MEETING OF THE KIWANIS CLUB OF TANEYTOWN

The Kiwanis Club of Taneytown observed "Farm-City Week" at its meeting Wednesday evening at Taney Inn, with President Paul M. Morelock presiding. A number of farmers were guests of the club; also two members of the Taneytown Key Club. Group singing was led by Howell Royer—the first number was "Happy Birthday" dedicated to Clyde L. Hesson who was observing his birthday. The speaker of the evening was Robert Jones, County Agent for Carroll County. He spoke of the "Importance of Farming—Big Business." The club welcomed Arch Carpenter back and all expressed their joy in seeing Archie looking so well and happy.

Next Wednesday the Club will meet at the Inn at 12:30 P. M.

The greatest pleasure is to do a good action without notice and have it found out by accident.

Swimming Pool Committee News

Announcing that solicitations will be conducted this week of corporate businesses in the greater Taneytown area, the Finance and Fund Raising subcommittee of the Community Swimming Pool Project finalized plans for this second stage in the current campaign to raise the $60,000 needed for pool and bath house construction for Memorial Park.

The third stage of the campaign is slated to be conducted in January, when residents and merchants of Taneytown will be personally contacted during a door-to-door canvass for fund donations and pledges. Plans include a later solicitation of rural areas and neighboring communities through personal canvassing.

Subcommittee co-chairmen Argyle Kaufman and Harry Dougherty, Jr., announced at a meeting of the Projects Executive Committee Tuesday evening that the first campaign stage, an appeal via mail to 1636 individuals, merchants, businesses and organizations, has been successfully completed. Receipt of over $2,000 in pledges and donations has resulted to date from this mailing; acknowledgments will be sent to donors as soon as possible.

Mrs. John M. Skiles and Mrs. Argyle Kaufman were named to head the January residential canvass. Volunteers will meet November 30 at Pool Headquarters to plan this visitation.

Cecil Lewelling reported for the Planning, Design and Construction subcommittee that complete plans for the bathhouses will be prepared so that the area contractors who have expressed interest in undertaking this phase of the pool project may have more complete information on which to base their bids.

A large banner, urging support of the swimming pool drive, will soon be erected over East Baltimore Street suspended from the former post office building and the ambulance garage.

All project financial records are being kept up to date by Mrs. Argyle Kaufman, chief bookkeeper; Roland Clingman, corresponding secretary; and Argyle Kaufman, treasurer. Mrs. Dean Brown, Admissions, Rules and Regulations chairman, will oversee the printing of season tickets.

TANEYTOWN FIRE COMPANY LADIES AUXILIARY MEETING

Ladies Auxiliary to Taneytown Fire Co. held their meeting last Thursday evening. Meeting opened with Pledge to Flag and Scripture and prayer by Anna Mary Fleischman in absence of chaplain.

Roll call was answered by 24 members. Minutes of last meeting was read and approved. A motion was made to give $5.00 to Tuberculosis Fund, $10.00 to the Bessie Marshall Fund, and $10.00 to the State Hospital Fund.

There will be a Christmas party and exchange of gifts.

Election of officers for 1965 was held and they are: president, Carrie Austin; vice president, Ethel Garber; financial secretary, Hazel Lambert; recording secretary, Dottie Ann Hess; treasurer, Louise Riffle; historian, Grace Putnam; chaplain, Belva Putnam; trustee, Dorothy Lookingbill; color bearer, Emma Reifsnider and Anna Mary Fleischman; committees for Christmas party: refreshment, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Ohler, Mrs. Dahoff and Dottie Lookingbill; entertainment, Kaye Mohney, Ronnie Herring and Helen Smeak; decorating, Grace Putnam, Anna Mae Crabbs, Hazel Lambert and Anna Reifsnider. The officers will be installed at the January meeting. There will be guests from other auxiliaries of the fire companies.

Brenda Smeak and Mary Ann Motter gave two instrumental numbers. A solo was given by Kitty Sue Lookingbill. Refreshments were served by the committee.

"GOODWILL TRUCK STILL CALLS"

The Monocacy Valley Goodwill Industries announced today that the Goodwill truck is still calling at homes in Carroll County.

"We have experienced a great deal of confusion over this matter ever since we closed our Westminster branch store," said William Van Arnam, Goodwill Director. "Donations have dropped off at an alarming rate since our store closing. We wish to make clear that the closing of the store was an effort to consolidate our stores into one expanded operation in Frederick. This in no way affects our need for contributions from Carroll County. We have always counted heavily on Carroll County for donations and the recent slump has seriously affected the entire operation."

The goodwill truck calls in southern Carroll County on Thursdays and in northern Carroll County on Fridays. Those with donations too large for the Goodwill Collection Boxes may call Mrs. Edward G. Little in Westminster, Mrs. G. Tracey in Hampstead or Miss Amelia Annan in Taneytown. These ladies will be glad to schedule the Goodwill truck to stop at homes in Carroll County.

ONE DAY EARLIER, PLEASE

Due to Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 26, we will go to press on Wednesday—one day earlier than usual. PLEASE HAVE YOUR COPY IN OUR OFFICE ONE DAY EARLIER.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS

The regular meeting of the Taneytown Chamber of Commerce was held on Monday, Nov. 16, 6:30 P. M. at Taney Inn.

The slate of officers presented by the nominating committee at the September meeting were elected by the Secretary casting a unanimous ballot. They are as follows: president, Frank Dunham; 1st vice president, Neal W. Porell; 2nd vice president, Paul Morelock; secretary, Donald Smith; treasurer, Murray Baumgardner; Executive Committee members: Merwyn Fuss and Charles Arnold.

The following new members were accepted: Earl L. Myers of Crouse Ford Sales, Inc.; Henry I. Reindollar, Jr., Sterling W. Fritz, Paul C. Copenhaver, Mrs. Merle Ohler, James M. Small and John Sternesky.

It was decided not to hold a meeting in December. Therefore, the next regular meeting will be January 18, 6:30 P. M., at Taney Inn. At this meeting a report will be heard on the Potomac Edison Industrial and Community Development Conference which was held at Berkeley Springs, W. Va., on Nov. 9.

Santa Claus is scheduled to arrive in Taneytown at 6:30 P. M., December 4. Santa will be met at the Taneytown High School and escorted to the Firemen's building. Here, the Chamber will assist him in presenting treats to the children. Santa has reminded us that the treats are for children 12 years of age and under. He will appreciate the cooperation of the parents in this matter.

Revival Services at Uniontown Church of God

The First Church of God, Uniontown, Maryland, will hold their annual Revival Services beginning Sunday, November 22, 1964 through Sunday, December 6, 1964. Sunday through Saturday inclusive. The time of the services will be 7:30 P. M. On Sunday, November 22, the special speaker will be the Rev. George Miles, President of the Washington Bible College, at the 10:30 Worship Service and also in the evening service at 7:30 P. M. The male quartet from the college will also be there singing in both services.

On Sunday, November 29, there will be a special speaker to bring the message in the 10:30 Worship Service and the 7:30 P. M. service. The Ladies trio from the Washington Bible College will be there singing in both services.

Then Monday through Saturday of the two weeks the Rev. Preston Lucas, Pastor of the First Church of God, Chambersburg, Pa., will be the special speaker. Rev. Lucas formerly was Pastor of the Mayberry and Barkhill Churches of God and associated with the Md. and Va. Eldership before going into the East Penna. Eldership. There will be special music and singing each evening.

The public is cordially invited to attend these special services.

A VIEW FROM MY KITCHEN WINDOW

Ordinarily by mid-November, as autumn merges into winter, we expect and invariably get gloomy days and turbulent weather. However, this particular November has been warm, sunny, and dry, to the extent that drought conditions prevail over much of the country.

And so it is that my kitchen-window view this morning has a definite spring-like air about it, quite out of keeping with the season of the year. A bright sun smiles down upon the earth, and fleecy lamb-like clouds gambol about in a clear robin-egg blue sky. Despite the lack of moisture, the grass is surprisingly green, and our cows are still out on pasture. Even the winds seem strangely subdued, for the breeze singing through the trees today is a far cry from the usual sweeping blasts of late autumn. Were it not for the dry, brown leaves tumbling helter-skelter all around, I might be inclined to think that this was March or April, instead of November. However, we just tuned in the forecast and evidently a cold front moving in will put an end to the balmy weather. The wild things know this, too, for yesterday I saw a snow-bird and for the past few weeks the fields have been black with crows, feeding in lieu of rain or snow.

The small game hunting season is now on in full swing, but as I scan the countryside, I see no signs of hunters abroad. To many people, hunting is a stimulating sport, but it distresses me greatly to look out and see terrified pheasants and rabbits fleeing from men, guns and dogs. Someone once told me that the pheasants run all the way out to town! For my part, I am always glad when the season comes to a close.

The crops are now safely in and we farm folks can thank God that despite the long dry spell, we have reaped a better harvest than we anticipated. There may have been a shortage of some things, but on the whole, of the corn, wheat, and barley did quite well. Homemakers, too, were able to freeze and can an ample supply of goods for winter-time. So let us now, as another Thanksgiving comes around, be grateful for these and the many other countless blessings which our Creator has heaped upon us.

—Zola Cantwell

Pop, will I look like you when I grow up?
Everybody seems to think so, son. Well, I won't have to grow up for a long time, will I, Pop?

Taneytown Jaycees Hold "Ladies Night"

The Taneytown Junior Chamber of Commerce honored their ladies last Thursday evening in the Old Hotel Restaurant, Taneytown. This was their annual "Jayceette Night" which not only is a ladies' night, but affords the opportunity to recognize the Jayceette organization, the wives auxiliary.

Following a delicious buffet dinner, John M. Skiles, program chairman, introduced the speaker for the evening, Mr. Richard Davidson, Owings Mills. A native of Taneytown, Mr. Davidson is a psychiatric case worker in the pre-admission and admissions department at Rosewood State Hospital, Owings Mills. He spoke on the role of the social worker in the field of mental retardation.

The program was especially timely, since the annual fund-raising drive of the Carroll County Association for Retarded Children is currently under way. Mr. Davidson pointed to the extremely high incidence of mental retardate births in the U.S. and the many-faceted problems created by the large group of handicapped people. Approximating three percent of our population, it is estimated that there are about 9,000 mental retardates in the State of Maryland, alone.

The 2,616 hospital beds provided by the State at Rosewood are always filled to capacity, and he explained the need to make use of every possible resource and facility on the local level whenever possible. Only those who cannot be cared for in any other manner or at any other facility on the community level, are admitted.

Public concern for this problem has only come very recently, and a program of aid is still lagging far behind. He said that five out of six of those except the profoundly retarded could be trained to be useful citizens in the community. The social worker, he went on to say, is the liaison between the patient, community, family, and the hospital in this effort.

Following Mr. Davidson's talk, the presentation team for the Community Swimming Pool presented their illustrated talk on the proposed pool for Taneytown. The five members of this team gave a brief but thorough outline of the why, where, and how of this project. A question and discussion period followed to allow for questions not specifically covered in their presentation. This was the "Kick-off" talk by the team and they are now available to any and all organizations and groups in the community.

The special membership meeting conducted by President Dean Brown following the program the Jaycees unanimously voted to pledge $1,000 to the pool project. $75.00 had already been appropriated and further donations will depend on the success of planned profit-making projects. Visitors included a delegation from the Freedom chapter and District V, President Carville Downes.

ODD FELLOWS BANQUET

Taney Lodge No. 28, I. O. O. F., celebrated its 58th Anniversary with a banquet in the Harney Fire Co. Hall last Thursday evening, November 12, served by the ladies of the Fire Co. Auxiliary. Bro. Arthur Warman of Gettysburg Lodge of Gettysburg offered the invocation.

Bro. Walter Hilterbrick, lodge chairman on arrangements, acted as toastmaster for the program following conclusion of the meal.

Several instrumental numbers were given by the trio of Donald Bollinger, Dennis Bollinger and Fred Halter.

Present representing the Grand Lodge of Maryland were: G. M. Benjamin E. Sklar, and wife; G. Ward, Frank M. Long, and wife; G. Treas, Graydon D. Maxwell and wife; D. G. M., James H. Fritz; and Gr. Marsh, Harry Weiner.

As speaker of the evening the Grand Master gave a very interesting and informative address. He stated that Odd Fellowship is moving forward generally. In addition to adhering to the established principles of the "brotherhood of man, and fatherhood of God"—other worthwhile programs and activities are being entered into. There has been established an Odd Fellows United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth in which each year from 1000 to 1500 youths from all over the United States have been sponsored to go there and other places of interest to learn of international understanding and today's World History. To date the total number is about 10,000.

At Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md., there has been established an Odd Fellows Foundation of Visual Research and Eye Bank, the purpose of which is to promote the correction of impaired vision and the restoration of lost eyesight. This project was completed at the cost of $650,000.00 and was paid for entirely by voluntary contributions from Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, and members of other branches of the Order.

Here in Maryland we have the splendid Odd Fellows Home at Frederick where the aged Odd Fellows and Rebekahs have a home to spend their sunset years carefree and amply provided for.

The evening's festivities concluded with prayer by Bro. Birnie Staley.

YOUTH BASKETBALL LEAGUE PRACTICE SCHEDULE

The Jaycees announce that practice for the Youth Basketball League will be Saturday, Nov. 21. Youths 10, 11, and 12 years old will practice from 10:00 A. M. until 12:00 noon. The 13-17 year old group will practice from 12:00 noon until 2:00 P. M. Practice will be held in the local high school gymnasium.

FSK HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR COMMENDED ON NMSQT TEST

One senior at Francis Scott Key High School has been honored for his high performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMSQT) given last spring. Each student who is endorsed by his school receives a formal Letter of Commendation signed by his principal and the president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Ned C. Anusser, the school's principal, has announced that the commended student is John W. Kaufmann. John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, said: "Letters of Commendation are being awarded to 38,000 students throughout the country in recognition of their outstanding performance on the qualifying test. We wish to call attention in this way to their high academic achievement."

"Although they did not reach the status of semifinalists and commended students together constitute about two percent of all high school seniors. This certainly signifies noteworthy accomplishment by all these bright young people."

"We urge the commended students to make every effort to attend college, and to develop to the fullest their promise of future achievement. By doing so they will benefit both themselves and the nation."

ENUMERATORS NAMED FOR CENSUS OF AGRICULTURE IN CARROLL COUNTY

Enumerators have been named in Carroll County for the 1964 Census of Agriculture, crew leader John C. Lovell announced.

Enumerators in Carroll County belong to a force of 23,000 throughout the nation employed temporarily by the U.S. Bureau of the Census for this year's Census of Agriculture.

Enumerators are key workers in an agricultural census. It is the enumerator's responsibility to locate every farm within an enumeration district assigned to him (or her), determine if the operator of the farm has answered all questions on a questionnaire that has been mailed to the farmer by the Census Bureau, help the farmer complete any unanswered questions on the form, check answers for accuracy, and deliver the form to the Census Bureau.

A Census of Agriculture is taken every five years in the years ending in "4" and "9" to gather needed, up-to-date information on the nation's agricultural resources and production. Such information is vital in making decisions affecting many segments of the U. S. economy. Data gathered include the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock inventory, information on farm equipment and improvements, farm products sold, and on some production expenditures. Information also will be collected on use of fertilizers, insecticides, and herbicides.

The enumerators will be trained in a special 4-day home study course designed to prepare them for the farm census, their crew leader said.

The following persons have been appointed in this area: Martin L. Zimmerman, Taneytown; Sylvia R. Haines, New Windsor; Majorie Zucke, Mt. Airy; Mary S. Bailey, Mayberry; Mrs. Ruth Plymton, Union Bridge; Caroline Reese, Millers; Mrs. Harry Kyles, Woodlerys; Edmond W. Karl, Sykesville; James Kyer, Westminster; Mrs. Vienna J. Farnsworth, Woodbine; Mrs. Robert Harman, Silver Run; John Hull, Westminster; Mrs. Eleanor Sterner, Hampstead.

BOWLING BROOK BOYS AND STAFF GUESTS FOR DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Benton A. Arbaugh, proprietors of Benny's Kitchen and Restaurant, very generously, for the second year donated a lovely family style dinner for the boys and staff of the boys' home on Monday, November 9th. The group dined in a pleasantly remodeled dining room, where the food was excellent and enjoyed tremendously by everyone. Superintendent and Mrs. Robert H. DePew introduced Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carstens, houseparents, to the hosts. The boys were also introduced; however many were old acquaintances of the Arbaughs. There were 20 guests treated to very excellent food, service and atmosphere.

The boys and staff of the home publicly express appreciation to the Arbaugh family for their kindness and generosity.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The Annual Community Thanksgiving Service for Taneytown will be held Thanksgiving Day at 9 o'clock in the morning at Trinity Lutheran Church. Special music will be rendered by a combined choir from several of the churches of the town's churches. The preacher will be Rev. Robert Johnson, pastor of the Baust United Church of Christ. His sermon theme will be "The Cup of Thanksgiving."

Let us assemble at the appointed hour in large numbers to give thanks for the many, many privileges and opportunities afforded us in this great nation in which we have been placed only by the grace of God. Everyone is most cordially invited.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

"One Potato, Two Potato, Three Potato, Four" and so on. Do you recall when you were a child that was some sort of a game which you played? Well, the play which at the "Mayfair" is titled just "One Potato, Two Potato" but I can't think for what reason or the connection? Miss Barbara Barrie as "Julie" (whom I have never seen before) plays the part of a young divorcee—a very lonely young woman with a small daughter in a Midwestern town. Her acting is tops and she knows how to shed tears at a very critical moment in any place in that picture. She appears shy all the way through to the very end. Julie is employed in an office where there is a Negro young man who is her co-worker and he is very kind and thoughtful in so many ways. The friendship of Julie and Frank ripens into love and then marriage—despite the color line! But somehow this story is most evident as to the races as the colored resent intermarriage with the white just as much as visa-versa. Frank's parents own a farm and they go to live there with Julie's child (a very light blonde) Ellen Mary. It appears as though everyone has adjusted themselves and seems to be contented until the first husband appears on the scene—a fellow who is a drifter after four years and what his child and demands her return! The last part is where there is a Court scene where the first husband wins the custody of the child. The very ending is really tragic as Julie is seen rushing down toward the rapidly driven car away from the farm with little Ellen Mary screaming for her mother that she does not want to go away with her father!

There is truly a big lesson to learn right there which is realized by the White and Colored Race! Everyone should see that picture regardless of color!

November 10th was the birthday of the M A R I N E S—just 189 years ago it was born! Although, I always admire all the Nephews of our wonderful Uncle Sam—there is so much more for any Marine and you will agree when you read that History for they are first in any battle!

The other day a friend handed me a little package stating that I was to take it away with me on the plane to Phoenix and not to use it now. When I opened it, there it was, an "Avon" preparation and underneath the front flowers were these words, "Here is My Heart!" Sentimental me! Eh? Betcha, that is the cute way with that Avon! and I think the ladies all know just what I mean!

Now, folks, thinking about that plane—you know by this time that I am not crazy as to that kind of travel but my son is treating me and "Beggars can't be choosers". Then, he writes that I would be so tired coming by train which would take three days and three nights and he wants to drive me to Mexico and to California! I have been on planes locally but never on any long distance. But, you know I will be writing from experience D. V. As to some of the things I am going to take—well—here is part of a list—The huge colorful book of "The Night Before Christmas". The Induction Card sent to me of The Air Force when the eldest enlisted, two wonderful pictures—a handsome likeness of the late President Kennedy (born in the same sign), two rings, my Jacks and Ball books of the following titles: "A Wonderbook and Tanglewood Tales" by Hawthorne, "Magnificent Obsession" by Lloyd Douglas, my very personal Bible to the eldest boy, Francis, which was the wedding present from my Minister (his father) in 1933 which has a cover of the wood from Jerusalem and all that Christ spoke in red lettering! A pair of gold bedroom slippers, an evening bag, a miniature box of books by the old authors, a long lace table cloth, a long Christmas table cloth, four famous American Documents, the book on The Ancient Landmark of American Methodism or Historic Old St. George's in Philadelphia and a few other things. The eldest will appreciate that and other books as he is a school teacher.

Have a grand week-end. Hope to be seeing you soon. Until next week D. V. and don't forget to make some one else happy!

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

STONESIFER TO ATTEND NATIONAL DAIRY CONFERENCE

Dairy record keeping played a large part in earning a trip to Chicago for Carroll County's Jimmy Stonesifer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ardel Stonesifer, Route 7, Westminster. Jimmy will be attending the 10th Annual National Dairy Conference, December 3-5. In addition to helping on his home farm, he is employed by the Swissvale Farm Dairy to work with their test herd of purebred Brown Swiss. Jimmy is completing his 10th year of 4-H club work and has served as co-leader of his local club for the past four years.

GIRLS WALK OFF WITH WRITING PRIZES

Three high school girls walked off with top awards in the 7th Annual Teen-Age Writing Contest, sponsored by the Maryland-Delaware Press Association and its member newspapers, according to an announcement made by MDPA President E. M. Jackson III, Annapolis Capital-Gazette Press.

As part of the annual National Newspaper Week observances, area high school students were invited to write their thinking on the subject of "The Responsibility of the Press in Political Campaigns."

Top honors and a $100.00 U. S. Savings Bond went to 16-year-old Jacqueline Jones, an 11th grade student at Christiana Sr. High School, Newark, Delaware.

The Maryland area winner was Arlene Rosen, 17, a senior at North Hagerstown High School. Miss Rosen won out over 99 entries in her local contest to represent Washington County in the area judging.

The Delaware area winner was Linda Pittard, 17, a student at Georgetown High School, Georgetown, Del. Both area winners received $25.00 Savings Bonds.

Citations for county winners went to Olaf Oglund, Glen Burnie Senior High, Anne Arundel County; Elizabeth Murphy, LaPlata High, Charles County; Mark Rutland, Mt. Airy High, Frederick County; Karlin Norlin, Edgewood Jr.-Sr. High, Harford County; Jerry Jones, Howard High, Howard County; and Joe Seek, Gaithersburg Sr. High, Montgomery County. In Delaware, to Donald Poore, Archmere Academy, New Castle County. In Carroll County, Jennifer Clise, Westminster High.

Chairman for the MDPA was Charles Mooshian, Baltimore Sunpapers. Judges were three MDPA associate members, Rebecca Daniels, Dairy Council of Upper Chesapeake Bay; Charles Hass, C&P Telephone Company; and Joseph Shaner, Shaner Agency.

(Jacqueline Jones' prize-winning entry in the 7th Annual Teen-Age Writing Contest sponsored by the Maryland-Delaware Press Association, Inc.)

"THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE PRESS IN POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS"

The power of the press is enormous and should not be underestimated. All people concerned with the publishing of a newspaper should realize what influence this medium has on public opinion and take their responsibilities very seriously.

The responsibility of the press during a political campaign is to present to the public a fair and accurate report of the candidates' views and actions. This sense of responsibility should be the objective of three separate representatives of the press — the reporter, the editor, and the "makeup" man.

A good news reporter will recognize the challenge of election time and will be careful not to let his own prejudices and interests color his work. This is difficult, of course. Every reporter has personal feelings and is inclined to emphasize his favorite candidate's good points. A competent reporter, however, realizing his responsibility, will report the characteristics, good and bad, of both men. To write a political news story well is to write it clearly and fairly to both parties involved.

All newspaper editors have a specific responsibility. The editor who red-pencils a small but relatively important notice of a political gathering is denying to the public the knowledge of this meeting, and therefore neglecting his duty. By interviewing the children of one candidate and ignoring the other politician's family, the feature editor fails to give equal space and coverage to both political parties. Running a lengthy article about one candidate's wife may be an interesting addition to the women's page, but if the other politician's wife receives very little attention, the women's editor is likewise not carrying out her responsibility.

The fact that a newspaper has chosen to support a certain candidate does not alter that paper's responsibility to the public. After endorsing a candidate a paper should not be apprehensive about printing an unfavorable article about him; nor should it fail to report something complimentary about the other candidate, if this is factual news. The page and placement of the article in question also has a direct bearing on the fairness of the presentation, as all make-up men should keep in mind. A reader naturally assumes that a story on the next-to-the-last page does not merit the attention of a similar article on the front page. The public is quick to notice and condemn a newspaper for seemingly unimportant injustices done to their favorite candidates.

Newspapers must earn their position as thought-leaders in three vital ways: thorough coverage of important issues; currentness of news reported; and acceptance of its leadership by its readers. To accomplish these aims, in all areas of writing and reporting the policy of the paper should be one of honesty, objectivity, and accuracy in dealing with either a politician or his political party. This is not only a matter of fairness to the particular individual or group; it is the basic responsibility of the newspaper to its readers.

HUNTER'S CODE OF ETHICS

1. I will consider myself an invited guest of the landowner, seeking his permission, and so conducting myself that I may be welcome in the future.
2. I will obey the rules of safe gun handling and will courteously but firmly insist that others who hunt with me do the same.
3. I will obey all game laws and regulations, and will insist that my companions do likewise.
4. I will do my best to acquire those marksmanship and hunting skills which assure clean, sportsmanlike kills.
5. I will support conservation efforts which can assure good hunting for future generations of Americans.
6. I will pass along to younger hunters the attitudes and skills essential to a true outdoor sportsman.

WITH THE ARMED FORCES

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — Airman Bradley R. Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Johnston of Route 1, New Windsor, Md., has completed the first phase of his Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Texas.

Airman Johnston has been selected for technical training as an aircraft weapons systems specialist at the Air Training Command (ATC) school at Lowry AFB, Colo. His new unit is part of the vast ATC system which trains airmen and officers in the diverse skills required by the nation's aerospace force.

The airman is a 1964 graduate of Westminster (Md.) Senior H. S.

FORT LEONARD WOOD, MO. (AHTNC)—Army Sergeant First Class Robert L. Arter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Arter, Sr., Rt. 2, Littlestown, Pa., and other members of the 1st Infantry Division are participating in Exercise GOLD FIRE I, a 16-day field training exercise being conducted in the vicinity of Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., ending November 13.

The exercise, involving two opposing forces, Joint Task Force Sioux and Joint Task Force Ozark, is designed to test and evaluate the suitability of the U. S. Air Force concept for improving the use of aviation in support of Army ground forces.

Sergeant Arter is participating with the Sioux force which is using current doctrines and procedures while the Ozark forces are employing the new concept of support and attack. About 20,000 men are taking part in the maneuver.

The sergeant is a communications chief in Headquarters Company, 2d Battalion of the division's 18th Infantry, regularly stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas.

He entered the Army in 1946.

FORT GORDON, GA. (AHTNC)—Pvt. Michael A. Saylor, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Saylor, Rt. 2, Union Bridge, Md., completed an eight-week lineman course under the Reserve Enlistment Program at the Army Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga., November 6.

Saylor was trained to construct and maintain open wire, lead covered cables and field communication wires.

He completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Saylor attended Frederick High School and was employed by M. R. Pfoutz and sons, Inc., before going on active duty.

A good politician is one that can step on your toes without messing up the shine; get into your pocket-book without a gun, and make you think he is the original Santa Claus.

After suffering hours and hours of conventioning and campaigning, we're beginning to see some merit in a one-party system.—Changing Times.
