"HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND LOVE THE POOL!"

A few months ago a satiric film appeared in the nation's theatres to shock, amuse, bewilder and frighten patrons with its depiction of events preliminary to a nuclear world holocaust. Its rather pretentious secondary title, "How to Stop Worrying and Love the Bomb," has been parodied above or a much more immediate purpose than preparation for atomic destruction: The dire need for funds to complete the Taneytown Community Swimming Pool.

We do not intend to shock, amuse, bewilder or frighten readers into submission and acceptance; we only intend to present the bare facts: The Pool Fund now has $51,455.65. This represents $31,624.25 in pledges remaining to be paid, and $19,831.40 in actual cash on hand.

By Saturday, May 1, all money pledged must be paid by subscribers to the Fund. By Saturday, May 1, an additional $4,000 minimum must be raised if the pool and bathhouse are to be paid for and opened to the public May 29. By Saturday, May 1, still another $4,500 should be on hand to cover the first season's operational expenses adequately, since gate receipts will be low due to the great number of bonus tickets awarded.

We've known from the beginning that it would take this much money—$60,000—for Taneytown to have a pool. Can't we meet the goal NOW? We've come too close to success to sit back and wait for somebody else to finish the job, or to leave the work unfinished.

Saturday is the deadline . . . May Day, 1965. May Day is traditionally one of merriment, marking the Spring equinox; pagan peoples celebrated it with Maypoles, May queens, floral decorations and special rites, customs we follow today.

But "May Day" has also been used in contemporary times as a distress call code signal!

So, as our armed forces and commercial seamen and pilots send out their calls for help, so does the Executive Committee of the Taneytown Swimming Pool Project: "May Day! Pay your pledges; make your contributions now! The Fund is in trouble!"

Taneytown's generous and immediate response to this SOS will give us all the opportunity to stop worrying and love the pool!

Inclement weather has slightly delayed construction progress of the Taneytown Community Swimming Pool during the past week. The excavation, which was completed two weeks ago for the pool, was followed by placement of extensive inlet and drainage piping in special trenches in the floor. The piping and floor were then covered with crushed stone and steel reinforcing rods. A cement floor will be poured this week and work on the swimming pool walls will follow.

Footers for the bathhouse were dug and cemented also during the week. The bathhouse will be constructed by the Stuller Company of Taneytown from a design prepared by the general pool contractor, Ira C. Rigger, and the project's Executive Committee.

The Committee requests that spectators—especially children—refrain from trespassing on the pool site during construction. The members have noted with alarm that many children are playing on the large dirt piles and even within the pool excavation after school and on week-ends. Neither the Mayor, City Council, Committee nor contractors will be responsible for any injury incurred by trespassers on the pool site while the facility is being built. However, persons from the community are welcome to observe construction progress at any time from a safe distance.

The Pool Fund to finance the project now stands at $51,455.65, according to Harry Dougherty, Jr., treasurer. Ronald Hopkins and Mrs. James Fair are co-chairing a "phonathon" to raise more money so that the Fund may be completed by the May 1 deadline. The "phonathon" consists of telephoned solicitations by Jaycees and Jayettes to persons of the area who have not yet contributed.

An article about Taneytown's pool project has been prepared for publication in the "Maryland Municipal League Magazine" by Lamar Dotter, an associate of the Maryland Technical Service of the University of Maryland. While preparing the article, Mr. Dotter visited Taneytown and interviewed the project chairman, Wayne Baumgardner. The project scrapbooks, which give the history of the campaign from April 1964 to the present, were also used by the writer for background information.

The Dedication Ceremony Committee of Donald Smith, Cecil Lewelling, and Mrs. Wayne Baumgardner will meet May 5 (Wednesday) at 7:15 P. M. at Baumgardner's Bakery. The Executive Committee will convene at 8 P. M. the same evening there also.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning a smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Sitting in the office of the following in Yuma, "Federal State Market News Service," Stardust Hotel where the manager told me just now that they shipped eight million cartons of lettuce each holding 24 heads all over the world, mainly throughout U. S. and Canada! The Cantelope business they ship out is 2,300,000 crates and 35,000 acres of Citrus!

Have surely been observing this great big little town; which is growing by leaps and bounds and in ten years it will triple itself!

The population is 90% from other states! The houses are all low or squat and very poorly built with cheap material and prices most high. It rains twice yearly and the sky is vast and wide in all directions. Mail boxes are only every 6 blocks and when I phoned the P. O. and said, "How come?" the reply came quickly, "We are removing those, too as this is the city on wheels and they will be placed only in the shopping centers!" UGH!!!

The men all appear as Cow-boys, regardless of age, size or shape! They wear those huge hats and all gaze upon the Easterner!

There was a shortage of women 100 years ago—677 males and only 438 females! There were 367 dwellings and 349 families! Arizona was really a Territory then. (Although it was rugged then by today's standards) it surely must have been interesting and challenging. As to occupations then to give you an idea, a top ranking officer was Lt. Col. George L. Andrews, age 42. His son, 20, was a clerk for the Indian Department, Cornelius Asbury, born in Indiana was the town's harness maker. Christopher Bane of Rhode Island was Yuma's wheelwright. James M. Barney, a wholesale merchant from New York was the town's richest man, having property valued at $31,000 and he was only 32 years old.

(Your Observer was just handed two wonderful heads of lettuce of which I sampled already!) Just 100 years ago, Peter Bosedge, a native of France was 24 years old and the town's Catholic Priest. Francis P. Clymer was station-keeper from Missouri. Albert E. de Corse, 35, a native of Maryland, was one of Yuma's doctors. A liquor dealer was William Forest of Maine and one of Yuma's wealthier citizens having property valued at $8,500. James Doten from Mass. was a carriage maker; Thomas Downey was a ship's carpenter from New Brunswick. Many sailors lived here at that time, as Yuma was an important port for steamboats on the Colorado river. The most prominent sailor of all was Isaac Polhamus, Jr., of New York. At the age of 42 he was superintendent of The Colorado Steam Navigation Company.

The drinking water here is quite salty and the farm land is irrigated from the Colorado River. The climate is delightful and just what all Doctors order in every state and then when you come here and health is restored to you, you just remain right here—that's all!

So if you are 30—tish and have what it takes, with a nice patient wife, you or you will be a rich man in no time! Just take a chance before it is too late. Don't have any fear or lack confidence. Ten were given license to open a business in one day.

The women do not wear hose and the children go bare-foot at all times. All dress most casually. It is such a quiet place in the residential streets that one would think they were in the country. All places on every street, road, or boulevard is spotless.

I would like to see this place in just ten years!

Each backyard boasts of lovely Tangerine trees or bushes which are ripe at Christmas time. All lawns are a beautiful green due to the daily watering.

Hope to be seeing you in California D.V. Have a grand week-end.

I am,
Faithfully,

"FACTS AND OPINIONS"

Ralph T. Moore writes in the Oregon Voter: "We have come to have far too great a reliance on the standard and the conventional as a virtual guarantee of success. That is, we spend so much per pupil, we provide certain facilities in the schoolroom, we adjust the teacher's work load according to the prescribed and then we blithely turn our back on the whole thing, blissfully trustful that we have done our duty. But the burden of right attitude inculcation resides firmly in the home rather than in the schoolroom. If we don't, as parents, have at it ourselves, the odds are that the job won't be done at all. And it is this neglect that is now at the basis of most of our national troubles."

The nation's gas industry, which includes distribution and transmission companies, increased the gross value of its plant by 119 per cent from 1954 through 1964. This boosted plant value to $27.6 billion, making the gas industry the nation's sixth largest.

Gerry Robichaud of the Chicago Daily News Foreign Service writes: "Is Fidel Castro becoming the forgotten man of Latin America? In terms of popular enthusiasm he evoked only two or three years ago, the answer to the question could well be 'yes.' To the oppressed masses of Latin America, what magic the Castro name once bore has been pretty much dissipated. It has lost much of its glamor among student groups, labor unions, intellectuals of all varieties, newsmen, and a host of others who saw in 'Fidelismo' the great wave of the future."

If statistics are any indication, today's man in uniform has found a good friend in the American Red Cross. ARC officials report that one out of every six U.S. servicemen last year received help from Red Cross workers at more than 500 offices located at military installations and in military medical facilities here and overseas. In some overseas areas, the average was substantially higher. In Viet Nam, for instance, it was closer to one out of three.

From The Wall Street Journal: "The idea that employers can go on forever paying the wages of workers who perform no useful work is wildly impractical in any industry, aside from being personally degrading to the workers involved. . . . No employer, moreover, operates in a vacuum. He must daily contend with competition, both from other employers in his own industry and from other industries. If he is denied the right to make changes in his operation that will promote efficiency, he will not long be able to keep pace with the unions' ever expanding wage demands. In fact, he will not long be able to survive as a provider of any jobs at all."

Motorists planning vacation trips choose most frequently as their destinations six large metropolitan areas and six huge national forest areas. So report the more than 11,000 dealers of American Oil Company who display the familiar "As You Travel, Ask Us" sign. From West to East, the travel favorites are: San Francisco and Yosemite National Park; Grand Canyon; Yellowstone National Park; the Black Hills and the Badlands, in South Dakota; Chicago; Great Smoky Mountains National Park, in Tennessee and North Carolina; Miami-Miami Beach; Washington, D.C.; Philadelphia; and New York City.

CURRENT EVENTS FIFTY YEARS AGO

Last Sunday was the hottest April Sunday remembered here, the various thermometers ranging anywhere from 90 degrees to 100 degrees in the shade. The hot spell, as well as the drouth, was broken to some extent by thunder showers on Tuesday and Wednesday.

On Tuesday afternoon, lightning struck the barn on the farm of John T. Stultz, near Copperville, tenanted by William C. Eckard, and burned it to the ground with its contents, consisting of three horses, two cows, one heifer, binder, wagon, buggy, harness and other implements.

Second Draft of the Proposed Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance

The Carroll County Planning Commission last week released for public study its second draft of the proposed comprehensive zoning ordinance. At a meeting of the Commission on Tuesday of last week, Ralph G. Hoffman, Counsel to the Commission recommended its presentation to the public.

Mr. Hoffman stated that several weeks of review by the staff and advisory committees have brought about the development of a zoning ordinance believed best for Carroll County at this time. The ordinance, he noted, would require continued study by the Commission, its advisors, and the public prior to presentation to the County Commissioners for ultimate adoption.

The zoning ordinance sets forth regulations for nine zoning districts—three residential, two business, two industrial, one conservation, and one agricultural district. The Commission has indicated zoning maps will be presented shortly supplementing the proposed ordinance, however, Mr. Hoffman related that the basic regulations being released this week should be reviewed carefully before considering the relationship of the ordinance to maps.

It was noted also that several new concepts were incorporated in the proposed zoning regulations for Carroll County. A Conservation District was designed for maintaining a low population density in certain large stream valley areas. Proposals for a Planned Unit Development of possible varied types of housing where public water and sewerage is available is another. Others include regulations for Cluster Developments, Shopping centers, and industrial parks.

Basic proposals for the three residential areas are based on lot sizes. The R-20,000 Residence District include minimum lot areas of 20,000 square feet.

Two other Residence Districts lower the area to 10,000 and 7,500 square feet. These latter two Residence Districts require public water and sewer facilities.

Business Districts include a Local (or neighborhood type) Business District and a General Business District. Industrial Districts include both restricted type manufacturing in the "L-R" Restricted Manufacturing District, and the heavier type manufacturing operations in the "I-G" General Manufacturing District.

The Planning Commission announced upon releasing the zoning proposal that notification would be made shortly on the availability of zoning maps and a schedule of public meetings to hear comments from citizens of the county.

Any interested citizen may pick up a copy of the zoning proposal in the Office of the Planning Commission (Room 206 County Office Building, Westminster).

The ordinance as proposed does not include the Incorporated Towns of Carroll County.

A VOICE FROM THE HOUSE

Taxation, and exemptions from taxation, are major subjects of any legislative body. Tax bills, with few exceptions, are unpopular "back home" and they do not get through legislative bodies easily. This is also an area of personal concern to most legislators themselves because most are relatively large taxpayers of this State.

In accepting the responsibility of government however, the elected officials of the General Assembly must provide authorization for taxation that will provide the needed revenue to run our government and the services provided by it, and must accept the responsibility to enact necessary tax laws.

The tax revenue needed by State and local governments has grown much faster since World War II than the tax revenue needed by the Federal government over the same period of time. The increased cost of education and other facilities demanded from State and local governments has grown at a rate that few realize.

In order to continue to meet these increased costs, various types of taxes have been provided. There have been many criticisms of the present tax structure in Maryland alleging need to correct certain inequities and need to provide taxes for our local governments from a broad based levy.

At the close of the Session, there were six members of the Senate and six members of the House appointed to a special committee to study the tax structure in Maryland, and to present recommendations to the 1966 General Assembly. Senator Harry Hughes is Chairman of that Committee. The Speaker of the House named me as one of the six members from the House of Delegates.

There is a strong feeling that taxation on real estate is growing too fast, and that the same cannot continue to carry such a large share of governmental costs. Sales taxes, collected by the State and remitted proportionately to the political subdivisions, are felt by many to be a partial solution to the problem. In any situation where taxes are collected by the State and remitted to the County governments, however, a considerable controversy develops on a fair formula of distribution. For example, sales taxes can be distributed on a basis of where collected, on a basis of percentage of population, or on a basis of certain types of needs.

The Cooper Commission study contains some statistics of particular interest. Among all the States, Maryland ranks 23rd in total state and local taxes collected per capita. It collects $220.83 for each person. New York, the highest, collects $309.05. Alabama, the lowest, collects $131.66. Maryland ranks 10th in per capita personal income ($2,683.00) and 42nd in total taxes collected per $1,000.00 of personal income. Property taxes pay $92.23 of the $220.83 per capita tax collected in Maryland.

Carroll County ranks 17th in our State in average gross income on the State income tax returns, with an average of $4,682.00 per return. Montgomery County was the highest with an average of $8,497.00 per return.

One area of considerable conflict is how to help large metropolitan areas cover their great tax burdens, and yet be fair to rural or semi-rural areas whose tax rate is growing just as fast, if not faster. The problem becomes more acute when "bedroom" communities come into a county because of the high expense of providing education and other governmental services to these communities whose residents work in industries paying their taxes to the City or other Counties. Undoubtedly, we will see many suggested tax reforms in the next five to ten years.

Member,
House of Delegates

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you:

The members of Keysville Lutheran Church were happy indeed to have with them on Sunday Earl Rupp of the Keysville Road who has been unable to attend since his heart attack. More of his family were taken into the church on this occasion: Mrs. Robert Bowers, Jr., Mrs. Paul Rupp and Kenneth Rohrbaugh. The altar flowers of red and white carnations were in memory of Mrs. Raymond (Elizabeth) Myers by her family.

Recent Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas and family of Hollow Rock Farm near Detour were her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Kauffman, Johnny and Bonnie of Elliott City.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Byron Stull near Taneytown who died last Wednesday: his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Robert and Mrs. Gilbert Stine near Keysville, and his sister, Mrs. Jacob Adams of Detour.

Thursday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Blanchfield, Sr., of Rupp Road were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Raymond of Hampstead, N.Y. The Raymonds, who were former next-door neighbors of the Blanchfields, had been to Florida and were on their way back home.

Week-end visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide near Keysville was their granddaughter Brenda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harner of Taneytown.

The Monocacy CYP held their meeting Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Peterson near Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide, Jane and Beth were luncheon guests on Sunday with his mother and sister and family, Mrs. Maurice Wilhide and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fry and children of Baltimore. Mrs. Wilhide is well-recovered from her virus and asked to be remembered to her many friends.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Moses upon the birth of a son, Adam Keith, on March 27. Mrs. Moses is the former Miss Debbie Sappington, a foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun near Detour. Their new address is 7532 Atwood St., Apt. 10, District Heights, Md.

There was some excitement last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Ausherman of Forest and Stream Club Road when they had a chimney fire. The Rocky Ridge Firemen were called and kept it under control with no damage done.

Mrs. James (Marian) Coshun of Detour is still on the sick list. Virginia Kehne of the Keysville Road is now home from the hospital and seems to be getting along very nicely. Surely was sorry to hear that Richard Ohler of Taneytown was hospitalized for a heart attack. He came home last Wednesday after three weeks at Annie Warner Hospital and has to take things very easy. Ralph Weybright, who was admitted to St. Agnes Hospital in Baltimore on the 9th, is in room 540. He is coming along right well and is in good spirits. I learned today (Tuesday). I'm sure cards would be appreciated by all of these folks. We all join in wishing them speedy recoveries.

New tenants for the former Baker Farm on Sharret Road near Keymer. They are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Horner and family from Hanover.

Houseguest last week with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilhide and family of the Keysville Road was Miss Gladys Ault of Accident, Md.

Recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cluts of River Dale Farm near Keysville were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baumgardner of Terra Rubra, Mrs. Carroll Valentine of Keysville Road and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Reifsnider of Keymer. Week-end visitors were his cousin, Charles Fuss of Akron, Ohio, and Mrs. Mary Baubitz of Hagerstown. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Cluts and Mrs. Baubitz were dinner and supper guests with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Heaps, Patricia and Galen near Silver Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Duboraw and daughter of Gettysburg were Sunday afternoon visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide and Susan and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wilhide, Denise and Renee.

Wednesday, May 5, is the date to remember for the May Day program to be held at Elmer A. Wolfe School in Union Bridge.

Homemakers' Open House will be held Thursday, May 6, from 10 A. M. to 2:30 P. M. at the Ag Center. Mrs. Solomon Hoke will tell of the trip she and her husband made to India as members of a farm exchange program and there will also be a fashion show in the morning. Rev. Nevin Smith will be the featured speaker in the afternoon and there will also be the drawing for two short course scholarships. Should be an interesting day.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Clabaugh of Keysville Road have a new-looking house these days. They recently painted it a lovely shade of green. Really looks nice!

Sunday afternoon visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide and Susan were two of her brothers, Timmy and Paul Seibert, and two cousins, Mike Seibert and Dale Miles, all of Clear Spring. Timmy and Paul just bought themselves a car and were trying it out. Supper guests in this same home were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dolly of Fairfield, Pa.

Keysville Lutheran Church Women will meet Monday, May 3, with Mrs. Elizabeth Shoemaker and Mrs. Terry Poist as leaders. Mrs. Carroll Dougherty and Mrs. William Fleharty in charge of specials and Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Mrs. Carroll Wilhide and Mrs. Edward Coshun as hostesses. Flower Committee for May at Keysville Lutheran Church will be Mrs. Luther Keeney, Chairman; Mrs. Mark Baumgardner, Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide, Mrs. Gilbert Stine and Mrs. Claude DeBerry.

Happy Birthday wishes this week to Mrs. Glenn (Cleo) Kiser of Naylor's Mill Road on the 2nd; Gregory Clabaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clabaugh of Detour, on the 3rd, and William Stambaugh of Keysville on the 5th. Elmer A. Wolfe P-T-A
Executive Committee Meeting

The purchase of two wall-type water coolers was approved by Elmer A. Wolfe P-T-A Executive Committee at their meeting on April 26. These will be purchased from the profit made at the Antique and Hobby Show held in March.

President Ray Wilson thanked all those who helped to make the show a success and added he had enjoyed working with this committee during this school year. Mr. Perron also extended his appreciation to all those on the Executive Committee for their efforts on behalf of the school.

Money will be given again this year for pins and certificates for 8th grade achievement awards.

Principal Gilbert Perron gave information on a number of bills which are before the legislature in regard to education. He also made several other announcements. May Day will be observed May 5 with the program being given by the school. If the ballots are returned in time, announcement of the officers for 1965-66 will be made at this meeting. April 28 is the date for the orientation meeting for first grade parents and he also told of the Head-Start program being planned under the Economic Opportunity Act for those with an income under $3,000 a year. The School Board approved the purchase of a new dishwasher for the cafeteria which has been installed.

There was also some discussion on future P-T-A programs. Perhaps a poll can be taken next fall to determine what members would most like to have at the meetings.

Boy Scout Troop 330

Camping for one week at Broad Creek Scout Camp near Bel Air can be the equivalent of all other scouting experiences in a years time. Scoutmaster Richard Smith of Mt. Airy Troop 460 told the members and their parents of Boy Scout Troop 330 in Union Bridge at their meeting on April 27.

There are three camping areas on 2700 acres including a 57-acre lake. Scoutmaster Smith said, and he highly recommended this experience to all Scouts. It is possible to earn a number of merit badges and even advance in rank in just one week's time with all the facilities at Broad Creek. About $15.00 will cover the expenses for a week and the boys should be encouraged to earn the money to pay at least part of their own way. A medical checkup is required and a list of equipment necessary can be found in the handbook. Thunderbird training session is held the week prior to the group camp for the Senior Patrol Leaders.

Baltimore Area Councilman Stanley Taylor presented the new Charter for this Troop to Donald Baltzell as representative of the VFW who sponsors them. He also gave membership cards to Mr. Baltzell, all the Scoutmasters and the Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmaster. This unit, he said, has been in existence for over 23 years. The approval and cooperation of the parents is needed to make a success of any Boy Scout Troop. Mr. Taylor stressed. When the boys' application forms were signed, the parents pledged to help in any way they were needed. He praised the good turnout of parents at this meeting.

Tenderfoot Ceremonies were held for Alfred Dow, Jr., Thomas Sakievich and Christopher Conrad. The candles representing the twelve points of the Scout Law and the three parts of the Scout Oath were lit with the candle representing the Spirit of Scouting.

Awards were presented to Steve Zimmerman for the rank of Second Class Scout and to Donald Logue for the rank of Star Scout. Donald also received his merit badges for cooking and swimming.

Scoutmaster Fleharty told of some of the plans the Troop has for the next three months. In June the emphasis will be on fishing and on May 18 the boys have been invited to Forest and Stream Club Road for some pointers on casting. A camping trip is planned for May 14-15-16 and the Troop will take part in the Memorial Day Parade to be held in Union Bridge on May 31. Starting June 29 the Troop will meet every other Tuesday evening until school resumes again in September.

The Great Commission and You
By Mable S. McMullen

All the Bible that some folks read
Is the life you live each day;
And all the gospel they'll ever see
Is what you do and say.
The Master says, "I've no other plan
For saving the souls of men.
Than the word you preach, through the life you
Live, 'till the day I come again."
"Into the world," says the word of God;
That includes the soul next door;
Does he know Jesus since you moved in
As he never has known him before?
Yes, all the Bible that some folks
read
Is the life you live each day;
And all the Gospel they'll ever see
Is what you do and say.

God's Window Sill

Though shut in we may be to-day, within some little room with but a few bright blooming plants to drive away the gloom.

Yet ever through the eye of faith there shines His gracious will, granting us gifts of grace and joy across
God's window sill.

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports —by John Breth

AL KALINE has at times in the past looked as though he had the makings of a super star. A super star he has not become, although he surely is one of the top outfielders in the American League.

Various things have happened to block the Detroit Tiger outfielder's bid for a super star ranking. Now, he is 30 years old and if he is ever to have that really tremendous year, this is the time.

Al must have felt that way himself in Spring training. He worked very hard to get into shape and was intent on perfecting the timing of his hitting, to concert pitch.

A few days before the Tigers broke training camp in Lakeland, Florida, Kalline went to coach Pat Mullin and said he would like extra batting practice to improve his timing.

Mullin took that message to acting manager Bob Swift — sitting in for the ill Charlie Dressen — and Swift asked Kalline: "Do you want practice against right-handers or left-handers?"

"I don't care," said Kalline, "just so long as I have 20 or 25 minutes of extra hitting each day."

The manager arranged to have some of the young pitchers from the Tiger Minor League Training Camp assigned to the special detail of pitching extra batting practice to Kalline.

When the Tigers left for the North Kalline made this flat statement: "I'm in shape. I know what I can do and it's up to me to go out and do it."

WARREN SPAHN and WHITEY FORD have two things in common . . . Each is a great Southpaw and each wears New York on his uniform.

After that they begin to take on a different look. Spahn's New York uniform is that of the Mets, the Court Jesters of the National League. Ford's is that of the Yankees, the Kings of the American League.

Spahn at 44 is off to a flying start on the mound this Spring. Ford at 36 is sputtering and fears are being freely expressed that he is in trouble as a pitcher.

Actually, Spahn won't be 44 until tomorrow. He gave himself a slightly premature birthday present by standing off the Los Angeles Dodgers in what may have been one of the finest games he ever pitched. If you want to put it on a year-for-year basis it probably was.

Warren won his 357th Major League Game, his first as a Met, passed the 2,500 mark in strikeouts and showed all his old style and coolness under fire in downing the Dodgers, 3-2.

It is doubtful that another pitcher in baseball would have been allowed to finish the game. Warren had a shutout going into the Dodge half of the ninth but ran into trouble immediately. He gave up a hit and that was followed by an error. That is the kind of thing that unsettles most pitchers. Perhaps it unsettled Spahn.

For a moment, he was touched for two hits back-to-back and the Dodgers had two runs with the tying run on third, the winning run on first and nobody out.

In a situation like that 999 pitchers out of 1,000 would have been yanked. But Stengel, who knows the problems that come with aging—emotion-al as well as physical—let Warren stay in. And Spahn made the gamble pay off by fanning the next Dodger hitter, forcing the one after that to tap back to the box and then striking out the last man.

Ford, on the other hand, is having nothing but trouble and obviously it all traces to the arm misery he had last year and the subsequent operation. Whitey's arm seemed to be all right in Spring training but it has been anything but since the regular season began. He has been hammered from the right field foul pole to the left field pole. Many observers doubt that he can rally. The Yankees, led by manager Johnny Keane, insist that he will.

DON'T MISS opening day at Memorial Park Sunday. Plenty of activities planned and of course the big ball game. Don't miss it.

TODAY'S SPORT LAUGH — Some jokster sent an urgent telegram to the officials of the Houston Astros when he learned that the players had trouble with fly balls in the new domed stadium. Said the fan: "Why not just remove the dome?"

TIGER LEAGUE OPENER WASHED OUT
FIRST HOME GAME SUNDAY

Extremely bad weather forced postponement of all but one of the South Penn League games scheduled this past week-end. Taneytown's game with Brushtown will be re-set next week. The one game that did go—McSherrystown walloped defending Champion Littlestown, 9-3.

With the league opener rained out, the starting pitcher for Memorial Park this Sunday is very much up in the air. Either Art Caple (2-1) or Walt Donahue (10-6) will twirl the home opener. The Tigers are now at a great disadvantage because of the fact that the league teams have all rescheduled their rain-outs of last Sunday and will have already one league game "under their belts."

Taneytown has yet to play a game and will make their first appearance as a unit at home Sunday. First reports had the rain-out as being made up on Saturday, but Brushtown cancelled this because of the unavailability of some of their players.

Starting behind the plate this season will be Arvin "Skinny" Bollinger. At third base last year "Skinny" batted .232 with two doubles but was the team leader with 14 rbi's. The base knocks were timely indeed as time and again Bollinger came through in the clutch. As manager last season, Arvin directed the club to a fourth place finish and runner-up to the playoff champion, New Oxford.

Manager Bob Fogle stated that the team has been brought to a "fine edge" by the constant spring training and now this further delay could prove to be very bad. The Brushtown game was counted on to give the Tigers some badly needed game experience. When those plans fell through, manager Fogle could not hide his disappointment.

KINDERGARTEN TO BE HELD

Applications for enrollment in the Christian Day Kindergarten of Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, for the 1965-66 term will be submitted after April 30 to Mrs. Wayne Baumgardner, Kenneth Crouse or Rev. Howard Miller by any interested parents of children who will be four years old by December 31, or five years old.

Brochures explaining the program of the Kindergarten and application forms may be obtained at the church office or parsonage.

A priority registration period for parents of children who are members of Trinity Lutheran Church was in effect from April 15-30. To date, 5 applications have been submitted for the class of 20 children.

An Open House will be held May 11, from 9 to 11:30 A. M. in the Kindergarten rooms for children and their parents who have enrolled or are considering application for the coming term. On April 27, an Open House was held at the Kindergarten for members of Trinity Church who had enrolled their children or were considering application.

The present Teacher-Director, Mrs. Charles Stonesifer, will be returning to conduct the 1965-66 term. Monthly tuition will remain at $17.00, payable in advance each month. The completed application forms for registration shall be accompanied by a $5.00 fee, deductible from the first month's tuition payment if the child is accepted. If the child is accepted and the parent fails to send him or her, the fee is not returnable. Registration fees shall, however, be returned to parents whose children cannot be accommodated.

Applications shall be processed by the Kindergarten's Steering Committee in the order received. The maximum enrollment will be 20 pupils, rather than the 25 maximum enrollment specified for the 1964-65 term. The Christian Day Kindergarten is a non-profit, self-supporting function of the congregation, conducted to provide the pre-school child with a Christian education commensurate with his individual capacity for growth.

The general objective is to assist the child in his relationships to God, church, Bible, fellow men, physical world and himself. The objectives are spelled out according to understandings, attitudes and action patterns.

Transportation must be provided by the parents, and the Kindergarten is conducted Monday through Friday, during the regular school year from September to the last Friday in May, from 9 to 11:30 A. M. in the first-floor Kindergarten rooms of the church. Further details are available in the brochure obtainable at the church office or parsonage.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETINGS ON Proposed Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance

The Carroll County Planning and Zoning Commission will hold public hearings on the evenings of May 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14 between the hours of 7:30 and 9:00 P. M. in Room 208, County Office Building, Westminster, Maryland at which time any person may appear before the said Commission to express any comments relative to the proposed ordinance and/or proposed zoning maps.

The following is a summary of the background, objectives, and the contents of the proposed ordinance:

Summary and Explanation PROPOSED COMPREHENSIVE ZONING ORDINANCE (Carroll County, Md.) April 1965

Carroll County has operated under an interim or temporary-type zoning ordinance for approximately 3½ years. The purpose of the ordinance was to establish a control over set-back lines and certain type uses prior to their location in the county. This is only a limited-type zoning and inadequate to serve the needs of a growing county and must be replaced by a more comprehensive zoning ordinance.

Prior to the drafting of the proposed Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance, the Planning Commission spent many months developing a Master Plan for the future growth of the county. A study of population, land use, highways, economic activities, water and sewerage needs, and many other factors was made. A Master Plan for Carroll County was prepared from these studies and adopted in May 1964. A Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance is generally patterned around the needs shown on the Master Plan.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives sought by a comprehensive zoning ordinance are:

1. To preserve and protect the attractive living environment and the beauty of Carroll County.
2. To establish appropriate standards of development for the new growth of the county.
3. To aid in protecting the investments in homes, farms, business and industry from unwanted and incompatible neighbors.
4. To create orderly and systematic patterns of residential developments that can be conveniently and efficiently served by public facilities, including roads, schools, water and sewerage systems and the like.
5. To conserve good farm lands so far as is possible and to protect the farmer from unnecessary or objectionable land uses.
6. To promote the growth of retail business and industry in logical and effective areas of the county.
7. To protect roadides from encroaching buildings, haphazard-type businesses and uses.
8. To protect large stream valleys from exploitation by indiscriminate uses which tend to destroy the water, forests, and beauty of such areas.

PURPOSE AND DESCRIPTION

The proposed ordinance will regulate locations and use of buildings and land for residential, business and industry and other purposes. It will specify minimum lot sizes, yards, building heights, off-street parking and other requirements. It has been designed specifically for Carroll County, however, is not unlike many other ordinances in rural counties which are realizing urban-type growth.

A total of nine zoning districts are being proposed. While many more districts are possible, it is believed that the number of districts will be adequate to serve the needs of the county for the next several years.

RESIDENTIAL DISTRICTS

Three Residential Districts are proposed and are described herein. The "R-20,000" Residence District is designed for single family housing which may not have either or both public water and sewerage facilities and where trends indicate that larger lot sizes are being developed to obtain more open space in residential developments. This District specifies a minimum lot area per family of 20,000 square feet with a minimum lot width of 100 feet.

"R-10,000" Residence District is for primarily single family residences and is proposed for location where both public water and sewerage facilities are or are proposed to be available. This District is located adjacent to incorporated areas or in those locations where public facilities may be forthcoming in the near future. The lot size per family is 10,000 square feet with a minimum lot width of 70 feet.

"R-7,500" Residence District is created for single, two-family and multi-family residential uses. Multi-family dwellings are proposed in conjunction with a planned unit development and require public water and sewerage facilities. The minimum lot area per family is 7,500 square feet and a lot width of 60 feet.

BUSINESS DISTRICTS

The "B-L" Local Business District is designed to accommodate all local or neighborhood retail businesses needed to service the citizens of any neighborhood or community. Included are food, drug, hardware, variety and other similar retail or service businesses. For reason that many of the locations proposed for this zoning classification are in residential areas, the more objectionable or unnecessary type business uses are excluded.

The "B-G" General Business District applies to most of the highway-type businesses and many others that do not require a shopping center location. Included are motels, restaurants, equipment service and sales, repair garages and shops, wholesale and warehousing businesses and numerous others. Most of the locations served by this District are on the major highways of the county at established business locations or key intersections.

INDUSTRIAL DISTRICTS

The "I-R" Restricted Industrial District provides for manufacturing of a type restricted to processing from previously prepared materials such as electrical appliances, electronic equipment, articles from bone, cloth, leather, paper, etc. All manufacturing is of a type that generally is considered light manufacturing in zoning terminology. The location of this District for the most part is served by major highways and not necessarily rail service. Construction of dwellings in this District is prohibited.

The "I-G" General Industrial District contains the extremely heavy and sometimes more objectionable-type industrial processes. Included are such industries as brick manufacture, manufacture and assembly of automobiles or other vehicles or component parts, manufacture of cloth, paper, paper products, rayon, wire, etc. In practically all cases, major highways, rail service, and level land is a prerequisite for this District. Dwellings are also excluded in this Industrial District.

AGRICULTURE DISTRICT

The "A" Agriculture District comprises approximately 85% of the land area of the county. Agriculture is a principal permitted use and is proposed in all Zoning Districts. The District will also include numerous residential subdivisions (single and two family dwellings) most of which will not be able to benefit from public water and sewerage facilities. Schools, colleges, churches, hospitals, recreation, nursing homes, etc., are uses also considered principal uses. For reason that this District comprises the largest land area, many other uses are permitted, but only upon Board of Appeals approval. This category includes airports, extra-active uses, race tracks, mobile home parks, penal institutions, research-type industries, rifle ranges, and many other uses. The minimum lot area per family is 20,000 square feet.

CONSERVATION DISTRICT

The "C" Conservation District includes the larger stream valleys of the county which are considered generally unsuited to extensive residential development because of soil, topography, and accessibility. To enable the areas in this District to remain relatively "open" in character, uses are restricted to those of a recreational-type. Dwellings are permitted, however, on a minimum of 3 acres. Agriculture is a principal permitted use.

ZONING MAPS

The Planning Commission has designated on zoning maps proposals for District boundaries. A generalized zoning map has been prepared showing the zoning classifications for the entire county on a single map. In addition, the Commission has prepared for official adoption a series of zoning maps on a much larger scale. The maps are available for inspection in the Planning Commission Office in the County Office Building, Westminster, Md.

EXISTING USES

Existing buildings, structures, and uses are allowed to continue in most cases, regardless of zoning. If such use is located in a Zoning District which does not conform to the use regulations, it is known as a "non-conforming use" and limitations are placed on its expansion, replacement, or change in use.

PRINCIPAL AND CONDITIONAL USES

A zoning certificate is issued upon application by the Zoning Administrator for all Principal Uses specified in each of the nine Zoning Districts. For all Conditional Uses, applications must be approved by the Board of Appeals after public hearing. Conditional uses are customarily found in the Zoning District where specified but have some unusual or objectionable aspects which require special consideration or the placement of appropriate conditions for the protection of neighbors or the community.

LOT REQUIREMENTS FOR DWELLINGS

Regardless of the minimum lot size specified for dwellings in all Districts (except Industrial Districts), regulations of the Maryland State Department of Health govern. All lots without public water and sewerage facilities must have a minimum of 20,000 square feet regardless of the District in which they are located. Minimum lot sizes (except in the "R-20,000" the "A" and "C" Districts) shall be 15,000 square feet if public water is provided but not sewers, and 10,000 square feet with public water and public sewerage supplies. Where both public water and sewerage facilities are used in the "R-7,500" Residence District the minimum lot size is 7,500 square feet.

OFF-STREET PARKING

In order to lessen congestion on roads and streets all new buildings, including dwellings, must provide its own off-street parking spaces. Industrial, business, and public uses must provide adequate off-street parking in accordance with formulas developed based on common practice and experience.

SET-BACK AND YARDS

Yards in the front, side, and rear of dwellings and certain other buildings are prescribed for many purposes such as provision of light and air, protection from traffic hazards, noise, fumes, spread of fire, and the preservation of peace and quiet. The requirements vary from district to district.

BUILDING HEIGHTS

In order to secure safety from fire, panic, and other dangers, insure adequate light and air from neighboring properties, prevent overcrowding of land, limitations have been placed on the height of buildings in all districts.

TRAILERS OR MOBILE HOMES

Except for temporary uses such as offices, and on farms for occupancy of a tenant or immediate family, individual trailers are proposed to be prohibited. Trailer or Mobile Home Parks are proposed in the "A" Agriculture District and "I-R" Restricted Industrial District as conditional uses requiring Board of Appeals approval.

SIGNS AND BILLBOARDS (Outdoor Advertising Devices)

On-the-premise-type signs are permitted as an accessory use for all businesses. Off-the-premise signs and billboards are proposed for location in "B-G" General Business and all Industrial Districts.

PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENT

In a "R-7,500" Residence District where both public water and sewerage facilities are available, it is proposed that on a minimum tract of 10 acres varied-type housing can be located as a planned unit. Upon presentation of a suitable plan and approval by the Planning Commission, single and two-family dwellings, apartments and town houses may be located. Such plan assures a maximum density of population, adequate streets, open spaces, etc.

CLUSTER DEVELOPMENT

A proposal to allow a reduction of lot sizes in a development and the reservation of the land gained from such reduction as open space is included in the proposed ordinance. This is a concept which is gaining in popularity because of the desire of more open space, playgrounds, and planting areas in developments.

SHOPPING CENTERS (Planned Business Centers)

Proposals in the Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance indicate that plans for neighborhood shopping centers (2 acres or more in a "B-L" District) and Community Shopping Centers (10 acres or more in a "B-G" District) must be approved by the Planning Commission based on sound development and use standards.

INDUSTRIAL PARKS

Under the Ordinance, development and site plans for Industrial Parks are proposed for approval by the Planning Commission to insure that adequate standards are provided for use, access, parking, loading, storage, building location, utility location, signing and yard requirements.

ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT

The proposed Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance would be administered approximately in the same manner as the present Interim Zoning Ordinance. Applications would, therefore, be processed by a Zoning Administrator with penalties for violation as prescribed by State Law. Appeals from any action of the Zoning Administrator can be taken to the Board of Appeals, and from there to the Courts, if necessary. These provisions are in accordance with State Law.

APPEALS AND AMENDMENTS

Provisions for the Board of Appeals, its powers and jurisdiction are set out in the proposed ordinance. The procedures for amending or changing the regulations or zoning maps are prescribed in the ordinances, all of which are in accordance with State Law.

Any person may secure a copy of the proposed zoning ordinance or review the proposed zoning maps in the office of the Planning and Zoning Commission, County Office Building, Westminster, Md.

Putting God First

Lesson for May 2, 1965

Background Scripture: I Samuel 13 through 15.
Devotional Reading: I Samuel 15:17-23.

Preachers tell us we should put God first. People who combine patriotism with religion keep telling us the whole nation and not merely individuals ought to be putting God first. But what does it actually mean to put God first, as individuals and as a nation? It doesn't mean just courtesy, such as crossing oneself when the name of God is mentioned, or speaking of God first and others after him. Yale has a song, ending "For God, for country and for Yale"; but this does not make Yale a religious university. Putting God first doesn't mean special respects being shown to the ministers of God. Some men who are pretty profane will not swear in the presence of a clergyman or preacher. This is a kind of hypocrisy; it is hardly putting God first. Again, putting God first is not the same as paying your church pledge first and your other bills afterwards. This is getting warm, through. But a better test of a man's religion would be to ask about the amount of the pledge rather than how punctually he pays it!

God's orders first

Many persons walk past the doors of churches every day in the working year without ever going inside. They may be told that inside those doors somewhere here is a wall with the Ten Commandments on it—on a scroll or a brass tablet or something. Now the man on the street who never gets inside the doors may think that the Ten Commandments are like the bylaws of a club: if you don't join, the bylaws are of no interest to you. The man's big mistake, of course, is to think that the Ten Commandments are not for him unless he chooses. On the contrary, God's laws, and his will as seen in those laws, are for every member of the human race. If they began with the words THIS MEANS YOU they could not be more personal than they already are. Yet such is the subtle power of sin in man that every day in some way or other men take orders, so to speak, from public opinion, from wives, from some admired friend, or from oneself, rather than first asking, What is GOD's will?

God's character first

As soon as anyone says, "The business of everyone who believes in God is to be God-like"—or words to that effect, he will be met by a storm of objections. How can you say such a rash thing? This person will be asked, How do we know what God is like? How can a man imitate God without playing God?—and you know how bad that is. Well, there's quite a difference between playing God and imitating God. Doesn't it make sense for a Christian to imitate the Master of the art of life itself?

God's concern first

God's commands, his character: putting these first is to put God first. But that's not all. Equally vital it is to put God's concerns first. The Bible might well be called the Book of God's concerns. We know for one thing that the God of justice hates injustice. Now there is a monstrous injustice going on all around us. Much is being done to help, but injustice has by no means disappeared. Consider the injustices the white race in America has inflicted (for instance) on the Indian and on the Negro. We are not all called to make demonstrations in the street—some of us may be; but one who calls himself Christian, yet is not concerned with the plight of the oppressed in his own land, is certainly not putting God first. For the act of God most often recalled in the Bible is his freeing a horde of slaves. Injustice against man by man concerns the God of all men. Does it concern us?

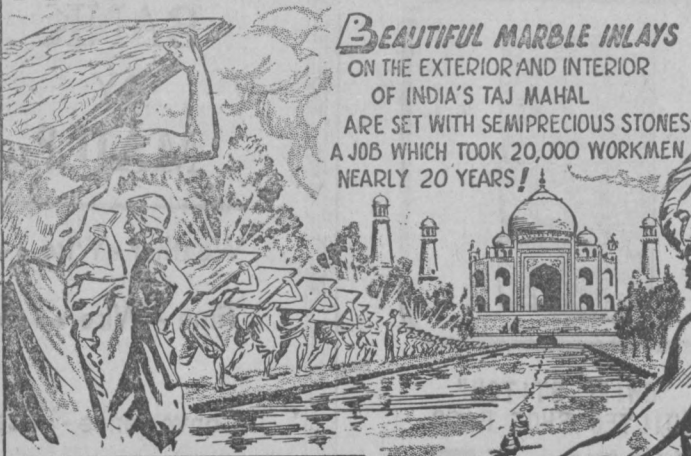

Call Of The Wild Goose

A stories-high Canada goose, its wings raised for flight, welcomes travellers to the nearly tamed wilds on the north shore of Lake Superior, the world's largest fresh water lake. The giant bird is at Wawa, Indian for goose, historic gateway to Ontario's new 540-square-mile Lake Superior Provincial Park, opened to the motorist by the Trans-Canada Highway.

This is a land of soft beaches and hard, craggy bays lined by cliffs 1,500 feet high; a land of smooth-surfaced lakes bubbled by jumping walleyes, trout and pike; a virgin land, yet well equipped with camping and picnic areas. It is one of the many wonderlands opened by the 5,000-mile Trans-Canada. For word on more write the Canadian Government Travel Bureau, Ottawa, Canada, for the free book "Circle Tours From the Trans-Canada Highway."

NEW DIMENSIONS IN COOKING WITH RICE

Combining the convenience and economy of rice with the creative imagination of homemakers has led to "round-the-clock eating of rice. Whether it be for breakfast, lunch, or dinner, in pancakes, salads, soups, entrees, or desserts, rice has taken on new dimensions.

Because rice can be used in so many ways, smart homemakers keep extra packages of rice on the shelf. To prepare three cups of fluffy rice, simply combine one cup uncooked regular rice, two cups water and one teaspoon salt. Heat to boiling, cover, and cook over low heat for 14 minutes or until all liquid is absorbed. Then serve with a dab of butter or use in recipes calling for cooked rice. Or start with one cup of uncooked rice and use it to prepare Indian Rice.

Indian Rice has intriguing flavor because the rice is toasted in butter until golden, then cooked in broth. Raisins, cardamom seeds, and other seasonings contribute to its tastiness and makes it an excellent accompaniment for curried foods.

INDIAN RICE

1/2 cup chopped onion	1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted	1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 cup uncooked rice	1 cardamom seed
2 cups beef broth or consommé	3 whole cloves
1/4 cup raisins	1 bay leaf

Cook onion in butter until golden. Add rice and cook, stirring constantly, until lightly toasted. Add beef broth, raisins and seasonings. Heat to boiling; stir once. Cover. Reduce heat and simmer for 14 minutes or until liquid is absorbed.
Makes 6 servings.
