The frosty winter season officially arrived Tuesday being heralded in early in the day with a very light snowfall... also the first snow of the season.

A Christmas party was held by the Ki-Wives and the Kiwanis Club of Taneytown at Taney Inn on Wednesday evening. Children of the members of the clubs were present. Carols were sung, films were shown and Santa, the "Wright" man was present and gifts were distributed.

Miss Deborah Wiley, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Wm. F. Wiley, a student at Catawba College, Salisbury, N.C., is home for the Christmas vacation and the New Year holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Baker, daughter of the Wileys, of Annapolis were here for the week-end and the Christmas Sunday Services at Grace Church.

John R. Byers, Postmaster at Westminster, proved this week that he could go "over and beyond" his call to duty. On Wednesday, an important letter to The Carroll Record was late in arriving at our office and we notified Mr. Byers who immediately got busy and located the "missing" letter. Not only did he find the letter, he personally delivered it to our office in the afternoon. Thanks, Mr. Byers—you have proven to us that you can go beyond the P. O. regulations and give service, too.

A proposal to merge First National Bank and The Birnie Trust Company, both of Taneytown, has been approved by directors of the two institutions according to a joint announcement made today by Mr. N. P. Shoemaker, Chairman of the Board of First National Bank, and Mr. Merwyn C. Fuss, President of The Birnie Trust Company.

The proposal, which has received the preliminary approval of the Bank Commissioner of Maryland, will now be submitted for approval to the Federal Deposit Insurance Company and to the stockholders of the banks at meetings scheduled to be held on Monday, February 7, 1966. Stockholders will soon receive proxy material for the special meetings.

New Name

The merged bank, which will be known as Taneytown Bank and Trust Company, will be a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; thus, approval of that body in addition to stockholders' approval is required, before the merger becomes effective. The resulting institution will operate as a state bank under the charter of The Birnie Trust Company, which dates back to 1900.

Based on the June 30, 1965, statements of the two banks, it is estimated that the deposits of the combined institution will be approximately $9,400,000 and total resources will exceed $10,100,000.

Under the terms of the proposal, shareholders of First National Bank will receive one share of the resulting bank for each full share now held. Stockholders of Birnie Trust will receive one and two-tenths shares of stock in the resulting bank for each share of Birnie held.

The main office of Taneytown Bank and Trust Company will be the present main office of The Birnie Trust Company at 103-105 East Baltimore Street, Taneytown, Maryland. The present office of First National Bank will become the "First Office" of the resulting bank. The branch office of The Birnie Trust Company in Uniontown will become a branch office of the resulting bank.

Management

The Board of Directors of the Resulting Bank will consist of the combined Boards of the merging banks. Mr. Merwyn C. Fuss will become President of the Resulting Bank. Mr. E. Elwood Baumgardner and Mr. George L. Harner will be Vice Presidents. Mr. Charles R. Arnold will become Secretary and Treasurer and Mr. Murray Baumgardner and Mr. Oliver Leakins will become Assistant Treasurers.

In making the announcement, Mr. Fuss stated that the proposal to merge is the result of careful study and consideration by the management of both institutions feel that the merger will be in the best interest of the community served as the greater resources of the merged institution will enable it to make larger loans as well as to extend and expand its banking and trust services throughout this growing service area. Mr. Hesson, President of First National Bank, said that the movement of new families and new businesses into this region requires expanded banking services which the resulting bank will be better able to supply.

Christmas 1965

What better time than Christmas for every American to reaffirm his faith in God and emulate the great builders of our nation—God-fearing men—who turned to prayer for guidance and inspiration.

Only through prayer and faith can we assure the continuance of freedom without fear—tolerance without tyranny—democracy and lasting world peace.

Without the worship of God, life is stark. On this Christmas Day, let us humbly pay homage to Christ who humbled Himself for mankind.

Let us resolve, through Christian fellowship, to do our part to maintain the rich heritage of our country and to help those less fortunate peoples of the world.

Meeting of Taneytown Lions Club

The Taneytown Lions Club met Sunday, December 19, 1965, at Dougherty's Store. This special meeting was in lieu of our regular meeting which comes during the Holidays. The members formed into groups to deliver Christmas Baskets to the needy and deserving families. The Christmas Basket Committee, headed by Lion Donald Baker, packed twenty (20) baskets of canned goods, potatoes, fruits, cookies and candies, Saturday evening.

To know that we have brought happiness into the hearts of several needy children and families gives us a feeling of gratitude.

Mrs. James Baumgardner introduced the speaker, Mr. Jose Clay, a native of Cuba now living in Baltimore. He told of his and the family's experiences in Cuba and here in America and how thankful he is to be living here. He stressed the fact that we should be on our guard for one day Cuba was prosperous and as free as we are. Mr. Clay held the group spellbound for about two hours as he told of how Castro got into power. A question and answer period brought about a very interesting discussion.

NEW P.O. FOR MILLERS

Rep. Clarence D. Long (D., Md.) today announced that Millers soon will get a better post office.

A real estate survey just completed, at Rep. Long's request, indicated that improved postal quarters are needed by the Carroll County community.

A. E. Newton, regional director of real estate for the Post Office Department, wrote Rep. Long that "in the immediate future concerted action will be taken to provide more suitable quarters for Millers."

The present building is 70 years old and provides less than 200 sq. ft. of floor space.

Always be sure that, before signing any contract or concluding a business deal, you read the fine print.

CHRISTMAS TIME IS HERE!

Put away all hatred,
Cast off every fear,
Let love come into your heart—
Christmas time is here!

Speak no word of malice,
Cause no falling tear,
Let peace come into your heart—
Christmas time is here!

Help the sad and needy,
Those whose lives are drear,
Let goodness come into your heart—
Christmas time is here!

Hark to carolers singing
Tidings of good cheer,
Let joy come into your heart—
Christmas time is here!

Read the wondrous story
Of the Child so dear,
Let Christ come into your heart—
Christmas time is here!

"FROM A SOLDIER IN VIET NAM"

I can't be home for Christmas mom,
Since I'm so far away,
But I'm sure that you'll remember me
On this special day.
As days have passed and years gone by,

You've made my Christmas bright, I'm fighting for my country mom, and Can't be home Christmas night.

Don't send me gifts for I don't know
Just how or where I'll be,
Just look around and find some one,
To take the place of me,
Just hunt some child, that is in need,
Perhaps no mom or dad,
Send them my gifts to cheer them mom, will make my heart feel glad.

As the family gathers around the Christmas tree, as we all use to do,
Pray God will take good care of me,
And bring me back to you;
We're fighting a war, here in Viet Nam, and to me it seems unfair,
To see so many of my buddies shot Down, in a war that's undeclared.

I wonder how the folks back home,
Will celebrate this special day,
I believe there would be some changes here, if more of them would pray.
I wonder if, on Christmas night,
The churches throughout the land,
Will gather together in humbleness
And pray for each fighting man.

There's so many moms on Christmas night, who'll feel the way you do,
Don't worry about my absence mom,
For some day I'll be with you.
It may not be no more down here,
Your loving face I'll see,
But when you get to Heaven, mom,
Look around and you'll see me.

If my life I must give for my country And home, just remember that others have too;
I may go down in battle mom, fighting for the red, white and blue,
So remember mom on Christmas day,
Although I can't be there,
There's much that you can do for us—
Just remember us all in prayer.

WEEK OF PRAYER

The Taneytown Ministerial Association announces the annual Community Week of Prayer services to be held Sunday, January 2, through Wednesday, January 5, at the Messiah Evangelical United Brethren Church, the United Presbyterian Church, the Grace United Church of Christ, and Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, respectively. The Rev. Dr. Robert A. MacAskill, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Gettysburg, will preach. His topics: "The Christian and Christ," "The Christian and Prayer," "The Christian and Faith," "The Christian and His World."

Two calves frisked up to a cow who was standing in a pasture. One said, "Can my little friend stay for dinner, Ma?"

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you this Christmas morning,
Just the most wonderful day to start at dawning!
I wish you much happiness and loads of cheer
And, now (there are tears because I wish I was there—)
To clasp your hand and say, "MERRY CHRISTMAS!"

"There's A Song In The Air—And A Star In The Sky!"

It was the year of 1882 in New York City that Santa Claus really became known and the poem was by a resident right there in a rambling old mansion overlooking the Hudson River on 23rd St. His name, Dr. Clement Clarke Moore, a professor of Greek and Hebrew at the General Theological Seminary; 23rd St. was the suburbs then, just three miles up-town from the main business section of that wonderful growing city! That snowy night, his wife asked him to go down to the market for a turkey for she was always packing baskets for the poor families who lived down near the wharves and she just happened to be one turkey short. Although, it was very late, Dr. Moore doubted if the market would be open but he agreed cheerfully, tucking his long wool muffler into the collar of his great coat. He thought, the walk might do him good and that walk gave him time to think and collect his thoughts for the story he had promised, Charity, the oldest of his three daughters. The Father of Dr. Moore had been Rector of Trinity Church, the second Bishop of the Episcopal church in N. Y. City and had administered the oath of office to President George Washington and the last rights to Alexander Hamilton! Despite this background, there was nothing in Moore's life to tell him that immortality waited him that night at the family fireside—that his own grave in Trinity Cemetery would be visited each Christmas Eve for decades, maybe centuries—down to the present year and beyond by children carrying lanterns singing Christmas Carols! At the moment he was simply a devoted husband and a doting father, hurrying to buy a Christmas turkey and trying to think of a Christmas story for his children!

Fortunately, the market was open and the poultryman had several fat Toms on the hooks before his stall. Moore, an amateur poet stopped for a minute to gaze at the million stars above him as now the snow had stopped falling as he headed for home. The moonlight on the frozen Hudson was of magic and there were dancing shadows about the chimneys on the new fallen snow. A line of the great poem must have come to him that very moment—"The Moon on the Breast of the new-fallen snow gave the lustre of mid-day to objects below!" Then, another line came to him as he met this caretaker, a bearded jovial Butcherman with a round dimpled face and a short stub of a pipe. They chatted awhile about Christmas and the story of each Dec. 4 when a Bishop in his country would deliver a feast for the little Dutch children.

That night, the gentle Professor of Greek and Hebrew had a different thought as he continued his long walk in the cold for his imagination ran away with him for he thought of a miniature sleigh drawn by 8 tiny reindeer! He quickly climbed the stairs to his study and taking quill in hand began to write the story he had promised his children and the whimsical lines that he wrote in less than one hour! He went down the steps quickly and seated beside the fireplace, delighting his family with, "Twas The Night Before Christmas!"

The following year "The Night Before Christmas" was published for the first time in the "Sentinel" in Troy, N. Y., where a friend sent it to that paper. But it was 15 years before it appeared in print under Moore's name and, after years of arduous scholarship brought him lasting fame with the hour's work! In the year of 1869 when Dr. Moore died, the poem was translated into every known language in thousands of newspapers and magazines and found it's way into the mouths and memories of generations of children the world over! It remains today the most popular poem ever written in America!

Thus it was the son of an Episcopalian minister, Dr. Clement Clarke Moore of New York City who really gave to all the children of the world, the make believe man of "SANTA CLAUS!" and "The Night Before Christmas!"

Have a wonderful Christmas, Folks. Be seeing you next year—1966 D.V. A P.S.—(And don't eat too much turkey.)

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

It seems that there is nothing one can say of Christmas and its coming that has not been said before, and with utmost eloquence. That is as it should be. For, over the centuries, the great figures of religion, art, music and literature have paid Christmas their devoted tributes. Old as the observance is, it is always new. And it always will be, so long as the Christian ideal and the Christian tradition remain.

It is a time of feasting and the giving of gifts. But more than that, for all who profess Christianity, it is a time for reflection and for profound consideration of spiritual things. We live in a troubled age—an age of wars, of bitter jealousies and enmities, of restless and often violent stirrings among peoples. It is an age in which discouragement and depression comes easily. But the meaning of Christmas can give the perspective we sorely need. We can believe that the problems of this age will somehow, sometime, pass—while the ideals that Christmas stands for are eternal.

Christmas is, above all, for children. Over the centuries, their eyes have sparkled as they gazed upon the tree, and found their gifts, and looked with awe upon the image of the Christ Child. Let us hope every child, wherever he may be, shares in the glories of this coming Christmas. And let us pray that he will live to know a happy and truly peaceful world.

FACTS AND OPINIONS

Henry Hazlitt writes in Newsweek:
"Last January the President estimated total cash receipts for the current fiscal year at $123.5 billion. Just to pay for this fiscal year's $130.2 billion would mean raising $6.7 billion more. To pay for next year's expenditures we would have to raise $19.5 billion more. Over the last five years tax revenues have risen an average of $2.8 billion a year in the administrative budget, and an average of $4.7 billion a year in the total cash budget. But even if we assume that they will rise $5 billion next year, we would still have to raise about $14.5 billion more by more taxation."

According to the experts, reports
the American Medical Association, there are more than 1,730,000 known diabetics in the United States, and there are about 1,426,000 more Americans who have diabetes and don't know it. To these figures should be added untold hundreds of thousands more who may develop diabetes if they don't follow a balanced diet, keep their weight down and have periodic physical examinations by their doctors to detect early changes in how their bodies use sugar.

Cash dividend payments by companies with common stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange set a new high for the first nine months of 1965, topping $10 billion for the first time.

Director J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI writes: "To my mind, there are two frightening aspects to civil disobedience. One, sowing contempt for law and order and promoting pride in lawbreaking among the Nation's youth can only result in an acceleration of our serious crime problem.
In some quarters, it already appears that the social stigma formerly attached to lawbreakers is being replaced by sympathy for their actions and an irrational hostility to law enforcement. Secondly, where is the line to be drawn against the snowball effect of civil disobedience? Willfully disobeying misdemeanor statutes today and committing felonies tomorrow is a logical regression from a government of law to an anarchic society."

America's railroads are spending billions for new and bigger freight cars. At present, the nation's railroad fleet includes 1,800,000 freight cars, over a million of which have gone into service since World War II as part of a $20 billion physical improvement program. Another 85-000 cars will enter service very soon.
The industry's freight car purchases for 1965 alone amount to about a billion dollars.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey writes in The Reader's Digest:
"Profits are not merely for business people. They help all our people.
Profits make the most wonderfully progressive country in the world.
They make possible not only our government but our defense, our teachers, our doctors, research and exploration. Profits go into support for community chests, colleges and countless other humanitarian causes.
From profits we help finance constructive activities throughout the world. People everywhere should know that capitalism as we practice it here —not as they practice it in some other places—has more humanitarianism in it than all the social philosophies of all the other countries put together."

Dr. Harris B. Stewart, Jr., chief oceanographer of the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, says: "We are most intrigued by the great potential that the ocean holds for the betterment of mankind. It is man's last great resource on earth. The time has come to realize that if we are to survive on this earth, we must first understand the intricate workings of the global sea and the role this great body of water will play in the future of the race."

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you:

Had a bit of excitement around here today (Tuesday) when the firemen were called to the Maynard Ausherman farm on Forest and Stream Club Rd. I understand the summer kitchen and back porch were completely destroyed and there is smoke and water damage in the rest of the house. Truly all we neighbors and friends are thankful it was not worse and that no one was injured.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Weybright of Detour would like to use this means to say, "thank you so much" for all the many cards they have received for they will be unable to acknowledge them individually. They observed their 66th wedding anniversary on Monday, December 20. Was sorry to learn that Mrs. Weybright had another fall recently. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norville Shoemaker of Red Lion, Pa., visit with them each weekend.

Speaking of occasions, sincere (though belated) happy birthday wishes to Mrs. Byron Stull, near Keysville (formerly of Bridgeport), who celebrated her 88th on the 21st. Happy birthday also to Denise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wilhide, on Christmas Day and to Mrs. John (Doris) Harner on the 30th. Anniversary wishes also to the 30th to Mr. and Mrs. Noah Warehime, nr. Baust Church.

Callers this past week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cluts near Keysville were John Baumgardner and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baumgardner also near Keysville. Sunday afternoon surprise visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hawkins of Leesburg, Va. Mrs. Hawkins and Mr. Cluts were both heart patients at the same time at Frederick Memorial Hospital and the two families have kept in contact ever since.

Don't forget the Candlelight Service at 11:00 P. M. to be held at Mt. Tabor in Rocky Ridge. And Layman's Sunday will be observed at Keysville Lutheran Church on the 26th. Wm. Fleharty will again serve as Liturgist and other members of the congregation will give the sermon and receive the offering. Congregational meeting immediately following the service, also to elect three new members to the Church Council for a two-year term.

Miss Carol Wolfgang and William Burr of Washington were Sunday supper guests with her sister and family, William Fleharty family and Mrs. Ralph Fleharty near Detour.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Ausherman and Mrs. Wm. Weishaar and Randy, near Detour, were among those who attended the Golden Wedding Anniversary celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hyde of Westminster.

The following poem was submitted by a regular reader, for the Christmas season.

His Name at the Top

I had the nicest Christmas list
The longest one in town,
Till daddy looked at it and said
"You'll have to cut it down."

I knew that what he said was true
Beyond the faintest doubt,
But was amazed to hear him say,
"You've left your best friend out."

And so I scanned my list again
And said, "Oh, that's not true"
But daddy said "His name's not there,
That friend who died for you."

And then I clearly understood,
'Twas Jesus that he meant,
For Him who should come first of all
I hadn't planned a cent.

I made a Christmas birthday list
And left the Saviour out;
But, oh! it didn't take me long
To change the list about.

And though I've had to drop some names
Of folks I like a lot,
My Lord must have the most, because His name is at the top.

Thought for today — It is good to be children sometimes, and never better than at Christmas, when its mighty founder was a child Himself.
Charles Dickens.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL!

There is not much in the way of news this week—only everyone is rushing around and getting ready for Christmas. . . . there are always a few last minute details to attend to. Will we have any snow for Christmas? Perhaps this little we have this morning (Tues.) will stay. Then again we might get a little more on top of this. Oh well, let it be the way it will—we will take and like it. Anyway what ever or how ever it may be.

A very merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year to the editor, his staff and to everyone great and small.

His Wish

Ralph Wells says, some little boys in front of my house a few days since, sat down on my steps and began to tell the largest wish they had. One wanted a pony to ride in Central Park; one wanted all school masters in the bottom of the sea; one wanted ice to come by Thanksgiving Day; one dear boy said, "my wish is so large, so sweet, I hardly dare tell it, and it swallows up all my other wishes," "oh, what is it?" "Well, don't laugh boys; I wish you only knew my Jesus."

Are You Willing?
(by Henry Van Dyke)

Are you willing to forget what you have done for others and to remember that others have done for you; to ignore what you owe the world; and to think what you owe the world; to stoop down to consider the needs and desires of little children; to remember the weakness of those no longer young; to stop asking how much your friends love you and ask yourself whether you love them enough — are you willing to do these things, even for a day? If so, then you can keep Christmas, and if you can keep it for a day, why not always?

Calvin Coolidge once said: "Christmas is not a time or season, but a state of mind to cherish peace and good will, to be plentiful in mercy is to have the real spirit of Christmas."

Glory to God in the Highest

"Glory to God in the highest!" thus sang an angelic host to a group of shepherds who watched their flocks by night on a hillside near Bethlehem.

"Glory to God in the highest!" was the joyous refrain that heralded the birth of the Saviour. The shepherds knew the story of the Promised Messiah and hastened, dumb-stricken to worship him.

"Glory to God in the highest!" the music of the Magic Chant swept through the hills and dales of Judea, entered every home and shop, and flowed upward and onward until it mingled with the music of the spheres.

"Glory to God in the Highest!" has come ringing down the ages, as none have struggled against the adverse force of the world; have groaned under oppression and finally have seen the light of God's hope shine again.

"Glory to God in the highest!" is the joyous proclamation the world awaits this Christmas—there is no human way out of the present ills, but HE is the way, the truth and the life. Glory to God! The Saviour is born!

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear mother, ELLA E. PITTINGER, who passed away two years ago, December 21, 1963.

They say time heals a broken heart,
But, no, it isn't true,
For two lonely years have passed
And my hearts still longs for you.

A happy home we once enjoyed;
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left us loneliness
That the world can never fill.

INSTANT HOLIDAY PUNCH

To add a festive flair to your holiday entertaining, take any large tureen you have in the house and stencil on "Happy New Year," "Merry Christmas," or other season's greetings. Presto! You have a gay punch bowl ready to greet holiday callers with colorful hospitality.

Fill the bowl with Cranberry Punch, sparkling with the flavors of fruit juice and your favorite alcoholic beverage — whiskey, gin, etc.

INSTANT CRANBERRY PUNCH

|---------------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1 pint cranberry juice cocktail | Juice of 2 lemons |
| 1 quart apple juice | 1 quart sparkling water |
| 1 cup orange juice | 1 quart liquor—any kind |

Combine the juices and chill well. Add a little sugar, if desired. At serving time, pour over large block of ice in bowl. (This will dilute punch less than tiny cubes.) Add sparkling water and liquor, and stir gently. Makes about 1 gallon, 32 four-ounce cups.

For savory pancake foldovers, prepare pancakes as directed on the package, thinned out with additional eggs, oil and liquid. Stuff with your favorite meat filling—such as chopped ham and pimiento, chopped chicken and mushrooms, or pepper and hamburger mixture. They can provide an excellent accompaniment to the punch when you entertain guests at a Christmas or New Year's fun-fest.

CHRISMON DISPLAY

The community is cordially invited to see the Chrismon display on the trees in the nave of Trinity Lutheran Church. The church will be open tonight (Thursday) 6-8 P. M.; Christmas Eve, during the Musicales and Worship Service, 7-8:30 P. M.; Christmas evening, 6-8 P. M.; and Sunday evening, 6-8 P. M.

"Chrismon" is a combination of two words: CHRIST and MONogram. A Chrismon is just that, a monogram of Christ. All Chrismons are made in combinations of white and gold—white, the liturgical color for Christmas, refers to our Lord's purity and perfection; gold, to His majesty and glory. Tiny white lights on the trees point to Christ as the Light of the World.

Trinity's Chrismons are a gift of Mrs. Merle S. Ohler. Assisting Mrs. Ohler in their making were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rohrbach, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Naylor, Mrs. Wilbert Hess, Mrs. Loy Hess, Mrs. Percy Bollinger and Mr. Tommy Phillips. THE CITY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports —by John Breth

If major league umpires ran their campaigns the way generals do wars they would have little pins sticking in the city of Chicago on the National map.

That analogy concerning wars was a deliberate one. The umpires in both leagues can expect some lively skirmishes in Chicago next year.

LEO DUROCHER as manager of the Cubs. EDDIE STANKY as manager of the White Sox. Need we say more?

The dust will be flying in the Windy City . . . in more ways than one. Durocher knows only one way to play baseball . . . his. The same goes for Stanky. Both are cut from the same cloth . . . they demand a seuffling, give-no-quarter and ask none type of ball.

It's curious how the paths of Durocher and Stanky have crossed so often. It began in Brooklyn toward the end of World War Two when Leo was the manager and Stanky was the second baseman. Eddie was Leo's boy. Stanky played the game in the same aggressive style that Leo did.

There was a brief falling out between the two men when the Dodgers traded Stanky to the Boston Braves in 1948. For a few months Stanky blamed it all on Leo. The truth was, of course, that Branch Rickey was the man who decided that Stanky must go.

Eddie found forgiveness in his heart when the Braves won the Pennant in 1948 and he cut in on the World Series money.

The rift was healed completely when Durocher, then manager of the Giants, made a deal that brought Stanky to the Polo Grounds in 1950. The two men were back on a buddy-buddy basis then and the two hard rocks acted like kids at their first picnic when Bobby Thomson hit the home run heard round the world to bring a pennant to New York in 1951.

The years rolled along and Durocher and Stanky went their separate ways. Leo quit baseball for Hollywood and Stanky had a chance as manager of the Cards. Leo found that he couldn't stay away from baseball and he returned to the game as a coach for the Dodgers. Stanky struck out in his first try at managing.

Now, in a sense, their paths have crossed again. Both are managing in the big leagues and in the same town. They will not play each other, of course, and that's too bad. It would be quite a show.

Most major league baseball players are in the midst of their winter hibernation, which takes many forms, but does not include playing ball.

Yet, some of the players are spending this time doing just what they do during the spring and summer, scampering around a baseball diamond. One of the winter ball players is pitcher LEW KRAUSSE, who has been trying for five years to win a regular spot with the Kansas City Athletics.

Krausse is pitching for Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League. He made a big smash in South America recently by striking out 21 batters in one game, ten of them in a row. In Venezuela, where they take their baseball hot and spicy, this was akin to launching an astronaut.

Krausse completed his performance with a dramatic flourish by striking out the side in the ninth inning. The next thing he knew, fans were climbing out of the stands and charging at him, waving their arms and screaming. Krausse's first reaction was to run, but he was too late. The fans swarmed around him, boosted him to their shoulders and paraded him around the park.

This only excited more fans and the celebration grew wilder. Krausse decided to follow his first instinct and run. And, that's what he did. He made it to the dugout in one piece, though he was minus his glove and portions of his uniform when he got there.

To say the least, nothing like that has ever happened to the pitcher in Kansas City. Actually, Lew has been a major disappointment to the Athletics front office and the fans.

Some five years ago, he was signed to a bonus contract for about $100,000, but he has not been a $100,000 pitcher. Between occasional side trips to the Minors, Krausse has managed to win only four games for the Athletics. He has lost eleven.

But, now at 22, he seems to be pitching at his best. He won seven of his first ten decisions in Venezuela, and he has one of the best earned run averages in the league. He also leads the league in strikeouts.

It's a long way between Caracas and the big leagues, but the A's are keeping a careful watch on the doings in that South American city. If that celebrated strike-out performance indicates a change for the better, the Kansas City front office wants to be among the first to know about it.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL

—John Breth

TRY THIS CHRISTMAS TURKEY TREAT

While roast turkey has become a holiday tradition, so has the problem of what to do with the leftovers. But here's a tasty suggestion from Austin Nichols home economists that your family will be sure to "gobble up": the sandwich loaf, a perfect hot dish for those cold winter days when the family comes home hungry.

GOURMET SANDWICH LOAF

- 4 hardcooked eggs
- 1 cup finely chopped cooked turkey
- 1/4 cup chopped sweet pickles or pickle relish
- (1 can (10 to 12 oz.) cream of mushroom soup
- 1/2 Salt and pepper
- 12 slices bread
- 2 Tbsp. soft butter or margarine
- 1/4 cup milk

Chop 2 of the eggs. Combine with turkey, pickles and half of the soup. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Trim crusts from bread and cut slices in half to make 24 pieces. Place 6 pieces of bread close together on baking sheet or heat-proof serving platter. Spread with turkey mixture. Top with layer of bread. Repeat until there are 3 layers of turkey and 4 layers of bread. Brush top with softened butter. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) until lightly browned, 15 minutes. Blend milk with remaining soup. Heat to boiling. Add remaining chopped eggs. Serves over 6 sandwiches.

The kids will love these sandwiches, especially when washed down with a steaming cup of hot chocolate. And adult guests will also appreciate another kind of "Turkey," which is rapidly becoming a holiday tradition in many American homes. Wild Turkey Bourbon in glasses often appears beside domestic turkey on a platter during the holiday season.

With this recipe for Gourmet Sandwich Loaf, and an ample supply of both Wild and domestic turkey, you can expect friends to "flock" to your door for a friendly gobble-fest at every holiday season.

Happiress Is Christmas Cookies

Happiness is... a family gathered around the open fire singing carols... a child's anticipation of Santa's arrival... a merry group of friends and neighbors enjoying Holiday Surprises.

Each rich oatmeal cookie is filled with a candied cherry, pecan half or date. It's fun to guess which "goody" is inside each cookie. Happiness is children helping mother make Christmas cookies... especially Holiday Surprises. After the toasty oats are stirred into the dough, give the children the fun job of shaping the tiny cookie balls around the tasty surprises. They'll love helping out and it will keep them out of mischief.

Don't forget to save a few Holiday Surprises for Santa when he comes to call... and leave a carrot for the reindeer.

Public Service

Lesson for December 26, 1965

Background Scripture: Nehemiah 1:1 through 6:3, 12:27 through 13:31
Devotional Reading: Psalm 91:9-16

GOVERNOR NEHEMIAH is one of the few persons in the Bible about whom nothing is said to his discredit. One reason for this may be that the information we have about him comes from the Governor himself, and a retiring public official is not a man to go around talking about his mistakes or misdeeds if any. But whatever blemishes a sneering critic might have found in this man, they would be slight in comparison with his services to his city of Jerusalem. For Nehemiah was a true public servant in the finest sense of that word. On this Sunday after Christmas it is appropriate to think about a man who saw no visions (except as we all may see them) and wrought no miracles, but one whose religion was expressed in the most commonplace "secular" activities. Building, organizing, planning (he was perhaps the first city planner known to us) governing — these were his tasks and in these was bound up his religion.

What he brought to job

Seeds of success or failure are already sown by the time a public official takes his office. What he does or fails to do will depend more on the kind of man he is than on any other factor. This Nehemiah was appointed by an emperor not as a personal whim, not because his Majesty Artaxerxes happened to like him, but because he had what it was going to take, and the emperor, a good judge of men, could see this. Nehemiah had personal charm, political know-how (for the position of cup-bearer was a high political post), quick and accurate judgment, the ability to lead and direct men, imagination and initiative; but above all, a commitment to the work he had to do. His aim was not so much to please Artaxerxes as to please God. His work was his service to God.

Portrait of an executive

The modern theory of executives is that they do not need to be technical experts in any field. The good executive is a man who gets things done, who can reconcile warring factions, who can "build a team" out of the material he has, who can inspire all his subordinates with something of his own enthusiasm and dedication to the job. Nehemiah could qualify on all these points.

Living example

People not only admired the Governor, they imitated him. He was an example of honesty, for one thing. He took pride in not living on "graft," and in contributing to the building fund out of his own private means, and he did not allow extravagance in the running of his official residence. He set an example of courage not only in being prepared to fight off invading raiders, but of personal courage in the face of attempts at assassination. He set an example of optimism. He might well have turned around and gone back home to Persia when for the first time he realized the extent of his problem; but he stayed on the job he had accepted. Above all, he set an example in his religious life and faith. He did not spend much time in prayer, he did not have the time, probably. His prayers were short and pointed, hardly more than a sentence long. But he meant every one of the few words he said. He felt sure of being where God wanted him to be. This gave him confidence of success. He had a confidence in himself, to be sure; he did not think God would rebuild Jerusalem by any kind of miracle. Trust God and do your best, might have been his motto. He did not think prayer was a substitute for hard work and careful planning, but on the other hand no prayer let him out of work. For the dull days of late December, such a religion wears well.

Cranberries For Christmas

This Cranberry Christmas Mold will make a perfect centerpiece for the festive table for it positively glitters! The mold is a soft pink while the decorations of green Christmas trees and diced gelatin on the top are made of lime gelatin. Best yet, the flavor is wonderful for it has fresh cranberries, bananas and applesauce in it. Here's a perfect centerpiece and dessert... all in one!

CRANBERRY CHRISTMAS TINSEL MOLD
(Makes 1 2-quart mold)

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------------|
| 2 cups fresh Ocean Spray cranberries, rinsed and drained | 2 cups sour cream |
| 1 cup water | 2 egg whites |
| 2 packages (3 ounces each) orange-pineapple gelatin | 1/4 cup sugar |
| 2 bananas, diced | 1 1/2 cups water |
| 1 cup applesauce | 1 package (3 ounces) lime gelatin |

Cook cranberries with water in saucepan until cranberries are tender, about 10 minutes; add orange-pineapple gelatin and stir until dissolved. Cool. Add bananas, applesauce and sour cream. Beat egg whites until stiff; gradually beat in sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time. Fold egg whites into cranberry mixture; pour into a 2-quart mold and chill until firm. Heat 1 1/2 cups water to boiling; add lime gelatin and stir to dissolve. Pour mixture into a 9-inch-square pan; chill until firm. Unmold. With a cookie cutter or sharp knife, cut holly leaves from the lime gelatin to decorate cranberry mold. Serve with sweetened whipped cream for dessert or with salad greens and mayonnaise as a salad.

Holiday Dessert Buffet

Short of time during the rush, rush of the holiday season? Make good use of the mixes available to create some of those special desserts for the family and visitors.

Desserts that once took many hours to prepare are now prepared with modern packaged mixes in only minutes. Plenty of time to add your distinctive touch and the distinctive flavoring of fine wines. Wine adds that special something, that "what makes it taste so good?" touch.

With fine silver and linen, the soft light of candles and the dessert buffet is complete. Serve glasses of chilled Roselle wine to add warmth, friendliness and bright color to your party.

To eliminate the bother of cutting and crumbling a rich fruit cake, bake this fruit cake in individual cupcake papers. Decorate the tops with candied fruit or nuts before baking and store wrapped in wine soaked cheesecloth in an air-tight container until ready to serve.

INDIVIDUAL WINE FRUIT CAKES

(Makes 18 to 20 fruit cakes)

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 1 pkg. (1 lb.-1 oz.) pound cake mix | 1 cup chopped candied mixed fruits |
| 2 eggs | 1 cup chopped nuts |
| ¾ cup Niagara type wine | 1 cup raisins or currants |

Prepare pound cake mix according to package directions using eggs and wine. Fold in fruit, nuts and raisins. Put cupcake papers into muffin pans and fill each cup ¾ full. Decorate top with candied cherries, sliced almonds and walnuts. Bake in a preheated slow oven (325°F.) for 30 to 35 minutes or until tops are golden brown. Cool on a rack and store in an air-tight container wrapped in wine soaked cheesecloth.

Seasoning Secret

Bring the barbecue season indoors with these tender broiled shrimp, marinated before cooking with a short-cut seasoning technique. Secret of the flavorful marinade or barbecue sauce is an envelope of Italian salad dressing mix, which is combined with oil, lemon juice, and wine for a distinctive marinade. Heat the marinade and serve with the succulent shrimp.

- | | |
|--|----------------------------|
| 1 pound (18 to 20) shrimp, cleaned | ¼ cup finely chopped onion |
| 1 envelope Good Seasons Italian Salad Dressing Mix | ½ clove garlic, minced |
| 2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper | ⅓ cup salad oil |
| | 2 tablespoons lemon juice |
| | ¾ cup dry white wine |

"Butterfly" shrimp by slitting along vein, almost through; open along slit. (Or leave shrimp whole, if desired.) Combine all ingredients except shrimp in shallow bowl. Stir in shrimp, covering completely with marinade. Cover, place in refrigerator, and allow shrimp to marinate for at least 2 hours.

Place shrimp on broiler pan. Broil 4 inches from heat about 2 minutes. Turn shrimp; then continue broiling about 2 minutes longer, or until shrimp are cooked but still tender. Serve plain or with the heated marinade or a cocktail sauce or dip. Makes 4 servings.

Timely Facts

In American Revolutionary Days villagers ever alert to oncoming danger listened hourly to the reassuring cry of "It's three o'clock and all's well!" Too poor to afford timepieces, settlers relied on the town crier to get the time.

Pennsylvania Dutch Farmers relied mainly on kitchen clocks of very practical and durable design. Many timepieces had spice shelves or hooks for cooking utensils.

Not too long ago only well-to-do city dwellers could afford ornate parlor clocks like the Boston Lyre or the Connecticut Banjo Clock.

Today, clocks are used in every room in the house—from bath to parlor to nursery. Changing these clocks on October 31st for the end of Daylight Saving Time should be no problem if you remember this timely tip from Westclox, makers of the famous Big and Baby Ben—turn your clocks back one hour at 2 a.m.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY

The guests enjoyed chicken salad and ham sandwiches, pickles, olives, potato chips and dip, cakes, cookies, salted peanuts, mints, candies, ice cream cups, coffee and punch. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Hilterbrick, Mrs. Catherine Reid, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Harner, Stevie and Brenda Harner, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cartzenfader, all of Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Breighner and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weant, Mr. and Mrs. Zack Sanders, all of Littlestown, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. J. MEETING OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

A regular meeting of the Board of Education of Carroll County was held on December 15, 1965, at 9:30 A.M. with all members present. President DeVries R. Hering presided.

Action of the Board approved the minutes of the November meeting and the financial statement and current bills as submitted. The Board approved the contracts for service in 1966-67 for M. Theresa Kaufman and Diana F. Skiles and for service during the current school year for Mrs. Barbara C. Peck. Resignations were accepted from Mrs. Doris Smelser, Mrs. Patricia Donaho and Mrs. Betty Cover. Miscellaneous action was taken in connection with reclassification and changes in classification for a number of employees.

The Board heard a report from Attorney L. Pearce Bowles with respect to the recent hearing on the injunction related to the construction of the South Carroll H. S.

The Board heard a report from Assistant Superintendent Charles I. Ecker related to progress at the Mechanicsville, Winfield and South Carroll construction sites. Approval was given for a change involving substitution of floor materials at the Mechanicsville site. The Board was advised that progress at all three locations was in accordance with plans and that satisfactory progress is being made.

The Board heard a request from the Carroll County Teachers Association represented by Mr. Victor Makovitch, President; Mr. John Devant, Vice President and Mr. Donald Timney, Chairman Salary Committee. The group presented a suggestion for revision in the salary scale to establish new minimum and maximum limits and to adjust teachers' salaries so as to be competitive with adjacent counties. The Board was also advised of a request on the part of principals and vice principals for salary adjustment and a similar request from the Athletic Coaches for changes in their salary structure. The Board took action to give study to the requests of all three groups and to devote time for consideration of these items as they relate to the 1966-67 budget, such action to be taken at the January meeting.

The Board heard a report from Mr. John F. Wooden, Director of Instruction, related to developments in the community college project. Mr. Wooden advised the Board regarding his work in connection with the study committee and made recommendations regarding continued study of the project with a view to developing public sentiment toward approval. The Board directed, in a motion, that the Superintendent work with Mr. Wooden to develop a satisfactory plan for continuing his work in the community college field. The Board noted that, in accordance with a communication from the County Commissioners, it would not be possible for the Board of Education to establish the college as early as expected and that this delay will apparently postpone the definite planning and opening of the community college until possibly September, 1967, or later. Action was taken directing that a communication be sent to the County Commissioners related to items with which the Board is concerned, including the community college. The motion authorized the Superintendent to communicate to the County Commissioners the unanimous desire of the Board of Education to proceed with the community college as rapidly as it can be financed. It further expressed immediate concern that the survey by Engelhardt, Engelhardt and Leggett, requested by the County Commissioners be expedited so as to give the Board of Education information regarding its plans and responsibilities. The action did also convey to the County Commissioners more specific information regarding charges which have been given publicity with respect to teacher qualification, funds expended for education, textbooks and materials of instruction. The Superintendent made specific reference to these items in stating that information conveyed in earlier releases was biased and untrue.

The Board took action to give further study to requests for physical improvements at two school locations
