SAVINGS BONDS AS AN INVESTMENT

Vernon E. Beall, Carroll County Savings bonds chairman, points out that like President Johnson, many Americans owe their careers and family welfare to their investment in U. S. Savings Bonds. The businesses financed, the homes built, the educations completed with the help of Savings bonds are countless, he says. The President recently told a group of distinguished business leaders that he might not be president if it were not for the Savings Bonds program.

He told the anecdote after first praising the business leaders for their activity as members of the Treasury's U. S. Industrial Payroll Savings Committee who attended a meeting at the White House to inform Mr. Johnson of their plans to promote payroll savings in 1965. The President said: "Except for two things, one, my wife, and two what we called 'baby bonds' I would not have ever been in Washington."

"I was working in Texas and we married in November 1934. The first rule my wife made was that we were to buy a Savings Bond each month. I made $260 a month and we bought a $25 bond for $18.75."

"On occasions we would buy an extra bond."

"So over a period of several years we bought these bonds, and she would supplement them with a little of her own money, and when I announced for Congress in 1937 she had almost $3,000 in what we called 'baby bonds' that I cashed in."

"I tell you it did not take long to get rid of the proceeds of them in that election year."

Mr. Beall explained the 'baby bonds' to which the President referred were sold from March 1, 1935 to May 1, 1941 when the current Series E Bond went on sale.

"Maybe money talks, but the present dollar should be ashamed to."—Kenny Bennett, Greencastle (Ind.) Putnam County Graphic.

Taneytown Swimming Pool Project

The Taneytown Swimming Pool Fund urgently needs the cooperation of all area organizations: civic, fraternal, social, service, recreational, educational, church-affiliated clubs, societies, teams. . . .

Donations and pledges from the current treasurers of these groups may not be feasible; however, ANY group could sponsor a SPECIAL fund-raising event or project in order to contribute to the Pool Fund!

Some events of this nature are already being planned: An elementary school classroom is selling popcorn; a high school club is donating part of the proceeds from a future play; a bridge club is having an auction of "white elephants" for members and guests; one group is having a dance, another a bake sale.

No matter how small the group . . . no matter how loosely organized it is . . . no matter how small the expected profit from a project may be . . . your help is NEEDED NOW! Let's not allow interest in the pool project to die down. Let's not sit back and wait for others to do the job. Let's make the Pool Fund grow — by nickles and dimes, if necessary — so that Taneytown may point with pride to a dream become reality.

FEDERATION OF REPUBLICAN WOMEN MEET

Mrs. William Hopkins, program chairman for Feb., introduced the speaker, Mrs. Otis Shoemaker, case worker for Welfare in Carroll County. It was organized in 1935. The welfare helps care for old age, needy families, blind, and disabled. The care for the disabled under 65 years of age is growing. The newest agency is the medical care to aged of 65. The welfare agency helps in the licensing homes for Foster children, marriage counseling, family problems, veterans agency benefits, Children's Aid Society, Health Department, Salvation Army Service Clubs, Foster Care and adoption of children.

Our next meeting will be March 2, when Mrs. Roy B. Kiser, program chairman, has secured Mrs. Gilbert Stine to show slides of their trip to the West Coast.

New Look for Tigers This Season

Brand new uniforms and a team nickname for the first time in its history, will mark Taneytown's entry in the South Penn League this coming season.

A complete change in the "playing togs" of the Tigers, will include gray pin-striped uniform with Navy blue and orange trim. The cap will be blue with orange block "T" and orange button and eyelets. The stockings will be Navy blue with two orange stripes.

The name "Taneytown" emblazoned on the front of the shirt for the past 30 years of the teams existence, will now be replaced with a block "T", trimmed in orange. It must be pointed out that these new uniforms will be worn only for home games at Memorial Park. The team will continue with the old outfits at away contests.

Oh yes, the new nickname for the Taneytown team is the "TIGERS." The past entries from Taneytown never had a nickname, but now they will, and it is hoped the namesake will enable the team to "claw up" the opposition in the South Penn League for the '65 season.

Also for the first time, as far as anyone can remember, we will have numbers on the back of the new uniforms, so that you can easily tell your favorite player from the scoreboard. Oh, didn't we tell you — there will be scorecards for you fans this Summer, to enable you to follow the game more completely. Now with numerals, you can spot who's who.

Going on the premise that a new look never hurt anyone, it is certainly possible that the Tigers will reach the top of success this year, with a pennant for the team and Taneytown.

(Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of articles about the Taneytown Baseball Club.)

Senator Weant's Report

During this past week the Senate Judicial Proceedings Committee had a hearing on Senate Bill 120. This Bill would provide that insurers must issue Insurance status stickers to be placed on windshields of automobiles to indicate the expiration date of the insurance covering that vehicle. It would further provide that those vehicles that are not covered by insurance must acquire stickers from the Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund indicating that the $70 fee had been paid. The majority of the insurance companies were represented and opposed this Bill, primarily on the basis that it would be a nuisance to the agent and to the insured. However, the Bill was proposed in an effort to eliminate those people who are operating motor vehicles without any insurance and without paying money into the Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund, which Fund is now almost bankrupt because of the failure of the insured motorist to pay the required fee.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 1 passed the Senate with a negligible number of dissenting votes. This Resolution would require the Congress to amend the Constitution to allow one of the houses of the bicameral legislature to be apportioned on a factor other than population. Some attempts were made to amend the Resolution as it was introduced but these were defeated on the ground that the Resolutions passed by the various states must be uniform in order to be effective. Thus far some 16 states have adopted the Resolution and it is hoped that a sufficient number will do so in order that Congress will act to amend the Constitution so that the State of Maryland can preserve its bicameral status as it was in those historic days when it was used as a pattern for the United States Congress.

There was a Bill introduced in the Senate to provide for two additional Circuit Court Judges. These would be Judges for the Fifth Judicial Circuit who would be residents of Anne Arundel County.

The motor vehicle got in the act again under Senate Bill 173. This would provide that the owner of any registered Class "A" passenger motor vehicle, upon the payment of a special fee, may apply to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles for personalized special license plates. The funds realized from this proposed plan would be used to further the State Scholarship Program.

Senate Bill 196 would extend the term of Notaries Public from the 1st Monday in May, 1965 to the first of July, 1965. It provides that during this time of extension all Notaries Public would have the same powers and duties as were in existence during the original term. The purpose of this Bill is to relieve the Clerks of Court of the issuance of Notary Commissions at a time when they are extremely busy with matters of other importance.

House Bill 190 provides that it shall be the duty of the General Assembly to provide for an election whereby the people can decide whether or not a Constitutional Convention should be called. If a majority of those voting on the question at such election shall be in favor of a Constitutional Convention, the General Assembly shall, at its next Session, provide by law for such Convention. Any constitution, change or amendment of the existing Constitution adopted by this Convention shall be submitted to the voters of the State and shall have no effect unless the same shall have been adopted by a majority of those voting on the question.

House Bill 243 introduced by Delegate William B. Dulany and others would require a pre-marital blood test before the issuance of a marriage license. This would add Section 20 to Article 62 of the Code of Maryland General Laws.

Another effort is being made to solve the problem of the bankrupt Uninsured Motorist Fund. This is through legislation that would provide that all persons carrying insurance in the State of Maryland would also have available an uninsured motorists endorsement. This would mean that a motorist carrying such endorsement would be paid for his damages by his own Insurance company in the event of an accident with an uninsured motorist. Most insurance companies which provide this endorsement at the present time exempt accidents which occur in the State of Maryland or in New Jersey because of the existence of the Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund in those states. It is claimed that this uninsured motorists endorsement would cost about $5 additional.

E. O. WEANT, JR.
State Senator for Carroll County

THE HUMAN NEED FOR LOVE

February is a cold, wintry month, but right in the middle of it comes a heart-warming day which is as welcome as a breath of Spring. We mean, of course, St. Valentine's Day, when we express tender thoughts of affection to those we love. Romantic valentines embellished with hearts, cupids and flowers, convey the wonderful message "I Love You."

Whether the valentine we send or receive is beautifully decorated and expensive or one of the penny variety, the sentiment of love is the same.

There are, of course, different kinds of love other than the romantic type which is associated with St. Valentine's Day. Once, a long time ago, there lived a Man who exemplified love in its purest form. That Man was Jesus Christ, who lived, taught, and expounded it throughout His short earthly sojourn. In His Sermon on the Mount, The Golden Rule, and in answering questions put to Him, Christ stressed love for God and love for one another. He well knew the awesome power of love, and each individual's great need for it.

Today, scientists and doctors are discovering these self-same truths. They have found, for example, that a new-born child can actually waste away and die if it is denied love — especially mother love. Lack of it stunts children psychologically, spiritually, and physically, no matter how well-fed they may be or how clean they are kept.

Before doctors and pediatricians realized the importance of babies' being loved, there used to be a shocking number of deaths among infants who entered hospitals and children's institutions. These institutions were badly understaffed, in many cases, and nurses and attendants simply did not have time to love or cuddle the babies under their care. Gradually, it began to be recognized that it was the absence of "mothering" the babies that was causing the high death rate.

Psychiatrists have found that lack of love during an individual's childhood is the main causative factor in various emotional and mental illnesses. Hardened criminals and juvenile delinquents are almost invariably people who failed to receive the emotional warmth and attention which they so badly needed as small children.

We may well conclude, then, that love is the most important force in shaping our physical, spiritual and emotional lives. No one of us can ever give too much, or receive too much of it. More than any other emotion, it enriches the lives of both the giver and the recipient.

84th Anniversary Christian Endeavor Banquet

The Rev. Martin Case, pastor of Thurmont - Emmitsburg Methodist church spoke on the theme before 138 persons. He declared the "Gospel of Jesus Christ is the solution of to-days problems." A spiritual awakening should take place in America to serve Christ, as in Cor. 4, to be fools for Christ instead of fools for to-days events such as: the Beatles, race tracks, drinking, "dope", etc.

The Rev. William M. Hendricks, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church, Taneytown, was Master of Ceremonies. The singing of "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow" opened the program with Mrs. Carroll K. Tinkler at the piano. Rev. Howard M. Yohe, pastor of Brooklyn Park U. B. Church, Baltimore, President of Maryland State Christian Endeavor, Hymn singing was led by Mr. Floyd Myers, Uniontown.

E. being International, Inter-racial, Interdenominational, World-Wide Youth Movement with societies in more than 50 countries and over 80 denominations. Basic principles: 1. Confession of Christ; 2. E. with a large banner with the message, "Young People, Come to Church."

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Calling All Teachers! Do take a trip with your pupils down to the Maryland Art Building in Wyman Park. Even if there is one child who really is gifted think what you may do for him! I stood fully for 20 minutes and drank in the lovely restored painting, "A WILD SCENE" of 1832 which was lost for about 75 years. The last owner was E. L. Rogers of Baltimore in 1882 and it came to light in 1958 when it was purchased at a local auction house by the Baltimore Maryland of Art. It was covered by thick varnish and old grime. Mr. Howard Misrett recognized it as the early version, "The Savage State" of Cole's famous five series. It is huge and wonderful and so natural.

Hochschild's exhibited the Maryland 10th Orchid Show and from the "Oh's" and "Ah's" it really was appreciated. The orchids were truly magnificent and displayed beautifully. I observed and read the fair criticisms of the judges on the cards and they were perfect. How I would love to attempt to grow them for that phrase always comes before me, "Orchids are Easy to Grow!" While in that "homey" store, I was so surprised to see one part of a room made into a Travel Bureau for Flights and Cruises and I think any question to those two ladies in charge can be answered. So much nicer than just phoning for information. Eh?

Walking through the Lexington Market, saw a big long line of men at a bologna counter and sez I, "Take a look and see what's going on!" I had to stand on my toes to look over the shoulders and there it was by A. Dell — the Delnessen man, making those big "SUBS" for the price of 30 cents and what they put in was worth eating! I was sorry that I had stopped by to eat at the Raw Bar, a dozen large clams on the half shell, for I would surely have joined the line!

Met a little mother of a 22-year-old soldier boy who is out in California right now. What do you think she does, folks? Baby Sits so as she can send the money to this boy and he is one who surely does appreciate everything! See what I mean about Mothers?

Ladies, the newest nail shade is really fascinating by "CUTEX" called, "Nearly Nude." Your nails will appear glamorous as it is a delightful pink!

Don't forget as Valentine Day approaches and you just simply can't ever say, "I love you!" Be sure and purchase red roses for every lady knows what they say in any language! The thrill, too is having them sent to have her open up the box when she is alone!

Now, here's a cute one which will bring a smile to both male and female. A first-grade teacher in Baltimore said to her class last week, "Children, the flag over our school and all other flags in the city are halfway down the pole. Do you know why?" Up went several hands. The owner of one was selected to answer. "It's because President Johnson has a cold!" the boy said, proud of his knowledge of current events!

How I would love to secure that tune of "The Bell Telephone Hour!" According to that Company no one is ever to know the theme at the beginning and end of that show! UGH! That really should be passed on for it would make "The Hour" more popular if everyone would remember the tune at all times!

God Bless You

How sweetly fall those simple words
Upon the human heart;
When friends in holiest terms thus seek
Their best wish to impart.

From far or near they ever seem,
To bear a power to cheer you;
And soul responsive beats to soul
In breathing out:—"GOD BLESS YOU!"

Until next week D. V. and do make some one happy.

I remain,

Faithfully,

YOUR OBSERVER.

A — P. S. Will see you at the Auto Show!

PARISH TO TELL OF CO-OP SUIT AT MEETINGS

Frank P. Parish will explain his suit against the Maryland-Virginia Milk Producers' Association to two groups of farmers in Frederick County this week.

Sessions similar to one held last week at Laytonville will be held Thursday at the Jefferson Grange Hall and Friday at the Walkersville Fire Hall. Both meetings will open at 7:30 P. M.

Ray H. Smith, county dairyman, who arranged Thursday's session, said he thinks milk producers should have an opportunity to meet Parish and hear what he has to say.

"Several dairymen joined me to attend last Friday's meeting at Laytonville," Smith said. "We had planned to heckle Parish because we had heard so many uncomplimentary things about him."

"After hearing what he had to say, we changed our minds." Parish has filed suit in Montgomery County courts to make the milk co-op open its records to members and to recover alleged damages to the co-op caused by "mismanagement and mishandling of funds."
