The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

Taney Rebekah Lodge No. 83, Taneytown, held their Christmas party last Friday night, with a good attendance. There was a scrap social held which all enjoyed very much. There was gifts exchanged and names drawn for another year. Mr. and Mrs. John Settle had charge of the program. Mrs. Settle read the Christmas story. Other readings were given by Mrs. Clara Clabaugh and Mrs. Mary Warner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all.

Mr. Claude Nusbbaum, Rt. 1, Taneytown, who is interested and an authority on old clocks, gave us the following information on Eli Bentley, the Taneytown clock maker who made clocks many years ago:

Bentley, Eli; West Whiteland Twp., Chester Co., resided and worked in West Whiteland Township in 1774, 1775, 1776 and 1778, in which years he was taxed in the township. In 1788, he was residing in Maryland with his wife at Taneytown. He evidently later moved to Virginia, according to a deed dated Oct. 7, 1791. — Pennsylvania Clocks and Clockmakers, by George H. Eckhardt.

The annual Christmas get-together of the Hess brothers and sisters took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hess, E. Baltimore St., on Saturday evening, Dec. 19. Mr. and Mrs. Hess, assisted by their daughters, Mrs. Ellen Sklar, and their granddaughters, Mary and Linda Sklar, Ocean City, served a turkey dinner with all the trimmings. After the dinner, much pleasure was derived from the recalling of happenings in earlier years in the home of their parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hess. And the evening would not have been complete without the singing of Christmas carols, which the family has so often enjoyed together. Those present were Miss Nell Hess and Miss Myrtle Morris, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Waybright, Gettysburg; Mr. David Hess, Harney; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Hess, Miss Edith and Miss Hazel Hess, and Allen and Robert Sklar.

Swimming Pool Committee News

With twelve members present, the Taneytown Swimming Pool Project's Executive Committee met Thursday evening, Dec. 17, to hear progress reports from the co-chairmen of the current campaign to raise $60,000 for the construction of a public swimming pool and related facilities, including bath house, in the community's Memorial Park.

Argyle Kaufman and Harry Dougherty, Jr., reported that $5,495 has been pledged and donated to date. The names of all persons, businesses and organizations who have donated and pledged these monies will be posted in the window of Pool Headquarters in January, grouped according to the "Donors' Clubs" designated in the Pool Brochure; donors who do not desire publicity will have their names omitted from this listing.

Treasurer Kaufman presented bills for Committee operational expenses totalling $190.78; these bills were approved by the group. All operational expenses of the Project are being met by the sponsoring civic organizations, the Taneytown Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Jaycees. No donations for the pool construction fund by persons, businesses or organizations other than those of the sponsors will be used for the operation of the Committee and the promotion of the pool project.

The distribution of family season tickets to be awarded as bonuses to donors contributing over $50.00 to the pool construction fund was planned by the Committee. Mrs. Dean Brown, chairman of the Admissions Committee, presented the format for family and individual season tickets. Her proposal was approved; these tickets will be printed immediately. Bonus family season tickets will be distributed early in 1965 to those qualified to receive them according to their paid donations.

Letters will be mailed starting in early January by the Corresponding Secretary, Roland Clingman, acknowledging receipt of all donations and pledges. These letters will request that those persons entitled to receive the bonus family season tickets now or when their pledge is paid in full inform Mrs. Brown of the names of eligible persons within their families to be included in the family season ticket coverage. Tickets will be mailed to each eligible member of those families to receive the bonuses when each pledge is paid in full.

The Executive Committee voted to require that all bonus family season tickets rewarding groups (businesses, corporations, civic, church and social organizations, etc.) for their contributions be non-transferable. Each group will be required to specify one individual and his family as recipient of the bonus ticket for that season.

Also approved by the Committee was the policy to permit groups donating over $500 (who would be entitled to receive bonus tickets for three, five, or ten years according to the amount contributed) to exercise the option of having all the bonus tickets issued for a single season. This policy, for example, would permit a group to receive ten one-season family tickets rather than a ten-year family season ticket for the group's contribution of $5,000 or more; or five one-season family tickets rather than one family season ticket for five years rewarding a donation of $1,000-$4,999; or three one-season family tickets rather than a family season ticket for three years honoring a donation of $500-$999.

The purpose of these policies for the bonus season tickets given to groups is to discourage, according to the committee, any indiscriminate transfer of the bonus tickets that would confuse admissions procedures and that might also inhibit possible contributions and purchase of season tickets to the pool by individuals who are members of the group.

All such groups—businesses, corporations, civic, social and church organizations—may exercise the privilege of accepting or refusing the bonus tickets.

Mrs. John M. Skiles and Mrs. Argyle Kaufman reviewed plans for the house-to-house canvass of the community, slated to begin Jan. 10, 1965, and continue through Jan. 17. Twenty-seven areas have been set up by these co-chairmen, with approximately 20 families to be contacted in each area. Volunteers from the community, the Jaycees and the Jayettes total 41 to date, with 13 more volunteers needed to canvass. Persons willing to solicit for the Pool Fund are asked to contact Mrs. Skiles as soon as possible.

In the canvass, each resident who has not already donated or pledged to the Pool Fund will be visited, and asked to contribute or pledge by a team of two solicitors. Those visited will be told of the swimming pool plans, invited to ask any questions about the project, and urged to contribute. Brochures, bumper stickers, return envelopes and pledge cards will be distributed. Receipts will be issued to contributors and acknowledgements will be given to those pledging funds.

All contributions are tax deductible in the year in which they are paid; the Executive Committee is serving as an agent of the City of Taneytown, owner of the swimming pool upon debt-free completion of the project, and is thus authorized to solicit funds in the name of the City of Taneytown Swimming Pool Fund. Contributions should be made to this fund.

Mrs. Skiles announced that a meeting for all volunteers who will solicit in the canvass, including the Executive Committee, will be held Jan. 6,

Christmas 1964

In this mid-century anniversary of the birth of the Prince of Peace, God-fearing people are again called upon to meet the challenge of atheistic tyranny. Through the teachings of Christ and with the help of our Heavenly Father, in whom we put our trust, we will meet this challenge and triumph over those who seek to destroy the spiritual liberty of mankind. Yet this is Christmas, the day of days for Christendom — a time for rejoicing and honoring the nativity of our Saviour. Now more than, let us everyone, reaffirm our Faith in God and pray to Him to keep us steadfast; to give us strength and courage to meet sacrifices; to guide our leaders in unified statesmanship and unselfish devotion to our country; to comfort those in grief and pain and to bring lasting peace to all the world.

COUNCIL OFFICE FOR TANEYTOWN

The Mayor and City Council are continuously seeking ways to better serve the needs of the people of Taneytown. One item, frequently mentioned, has been the desire to have a town office where citizens could pay their water and sewer bills, tax bills, discuss town business, etc.

Such an office should have certain prerequisites. It should be located near the center of town and it should be at the street level, thus eliminating a long flight of stairs for all citizens calling for official business. Further, it must be operated in an efficient, businesslike manner so as to be a credit to our town.

Recently, space answering the above requirements became available for a town office. It was the unanimous feeling of the Mayor and Council that they should take advantage of the opportunity to secure this space. The office will be located at the former location of the Taneytown Post Office in the building presently owned by Mr. Elwood Baumgardner. Mr. Baumgardner has agreed to renovate the space and rent it for $840.00 a year. This will be an office we can all be proud of. It will operate on a part time basis in the beginning — hours to be determined later. Also, the exact opening date of the office is uncertain at this time.

Certainly Taneytown is anticipating growth and as it grows an office will become an absolute necessity. We now feel that Taneytown is sufficiently large enough to have a part time office available for the use of its citizens. We trust that everyone will avail themselves of this opportunity to better be served by their local government.

The question of what will become of the present Council room will surely arise. It is the hope of the Council that this room might be used as a branch library for Taneytown. This possibility does exist but will require further investigation before a definite statement can be made.

Radio and TV commercials are probably responsible for the rising suicide.

The only way to become financially independent is to spend less than you make now!

1965, at 8:00 P. M. in the Taneytown Municipal (Firemen's) Building.

This meeting will serve as the training session for volunteers. All materials for the canvass will be distributed then, including a pool project fact sheet and a canvasser's instruction sheet. Those helping with the canvass are requested to select their territories now if not already chosen, and to prepare a listing of all residents' names within their territories. This listing should be submitted to Mrs. Kaufman prior to the meeting January 6.

A baby-sitting service has been arranged for the children of solicitors on Sunday, Jan. 10, in the nursery of Trinity Lutheran Church. Mrs. Harry Dougherty, Jr., will supervise the service, assisted by Mrs. Dean Nusbbaum, Mrs. Robert Flickinger and Mrs. Donald Wantz. Specific times of the service's operation will be announced later.

Hearing the report on the progress of the current solicitation of corporate businesses in the area, the Committee urged completion of this phase before the residential canvass begins. Mrs. Dougherty will make tentative arrangements for the 1965 season's swimming instruction program to be conducted at the Taneytown Pool.

Executive Committee Chairman Wayne Baumgardner will contact the Mayor and City Council of Taneytown for clarification of the question of a municipality's legal right to operate and own property and facilities such as Memorial Park and the proposed swimming pool when such facilities are not within the corporation's physical limits. This question was raised during a recent discussion between the Taneytown Kiwanis Club and the project's Presentation Team.

The next date on this Team's schedule is Jan. 6, 1965, when the swimming pool plans will be explained in detail to the students and faculty of Taneytown Junior-Senior High School in an assembly at 2:00 P. M.

YOUTH SPEAKS FOR THE TANEYTOWN SWIMMING POOL

The Taneytown Jr.-Sr. High School students, or the future citizens of Taneytown, will be presenting their ideas and opinions of the proposed community swimming pool in a series of essays to be published weekly in this paper.

The central theme, "Youth Speaks for the Taneytown Swimming Pool," was presented to all the students as a regular English theme assignment and graded as such. With this central theme and the cooperation of the English teachers and students, the Swimming Pool Executive Committee is proud to present to the Taneytown citizens these next several weeks some very well written and interesting essays.

Your Help Is Needed

Attention! All civic minded citizens! Statistics prove that juvenile delinquency is on the rise. How can this be stopped?

Now, more than ever, young people need good wholesome recreation to fill their leisure hours. The Youth of Taneytown are no exception. They too need something to do during the summer and after school.

Since swimming is the nation's number one participation sport, many people feel that a swimming pool is a perfect solution. The young people would get lots of fun and enjoyment out of swimming in the summer and ice skating in the winter.

What can you, as an individual, do to help with this project? The pool construction cost is $60,000. Financing this pool is your personal and civic responsibility. It needs your WHOLE-HEARTED SUPPORT!

—Nancy Myers, 12A

Press . . . Release

Beaded sweat trickled down over his forehead and into his eyes, stinging them. Heat waves streamed off the seared ground, which had felt no cooling rain all summer, but still he worked on. Rhythmically he pushed and released, trying desperately to save Jimmy, the innocent victim of cruel "fun" at the local swimming hole.

Nothing moved in the whiteness of the August heat except the boy's continual press—release . . . press—release. An occasional shudder from the damp body underneath his hands spurred him on, to keep pressing—releasing . . . pressing—releasing. The small crowd that had gathered lamented that there was no trained life guard.

The blazing sun seemed to rent fury on them as the boy slowly sat back, his hands tightly clenched. Then he leaned over and gently touched Jimmy's small frame, and a tear fell from his chin into the sand beside the inert form.

Your dollars help prevent a tragedy such as this by helping to meet the construction costs of a modern swimming pool with life guards and adequate facilities to meet any need. Contributions are being solicited in the name of the City of Taneytown Swimming Pool Fund. Generous giving will be necessary to reach the objective of $60,000. Won't you please help?

'SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE' (Your Chatty Column)

CHRISTMAS 1964

With all my heart, I wish you this Christmas Morning,
Just the happiest Christmas to start at dawning!
I wish you much joy and loads of cheer!

Although, there are miles between us: "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!"

Charles Street appears lovely with all the decorations, in fact it now can compare with Chestnut Street in Philadelphia!

Many times when money is given for the Gift, it is nice to purchase something worth while that you can have the rest of your life.

In the paper the other day, I read where "Her" died by picking up a rock on the White House lawn! If you ask me or any dog lover, they will tell that no dog ever swallows a rock; for even little puppies spit out tiny pebbles! Such a ROCK of a story! I feel so sorry for little Luci as the paper stated how she grieved! She adores children and animals!

Did you and you see Eddie Fisher on the "What's My Line" program? Never have I seen a young man change as much as he! He not alone appears years older but his face is lined and so sad and haggard looking. He is a "Leo" and I know he is still holding a Torch for Liz!

The following, I thought you would like to read for it is a letter to the wife of George Washington when he was far away. It is in one of the 30 books I possess by Robert K. Hass, Inc., Publishers (formerly Little Leather Library Corp., New York, N. Y.).

Philadelphia, June 18, 1775. My Dearest: I am now set down to write to you on a subject which fills me with expressible concern, and this concern is greatly aggravated and increased when I reflect upon the uneasiness I know it will give you. It has been determined in Congress that the whole Army raised for the defense of the American cause shall be put under my care, and that it is necessary for me to proceed immediately to Boston to take upon the command of it. You may believe me my dear Patsy, when I assure you in the most solemn manner that I am far from seeking this appointment, I have used every endeavor in my power to avoid it, not only from my unwillingness to part with you and the family, but from a consciousness of its being a trust too great for my capacity, and that I should enjoy more real happiness in one month with you at home, than I have the most distant prospect of finding abroad, if my stay were to be seven times seven years. But as it has been a kind of destiny that has thrown me upon this service, I shall hope that my undertaking it is designed to answer some good purpose. You might, and I suppose did perceive, from the tenor of my letters, that I was apprehensive I could not avoid this appointment as I did not pretend to intimate when I should return. I know you will feel from being alone and my unhappiness is caused from the uneasiness. (The letter is a much longer one) and it's ending — As life is always uncertain and while the mind is clear and calm, I have gotten Colonel Pendleton to draw up a draft for me — a Will by the directions I gave him which I now enclose. The provision made for you in case of my death, will, I hope, be agreeable I shall add nothing more as I have several other letters to write but desire that you will remember me to your friends and to assure you that I am, with the most unfeigned regard, my dear Patsy. Your Affectionate etc., etc. (Patsy must have been a pet name!) Have a grand day, folks, as you know I hope to be D. V. out in Yuma, Arizona and hope to be writing in a future Column as to my trip out there.

Don't eat too much turkey and whatever you do don't permit too much candy eating for the children. Also for the ladies, I will relate to them in the future how I lost 10 lbs. just in one week!

Until next week D. V.
I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER

"GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS"

WALLA WALLA, WASH., UNION-BULLETIN: "The proposal was advanced recently that the federal government turn back to the states, with few or no strings attached, a portion of the sum it collects in taxes. . . . Now suppose the U.S. government should assign shares of its intake to states. In the first place the round trip of its money to Washington and return would cost a sizable bit. And the remainder, some office holders would contend, represents a saving to the local taxpayers from whose pockets, however, the federal payment originally came. . . ."

TICONDEROGA, N.Y., SENTINEL: "Chief Judge Charles Desmond of the New York Court of Appeals, highest court in that state, told the Senate Judiciary Committee that juries should be eliminated. . . . More courts and judges would help expedite litigation. Desmond's suggestion might do so even faster. But without juries, we take a fateful step in a direction which could lead to just the opposite of our right to trial by jury."

ODESSA, TEXAS, AMERICAN: "Medical people have found that one of the biggest obstacles to getting people to take preventive health measures is the apparently natural feeling that 'It can't happen to me.' And the more serious the disease and the greater the belief that it is incurable, the stronger this feeling seems to be. This was the most important fact to come out of an 18-month survey recently concluded by the University of Michigan School of Public Health."

GRAYSLAKE, ILL., TIMES: "Despite the assault on poverty by the Administration, some of the programs suggested may not be effective. For instance, make-work jobs in the non-profit area are not substitute for the challenge of getting and holding a job on one's own merits. They are more likely to encourage dependency on others than the self-reliance and self-discipline which enable a young person to find his own place in the world. . . . In the final analysis, youths need jobs in industry, not temporary government-generated jobs. And to employ youths, industry needs greater profit opportunities and fewer restrictive practices of government that dampen the business climate."

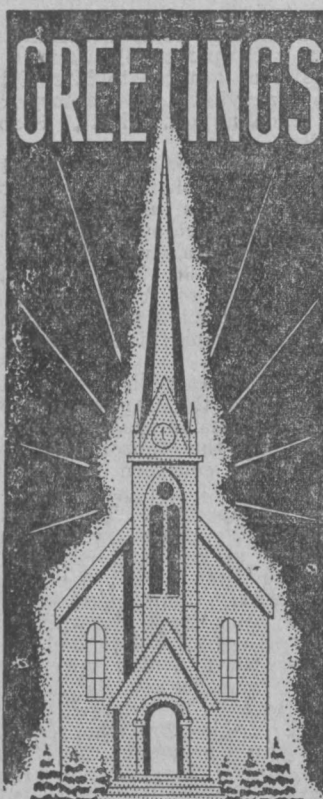

WILLIAMS, ARIZ., NEWS: "Following an election, most voters soon forget promises made by the winning candidates but not nearly so soon as the winners do."

COATESVILLE, PA., RECORD: "Washington has had its hand in helping the farmer, the working man, the aged, the businessman and the poor. That help may have looked good at one point, but little by little each group—each individual—has lost a certain amount of his liberty. One example is the farmer who is 'policed' rigidly and cannot grow what and as much as he wants, even if the crop is for feed for his livestock. Another involving the aged or widows forces them to live on a specific amount of money. If one earns more than a specified amount, he loses his government benefits in proportion to the extra amount he earned."

ALMA, MICH., RECORD: "By a slim 4 votes the Labor Party has once again gained majority control of the English Houses of Parliament. . . . We must be prepared to witness some fresh erosion of free enterprise in a nation which has had all too many ups and downs. We must witness it as intelligent by-standers and remember it well for our own sake. England has gone this route before and tasted the bitterness of disappointment and frustration. She has chosen to try it again. Where she has forgotten—we must remember!"

LENNOX, S.D., INDEPENDENT: "The final figures are in and it's now clear that after three years and an expenditure of $2.5 billion, the Department of Agriculture's feed grain program, intended to cut production and reduce surplus, has backfired. The 1963 corn crop was the largest in history. . . . The government managers of the farm economy used every conceivable interventionist scheme to cut production: higher price supports, increased subsidies, direct income payments, food stamps, multiple price certificates, and severe penalties for over-planting. So, what did the farmer do? He utilized all the improved techniques and new fertilizers that industry could supply him, and made his permitted acreage produce more."

Peace on earth is our wish for you.

HOW TO WELCOME CHRISTMAS IN THE DOOR

Take a walk out your front door and see what your guests will see. Do you like it? Will your guests?

In the time left before holiday visitors begin to come through that doorway, you can perform a few simple tricks that will welcome them, and Christmas, in the door with a flourish.

Consider how the doorway, for instance, would look after a quick re-painting job. After the paint dries, you can frame the door with evergreens. For large wreaths, consider the grace of white pine, or a blackish fir that doesn't shed. For flat wreaths, English ivy is perfect. If you're undecided as to what color paint will flatter your house best, why not try a touch of history this year? A door that wears the new Colonial touch, offered by Pittsburgh Paints, recalls the gaiety of Christmases celebrated two hundred years ago, and more.

Do you have a picture window? Try placing a candle, a wreath or a spray of evergreens in it—remembering that too much of any of these can spoil the effect. The children might like to try a stained glass effect with vegetable colorings, artificial snow, even phosphorescent materials that will glow in the dark!

Naturally, welcoming guests in the door comes easier with a 'welcome mat. It helps make them feel invited, and serves also to keep dripping snow and mud from boots off your just-polished floor.

A branch or two of evergreen on the hall table makes the foyer scene more cozy; try spraying the boughs with enamels that dry in minutes. Pittsburgh Paints' pale gold, silver and copper enamels are especially effective here. In addition, there are the traditional Christmas hues of white, red and green.

A hint to complete the welcome you extend: extend the hallway into the living room through the use of a gleaming plate glass mirror. Bunches of holly tied with bright red ribbon, and boughs sprayed with white and silver, make the mirror a harmonious center of attention; it reflects the room's beauty into the hall, and makes the house seem like one colorful Christmas welcome.

DANISH TIP FOR HOLIDAY PASTRY

Take a tip from the best of Denmark's pastry cooks — and Danish pastry cooks are among the best in the world! Make a savory Christmas log — succulent meat loaf wrapped in a fragrant crust, to serve hot or cold with a welcoming beverage during this most hospitable season of the year. Denmark's most famous cheese makes the festive difference in this Christmas Meat Log — Danish Blue Cheese, tangy and zesty, flavors both meat and pastry.

We predict you'll want to use the flavorful Danish Blue Pastry alone, too. Cut out savory wafers, in diamonds or squares or gay Christmas shapes, and bake plain or sprinkled with caraway or sesame seed, to serve all through the holiday party season.

Danish Blue Pastry

4 ounces (1 cup crumbled) Danish Blue Cheese      4 ounces (½ cup) butter
2 cups flour

Cut Danish Blue Cheese and butter into flour with pastry blender or knives, gather into smooth ball, chill before rolling ¼ inch thick between sheets of waxed paper. Cut into shapes, bake in hot oven (425° F.) about 10 minutes.

Quick Danish Blue Pastry

Pastry mix for 2 crust pie      4 ounces (1 cup crumbled) Danish Blue Cheese
Liquid as directed

Cut Danish Blue Cheese into pastry mix with pastry blender or knives, prepare as directed. Chill, roll out, cut and bake as above.

Danish Blue Meat Log

1 recipe Danish Blue pastry, ½ cup sour cream above      1 tablespoon chopped chives or onion
2 pounds ground round      1 egg
3 ounces Danish Blue Cheese (¾ cup crumbled)      ½ teaspoon salt

Brown meat, stirring with fork. Pour off any excess fat. Cool meat, then combine with remaining ingredients and shape into a roll about 8 inches long. Roll chilled Danish Blue Pastry (use either recipe) into a rectangle 12 x 15 inches. Wrap the meat roll in the pastry and trim the excess. Lay the log seam down on a baking sheet and tuck the ends of the pastry under. Cut leaves from the pastry trimmings, moisten, and lay on top to garnish. Brush pastry with beaten egg. Bake in a hot (425° F.) oven about 25 minutes. Serve hot or cold, as main dish for 8 or snacks for many more.

FAIRVIEW

The news this week is pretty scarce so I would like to dedicate the following to all the shut-ins.

The Light Now Shinneth (By E. Corder)

Angels from the long ago, told the old, old story of a Saviour come to earth from the realms of Glory.

What a message they proclaimed, Angels host so bright, as the shepherds on the hills watched their flocks by night.

Unto you a child is born, unto you is given, Emmanuel the Son of God, the Lord himself from Heaven.

See the gift of God's own love, Go ye to the manger, He who left his home above, is to you no stranger.

Ye who sit in darkness, look, for the light now shinneth. He will great deliverance give you from the chains that bindeth.

Love eternal, never dying, ransoms from the grave. Souls in conflict, burdened, sighing, Jesus came to save.

Joy to the World (M. L. Harrison)

Joy, great joy, was the message told to Shepherds in the field. An Angel brought the tidings, The good news from Heaven revealed.

In haste, they sped to find Him, Born a Babe, before him Kneled; They knew He was the Saviour, He was God in flesh concealed.

To all the heart sick sad ones in this whole wide world today, To the worn and weary Pilgrims filled with fear, distrust, dismay. Our Christ sounds the same message

As the Angels did that day. On Calvary's Cross He suffered to bring joy to all for aye.

The world is filled with sorrow Caused by unbelief and sin—Rejection of this Saviour who above can cleanse within.

Some day He'll smite the nations—too late then His Grave to win. It's now He offers pardon and gives joy where grief has been.

A Prayer for Safe Driving This was written by a minister and I dedicate this to all drivers. Lord grant a steady hand and watchful eye, that no man may be hurt when we pass by. Thou gavest life, let none who drive a car

Be careless once, life's gift to steal or mar. Teach us to use our cars for others need.

Nor miss this world's beauty through love of speed. Shelter those, dear Lord, who bear us company from accident and all calamity. Guard trooper and traveler on this pike

Safe be father, mother and tiny tyke. With courtesy and joy we'd go life's way, and reach, without mishap, our destiny. Amen.

I wish one and all, the Editor, his staff and all the readers of this paper a very Merry Christmas.

All-American Christmas Tree

The tradition of trimming the Christmas tree is only a little more than 100 years old in America. And, it wasn't until the 1890's that enthusiasm and imagination generated around "trimming the tree."

As today, the tree was topped by a gilded, sparkling star. The branches were filled with decorations, many good enough to eat: popcorn and cranberries strung together, gingerbread men, strips of gold paper and cornucopias ("horns of plenty"), filled to the brim with candies.

You can have an old-fashioned Christmas tree, too, and it's easy! To make cornucopias just use gold or silver construction paper rolled into a cone, masking tape to seal them, and colored string to attach them to the tree. Then, fill to the brim with hard candies.

In fact, to create a real Gay '90s Christmas you'll want lots of cookies and candy around. Star-shaped cookies, gingerbread men, and Beech-Nut sours—hard candies that capture the turn-of-the-century flavor. You can also use candies to stuff gifts with and fill stockings. For the final Gay '90s touch, fill a large dish with cherry, lemon, orange, grape or lime soups and keep it standing on a foyer table.

You'll light up everyone's eyes with the simplicity and charm of an All-American Christmas.

Crouse Ford Sales, Inc., Taneytown, held its annual Christmas dinner and party at the Old Hotel dining room in the Square in Taneytown. A buffet dinner was served to all employees and their families.

Prayer was offered by Kenneth D. Crouse. Christmas carols were sung under the leadership of Kenneth Nusbbaum. Santa Claus appeared and surprised all children present by giving them a miniature Ford car. Guests included Roy Bell of the Carroll County Times, Charles Petry, Westminster Coca-Cola Bottling plant, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Copenhaver, New Windsor. Mrs. Copenhaver is Carroll County's Queen of Hearts and was so honored over Baltimore's T.V. WBAL in November. Mrs. Copenhaver was given a charm bracelet by G. W. Crouse, president of Crouse Ford Sales. The component charms symbolized many historic spots in Maryland.

Mr. Crouse was presented by his employees with two antique-type plaques portraying early sulky racing. Culminating the evening's entertainment were two movies screened by Mr. Petry. The movies were titled "Around the World" and "Water Skiing Cypress Gardens."

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports

Allie Sherman, a three-time winner and a one-time loser as a coach, is now facing his most severe test as a football leader.

Allie will have to rebuild the NEW YORK GIANTS, virtually from the ground up. His team just completed one of the poorest seasons in Giant history with a record of two victories, ten defeats and two ties. The club, due to many things, was in a state of almost complete disintegration when the season ended, with a 52 to 20 loss to Cleveland.

When Sherman took over from Jim Lee Howell in 1961 he inherited a crack defensive unit and he was lucky enough at the same time to obtain an aging quarterback named Y. A. Tittle and a lanky passgrabbing end named Del Shofner in trades.

Tittle and Shofner sparked the Giant offense to three straight Eastern titles and after they got the touchdowns the strong-armed, heads-up Giant defense held the line to win.

That got the Giants three straight Eastern titles and resulted in Sherman being twice elected coach of the year.

But this year the whole thing came apart at the seams. The years caught up to Tittle and he wasn't fifty per cent the ball player he was one short season ago. A dormant ulcer came to life in Shofner's stomach and knocked him out of action. Trades that did not turn out well weakened the Giant defense and injuries weakened it more.

On top of that there obviously was a sagging of the team's morale and there was nothing Sherman could do about it.

The offensive pattern, built around Tittle, is gone for good. The stalwart defense needs a lot of patching.

Allie now will have to build a team of his own . . . his quarterback, his runners, his defense, his brainchild. He has a fair defensive nucleus to work with and some hope on offense in the draft picks.

But first of all he will have to find a quarterback, one who can do the job Tittle did even if he doesn't do it like Tittle. Gary Wood, the stocky fireball from Cornell, has some kind of a chance to be that man. Wood can do everything but throw accurately with consistency. He's smart and quick and tough and may pass well enough to get by if there is a strong running game to help him.

Bob Timberlake of Michigan is another quarterback who could play a part in the future of the Giants.

Bob was picked by the Giants in the National League draft and Buffalo in the American. He will play pro ball, the only question is where. Bob is big and cool and smart and can run. He also can throw but it remains to be seen if he can throw in professional fashion.

The Giants also have Henry Schickel, this year's number three man who spent the entire season on the phone talking to the spotters in the press box. And they probably will take another look at Glynn Griffing of Mississippi, who couldn't make it last year and this summer, and a free agent named Ron Digravio, whom they signed recently.

Tittle has not announced his retirement. He may decide to give it one more whirl and the Giants probably will go along with it if Y. A. wants to try again. But he hardly is at an age or stage of his career where Sherman can think in terms of building around him.

Sherman lost all three title games as Giant coach and spent each winter wondering what went wrong each time. He won't have to do that this year and we imagine he'll miss it.

Glancing at the Forthcoming NFL Title Game

When all is said and done the National Football League title game will be decided up front, where the mighty men of the line dig in.

You can take all the facts and figures on the passing of Johnny Unitas and the running of his backfield mates, Jerry Hill and Lenny Moore, and the power running of Jim Brown and the passing of Frank Ryan of Cleveland . . . take all the facts and figures and dump them into a computer.

The answer would come back . . . "The game will be won by the team whose offensive line blocks harder and whose defensive line charges harder."

Jimmy Brown needs blocking when he runs. So do Lenny Moore and Jerry Hill. Frank Ryan and Johnny Unitas need blocking when they drop back to pass.

It is hard to estimate the relative abilities of the lines . . . matching the Cleveland offensive line against the Colt defense and the other way around.

There are no batting averages to use as a yardstick. There are only the weights of the men and their years of experience. And what you can't tell is . . . who will hit harder on the day the title game is played.

The day is Sunday, December 27. The place is Cleveland's Municipal Stadium. And we think one more factor may play a vital part in the result . . . the weather.

Cleveland's big stadium is on the shores of Lake Erie and you can have anything up to and including an arctic-type blizzard late in December. Bad playing weather will only add to the burden of the lines. They will be called on for even greater effort in rain or snow.

A very Merry Christmas to you and may your New Year be filled with all that is good.

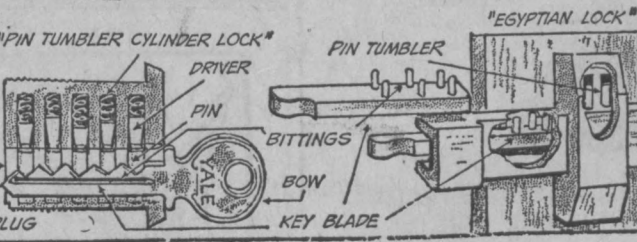

—John Breth

Man can control everything but a woman and a hurricane.

More newspapers are sold daily in the United States than loaves of bread. Kingman Brewster, Jr., president of Yale University, has an explanation for this. Speaking at the 200th anniversary of the Hartford Courant, oldest paper in continuous publication in the United States, he said: "While the spoken word can travel faster, you can't take it home in your hand. Only the written word can be absorbed wholly at the convenience of the reader."

THE ORIGIN OF CHRISTMAS CUSTOMS

You may like mistletoe, but the Druids of ancient Britain paid it more than lip service—they thought it could heal disease, rob poisons of their harmful power, and protect against witchcraft!

While the exact origin of the practice of kissing under the mistletoe is not known, there are several popular stories about it. A favorite is the Scandinavian tale about Frigga, the goddess of love and beauty. Researchers report that Frigga first made mistletoe an emblem of love and granted some lucky man a kiss beneath its branches—beginning a smacking good custom.

Of course the Christmas tree is a center of attraction in most homes during the Yule season—a place of honor, incidentally, solidly rooted in history. For thousands of years before Christ's birth, evergreen trees were revered by German tribesmen as symbols of immortality. When the pagans were converted to Christianity, they transferred their feelings for the evergreen to the new religion.

Although admiration of the Christmas tree didn't originate in America, the practice of playing Christmas music with feet did begin here—less than half a century ago. Player-piano enthusiasts pumped out such favorites as "Silent Night" and "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem." Today, with the help of modern players that can be foot powered—or used as a regular piano by the accomplished—the custom is having a lively comeback in thousands of homes across the country.

And why not? It doesn't take long for the Pianola to become the center of your Christmas festivities. The time-honored feeling of togetherness is fostered by friends and family gathered around a Pianola piano singing any one of hundreds of universally-loved Christmas carols and other music roll favorites.

The word "carol," incidentally, means to dance in a ring, and the man who popularized the practice was beloved St. Francis of Assisi. To bring the Christmas message vividly and directly to his 13th century villagers, most of whom could not read, he arranged a manger scene using some real animals and people. When the villagers came to see it, St. Francis led them in joyous celebration—"caroling."

FOR A DREAMY CHRISTMAS

Nightgowns, pajamas, peignoirs and intimate apparel tell a brand new story for Christmas. It's a tale of ruffles and lace, culottes and jumpsuits, sheer fabrics, softness and ultra femininity.

This is the year of the big plunge in nightgowns...the daring décolletage...bared in front, or bared in back, and prettiest when softened with a bow and a frill of lace.

(Left) For lazy, lounging evenings at home, Miss Siren fashions a gown and peignoir with layers of nylon tricot crowned with lace. Shaped to the body in front, the Empire gown and peignoir are alluringly feminine in white tricot of Enka nylon.

(Right) A cloud drift of sheer nylon floated over opaque nylon sets the stage for a delectable Grecian gown. It's topped by a floating peignoir that's a breeze to care for.

For Christmas gifting, E. Greenwald & Sons have designed a wonderful collection of gift items...fashioned of Enka nylon tricot for easy care.

Fashion gifts take on an added personal touch when they are initialed or monogrammed. For example, "Initially Yours," a half slip and panty set comes with a circular monogram insert that's certain to delight any female. It's gift packaged in a plastic case with handles.

Santa brings another novel gift, shown in the right photograph above...three pair of lace trimmed, nylon bikinis beautifully packaged in a colorful music box.

Everywhere, on the lingerie scene, there is something new, something bright, something lovely. For Holiday '64, say "Merry Christmas" with lingerie and loungewear.

Wise Men's Gift

Lesson for December 27, 1964

Background Scripture: Matthew 2
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6

LIKE GOLDEN GLEAMS of light in a dark house of mystery, the wise men of Matthew's story come and go. They came from the east, they brought their gifts, they went home another way. How many there were, what were their names and where their homes, no one knows. What was the star that led them? Did they know who the "King of the Jews" really was? Did they forget all the adventure, as the years grew cold? The church has never known exactly what to make of this story. Some count it a legend that has found its way into the original story. Some supply details not in the Bible.

They did not know who he was

The wise men called the Child they were seeking "King of the Jews." Followers of this Child would find higher names for him in time. They would call him Savior, Son of God, even God only-begotten. It is very doubtful whether these visitors could have passed a good examination in "Christology." But they brought their gifts all the same. If they had known who he was, they might have come or sent messengers, from time to time during the years. They might have waited till the Child was grown, and sent some one to learn what wisdom would come from his mind. When the story of his life had been written, they might have asked for a copy. No, all they saw was a Child born to be a king. That he would be king of the world and not of the Jews only, that his throne would be not in Jerusalem's doomed walls but in the hearts of men, they did not know and could not know. They did not wait till they knew all about him before they made their gifts. They knelt to him as the highest they knew. They paid him tribute they paid no other. So it may be with us today. Do you know who Jesus is? The wisest man can never quite put into words the full meaning of Christ. But do you know his superior? Some super-Christ? There is none on the road, none promised to mankind. It will be time to speak of a greater if God sends one. Meanwhile what Christ requires is loyalty, not explanation. Following brings understanding.

They brought what they had

The gifts are interesting. Gold we can understand; that would befit a king. But myrrh and frankincense? These were spices such as one could buy in any bazaar. For some reason it has always been supposed that these wise men were rich, even kings. Alas, wise men are not always rich in this world's goods. It is just as likely that they had spent all they had simply on the journey, and could spare only the little they had left for gifts. There was nothing to go with the gold; no pearls, no silver, no jewels. These were humble gifts, myrrh and frankincense; but if that was all they had, they gave it and gladly.

So it may be with us. We read stories of great and gifted men, and we think how much we could do for the kingdom of God if we were only men like Saint Paul, Saint Augustine, Martin Luther or William Carey. We doubt whether we could really endure to the end as martyrs if we fell into the hands of communist secret police. So because we cannot offer Christ great heroism, or outstanding genius, or immense wealth, we offer nothing at all.

They did not ask to be repaid. The gifts of the wise men were gifts, not loans. Not bribes. These men sent no statement of accounts payable. They did not think the Child, even a royal child, owed them some generosity in return. They were never repaid, never reimbursed for the expense of the long journey. A gift from them was a true gift, it was not something on account. Once more a thought for these days when it is still Christmas; how many of our gifts we made; how many of the generous thoughts we had, how much of what we may have done for Christ in his church, was really given?

HAVE A SAFE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY!

Now that Christmas is drawing near and the pre-holiday rush is on, make a resolution to be doubly sure that this Yule season will be a safe, as well as joyous, one.

According to Jean Kinkead, woman's consultant to The Travelers Insurance Companies, holiday time with all of its distractions is likely to be a time of accident proneness.

You just can't anticipate every sort of holiday home accident — the broken ornaments that cut small fingers, the bite-size toys that get into mouths — but you can keep mishaps at a minimum by ear-marking a small amount of your attention for your main job, which is the care of your family.

It helps to have a plan, however flexible, for the three weeks preceding Christmas. The psychological benefit of knowing there's time to do all that has to be done is enormous, Miss Kinkead has found. It cuts down on the "scatter-brainedness" and resulting carelessness that often leads to accidents.

Something else that helps is having one place for wrapping Christmas presents. The kitchen counter offers a good rugged surface, and kitchen drawers provide safe storage places for scissors, glue, ink and other items.

Some other suggestions from The Travelers include:

1. Don't drive the car when you're over-tired.
2. Don't pile packages on the stairs.
3. Do say "No, thanks" when neighborhood festivities begin to crowd you.
4. Do take time out as a family to listen to Christmas music, to re-read the Christmas story, to be thankful for all your gifts, material and otherwise.

CHRISTMAS KEEPSAKE

Camera by Kodak

The green bough on the mantle,
The holly on the door,
Hail a joyous Christmas
The wondrous eve before.

The stockings on the hearthside,
The child who put them there,
Await the magic morrow,
— Christmas everywhere!

The pine tree in the parlor —
Laden branches bent —
Sets the mood for Santa's
Fireside descent.

Speak of cherished childhood;
Speak of Yuletide cheer.
Let them live in pictures,
A lasting souvenir.

YOUR FEDERAL INCOME TAX

The Carroll Record, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service, Baltimore District, publishes in this column, tax information that will enable taxpayers to become more familiar with the Federal income tax laws, which will help them to prepare better and more accurate returns.

The Overall Provisions of the 1964 Revenue Act

A taxpayer may choose to take a standard deduction, which cannot exceed 10 per cent of the taxpayer's income, or $1,000, whichever is less. The minimum standard deduction will be available as an alternative to the standard deduction or to itemizing deductions.

The new minimum standard deduction means a higher deduction—and a lower tax bill—for all those who have used the standard deduction and have:

—No dependents, and income of less than $3,000.

—One dependent (a wife or any other dependent), and income of less than $4,000.

—Two dependents (a wife and child or any other two dependents), and income of less than $5,000.

—Three dependents, and income of less than $6,000.

—Four dependents, and income of less than $7,000.

—Five dependents, and income of less than $8,000.

—Six dependents, and income of less than $9,000.

—Seven dependents, and income of less than $10,000.

Additional benefits, of course, will go to low-income taxpayers 65 or over or blind.

Persons with the lowest incomes will benefit the most from the minimum standard deduction. The total tax loss to the government from the provision is estimated at $320 million. Of this amount—$170 million, or 53.1 per cent—will go to an estimated 8.3 million taxpayers with incomes of less than $3,000 a year. Another $100 million will go to taxpayers with incomes between $3,000 and $5,000—nearly 3 million taxpayers.

This means that 84.4 per cent of the benefits will go to taxpayers with incomes under $5,000 a year. The remaining $50 million of tax relief will go to 2.1 million taxpayers with incomes of more than $5,000, but less than $10,000.

Some taxpayers who itemize their deduction may find it simpler and more advantageous to switch to the new minimum standard deductions. Those who can claim deductions larger than the new minimum through itemizing will, of course, continue to itemize their deductions. And those taxpayers for whom the standard deduction exceeds the minimum standard deduction will continue to take the standard deduction.

This provision means that single individuals will remain free of income tax liability until their incomes exceed $900 ($600 personal exemption plus $300 standard deduction) rather than the previous $667.

A married couple (with no dependents, filing a joint return), once subject to tax on that part of their income in excess of $1,333, will be taxed only on income in excess of $1,600.

A married couple with two children will be subject to tax on income in excess of $3,000, rather than on the excess of $2,666.

The minimum standard deduction grants tax relief to 13.4 million taxpayers with incomes under $10,000 and takes a total of about 1.5 million low-income returns off the tax rolls entirely.

It is the most effective way to make sure that the low-income people who need it most get their fair share of the benefits of the tax reduction.

For further information contact your local Internal Revenue office.

If you must travel by automobile, along modern highways, drive carefully.

DID YOU KNOW?

PRE-SCHOOL READING

Thousands of years ago education consisted of parents teaching their children the necessary skills and arts to maintain life — seeking clothing, food and shelter. Youngsters learned by imitating the things their parents did.

Although many states had compulsory elementary education, when Abraham Lincoln was a boy he only had one year of formal schooling. In his family's log cabin he taught himself the hard way — reading a few difficult books like Aesop's Fables, History of the U.S., and the Bible over and over.

Today you can help your child better prepare himself for school, not by imitation or rote, but with reading machines. For instance, the National Institute of Education's pre-school reading machine takes your 3-to-6 year old step-by-step through the basics of reading and, at the same time, lets him set his own pace and check his responses.
