Taneytown Jaycettes Initiate Drive for Swimming Pool

Prompted by one member's comment on the lack of recreational facilities in Taneytown and her following suggestion that the club do something to overcome this problem, the Jaycettes embarked on a swimming pool project.

At the April meeting, a swimming pool committee was appointed to look into the possibilities of such a project. Since then the committee has grown and includes the following members: JoAnn Dougherty, Mary Alice Myers, co-chairmen; Nadine Brown, Linda Kauffman, Bonnie Becker, Glenna Lambert, Elaine Wantz and Carleen Skiles.

The initial step of the committee was to determine public sentiment concerning a swimming pool. Of the approximate forty people contacted, ninety-five per cent expressed great enthusiasm. Encouraged by this reaction, the committee began visiting swimming pools for ideas on size, shape, cost, etc., contacting pool companies for information, talking with other groups who have carried swimming pool projects through to completion. Much data has been compiled from all of these sources.

Tentative plans call for an olympic size swimming pool and children's wading pool, to be built in Taneytown Memorial Park, open to all people residing within Taneytown School District. It will be initially financed by public subscriptions, donations, and pledges, and maintained by the pool's yearly earnings.

The pool committee met with Taneytown's Mayor and City Council and received their unanimous vote of confidence on the pool project. Provided the needed funds are obtained and pending the Council's approval of each stage of the project, it will be carried through to completion and presented to the Town.

LETTERS WE LIKE TO RECEIVE

To The Carroll Record:

Since my family moved from the Taneytown, Harney and Littlestown area, when I was a young girl, I remember school and church and a host of friends and relatives. It doesn't seem to me that I am living in a Baltimore suburb, The Carroll Record keeps me close to my relatives and friends. When I can read about them it is just like visiting. We visit in person three or four times a year, but The Carroll Record is almost like visiting weekly. So your paper is a friend to us.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Paul Safchuck
and family.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is $2.00 for another year's subscription to The Carroll Record. Your paper is greatly appreciated.

Thank you,
Mrs. Charles W. Crone,
Box 306, Taneytown.

Dear Sirs:

On Oct. 27, 1964, I will be 92 years of age. I have subscribed for "The Carroll Record" for so many years, I feel I cannot do without it, so am enclosing $2.00 for the renewal of my subscription for another year. "Thank you for your clean paper."

Respectfully yours,
C. F. Simpson.

4-HER WINS ANGUS CALF

Fourteen-year-old Shirley Keilholtz of Rte. 1, Keymar, member of the Taneytown Agricultural 4-H Club, is the new owner of a 6-month-old registered Angus heifer calf.

The calf was the first offspring of a heifer won two years ago by Kenneth Muse, Finksburg, in a contest sponsored by the Carroll County 4-H Beef Club. This original heifer was donated by George Brooks, Hampstead, with the understanding that the first calf would be returned to another young person interested in beef cattle. The Beef Club has established rules which the calf's owner must abide by, such as exhibiting the calf at least two fairs, having the calf bred by a registered Angus bull, and returning the first offspring to the club.

To encourage Shirley in her new project, the Reindollar Company, Taneytown, has donated a bag of 32% beef feed to help her get the heifer off to a good start.

Other participants who submitted statements telling why, "I would like to have a 4-H Beef Project" were: Billy Coshun (10), Taneytown; Robert Keilholtz (9), Rte. 1, Keymar; George Grimes (17), Woodbine; Terry Laird (13), Rte. 3, Westminster; Nancy Thomas (10), Keymar; Henry Koontz (13), Rte. 1, New Windsor; Bruce McComas (14), Rte. 4, Westminster; Richard Keilholtz (12), Rte. 1, Keymar; and Gwen Koontz (10), Rte. 1, New Windsor.

AGRICULTURAL CLUB MET

The Taneytown Agricultural Club had its July meeting at the home of Betty, Mary Ellen, and Kenny Stonesifer.

After the secretary's and treasurer's reports the club members, each told what they won and exhibited at the Carroll County Fair.

Joan Thomas and Kenny Stonesifer are going to club week on August 3-7. Also Clarence Thomas told the club about his stay at a New York farm. He and other Carroll County 4-Hers exchanged with New York 4-Hers.

After the meeting Kenny Stonesifer gave a talk on farm safety. Refreshments were served by the Stonesifers and enjoyed by all.

MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Mayor and City Council was held on Monday evening, August 4, at 7:30 P. M. in the Town Hall with all members present.

Officer Boone reported 38 parking violations, 19 warnings, and three State summons.

The Treasurer reported a balance of $3,565.23 in the General Account and $5,592.28 in the Parking Meter Fund after payment of several large bills.

Sewer Bonds 56 through 65 valued at $10,000 plus interest of $10,350 was paid on the sewer indebtedness. Ten years have now passed on a 40-year bond issue.

Partial payment of $7,000 was made to Maitland Bros. to apply on the Street Improvement Program.

Further study will be given to the proposed tennis courts before a decision can be made as to whether this will become a reality.

Approval was given to have the Municipal Building painted on the outside.

The drilling of a new well in the Carroll Heights area was let out on contract at a bid price of $6,500. This well will be drilled to an approximate depth of 400 feet, 14" diameter, decreasing to a 10" diameter.

Discussion was held regarding the effects of a probable elimination of the Inventory Tax and its effect upon Taneytown. Approximately $27,000 per year is realized through the Inventory Tax and at the present time it appears that over a period of 10 years or less, we will lose this amount of revenue through the elimination of this tax.

There were no delegations. The meeting adjourned at 10:45 P. M.

THIS AND THAT

The long, hot days of July have melted away, oh so swiftly, and the ripening, fruitful month of August is now upon our land. We see evidence of the change all around us—the fields of ripening corn, hay in its second cutting, yellow goldenrod blooming along country roads, rosy peaches and tender sweet corn at road side stands, blackberries waiting to be picked, and crimson tomatoes brightening vegetable gardens and dinner tables.

Speaking of gardens, ours looked pitiful indeed for awhile, but with the coming of the rain, it is now producing moderately good supplies of green beans, squash, cucumbers, beets and cabbage. The lima beans are blooming profusely, but it remains to be seen whether they will bear well or not. Ironically, we always have loads of green beans (which are definitely not my favorite vegetable) but the more succulent limas are never very successful. However, as I write this article, a gentle, soaking rain is falling, so maybe this will give them a boost. The tomatoes are ripening, but slowly.

The other day I met a friend in the store who heartily recommended to me Kraft's Barbecue Sauce. Apparently, there are two varieties—the Blue Label and the Yellow Label. My friend, who prefers the milder-flavored Blue Label, told me she always uses it in preparing baked beans. She brings these to our church suppers and picnics, and I can vouch for their being truly delicious! We tried the sauce in beef barbecue, and I liked the lively flavor which it imparted.

Mr. Fritz's Radio and Television Shop, on the Square, makes a nice addition to Taneytown. There are many attractive, moderately-priced sets on display. One, in particular, caught my eye. It is done in beautiful maple wood, and would look well with early American furnishings.

I am glad that, although Maryland's weather is capricious and unpredictable, each of the four seasons is so distinctly different in this area. How monotonous it must be to live in a section where the weather never changes too much! Even beautiful, sunny days can become boring if there are no cloudy, rainy ones in between. After all, variety in the climate means variety in our way of life, and I, for one, wouldn't have it any other way!

—Zola Cantwell.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS ALTER METHOD OF ASSESSMENT AND VALUATION OF INVENTORIES

The County Commissioners of Carroll County on Tuesday of this week officially adopted a resolution changing the method of valuation and assessment in Carroll County relative to inventories in business and manufacturing concerns. Such action followed a public hearing attended by approximately 50 persons on Monday evening. With the exception of one comment, sentiment favored the adoption of the resolution.

The action of the County Commissioners make it possible for existing business and industry for a reduction in equal ratios over a period of 10 years, beginning in 1965, in taxation for inventory (stock in business, raw materials on hand, and manufactured products in the hands of manufacturing or commercial business). Likewise, it enables new business and industry locating in the county after January 1, 1965, exemption from inventory taxes.

Prior studies by the county's fiscal advisors have indicated that the method approved for reduction of the inventory taxation would not require any appreciable increase in real property taxes in that normal economic growth expected would offset the loss of such tax. The County Commissioners also expect this added incentive for business expansion and development to be important in balancing the economic development of the county.

PRICE ADDRESSES UNION BRIDGE CLUB

Mr. George Price, Republican candidate for the second Congressional district, addressed the West Carroll Republican Club in the Community Hall at Union Bridge Tuesday, Aug. 4, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Richard Stultz, President of the Union Bridge Club, introduced Mr. Carl Hokemeyer, Mr. Price's campaign manager for Carroll County, who spoke briefly on Mr. Price's very promising capabilities. Mr. Price spoke next and gave the audience a glimpse of what was to come in the year's campaign.

Mr. Price observed the problems pertaining to Carroll County were relative to many conditions found in the second Congressional district. One immediate problem was the drought. The farming community suffered a bad blow to its economic structure from the lack of rain. Mr. Price advocates a pilot program of water shortage areas to help ease the water problem. He assured his audience that any problem which should arise would be solved primarily with local participation. Mr. Price also reaffirmed his total support of the entire Republican ticket. The candidate stated that he believed wholeheartedly in the platform and the fulfillment of all the party's obligations.

Mr. Price summarized by declaring open season on the "federal yes men" who now hold the seat in the second Congressional district.

Local Resident Electrocuted

A Taneytown man was electrocuted in a Baltimore salvage company yard yesterday when a crane lifting a tank which he was guiding touched high-tension wires.

Sources said Bernard R. Ricketts, 32, was guiding a 25-foot tank with his hands. The tank was being hoisted by a huge crane in a salvage yard in the Chesaco Park area of Baltimore. The bottom of the crane came into contact with the wires, rated at 7,600 volts, and Ricketts collapsed.

Two Baltimore policemen tried to revive Ricketts through mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, sources said, but failed. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. John Hyle, assistant medical examiner for Baltimore County.

He was born in Montgomery County, a son of James W. and Hattie Case Ricketts near Keymar. Surviving besides his parents are his wife, Mrs. Mildred Robertson Ricketts; 6 children, Rose Mary, Bernard, Jr., Robert, Steven, Deborah Jane, and Charles, all at home; the following brothers and sisters: Eugene, Union Bridge; Mrs. Kathryn Bodmer, Dickerson; Mrs. Dorothy Jones, Washington, D.C.; Walter, Forest, and Edwin, all of Taneytown; Thomas, Upper Marlboro; Leonard, Lisbon; Mrs. Edna Wright, Stevensville.

The body is at the Union Bridge funeral home of D. D. Hartzler and Sons, where services will be held Saturday at 11 A. M. Interment will be in Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Finksburg. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday evening.

CHRISTIAN DAY KINDERGARTEN PLANS FALL SESSION

The Christian Day Kindergarten of Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, will definitely begin sessions for four- and five-year-old children Wednesday, Sept. 9, at 9:00 A. M.

The decision to make the Kindergarten a reality was made by the Steering Committee at a meeting August 1 in the office of Pastor Howard Miller, with members Kenneth Crouse, Mrs. John M. Skiles, and Mrs. Wayne Baumgardner present. Factors leading to this decision were the receipt of 16 applications and a sizeable financial contribution from the Mite Society of Trinity church.

Registrations for the kindergarten, which will be held Sept. 9 through May 1965 from 9 A. M. to 11:30 A. M., Monday through Friday, are still open. Informational brochures are available at the church office.

Parents and registered kindergarten pupils are invited to a meeting Sept. 8 at 7:00 P. M. in the adult Sunday school room of the church. Final registration, submission of the required certificates of recent medical examination and vaccination, and payment of tuition for the first two months, minus the previously paid application fee, will be conducted then by Mrs. Elwood Harner of the Steering Committee.

Mrs. Charles Stonesifer, Teacher-Director, will welcome the parents and pupils. Pastor Miller will also speak. The group will then reconvene in the kindergarten rooms on the first floor of the church Education Building for informal socializing and refreshments. Mrs. Skiles is in charge of the refreshments. Mrs. Baumgardner is coordinator of the meeting.

The Church Council approved the final Christian Day Kindergarten budget at their meeting August 4. It was decided that Glenn Bollinger, church treasurer, will handle the kindergarten's finances. Mr. Crouse, of the Committee, will assist.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Do you recall the frightfully hot day of Monday 19th of July—well Your Observer took the train in the early A. M. for Philly and that was instead of the bus which I have been using for a few years. Getting off at the station of 30th Street, I'll never forget as it meant lower level and it was like an oven! I thought of those poor Jewish people in Germany being placed in those ovens to die! Instead of going to any member of my family (and I have plenty in Philly) I asked someone where the nearest hotel was and they stated right around the corner to the "Robert Morris." The distance in that lower level to the street and up all the steps was something else again and as I came out into that hot city, I actually staggered! Walking around the corner to that hotel and that big sign, "Fully Air-conditioned!" was a relief and believe it or not, I did get in touch with many by phone. Before leaving for Baltimore the next day, late in the afternoon went to Tad's for that big charcoal steak dinner and on the way back to the hotel stopped by in Wamamers to see a niece and she walked back to the hotel and was my guest for the evening! Nuff sed! However, I could not resist one of those big pretzels which used to be ONE CENT when I was a little girl and now they are just nine cents more.

Was I surprised to see in the station in Baltimore an office, "HERTZ" RENT A CAR! I went up to the clerk and said, "How come? This is most unusual for I did not think the Pennsy would allow all this." He answered quickly, "Well, we have been trying to get in here for a long, long time and this only has been since last November, so you are right, it was most difficult!" And another new thing—a board up on the wall with several phones which were attached reading that you can call the different phones right direct as you pick up the receiver in Baltimore to hotels to reserve the room until you get down there. So you see, folks how traveling is being made a pleasure more and more each day.

What a grand job Uncle Sam has made out of his nephew who just came back from California on a furlough. He is a handsome likeness to Robert Taylor and never have I seen such a grand change in any fellow in six months time! Has the carriage of a King and his character has changed completely and even his disposition!

Talk about exercise here in America keeping fit! The Finns have the real answer for that and it is walking and they call it "Health Walk." President Urho Kekkonen told his 4.5 million fellow citizens in a speech last New Year's Day they should get out and walk and they are doing just that. They are urged to walk six miles each day if possible! Look at Truman! He never fails those long steps of a five-mile walk each day and that for many years. Remember?

And now, you too, can have new energy, a new body and new pep, which are proven facts, in as little as 60 days! Your Observer went over to "HOLIDAY"—the address — 5343 Park Heights Avenue. It is a glamorous affair and it is amazing to see all ages from 14 years to 80! There are special days and nights for either men or women. Here's to your husband! Treat that best girl in your life to a course in these wonderful "Proven Facts"—it is better than a vacation! Phone and make inquiries about it and ask for Marvin or Dennis MO 4-3700. Holiday Health Center! As soon as you enter that room, you will know that—"This is for you and you!"

What a surprise letter — Air-Mail from that nice Dorothy Loudon of the Gary Moore Show from Las Vegas. She writes that the announcement was made after the termination of the Gary Moore Show that she will have her own show of the '65-'66 TV season. She also stated for the coming Fall and Winter, besides making a few TV guest appearances, she is considering doing a Broadway show and making some records! Knew that gal would be going places the very first time I saw her. What say you?

Almost forgot to mention that I met the sweetest little gray haired mother in the train by the name of Mrs. H. L. Allers, who used to live in Thurmont! She was going up on the train to be with her son in New York for a few days.

Well, folks — so long until next week D. V. and remember the secret of living with your nerves is never to squander energy on things that do not count!

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 6, 1964

A LIFE OF PUBLIC SERVICE

On August 10 Herbert Hoover will celebrate his 90th birthday—and millions of people the world around will vicariously celebrate with him. For few men in all the long sweep of our history have led so varied and so full a life—or one which has contributed so much to nations and peoples almost everywhere.

Mr. Hoover's careers — and the plural is necessary here — cover a brilliant spectrum. After working his way through college, he became a highly successful mining engineer at an early age. World War I, with its terrible and vast human needs, brought him into the public service, using that term in its broadest ramifications. It was a field he was never to leave. As administrator and moving spirit of great relief works, as Secretary of Commerce, as President, as advisor and friend of succeeding Presidents of both parties, as elder statesman, as the author of more than 30 books, his wise and beneficent influence has left an indelible mark on his country and the world.

In all of this Mr. Hoover has followed one guiding light—the light of freedom. He stands at the forefront of those who have unfalteringly opposed the subjugation of the individual to the forces of faceless and implacable organizations—including, above all, the organization we know as government. No man is just a number in Mr. Hoover's lexicon. He is an individual, possessed of rights that nothing can be allowed to destroy.

Happy birthday, Herbert Hoover!

DEAD END ROAD

Charles Edison's years of public service included such high positions as Governor of New Jersey and Secretary of the Navy.

Recently he was asked this question: "What has happened to America?" His answer: "The empty philosophy of Socialism is replacing the rich and free traditions of America. . . . The strength of the American people has been sapped. . . . we have become a country where self-reliance, pride, hard work and thrift are being replaced by ideas of dependency on government, pleasure before duty, higher pay for less work and the right to government handouts."

Those are hard and pessimistic words. But they are justified. The loss of individual liberty has been a step by step affair—a gradual erosion. So, it has happened almost unnoticed by multitudes. But its sour fruits are found in the way these multitudes almost automatically turn to a super state in the search for solutions to almost every human problem. Lost, forgotten and tramped under are the responsibilities that used to belong to the family, to local initiative and generosity, to the kind of self-reliance that created the nation.

That is the record. The overriding, unanswered question is: "Will we take another course before it is too late?" The road we are traveling is easy—but it has a dead end.

"FACTS AND OPINIONS"

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover says: "There are deeply humane and merciful phases of law enforcement which are generally overshadowed by the daily clashes of law and order with the criminal underworld. . . . Some months ago a distraught mother wrote the FBI pleading for help in locating a son from whom she had not heard for more than two years. She explained that while in the Armed Forces he suffered a head injury which required brain surgery, but that he did not fully recover. Files of the Identification Division revealed that authorities in a neighboring state had recently submitted a fingerprint card on an individual possibly identical with the missing man. This information was furnished to the mother. A few days later, she wrote me a personal note of gratitude, saying she had located her son and that, thanks to the assistance received from the FBI, she now could help him with his problems. There is nothing earth-shaking about this little act of courtesy. It is merely indicative of the thousands of small favors afforded the public by law enforcement officers and agencies daily in every community of the land."

The Advisory Council of Judges of the National Council on Crime and Delinquency urges that narcotic addicts be treated as sick persons instead of as criminals. The Council said that the weight of medical experience in Great Britain in treatment of drug addiction "supports the view that the British program has been successful in avoiding a rise in addiction. . . ."

In the view of the Council of State Chambers of Commerce, the war on poverty drive would be advanced further by sound fiscal measures rather than by the Administration's program. It cites figures showing that, allowing for prior adjustments, the proportion of families with cash incomes under $3,000 was reduced from 32 per cent of all families in 1950 to 25 per cent in 1955, 21 per cent in 1960, and 20 per cent in 1962. It adds that this was accomplished primarily through the growth of the economy.

Emergency preparedness pacts have been signed by the various transportation associations with the Defense Traffic Management Service. Under the terms of the agreement, the transport modes would render all necessary assistance in the movement of military-sponsored passengers and freight in time of national emergency.

In a release on child care, the American Medical Association observes that discipline is training for living. It must start early, be constant and consistent, and guide the child in what to do as well as what not to do. Children need a discipline that sets limits for them. They must learn to accept authority, but it should be firm, reasonable, kind authority that deserves respect.

President Funston of the New York Stock Exchange says: ". . . there is no simple solution to our balance of payments problems. The international flow of funds area is replete with complex relationships and involved technical considerations. Any country, be it the Netherlands or Nigeria, attempting to master its international payments situation is faced by difficult questions. These issues, however, are compounded when we come to the United States, for we serve as the world's banker and our dollars represent a great part of other countries' financial reserves. Thus, the U.S. must constantly keep in mind its special responsibilities when designing corrective actions in the payments area."

The National Small Business Association reports that despite easing of U.S. Treasury rules on depreciation, two thirds of the nation's small businesses are still not able to use the new tax procedures designed to spur capital spending, stimulate the economy and increase employment. The trouble seems to lie in the complexity of the Treasury's new depreciation guidelines and tests, along with the fear of possible further changes.

240 eggs per hen makes low-cost production

Thousands of Midwestern flocks now are producing 240 eggs per hen or more in 12 to 13 months of laying—using their own grain PURINA and Purina Chowder Concentrate. They have a ration ground, mixed and delivered by their Purina Check-R-Mix Dealer.

Check-R-Mix rations (made with grain and Purina Concentrates) are mixed according to Purina Research formulas. They help hens lay more eggs on less feed per dozen than lower-efficiency rations. This helps you keep production cost low. Try a Purina Check-R-Mix ration and see.

One day all on his own Billy started learning how to ride a bike (his older brother's).
The straightaway was a breeze,
but the first corner cost Billy a badly skinned knee.

His mother felt the doctor ought to take a look at it. She picked up her phone. "Bring him right over," said Doctor Williams.

Problems have a way of disappearing when you lift your phone.

After the doctor treated the battle-scarred knee, Billy's mother relaxed. She really was proud of Billy's feat.

Maybe a bike for his birthday?

The phone call? Certainly not the major event of the day, but still an important one. It brought peace of mind to a conscientious mother.

For emergencies of any size—for pleasure any day—phones are friends.

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you:

There is a well-drilling rig and a small construction shed with a William Doble, Builder sign on it on the lot just above the Carroll Kiser farm on the Keysville Road.

Construction is also moving along on the house being built on the Key-mar Road just past the Gerald Myers farm and before Naylor's Mill Road. Club Scouts of Pack 450: your picnic will be on Sunday the 9th at the Rocky Ridge Park and will begin about 5 P. M.

The Sunday School of the United Church of Christ of Keysville thanks all those who attended their Festival last Saturday and invites them all back again next year.

New neighbors in Detour: Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Stonesifer and daughter Debbie have moved into the former home of Mrs. Rachel Bostian Myers, who now lives in Westminster.

My apologies to Mrs. William Doble of Keysville. Last week when I listed the flower committees, I misspelled and wrote Millie and it should have been Minnie.

It has come to me that the broken bottle which caused me a cut tire may have fallen off a truck accidentally and that I may have jumped to conclusions about it being thrown there. If that is the case, no hard feelings on my part and all is well. I thought it was thrown because one always finds so many bottles and cans along the road. So—whatever you are, my apologies to you also. (Editor's note: It is still disgraceful the number of said cans and bottles along the road.)

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Baumgardner near Keysville recently spent several days at the New York World's Fair.

Jeanette of The Detour Bank is on vacation this week and next. I understand she and her husband (Robert Dutton) will be moving into their new home in New Midway sometime this week. Happy New Home to them.

There was a family dinner at the Edward Coshun home on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Oden Fogle of Union Bridge and their children and families were the guests. (Mrs. Coshun was Kathryn Fogle.) There were 46 present.

Guest speaker at Keysville Lutheran Church last Sunday was Pastor Seth Hester, who formerly had the Uniontown Parish. It was a bit of a coincidence because he chose the same text as the student speaker the previous Sunday: I Corinthians 10:13. Pastor Hester told how all are tempted and none are exempt; that we each have a choice because none of us are all good or all bad and that we must rise to temptation and either overcome it or fall.

Forgot to mention before that the road through Detour has been tarred and chipped.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilhide and family of the Keysville-Taneytown Road last week were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Currens of Hampstead from Wednesday through Sunday and Mrs. Edith Pycha of Lutherville from Wednesday afternoon until Friday. The Currens and Mrs. Pycha are also old friends and they all enjoyed their visit together.

Related Happy Birthday congratulations to Harry Clabaugh of Taneytown who celebrated his birthday on Sunday, August 2.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide and Susan Sunday were her parents, brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Seibert, Mariann and Johnny of Clear Spring. They were on the way home after taking brother Paul to Camp Michaux. Johnny has a cast on his right arm which was broken during a fall recently. Mariann stayed behind for a week's visit. The Seiberts also called at the Carroll Wilhide home before returning to Clear Spring.

Certainly sorry to hear that Mrs. Coral Cover was a recent patient at Annie Warner Hospital. She was there for observation and the doctors found she has a pinched nerve, which is causing her back and leg pains. She is now with her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Pfoutz of Union Bridge. Do hope she will soon be feeling "chipper" again.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Seigman and daughter Martha and his father, James Seigman, of Long Green called on the Carroll Wilhide family one recent Sunday and then were supper guests of the Clyde Wilhide family. Mrs. Seigman and Mrs. Currens (of Hampstead) are sisters.

Bobby, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Weishaar of Detour, was a recent hospital patient also, from Friday night until Sunday afternoon. He fell and hit his head and had a slight concussion. Hope all goes well for him now.

From Tuesday through Saturday last week, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide were travelers. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Conley and son David of Ann Arbor, Mich. (Mrs. Conley is the former Miss Carolyn Hartzler who has often visited the Wilhides.) They also called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilhide and family in Indiana, Pa., and Mrs. Alvin Metzler of Altoona, Pa. (Mr. Metzler was away at the time.)

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Susan and Mariann Seibert were Sunday evening visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Durborow and Kathy as well as Mr. and Mrs. Russell Durborow of Gettysburg.

Last week-end Randy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Weishaar of Forest and Stream Club Road, accompanied his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wildisan of Westminster, and his brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Weishaar of Taneytown, to Ocean City, Kevin, son of the Wilhides, stayed with his grandparents for the week-end.

Looks like a new house next to the garage in Detour: Mr. and Mrs. "Jimmy" Coshun have covered their red brick siding with white asbestos siding and it looks fine.

Mrs. Harold Norcott and her three sons (of Ojai, Calif.) have returned to the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide and Beth, after a trip to Pennsylvania. They visited her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. William Durborow and Bobby and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Mehrle Wilhide, all of York, and then spent some time with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Durborow of Gettysburg. On Sunday they and the Durborows visited in Baltimore with her mother, Mrs. Maurice Wilhide, and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fry and family. On Monday they returned to Detour. Don't forget the Firemen's Parade at Rocky Ridge on the 19th and the Mission Study at Keysville Lutheran Church on the 30th. The Study will be on Southeast Asia.

For the next two weeks I shall not be typing the news for this column for my husband has a two week's vacation and we have a number of things we'd like to do. So, please, if you have important items, do call Mr. Rakestraw at The Pilot or Mr. Stonesifer at The Carroll Record. Otherwise, any items can be given or called to me (775-2155) after the 21st. Thanks loads. See you the issue of the 28th.

—Dharlys Fleharty.

Pro and Con

by Helen Truax Wilkes

The Heavenly Defender that I engage Bears the mark of a "prepaid" fee; But the Prosecutor demands a "wage" Payable in eternity! Christ listen, 'tis not all He does; He pleads for me alone. The only requisite of the Father was: That He would first atone! No jury-box can "free a soul" From Satan's opposition; The only one with that control— Received it through "submission." He's never lost a "case" of sin— Which makes His "clients" eager To prove that man alone can't win— For their defense is meager! Some day as Judge He will preside, The guilty, in His presence, Who ignored the fact they must decide, Will cry for "waive" of sentence.

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports

The Baltimore Orioles are right in the thick of the fight for the American League pennant and one of the major reasons is outfielder JOHN POWELL.

He is only 22 years old and still growing. And that is saying something, considering Powell's size right now. He stands six feet, three inches tall and weighs 235 pounds. Pitchers swear every pound of him is muscle. Powell is a free swinger. By that we mean he is inclined to strike out quite often. Many of the great sluggers have had the same type of record when it came to strikeouts.

Powell moved up to the Orioles in 1962 from Rochester, where he led the International League in home runs with 32. He batted .321 but struck out 118 times. At the time, Clyde King, then his manager at Rochester, predicted that Powell would not strike out 100 times in his rookie year in the American League. The youngster made King look good. He struck out only 79 times and hit 15 homers.

Last season, Powell struck out 87 times, but went to bat more than he had in his freshman season. He came through with 25 homers and boosted his average from .243 to .265. Powell now has his sights set on getting 40 homers and batting in 100 runs this season. Whether he can accomplish this or not will have to be seen.

Right now, Powell is doing his share in helping the Orioles remain in the pennant fight.

He admits there are some pitchers who give him trouble. He selects Jim Kaat of the Minnesota Twins as an example. Powell says he got his first major league homer off Kaat back in 1962 and doesn't believe he has had a hit off the left-hander since. The hard-hitting lefty admits that he falls into slumps every now and then and has trouble getting out of them. But the slumps are getting to be fewer and farther between. And that is the reason why the Orioles are battling the New York Yankees and Chicago White Sox for the flag. That, plus the hitting of such stars as Brooks Robinson and Norm Siebern.

The Orioles give every sign of being tough right down to the wire. It will be interesting to see how much help they get from Powell.

BOB BUHL has always been a number three pitcher, but he is making a strong bid for number one rating this year, and in the face of strong competition. Bob has the best won and lost record among the big three on the Chicago Cubs. He has eleven victories and four defeats, which is a little better than the record of Larry Jackson and a lot better than Dick Ellsworth's, the other two members of the big three.

At the age of 35, Bob figures it's about time he got a number one rating of some kind. When he pitched for Milwaukee he always stood in the long shadows cast by Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette. Then, after moving to Chicago, he found Jackson and Ellsworth ahead of him.

Bob has never won 20 games. His top win total was 18, which he did twice, in 1956 when the Braves didn't win the pennant, and in 1957 when they did.

Last year Buhl won eleven and lost 14 and that nurtured a suspicion that he might have had it. But that suspicion long since has gone out the window.

Bob says he is doing nothing different from last year and when asked to explain the big improvement in his record he had an easy but logical answer. He said, "They're making more runs for me this year. Billy Williams is having a great season and that has made a large difference."

When the Detroit Tigers traded catcher Gus Triandos to the Phillies last winter in a multi-player deal they gave young BILL FREEHAN the green light to take over back of the plate.

Young Bill did. He began the season in high gear and he's still rolling along in high.

Freehan was a $100,000 bonus baby just three years ago. The Tigers paid him that much to sign in June of 1961. Bill came out of the University of Michigan where he played end in football. At 205 pounds he had the weight for football and he has the speed and skill needed for baseball.

A recent look at the averages showed that Freehan was hitting well over .300. He also hits for distance and when he gets the chance he is not above stealing a base. His catching is good.

Freehan is only 22 years old and that's a shade young to be a take-charge big-league catcher. But that's what he has been doing and the chances are that's what he will continue to do.

Freehan says that all he has tried to do this year is to hit the ball back through the middle. He relies on his power to take it elsewhere.

Whether Freehan knows it or not, hitting the ball back through the middle was the gimmick used by the great Ty Cobb whenever he got into a slump. Ty found that if he just tried to meet the ball he broke a slump quickly. It kept him from pressing.

Remember When Dept. — Cookie Lavagetto, first base coach with the San Francisco Giants, started as a second baseman with Oakland in the Pacific Coast League in 1933.

Today's Sport Laugh — Casey Stengel, manager of the Mets, was asked during spring training if he was better this year. Stengel replied, "I am, but my club isn't."

SOUTH PENN LEAGUE

Arendtsville took a giant step along the road to the regular season championship by edging Taneytown, 3-2, on a solo homer by Dick Pitzer on the winner's diamond.

Terror starter Walt Donahue was breezing along with a no-hitter until the fateful sixth when a walk, a homer by Taylor to knot the score at 2 all, and then a blast that cleared the center field fence by the A's winning pitcher Dick Pitzer, who won the game for the home nine. Walt, in losing his third game against eight wins, gave up but five hits, walked six and struck out eight. The Terrors gave Donahue fine support in the field, but not at the bat. Three Arendtsville double plays helped break the back of Taneytown rallies.

Taneytown got one run in the first on a two out single by catcher Jim Head to score Ernie Combs who had doubled. Neil Hoffman doubled in the fourth and scored on a single by Jimmy Myers for the only other Terror tally.

A fine Arendtsville home crowd saw their A's pull in front of the South Penn League by a full game and a half over Taneytown.

Wednesday Night Game
"Scooter" Pfoutz started his first game for Taneytown and he made it a winning debut as he and the Terrors edged Bonaeuille 3-1 in a make-up game at Memorial Park.

Taneytown was first to score in the third as Don Favorite walked and scored on a fielder's choice and an error. The Terrors made it 2-0 in the fifth when Mick McNair scored on Don Favorite's single. In the sixth, Walt Donahue, who played right field, got an infield hit to score McNair from third.

Pfouz allowed five hits, two walks and struck out three batters and had fine support in the field from the team.

Taneytown is now tied with Littlestown for second in the league behind Arendtsville.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION SURVEY FOR EXPANDING COMPANY

A Westminster manufacturing firm has announced its desire to expand and construct a new modern air-conditioned plant in the Westminster area if sufficient labor can be assured for the expansion program.

Ted Decker, Vice President of L. Greif and Brothers, a division of Genesco, Inc., of Nashville, Tenn., recently met with representatives of the Labor Availability Committee of the Carroll County Economic Development Commission and George A. Grier representing the County Commissioners and expressed the company's desire to move ahead with construction immediately should studies prove satisfactory. The company owns the Westminster Carroll Manufacturing Company which currently operates two clothing plants, one in the Davis Building on John Street and West Main Street, and the other in the Old Opera House building on East Main Street in Westminster.

To aid in the survey, the County Economic Development Commission is coordinating a special advertising inquiry with the Greif Company to ascertain the availability of additional employees in the Carroll County area. Elsewhere in The Carroll Record an advertisement will be found which can be clipped, filled out and returned. Personal interview will be arranged shortly after receipt of the return of this advertisement. Letters also may be sent to the Carroll County Economic Development Commission.

The L. Greif Company is reported to be one of the "big three" in men's garment manufacturing in the United States and has been able to furnish full-time employment for many years without shut-down or lay-off. "Many of the employees have long service records," Mr. Decker related, "and most are enjoying very nice incomes." Trainees in their 13-week training period are paid $1.25 hourly. At the end of the training period employees are privileged to join the union and given the opportunity to work on a piece-work basis with average hourly earnings being about $1.80.

The additional employment being sought by the Greif Company in its proposed new plant would be young women between the ages of 18 and 38. They also would be accepted without any experience and trained as sewing machine operators and pressers.

Mr. Decker has reaffirmed to the Economic Development Commission that the building program proposed in Westminster is largely dependent upon labor availability and that this type survey has been successful in other areas of the county.

Learn to Worship

Lesson for August 9, 1964

Background Scripture: Exodus 25 through 40
Devotional Reading: Psalm 33:1-12.

FOR ALL that was said in this column last week about the close relation between the two religions, that of the Jews and that of the Christians, it still is true that these two religions are different. The present-day Jewish religious life is strikingly like that of Christians; but the early Hebrew faith was—to look at it—more like those of their pagan neighbors than like the Jewish or Christian

Dr. Foreman religion today. Nevertheless, even from the ancient pages of Exodus, where first we find detailed directions for the public worship of God, we can learn to worship the Most High. The ancient Hebrew religion was priestly; that is, the offering of sacrifices and leading in all the forms of worship which were observed in Tabernacle or Temple, were not left to chance. The priesthood took charge and took care that all was done in accordance with what they understood to be God's intention. To us today this suggests that God is not rightly worshipped by offhand, irreverent or stupid and silly performances. Other religions may go in for bizarre and weird practices such as snake-handling and human sacrifice, crawling on the ground all the way to some sacred shrine, or lying on a bed of spikes; but not the Jews, and not the Christians.

Beauty in religion

Any one with a little imagination, reading carefully those chapters in Exodus which tell of the construction of the Tabernacle, may be confused by details (and sometimes confused by the lack of them); but one thing stands out: the Tabernacle was a thing of rare beauty. If it had been preserved, as were the treasures of King Tutankhamen, who lived about that time, it would have been praised even today as unique and beautiful in a high degree. So today there is or there should be a close combining of beauty with the public worship of God. Shabby ways of worship may befit a shabby god, but not the True God, who made everything beautiful in its time.

The heart in worship

A boy who joins the army soon finds out that he can no longer do as he pleases, if he ever did. He has few decisions to make. But there is one thing the army gives men a chance to do but will not force on him: namely, to go to church. The army authorities may not be noted as experts in religion, but they do know this much: compulsory religion does no one any good. So it was in ancient Sinai and Palestine; gifts to the Tabernacle and Temple were not forced, but the people gave whose hearts moved them to give. So it is to this day. The humblest and simplest worship services in the poorest kind of church building will have as part of the worship, the offering. (Not "collection," please!—there's quite a difference.) So with all parts of the service. Freedom, including free generosity, has been a part of the worship of God ever since Sinai; and indeed long before.

The glory

It is said that the glory of the Lord filled the Tabernacle, full of smoke by day, of fire by night. Was this a kind of fire you might have captured on color film? Was it perhaps a figurative way of speaking of what is unspeakable, the glory of the invisible God whom no man can see? However it was, it is the glory of God alone which is real. There can be a great deal of the glory of man in worship; members may boast of the great paid choir and organist; they may speak of the minister's eloquence, and show you with pride the spotless modern kitchens; but it is not the glory of man that blesses a church, it is the glory of God.

I would rather see the portrait of a dog that I know, than all the allegorical paintings that can show me in the world.—Samuel Johnson.

A banker says a college education sets a man back three or four years. Why speak vaguely of "a man"? Why not come out frankly, and say "Father"?—The Detroit News.

POVERTY BILL PASSES SENATE

Last week the Senate passed the President's so-called "anti-poverty bill." It calls for the lavish waste of taxpayers' money—nearly one thousand million dollars the first year and undoubtedly several times that amount in years to come—on an utterly impractical program. Some of the proponents accused anyone who questioned the program's effectiveness or practicality of being "against the poor." That was the kind of demagoguery the opponents had to buck. The measure is a hodgepodge of old ideas, some discredited. Why, one may ask, was the Administration pushing this measure? The answer may be found in the appellation given it by one Senator: "an election-year pork barrel."

Consider one feature of the bill, the establishment of the so-called "Job Corps." The bill authorizes the Director to furnish the enrollee all of the enrollee's living expenses, "including quarters, subsistence, transportation, equipment, clothing, recreational services, medical, dental, hospital, and other health services, and other expenses as the Director may deem necessary and appropriate for their needs." Under the bill, a "Job Corps" enrollee would receive his unemployment compensation, designed to defray his living expenses while he looks for work, and at the same time he would receive his living from the "Job Corps." During the Senate hearings, Mr. Sargent Shriver, who is to be Director, estimated that it would cost $4,700 per year to support each enrollee in a camp. That's a whale of a lot more money than most well-off people in this country can spend on each of their children each year. Add to this what each enrollee will receive in unemployment compensation plus what he will receive in "readjustment allowances," and you will find that each boy is to be paid an average of more than $480 per month to remain unemployed.

The bill attacks only the results, not the causes, of poverty. What we need is a clear perspective, lest we get bogged down, wasting manpower, money, time and effort, in the conduct of a phony "War on Poverty."

—Sen. J. Glenn Beall.
