HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

The Classical Records Club met in the French room on Monday, January 7. The group listened to Beethoven's Symphony #3 in E Flat Major, (Eroica) Op. 55. The yearbook picture was also taken during the period. Mr. Francis Smith is the advisor.

The parents of the seventh, ninth and eleventh grade students met with the guidance counsellor, Mrs. Shirley McDaniel, on Wednesday and Thursday evening in the library of the H. S. The purpose of this meeting was to present the results of the S. T. E. P. and S. C. A. T. tests which the pupils of these grades took in September. It is the hope of the school to make parents aware of the pupils' abilities and then to determine whether or not the pupil is working up to his or her

Hour-Long Weekly Dramatic Series Starting in Fall is Planned as Prime-Time Entertainment with Educational Importance;

A new hour-long series of dramas of American history, designed to provide entertainment that is both exciting and educational for the entire family, will be presented in a regular weekly prime evening time period be-ginning next Fall on the CBS Tele-vision Network. Announcement of the new weekly series was made jointly in New York and Washington, D. C., by the CBS Television Network and the National Education Association. A representative of the National Ed-ucation Association will appear on ucation Association will appear on each program to further its educational objectives.

Mr. Aubrey said that the new program would be produced by John Houseman under the direct supervision of Hubbell Robinson, CBS Television Network Senior Vice President Programs who conceived the dent-Programs, who conceived the basic program concept. Mr. House-man, currently director of the U. C. L. A. Theatre, was a leading producer for "Playhouse 90" and has served as artistic director of the American Shakespeare Festival and Academy. He has been an English and drama professor at Vassar College, Barnard College and the University of California at Los Angeles. He has produced many motion pictures, including "Julius Caesar" and "Lust for Life." He was co-founder of the Mercury Theatre and director of such stage productions as "The Devil and Daniel Webster" and "Lute Song." The National Education Association will not only present a special speaker with each program, but will also cooperate with the CBS Television network in the issuance of study guides and educational resources.

The President of the National Education Association, Mrs. Hazel A. Blanchard, commented that "The drama of American history is a strong and extremely valuable en-tertainment approach to better ed-ucation. The NEA is gratified that the CBS Television Network is bringing the enormous impact of television to bear on the story of our past. As an association of nearly a million American teachers, we welcome this opportunity to bring the American home into closer touch with its heritage and to buttress the teacher's skilled classroom work with worthwhile family television viewing." Production of the new series is expected to start in April. The program will be produced in California and on location. No title for the series has yet been selected.

The Future Business Leaders of America from the Taneytown High School chapter would like to invite you to the presentation of "Wedding Spells," a three-act comedy by James Stone. This play, which will be presented on January 11-12, Friday and Saturday at 8:00 P. M., has a plot centered around Steve, who lost and forgot his wife while they were on their honeymoon. You will be surprised and amused as you watch Steve trying to discern which charming young lady is his wife. All benefits will go to the FBLA. Refreshments will be on sale. For an evening of wholesome entertainment for the entire family, be sure to see "Wedding Spells."

MEETING OF GIRL SCOUTS

During the month of December, 1962, Girl Scout Troop #1202 were busy doing the things a Girl Scout Troop enjoys doing most. On December 5, 1962, the girls had a Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Dinterman. During the party, the girls sang carols, played games, exchanged gifts and had refreshments. We wish to thank the Dintermans for the use of their lovely home. On December 12, the troop sang carols at Brookfield Manor Nursing Home. They also distributed cosmetic bags which they themselves made. During the month the girls also made scuffs as Christmas presents for their mothers. During the month of January the troop hopes to do even better things to make it a better year for all.

Scouts Plan Paper Drive Saturday in Taneytown

Depending on the weather situation. Boy Scouts of Taneytown Troop 348, sponsored by Hesson-Snider Post 120, American Legion, have planned their customary bi-monthly drive for rags, paper, and magazines, for Saturday, January 12. If the snow has not practically disappeared by that day, however, a new date will be announced. In case of an additional fall of snow, of course, the collection will snow, of course, the collection will definitely be postponed.

Should the weatherman cooperate by Saturday, the roads leading to Mayberry, Copperville, Crouse's Mill, Bridgeport, and the Baptist road to Starner's Dam will also be covered, besides Taneytown itself. Bundles securely tied are appreciated between Securely tied are appreciated, but Scouts will gladly pick up from cellar or garret if this need is called to their attention while the drive goes on. The weather will determine whether or not the scrap will be collected this Saturday or some other conlected this Saturday or some other one.

Patrol Contest Ends

Although the final tabulation has not been made for Monday, Dec. 31, the final day in the annual Patrol contest, the Flaming Arrow patrol under patrol leader Thomas West (Robert Miller, assistant) has out-distanced the other three to warrant their being declared virtual winners. Second are the Panthers under Samuel Bower, patrol leader (Rickey Clingan, assistant). This standing is important for the runners-up are usually permitted to participate in the prize trip to an ice hockey game at Hershey at half the cost. Exact final scores will be announced by the scoutmaster at Scout meeting Thursday night.

Program Highlights

Morse code gave way first to lashing, then compass, mapping symbols, first aid bandages and carries in a quick preview of several requirements for Second Class rank. There was a concession to the national December theme of dual body building contests, meeting before last and to the semest. meeting before last, and to the sema-phore portion of signaling merit badge for more advanced boys last week. The month of January will see a continuation of signaling games, practice and contests.

Other competitions of a more athletic nature were mounted football (a favorite), British bulldog, dodgeball, shipwrecked, keep away, and dual contests at Indian arm, leg ,and hand wrestling, some calesthenics, and

Stuart Dom, former junior assistant scoutmaster and now in the Naval service, was a welcome visitor to the Green-bar leaders' council last meeting, where the Tenderfoot review of Douglas Dayhoff was conducted. He will be admitted this week to Panther membership. Others who became Scouts of 348 since our last report are Gary Etzler, Donald Hahn, Jack Howarth and James West.

The week-end preceding New Year's Day was the occasion for a Natural Dam overnighter, made the more exciting by the heavy snowfall. Those present were patrol leaders West and Bower, assistants Clingan and Ronald and Philip Martin, as well as Jack and Robert Howarth, the scoutmaster and Richard Greene, who has finished Tenderfoot and eagerly waits out the age requirement before full admission into the Flaming Arrows.

At the last Board of Review conducted by Robert F. Wantz, chairman, two were advanced to Second Class rank, assistant patrol leaders Ronald Martin and Robert Miller, while the honorable estate of First Class was attained by patrol leaders Charles Mason and Thomas West. Merit badges have been earned by Bower in the fields of automobiling and personal fitness, and by Clingan in firemanship.

The weather caught up with plans to stage archery practice and forced its cancellation, but this project will be taken up later.

All four patrols are now girding themselves for the new patrol contest, starting immediately. While winter precludes outdoor camping to any extent, opportunities are rife for advancement in Scout rank, for recruiting members, for garnering the theme plaques which now adorn patrol corners but never are permanent possessions. A good run towards the 1964 hockey trip or some other prize may well be determined in the coming months. The history of the past year points to this, but each patrol group has it in its power to color the events which will be tomorrow's history.

Paper Collection Saturday, with good weather, there will be a scrap drive, and Scouts able to help are requested to report promptly by 8:00 A. M. In case of more snow, or rain, or even if the present fall has not largely disappeared by then, a new date will be published. Boys and public both will have to "play it by ear."

DON'T SPEND IT - YET

Information on the Administration's forthcoming tax program, leaked to the press in advance of the President's message to Congress on that subject, indicates a contemplated gross reduction of $8 to $10 billion in tax receipts, but to be offset by $3.5 billion of increased revenue that is now seeping through those so-called "loopholes."

Furthermore, it has been revealed that reductions are to prevail over all tax brackets, from the poor man's 20 percent to the millionaire's 91 percent and including the 52 percent corporate income tax. The avowed purpose is to stimulate business so as to relieve unemployment. But it is difficult to see how a cut of these overall proportions and spread so thin can offer significant relief in any

Speculation on the effects of a proposal yet to be presented are rather idle, of course. But it now seems plain that there will be strong resistance in Congress to tax-cutting without similar reductions in spending, especially when the fiscal year that ends next June 30 is expected to show a deficit of about $8 billion.

Rep. John Byrnes of Wisconsin, for one, has declared that if the President will cut non-emergency spending, taxes can be cut, too. And he is expected to have plenty of company in both houses among Congressmen and Senators who have been listening to constituents who are far more concerned about the welfare of this nation than in that of others on which we are wasting our substance or even in the prospects of colonizing the

The thought of adding even a few more billions to a national debt of $300 billion is disturbing to those of us who are naive enough to eling to the idea that nations should pay their bills as well as people - and who remember enough history to recall that a score of once-great nations have perished because they didn't. -U. Dairyman Boosts Milk Production by 500 lbs. a Day!

Dairyman Clifton Simmons of Rocks, Maryland, shown here, noticed a big improvement when he began to give his cows feed made in Southern States' new Feed Mill at Balti-

"Before we started shipping about 1400 pounds of milk daily. Now we're shipping 1900 pounds. We're very satisfied with the results," Mr. Simmons says.

You too can boost your milk production with feed from Southern States' new Baltimore Mill.

HOME OWNER'S QUESTION BOX

A. Since it's probably time to replace the old roof, you can kill two birds with one stone. Reroof the whole house with new asphalt shingles and apply new siding or paint over the entire exterior to integrate the new with the old. Be sure to insulate the new section thoroughly with mineral wool for year-round comfort and lower fuel bills.

Q. Is there any way I can give a room two coats of paint in one day and still get good results?

A. Yes. One method is to use one of the new tinted shellacs as an undercoat. Sand the area to be painted, as usual, and apply the tinted shellac, which dries normally in about 45 minutes. Sand lightly when dry, then apply the finish coat of vinyl or oil base paint. base paint.

Q. I'm adding a new "L" to my 20-year-old house. How do I keep it from looking like a "sore thumb?"

A. No. You have to remove the linoleum and clean the surface beneath it thoroughly first. Then apply contact cement to both the underside of the laminate and to the counter and allow. nate and to the counter and allow to dry at least 45 minutes at 70 degrees or warmer. Place the laminate carefully on the counter, aligning edges first (once down, it'll never come up). Press down and roll evenly with a roller.

> Q. We're remodeling a very small kitchen. How can we fit a new electric range into it? Have you any other space-saving ideas?

A. Free-standing electric ranges come as small as 20 inches wide. Or you might install fold-back surface units, which leave counter space free when not in use, and a wall oven built into a cabinet. If you have an entryway or a little-used closet adjoining the kitchen, you may be able to re-move the walls and incorporate Q. Can I put plastic laminate over an old linoleum counter- be built into the former clearly that space into your kitchen. The electric oven, for instance, might be built into the former clearly

DETOUR-KEYSVILLE

Greetings to you:
This week I'm writing my column on Sunday evening because I expect to be kept well occupied tomorrow and Tuesday. You see, our Wayne and Ellen have a date at the Frederick Memorial Hospital tomorrow for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. noids. Any of you who have already been through this experience can well understand what I am expecting to face tomorrow. All will go well, I'm sure, but I know the two of them are not looking forward to it and they are the ones who will feel the pain. By the time you read this, however, they should be well recovered and be looking forward to returning to school the following week.

In the meantime, since I do not have many news items for you this early, I want to introduce you to a fine group of people. These are those involved with Cub Pack 459. I've mentioned them to you before and promised to tell you more about them.
Mr. Weeks, the Cub Master, has given me a list of names and I want to pass them on to you. You may know a lot of them yourselves. There are 4 Dens in this Pack. Den #1 has Dennis Rigler, Tommy Hyde, Tommy Scheu, Ronny Garver, Steven Wet-zell, and David Stine with Mrs. Ruth Rigler as Den Mother. Den #2 has Glenn Weeks, Steven Bowman, David Myers, Dennis Greenwood and Tommy Stambaugh with Mrs. Mary Margaret Bowman as Den Mother. Den #3 has Dickie Stultz, Eddie Stultz, Donald Stilty, Jr., Steven Singer. Michael Harris, Richard Persinger and Norman Murdorf, Jr., with Mrs. Yvon-ne Stultz as Den Mother. Den #4 has Gregory Clabaugh, Earl Turvin, Charles Turvin, Randy Houck, Wayne Fleharty, Ricky Sayler and Michael Grossnickle with Mrs. Anna Turvin and Mrs. Mildred Sayler as Den Mothers. The Cub Master is Mr. Berman Weeks, the Committee Chairman is Mr. Earl Myers, the Institutional Representative is Mr. Richard Gross-nickle and the two Committee Men are Mr. Richard Stultz and Pastor Donald Brake. This is a fine group and they are doing a grand job working with the boys. The boys learn so ing with the boys. The boys learn so many things — as I'm finding out first-hand with our Wayne having just recently joined — and they really do enjoy it.

Along the path of yesterday where memories abide,
We journey down a welcome lane with memories by our side.
We travel paths which we have made and wonder at the change Which time has made, unrealized, across life's open range. Along the path of yesterday friendly faces oft appear, And smiles of recollection bring these faces very near.

Life becomes a grand adventure as we travel down its lane,

Finding pleasure in the living, and bound with memory's chain.

So Little

It takes so little sunshine to bless a weary day. If we but raise our eyes lids to find the welcome ray. It takes so little kindness to help a tired one. And make the task seem lighter from morn 'till set of sun.
One smile, one word of gladness, may with a loved one stay through hours of weary working through all the busy day.

The other day after the crowd of cousins went to the station to see my cousin off to California and that by bus, I slipped in the Stanton to see "Gypsy" with Natalie Wood in the title role. That played for months in New York City before it was made into the Movie. Rosalind Russell as the Mother of two daughters who desires them to be "stage minded" as she had been in her younger days. They go from pillar to post trying hard to be successful in the beginning and it is indeed a hard road to travel. But Mother Rose is determined and she finally sends the eldest daughter, Louise into burlesque as a stripper! And sho nuff this gal strikes riches for she in no time is at the top of the ladder. She has a beautiful figure and a good head on her shoulders and she's in the know-how soon enough which delights Mother Rose. There is excellent dancing by a young man, Paul Wallace done with an imaginary partner which you will love. miss it as the coloring is beautiful, plus that grand w i d e, w i d e screen and all at the Stanton on N.

As I type away, Bobby is lying at my feet delighted with the cold, as then he realizes that I will remain indoors and keep him company. As I place on my house dress, he seems to realize as his tail starts wagging so pleased, "Now, you will have to remain in with me!" When I laugh aloud, his tail wags faster as much to say, "Good!" Study your dog, folks and you will soon learn his language and there is nothing difficult about that one. He will love you all the more!

So long until next week. D. V. Have a grand week-end. Always remember that it is much more difficult to be bad and so easy to be good - never reversed!

F B L A Schedules January Production of "Wedding Spells"

The F. B. L. A. Club has something new to offer the community and students here at T. H. S. On Friday and Saturday nights, January 11 and 12 at 8:00 P. M., a cast of juniors and seniors will present a three-act com-edy entitled, "Wedding Spells." Mr. Wayne Grubb and Mrs. Catherine Myers, the club's advisors, are directing the play.

The cast of characters are as folows: Chalmers Warehime-Steven Arlen, an adventurous, young man who has had recurrent lapses of memory and forgotten whom he has married; Steve Feeser-Charlie Cooney, a handsome, out-of-door type fellow and a friend of Steve's who aids in finding Steve's wife; Bonnie Brown-Mrs. Julia Pettingill, a flights, nearsighted, middle aged widow who adores men and tries her hand at Char-Travis Dutterer - Algernon Reeves, a typical English gentleman who is Steve's butler. Linda Lieb as Angelica Wayne, Paula Brauning as Frances Brown, Donna Eckard as Niki Murphy, Diana Fair as Billie, Frances Flohr as Ruth Auburn all play charming, young ladies who have been dating Steve. One has married him. Larry Glass as Blake, a police-man and Gloria Copenhaver as Mrs. Gay, Billie's fretful mother, round out the cast.

The action takes place at present in early Spring at a party in Steve Arlen's apartment in New York City. The play is centered around Steve, who has just returned from South America. How he lost his wife in Atlantic City and the entanglements he gets into with other women are only part of the fun.

Steve called on his old friend Charlie Cooney to help him out in find-ing his wife. He decided to have a party and ask Angelica, Frances, Niki, and Ruth, the four girls he has been dating, along with Mrs. Pettin gill, to keep an eye on Charlie. The girls become completely confused as scheming Steve used the lipstick flavor test to find the real Mrs. Steven Arlen in "Wedding Spells."

Comedy and mystery develop as Mrs. Pettingill find her purse and lorgnette stolen and Steve continues the search for his wife.

The F. B. L. A. Club and the cast want to make this play a successful one. It's the first production of this kind to be put on at T. H. S. in several years.

JANUARY — 1963

The old year of 1962, with its joys and sorrows, has ended. We stand now at the portals of the brand new year of 1963. The month of January officially ushers in the new year. Jan lary gets its name from an ancient Roman god, Janus. His name is derived from the Latin word, janua which means "gate" or "opening." As will be administered. Sermon: "The beginning of the Roman agricultural year, the first month of which, January, was dedicated to him. When the Gregorian calendar was adopted, January became the very first month of the year, consisting of 31 days. The Anglo-Saxons called it "wulfmonath," as the month during which hunger made the wolves bold enough to enter the villages.

For most of us today, January is a time for a fresh beginning. We feel that with the advent of a new year, God has given us all a clean page on which to record our daily living. Did we fall down in regular church attendance in 1962? Did we neglect to read the Bible daily? Were we selfish, demanding or unkind in the old year? With God's help, the new month of January can serve as a bright new gate-way to purer Christian living in the months that lie ahead. Weather-wise, January is probably ar most arctic month. Winter lets our most arctic month. Winter lets loose in all its fury with gusty winds and bitter cold. The land is locked in frozen embrace. Temperatures plunge down to the zero point and even below it. Powderly snow, driven by high winds, sifts and drifts across the fields and highways. Many families in isolated rural areas find thembeing, baby tribs, high charts, Raghes, baby tribs, lamps, dishes, and a lot more. Stop in and look! ABRA'S Garage, Keymar, Md. Phone: SPruce is a costly and difficult undertaking, indeed. Only children who anticipate days off from school due to the snow. or who wish to go ice skating or sledding, relish this kind of weather. It certainly presents numerous problems to those who must drive or work try scenes in the country, for example, closely resemble Currier and Ives paintings. Crystal lakes ponds are frosted over with a fluffy white covering. They look like huge frozen confections. Black tree trunks stand silhouetted against a snowy white background. Evergreens bow down beneath the weight of the ermine cloaks. Redbirds and blue jays brighten the wintry landscape. Whenever these things fail to cheer our flagging spirits, however, let us take heart and remember the old saying, "If winter comes, can spring be far behind?" -Zola Cantwell.

AUTO FATALITIES Nine persons were killed on Maryland highways last week according to the weekly survey published by the Maryland State Police.

Three of those killed were drivers; three were passengers; and three were pedestrians, two of whom were young sters on selds.

Alcohol was a contributing factor in three of the deaths; speed in one; and "driver error" was present in six. Colonel Carey Jarman, Superintendent of the Maryland State Police, comments as follows: "Highway safey has been given a rude jolt in 1962. With but one day remaining before the year is closed out, the record shows 586 deaths on Maryland highways—the highest total in twenty years. This record-breaking performance followed right on the heels of 1961, during which an 18-year low record of 461 deaths was established.

"Maryland's 20-year high in 1962, coupled with a nation-wide increase of nine percent this year over last, emphasizes the fact that there is much yet to be done before we can claim that we are going all-out to promote highway safety.

"Based on twenty-five weekly surveys made by the State Police, three areas stand out as requiring much more attention, namely: Alcohol—a factor in 44 percent of all highway deaths; Speed—a factor in 41 percent; 'Driver Error'a factor in 80 percent.

"To adequately focus attention on the influence alcohol has on the motor vehicle operator, legislation must be forthcoming that will (a.) Provide for mandatory tests of those suspected of driving under the influence; and (b.) Reduce substantially the blood alcohol level at which an operator is presumed by law to be under the influence of alcohol.

"To deal with the speed problem requires more rigid enforcement of the law and the application of greater deterrence by the courts.

"Driver error, a category which includes violations of all the fundament rules of the road, emphasizes the need for an educational program aimed at the improvement of all drivers.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OPEN NEW SANITARY LAND FILL

The County Commissioners have announced the opening of a new sanitary land fill to serve the Manchester area as well as those areas north of Westminster. Located on the east side of Md. Rt. 496 (New Bachmans Valley Rd.) just east of Saw Mill Road, the new site consists of a large quarry area to be used for the disposal of trash. As is the rule elsewhere at county land fills no stumps, brush, or old buildings will be allowed in the new area. The land fill location is marked at the entrance of New Bachmans Valley Road.

Previously closed by the County was a location at Ebbvale used by the County for a number of years.

Other land fill locations presently open for public use are at Old West-minster Rd. (Rt. 27) south of West-minster, Streaker Road west of Berrett, and Bark Hill Road west of

UNCOMMONLY COMMON

There are few things you see more frequently than the telephone. Virtually everybody has one.

This is what makes your phone so uncommonly useful.

Friends, neighbors, stores, doctors, business associates -you name it-can be reached so easily by telephone. You save time, trips to town and all kinds of trouble.

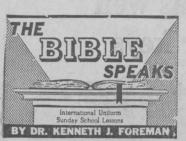

Your phone gives you convenience that's indispensable -that can often make the impossible possible.

That's why low-cost telephone service is so uncommonly high in value.

Jesus Beginning Lesson for January 13, 1963

JESUS of Nazareth always had grumblers or complainers in his audience. They could always find fault-though that was no discredit to him. God on high has many self-appointed critics, but imagine what some of Jesus' listeners might have said when Jesus preached his first sermons. Neither Dr. Foreman Matthewnor Mark gives us a whole sermon, only a sketch of his general line. The reader who will compare Matthew 3:2 with Matt. 4:17 can guess what the unfriendly listener might say: "There's nothing new here, I've heard this before." Word for word, the report of what John preached is just what Jesus preached. The Master added something, but it did not change the fact that-at first-what Jesus Jesus preached was so much like what John preached that you might be tempted to call it an echo. Carrying On Mark connects Jesus' beginning to preach with the arrest of John the Baptist. As long as John was preaching, Jesus remained in silence. When John's brave voice was shut into the dungeon of Herod's castle, then Jesus came into Galilee and preached. It should not surprise us that Jesus had a message so much the same as John's. It was not that Jesus was an echo or that he had no mind of his own. Rather, he evi-dently felt that what John had proclaimed still needed saying. It was of the utmost importance that as many as possible should hear the news, should be faced with the demand. The Kingdom of God is at hand! Repent! Believe! This was no light matter. Human destinies depended on whether people were ready for the Kingdom, whether their wills and purposes were attuned to God's.

Prayer and Planning

Jesus did not spend all his time preaching. When a woodsman has a hard day ahead of him, he does not rush out and start chopping. He spends some time in sharpening his axe.

So it was with Jesus. One of the first things we hear of his doing, was to call certain fishermen to be his followers. Some people think that the little scene by the lakeside, pictured in few words by Mark, was the whole story: Jesus just walked up to four total strangers and said, "Follow me." Other Bible students see this incident as part of a longer story, most of it untold, of gradual acquaintance, climaxing in this definite "call." However that may be, it is clear that Jesus was already planning ahead for the days when he would no longer be on this earth as he then was. To put it in one word, he was thinking ahead to the church. If the life of Jesus in Chapter One in the great story of Christianity, the rest of the chapters are the life and adventures of the Church. Jesus was already thinking into the distant future, when he began to choose his Twelve.

Before everything else

Mark first mentions Jesus' prayers after all the healings at Capernaum, after the calling of some of his disciples and the casting out of a demon in the synagogue. But it is likely that Jesus would have put off praying till then? Mark, the shortest of the Gospels, does not try to tell us everything -and neither did the other three gospel-writers. Luke tells us that Jesus was praying at the time of his baptism; and we may be sure that that was not the first time. Along with planning, ahead of planning, goes prayer. Knowing what we do about Jesus, we can be sure he did not just make his plans first and then ask his Father to approve. The best planning is that which takes God in-not as a postscript, a formal last minute unnecessary bit of religious courtesy. The best planning is that which consults with God first, makes the plan step by step with prayerful listening to hear Cod's whisper. If Jesus found it so important to pray that he would rise before dawn to find time for it, surely the ordinary Christian needs to pray even more. For prayer is not only telling God what we want -he knows that already. It is listening for him to tell us what

You Can Overcome Winter Driving Hazards

Skidding causes more than half of all accidents on snowy or Skidding causes more than half of all accidents on snowy or icy roads, as tires may lose all but 10 per cent of their grip. With less traction, there is less chance for a sudden move to duck out of a tight spot. Snow tires restore 27 per cent of lost friction, while chains restore about 40 per cent of full tire traction.

During winter, be prepared for a skid. Adjust speed to fit driving conditions. If your car should start to skid, keep calm and turn the steering wheel in the direction of the skid. Accelerate slowly and, at the same time, with your left foot pump the brake lightly. As the car begins to straighten out, gradually straighten the front gradually straighten the front wheels. Ease up on the gas ped-al, letting the engine slow the car. If you must stop, continue pumping the brake lightly. Al-ways avoid sudden turns, stops, and acceleration. Steering should be slow and smooth.

Safety experts at Johns-Manville's Brake Linings Division maintain that the best way to slow a car on icy and snowy pavements is to pump the brakes. This recommendation is based upon brakes working effectively, which can be assured only by periodic inspection, pro-shields wipers, defroster, lights, directional signals and horn.

Practical motorists should:

Heed all warning signs and look out for vehicles stalled or out of control, particularly on hills. Keep your eyes on the road and observe traffic patterns ahead and to the rear. Consider the whole traffic pat-tern, not just the cars immediately ahead.

Let honking motorists or those close to rear of your car or coming up fast, pass—they are far less dangerous in front. Remember that wet ice at 32° is twice as slippery as at zero when it's dry

Pineapple, Shrimp And Rice In ³ Glamorous Party Entree

Bright slices of canned pineapple are combined with rosy shrimp and fluffy white rice to make this truly exotic entree for fall. Curry powder, soy sauce and chopped preserved ginger add elegant notes of flavor. Diced cooked ham is a hearty addition. Pineapple Shrimp Pacifica is designed to play the starring role at luncheon or dinner parties the year round. Crusty rolls and green salad are popular and delicious accompaniments.

PINEAPPLE SHRIMP PACIFICA

1 (1-pound 4-ounce) can sliced pineapple cup long grain rice cups rich chicken stock 1 teaspoon salt % cup peanut or mild cooking

I large clove garlic, minced

1 green pepper, cut in strips
1½ cups diced cooked ham
2 teaspoons curry powder 2 teaspoons soy sauce

2 tablespoons chopped pre-served ginger 1½ pounds cleaned cooked shrimp 2 sliced green onions Remove 2 slices and ½ cup syrup from can of pineapple. Chill remaining pineapple. Combine rice, chicken stock and salt Bring to boil. Cover and turn heat very low. Simmer 26 minutes. Fluff up rice with fork. Meanwhile heat oil with garlic, onion, green pepper and ham. Cook until vegetables are shiny looking but still crispish. Blend curry powder, soy sauce, reserved ½ cup pineapple syrup and preserved ginger • Stir into vegetable mixture and heat through. Add cooked rice, shrimp, green omons and the 2 pineapple slices, cut into pieces. Toss and heat until well mixed and thoroughly heated. Serve on warm platter. Garnish with chilled pineapple slice. Make: about 6 servings. 1 medium onion, chopped

HEALTH HINTS FOR THE FAMILY WET COUGHS

by Margaret Little*

A cough is a cough and every cough is a nuisance, something to get rid of as fast as possible. But all coughs are not alike; difter than thick and sticky. ferent things cause them and different treatments make them better.

Some coughs are wet. There is mucus down in the respiratory passageways and the body's purpose in making you cough is to raise up the mucus and get rid of it. A simple expectorant cough medicine will certainly make it easier to raise this mucus.

A wet cough should never be treated with a cough medicine that has a narcotic in it. Such a medicine may do more harm than good because it acts on the cough center in the brain; it doesn't do a thing for the mucus doesn't do a thing for the mucus that is causing the trouble, and, in addition, narcotics are apt to be habit-forming.

Quite small children are apt to cough up mucus, but instead of spitting it out, they swallow rather than thick and sticky.

eased with a vaporizer. Need-less to say, if the cough doesn't improve in a day or two, better it. Of course it's better to spit it out, but it's hard to persuade some children to do this. It doesn't seem to do a child much harm to swallow the mucus, but his certainly easier for him to doctor right away.

ANNAPOLIS REPORT

STATE SENATOR E. O. WEANT, JR.

This is the first of a series of weekly reports to be made by your correspondent on the deliberations of the Maryland General Assembly which convened in Annapolis on Wednesday, January 2. Your reporter, along with the Carroll County Members of the House of Delegates, Thomas R. O'Farrell, Wilbur W. Magin, Wm. Dulany and Jacob M. Yinging, were on hand for the opening meeting.

Trial Magistrates, Uniform Laws and Vandalism. As these subjects are brought before the various Committees of the General Assembly we will try to inform our readers of the effect of as many as possible. If any of our readers has a specific interest in a particular Bill, we will be happy to furnish copies of same upon request as long as they are available.

There will also be local legislation considered in these columns as time duction of 24 Bills in the Senate and 18 Bills in the House. As in the past we will attempt to bring to your attention what we consider the hap-elected a new Treasurer of Maryland.

The first Bills which will be considered grow out of the studies made by the Legislative Council during the time between the last Session of the ated by Delegate Jacob M. Yingling, time between the last Session of the General Assembly and the opening of this Session. These bills cover such subjects as Assessors, Condemnation, Condominium, Constitutional Commission, Fiscal Year, Ground Rents, Higher Education, Illegitimacy, Insurance, Local Health Services, Motor Vehicles, Narcotics, Nurses, Oysters, Patients' Fees, Poll Tax Amendment, Real Estate Investment Trusts, Register of Wills, Retirement, Roads, Sanity Pleas, Sheriff's Fees,

These questions and others are the kind faced by every person sooner or later, and by a rapidly increasing number of people today.

And while answers are able in government pamphlets, consumer magazines and other media. it was left for William and Ellen Hartley to bring all the information together in one easy-to-read volume, "Your Important Years; the Beltone Book of Golden Age Living," published by Popular Library.

THIS BOOK, sponsored by the Beltone Hearing Aid Company, will go on sale in bookstores and on newsstands Oct. 1. It is one result of Beltone's extensive interest in the problems of older people, but it is completely non-commercial.
