MEETING OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

Many Items of Business Transacted

A regular meeting of the Carroll County Board of Education was held in the Board Offices on Tuesday, Oct. 13, with President DeVries R. Herzig presiding.

The Board considered and approved the minutes of the September meeting and the financial transactions of the month.

The Board was in receipt of several letters of appreciation from school and Parent-Teacher groups with respect to work accomplished in improving the physical conditions in a number of schools during the summer.

The Board heard a brief report in connection with a survey of railroad crossings throughout the county and was given a copy of a state report covering a state-wide consideration of this problem. It was directed that efforts be continued to make school bus drivers conscious of the need for extreme care in crossing the railroad crossings throughout the county.

Approval was given for the graduation dates for June, 1960, in the seven senior high school organizations throughout the county as follows: North Carroll High School, Greenmount, Md., June 2; Westminster High School and Robert Moton High School, Westminster, Md., June 3; Francis Scott Key High School, Uniontown, and Mt. Airy High School, Mt. Airy, June 6; Sykesville High School, Sykesville, and Taneytown High School, Taneytown, June 7.

The Board gave approval for the distribution of library and other funds on a per-pupil basis as worked out by the County Offices. These funds are provided to assist the schools in improving the school libraries and in protecting the physical education and other extra curricular programs; and to decrease to as great an extent as possible the money-raising activities to be carried on locally.

Considerable time was devoted during the meeting to discussion and analysis of the school budget for the school year 1960-61 and the calendar year 1960. The Board finds itself faced with vastly increased demands for physical improvements in the schools and continued effort on the part of parent and other groups to improve the educational opportunities within the local schools. This continues to be a problem of serious proportions since the needs for increased services and supplies happens at a time when increased costs are affecting every area of school service.

The Board gave considerable time to a consideration of a salary improvement request from the Carroll County Teachers' Association and deferred final decision on this matter until the final budget approval meeting which (Continued on Page 5)

A LETTER

My Dear Son:-
Now, that you have resigned from the teaching profession hearing the Voice of God calling you to be one of His Shepherds, I humbly pray that you will live up to the calling and to be the kind of Shepherd that your Sheep will follow!

I recall when you were a little boy of seven years of age with your two younger brothers asking me one night before retiring what I would like as to a profession for each one of you to follow when graduation days were over.

You may recall to this question, I replied, "Whatever you desire to be and you surely will know by that time, I am sure. There are always drawbacks in any position regardless of the type but learn to like what you are doing!"

Somehow, dear I felt that you would be a Minister in the years to come even when you started out with your Law studies and after one year you switched quickly to the State Teacher's College saying "Mother, there are too many studying Law and there is such a shortage of school teachers!"

God's business is the most wonderful business in the world and I am most confident that you will succeed. You have always been a good boy.

A Minister is really three persons in one. The Minister to minister, a Preacher for the Sermons and the Pastor for the caller-and all those three loving his work!

There may be times when things are a little discouraging but then other things arise-things of joy which make happiness and all so wholesome.

You should remember of so many experiences in all the Parsonages in which we have lived. Being patient, I think is one of the big essential things with a constant listening ear where you may be of help. Help-to a weaker brother bowed down with the sordid cares of life. May you never be too busy, dear or preoccupied with your own affairs to stop and offer a helping hand and a courageous word! In other words you must give all of you at any time.

I hope your wife will enjoy all this new experience as I know she will love sitting by your side just as I did when I married your Father. Being the Shepherdess is really worth while and pays such big dividends in love!

How happy I was to Mother you three little boys ages four, six and seven and it sort of clinched things when you said, sweetly, "Won't you marry Father so as you can be my Mother?" And I think you know just what I mean!

It was love all down through the years and it was always wonderful never to use that word of "Step" for we soon found out it was the Blood Lines that did not count but the LOVE LINES!

There are so many happy memories, dear and somehow as I reminisce, I wish it was all over again when we were-oh-so close!

Remember when we went roller skating, played ball and sat in the row at the Coliseum in Baltimore gazing upon the Wrestling matches? How thrilled you boys were and such a treat for me to take you.

Remember our first Christmas together in the Parsonage? That one is something to remember! It was so beautiful! And that big turkey which was left at the front door and it took so long to discover from whom the bird came and then we found that it was the Commander of The American Legion who delivered it to us.

I was always so thrilled to receive all the fine reports from your school and the highlight was when you graduated with Distinction from the Phoenix State Teacher's College. And when you phoned to me to come for the graduation and that I could not do on account of the expensive trip to and fro to Arizona. That one I regret with all my heart!

There will be many sacrifices which you must endure with your little family but you won't mind it at all for it is really the love doing for others constantly which counts and you can shoulder everything beautifully.

I pray that God Will Direct and continue to (guide) you in all your efforts!

Do you recall the Members of the churches stating your Father could preach more in twenty minutes than most Ministers preach in one hour?

I will continue to pray, dear that I may live to place my hand upon your head in the Ordination Service along with the Bishop's, the District Superintendent's and your wife's hand.

My love and prayers are with you always.

Your loving Mother, Irene.

PLASTIC BAGS—MENACE TO CHILDREN

As cool-weather clothes are brought out of storage this season, coverings of plastic bags again become a menace to children. This warning is made in an article by Beatrice Schaper in Today's Health, an American Medical Association publication.

An electrostatic charge may be generated by friction from handling the bag. The youngster, while peering through, is apt to have the bag literally grab him through the electrical attraction to his face. The child cannot tear it. Death by suffocation may result—as it has in tragic instance after tragic instance during the past year.

The bags should never, under any circumstances, be used for makeshift coverings for pillows, blankets or mattresses in baby carriages, playpens or cribs.

The child should never be given the opportunity to handle one of these bags. That means that when they are removed from clothing, they should immediately be shredded, or tied in knots and put in a tightly covered disposal can.

The bags can prove as lethal as a loaded gun or a bottle of poison—and should be so treated.

FACTS AND OPINIONS

Henry Hazlitt writes in Newsweek: "Contrary to a widely held opinion, 'fact-finding' does not unerringly indicate what the 'right' settlement of a wage dispute should be. There is no scientific formula by which we can determine a 'correct' price or a 'just' wage. In a free economy, prices and wages are determined by supply and demand. Competition and comparative incentives determine particular wages, prices, and cost-price relationships. It is failure to recognize this that brings political pressures for compulsory arbitration. This would lead directly into government wage- and price-fixing, throw every wage and price into politics, and finally produce the suffocating controls of a totalitarian economy."

There are nearly 3,000 shopping centers in the United States.

Here's how the average consumer dollar was spent last year, according to the Department of Commerce: Housing 13 per cent; food, beverages and tobacco 29 per cent; clothing 8 per cent; household operation 6 per cent; furnishings and household equipment 6 per cent; automobiles and parts, gas and oil, 9 per cent; transportation 3 per cent; miscellaneous 26 per cent.

Postmaster General Summerfield told a Senate subcommittee of the obscenity in the mails problem. According to him, as many as 1 million children—one out of every 35 children of school age—will receive "pornographic filth in the family mailbox" this year. In the 1959 fiscal year, his department received more than 70,000 complaints mostly from parents, as against 50,000 a year earlier. He says that tighter laws are needed.

Two atomic powered submarines capable of firing the Polaris missile from sub or surfaced positions have been launched—the George Washington and the Patrick Henry.

The New York Times says editorially "...the performance of the Soviet press in its coordinated effort to discredit the authenticity of the American Exposition can be overlooked only at our peril.... The Soviet press attacked our exhibition, denounced the American guides there as liars, and in general strove frantically to neutralize our exhibition's impact on the Soviet people. There is nothing in this unhappy performance to suggest in the slightest that Premier Khrushchev's regime really wishes the Soviet people to know the truth about the United States or to further the sincere mutual understanding which is required for durable peace."

According to National Petroleum News, gasoline demand is expected to rise again in 1960. But with the forecast that two out of every seven cars sold will be the smaller ones, oil marketers will have to wait to see how big the gain will be.

In the view of Senator Bridges, the future welfare of the railroads cannot be left to "stop-gap" or "patch-and-mend" legislation enacted in emergencies. He said that railroad and other carriers should be permitted to have the same freedom of action other industries enjoy, and added that the Transportation Act of 1958 had not helped the railroads as had been anticipated.

WASHINGTON AND

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

A constant query from readers of this column is as follows: "Why is it that my small business must pay out so much in taxes. Where does the money go?"

It is perhaps, in answer to that question, well to ponder the situation in Nepal. No one should be embarrassed if they have never heard of Nepal, because lots of people have never heard of it. Actually, it is a small little country of some 8½ million people between India and Himalaya mountains with rich forests and farms.

But now the fact that many people have not heard of this little land does not mean too much, because the International Cooperation Administration, the current name for the foreign give away set up has heard of it.

In fact, the ICA has something like 50 people working in Nepal. Half of them are in the Grade 4 or better salary grade. In fact these fifty people are drawing down from foreign give away administration funds anywhere from $6,000 to $18,700 per year, largely tax exempt.

Now there are all kinds of "experts" on the payroll including such functionaries as home economic advisors, community development advisors, health education advisors. In fact, it appears that there are just lots of Americans sitting around on big tax free salaries all day long advising the people of Nepal on practically everything. Whether or not the people of Nepal want advice is another matter.

And in the event the people of Nepal get worn out from this tening to so much advice from so many "experts" from America, they presumably can relax occasionally as the foreign give away administration also maintains a recreation supervisor.

Now here is one nation where it appears that whatever they get out of the give away deal, most of it is merely advice.

According to data available, over the past ten years ICA has allocated to this little country around $10 million, or some where around a million dollars per year.

Now the salaries for this corps of advisors, plus other fringe benefits thrown in, must run well over a half million dollars per year, so little free goods goes to Nepal.

But the cost of giving advice is what hurts in this instance.

It would perhaps be far cheaper to give every resident of Nepal a few addressed and stamped envelopes every year and let them write to Washington whenever they want any advice.

Then the American advisors could be brought home, perhaps find jobs in private industry, pay taxes on their salaries.

On the second thought, it is possible that American private business has all the advisors they need, and those the foreign give away program sent to Nepal are surplus advisors something like surplus U. S. corn.

But it still is hard to imagine what 8½ million people of Nepal do with over a half million dollars worth of free American advice every year. Perhaps some of these advisors should be brought home to advise the American taxpayer why he should foot the bill for giving out with such free advice. That would be, undoubtedly, a most fascinating venture.

CURRENT EVENTS
FIFTY YEARS AGO

The corn crop in general is turning out better than was expected, as is usually the case—more grumble than cause for it.

We are glad to announce that Rev. C. W. Christman has been returned by the United Brethren Conference to the Taneytown charge.

Carroll County Jurors. List of jurors drawn on Monday for the November term of court. Taneytown—Harry E. Reck, Henry M. Null, Charles R. Hockensmith, David S. Clauser. Uniontown—William W. Wright, Jesse E. Warner, Charles P. Welk, Joseph C. Dodger.

Bricker-Bower.—On Wednesday in Baltimore Mr. William F. Bricker, and Miss Bernice R. Bower, a popular young couple of Taneytown, were quietly married by Rev. David T. Neely a Presbyterian minister of Baltimore. Announcements of the marriage were issued, on Thursday, and caused some surprise, though the event was not unexpected, even if the secret of the exact time was well-kept. Mr. and Mrs. Bricker will visit New York and other places, and return home the latter part of next week. The best wishes of many friends attend them in their matrimonial contract.

(Advertisement) Notice to Corporation Taxpayers. I will be at the Commissioner's Office, in Fireman's Building, on October 30, and Nov. 6 and 13, from 1 till 4 o'clock, to receive taxes for Levy of 1909. All parties in arrears, please come and make settlement. Burgess S. Miller, Collector.

Frizellburg.—As a community we have nothing to regret in the expenditures for gasoline street lamps, which were put into service, here almost one year ago. I think we ought to congratulate ourselves to know we have such a modern improvement.—Ercy Harver is making preparations to raise the frame of his barn, this Saturday.—Dr. Bates, our physician has discontinued practice and is selling off some of his household effects at private sale. He expects to locate in New Jersey. We regret to see him go as this community can hardly do without a doctor.

Tyrone.—The people of our neighborhood were somewhat surprised to learn that two of our young folks were married, while attending the Hagerstown fair, even on the sly to the ones who were traveling with them. The contracting parties were Mr. Luther Zimmerman and Miss Maude Philipps, both of this place.

GOB HUMOR

(From Mira, Puerto Rico)

The pastor of a church on the outskirts of town phoned the local board of health to ask that a dead mule be removed from in front of his house. The young clerk thought he'd be smart.

"I thought you clergymen took care of the dead," he remarked.

"We do," answered the pastor, "but we get in touch with their relatives first."

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:

$500,000,000 LOSS

TO THE NATION—INCLUDING YOU—EVERY YEAR

Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year.

You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy.

Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman — even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend.

The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation.

In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

DIED

MRS. ALBERT A. FROCK
Mrs. Bernice O. Frock, 72, wife of Albert A. Frock, died suddenly Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 13, 1959, at her home, 139 Carlisle St., Gettysburg. Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said the death was caused by a heart attack apparently suffered at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Frock had gone to a restaurant for lunch and then returned to her home to "take a nap." She was found about 7 o'clock Tuesday night lying across her bed.

A native of Taneytown, she was a daughter of the late Thomas and Adelaide (Fr) Angell and had resided in Gettysburg since 1913. She was employed as a housekeeper at the Sigma Chi fraternity home for 12 years and worked for some time for the State Department of Public Assistance.

She was a member of St. James Lutheran Church, Pocahontas Lodge of Hanover and the Auxiliary of the Warner Hospital.

Besides her husband she is survived by a son, E. Ross Koons, York Springs; two grandchildren, Charles Koons, Arlington, Va., and Mrs. Helmut Spahn, Mannheim, Germany; a brother, Walter Angell, Gettysburg, and three step-children: Russell Frock, York; Levi Frock, Union Bridge, Md.; and Mrs. Wayne Helman, Landsale.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, Oct. 17, 1959, at two o'clock from the Bender Funeral Home with the Rev. Dr. Paul Reaser and the Rev. Norbert Stracker, of New Rochelle, N. J., officiating. Interment in Sunnyside Cemetery, York Springs.

noted that the Association of Md. School Boards had been instrumental in bringing about increased interest in and improvement of the school situations throughout the State. The Annapolis meeting had been presided over by Mr. David Harry, President of the Associated School Boards and Mr. Theodore Reinke of Dorchester County had been elected as the new president for 1959-60.

Attention of the Board was also called to the coming session of the Md. State Teachers Association to be held in Baltimore on October 15, 16, 17, and to a recent conference of High School Principals and Supervisors held on October 3, 9, as well as the forthcoming meeting of Elementary Principals and Supervisors scheduled for November 12, 13. Announcement was made regarding the sessions of the Md. Congress of Parents and Teachers to be held in Baltimore on November 5 and 6 as well as the State-wide Maryland Conference on Education for Lay Citizens being organized and planned for November 19 and 20. It is expected that the local Board of Education will be represented at many of these meetings.

The attention of the Board was also called to the release of recent publications prepared by a committee of educators, including the school superintendents of the state, recently made public on September 18 in a public statement by Jerome Frampton, Jr., President of the Md. State Board of Education. Booklets outlining this plan were distributed to Board members with the hope that county-wide publicity can be given to the plan for insuring more adequate support of school activities throughout the state by increasing the participation of the state in sharing the costs of education. Mr. Frampton's statement emphasized the fact that it has been traditionally true throughout the history of public education in Maryland that the State and local units have shared the responsibility for the support of education and that this program has worked to the general benefit of education, but has now become obsolete because of many factors which have influenced the school population and tax bases throughout the State. It was noted in the statement also that vastly increased school populations have confronted the school administrators of the state and that the problems confronting the schools have multiplied in the same proportion. The demand for improved and expanded education in the state has resulted in large increased expenditures for public education and the increase in school costs in general and salary costs in particular have brought about an imbalance in school expenditures per-pupil and in teachers' salaries, thus creating a great disparity in the quality and quantity of education throughout the state. The Board invites public interest in the plan which has been devised with the hope of creating a considerable amount of public support for improving the quality of education by these means.

The Carroll County Board finds itself faced at this time with the problems of increased demands for school services, rising costs for both services and materials and necessity for more adequate support for either local or state sources. A great deal of time in the Board meeting was devoted to these discussions. The superintendent was directed to continue his efforts to work with the professional staff throughout the county in securing greater public understanding of the problems confronting Carroll County with respect to financial support for the school program.

Adjournment was at 4:15 p. m.

BASEBALL
TANEYTOWN NINE CAPTURES SERIES

Taneytown staved off a ninth inning rally to turn back Fairfield, 6-4, last Sunday afternoon at Memorial Park, Taneytown, and capture the Shaughnessy playoff championship of the Pen-Mar Sandlot Baseball League.

A large crowd saw the visitors score once and load the bases in their last-ditch bid before veteran right-hander Bob Weaver worked his way out of trouble.

It was Taneytown's second victory in the best-of-three series. The Carroll Counties gained their finals by downing Blue Ridge Summit in a playoff for fourth place, then eliminated Hanover, 2-1, in the Shaughnessy semifinals. Fairfield's semifinal victim was Boonsboro, the loop pennant-winner. Sunday's score:

their "Total Television Audience". They'll learn about it through you and your opinions as represented in the results obtained from a viewing "diary" which has been sent to several Carroll County residents by the nation's leading television research company—The American Research Bureau, Inc.

Beginning on the 25th of October and running through November 21, families selected through a complex scientific system of mathematical sampling, will begin keeping a week's record of the programs they watch, which members of the family view each program and how long they watch the show. They'll also answer a few questions about themselves and will have the opportunity of expressing their opinions about present-day TV programming.

These "diaries" will then be mailed to ARB's Research Center in the suburbs of Washington, D. C., where the information will be punched into electronic data cards and processed through Remington-Rand's latest electronic marvel—"UNIVAC 90". Within minutes, printed results will come forth which will give (for the first time) a complete picture of the viewing habits of families in every county in the United States including Alaska and Hawaii.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

Just in case you are more than fed up on that post-season corn we've been getting from the Garst acres at Coon Rapids, Ia., we shift the scene to Lemon Grove, Calif., and the frustrations of gathering newspaper "art" in this otherwise idyllic community:

"Max and I (Max is Max Goodwin, publisher of this newspaper and my boss) were discussing pictorial coverage of the opening of school last week," writes staff factotum, Don Wilson.

"Go to a kindergarten," Max said, "and take a picture. Even an idiot would find it impossible to get a good human interest picture in a kindergarten."

"(I hasten to explain that Max didn't mean that I am an idiot. He just meant that it should be real easy to . . . oh, well.)

"And go over to the junior high school and get a picture of a boy and girl holding hands," he said. "Boys and girls always hold hands. It would make a good picture."

"So I took my camera and went to one of the grammar schools. I tiptoed into one room and asked the teacher if I could take pictures."

"Certainly," she said - then made me wait until she cleaned off the blackboard because her handwriting was a little messy . . . then I walked over to the kindergarten.

"Wanting to be inconspicuous and get real candid shots of the kiddies, I held my camera behind me and slipped into the room. I whispered to the teacher . . .

"She clapped her hands loudly and shouted: 'CHILDREN, THIS IS MR. WILSON! HE'S GOING TO TAKE PICTURES FOR THE NEWSPAPERS!'

"Then I went over to the junior high school. I wandered around a long time looking for a boy and a girl holding hands.

"I didn't find any boys holding hands with any girls.

"I couldn't even find a boy talking to a girl. The boys all seemed to congregate in boys-only bunches and the girls in girls-only bunches.

"Even when school let out for the day the kids lined up to get on buses - boys in one line, girls in another.

" . . . Maybe it was the weather. Or maybe it was just that this was the first day of school and none of the youngsters had relaxed yet.

"Maybe next week. I'll go back and see."

Our wish for Mr. Wilson is that next week he comes upon a young lady with pigtails (and in a gingham dress) who is unaware that the boy sitting behind her is dipping a braid in his inkwell - also a dog whose boy can't persuade him to go home.

WITH OUR ARMED FORCES

(AHTNC)—Army 2d. Lt. Gene L. Michaels, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Michaels, Union Bridge, Md., recently completed the officer basic course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga. During the ten-week course Lt. Michaels and other newly commissioned officers who have not yet served with troops, were familiarized with the duties and responsibility of an infantry unit commander. A member of Gammon Beta Chi fraternity, he was graduated from Elmer A. Wolfe High School in 1954 and from Western Maryland College in 1958. Lt. Michaels was an art teacher for the Baltimore County Board of Education in Towson before entering the Army.

Series E and H Savings Bonds Rates Increased

On September 22, 1959, President Eisenhower signed legislation passed by Congress and approved the Treasury's recommendations to increase the interest on U.S. Savings Bonds from 3 1/4 per cent to 3 1/2 per cent, retroactive to June 1, 1959.

Improvements in Series E and H Bonds, Effective June 1, 1959. New Series E bonds with issue dates of June 1, 1959, and thereafter, will earn 3 1/2 per cent compounded semiannually if held until maturity 7 years, 9 months, from issue date.

New Series H bonds with issue dates of June 1, 1959, and thereafter, will earn 3 1/2 per cent if held until maturity 10 years from issue date. It still remains a current income bond issue at par, redeemable at par.

Yields on Old Bonds Increased. All outstanding E and H bonds purchased prior to June 1, 1959, will earn at least 1 1/2 per cent more than before, starting with the first semi-annual interest period beginning on or after June 1, 1959, and held to maturity.

The President, in approving the legislation, took the opportunity to reaffirm his "enthusiastic support of the Savings Bonds Program."

"This is one of our country's finest and most worthwhile activities," he continued. "It contributes to the sound management of the nation's finances. It gives millions of American families the opportunity to save safely and regularly - while investing in the nation's future. To my mind there is no better way of saving, no more effective way of strengthening our power for peace, than to own United States Savings Bonds. To buy these bonds is to express faith in America. It helps provide the economic strength in both our Government and in individual families on which our freedom depends. I hope that the making of both old and new savings bonds even more attractive will serve as a renewed invitation to every citizen to buy and hold these 'Shares in America.'"

Every little boy can't wait to get to be a man. Why, then, do so many men keep on acting like little boys?

FELLOW MILK PRODUCERS:

We are a group of producers who ship into the Baltimore market. We want more money for our product, not less—just as you do.

The recommended Federal Milk Order for the so-called Upper Chesapeake Bay Area (in reality, the Baltimore Market) will do a lot more harm than good. Here's why:

The recommended Order will cost us 5c per cwt. out of our present checks just to pay for administration of the order.

The recommended Order will eliminate all can shippers—EVERYONE will be forced to go to bulk tank shipments.

The recommended Order provides for Market-wide pooling. Why should Pennsylvania PRODUCERS be allowed to lower our blend prices whenever it's to their advantage to do so?

The recommended Order ties us to Philadelphia, New York and Chicago pricing. Because of their EXCESS SURPLUS, this HAS to LOWER our prices, unless we have an Individual Handler Pool.

The Maryland Cooperative Milk Producers, Inc., in their exceptions to the recommended Order, has asked for provisions for new producers in the area. DON'T WE HAVE ENOUGH SURPLUS ALREADY?

We have asked the COOP for a list of their shippers, but they have refused to submit such a list to us. What is the COOP trying to hide?

EVERYONE SHOULD HAVE A RIGHT TO VOTE—and feel that members to the COOP should INSIST on voting as individual farmers. COOP VOTES FOR THE MEMBERS—AS A UNIT.

EVERYONE SHOULD HAVE A RIGHT TO VOTE—and we feel that members of the COOP should INSIST on voting as individual farmers. So, if you're a member of the COOP, make your wishes known—fill in the blank on this page and mail it to us. We'll make sure your wishes are made known to the Department of Agriculture conducting the referendum. If you have any fears about COOP big shots finding out who you are—DON'T WORRY—we'll protect your name. Voting is by secret ballot and it is against the law to reveal the name of any voter.

Let the COOP know how you stand NOW—drop them a line now and tell them that you're against the recommended Order.

Clip the blank—and get it in the mail today. Voting time's getting short!

Brave Men

Lesson for October 25, 1959

CHRISTIANS have always had a tradition of courage. But there is a special quality about Christian courage that gives it distinction.

Two of the original Apostles, Peter and John, demonstrated a specially Christian variety of bravery when they bearded the Sanhedrin. The experience would have frightened almost any one. The men whom Peter and John faced at their trial were the very same who had "legally" murdered Jesus only a few weeks before this time. The Sanhedrin was a combination of Pope, Supreme Court and Cabinet. They were the supreme authority in the land. They could get people killed. Nobody would think of "bucking" them. Yet Peter and John did exactly that.

Dr. Foreman

There Is One Higher

One special feature of Christian courage is that it is not frightened by high authority. When asked how he managed to have the nerve to defy Hitler, Martin Niemöller (who had been a naval officer under Hitler) said, "It was simple. I had a higher Fuehrer, a higher Leader." Christians always know that above every human, earthly authority they have an allegiance to the All-Highest. They may realize that human authorities can make it very unpleasant for them; but that makes no difference.

Take the case of Ambrose, a bishop of Milan nearly seventeen centuries ago. Emperor Theodosius appeared one morning at the bishop's church, expecting the red-carpet treatment as usual. But not this time. For Ambrose was at the door and would not let the emperor in. Theodosius as emperor had just been in a war. Ambrose was not a pacifist, but he knew that his royal highness Theodosius had slaughtered over 7,000 people in the city of Thessalonica, — most of whom were non-combatants. That was a war-crime. Bishop Ambrose pointed out. It was like the slaughters of old King David. "And you must do penance as David did," he said, "or I will never admit you to my church." The emperor could have killed Ambrose; he had killed many for less; but Ambrose's courage conquered him. He actually did public penance, too, and there were no more slaughters of the innocent.

Two Thousand Tumults

"I have put down two thousand tumults," said another Christian preacher, at the close of his life which had been packed with narrow escapes. His name was John Calvin. Starting out as a student and writer, a shy sort of scholar, he had been drafted into becoming a virtual dictator of a city that needed a dictator if one ever did. The city threw him out, but before long they discovered they could not get along without him, and persuaded him to return. He had a different kind of courage, the courage needed by a man in authority, in high position.

Against Madness

If one kind of Christian courage is to stand up against higher authority in the name of the Highest, if another kind is to stand against the crowd for what a man knows to be right, there is a third kind of Christian courage which is needed sometimes. It is often a losing kind, at the time, but it is thrilling all the same. A roaring Chinese mob, one day at the beginning of this century, all with murder in their hearts and knives in their hands, surrounded a missionary named Horace Pitkin. "Have you anything to say before we kill you?" they screamed. "Yes," said he. "Tell my son to come out to China and take my place." Now emperors can be persuaded, and crowds can be controlled; but a mob with the taste of blood is simply mad; and with madness there is no argument. So they cut Pitkin to pieces. Yet even this seemingly hopeless courage had its reward. When Horace Pitkin's son went out to take his father's place, as he did, he found, as one of his first converts, a man who as a boy had watched that missionary die. "From that moment," this Chinese said, "I wanted to know more about the religion of a man who would not be afraid."

Taxpayers Suit Heard in Carroll

Chief Judge James E. Boylan of the Fifth Judicial Circuit, presided over an almost nine-hour hearing of a taxpayers suit against the Carroll County Commissioners held Friday in Westminster Court House.

Thirty Carroll County taxpayers represented by Westminster Attorney John Wood Jr., sought to test the authority of the County Commissioners in hiring a new technical assistant at a salary of $14,000 per year.

After hearing the testimony from 9:30 a. m. to 6:15 p. m. yesterday, Judge Boylan said he would take the case under advisement and file a written opinion based on all of the authorities cited in the case at a later date.

Wood said he was not objecting to the man appointed but to the manner in which he was appointed which should be ruled invalid. The man appointed technical assistant is George A. Grier, who for the past 11 years has been executive secretary of the Planning Commission, secretary-treasurer of the Sanitary District and assistant to the highway engineer for Harford County.

Grier assumed a similar position in Carroll County recently, plus being available for any other duties assigned to him by the County recently, plus being available for any other duties assigned to him by the County Commissioners.

A. Earl Shipley and D. E. Walsh of Westminster, attorneys for the commissioners, presented all three Carroll County Commissioners Edmund L. Carr, Charles W. Saylor and Francis J. Crawford, as witnesses. They showed the need for a technical assistant in Carroll County and the authority from the Maryland Legislature to employ one.

Roger H. Willard, former Frederick County roads engineer, testified as to his experience in organizing a roads department in Frederick County and of Grier's assistance in organizing the Frederick County Planning Commission when he was executive secretary of the previously organized Harford County Planning Commission. DeVries Hering, president of the Carroll County Board of Education, who is a merchant and resident in the Sykesville area, told of the need for a sanitary district there and of the State Health Department approval of it.

Clifton W. Warner, cashier of the Manchester Bank and a member of the Board of Education, testified as to the need for assistance in organizing educational functions in the growing Manchester area.

Former State Senator J. Wilmer Cronin of Harford County, who is now the attorney for the Harford County Planning Commission, told of Grier's background and experience in organizing planning in Harford County.

Two members of the newly-organized Carroll County Planning Commission, chairman E. Miller Richardson and member J. Randolph Shilling, appeared to tell what Grier has done so far in helping to organize their commission.

Grier himself gave his qualifications and the terms of his agreement with the commissioners which provide for a $14,000 salary per year until the present County Commissioners go out of office in 1962.

Wood presented for the taxpayers two of his clients, Mrs. Fred B. Schneider of 203 Maple Avenue, New Windsor, who discussed a public hearing held by the commissioners on June 1, and Dr. Thomas H. Legg of Union Bridge, who qualified himself as a taxpayer in opposition to the appointment.

The other taxpayers involved in the suit, who did not appear as witnesses, are Joseph Horn, Charles F. Fehle, Herman A. Niner, Jonas D. Kibler and Lloyd T. Stine, all of Westminster; Ira E. Barnes of Sykesville; Harry E. Cooney, of New Windsor; W. Morris Haines, William R. Main, Samuel O. Bohn, Richard K. Miller, Frank J. Englar, C. Preston Saylor, J. Frank Kennedy, Lester K. Nusbaum, Virginia L. Martin, Lloyd C. Devillbiss, Kathryn E. Hartzler, Roger T. Lawrence and Marshall W. Senseney, all of Union Bridge; Walter L. Weller, L. Carroll Fritz, and Gladys L. Bowers all of New Windsor; Robert C. Brothers and C. Howard Scheidt, of Finksburg; Arthur A. Garrett of Greenmount; Earl W. Luckabaugh, of Manchester, and Charles U. Mehning, of Keymar.

Mrs. Schneider, the former Miss Bessie Alexander of Frederick County, is the secretary-treasurer of the Carroll County Taxpayers League, a permanent voluntary organization which sponsored the suit.

She said in a statement issued last night that the taxpayers objected not only to the $14,000 salary and to the method of appointment but to the fact that "Grier was not an engineer and that his only degree was in business administration from McCoy College, John Hopkins University."

She added that the taxpayers did not like such power being lodged in appointive officials, who are sometimes hard to remove, but preferred elected county officials. She said that Grier could receive as much as $50,000 in total salaries and expenses from all of the various county commissions. Wood cross-questioned Commissioner Saylor and Grier on the assistant's qualifications and his arrangement with the commissioners, which Mrs. Schneider said last night was "entirely voluntary with no contract aside from letters from the commissioners, no oath of office taken and no bond provided."

He also questioned Paul Walsh, Carroll County roads engineer for the past 18 years, on his qualifications and on Grier's for their roads work assignments.

Wood concluded his argument by alleging that the act of the County Commissioners in appointing Grier was illegal and therefore invalid. Walsh and Shipley said that the commissioners' action was legal and that the taxpayer's suit was therefore invalid. (The News, Frederick)

Tops For A Happy Birthday

Birthdays are important in all homes, especially for the youngsters. Elaborate refreshments are not necessary in commemorating these happy occasions. A birthday cake with candles and a refreshing drink delight all, young and old.

A pink peppermint nog is a frothy beverage that makes an attractive accompaniment to serve with birthday cake. Versatile non-fat dry milk is used in the recipe and adds extra nourishment, especially for active teenagers. "The Heart of Milk", Super Starlac is a rich source of protein, calcium and riboflavin. It is top-quality pasteurized milk with only the fat and water removed. It mixes "quicker than instant", even in ice water, and can be used as milk is used—for drinking and in cooking and baking.

Pink Peppermint Nog

Makes 6 to 8 servings

- |                            |                                    |
|----------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 2 cups water               | 1 teaspoon vanilla extract         |
| 1 cup Super Starlac nonfat | Few drops peppermint extract       |
| dry milk                   | 1 tablespoon sugar                 |
| 1/2 cup sugar              | Red pure food coloring, if desired |
| 3 eggs, separate           |                                    |
| 1/2 cup grenadine          |                                    |

Pour water into top of double boiler; add Super Starlac nonfat dry milk and 1/2 cup sugar; stir until both have been dissolved. Beat egg yolks slightly; blend into Super Starlac mixture. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, until mixture coats a metal spoon. Chill. Stir in grenadine, and vanilla and peppermint extracts. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry. Add 1 tablespoon sugar, beat until glossy. Fold into Super Starlac mixture. Stir in red pure food coloring, if desired. Some of the beaten egg white may be reserved and used to garnish nog.

There are worse things than being shy. If you always insist on being up front, perhaps you would be better off if you were a little backward.

What Should You Do
In an Emergency?

By Martha Johnson
Dodge Safety Consultant

It doesn't matter whether you are driving to the corner drug store or taking a long trip, there's always a chance you may be faced with an emergency.

Because feminine drivers often don't know what to do when an unusual situation arises, many panic. This isn't necessary, however, if you remember these few simple hints.

IF YOU HAVE A BLOW-OUT . . . Let your car coast to a stop. Don't brake hard. Move to the edge of the road.

IF YOUR BRAKES FAIL . . . Use the hand brake. Steer into the curb if necessary.

IF YOU GET OFF ON THE SHOULDER . . . Hold steering wheel firmly. Let the car slow down; then turn the wheels back onto the road.

IF YOU START TO SKID . . . Turn the wheels in the direction of the skid. Don't set your brakes.

IF YOU ARE CAUGHT BY A LIGHT CHANGE . . . At an intersection, continue at safe speed. Approaching an intersection, stop safely if you can. But don't slam on the brakes.
