Swimming Pool Committee News

Finalizing plans for the coming residential canvass for funds to construct a swimming pool in Taneytown's Memorial Park, the Executive Committee of the project convened Monday evening at Pool Headquarters. The door-to-door drive will begin Sunday, January 10, 1965, in the immediate Taneytown area, conducted by Jaycees, Jayettes and volunteers from the community.

A total of 27 territories have been set up for personal coverage by workers by canvass co-chairmen Mrs. John M. Skiles and Mrs. Argyle Kaufman. The drive will be conducted for one week.

Brochures, pledge cards and promotional bumper stickers will be given those visited to supplement the workers' personal request for funds. Residents may direct any questions concerning the proposed swimming pool to the visitors.

An orientation session for all volunteers participating in the canvass will be held at Pool Headquarters January 6, at 8 P. M. Territories will be selected and assigned then, and workers will receive the names of those people to be contacted in their areas, as well as all materials to be used for the solicitation.

To promote full public support of this canvass, plans for three major public relations campaigns are currently being completed for the young people of Taneytown and the area, to whom the completed swimming pool will be dedicated. A poster contest will be conducted in Taneytown Elementary School, an essay or theme contest will be soon presented to Jr.-Sr. High School students of Taneytown for their participation, and a giant Youth Rally or Parade will climax these events that give the youth of the local area an opportunity to publicly express their enthusiasm for and interest in the Pool Project.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sauble are co-chairmen of the poster contest. Mr. George B. Crouse is heading the theme participation drive, and Mr. James Fair will supervise the Youth Rally or Parade.

A banner urging support of the project has been completed by Mr. William Weaver, a former resident now living in Westminster, and will be suspended over East Baltimore Street one-half block from the square this coming week-end.

The Executive Committee learned that to date $3320 has been donated or pledged to the City of Taneytown Swimming Pool Fund, with the goal being $60,000. Corporate businesses are being personally contacted for donations and pledges this month.

The next meeting of the Executive Committee will be held December 17 at Headquarters. The public is invited to attend this and all other Committee meetings.

Social Security Bulletin

Many people in Carroll County have difficulty getting their social security check started because they cannot prove they have reached retirement age.

This is a problem that will be with us for quite a while because many births were not recorded in Maryland prior to 1912. A birth certificate recorded at birth is the best proof of age available. Since most people now reaching retirement age will not have this document, the Social Security Administration will accept other proofs. Older records are preferred to recently established documents.

The following is a list of some proofs which are acceptable to the Social Security Administration. They are in order of preference.

1. Birth Certificate (recorded soon after birth).
2. Baptismal Certificate.
3. Signed statement by physician who was in attendance at birth.
4. Military record.
5. Passport.
6. School record.
7. Insurance policy which shows age or date of birth.
8. Marriage record showing age or date of birth.
9. Age of parent on child's Birth Certificate.
10. Census record.
11. Statement of other person.

If you are nearing retirement age, you should consider getting one or more of the above proofs to bring to the social security office when you file your application. This could speed payment of your first check.

Carroll County residents may obtain further information by contacting the social security representative at any of the following offices: WESTMINSTER in the county Administration Building on any Wednesday between the hours of 10:00 A. M. and 2:00 P. M.

TANEYTOWN in the First National Bank on the first Tuesday of each month between the hours of 10:00 A. M. and noon.

UNION BRIDGE in the Union Bridge Bank on the second Tuesday of each month between the hours of 10:00 A. M. and noon.

SYKESVILLE in the St. Paul's Methodist Church on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Thursday of each month between the hours of 9:00 A. M. and 10:30 A. M.

'SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE' (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next dawn
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Whatever you do, go down and go up on the "Cruise of the Mediterranean" at the Mayfair theatre on N. Howard Street! You never saw the water so blue and the sky as heavenly as you are taken to all foreign shores! It will be something to think about and talk about and wonder how it all is done. There are quite a few Teen-agers in it, too. All adults should see it. You first of all are on the ship and then ashore to a wonderful country, then you are on a plane, and then in a racing car and then to see Princess Grace (as beautiful as ever)! You actually see where your ship is calling another ship for help to a Dr. as a man aboard has appendicitis and you see him tied to the stretcher and then in a row boat and lifted up to a Helicopter and raced to the hospital ship! The picture is 2 hours and 45 minutes long and that vacation was surely a swift one, as one would think the entire picture was only one hour! It was truly with the breathless, "OH'S" and "AH'S" from everyone on the way out after the show. This is what I heard, "Did you ever see anything to compare?" "Wouldn't it be wonderful if all movies for about a year were like that one?" Never have I heard such enthusiasm about any picture and with smiles and more smiles; everyone seemed to be so pleased and happy in the lobby after the show! Sensational is the word!

What grand gifts at the Church suppers and bazaars! A number of women I know did all their Christmas shopping right there. I picked up a precious small hand painted imported tea pot with 25 bags in it of choice Chinese tea—OOLONG & BLACK. TEA BLEND for the price of $1.00. And thinking about tea—only two countries can really make tea and that is England and China! I recall one time when an Englishman said to the American, "I know why Americans are such coffee drinkers! I've tasted their tea!" The reason their tea is so good is that they place their tea bag in the cup or pot and never serve hot water in a cup or pot with a tea bag on the side. "Dry" tea bag service just does not make good tea. They always pour the hot water over the bag and then they cover the pot or cup with a saucer and let it steep and then always it should be boiled water piping hot. You will notice the biggest difference. Only the boiling water brings out the full goodness and flavor of the tea leaves.

Be sure, ladies to place a colorful red blotter on your desk for the Winter, especially at Christmas time. It makes that corner very special Christmas and bring!

Hope to start the Horoscope Readings for which so many has asked in the month of January for The Capricorn Sign. Those born from December 20th to January 20th.

This Column has a birthday in December—just SEVENTEEN YEARS OLD! Seems like yesterday when I wrote the very first one!

When you go on that Cruise at the "Mayfair" park your car in the Lexington Market Garage. No finer place anywhere in these United States! Remember Sam? Well, he has left due to his farm up in Littlestown and there is another Manager just as kind and thoughtful right there.

So long, folks. Until next week! D.V. and be sure you make someone else happy.

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1964

"GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS"

MOVILLE, IOWA, RECORD: "Gasoline prices, believe it or not, are the lowest in 45 years — that's if you discount the taxes. Retail prices are averaging 19 cents a gallon before the average 10.3 cents in taxes. Since 1948, state and federal taxes have increased an average of 4 cents a gallon. A mid-continent refiner recently cut its wholesale gasoline price by a half-cent on unbranded gasoline. Three other refiners are reported considering cuts. It's refreshing to know some items are holding their own as far as price is concerned, when most everything is on the increase."

ST. JOSEPH, ILL., RECORD: "Associate Justice Arthur J. Goldberg of the U.S. Supreme Court, in a speech, has proposed that victims of crime be compensated by government. Now there's an idea that should boost our crime rate beyond anything that can be blamed on TV. Crime should not pay—anybody."

HUNTINGTON, IND., HERALD-PRESS: "What price vanity? The nation's postmasters have been ordered to hang three-by-five foot pictures of President Johnson and Postmaster General John Gronouski in post office lobbies. Each postmaster was given five days to report in the regional office that he had complied with the order. Estimated cost of putting these photos in the nation's 34,080 post offices: $500,000."

MEEKER, OKLA., HERALD: "One viewpoint holds that prosperity can be bought by tax cuts financed by borrowed money. . . . The conflicting viewpoint holds that the government ought to remain solvent, and that it is a breach of trust to constantly downgrade the value of the dollar. This is the viewpoint that encourages individual initiative and supports the private enterprise system and wants to reverse the trend towards a giant, overpowering government that would direct every phase of our private lives and the nation's business."

LAKE WALES, FLA., NEWS: "Freedom of the press, if it is to live, will serve the interests of the people."

OAKLAND, CALIF., CALIFORNIA VOICE: "One of the basic goals of education. . . is to teach students to be independent thinkers. Our whole education system is — or should be — basically dedicated to teaching people to think for themselves, to weigh objectively, to read critically. Only in this way can the future citizens now in our schools learn the moral integrity they need if our freedom is to be preserved."

FAIRFAX, MINN., STANDARD: "Have you noticed how little recreational reading you get done lately? All news, books, magazines, discuss problems and more problems — family, government, business — you just can't find anything light and relaxing to read — to forget it all for a few hours!"

SHICKSHINNY, PA., MOUNTAIN ECHO: "A big city newspaper recently carried a story where a maniac was accused of rape and murder and released on $500 bail. A day later we read an article about a group of men who were arrested for playing cards and were released on bail of $1,000 each. It made us wonder whether it was cheaper to murder than to get caught playing cards. Doesn't add up!"

KENNETT, MO., DEMOCRAT: "If there is one thing on which Americans are generally agreed. . . it is that making a lot of money is no easy task. . . Yet every now and again there is a story about someone who found the task as easy as — well, as rolling off a log. Consider the case of the late Henry R. Grochau, who died last year at the age of 90 after having worked as a freight clerk for the Chicago and North Western Railway for more than half a century. An inventory of his estate disclosed that he had left a fortune of close to two million dollars. And how did he do this on a freight clerk's pay? He bought a few hundred dollars' worth of stock in new companies back in the early 1900s. Some of the firms went under, but one of them — Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing — skyrocketed. His 396 shares of 3M turned into 27,246 shares over the years, thanks to stock splits."

CURRENT EVENTS FIFTY YEARS AGO

Farmers and others depending on wells for water, are much concerned over the long continued drouth. A good soaking rain is greatly needed before the ground freezes.

A program of readings will be given in the Opera House next Tuesday evening, by Mary Eleanor Shafer, A. M., under the auspices of the "Tuesday Club" for the benefit of the Public Library.

Silver Wedding Surprise — A delightful surprise was given Robert S. McKinney and wife on Friday evening, November 27th, this date being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. The friends present were: Rev. and Mrs. Seth R. Downie, Geo. H. Birnie and wife, James B. Galt and wife, S. H. Mehning and wife, J. Ross Galt and wife, Mrs. Mary E. Crapster, Mrs. Sue G. Crapster, Mrs. Hattie Annan; Misses Lou Reindollar, A. H. Birnie, Annie Davidson, Anna Galt, Anna G. Weaver, Jennie E. Galt, Catherine Downie and Isabella McKinney, Dr. Clotworthy Birnie, Messrs. William Weaver and Harry I. Reindollar.

SELL — GARNER. Mr. Ralph F. Sell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sell, and Miss C. Marguerite Garner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Garner, both of Taneytown, were married in Baltimore on Saturday, November 28, by Rev. F. U. Gift, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church.

State Road Work Discontinued — Work on all state road contracts has been discontinued by order of the State Road Commission, until next Spring. The Westminster-Taneytown Road will be unfinished with a number of other contracts, about 1/4 of a mile of the concrete bed remaining to be laid, as well as the new bridge over Pipe Creek. The old bridge has not been removed and it is likely that the road will be open for use during the Winter by making a detour.

The home of Charles E. Deberry, near Detour, was the scene of a merry gathering on November 30, the occasion being a surprise gotten up by his wife, in honor of Mr. D's birthday.

MISS JONI CARTZENDAFNER, Taneytown Md., chairman of the Hampstead Youth for Christ Christmas party for vacationing college students, is already busy sending out invitations and making arrangements for the affair which will be held late Saturday night, December 26, following the regular YFC rally, at the home of the director, Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Schultz, Jr.

Main attraction of this Christmas party will be the famous White Sisters, who will be entertaining in an atmosphere of burning fireplace and lighted Christmas tree.

The group of 50 college students and their guests for the evening will have the opportunity of renewing acquaintances as well as meeting new friends. Concluding the festivities of the yuletide will be a "Holiday Snack Shack" where everyone will help themselves to the traditional Christmas goodies.

This semi-formal gathering is a highlight of the Christmas season for the Hampstead college set and is expected to be an unusual success this year.

We desire correspondence to reach our office on Wednesday, if at all possible. It will be necessary, therefore, for most letters to be mailed on Tuesday morning. Letters mailed on Wednesday may not reach us in time.

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you:

Do you believe the old superstition that the first snowfall of a Winter falls on the date which is then the number of snowfalls there will be during that Winter? If so, we can look forward to 30 of them this year. That doesn't sound too good to me. How about you?

My apologies for omitting two of the boys who are also learning to be acolytes at Keysville Lutheran Church. They are David Schaffer and Rodney Devilliss.

Received a very nice letter last week from Mrs. Emily Steiner, formerly of Taneytown, telling me she now lives at the National Lutheran Home in Washington. Anyone wishing to correspond with her should use the Zip Code 20018. I'm sure we all join in hoping she will be happy there.

I'd like to correct a typographical error in the Carroll Record last week. Pastor Wm. A. Markley assumes the duties of the Union Bridge Lutheran Parish, December 1. The service of installation with a welcoming reception following it at St. James in Union Bridge is at 2:00 P. M. on December 13 and not the 3rd as we stated last week. Sorry.

Keysville-Detour Homemakers Club members. Attention: a letter has been received by our president, Mrs. Maynard Ausherman, extending an invitation to us to their "Open House" in the new Children's Department of Davis Library on Saturday, December 5, from 1 to 4 p. m. AND don't forget to call me with your suggestions for the planning session no later than Monday, December 7—for the meeting is the very next morning.

A number of families have been doing their butchering here in the area. Included among them were the families of Wilbur Grossnickel, Clyde and Lloyd Wilhide, LeRoy Coshun and Charles Clabaugh.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Walter McWilliams, near Skysville upon the birth of their first child, a son, on Sunday evening, November 29. Mark Robert weighed in at 8 pounds and 4 ounces and his mother is the former Miss Beverly Priest.

Glad to report that George Edwin Gartrell of the Keysville Road was able to return to his home last week after a stay in Annie Warner Hospital following a severe heart attack. Do hope he continues to improve.

Have several Thanksgiving Day items: at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weishaar and Randy of Forest and Stream Club, guests were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Weishaar and Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Rinehart, Dennis, Francis and Fred of Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. James Weishaar, Bobby and Billy of Detour and Paul Wildisan and Kevin of Westminster.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McWilliams near Skysville were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Priest and Andrea, near Detour; Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Schott, Martha and Joyce of Starnes's Dam and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McWilliams near Skysville.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide and Susan joined her parents and brothers and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Seibert, Jimmy, Timmy, Paul, Johnny and Mariann of Clear Spring for dinner with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Keifer Seibert also of Clear Spring. Jimmy was home for vacation from Frostburg College and the dinner was also a "sort of" birthday celebration for Jimmy and Johnny and their Dad, Daniel.

Dinner guests with the William Fleharty family and Mrs. Ralph Fleharty were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wolfgang and Steve Henshaw of Ginter, Pa.; (her father, step-mother and step-brother) her sister, Carol Wolfgang, his aunt, Mrs. Harry Shacklett; his niece, Kay Fleharty, his niece and family, with her mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brudin and Michael with Mrs. Etienne Brudin, all of Washington.

some of the members of the Carroll Wilhide family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wilhide, Denise and Renee also. I'm sure there were lots more family dinners for the occasion and hope they were all happy and successful ones.

Speaking of eating, there were many in this community who attended the Farm Bureau dinner at Westminster last Saturday evening. The County 4-H Chorus sang for the occasion and were, I'm told, superb.

Happy Birthday on the 5th to Richard Wilhide and on the 2nd to Rodney Devilliss.

The girls of the Terra Rubra 4-H Club held a workshop meeting last Friday at the home of Mrs. Joseph Coshun near Middleburg to make Christmas gifts for their mothers.

The Village Store in Detour has changed hands. As of today (Nov. 30) it is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher of Rocky Ridge who bought it from Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clabaugh of Detour. Best wishes to them in this new venture.

Sunday visitors at the William Weishaar home, near Detour, were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wildisan and Kevin of Westminster, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Weishaar of Taneytown and Elwood Hobbs of Keysville.

Remember the dates for the practices for the Christmas program by the Keysville Lutheran Sunday School: December 1 and 8 for the singers, December 4 and 11 for the speaking parts and final dress rehearsal will be the 17th (notice change) beginning at 7:00 P. M.

Some other dates to remember are the 7th at the United Church of Christ in Keysville, there will be their Christmas social at 7:00 P. M. and the Keysville Lutheran Church Women will meet for their annual White Gift Service. Each member is asked to bring along some cookies and her gift to be sent to the Rocky Boy Indian Mission in Montana. Items requested by the Mission are as follows: for men—flannel shirts, gloves and underwear; for boys—shirts, underwear, jeans; for women and girls—head scarves, hairbrushes, barrettes, stationery, bath towels with wash cloths; women—dresses, lingerie, nylons, gloves or mittens, 4-yard lengths of cotton dress material; girls—dresses and lingerie; babies—sweater and cap sets, safety pins, powder, soap and receiving blankets; or toys for all ages, religious books or plaques, school tablets or toothpaste and for quilting—new cotton material (from your sewing) for quilt blocks, quilt bats (72 x 90) and 5-yard lengths of cotton material for quilt backs or white thread No. 40, 50 or 60. The program will feature a movie of the Mission. On the 9th is the Christmas party of the Keysville-Detour Homemakers Club at the Parish House of the United Church of Christ. Each member to bring a dollar gift for exchanging.

There were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Catlin and Mrs. Gertrude Warner of Detour. They were: Grace N. Renneburg and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stein of Baltimore.

Some busy visitors on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide and Susan. They were luncheon guests with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gill and children, Mrs. Emory Yoder and Miss Elizabeth Yoder of White Hall and supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fry and children and Mrs. Maurice Wilhide of Baltimore.

Sunday was a busy day for the William Fleharty family and Mrs. Ralph Fleharty also. Afternoon visitors and supper guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Hobbs, David, Dennis, Scottie, Cynthia and Celeste of Rockville. There was also a birthday party for son, Bruce, in celebration of reaching 7 in the afternoon. Guests were Ray Harner, Randy Weishaar, Danny Johnson, Glenn Edwards, Teddy Roser, Tommy Parrish, Corky, Teddy Roser, Tommy Parrish, "Corky" Devilliss and Darryl Myers. Everyone seemed to have a fine time and Bruce enjoyed all the gifts and attention.

It's Flower Committee time again. At the United Church of Christ, it will be Mrs. Maude Eyer, Mrs. Mabel Smith and Mrs. Hazel Stone-sifer. At Keysville Lutheran it will be Mrs. Edward Coshun, chairman; Mrs. Marian Alexander, Mrs. Mary Devilliss, Mrs. Helen Dougherty and Mrs. Karl Austin.

On Thanksgiving Day, November 1919 the corn shocks in Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rodkey's fields near Baust Church could be seen melting away like snow before the Spring sun. It was not the warmth of the sun however but the warmth of the hearts of Mr. Rodkey's friends and neighbors that did it. The shocks began to tumble early in the morning and soon the golden ears began to fly. There were 34 husking in the morning and 53 in the afternoon, by 3:30 P. M. the last shock disappeared and 150 barrels of corn awaited transportation to the crib. Even a destructive fire has its compensations. Mr. Rodkey is assured that he has really many friends and kind neighbors, who are ready to prove their loyalty in case of need. There would have been even more huskers if it had not been for the previous nights heavy rain and the fact that Mr. Ulrich Foglesong's corn was husked at the same time.

A fitting close to the day's helpful task was the Thanksgiving service held at Baust Church in the evening which was largely attended. The following helped to husk Mr. Rodkey's corn. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rodkey, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Rodkey, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rodkey, Mr. and Mrs. David Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Keefe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marker, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Marker, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Flohr, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Baby-lon, Rev. Paul Yoder, Earnest Myers, Lester Koontz, John King, Walter Myers, Charles Heltebride, Edward Dickensheets, Wm. Petry, James Yingling, Edward Flohr, Arthur Copenhaver, Walter Welk, Charles Maus, Charles Welk, Abram Dodder, John Warehime, Guy Hahn, Raymond Rodkey, Jonas Hiltelbride, Flora Warehime, Charles Phillips, Paul Stuller, Bessie Yingling, Laura Wilson, Ruthanna, Alice, Naomi and Grace Rodkey, Katherine and Paul Yoder, Grace and Vernon Keefe, Luther Eckard, George Stoner, Paul Stoner, Jesse Warner, Charles Flickinger, Elias and Walter Keefe, Ralph Starnes, Charles Stoner, Claude Reifsnider, Martin and Luther Rodkey, Mr. Rodkey deeply appreciates the assistance that he has been given and takes this means to thank every one who helped him in getting his corn out of the way and many other ways and many other times have rendered helpful service since the fire.

WINTER IN THE COUNTRY

On snowy feet, Winter creeps silently over the hill. Here in the country, this season is much more pronounced than in the town or city, for Winter dispenses its gifts (and vices) to rural residents with a lavish hand. Winds are more biting, temperatures skid lower, and the snow seems deeper and colder. The latter two is much whiter, for urban snow soon becomes unattractively soiled, dingy and slushy.

In the rural areas, nothing mars the pure, soft beauty of a whipped-cream covered country-side. The whole world is robed in startling white splendor and even the most unsightly object takes on new dimensions of loveliness. However, when high winds churn the snow about, the inevitable results are drifting roads and isolation from the outside world. Many times, after unpleasant sieges of the kind, I have vehemently declared that I never wish to see snow again. And yet, what would Winter in the country be like, without this dazzling magical stuff? It would be like Spring without violets, Summer without roses and Autumn without flaming leaves. And so it is that as the first flakes begin to fall, I watch their descent in child-like wonder and fascination, realizing that the snow is Winter's very own special gift.

Winter's frigid presence is announced in others ways, as well. Crystal icicles reflect the rays of the sun. Farm-house windows bear delicate, ethereal designs, the work of that old master painter, Jack Frost. Lakes and ponds look like huge frozen confections, luring happy throngs of ice skaters. Naked trees reveal countless ragged bird nests, which the green leaves of Summer kept so well hidden. Winter birds, too, and out of the feeders, gorging themselves on sun-flower seeds, suet and cracked corn. And perhaps most significantly of all, the pile of wood grows nicely in proportions, for the busy little kitchen stove devours it at a lively rate.

These long chilly evenings add fresh appeal and charm to indoor life. The bubbling sound of the coffee pot, the crackle of the fire, the companionship of a good book, the comfort of my favorite chair — all of these make staying home a pleasant pastime, especially when the wind means through the chimney and sleet pelts against our old house.

Winter, of course, brings to the country that most wonderful day of all the year — Christmas. In the early weeks of December, we find ourselves caught up in the hustle and bustle of festive activities, as we prepare to observe our Saviour's Natal Day. As we read the age-old story in the Gospels of Luke and Matthew we experience a warm glow of love, forgiveness and kindness within our hearts for human beings everywhere. I have often thought what a wonderful thing it would be, if only this spirit could prevail throughout everyone of the twelve months!

The arctic weather brings a cessation to Nature's vibrant melody, but this is only temporary. In due time, heeding the irresistible call of the changing seasons, the music will begin again — the Symphony of Spring, Summer, Autumn and, finally, back again to Winter in the Country.

— ZOLA CANTWELL

Report of the November Term, 1964 Grand Jury

The Grand Jury interviewed a number of November 1964 Term herewith submit in interim report of their proceedings. The submission of this report stems from the belief of the Grand Jurors that their findings should be filed promptly rather than at the end of their term in May which has been the custom heretofore. Thus far the Grand Jury has examined 37 witnesses and returned 27 indictments.

The Grand Jury interview a number of welfare recipients who received larger payments than they were entitled to receive. The majority of these overpayments can be traced to two sources. Most of them result from the failure of the recipient to report additional income received after the entitlement of the recipient has been initially established; i.e., failure to disclose earnings from a job obtained after welfare payments were started. Putting this another way and shifting the burden, this type of overpayment can be attributed to the failure of the caseworker to discover that the recipient has a job and hence additional income. A few overpayments must be attributed to departmental error. Both of these cases are understandable; both are undesirable. Both give us concern. We suggest that greater emphasis be placed on the duty of the recipient to report such earnings, and, on the other hand, greater diligence be practiced by the caseworker in discovering such earnings. This is indeed a two-way street.

Our primary concern at this time is not in the fact that overpayments exist, but rather, having once occurred, the manner in which recovery of the overpayment is handled. Federal and state regulations and rules apparently require that every such incident be referred to the State's Attorney's office. Even cases of innocent mistake or misrepresentation, even cases of departmental error, are referred to that office. Keeping in mind that it is the duty of the State's Attorney to prosecute criminal cases, this procedure hardly seems appropriate. And it is especially inappropriate in those cases in which payments are continued after the discovery of an overpayment. Why not deduct a portion of the overpayment from succeeding monthly payments until the overpayment is made up? But rules and regulations prevent this. And so the circuitous and cumbersome practice continues of referring all overpayments to the State's Attorney. If he succeeds in making a collection, where does it come from — next month's welfare check. We find that other governmental agencies (Social Security and Employment Security) have the power to deduct incorrect payments from the recipient's subsequent entitlements. Why then does the welfare department not have this same right? Why should it not also assume this responsibility in connection with the administration of its program?

During the course of our proceedings, we interviewed two inspectors of the State Department of Labor and Industry and learned that they expect builders and industrialists to comply with their rules and regulations relating to occupational safety. For one to comply with rules and regulations, he must have knowledge of them; and to have knowledge of them, they must be available. By the authority contained in Article 41, Section 9 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957), the Department may adopt such rules and regulations as it deems proper by filing copies of them with the Attorney General, the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, the Secretary of State and the Department of Legislative Reference. They are set forth in approximately 36 code books or manuals which appear to have been originally published by the American Standards Association. The only effort to make these many rules and regulations available at the local level is the filing of a copy of them in the Bar Association Library in the Court House. We feel that this is inadequate notice. It is unrealistic to think that the contractors in this County know where to find these rules and regulations and that they will beat a path to the Bar Library to check on various aspects of safety. We suggest that these codes be more widely and effectually distributed. If this is not practical, then at least a list of the various codes, stating where they may be located and purchased, should be given to every individual or company at the time of making application for a building permit.

We also note that the penalty prescribed by law for conviction of violating safety regulations is a fine of $10 to $100 or imprisonment for ten days to six months or both. We believe that these penalties are grossly inadequate. In many instances it would be cheaper for one to chance the penalty than comply with the regulation.

As requested by the May Term Grand Jury, we investigated the use of high-powered rifles within this County. We find no basis for making any recommendation concerning this matter.

The Grand Jury visited the Central Laundry Correctional Camp located on the grounds of Springfield State Hospital. This is a minimum security institution designed to help men prepare for their return to society. It also serves the practical function of doing the laundry for Springfield State Hospital, Henrytown, Rosewood and Spring Grove. We viewed the operation of the laundry, inspected the dormitories and kitchen and had lunch in the dining hall. We partook of the same menu which is served to the inmates and found the food to be excellent. We were favorably impressed by the efficient manner in which this institution is run and the help that it is offering to prisoners. Only selected prisoners are sent to the Correctional Camp and once there, they are completely on their honor as there are no provisions for security. The number of escapes are few compared with the total number of men processed through the camp. In 1963 there were 12 escapes out of 504 inmates processed during that year and in 1964 there were 18 escapes out of 533 inmates processed during this

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports

In case you hadn't noticed, BEN AGAJANIAN is kicking field goals again in professional football.

He is doing the honors this time for the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League. At times, the job of keeping track of Ben, and his return from retirements, gets somewhat complicated. To say nothing of trying to keep tabs on the teams he plays for . . . or, for that matter, the league he plays in.

The most up-to-date statistic on his retirements stands at four. But, balancing the ledger are four coming-out-of-retirements. The latest return entry was made three weeks ago. That leaves Ben in the active category, at the present time, at the mellow football age of 45.

Now, as far as the number of teams Agajanian has played with — the most reliable count seems to be 14. But, again, that is complicated, too. For instance, he played with the Chargers once before but, they were the Los Angeles Chargers at the time. Incidentally, in the early 1940's Agajanian also played for San Diego, but when the city had a club known as the Bombers. That was in the old Pacific Coast League.

Since then, Agajanian has played in the All-America Conference, the National Football League and the American League.

While, officially, there is no rapport between the NFL and the AFL, Agajanian has managed to create a bridge of his own.

A few years ago, he was involved in a transaction which had him going to the Green Bay Packers of the NFL from the Dallas Texans of the AFL. That would be unorthodox even today, let alone a few years ago when the NFL tried to make believe the other league didn't even exist.

But, if that was unorthodox, consider this. When Bootin' Ben isn't in uniform for the Chargers, he is in Green Bay, coaching Packers' star Paul Hornung in the art of place kicking. Not only is he crossing the bridge from one league to another, he is drawing pay checks from teams in both leagues at the same time.

Still, pro football is not Agajanian's only source of income. He owns about one dozen sporting goods stores in Southern California. So, when he is not kicking the football, or teaching someone else how to kick it, Bootin' Ben does something maybe even more profitable — he sells footballs.

The art of field goal kicking seems to be growing in importance every year, both in college football and among the pros. A look at the weekend's gridiron activity bears this out. Not only this past week-end, but any week-end.

One of the top field goal kickers in the business — SAM BAKER of the Philadelphia Eagles — has drawn up a performance standard on the art. He figures it is a fairly good guide of what can be expected from a field goal kicker.

According to Baker's standards, a kicker in the pros should score on nine of ten attempts from inside the 20-yard line. And he should be on eight out of ten from the 30. From the 40, Baker figures a kicker should be able to come through on seven of ten and, from mid-field, five of ten is the figure. That's a rather demanding standard, but pro football is a demanding sport. Incidentally, Baker says a good kicker should not miss any tries for the extra point.

The Eagle place kicker believes that 75 per cent of the credit for a successful placement belongs to the ball holder and the center.

He says that when he misses a kick, he is willing to take the full blame, because, Baker feels it's all up to the man with the toe once the ball is placed down properly and held.

According to Sam, once a kicker develops his technique and timing, all he has to rely on from that point is confidence. Baker uses only 15 minutes of practice every day to keep on target.

And on target he is. Baker is the best field goal kicker the Eagles have ever had. He has kicked 14 so far this season, matching the team record set by Bobby Walston. With two games remaining, there is a good chance Baker will kick 20.

Booting 20 field goals in the National Football League is like being a 20-game winner in major league baseball. Only two players kicked better than 20 last year, and just five have a shot at this season.

Remember When Dept. — Last year we invited you to see some hockey games. Have you gone to the Civic Center to see the Clippers yet? What are you waiting for? Once you go you'll be a fan forever, believe me.

Today's Sport Laugh — A former football coach turned horse trainer was asked recently to compare the two. He replied: "All I can say is you know where the horses are at night."

year. Expressed in percentage, 2.4 per cent escaped in 1963 and 3.4 per cent escaped in 1964.

In conclusion, we wish to express our appreciation to Judge James Macgill of Howard County and Judge Matthew S. Evans of Anne Arundel County who have been sitting with the Grand Jury in the absence of Judge Boylan. We are aware however that Judge Boylan did prepare the charge to the Grand Jury including his timely reminder of our new duty to visit Central Laundry Correctional Camp. We wish him a speedy return to the bench.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN BANQUET

fied a man to spend $260,000.00 to be elected to an office that pays less. Since the Presidency is the highest prestige, we too often select the ones we can get, instead of the ones we want, as we do on our church constitutions and councils. We can live each day into another victory. Challenge comes to all of us — sometimes even through surgery as it did for myself, or many other ways that our ingenuity can be triple by fair dealing. Rev. Smith was given a thunderous ovation for his humorous speech. Rev. Smith pronounced the Benediction.

The Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Roy B. Kiser wishes to report a condensed resume of "Mrs. MacPherson's Presidential Report," which was indeed an excellent report; especially after listening to the "Bobby Baker" trial on TV. We know how the Election was won.

What Fits Faith?

Lesson for December 6, 1964

Background Scripture: Titus 1:10 through 2:10; 3:1-3, 9b-15.
Devotional Reading: Ephesians 4:1-7.

DOES WHAT A man believes affect his life? The New Testament, at any rate, gives little room to stand for the man whose faith and life are kept in separate compartments. Faith that cannot work out in life, faith that works out in life, faith that works out in evil living, faith that has no connection with life at all, is not faith in which Jesus or the Apostles would take any interest.

Paul says to Dr. Foreman his protegee Titus, "Teach what befits sound doctrine." We could re-translate that: Teach what sort of person and what sort of living it is, which matches the truth of Christian belief.

Being what you can be True Christlike goodness is not a ready-made thing the same size and color for everybody. What is good, Christian, for an old lady is not necessarily good for the lady's grandchildren five years old. What is good for the old lady may not be good for a young man. Paul recognizes this. He doesn't want the young preacher Titus to preach to everyone just alike. Be good! When spoken to the older women means don't gossip, don't be an alcoholic. Be good! to older men means be serious, be sensible. (Remarkable how sensible Paul is himself — elsewhere he speaks of faith, hope and love, but not here. To older men he speaks of faith, love and steadfastness. Older men have no great hopes; but they can still be steadfast!) Be good! to a young man means: Control yourself. Paul seems to be saying not only "Be what you can be — the best you can be"; but also, "Be what you can be, you and not somebody else."

Be what you need to be
We have only to turn Paul's advice inside out to see how wise it is. What must we think of an older woman who is irreverent, a slanderer and a slave to drink? Paul wants Titus to urge (in his preaching and otherwise too, no doubt) the older women to just that kind of behavior which they of all people need to show. Or take the young men, for example. The commands or advice which Paul gives are not easy, and the short command he gives young men is perhaps hardest of all: Control yourselves. Youth is the hardest time in life to practice self-control; but if it is not learned then, it may never be learned. Once this writer had the exciting opportunity of speaking to about 400 men, all prisoners in the same great jail in New England. What struck the speaker was the fact that almost every man there was young, the average about 19 or 20 years old. Furthermore, their crimes and misdemeanors were mostly the kind of thing done on the spur of the minute, in a fit of emotion. Older men make careful criminals. These young men were too young to be cautious. But they needed self-control to be good citizens; and self-control was just what they didn't have. We would all love to control money, the lives of others, political movements, public opinion... we all want to control. But the hardest and most important thing is controlling yourself. Be what you need to be!

Adorning the doctrine
The congregations Titus would preach to had many slaves. They would no doubt think: It's all very well for your preacher to tell us what we ought to do. But I'm a slave. I'm at the bottom of the pile. I can't call my time my own. I can't call myself my own. I do what I have to do, I have no choice. Well, Paul has a word for these poor men too. Be a Christian in the things you have to do. Even a slave can be honest. Even a slave can be obedient. Even a slave can show respect, he can give satisfaction to the man who paid good money for him. There is a more and a less Christian way of doing even the things you have to do or else... There is a more and a less Christian way of performing the simplest acts such as sweeping the floor or pruning a tree.
