KEY INITIATES ACTIVITY PROGRAM FOR YEAR

Francis Scott Key H. S. initiated an activity program during the past school week. One day per week the school will operate on a 7-period day rather than the usual 6-period day During that seventh period, students will have the opportunity to participate in student organizations such as the School Newspaper, the Year-book, Student Council, National Honor Society, Future Business Leaders of America, Future Farmers of America, Future Homemakers of America, Future Teachers of America and Future Teachers of America and Future Newscare States ca, and Future Nurses of America. Band and Chorus practices will also be held during this activity period. In conjunction with the activity program, various club activities will take place during this 7th period. Examples of these clubs are: Science Club, Art Club, Radio Club, Applied Arts Club, and Photography Club. The purpose of these clubs is to give students the opportunity to explore to some extent an area in which they are interested but is not offered as a regular classroom activity. By having a program of this type during a seventh period once a week, it is hoped that interruptions of the regular classroom instructional program enjoying the best spaghetti this side can be held to a minimum.

Miscellaneous action was taken in connection with the certificate classification of teachers who had earned the description of the control of t credits of qualified in other ways for reclassification.

A vacant scholarship to Western Maryland College from the Middleburg District was filled by the appointment of Miss Donna Hann for

The Board took action to approve several pieces of correspondence growing out of the September meeting and, also, were furnished with copies of the news release issued following the last meeting on Sep-tember 16.

The Board considered several items related to the preparation of the School Budget for 1965 - 66. Action was also taken to approve the auditor's report submitted for the school year ending June 30, 1964. It was directed that a summary of this report be included in the Annual Report which will be issued during November. Further action was taken to approve the recommendation of the Superintendent that an audit now be carried on only at the end of the fiscal year.

The Board was given certain information regarding the organization of the Robert Moton School and visited this school for the purpose of becoming acquainted with the facil-ities. The Board also visited the East End School where they were shown the existing facilities now being used by 454 pupils in grades one and two.

The Board gave approval to the architect's sketches of the Southern High School and directed that the plans be approved and that the Capital School and Capital School and Capital School Sc ital Improvements Commission be advised of the planning as per arrangement already in progress. The sketches were shown to the Board and after discussion the Superintendent was directed to proceed with the archi-tects in the planning of preliminary drawings, with the hope that working drawings can be completed in the early Spring. The Superinten-dent was directed to attend the meeting of the Capital Improvements Commission later in the day to give information to this group regarding the plans.

The Board considered several additional pieces of correspondence of various nature and directed that propriate replies be made. The Board gave approval to the distribution of funds for the support of physical education, school libraries, and other special support for pupil activities. Action was also taken to approve a re-edited statement related to teachers' absences. The Board gave approval to a statement submitted by the Superintendent giving information regarding the comprehensive Southern High School. Authority was also given the Su-perintendent to proceed with the advertising of a grading project at the Mt. Airy School to make useable certain land not now in condition to be used. This is a tract on the Watersville Road owned by the Board of Education and can be improved to permit its use as an athletic field.

The Board also took action to approve and give authority to the Su-perintendent for the purchase of three additional classrooms of the relocatable type. It is expected that immediate action will be taken to secure bids and delivery of classrooms to be used in the Southern part of the county to relieve present crowded conditions.

Adjournment was at 12:00 Noon fter which the Board visited the Robert Moton and East End locations.

KIWANIS KLAXON

October 14, 1964

A well attended and inspirational meeting which featured a memorial service to our departed comrade Edward Stuller, followed by a fine exegesis of our needs as citizens of a "Freedom Lovin" Republic, stressing the great need of Freedom and Priwacy by Lieut. Governor Jerry Goodman of Winchester, Va., was a lesson we might well heed in this year of turbulence and world-wide turmoil. Two new members, Mr. Roy Knouse and Mr. Francis Lookingbill were inducted and became the possessors of the Kiwanis Button; may we congrat-ulate these gentlemen and wish for them many happy hours of Kiwanis Fellowship.

The evening closed with a moving picture of the contemplated program of harnessing and purifying the waters of the Potomac River and its tributaries to insure a plentiful and safe water supply for future generations.

Honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Myers and two young gentle-men from the local Key Club.

SIGNS OF THE SEASON IN THE COUNTRY

Busy farmers, picking corn and owing barley.
Frosted meadows, glinting whitely n the early morning sunshine.

Burnished trees, sparkling against the October sky. Spicey leaves, drifting in showers to the ground. Corn shocks, standing like brown sentinels in the fields.

Cautious pheasants, peering wary about for hunters. Bright-eyed squirrels, scampering ere and there.

Plump walnuts, falling with loud thuds from the trees.

Migratory birds, assembling for their long, mysterious journeys.

The wood-stove, crackling and sputtering on these chilly days. Blue smoke, ascending lazily from farm house chimneys.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I, too, have often felt like writing to The Carroll Record to try to express a little of what I feel in going over your paper, just as when I watched my father and mother before me thru to their good ripe years. Besides that, it savors so of childhood and the years of life's awakening. The Carroll Record was a part of them like their Bible.

of Commerce welcome signs at the four entrances to Taneytown.

Chamber members are again reminded, the practice of sending notices of meetings has been discontinued. Meetings are held the third Monday of each month at Taney Inn at 6:30 P. M.

The Carroll County TB Association Prepare for Christmas Seals Campaign

Members of various organizations, clubs and individuals from Carroll County are now stuffing envelopes, each containing Christmas Seals, a message and a return envelope.

There are 13,000 letters being stuffed sorted and sealed and made ready for the post offices on this 16th day of November which is the opening date of the 58th annual Christmas Seal Campaign all over the U.S.

These envelopes are mailed to residents in Carroll County so that they may determine how much they want to contribute to help eradicate tuberculosis from Carroll County. There is no pressure from their place of work, there is no payroll deduction.

Mrs. John C. Schaeffer, chairman of the 1964 Christmas Seal Campaign said, throughout 57 years that Christmas Seals have been in action they have led the way in a long and costly fight against tuberculosis, "In spite of the miracle of modern drugs and the latest surgical methods which save lives of TB patients, Mrs. Schaeffer said, we continue to have tuberculosis in Carroll County and there is no sure vaccine which will prevent tuberculosis from striking at you, or me or our neighbor.'

The following persons have given many hours of their time to prepare the mailing: Mrs. Mae Shipley, Mrs. Maggie Kane, Miss Mary Litfle, Mrs. Florence Couzins, Mrs. Bessie Law, Mrs. Jeanne Boone, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. John C. Schaeffer, chairman. From the Smallwood Homemakers Club: Mrs. J. E. Gartland, Mrs. Owen Edmonston, Mrs. Clarence Glover, Mrs. Charles Hill, Mrs. Lester Warehime, and Mrs. Clarence Seipp. From Middlerun Homemakers: Bertha Shipley, Mrs. Ruth Niner, Mrs. Elenor Coleman, Mrs. Bertha Miller, Mrs. Anna Brauning, Mrs. Catherine Hofferberth, Mrs. Thelma A. Dobson.

The winner will receive a trophy and a $50.00 Savings Bond. The two runners-up will receive a trophy and a $25.00 Savings Bond.

'SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.

I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The day was a delightful one driving up around the town. First, I stopped on the way on Falls Road to see the grand, "Old Line Shoppe" at 6239 Falls Road, to view their exciting collections of unusual gifts and Heirloom Reproductions and conversation pieces in wood, glass, pewter and brass. They also have an exclusive line of women's country clusive line of women's country clothes and sportswear and I know you and you will find your visit most interesting. This lovely Shoppe was opened just recently by a young couple and without a doubt the young wife is one of the most beautiful girls in the world! There are two tiny youngsters to add to their lives plus all the excitement of this old stone building. Go in, Folks and brouse around as I am sure you will see many gifts that will interest you for they are lovely. A quick way to get there is over the Beltway to Exit 23 and then South just 2 miles. The Possessors are "Kandi and Bill Leaving "Old Line Shoppe," drove up Fallsway Road to Valley Road which I had all to myself and with the Autumn foliage in the vivid col-ors — well — that drive over to Reisterstown Road will always be something to think about. It was truly like a picture, and to think so very near us. No other state has such rolling hills one right after the other.

Then I drove North of the little town of Taneytown, East and then West and then South again. What a clean little town! There is truly an atmosphere of Williamsburg, Va., and with each visit I love it all the more.
Now here's to the Chamber of Com-Now, here's to the Chamber of Com-merce! The very first sign to direct the driver (and that in case he may the driver (and that in case he may be a stranger) is the one on the high way of the Westminster Nursery. There should be one long before that and I do hope it will be erected very shortly. As I drove past the old farm where those delicious chicken dinners were served, I slowed down to take a full view of it and there it was right on that very corner as of days long ago and I must admit. I was one long ago and I must admit, I was one of their first customers when the daughters would wait on the tables with their College friends! We were always ushered in first and there were 18 courses! Ummmmmm good! And that was many years before I ever thought I would be living near that little town!

I do not understand why someone does not open that movie again with the fine pictures for that would bring much business to the town. I recall when I first started to write this Column, I stated and that was 17 years ago that we needed a hospital right in Westminster! Remember? And it all has come to pass! Don't be afraid if you have ideas and can have some one to back you if you do not have enough cash - go to your banker and talk it over with him and he will set you straight and encourage you if he thinks it worthwhile. Years ago in Philadelphia, I desired to be a teller in a bank and everyone who heard that desire just grinned and made a huge joke out of it! Think now, Folks of the hundreds and hundreds of lady tellers!

"Becket" is still playing at the Mayfair with Richard Burton and Peter O'Toole. If you care for massive spectacles plus the history of ancient times, this picture is for you. It is thrilling and the color is beyond describing! The acting is supply the special of the state of the special of the speci perb! The film starts right off with much interest from the very beginning.

Now, there is a new drink by the "Seven Up" Co. called, "LIKE" and artificially sweetened. due to it being artificially sweetened, it is a diet drink that really quenches your thirst As you houseclean, Mrs. housewife

-do plan simple meals that will be cooking while you work and that way it will be better for all in your house! That nice Mr. Sam of Littlestown who has a small farm is not manager anymore down at the Lexington Garage. He seemed to be such a capable individual. They all miss him! Now, Folks if a project seems too big, break it up into simple steps of action. Then negotiate those steps like rungs of a ladder — one at a time; and don't allow yourself to think about difficulties of step number two until you have executed step

Until next week. D. V.

"GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS"

THREE FORKS, MONT., HER-ALD: "In a January 15 speech in the White House, LBJ said: 'We are going to try to take all of the money that we think is unnecessarily being need it so much.' Now that quote raises a lot of questions - some that might get rather loud. Just what 'have nots'? The tenant farmers on his wife's plantation? The Yugoslavs? The registered Democratic voters in New York's Harlem? The starving Cubans? And what is 'money that we think is unnecessarily being spent?' Who decides what is unnecessary spending? Bureaucrats or Register of Wills for Carroll County. taxpayers? Internal Revenue officials, maybe? A $25,000-a-year federal judge? A jury? And, finally, who are the 'haves'? Until there's some clarification, we'll have to think that the gentleman is talking about our own bank account savings and pocketbook. And yours. You know, we just read that quote again, and now we have a whole new set of questions to ask about it. Haven't you?"

EMPORIA, KAN., GAZETTE ". . . a young widow who is left to rear two small daughters alone came to The Gazette with a request. . . . She asked that the paper publish a estate. warning about the poison gas that killed her 23-year-old husband. . . The man had rented a gasoline pump to suck the sludge from the bottom of a water well. They lowered the pump into the well. . . . They waited 30 minutes for the air in the well to clear and then the young woman's husband climbed to the bottom to clean out the remaining sludge by hand. A few minutes later he was dead. . . . the young wife thinks that a similar tragedy could be avoided if only people knew more about deadly carbon monoxide."

EVERETT, WASH., HERALD: "One of the silliest moves in recent years - and that's saying something - is the determination by a number of states to collect state income taxes from aircraft crews on that portion of their earning time they spend in or over the states involved. . . Well, it's crazy. At 600 miles an hour a pilot might owe Louisiana 44 minutes and five seconds of income tax on his flight pay. Or 43 minutes and 10 seconds' worth. And how about the orbiting astronaut?"

BRIGHTON, MICH., ARGUS: "Of all the grim records of violence and death down through mankind's long history, perhaps the strangest and most tragic is the story of the automobile and its annual army of victims. Since the first horseless carriage chugged noisily down cobblestone streets, more than 60 million Americans - killed, crippled and maimed - have inscribed their names on what has been aptly referred to as 'the dishonor roll.' By whatever name, the yearly casualty count continues its shameful, senseless growth."

YORK, NEBR., NEWS-TIMES: "The precocious political plans of some Massachusetts teen-agers appear to have been nipped in the bud. The youngsters - including a girl decided to run for the state's House of Representatives on the basis of a loophole they found in the law which neglected to place an age limitation on independent candidates

. State officials have been notably ill-humored about the whole thing, regarding it as a particularly embarrassing bit of teen-aged prankishness . . . it seems these kids ought to be praised rather than censured for taking such an active interest in politics. How many grownups have ever studied their state statutes? How many don't even bother to vote?"

BURLEY, IDAHO, HERALD BUL-LETIN: "... we are still free people .. we still have a choice in selecting our representatives . . and . . . as long as this condition continues to exist, we can always accomplish with ballots - instead of bullets - whatever changes in government may become necessary."

dren will be gathered together to be sent to them.

It is good news, indeed, to hear the other side to Charles Stonesifer, It is good news, indeed, to hear that Mrs. Charles Cluts, a patient at Western Maryland Hospital in Hag-erstown, was home at Riverdale Farm near Keysville for the week-end. Don't forget to make the change in your clocks on Saturday night Last Sunday in October is always the change back to Eastern Standard Time and the "regaining" of that hour lost last April.

Congratulations to the Keysville Softball Team upon finishing in first place in the Brotherhood League. There were four teams in the league Baust, Trinity, Frizellburg and Keys-ville, and each team was to play a total of 18 games which took place or the grounds at Taneytown High School. The Keysville team won 17 games and lost none. There was also one tied game that was not played off due to cold weather. The team off due to cold weather. The team players, managed by Charles Young, were Gary Schildt, Gary Abrecht, Johnny Young, Neil Wilhide, Danny Wilhide, Hugh Engel, Donald Shoemaker, Larry Stambaugh, Darrell Young, Buddy Storey and Charles Young, Scorekeepers, were Terry Young. Scorekeepers were Terry Poist and Barbara Schildt.

Was good to see Harry Clabaugh of Taneytown back in church on Sunday after spending almost two weeks at Annie Warner Hospital for tests and observation. "Feeling better" was his report. Belated Happy Birthday wishes to Neil Wilhide whose day was the 14th. Fred Stonesifer of Keysville and Oxen Hill spent a week touring in the Smoky Mountains and doing some hunting in Tennessee. He shot a black bear and a wild turkey. The black bear is good eating, he said, and the turkey is being saved for a family Thanksgiving dinner.

back with us. In reading an article in a church paper it seems it has always been said a woman was responsible for the downfall of a man, but then according to the dictates of the New Testament it is the woman's place. This is the title of this piece. Woman's Place, because of the dictates of the New Testament, it seems to some Christian Women that men have the better part and the women the lesser. Remember, dear friends, that it was not a woman but a man who betrayed our Lord and sold him for 30 pieces of silver; it was not a woman but a man who denied him thrice; and not women but men who forsook him and fled and it was women and not men who remained by him in his agony at Calvary. It was women not men who first went to the tomb on the third day. God bless the women for their faithfulnes where men so often fail the Lord. -The Pilgrim by Oscar Johnson

THE WAY I SEE IT ...

Observations on the World of Sports

There are four players in the NATIONAL BASKETBALL ASSO-IATION who are considered super stars. Alphabetically, they are Elgin Baylor of the Los Angeles Lakers, Wilt Chamberlain of the San Fran-cisco Warriors, Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals and Bill Russell of the Boston Celtics. On the eve health. The Lakers' versatile forward. Baylor, missed several games last season because of calcification in his knees. Over the Summer, he rebuilt the power in his legs by applying weights to his feet and lifting. Laker coach Fred Schaus says he did not push Baylor hard in the exhibition games. But Schaus says Elgin is ready to play between 38 and 40 minutes a game.

of the season's opening, all four are in questionable status because of their

If he is, then Los Angeles again will have the most dangerous one-two scoring punch in the league — Baylor and sharpshooting guard Jerry West. However, the Lakers have not improved the position where they were weakest - at center. That weakness again could cost them the Western division championship.

With Chamberlain, the warriors appear to be a powerful squad. Without the seven-foot-one giant, San Francisco probably would be an alsoran in the Western division. All Wilt does is average about 45 points and 25 rebounds a game.

For the past three weeks, Chamberlain underwent hospital tests following a nervous collapse. He was hit with stomach and chest pains. His stomach still hurts and he is in Philadelphia for a checkup by his personal physician. Chamberlain's ability to perform up to his full capabilities remains questionable. The most improved team in the West this year should be the re-vamped Baltimore Bullets. The Bullets have a new coach - Buddy Jeannettee — and several new players, including high-scoring N-B-A veterans Bailey Howell and Don Ohl. Howell, Ohl, Bob Ferry and Wally Jones a swift Rookie from Villanova, were obtained in a major trade with the Detroit Pistons.

They will join huge Walt Bellamy, last year's Rookie standout, Gus Johnson, and two-time all-America Gary Bradds of Ohio State.

The Pistons, trying to escape the cellar in the West, left themselves open for wide criticism by trading Howell and Ohl. But they feel they helped themselves by getting Terry Dischinger, Rod Thorn and Don Kojis from the Bullets. The Pistons also will have seven-foot Reggie Harding for his first full season. After joining Detroit late last season, Harding ing Detroit late last season, Harding showed great promise, although he never played college ball.

The other team in the West, the The other team in the West, the St. Louis Hawks, again will rely on their old pros — Bob Pettit, Cliff Hagen, Richie Guerin and Lenny Wilkens. Coach Harry Gallatin, formerly one of the most rugged rebounders in the League, helped the Hawks' rebounding by drafting Paul Silas of Creighton. Although not a consistent shooter, Silas was one of the leading rebers of the leading the leading rebounders in the coun-ry for the past two years. Boston's irrepressible Celtics, led by defensive genius Russell, are favored to win the Eastern division of the lineup. However, a worsening of the lineup. However, a worsening Superintendent; and Mrs. Russell of the ailment could force him to Gassman, Missionary Supt. Special the sidelines.

Last season, the Celtics proved they could win without the immortal Bob Cousy, now, they are seeking a repeat — dedicated to the memory of their late president, Walter Brown. Boston's strongest competition in the East should come from the pow-erful Cincinnati Royals. However, the Royals' do-everything guard, Robertson, has been hampered by a pulled thigh muscle during the exhibition campaign. The loss of Robertson campaign. The loss of Robertson would be almost as disastrous to Cincinnati as the absence of Chamber-lain would be to San Francisco.

However, Cincinnati would have more scoring punch than San Francisco. The Royals also can count on former Ohio State All-America Jerry Lucas, rugged Wayne Embry and veteran Jack Twyman. The other two teams in the East, the Philadelphia 76-ers and the New York Knickerbockers, again will fight it out for the third and final play-

The 76-ers have one of the finest backcourt players in the league, Hal Greer, and the N-B-A'S iron-man, center Johnny Kerr. They also have two fine rookies, Lucious Jackson of Pan-American College and Ira Harge of New Mexico.

A rookie from Grambling College Willis Reed, is expected to solve the Knicks' problem at center. And N-B-A veterans Len Chappell, Bob Boozer and Johnny Egan all will be playing their first full seasons with the Knicks. They joined the club af-ter the start of last season and now should be fully acclimated to the Knick's system.

REMEMBER WHEN DEPT. last week we promised a summary of the past world series and a story about the Orioles. We got carried away with basketball this week and since that is more topical right now we will carry the baseball next week, for sure.

TODAY'S SPORT LAUGH sensational rookie pitcher of the Or-ioles, Californian Wally Bunker, has impressed everyone, but not as much as Robin Roberts. When Robert was told Bunker's age he remarked: "Are you sure he's only 19? Those Californians are so relaxed they may have lost his birth certificate."

Senator Weant Explains Questions Before the Voters

In addition to voting for the President and Vice President, a United States Senator, a Congressman-at-large and a Congressman for the Second Congressional District in the General Election on Tuesday, November 3, 1964, the voters of Carroll County will be asked to vote on 5 questions. Questions 1 through 4 will be on Constitutional Amendments and question 5 will be on a Referendum. This column will attempt to explain the questions which will be put be fore the voters in order that the matters will be more fully understood. This week we will explain questions 1, 2 and 3 and next week we will follow with questions 4 and

Question 1 will appear on the voting machine as follows:

"To amend the Constitution of Maryland to extend the time during which a charter board under the house rule provisions for counties may prepare a charter form of government and correcting errors therein'

This is the amendment to Section One of Article IIA of the Constitu-tion of Maryland. This section of the Constitution relates to the procedure to be followed for a county to be-pose of setting up a charter form of government. At present the charter board is given 6 months from the date of its election to accomplish this. The proposed amendment would change this period of 6 months to 12 months. This, of course, is for the purpose of giving the charter board more time in which to prepare the charter form of government.

charter form of government.

The second question will appear on the voting machine as follows:

"To amend the Constitution of Maryland to provide that in Montgomery County, on or after November 8, 1966, the several judges of the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, shall sit alternately in ery County shall sit alternately in rotation as an Orphans' Court for said County, exercising all the power, authority, and jurisdiction which Orphans' Courts now or hereafter have or exercise, and to eliminate the election of Orphans' Court judges in Montgomery Coun-

While this matter only affects Montgomery County, it is a Constitution Amendment and must be submitted to all the voters of the State. This amendment would abolish the Orphans' Court in Montgomery County, its justiciable work to be done by the Circuit Court. The administrative procedure would be handled by the Register of Wills. There have been numerous proposals in the past to abolish the Orphans' Court throughout the State but this amendment would affect, as stated above, only Montgomery County.

Question 3 will appear on the voting machine as follows:

"To amend the Declaration of Rights of the Constitution of Maryland to declare that the office of Notary Public shall not be considered an office of profit within the meaning of that Article".

This proposal is as an amendment to Article 35 of the Declaration of Rights in the Constitution of Maryland. Article 35 prohibits any person from holding more than one office of profit which is created by the Constitution and the Laws of Maryland

In this case, "office" is distinguished from ordinary employment.

It has been held in the past that the office of Notary Public is an office within the meaning of Article 35. If therefore followed that a person commissioned as a Notary Public. commissioned as a Notary Public could not hold another office created under the Constitution and the Laws of this State. The proposed amendment would clarify this matter and say that the position of Notary Public is not to be considered an office of profit. This would allow a person who holds an office under the Constitution or the Laws of this State to also be a Notary Public. Explanations of the final 2 questions will appear next week.

Throughout the world, students soon will be returning to school. From the pages of Encyclopedia International, here are a few facts about the origins of certain educational customs, both in the United States and abroad.

In 1647, the General Court of Massachusetts passed a law establishing a system of public elementary and secondary schools. This was the first such law set up in this country to provide com-pulsory, free, and tax-sup-ported education. -Encyclopedia International, University libraries first came into importance with the collection of the University of Paris in 1150. The American college collection was started by John Harvard when he gave 329 books to the college later named after him. Today, large universities, such as Columbia, claim over 2 million volumes in their libraries.

versities, students and their professors attended classes every day in a cap and gown. Around the turn of this century, American edu-cators drew up a code for these long black robes to be used at formal school ceremonies and graduations. Different colored velvet bands on the robe, such as green for a degree in Medicine or purple for a degree in Law, indicate the major field of study. -Encyclopedia International, Vol. 1, pg. 24.

Adventure whispered in the wind and Glenn Robert, age five, heard its call. "Of course," his mother said, "you can go up to Marky's to play. Be home around lunchtime," she called after him.

But lunchtime passed. Glenn's mother went out and looked up toward Mark's house. There was no sign of Glenn. She called Mark's mother, "I thought they went back to your house." Two more phone calls-no one had seen him. Could some stranger ...?

She pushed the thought from her mind and quickly dialed another of Glenn's kindergarten friends, this one on Hollow Road, many streets away. "Yes, he's here. Hold on, I'll get him."

Problems have a way of disappearing when you lift your phone.

Glenn's mother hung up the phone and smiled; the adventurer was on his way home.

For emergencies of any sizepleasure any day-phones are friends.

Keeping Fit Lesson for October 25, 1964

Background Scripture: I Timothy 3:14 through 4:16.
Devotional Reading: I Corinthians 9:24-27.

A S USUAL, there is a great deal more in the passages of Scripture which have been selected for this study than we shall get out of it. But the reader will be rewarded for his own explorations. The topic chosen is one out of several that are to be found here. One striking thought in these few sentences is that there is a likeness between athletes such as you see in an Olympic contest, and athletes of

Dr. Foreman the spirit. The first thing an athlete in any sport has to learn—and if he doesn't learn it he never learns anything else-is keeping fit.

Follow directions

When a boxer goes into training, or a swimmer is pointing toward the big meet, there is always a trainer. Whether it's bodybuilding exercises in general or working up a good backhand in tennis, or whatever, if you won't or can't take directions you won't go far. We can think of Paul as Timothy's spiritual teacher. Timothy was an unusually good man, you would think he did not need any one to tell him; but his friend Paul writes to tell him what to do to become a better Christian, a better man, a better minister. If you get to thinking you know more than the coach, you won't stay on the squad long. Yet a good athlete is not a mere robot, he thinks for himself. One of the jobs a trainer has is to cultivate, in the men he is training, independence of judgment, ability to act quickly in new situations. In the same way, growing in the spiritual life is going to be impossible for the person who refuses to learn from those who are better at it than he is.

Good food Another essential in physical training is good food. You don't feed a football team on cokes and malteds all the time. You can't build up a strong body by eating and drinking half-spoiled food and drink. It's the same way with what is more important than your body, namely your soul. Your soul is just your real inner self, your soul even more than your body

Train yourself

The old-fashioned word "godliness" means simply God-likeness. There is no higher aim possible to any man than to become like God. But Godlikeness does not descend on us like sunshine and rain. Timothy at any rate (and no doubt you and I too) was expected to train himself in Godlikeness. Remember Timothy was a good man. If anybody could grow spiritually without trying, surely it was he. But Paul talks about toiling and striving-he followed his own advice! It is not easy to grow as a Christian. Paul himself referred to the whole of the Christian life as a fight, a race. Anyone who sincerely wishes to grow more like the master has a fight on his hands. There is too much in this world that hates goodness, for goodness to be had just for the wishing.

Watch a pitcher warming up in the bull pen. Why does he do it? He's been on the mound scores of times before. Baseball is nothing new to him. And yet to practice just as if he were a rookie. No matter how good you are as an athlete in any line, you need practice to improve. One pole vault is not enough to perfect your form. This is just as true in the inner life. One act of kindness does not make you a kind man. One deed of self-sacrifice does not turn you into a saint. It is only the beginner in golf who keeps thinking how to hold his wrist. Only after years of practice will he be able to hold his wrist right without thinking. How much more important it is to live rightly with God and other men! But if you don't practice you'll never learn.
