WHAT MEDICARE WOULD NOT DO

One wonders how many people — and especially those in the 65-and-over age group — actually know what Medicare would and would not do.

It seems apparent that the number is comparatively small — and that most people, if Medicare is ever adopted, will be depressingly surprised at its limitations.

As U. S. News and World Report points out, "Even the name is a misnomer. . . . The very term Medicare is raising expectations that will not be met in the opening plan."

Medicare does not — repeat not — cover physician's bills or dentist's bills. It does not pay for needed drugs except when given in a hospital or a nursing home. And, of course, it would do nothing for those under 65, except tax them heavily to pay for it.

Medicare is essentially a hospitalization plan. And even in that it is severely restricted. It would pay the whole bill for only 45 days. The maximum hospital stay for which it would provide benefits would be 180 days and then the patient would have to pay part of the bill.

Ironically, despite all the vastly exaggerated claims made by some Medicare advocates, the existing Kerr-Mills law, which provides aid to the needy under a federal-state arrangement, is more liberal and inclusive. So are various local welfare plans, public and private. And the medical profession has pledged itself to serve any who need attention, regardless of the ability to pay.

The last Congress found Medicare wanting and refused to approve it.

"FACTS AND OPINIONS"

Former President Eisenhower says: "I believe we should set our faces firmly against federal programs that erode away citizen, local and state self-reliance. . . . Are we, in our communities and states, to be reduced to helpless bystanders? Do we trust a Washington bureaucrat more than we do ourselves to solve problems that rest on our own doorstep? Or, are we just too lazy to act; too blind to see; or too ignorant to understand? The trend toward centralization can be stopped only by a determined people. The best answer for too much government in Washington is better government at home."

More than 2,000 American doctors are now overseas bringing American medicine to the peoples of three continents, reports the American Medical Association. It adds that under ordinary conditions, a U. S. doctor serving a voluntary medical mission in Asia, Africa or Latin America may work harder than he ever worked before. He may keep an 18-hour day. He may have to scrape for medical supplies to treat diseases unknown in the United States. And he probably earns very little money. But, for a growing number of American physicians, the urge to serve in developing nations is apparently stronger than the hardships encountered in serving.

From Director J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI: "The moment has arrived when we must face realistically the startling fact that since 1958 crime in this country has increased five times faster than our population growth! Serious crimes — murder, forcible rape, robbery, burglary, aggravated assault, automobile theft — have mounted steadily since the end of World War II. In 1951 these crimes for the first time topped the one million mark, and more than two and one-quarter million serious crimes were reported during 1963."

An average of $1 billion a year

must be invested over the next 20 years to meet Japan's rising demand for oil, and about $600 million a year will be required for investment in Japan itself, according to the head of Standard Oil Company (New Jersey). In 1955, oil supplied about 15 per cent of all Japan's energy requirements while today the proportion is about 50 per cent and still is rising.

Writing in the Oregon Voter, Ralph T. Moore says: ". . . how can the worker profit from a wage-raise beyond the reasonable ability of his industry to pay, particularly when the raise induces an inflation that quickly and inevitably destroys the benefit of such raise and imposes a perpetual necessity for frequent repetition of the vicious cycle? How can the present standardization of wages be economically justified when costs and conditions are at such variance as among divergent industries?"

The Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association points out that the United States and West Germany, which have strong patent laws, are leaders among the nations in discovering new drugs. Italy, a nation which does not grant or recognize patent rights, has not created a single new drug during the past decade.

The Portland, Oregon, Traffic Safety Commission says that one out of every three traffic deaths is the result of a one car accident. In such cases, the car is obviously out of control.

You won't get rich overnight buying U. S. Savings Bonds. But for the long run, they make an excellent investment.

You get a guaranteed rate of interest—3 3/4% when held to maturity—so there's no ups and downs to worry about.

You also get certain tax advantages since Savings Bonds aren't subject to state or local income taxes and the federal tax can be deferred until the Bonds are cashed.

But probably most important is that Bonds pay off in more than dollars. When you get your Bond investment back you know it has helped Uncle Sam strengthen the cause of freedom (your cause) all around this troubled world of ours.

Buy U. S. Savings Bonds and own a share of America. It's a good outfit to do business with.

Quick facts about

Discover the difference in the
'65 Chevrolets (As different from other cars

CHEVROLET—As roomy a car as Chevrolet's ever built. Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe

When you take in everything, there's more room inside this car than in any Chevrolet as far back as they go. It's wider this year and the attractively curved windows help to give you more shoulder room. The engine's been moved forward to give you more foot room. So, besides the way a '65 Chevrolet looks and rides, we now have one more reason to ask you: What do you get by paying more for a car—except bigger monthly payments?

CORVAIR—The only rear engine American car made. Corvair Corsa Sport Coupe

You should read what the automotive magazines say about the '65 Corvair. They're wild about its ride. They think there's nothing else this side of the Atlantic that can touch its styling. They say if you haven't driven a new Corvair Corsa with a 180-hp Six Turbo-Chaaaarged! you just don't know what you're missing.

FROZEN PREPARED FOODS
FOR MEALTIME ADVENTURES

Frozen prepared foods are probably the most exciting new development in the food field. The vast assortment of meat, poultry and seafood entrees, the interesting new frozen dinners, the stream of luscious frozen baked products, and now the wide range of vegetables in delicious sauces and combinations are making mealtimes true adventures.

Frozen prepared foods are already cooked, combined or seasoned and sauced. They are then commercially frozen to hold in the original texture, flavor and aroma. All you do is read package directions, heat to eating temperature and enjoy unsurpassed dining.

With hundreds of these frozen prepared foods now on the market (and more coming every day), the National Association of Frozen Food Packers suggests you start this year with some menu combinations like these:

SHEILA MACRAE AND HUSBAND Gordon will be hosts of three, hour-long, ABC variety specials next season. Staged against the background of actual performances, the first of the three (Dec. 27) will be an ice extravaganza. The Feb. 7 special will take viewers to an aquacade; the final show, setting yet to be determined, will air on April 29. . . . CBS, in collaboration with New York's Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, will present a one-hour show late in September which will include segments from each of three recent plays performed by the center's repertory group: "After the Fall," by Arthur Miller; "But for Whom Charlie," by S. N. Behrman; and "Marco Millions," by Eugene O'Neill. . . . James R. Kelley has been named Philadelphia regional manager of TV Guide magazine. Appointed to succeed Kelley as circulation promotion manager is Marie Minnick, former TV Guide copywriter.

Sheila MacRae will host with Gordon

ANDY DEVINE WILL BE IN two or three of the early segments of NBC's Flipper, debuting this fall. . . . The producers of Fess Parker's new Daniel Boone series, anticipating a success comparable to the Davy Crockett shows, are readying an enormous inventory of tie-in merchandise. Chief item is a hat, suspiciously like the coon-skin Davy used to wear, that the 20th Century-Fox publicity department insists on calling a "Boone-skin." Other items range from a cap-firing Kentucky long rifle to a Daniel Boone lunch kit, complete with an authentic Daniel Boone thermos bottle. . . . Michael Tolan has signed an exclusive motion-picture and television contract with Herb Brodtkin. Tolan and the other new heart-throb for The Nurses, Joseph Campanella, will be going on a CBS-TV network all-star junket to various U.S. cities this summer.

Ed Begley in missionary role

OSCAR-WINNER ED BEGLEY and new-comer Tom Simcox will be teamed in "Triumph," an Alfred Hitchcock Hour about conflict between a pair of missionaries. The ladies in the cast, as the missionaries' wives, are Jeanette Nolan and Maggie Pierce. . . . Time of Destiny Lesson for January 17, 1965

Background Scripture: Matthew 4:12 through 6:34. Devotional Reading: Matthew 5:1-13.

As Matthew tells the story, Jesus and his older cousin John were not only both preachers; a summary of their preaching is expressed in the same words for both. Repent! for the Kingdom of heaven is near.

Scholars and saints have puzzled over this short sentence. What does "repent" mean? Why the demand for repentance because the Kingdom is near?

Dr. Foreman What is the Kingdom of heaven? Is it heaven, or in heaven, or is it a part of this earth? We cannot answer all these questions in a short space. Consider only one question, about the Kingdom of God. What is it and how does it draw near? We offer a simple definition: The Kingdom of God (or of heaven; the words are used interchangeably in the New Testament) is not a place; it is a state of things in which God's will is the supreme law.

Well, some one will say, isn't God's will supreme everywhere and always? And if it is, how can the Kingdom be more in one place or at one time than another? How can such a Kingdom "draw near?" The answer, of course, is that God's will is always supreme, but only when it is acknowledged and obeyed can we say the Kingdom is fully come. But this will perhaps be clearer if we look at three points which come out in the background chapters. The kingdom spoken

Now anybody who has any knowledge of God knows that pious good words, even true words, do not make a good man and do not make the Kingdom of God. Not in talk but in act is religion best shown and tested. All the same, Jesus and John and a host of followers, have found it necessary to talk a great deal about the Kingdom. Man is a thinking animal, and we have to think with words. One of the last commands Jesus gave was "Teach..." The Christian religion would have evaporated off the earth centuries ago if there had been a conspiracy of silence to kill it. So we have the Sermon, on the Mount and all the other teachings of Jesus which have been handed down to us. How we wish there were more!

The kingdom lived

A religion which is without words and a religion which is all words, are equally bad. This is where the command Repent! comes in. It is clear that the people of Galilee thought of the Kingdom mostly as a "good time coming." They thought of what they could get out of it rather than of what they could put into it. They expected God to blot out and forever banish all evil in his glorious Kingdom. What both John and Jesus insisted on was that to enter the Kingdom—or indeed even to see it—people must change their whole way of life. The word Repent in the Greek means to change one's mind; but not in the trivial sense as when we speak of a woman's privilege of changing her mind. The word goes deep; it means to change one's whole way of looking at things. It means making the will of God supreme, really supreme, for you. It means the earnest search, at all turns of life's road, to know what the will of God is in this situation. This kind of "repentance" will not end with a quick "I'm sorry." It works out into God-centered living. In Matthew's story, the first thing Jesus does after preaching the sermon on the mount is not to go to work on a better sermon but to go around helping people. That's the Kingdom lived.

OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED BY HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

Mrs. Martin Strobel, Reisterstown, was installed as president of the Carroll County General Hospital Auxiliary at the quarterly meeting Monday night, Jan. 11, in the hospital cafeteria, Westminster.

Speakers heard at the meeting were F. Kale Mathias, president of the hospital board; Joseph McFerron, hospital administrator, and Mrs. Janice Lovell, superintendent of nurses.

Mrs. A. Olin Grimes, retiring president, following two years as head of the auxiliary, presided for the meeting. The auxiliary prayer was led by Mrs. Joel Cook.

McFerron expressed his appreciation to Mrs. Grimes and auxiliary members for the donations over the past year amounting to $3,073. He noted the need for a piece of apparatus, the cell counter, which can perform the white and red blood cell count in 20 seconds. This electronic machine is needed in all modern hospitals for the saving of time and accuracy for patient use. The cost of the apparatus is $2,250. The members unanimously voted the purchase of the equipment.

Mrs. Kenneth Bohn, reporting for Mrs. Theodore Shaeffer, stated the gift shop account was $1,338 realized during December, the largest business month, and the balance on hand December 30 was $1,489. Sales are increased due to the enlargement of the gift shop through the generosity of Scott S. Bair.

McFerron commended Mrs. E. Miller Richardson for the handsome Christmas decorations. She was assisted by the Thursday Woman's Club and several friends.

Mrs. C. C. Caples described the president's pin which will be made-up and presented later. Mrs. Earl Bowman reported on a proposed concert by the Chesapeake Male Chorus of Baltimore.

The president reported that a sewing machine was given in memory of Miss Mabel Albert through the Mabel Albert Fund. This is kept in constant use by the volunteer sewers. Also during the past year a nursing scholarship was established in memory of Miss Beatrice Newkirk and an auction headed by Mrs. D. Eugene Walsh netted $2,170. L. Goodman arranged the Painters Mill theater benefit party and turned over $1,810. The Silvery Moon Ball brought in $300. The first Christmas bazaar proved most successful. The auxiliary sponsored a tea in October for the Future Nurses Club of Westminster High School, winners of a national award from Parents Magazine.

Mathias, president of the hospital board, stated that the 280 volunteers had given 15,000 hours last year, an equivalent to $22,000. He reported the accreditation given the hospital by the National Hospital Association for its "highest level of patient and hospital care."

There were 576 babies delivered and 3100 emergency cases added to the hospital work last year.

He said the gift through the Kriel Estate would build the much needed wing, increasing the 62 bed hospital to 128 rooms plus ample room for the babies. Work will probably start in July and the approximately $600,000 wing will take about 18 months to build. Laboratory facilities will be increased and a full time pathologist will be added to the staff.

Mrs. Gertrude Stimax, treasurer, reported balance on hand is $5,322.

The officers who will serve for 1965 for the Carroll County General Hospital Auxiliary are: Mrs. Martin Strobel, Reisterstown, president; Mrs. W. Glenn Speicher, Westminster, first vice president; Mrs. Elsie Arough, Hampstead, second vice president; Mrs. John Fitz, Westminster, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Wilbur Magin, Taylorsville, assistant; Miss Patsy Koontz, New Windsor, recording secretary; Mrs. Paul Stimax, Westminster, treasurer; and Mrs. Joel Cook, Westminster, chaplain.

The district directors are: Frizellburg-Uniontown, Mrs. Thelma Coleman; Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner, Taneytown; Mrs. Lewis Nehmsmann, Jr., Myers; Mrs. Ferris Penn, Mt. Airy; Mrs. Robert Miller, Sykesville; Mrs. Fred Magin, Franklin; Mrs. Carroll Saumenig, Reisterstown; Mrs. John C. Mergler, Glyndon; Mrs. Charles R. Foutz, Mrs. Charles Shipley and Mrs. Evelyn Yingling, Westminster; Mrs. Edwin Englar, New Windsor; Mrs. Virginia Minnick, Union Bridge; Mrs. Roy E. Baumgardner, Middleburg; Mrs. Sherrill Cheeks, Manchester; Mrs. Paul Simms, Hampstead; Mrs. Harvey Houck, Berrett; and Mrs. Arthur W. Myers, Woolerys. They were installed by Mrs. Gladys Wimert, charter president.

SOUTHERN STATES REGIONAL CONFERENCE

Southern States Taneytown Cooperative was represented by George C. Flohr, Mgr., at a Southern States Regional Agency Conference held at Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, Md., January 6-7 and 8th 1965.

Called "Operation Springboard," the conference was held for training and informing agency personnel to prepare them for maximum service to the cooperative's farmer-owners in the coming spring season.

Emphasizing ways and means for helping patrons to increase farm production and income, Southern States top operations and distribution executives brought agency personnel up to date on programs for feed, seed, fertilizer, agricultural chemicals, petroleum and miscellaneous farm and home supplies.

The conference was one of five such meetings held at key points in Southern States' five-state territory.

Ez Tike claims that when the girls in his office start calling him "Sir," the only thing he has to look forward to is retirement.

WHY I WANT A SWIMMING POOL IN TANEYTOWN

BERNADETTE PINKAS—Grade 8
St. Joseph School
Sister Marie Louise

There are many reasons why I would want a swimming pool to be constructed in Taneytown. For the benefit of myself and other children a swimming pool will provide exercise for the body. It will give entertainment and relaxation to the public. It also will occupy the children's minds and keep them from getting in trouble. The pool will be wonderful for children who are fond of swimming. A chance like this will give them the opportunity to obey the regulations enforced as abusive language and unsuitable conduct will not be accepted. A swimming pool here in Taneytown will enable the children to learn how to swim by the lessons which will be provided in the morning.

For the benefit of the family a swimming pool in Taneytown will supply relaxation and pleasure in a wholesome atmosphere. It will also be a pleasant time for a family get-together. A family that plans together will stay together.

For the benefit of the community, a swimming pool will make Taneytown a better place in which to live. The community pool will be an ideal place in which to meet your neighbors and friends. This project shows the interest of active groups which will provide this wonderful opportunity.

On the whole the proposed modern swimming pool is ideal. It will be located in Taneytown's beautiful Memorial Park but owned and operated by the Mayor and City Council for public recreation. There will be bath houses, a wading pool for the younger children and a main pool with a diving area. It will be constructed of special pool brick with marbled concrete floor and will be surrounded by concrete decking and a large area for lounging. There will be year-round fun. In the Summer there will be swimming, both in the morning and in the evening, provided by lights and in the Winter there will be ice skating. There will be life-guard service plus 25 safety rules to insure fun with safety. It was thoughtful of our active local groups to propose a swimming pool and make Taneytown a better place in which to live.

ANNE JACKSON STARS ON CBS'S The Defenders in "Moment of Truth," about a juror who accuses a lawyer of trying to bribe him. Susan Oliver stars in that series' "The Hidden Fury," as a psychiatric patient who murders her psychiatrist-fiance... Sing Along with Mitch, being ousted from its Monday night NBC spot after the summer, may find a new home Saturday nights on ABC this fall. On the assumption that Mitch Miller attracts basically the same kind of audience as Lawrence Welk, ABC feels a Welk-Miller combination would give it a strong one-two Saturday-night punch. Uh-one, uh-two, that is... Comedy writer-producer Leonard Stern (I'm Dickens—He's Fenster) has in the works a new series about the private life of a cowboy actor. The title: Home on the Range. The star: Robert Taylor.

Susan Oliver... psychiatric patient

SAL MINEO SIGNED TO APPEAR in a Dr. Kildare segment, "Tomorrow Is a Fickle Girl."... ABC is enthusiastic about Night Beat, an hour-long dramatic series, as a new fall entry. Starring James Gregory and Jeff Corey, it will spotlight stories about people who work at night, from cops to cleaning women... As a fitting conclusion to the four-year run to Route 66—somewhat comparable to the hero of a Western riding off into the sunset—foot-loose bachelor Tod Stiles (Martin Milner) gets married in the last episode. The girl is Barbara Eden. Co-creator of the series, writer Stirling Silliphant, is now adapting Carson McCullers' short story "The Sojourner" for an episode of the Bob Hope anthology... Randy Kirby, son of Candid Camera co-host Durward Kirby, portrays a litterbug on Camera one Sunday night. His father says he won't identify the boy.

Jayne Mansfield

JAYNE MANSFIELD GUEST-STARS (as a... a stripper) in an upcoming Burke's Law episode, "Who Killed Molly?" She plays a girl named—are you ready?—Cleo Patrick... NBC will do an hour-long animated dramatization of "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" on a pre-Christmas Sunday. Produced by Videocraft, the same company that did the recent "Return to Oz" special, the show will feature composer Johnny Mark's title song, plus seven new tunes he's writing... ABC opens its daytime network programming a half-hour earlier, when a new Goodson-Todman panel show, Get the Message, moves into the 11-11:30 A.M. period. Price Is Right, now teeing off ABC's Monday-through-Friday schedule at that time, will move to 10:30.
