Kindergarten News

In observance of National Education Week, parents of children attending the Christian Day Kindergarten of Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, were invited to attend the regular kindergarten session on Tuesday, November 10, by Mrs. Charles Stonesifer, Teacher-Director.

These guests, numbering 18, observed the children as they participated in the standard daily program. Currently, the kindergartners are concentrating on Thanksgiving, with emphasis on this holiday's meaning, customs, historical significance and symbols.

Recently added to the kindergarten's play and exercise equipment were a rocking boat, seating four children, which reverses to become a platform with steps, and a folding play screen, used for creative "store" play and puppet shows, and a portable aluminum see-saw. The rocking boat and folding screen were designed and made by Mr. Thomas Maley and painted by Mrs. Howard Miller.

Among the many activities engaged in by the eighteen four- and five-year olds this fall were a nature walk, a Halloween costume party and parade in Taneytown's business section, and the study of their first live pet, a turtle named "Cutie." Each child's birthday is being observed. Memorization and dramatization of nursery rhymes, the distinguishing of colors, music appreciation, and various craft activities have also been programmed thus far in the Christian Day Kindergarten's two and one-half months of operation.

Many men owe the grandeur of their lives to their tremendous difficulties. — Spurgeon.

Swimming Pool Committee News

Taneytown area residents received the kick-off appeal letter and illustrated promotional brochure this week for the Taneytown Community Swimming Pool Project Fund Raising Campaign through the mail. This first direct solicitation for funds to raise the needed $60,000 for the pool's construction in Memorial Park was accompanied by a card on which residents could pledge donations, indicate their preferred giving plan, or state their contributions outright. A postage-paid return envelope was included.

It is the hope of the Finance and Fund Raising sub-committee, Argyle Kaufman and Harry Dougherty, Jr., co-chairmen, that recipients of the mailing will return their donations and pledge cards as soon as possible to "Taneytown Swimming Pool Project, Taneytown, Maryland." Checks are to be made payable to the City of Taneytown Swimming Pool Fund. Additional brochures and pledge cards are available at the First National Bank.

The Mayor and City Council of Taneytown authorized the project's Executive Committee to serve for the duration of the campaign as Agents of the City of Taneytown. All donations are tax deductible, and can be pledged or paid in two income tax years, 1964 and 1965, with final payments on pledges due by May 1, 1965.

As Agents of Taneytown, the Executive Committee is authorized to solicit funds in the name of the City of Taneytown; disbursement of all funds will be at the direction of the Treasurer of the Executive Committee, Argyle Kaufman, and the Town Treasurer, Henry Reindollar. Donated funds will be used only for pool construction costs, and construction will not begin until all the needed $60,000 is directly donated or pledged.

The initial presentation of the swimming pool project facts by the Presentation Team will be made this (Thursday) evening, November 12, to the Taneytown Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Jayettes, meeting together at the Old Hotel Restaurant in honor of "Jayette Night" for dinner and a special program. Mrs. Donald Stanley, of Keysville, has prepared illustrated flip cards to accompany the Presentation Team's talk. These two civic organizations are co-sponsors of the pool project.

Other groups desiring to hear the Team's presentation are asked to contact Mrs. Wayne Baumgardner, PL 6-6116, for scheduling.

Indicating the approximate site of the proposed pool, a sign has been erected in the field next to the residence of Mrs. Merle Ohler, Emmitsburg Road, Taneytown. The pool will actually be built behind the homes along this highway on the new addition to Memorial Park.

'SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE' (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning. A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

No wonder they say that "People Are Funny"! Never did I realize it until I stood patiently in line to vote! Such conversations in loud whispers of the two lines for two booths plus the prominent places for the buttons of both parties! The last one, I heard and everyone did have a broad grin was a woman of 80 years of age stating, "I was not going to vote Democratic but all my people for generations back were Democrats and my grandfather would turn over in his grave if I did not go along with him!"

If you still desire a Kennedy button, folks there are plenty of them in the stores but the charge is one and two dollars due to the fact that they are attached to a key ring or a watch fob or something similar.

Now, as to recipes for that guest, E. P. F. am sending you several "quicksies" by mail which are wholesome and nutritious and will be enjoyed, I am sure.

A nice "Thank-You" card arrived from General Eisenhower this morning.

The other day I met a little boy for the second time — the grandson of a friend who has big ideas in his future life and he sure does look the part! I will call him my new little friend whose name is Winton. His big ambition is to attend "Princeton." When I returned home, I went through my bookcase and the drawers also, and the following is what I selected to present to him to aid him for the future. Books with titles, "The Golden Windows" by Laura E. Richards. "Rip Van Winkle" by Washington Irving, "Famous Men" by H. A. Page. One dozen of slim books by Dr. Frank Crane with titles, "Friendship," "Faith Work and Happiness," "It Can Be Done," "The Power of Right Thinking," "Fear," "Love," "Sensitiveness," "Truth" and "Success," "How to Read the Bible," plus one of my own Bibles. A very old book, "Good Old East New York" with illustrated pictures and many pamphlets of the large cities of these United States. "The Coronation of Queen Elizabeth" with all the pictures, "Around The World in Eighty Days" by Michael Todd. The 43rd Inauguration of Eisenhower and Nixon. Valuable news articles of years ago in very old newspapers which all will aid this little boy as he goes along in life. He is most studious and gets all A's in his school work and Sunday School. Some of those papers were yellow with age! Two colorful "Cinerama" magazines by Lowell Thomas. A pair of "Field" glasses, a large new scrap book which I had started of Secretary Dulles.

I all of these things and articles were displayed on a long banquet table when the little boy arrived and after glancing over it all spread out, that little boy threw his arms lovingly around me and kissed and kissed my cheeks. Cute and precious. In "The Farmer's Almanac" for November — this is it, "September weather. Prepare for the worst ere this storm bursts. Not so good, keep on that hood. The Summer Indians can have. Nothing wrong here, so be of good cheer. Rain, snow, sleet, freeze noses and feet!" Well, so far we have had that "Indian Summer." Eh?

Try to arrange your schedule, folks so as you will not have to hurry. Hurry, a blood brother of worry, helps shatter poise and self-confidence and contributes to fear and anxiety. So long until next week D.V. And make someone else happy!

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

TEMPTING PROVIDENCE

The Congress which just ended cut administration appropriation requests for the current fiscal year by somewhat more than $4 billion.

But, lest anyone start cheering, additional figures are in order.

Total appropriations came to $104.2 billion. This was a record for any peacetime year. And it was exceeded only twice — in the years of 1942 and 1943 when the World War II war effort was at its peak.

One wonders what to say about such spending — and the deficits it continues to create — at a time when, with certain exceptions, the economy has been operating at record levels. What would happen if there were even a moderate letdown in that economy, to say nothing of a depression? The imagination strains at the thought.

This country's financial survival demands that the first order of business for next year's party-in-power should be a real effort to put the fiscal house in order. We can tempt Providence only so long — and then Providence violently reacts.

"FACTS AND OPINIONS"

Writing in Newsweek, General Thomas D. White, USA (Ret.), says: "As for public discussion of military intelligence whether it concerns our forces or those of the Soviet Union, no one should deny that the American public is entitled to all the facts on our military establishment short of that which can be of significant value to any enemy. Likewise, general statistics on an enemy's forces are safely releasable. But the professional, through long years of training, shudders when an exact figure is given on a matter which is highly secret from the enemy's point of view — the exact number of Soviet ICBMs for example. There is at once room for skepticism that our intelligence gathering is as accurate as all that; if it is why tell the enemy?"

A spokesman for the American Medical Association says that the leadership needed to solve such growing community problems as air pollution, water pollution, and traffic safety can be found at the local level among the health team employed in private industry and trained in preventive medicine.

From The Wall Street Journal: "In this country profits have eliminated much poverty, created better working conditions, made possible the vast company insurance and pension programs, supported the government, and, for icing, produced the good works of philanthropy. It is a pity, for the sake of the emerging nations and our own, that these facts are not well understood."

The magazine Petroleum Today points out that the oil industry plays a big role in the nation's $130 billion a year "agri-business" — the growing, processing and marketing of farm products. Farmers use more oil products than any other segment of the nation's economy. In addition to fueling tractors and trucks, oil provides the raw materials for such farm essentials as fertilizers and weed killers.

Ralph T. Moore writes in the Oregon Voter: "We treat our freedom as if it were the exclusive product of government fiat rather than the beneficial composite of the people's aggregate effort. We destroy the foundation of our Currency's standard by rejecting gold and then we complain when our dollar responds by fluctuating downward in value. Every equity degenerates from the absolute to the relative and inflation is a constant threat because we like the warmth of its transient heat more than we fear the corrosion of its effects."

According to the findings of a survey released by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, businesses paid an average of $1,431 for fringe benefits for each employee in 1963. The benefits covered are of two types: (1) payments for vacations, holidays, sick leave and rest periods which are part of payroll, and (2) employer payments for social security and unemployment compensation taxes, workman's compensation, employee pension and insurance premiums, and the like which are outside of payroll.

Billy Graham addresses juveniles. "There is nothing in the Bible about God having a juvenile court. You are responsible, just as any adult is responsible . . . You don't pay the price all at once; you pay it in installments for the rest of your life."

Millions of Americans and foreigners still prefer the United States as a field of investments, not perhaps because they are reassured by developments here, but because conditions in many other countries seem even more ominous. The majority of the people still believe that the United States, the most powerful nation in the world, can solve her economic problems. But it cannot be done through political expediencies.

The St. Lawrence Seaway's director of operations has made this candid statement: "The Seaway's chief drawback seems to me to be that it was grossly oversold and its program suffers from comparison with the rosy forecasts so zealously touted by some of its promoters. It was to be the panacea of all ills, and reality comes like a shower of cold water, cooling ardor and dampening fond hopes of Utopia."

Both the parties have organizations whose job is to encourage American citizens living abroad to cast absentee ballots. In addition to seeking votes for their candidates they provide information on the varying state laws which are involved. The votes of both foreign-based civilians and members of the armed forces are sought.

Senator Strom Thurmond says: "The military power of the United States today is not an accurate yardstick for measuring the wisdom of today's military policy decisions. The level of power which we have today is more nearly a measure of the decisions made 5 to 10 years ago. Yesterday's decisions determined our strength today, while today's decisions can be finally judged only by the strength of our military forces in the future. This condition exists because of a technological factor called 'lead time' — the period between the time when a weapons system is conceived and the time when the actual weapons system is produced and made available in substantial numbers. For major strategic weapons systems, experience has proved that there is a minimum of 5 years between the drawing board and delivery of the weapons system to the troops."

The Sportsman's Corner

by Dr. Joe Linduska, Remington Wild Life Expert

THE VARMINT CROW

ONE OF THE MOST DESTRUCTIVE VARMINT BIRDS is the hardy and abundant crow. He feeds on shocked corn and winter wheat during the fall and newly planted seeds during the spring. Farmers are grateful when you help keep him under control.

CROWS ARE WILY SO WEAR CAMOUFLAGED CLOTHES and set up a blind so you can get them to come in close. In setting up the blind, it's important to face it so that the crows approach facing into the wind — so you won't have to watch behind you.

TO HELP YOU GET THEM EVEN CLOSER use a crow-call. Your diaphragm should act as the control muscle for expelling air from the lungs, while your vocal chords act as a sort of tuning fork for the vibration of the call's reed.

FOR VARMINT BIRDS BARRELING IN, many sportsmen prefer a fast-handling, lightweight gun such as the Remington Model 1100 automatic shotgun used with no. 6 shot.

Take a no-obligation test drive in a 1965 Ford. Maybe you just couldn't believe the ad (reprinted above) which appeared in this paper a few weeks ago. After all, many consider Rolls-Royce to be one of the world's finest cars. But Ford does ride quieter. The world's leading acoustical experts (Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc.) made the tests. The U. S. Auto Club certified the results.

This year's Ford has the strongest body ever... a revolutionary new frame that "tunes out" vibrations... new ultrasoft coil-spring suspensions—all contributing to the new hushed ride. But the ride is only part of what's new.

■ New swept-back instrument panel adds five inches extra knee room. ■ Transmission tunnel is lower than in competing cars for extra foot room. ■ Trunk has more usable space than ever—holds four 2-suiters standing upright.

■ New ultra-luxurious LTD series — unmatched by any other car in Ford's class. ■ Silent-Flo ventilation (standard on 4-door hardtops) removes stale air, provides fresh air even with all windows closed. ■ Exclusive new twin-edge key—works with either side up.

■ Hot, but hushed, 289-cu. in. V-8 is standard equipment in XL and LTD models.

■ Smooth, thrifty all-new Big Six in other models—the most powerful standard Six offered by any car in Ford's class. ■ V-8 options to 425 hp.

■ All Ford automatic transmissions have 3 speeds, not 2 as in many competing cars. ■ Fully synchronized manual transmissions—you can even shift down to first without clashing gears.

If all this sounds like a lot for one car to offer... take a test drive. See why more people are buying Fords than ever before in post-war history.

Test drive Total Performance '65...best year yet to go

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you:

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Myers of Taneytown R.D. 2 upon the birth of a second son on Monday the 9th. This family will now be able to have three birthday cakes in a row for the firstborn, Craig, was born on the 10th and mother celebrates her day on the 11th. Many families have several birthdays in the same month but I'll bet there are not many who have them one day after the other for three in a row! Best wishes to the three of them.

The Lutheran Church Men of the Union Bridge Parish will hold their bi-monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, the 17th, at 7:45 P. M. in Union Bridge. Mr. and Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy of Forest and Stream Club Road were Sunday visitors with her aunt, Mrs. Mary Plaine of Mt. Wolf, Pa.

My apologies to Mrs. Robert Stine for mistakenly typing her sister's name for credit as a United Appeal solicitor. It was Mrs. Robert—not Mrs. Gilbert—Stine who solicited but since they do so many things together I'm sure they will forgive me for the slip.

Mrs. James Teeter of Waynesboro, Pa., showed the slides taken by she and her husband during their trip to Ivory Coast, Africa, to those attending World Community Day services at the United Church of Christ in Keysville last Friday evening. The slides told an interesting story and the tape recording by Dr. Teeter was most inspiring. It would, however, have been more effective (in my personal opinion) if it had moved along just a little more rapidly. One must really admire a couple like Dr. and Mrs. Teeter who are willing to give of their time and talents and undertake such a mission. They relieved the surgeon and nurse who are permanently stationed at the mission hospital so they could have vacations.

It is three weeks today (10th) that Mr. Gartrell has been kept in bed. He is still "holding his own" and does so enjoy the cards and letters he has been receiving.

Cub Pack #459 will hold their monthly meeting on Friday, the 20th.

I have been mentioning the chicken and oyster supper to be held on Saturday, the 21st, by the United Church of Christ in Keysville and now I've just recently learned that a decision will have to be made: for that is the same date for the supper being sponsored at the Francis Scott Key High School.

One evening last week a young man called me and asked about what to do with the popsize sticks he has been saving since he read about my children having done so. I failed to ask his name but for the benefit of anyone who is interested I will repeat that these sticks are used by the TB Association as therapy in hospitals for tubercular patients. All sorts of things are made by these patients. The sticks can be turned in at the office in the Times Building in Westminster, which is on the second floor. If anyone having sticks is unable to get them over to the office and will call me (775-2155), I'll be glad to volunteer to see that they get there. Please wash the sticks, the TB Association asks, before they are turned in.

The last four verses of "If He Should Forget"

He may lead me through mist, or through darkness and storm. Where I see not his face, nor distinguished his form. But though deep be his silence, while thunders wax loud, as He promised, the bow is still seen in the cloud. (He does not forget.)

So I am not afraid, I have naught to recall I am running no risk when I venture my all: I depend on his faithfulness, firm as his throne; and if He were to fail me the loss were his own— (If He should forget.)

For His mighty host would be filled with dismay, Heaven's firmest foundations would crumble away, if the tidings went round that one weak, needy soul, had entrusted his all to His promise control. (And He had forgot!)

But I know that himself He can never deny I am safe evermore on His word to rely. It has never been broken, all test it will stand; I will lean hard upon it, leave it all in His hand! (He will not forget!)

NOVEMBER

Autumn's fires have been distinguished by the chill, somber touch of November. Now the country side is soberly clad in gray and brown, as the earth turns once more to a new season. Sweeping winds and driving rains (the latter have been conspicuous by their absence during this particular November) bring down the last reluctant leaves, and the trees lift naked, shivering limbs to the bleak sky. This is a difficult month to appreciate, in many ways. However, in our section of the world, where the four seasons are so sharply defined, the weather is bound to be variable and we must learn to accept the good with the bad.

The harvest is safely in, nature seems to draw a deep breath before embarking on operation deep-freeze. Plump woodchucks are hibernating, and the gay summer birds have flown. Snow birds begin to visit the bird-feeder and bands of dusky crows congregate noisily in fields and meadows. Any day now, we may hear the honking of the wild geese as they wing their way Southward. The pheasants are extremely cautious, now that the hunters are abroad.

Twilights come early at this season of the year, and evenings seem long. However, by the way of compensation, they bring us the luminous beauty of a full harvest moon. It is the time for enjoying the warmth of the hearth fire, or the pleasant crackle of the wood stove. I get out the corn-popper and turn out a huge bowl of fragrant popped corn, and even though there are only two here to eat it, the stuff goes like magic!

As Thanksgiving approaches, let us one and all take time to count our many blessings, or at least, try to count them. Most of us have so many that this is an almost impossible task. This year,

CENSUS OF AGRICULTURE QUESTIONNAIRES BEING MAILED TO FARMERS

Questionnaires for the 1964 Census of Agriculture are now being mailed out to farmers of Carroll County, Robert L. Jones, Extension Agent, reported.

The forms are expected to reach the farmers within a few days. This will allow farmers a period of time to consult their 1964 business records in order to answer questions on the forms before census enumerators begin calling on the farmers to collect the forms. Best estimate for the year will be sufficient, to answer questions in cases where complete records for the year are not available, according to the Extension Agent.

The visits by enumerators will start on November 16, in this county according to Mr. Jones. Enumerators will call on every farmer in the district under his or her supervision. At the time of the call, the enumerator will help the farmer complete answers to any questions in the form that the farmer was unable to answer, and will review the form to see that it is completely filled out.

By mailing the forms ahead of the visits, officials of the Bureau of the Census, an agency for the U. S. Department of Commerce, hope to save both time and effort.

The Census of Agriculture is taken every five years in the years ending in "4" and "9" to gather needed, up-to-date information on U. S. agricultural resources and production. Such information is vital in making decisions affecting many segments of the U. S. economy. Data gathered include the number and size of farms, number of persons living on farms, acreage and harvest of crops, a livestock and poultry inventory, information on farm equipment and facilities, and on income and some production expenditures.

Robert L. Jones, Extension Agent, Agricultural Science

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports

This has been a rough season on point-after-touchdown kickers in the NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE with 21 missed in the first eight weeks. Last year, in 14 weeks, there were only 27 missed.

Only two kickers have perfect records. They are Tommy Davis of the St. Francisco and Jim Bakken of the St. Louis Cardinals. Davis extends his league record every time he makes a conversion. He now has 174 in a row for his career. Bakken, who only started kicking last year, has 64 in a row.

Milt Plum, Detroit Lion quarterback, had the best day of his career last Sunday as the Lions beat Los Angeles, 37 to 17. Milt passed for 347 yards and three touchdowns. He worked from the shotgun and double wing and did a lot of rolling out from the "T" to beat the strong Ram pass rush.

Receiver Dave Parks made the only touchdown for San Francisco in the 37 to 7 loss to Baltimore and Drew Raves from his end coach, Billy Wilson. Said Wilson: "Parks is the finest rookie I've ever seen, and not just as a receiver. He does as much when he doesn't have the ball as he does when he has it."

Two years ago, when the Dallas Cowboys played the Chicago Bears, quarterback Don Meredith called "Automatics" — or change of plays on the line of scrimmage — from 25 to 35 times. Last week when the Cowboys beat the Bears, 24 to 10, Meredith only called an automatic six times.

The Washington Redskins have a hot rookie defensive back in Paul Krause, who is leading the league in interceptions. His substitute, Tommy Walters, is no slouch, either. When Krause had the wind knocked out of him last week in the game with Philadelphia and had to go to the sidelines, Walters was sent in. Philly quarterback Norm Snead promptly called a pass aimed at Walters and Walters promptly intercepted it.

Ray Berry, crack receiver of the Baltimore Colts, is only eleven passes shy of the all-time National League reception record of 503, held by Billy Howton. He almost certainly will break the record this year if he is lucky enough to escape injury.

While the more Ballyhooed Rookies in the National Basketball Association were away winning the Olympic gold medal for the United States in Tokyo, Willis Reed was busy making friends and influencing people in the N-B-A.

Actually, Reed is the player the New York Knicks didn't want first in last year's draft. Neither did any of the other clubs. The Knicks, with the first pick, chose Jim (bad news) Barnes of Texas Western. When the first round ended, they were surprised that the six-foot-ten, 235-lb. Reed was still available. The Knicks quickly snapped him up on the second round — and they've been happy about the selection ever since.

The Newcomer from Grambling College in Louisiana has been the Knicks' number one scorer and rebounder this season. And he has done it by playing an unfamiliar position — center. That's right. Although he's six-ten, Reed was not a center in college. He played forward.

Center has been a problem for the Knicks for several years and that is one reason why they have refrained from giving Reed the usual big publicity buildup. They have had too many experiences with hotshot centers who have fallen flatter than a warm beer.

Instead, they have let Reed plough his way quietly into his job. Knick coach Eddie Donovan worked cautiously and painstakingly with the rookie, teaching him the intricacies and hazards of playing center in the N-B-A. Reed has learned his lessons well.

REMEMBER WHEN Dept. — The first man to be honored by the Orioles with a "night" at Memorial Stadium was Manager Jimmie Dykes in early September of 1954.

Today's Sport Laugh — The sub of the New York Mets, Rod Kanehl, claims the wind at Candlestick Park in San Francisco still drives visiting teams crazy. Rod says: "It's the only field I've ever seen where you can sit on the bench, watch the game and still read the daily newspapers as they blow by."

THE YMCA IN CARROLL COUNTY

The Carroll County YMCA was praised for its growth and development at the Annual Dinner Meeting of the Community Extension Branch of the Greater Baltimore YMCA, held on Monday, November 9.

Those persons representing the Carroll County Program Center at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick, Mrs. Gold Townsend, Mr. Claude Wideman, Miss Jennifer Warner, and Program Secretary, Mr. Richard Kelly and his wife.

The guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Carl E. Wagner, Jr., an agent for the Connecticut General Life Insurance Company. Mr. Wagner challenged the Baltimore YMCA, and the Program Centers, through his own personal convictions, that it isn't enough to profess Christianity, you must also put it to good use in your everyday life.

KAUFMANN MAKES FINALS

John W. Kaufmann, a senior at Francis Scott Key H. S. recently was selected as one of 10 finalists for Maryland in the United States Senate Youth Program. From these 10 finalists, 2 youths will be selected to represent Maryland.

On October 21, 1964, John Kaufmann, Francis Scott Key High School; Granville Hibberd, Francis Scott Key High School; Peter Comings, North Carroll; Sharon Hafner and John Peck, Westminster High School took qualifying examinations in preparation for the final selection of state runners. Mr. Kaufmann was selected from 59 students representing all areas of Maryland.

John Kaufmann is at present pursuing the academic course, is president of the student council and is very active in all school affairs.

Two youths from each of the fifty states will spend one week in Washington, D. C., as guests of our Government. They will meet government officials, attend legislative sessions and generally receive a first hand view of the governmental function.

Every young man should serve a hitch in the service. He learns to make beds, to take orders, not to volunteer and many other skills he'll need when he marries. — Changing Times.

LEAVES IN HISTORY

White Burley was discovered accidentally 100 years ago by farmers near Higginsport, Ohio. The new type of tobacco started with the planting of some borrowed seeds which grew into the popular leaf.

World War I cut off supplies of Turkish tobacco and U. S. cigarette makers turned to Burley to blend into their product. The new blend quickly found favor around the globe.

The 1963 Burley crop of 755 million pounds yielded $446 million to U. S. growers, mostly families on small farms. Most of the cigarettes made today contain about one-third Burley. Burley also continues to be a favorite in pipe and chewing tobaccos.

Workman

Lesson for November 15, 1964

Background Scripture: II Timothy 2:1 through 3:9, 14-17.
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 40:6-11.

A SOLDIER, an athlete, a farmer: what do they have in common? They are all masculine, for one thing. They are strong and active; they do often what is unpleasant or even dangerous at the time. And they all are valuable to the society in which they live.

It is interesting that the author of II Timothy does not liken Christian men to angels, students, members of an audience, or women no matter how good. He sees in the soldier, the athlete, and the farmer symbols of what the Christian life is intended to be. Christian life is a battle; it is a game (played seriously, as games should be); it is making a crop. Hence the Christian is said to be soldier, athlete and farmer. The Christian life in short is a doing life, a working life. The Christian knows what not everyone knows; he thinks and says what most people do not either think of, or say. But above all and with it all the Christian is a doer.

For every good work

This little letter to Timothy was written to a preacher by a preacher. Then why read it if I'm not a preacher? Well, it's more than a matter of looking over Paul's or Timothy's shoulder to see what preachers talk about when they are by themselves. Paul speaks of the man of God. (And if you, layman or not, don't think you are God's man, then whose man are you?) Paul speaks of equipping the Christian for every good work. Now the work of a preacher is not the work of the housewife, not the work of the scientist or the business man. But if the church had thought that Paul was writing for one preacher and for no one else, they never would have preserved the letter and eventually put it into the Bible. "Every good work" means EVERY good work — what we do for a living and what we do for others in our off hours — whatever any man does that is good.

The well-equipped workman

There never yet was a workman, professional or do-it-yourself type, who couldn't improve his work by using better tools. Now the tool or tools for the Christian's good work is nothing less than the Bible. The better a man learns to use his Bible, to understand it and to live by it, the better his workmanship will be.

Don't and do

How the Bible operates is shown in one of the best-known and often quoted sentences in the letters to Timothy. First of all Paul says it is inspired! That is, the Bible's power does not lie in its literary polish nor in any of the qualities that go to make what we call a strong book. The power of the Bible is the power of God who speaks through it. Paul says further that it is a teaching book, — he does not call it mainly a preaching book. As a teaching book, it works in two ways. First is "reproof." A sincere reader of the Bible will come to thoughts — in parables, poems, stories, letters — which pierce his armor of self-satisfaction and bring him up short. For the Bible brings in many ways the judgment of God on many of man's cherished ways and cherished delusions. It is like a red light above a highway that says STOP!

But the Bible does much more than show us what is wrong with us; it shows what the right way is. The Bible was not written by or for people on a tropical island who can live ideal lives without running into resistance. The Bible was written by men who knew what it is to try to live a good life in a bad world. If the Bible did nothing else for us, it would be priceless for the inside stories of men "of like passions with ourselves," who in the midst of an uncertain and sin-infested world, were able to live above and through it all as sons and daughters of the Most High. For God's book brings God's life to God's men.

4-H State Award Winners Gain Club Congress Trip

A 17-year-old girl who made her own prom dress and three other Maryland 4-H Club members will soon pack their bags for the 42nd National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago Dec. 1-5. They have been awarded all-expense-paid trips for being named the state's top 4-H'ers in their 1963 club projects.

The four and their projects are Sherry Anne Whipp, 17, of Rockville, clothing; Dianne Ahalt, 17, of Middleton, dress revue; Misti Lynne Green, 17, of Manchester, recreation; and Albert Lee Ensor, 21, of Reisterstown, tractor.

Miss Whipp, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Whipp, sewed her way to the state clothing award by not only making a prom dress, but special dresses for Christmas and Easter as well.

She has won $266 in prize money during the eight years she has taken the clothing project. Her trip to Chicago is sponsored by Coats & Clark Inc.

Miss Ahalt won top state honors in the dress revue by making and modeling a stunning double-breasted navy wool suit. She will be the guest in Chicago of Simplicity Pattern Co. Inc. Miss Ahalt, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Guy Ahalt, has made 22 garments during the past year and makes virtually all her own clothes.

Miss Green, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Green, organized the first 4-H Club basketball tournament in Carroll County's history last year and has another in the works for this winter.

She has been her club's recreation and song leader for the last two years and also has planned numerous school and church activities. She will be the guest in Chicago of John Deere.

Miss Whipp

Miss Ahalt

Miss Green

Ensor

Ensor, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ensor, has become a tractor expert in 4-H, completing all four club courses in the project. For the last five years he has taught 4-H tractor maintenance courses.

Ensor lives with his parents on their 215-acre farm. Ensor has a busy schedule. He works in a Westminster factory five days a week, does the milking at night for his father and either helps his parents or neighbors with farm work on weekends.

Ensor's trip is sponsored by the American Oil Foundation.

The four winners were chosen by the Cooperative Extension Service. They will join about 1,500 other 4-H'ers at the congress.

CENSUS ENUMERATORS WILL START CALLING ON COUNTY FARMERS

Enumerators for the 1964 Census of Agriculture will start calling on farmers of Carroll County, Monday morning, November 16th, Extension Agent, Robert L. Jones announced today.

Enumerators are local men and women hired temporarily by the Bureau of the Census, an agency of the U. S. Department of Commerce, to count the commercial farms in the communities where the enumerators live.

The purpose of the visits is to collect census questionnaires that farmers in the county have been filling out since the forms were mailed to all rural boxholders several days ago. Farmers and ranchers were thus allowed a period of time to consult their 1964 business records and to fill out the forms before the enumerators came calling. The purpose of the questionnaire is to furnish needed, up-to-date information on U. S. agricultural production and resources.

During the visits, enumerators will also review forms and assist farmers in completing the answers to any questions that the farmers were unable to answer. Filling out the form is required by the Census Act.

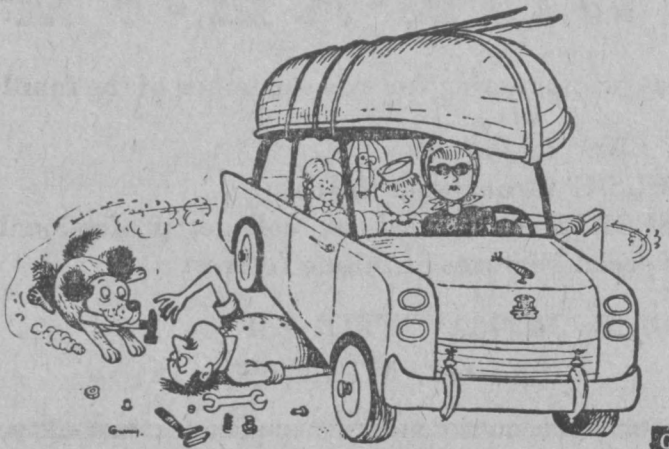

Enumerator visits are being conducted according to a schedule that follows the harvest. Starting date for Maryland is November the 16th.

CHECK UP ON YOUR AUTO SAFETY

A man's best friend may be his dog... but your pooch is a poor substitute for your neighborhood mechanic who might have prevented this mess in the first place.

Having your car thoroughly checked before leaving on a vacation trip or a visit to the World's Fair may prevent loss of time and expensive on-the-spot repairs that cut heavily into vacation budgets, according to safety experts at the Johns-Manville Brake Research Center.

Most service stations offer a complete summer checkup at a reasonable figure, which includes draining and flushing the cooling system, along with a check of hoses, thermostat and pressure cap.

Be sure that a reputable mechanic checks the condition of your brakes. Today's brake systems have more to do, and consequently wear on brake linings sharply increases.

One recent mechanical improvement in automobile design may sometimes be hazardous from the motorist's standpoint. According to specialists at J-M's Brake Linings Division, self-adjusting brakes may innocently lead an uninformed driver into trouble.

Owners of newer model cars with self-adjusting brakes have to back their cars up to adjust

FIRE OPENING GUN TODAY IN CHRISTMAS SEAL DRIVE

With the delivery to the Post Office of 13,465 envelopes containing sheets of gaily illustrated Seals and the traditional accompanying appeals, the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association today will officially launch its 58th annual Christmas Seal Campaign. Proceeds are used to carry on the fight against tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases, the illnesses of breathing.

Mrs. John C. Schaeffer, campaign chairman, said the number of Christmas Seals sent out this year constituted a record high in keeping with the continued growth of the community.

"Christmas Seals have as big a job to do as ever in the past," she added. "A research task force reported to the U. S. Surgeon General that new cases of TB has not been decreasing at the hoped-for rate for several years. As for the other respiratory diseases (RD), they continue to loom larger in the pattern of public health menaces; a lot can be done to combat them, but one must have the resources to do it."

"Medical experts tell us that TB can eventually be eradicated and RD can be reasonably controlled. We are setting our sights to those targets. Success will depend at least partly on improved prevention, detection and treatment of these diseases. In this work we hope to play our part as we have done for many years, and we are confident that the people of the community who have supported us in the past will show that they are with us more than ever this year."

It's a good idea to take some time off for recreation, provided you don't take so much time off you overlook your work.

Most people say they want to be better informed, but keep on reading trash, which is the tip-off on their determination.

THE LORE OF FLIGHT

On January 1st 1914, the St. Petersburg-Tampa Airboat Line ushered in a new age of air transportation. These rickety flying boats subjected the passengers to such noise, vibrations and gasoline odors that the airline lasted only three months.

Letters, though, were the first uncomplaining passengers. An early postman, Charles A. Lindbergh, flew the mails from St. Louis to Chicago with railroad tracks — the iron compass — as his only guide.

Today, neither passengers nor pilots are subjected to any of the bizarre flying conditions of those pioneer days. In fact, modern flying provides just about every convenience. With an Air Travel Card, for instance, you can charge meals, hotels, rent a car, even charge secretarial services when you arrive at your destination.
