comes to pass that no one but yourself would believe was possible, it is a strong temptation to say, or even shout: I TOLD YOU SO!!

Jeremiah had too good a heart to say any such thing. His dark and dire predictions came true, and he was not surprised, though every one else was more than surprised, they were thunderstruck. But he did not rub it in. What the people did not realize was that he grieved over the tragedy and the tears of his people more than the people themselves, if possible. His fellow-citizens had long since typed him as a man who looked on the dark side of things by choice, indeed a man who enjoyed being gloomy, and took pleasure in other people's distress.

Life Goes On

A major disaster fell on the city of Jerusalem and the surrounding territory of Judah, when the army of Babylon marched in. Or rather when they marched away; for in returning to Babylon the army took with them a notable roster of V.I.P.'s. Think of it: Not only the king, the high executive, and all the palace staff both of officials and servants; but all the classes of the common people who had intelligence, strength and skill. Those who would be interested in seeing how a poet of those days looked at the desolation of his city, should read the "Lamentations" which are anonymous in the original, but which tradition ascribes to Jeremiah himself. It looked like a completely hopeless situation. Yet the prophet wrote a letter to the exiles, without a word of condemnation in it, encouraging them to settle down where they were, to build houses, plant gardens, live normal happy lives.

"A Future and a Hope"

One difference between dogs, cats and other beasts on the one side, and mankind on the other, is that the race of man lives much in the future and in the past. We are particularly unhappy when we see no future. Ours is a dark time for this reason; many shudder at the danger of the atomic age looming with sinister horror over the heads of all the little children of the world. The younger generation is peculiar in being the first younger generation in recorded time that was not envied by those who are older. What we desire, what we can scarcely find, is (in Jeremiah's words) a future and a hope. That was the two-fold promise that the prophet made to his defeated people: Can God make us the same promise today? Only a prophet could answer that question for certain. But one thing we may notice: The future for Israel, bright as it was destined to be (and this is regarded as one of the great Biblical prophecies yet to be fulfilled) was a future with an IF in it.

The New Covenant; the New Israel

The prophets of the Bible seldom explain their prophecies. They left it to the Holy Spirit, if He will, to illumine the minds of those who in future centuries would read these ancient prophecies. Now there are two prophecies of Jeremiah in particular, both of them messages of hope, which the Christian generally understands as not ever completely fulfilled. They are partly fulfilled in each generation; but completely in none. One of these prophecies is that of the New Covenant (Chapter 31). Have we reached the time, has the world ever reached a time, when the law of God is written in all men's hearts, and when all men from the least to the greatest, shall know the Lord? No, we are a long way from this blessed future, to all appearances. Then that prophecy about the Branch: Has any one person ever fulfilled the words about the "righteous Branch"? Has any earthly monarch merited the title? The Christian Church thinks not; and so as the "New Israel" bound to God through the "new covenant" in Christ's blood, looks forward still to a new heaven wherein dwells righteousness. (Based on outline copyrighted by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. Released by Community Press Service.)

How does the American patent system serve the interests of the American people? In the case of prescription drugs it encourages research on new and improved products for the protection of health. It also stimulates competition and brings down prices. A comparison of wholesale prices of patented prescription drugs with wholesale prices of non-patented drugs, for the eleven-year period beginning in 1949, shows that patented products dropped in price 20.2 percent, while non-patented drug prices remained almost the same, dropping only 1.3 percent. During the same period, the wholesale prices on all manufactured goods went up about 26 percent. (Sources: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Wholesale Price Index; John M. Firestone, Associate Professor, College of the City of New York. Base: 1949 = 100.)

The Tale of Time

Egyptians, Greeks and Chinese measured hours with the water clock at the time of Christ's birth. Water dripped slowly from one marked container into another — hour-glass fashion. The clock was called Clepsydra or "chief of water".

By Christmas day in the year 1511, the world's first portable timepiece was in use! Invented by German locksmith Peter Henlein, it was crude, heavy, had only an hour hand. Because of its shape, the watch was dubbed the "Nuremberg Egg".

Modern Christmas celebrators measure time with electricity! First major advance in watchmaking since Henlein's "Egg," the electric watch by Hamilton, introduced in 1927, will help keep America on time during the Yule season... and New Year!

Multiple Course Outdoor Banquet

As seen in Better Homes & Gardens Magazine
An Outdoor Banquet That's Easy To Prepare And Delicious

For a complete multiple course dinner to serve and enjoy outdoors, this one can't be topped. Begin with an appetizing tomato juice cocktail, followed by chips and dip; then the main course of meat (from the outdoor grill, of course,) with a cool, crisp, tossed salad. For the dessert, simply serve light, cool, refreshing sherbet or ice cream.

This meal is not a hot and heavy one to eat or prepare. It's sure to hit the spot with most everyone and can be altered for the sake of variety simply by changing the appetizer, the dip, the salad dressing, and the choice of beverages.

TRY THESE DELICIOUSLY DIFFERENT IDEAS

For the Cocktail, simply add a teaspoon of Horseradish to each cup (8 oz.) of tomato juice, and salt to taste.

To put new flavor, sparkle and life in the dip; again, all you need to do is add a tablespoon of Horseradish to your favorite prepared sour-cream dip.

To make a salad that's quick and easy, AND new; prepare your mixed greens and toss with this tangy dressing:

- |                                    |                          |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1/4 cup vinegar                    | 1/4 teaspoon sugar       |
| 2 tablespoons oil                  | 1/4 teaspoon salt        |
| 3 tablespoons prepared horseradish | 2 tablespoons mayonnaise |

Combine all ingredients thoroughly and chill before adding to salad. 4 servings.

Now, for the meat. Whether cooking sirloin, round, club, T-bone, or any standard cut steak; simply place on the grill and then spread with this sauce. Three tablespoons salad oil; three tablespoons Horseradish; 1/2 teaspoon salt; and 1/2 teaspoon of your favorite spiced or flavored salt. Mix well, spread, and leave on the steak till you turn. Then let the sauce fall when turned. Spread lightly on the second side and turn once more before serving. This recipe is enough for two pounds of steak. Increase to suit your taste on future efforts.

Fresh Air Fare

In the summertime outdoor entertaining is great fun.—And whether the location is a porch, patio or just your own backyard, food will highlight the occasion. For fresh air seems to whet one's appetite and make everything taste so good!

This Batter Dipped Chicken is no exception. Its crisp golden brownness will make your mouth water indoors or out.—And using convenient pancake mix for the batter dip makes it so easy to prepare, too.

BATTER DIPT CHICKEN

Makes 8 servings

2-2/3 cups pancake mix      2 cups cold water
2 tablespoons instant minced onion      Two 2-1/2 to 3-lb. frying chickens, cut up
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce

For the batter dip, combine dry ingredients in bowl. Add Worcestershire sauce and water; beat with a rotary beater about 2 minutes. Dip pieces of chicken into batter; drain on rack. Fry in hot deep fat (375°F.) 2 to 3 minutes or until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper.

Place browned chicken in a baking pan. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) for 45 minutes or until tender.

FUDGE SUNDAE IN A PIE SHELL

When scoops of ice cream and chocolate pudding are frozen in a pie shell, the result is an intriguing, taste-pleasing Fudge Sundae Pie. Especially suited to summertime entertaining, it's a do-ahead desert that's made the short-cut way with a packaged mix. But, best of all, it has the rich, deep chocolate flavor everyone loves because it's made with Royal's Dark 'n' Sweet Chocolate Pudding.

FUDGE SUNDAE PIE

- 1 package (regular size) Royal Dark 'n' Sweet Chocolate Pudding
- 2 cups milk
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
- 1 9-inch pie shell, baked and cooled
- 1 1/2 pints vanilla ice cream
- Whole pecans

Empty Royal Dark 'n' Sweet Chocolate Pudding into saucepan. Slowly add milk, stirring to keep mixture smooth. Cook over medium high heat, stirring constantly, until pudding comes to a full boil (about 5 minutes). Pour into a bowl and place waxed paper or saran directly on pudding; cool. (About 1 hour in refrigerator.) Stir the pudding to soften. Fold in whipped cream. In bottom of pie shell, arrange large scoops of ice cream. Pour cooled pudding around the ice cream. If desired, garnish with pecans. Freeze about 4 hours. Makes 1 9-inch pie.
