No First or Second Bus

This year there will no longer be a first or second bus arrangement. All bus children will be brought to the school at approximately the same time and leave at the same time. Morning busses should arrive at the school between 8:50 and 9:05. School will be dismissed at 3:30 in the afternoon and bus children will leave at that time followed by town children

Town Children

Parents of town children are advised that school doors will not be opened until 8:45 and children should be sent to school so as to arrive no earlier than the above time. School will begin at 9:10 and as a trial beginning it is anticipated that children will not go out to play before school. 1. Do we reject the child?
2. Do we openly show Do we openly show that we prefer a brother or sister to another child?

3. Are we so preoccupied with our own problems that the child is neglected? 4. Do we use withdrawal of affection as a means of punishment to control behavior? 5. Do we so overstress the importance of learning that the child of limited capacity feels he is not loved if he cannot excel at school?

6. Do we overprotect the child to the extent that we keep him from needed experiences with other children and adults?

7. Are we unusually severe in our punishments in an effort to insure right behavior?

The above undesirable practices are all negations of human needs for love, a sense of belonging, and feeling of self-worth and self-esteem. How these needs are implemented in the home and in the school will vary from child to child but they must be met if happiness, self-realization and wholesome child development are to be achieved.

SENATOR BREWSTER ASSIGNED TO COMMERCE COMMITTEE

Senator Daniel B. Brewster (D., Md.) has been assigned to the Com-merce Committee of the Senate of the United States. This Committee's responsibilities include the regulation of interstate commerce, communications, merchant marine, and civil aeronautics, among others. ator Warren M. Magnuson of Washington is Chairman.

Senator Brewster, who had sought this assignment, stated that he was "most gratified" with his new responsibility.

The Senator said, "The work of the Commerce Committee directly affects the great Port of Baltimore, the shipping, rail, and trucking industries, and the traffic at Friendship International Airport." The Senator Civil War relics, books, post cards is so important to the economic wel-and many other items.

Christian Day Kindergarten

With seventeen four and five-year-olds enrolled to date from Taneytown and neighboring communities, the Christian Day Kindergarten of Trinity Lutheran Church will hold its first session September 9, starting at 9:00 A. M. with Mrs. Charles Stonesifer, Teacher-Director, in charge.

Mrs. Stonesifer is presently selecting equipment, toys, games, puzzles and craft materials for use in the curriculum. Several items of equipment will be made by local craftsmen for Kindergarten use. A reading readiness workbook especially for kindergarten children will be used during the latter part of the year.

The curriculum will stress physical, social, emotional and intellectual growth of the pre-school child. It will give the child opportunities to learn to live in a Christian manner. The general objective is to assist the child n his relationships to God, church, Bible, fellow men, physical world, and himself, considering his understand-ings, attitudes and action patterns.

As recommended by educators nationally, the four and five-yearold children will work, play and learn together. Mrs. Howard Bream, Teacher-Director of Christ Lutheran Church Kindergarten, Gettysburg for the past ten years, states "The kindergarten with both four and five-yearold children is very good because it gives the child experience in being both the youngest and the oldest in the group over a two-year span."

Mrs. Stonesifer will plan a completely new program for the Christian Day Kindergarten in 1900-1901 avoid repetition for those four-yearolds enrolled now who will attend next year as second-year registrants. Special programs and field trips growing out of the pupils' experiences in the Kindergarten will highlight the coming term. The enrollment is still open; tuition is $17.00 per month per child. Sessions will be held Monday through Friday during the school year from 9:00 A. M. to 11:30 A. M. in the education building of Trinity Church.

If you want to open a business and succeed just try the restaurant business for people will eat any time! There is a grand place at the Hillendale Shopping Center on Loch Raven Blvd. and the name is "KEN'S" and to think it opened right next to "Ameche's." Ken engaged school girls and boys to aid him and the latter he taught to cook and the girls to serve and in September they all go back to classes. Consequently there will be a new group to be taught. No matter the hour one goes into dine, the place is crowded. It just takes nerve and I think you know what I mean. Eh? Go ahead and good

Now this from a couple who just returned by plane from a month's vacation abroad which was a chartered affair. They were simply exhausted after the return trip and remained in bed for two days! Champagne was served and much else during the trip as all on board were frightened when as all on board were frightened when the Stewardess announced just how to manipulate the "LIFE PRESER-VER"! Whoops that frightens man The elderly husband stated on the way back, "I'll appreciate America more than ever and I'll kiss the sort-as we land!" Paris surely does take the American for a ride as to more the the American for a ride as to money It is too bad but that is just how it is unless you know the ropes before you start. you start.

It surely does pay to advertise and that in any place. That cute ad as too the sweet Irish scrub woman talking to Mr. Clean. "Now, will ya be movim your big foot so as I can finish with scrubbing the floor! You know, where have I seen that man before? I think it was on TV." So on and so forth!" Cute?

Thinking about sweet individuals the mechanic of a garage drives all the way to Cumberland each night to visit his mother in the hospital and an 80-year old mother who was widowed recently sold the old farm house (where that tin cup was on a hook by the pump) and gave each son a $1,000. The one son took a long-Western trip with his gift and the other son placed the money in the bank! Ugh!

Ladies, if you have fat legs and really want to lose much weight in a month's time here it is and it works -every night without fail, shake each leg hard to the side of your body for just 100 times and you will really see the fat disappear! Start with 50 shakes for the first week and increase to 100 times threafter.

I know that "LILT" is the best for your hair and that since it first came out although I would not like it mixed with milk but could be! Just think up to date Mrs. Oswald's gifts from the American people now reaches the sum of $70,000. Whatever you do, girls always see that your white handbag is always fresh and clean and that by the cheapest thing in the world—soap and water. I saw a beautifully dressed lady the other day with a very very soiled white bag.

Do not fail to see, Debbie Reynolds at the Hippodrome in "The Unsinkable Molly Brown." Never have able Molly Brown." Never have I liked this actress in any show before but she sure tops it with this one. It is a musical comedy with Debbie as "Molly" and in the beginning she is a Hillbilly in them thar mountains. She is determined to leave home and as she says, "be somebody" she meets an outdoor guy whose voice you will—well—flop over for it is simply scrumptious! She marries that guy (A newcomer to the screen -Harve Presnell as Johnny). Riches come her way and soon she brings Royalty back from abroad! Never-have I seen Vim, Vigor and Vitality all in one girl to that extent! You will love it. When you hear Johnny sing,

"I can't say no!" you will just melt!
And as to, "My Fair Lady" at the Painter's Mill, don't miss it. You still have another week as all told it will mean just three weeks right there. You will hear your favorite, "I Could Have Danced All Night!" The Audience was a packed one and I saw

GUARANTOR OF A FREE PRESS

Something recently said by the Boonville, Indiana, Standard should be remembered:

"One of the most important byproducts of advertising is the American concept of freedom of the press. "Freedom of the press as it is conceived in the English-speaking world derives financial support from advertising. .

through advertising, publishers found a neutral and varigated source of support which made them independent. "Indeed, advertising made it imperative that the newspapers should think in terms of serving the whole public. . . "As government has become more complex, as law and rule by bureaus and agencies have burgeoned, there is more than ever a need for a press free from control of political interests.

"Such a press exists only where advertising support has made it possible for a publication to serve the whole public without fear or favor.'

Whatever shortcomings advertising may occasionally be guilty of, its virtues as a supporter of a free press overwhelmingly outweigh them.

"GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS"

OAKLEY, KAN., GRAPHIC: handed down a decision which shakes our system of government as we have practiced it. The Court announced . . that states unconstitutionally adopted the federal system of representation by people and area. . . But, our form of democracy has worked pretty well under this system, one of our checks and balances. The urban areas don't lose representation.

. . The Supreme Court sits in a lofty position and pronounces lofty decisions. In meaning well in its decisions for the people, has it really lost touch with them?"

CANTON, PA., INDEPENDENT-SENTINEL: "There are more than 30,000 persons killed in automobile accidents in this country every year, according to reliable estimates. The American public . . . have been, and still are, strangely unconcerned over this death rate. They seem to take it for granted that motor vehicles and dead pedestrians go together, and even if, at times, the occupants of the automobiles get killed, the accident is usually termed 'unavoidable'."

ARLINGTON, TEXAS, CITIZEN: "Once there lived in a village in Old England a boy who was considered stupid. Men found delight in offering him the choice between a three-penny bit and a penny. The lad always chose the penny. One day a stranger asked the boy if he chose the penny because it was the larger piece. The boy replied, 'Naw, not that. If I took the three-penny bit, they'd quit offering it.' Those who always want the biggest for themselves usually end up getting nothing."

CAMILLA, GA., ENTERPRISE: "We read recently a quotation from W. Somerset Maugham which went -'If a nation values anything more than freedom, it will lose its freedom; and the irony of it is that if it is comfort or money it values more, it will lose that too.' It might be well for us to ponder those words of wisdom. . . . We have moved a long way from the original concept; of our founding fathers who gave to their government rather than expecting something back from it."

ALBERT LEA, MINN., TRIBUNE: "A year or so ago President Kennedy proposed to the nation a federal system of mental health aids. . . . At that time, The Tribune cautioned against federal intervention in this sensitive field. Our opposition was based on the observation, that whatever the federal government does it either does badly or extravagantly or both. . . . We think insane people deserve better at the hands of their saner fellows than to be chucked into a federal pigeonhole and forgotten. There is evidence aplenty to support such a prediction if the care of our legally insane passes from local and state hands to the federal."

CURRENT EVENTS FIFTY YEARS AGO

Miss Alice Everhart, who taught in the Public School here, one Winter, and her sister, of Lynchburg, Va. spent several days this week as guests of Miss Rosa Kemper.

Wilbur and Russell, sons of D. Allen Stull, of near Bridgeport, while plowing one day last week, found a black snake's nest with 23 eggs. The eggs were the size of big pigeon eggs, and in each was a snake about eggs, and in each was a snake about a foot in length.

Dr. Artie B. Angell, wife and son, of Baltimore, visited his mother, Mrs. Nathan Angell, on Sunday. Dr. Angell, who is in the government service, as a meat inspector, has been recently transferred to Baltimore, from Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

of the estate of the late Judge Harry M. Clabaugh, immediately outside the limits of Taneytown, has been purchased by George Krug, Charles H. Basehoar, of Littlestown; Dr. Curtis Basehoar, Carlisle, and A. J. Hutton of Chambersburg, Penna. This is one of the largest real estate deals ever pulled off in the history of this vicinity, and was executed by D. W.

Garner, Real Estate Agent.

The 17th annual Maryland State Grange Fair opened in Ohler's Grove on Tuesday with several thousand in attendance. President Slonaker called the meeting to order and presented Past President, E. O. Garner, Master of Ceremonies. He introduced a Carroll County boy, Congressman J. A. Goulden of New York City, who spoke at some length regarding the action of Congress in behalf of the farmers. The display of products of the field, garden and orchard was fine. The horses, colts, cattle, calves and hogs on exhibition were of high order. The poultry exhibit was large and of finest breeds. The amount of machinery on the grounds surpassed all previous years and the shows on the midway were of a better class and more entertaining than hitherto.

HARNEY . . . One of the most destructive hail storms that we have ever seen, passed through here Satur-day evening. Corn crops and all gar-den vegetation are totally ruined, den vegetation are totally ruined, window lights were broken in by the hundreds, trees and buildings were blown down and many roofs damaged.

Rev. Heilman and wife visited friends here during the week. He was a former pastor of the Mt. Joy charge and during his pastorate organized the Lutheran congregation and built the church at this place; also built Mt. Joy after the old building had been destroyed by fire.

A New Start

I will start anew this morning with a higher, fairer creed; I will cease to stand complaining of my ruthless neighbor's greed; will cease to sit repining while my duty's call is clear;

I will waste no moment whining, and my heart shall know no fear. I will look sometimes about me for the things that merit praise;

I will search for hidden beauties that elude the grumbler's gaze.
I will try to find contentment in the paths that I must tread; I will cease to have resentment when another moves ahead. will not be swayed by envy when my rival's strength is shown; will not deny his merit, but I'll strive to prove my own; will try to see the beauty spread before me, rain or shine; will cease to preach your duty, and be more concerned with mine. -Author unknown.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to sincerely thank all my friends, neighbors, my parish priest, Rev. Joseph Kenney and my wonderful family for their attention, cards and love, but most of all a very, very, special thanks to "my" teen-agers and CYO for the flowers and their visits. God bless all of you. MRS. JOHN C. FANNIN this accomplishment. Harold A. Smith, president of Lutheran Brothand the other members of the board of directors join me in expressing appreciation to our employees and to Lutherans everywhere for their contribution toward the unprecedented growth of our society."

Founded in 1917 at a merger convention of three Norwegian Lutheran church bodies in St. Paul, Lutheran Brotherhood now is one of the nation's largest fraternal insurance societies and ranks among the top 5 per cent of all life insurance organizations.

Lutheran Brotherhood had assets of some 280 million dollars as of June 30 and earned a net interest rate of 4.85 per cent on all investments during the second quarter of 1964, one of the highest rates in the insurance industry.

"Lutheran Brotherhood has distributed more than 56 million dollars in dividends to its members over the years," Mr. Granrud said. "In 1964, the society will pay out nearly 9 million dollars in benefits to members, a sizable increase from the $7,800,000 distributed in 1963.

"Our fraternal activities this year will involve an expenditure of more than a million dollars. These activities include an extensive scholarship program benefiting Lutherans of all synods in the United States and Canada, and comprehensive Boy Scout, civic award and Sunday school teaching aid programs.

"The society will put about 3 million dollars into surplus this year, increasing the total to more than 27 million dollars."

Lutheran Brotherhood offers com-plete lines of life and health (income replacement) insurance to qualified Lutherans. The society earlier this year introduced new policies based on the 1958 CSO mortality table.

Mr. Granrud reported that Lutheran Brotherhood now has more than 480,000 policyholder-members. society is licensed to operate in 44 states, including Alaska and Hawaii; the District of Columbia and five Canadian provinces. It has a sales force of nearly 1,000 representatives, working under 74 general agents.

Lutheran Brotherhood was among the first financial institutions to grant church loans. The society over the years has loaned more than 65 million dollars to help 1,600 Luther-an congregations to build or enlarge churches. Other investments have included more than 33,000 mortgage loans on homes and farms exceeding million dollars.

Mr. James Fair is the local repre-sentative of Lutheran Brotherhood.

Observations on the World of Sports

Anybody who can figure out the CHICAGO WHITE SOX this year is the type of guy who can do long division in his head and have at least a fighting chance of explaining the theory of relativity.

The Sox are in the fight for the pennant despite the fact the first the firs pennant despite the fact they have lost all ten of their games with the New York Yankees. That means expended the statement of their games and the statement of actly what it says. Right then and there the Sox fell ten games behind the Yanks. That should have been enough to drop them into the second division. But, somehow, they have remained in the pennent fight remained in the pennant fight. It's the greatest feat of balancing since the amazing circus performer Unus perfected the trick of standing on one finger.

The Sox are beginning to think they are going to win the pennant. And who can blame them?

They will have to survive the month of August. In September they do not play either of the other two top contenders, New York and Baltimore. That means they can't blow it headto-head if they get in front in September. It also means they can't win it head-to-head if they fall behind.

An old hand at pennant fights, southpaw Don Mossi, thinks the Sox have a right royal chance of winning. As Mossi puts it: "This is the kind of team that does what it has to do to win. We've pulled out a lot of close ones and that gives you momentum.'

Pitcher Ray Herbert thinks the White Sox can win if they break even in the eight games left with the Yanks. That, of course, would be a considerable improvement over what they have done so far.

Something to remember about the White Sox is the fact that Al Lopez, their manager, is the only man in the last 15 years to beat the Yankees. Al did it with Cleveland in 1954 and with these same Sox in 1959.

This year just had to be better for FRANK ROBINSON than last but he wants it to be a whole lot better.

The Cincinnati Red slugger is away to a good start at the plate. He has been hovering around the .300 mark so far this year and should be at his best in the month ahead when the hitters usually find the range and the pitchers begin to feel the heat.

Robinson had a terrible season, for him, last year. His batting average dived all the way to .259 from a tremendous 1962 season which saw him hit .342. He had 26 home runs last year and 91 runs batted in as opposed to 39 homers and 136 rbi's in 1962.

Of course, there were reasons for the slump. For one thing a left arm that had 30 stitches taken in it after Ron Hunt of the Mets spiked him. That same arm also was stepped on by catcher Gene Oliver of Milwaukee.

Robinson also played a good deal of the season with a strained left wrist, the result of overswinging on a pitch. For obvious reasons he wanted nobody to know about that, Robinson arrived at training camp this spring determined to have a big season. He said he was well aware that baseball observers would be watching him closely this year to see if he could bounce back from a bad season.

Pride in his own performance spurred him on and one thing more. As Robinson puts it . . . "If I have a good year it will take some of the pressure off the other guys and maybe the whole team will play better."

Remember When Dept. — Eddie Waitkus was the top defensive first baseman in the American League and hit .283 in 1954 for the Birds. Today's Sport Laugh-Centerfielder Jimmy Piersall of the Angels re-calls the day he batted left handed and got three hits. When the game ended, Piersall passed Mickey Mantle and he said: "Hey, Jimmy, you've been hitting the wrong way for eleven years.'

SOUTH PENN LEAGUE

Saturday's Game

New Oxford erupted for seven runs in the eighth inning and defeated Taneytown in a make-up game, 7-2, at Memorial Park.

The Terrors enjoyed a 2-0 edge going into the eighth inning while starter Walt Donahue had a two-hitter against the Nuggets. New Oxford then scored seven runs on seven hits and two Taneytown errors. Taneytown scored two runs in the first frame on hits by Don Favorite and Ernie Combs and a miscue by the New Oxford first baseman.

Faith on Trial Lesson for August 16, 1964

Background Scripture: Numbers 11 through 14.
Devotional Reading: Hebrews 3:12-19.

THEY WERE not Boy Scouts, those famous spies Moses sent ahead into Canaan before he undertook to invade the country. We all know about spies nowadays and what they do. Moses' spies, like those of modern times, had one main object: to look at the enemy's defenses and estimate their war-strength. These spies would not travel under cover of darkness, and they had no U-2's to help them. They had to

Dr. Foreman look at everything from the ground level. They would probably be dressed like Egyptians and speak Egyptian. On the streets of cities in Pales-tine Egyptian salesmen were familiar figures, so these twelve men had no trouble getting in to Canaan or getting out again.

The grasshopper mind But what they saw! Great high thick walls around every city; tall strong men, prosperity and power everywhere. The twelve men were unanimous on one point: Canaan was a beautiful and fertile land, and well worth taking if they could. . . If they could! That was where the Intelligence Department split. Big cities, yes; rich country, strong people, yes. But can we win in a war? Ten men said No, Joshua and Caleb said Yes. What the majority said is remarkable. "We were as grasshoppers in our sight, and so we were in their sight." This kind of thinking is called nowadays an inferiority complex, but we can just as well call it the grasshopper mind. If you think of yourself as a grasshopper, it is pretty contain that no one clea is going. certain that no one else is going to mark up the cheap price-mark you have put on yourself. Those Hebrews had come out of generations of undernourishment and hardship, and were no doubt little undersized people compared with the big bold Canaanites. So the Ten said, We'll never make it; while only two men had resisted the grasshopperism of their ten

They left God out This was not the first time, nor the last, that a majority has been wrong. You can't find out what is right, you cannot have reliable information about present facts or future policies, by simply counting noses. Fifty million Frenchmen can be wrong, smashingly The majority report may be the signpost on the road to ruin. Now when a majority is wrong, there is always a reason for it somewhere. The reason is plain in this case. The reader will notice that the ten No-sayers said only "we are not able . . . they are stronger than we." The two Yes-sayers said "The Lord is with us; do not fear them." Now all Israel professed to believe in God. It had not been long since they made that covenant with God at Mt. Sinai. But when it came to a pinch, the ten grasshopper men forgot all about God. Unfaith is expensive

Both faith and unfaith are expensive. The tribesmen to whom the committee of spies reported chose the way of unfaith and they were 35 years paying for it. Now the way of faith is expensive too, but in another way. Unfaith costs success, happiness, honor, and ends in dismal failure. Faith costs the effort, sometimes a heroic effort, to live by it-a faith you cannot live by and fight for is no true faith. But it wins the approval of God in the end. Faith is like a power-tool. A good one may be expensive; but you do not save by taking a cheap one instead. "Quality remains after the price is forgotten." Pay for faith or unfaith you must; but in the long run you will wish (as the Israelites dying in the wilderness no doubt wished many a time) that you had chosen the way of faith. Yet this too is costly; cheap faith is not faith at all. God approves men of courage like Joshua and Caleb; but he does not reward such men by making life easy for them. Odd as it may seem, it is God's way to make faith hard for believers.

These ads have helped to sell an impressive number of Bonds. And they have helped, and are now helping, your country defend freedom at a moment in history when freedom urgently needs defending.

FUNMOBILE CHILDREN WILL MAKE FAVORS FOR PATIENTS AT CARROLL COUNTY HOSPITAL

Children attending the Carroll County YMCA Funmobile will present

County YMCA Funmobile will present hand-made favors to patients of the Carroll County General Hospital. Throughout the week of August 10, over one hundred youngsters are devoting time to the project. The presentation will be made at 3:30 P. M. on Friday, August 14.

Miss Elizabeth Watkins, crafts director of the Funmobile, reported that the children were foregoing their regular crafts program this week. Officials at the hospital have reported that during the summer months, when there are few special holidays, there are few occasions when outside groups do special projects, such as groups do special projects, such as this, for the patients. The favors will be placed on the patients trays at dimer on Sunday has brought recreation, physical education, crafts, stories, and songs to over one hundred boys and girls throughout Carroll County. The "YM CA on Wheels" has traveled to Sykesville, Sandymount, Westminster, Hampstead, Union Bridge, Mt. Airy and Taneytown. The program has been under the direction of Mr. Burnell Bentz of Hampstead, and Miss Elizabeth Watkins of Westminster. Richard Kelly, Director of the Carroll County YMCA said that he was proud of the youngsters in the Funmobile. "This is what the YMCA is all about," he explained. "It is our goal to get residents of Carroll County to work together, play together, and help one another. These children are setting an example for all of us to follow." The Carroll County YM CA, with offices in Westminster, is a member agency of your United Appeal.

AUGUST NINTH

A birthday anniversary we should honor as that of our Red Land's most famous son. Our Nation, our State, and others honor the author for the song he wrote, but we in addition venerate his memory as a native son. Please read:

Birthplace of Francis Scott Key August 9th, 1780 Erected by the Patriotic Order Sons of America and the Pupils of The Public Schools June 12th, 1915

In asking you to read the above inscription which is chiseled on the marble monument at Terra Rubra, it is our hope you will re-visit this shrine. It would please us very much if the local Community Calendar could have this date noted as "Key's highly a straight of the local could have the same than the straight of the local could have the same than the could have this date noted as "Key's birthday," and, we think the Government would do well to honor the donors of the Memorial Flag Pole by presenting them with the flag that flew at Terra Rubra on the birthday of the author of the feature theme of the Sesqui-Centennial World's Fair.
