THS Announces Its Third "School-Work Plan"

The Diversified Occupation course offered in the Taneytown High School is an attempt to help none college bound students find his or her place in the world of work.

There are approximately fifty students who are in this category. They have become interested enough to register for this plan and it is our desire to place them in a work situation throughout the community if such can be accomplished.

The idea known as the "School-Work Plan" is a practical way of setting up desirable attitudes toward the work world. It has as its primary objectives the following:

- 1. The promotion of good student work habits and attitudes.
2. The encouragement of desirable traits of character.
3. The promotion of cooperative attitudes in students.
4. The promotion of student guidance.
5. Making possible a limited supervised introduction of students to the activities and demands of the working world.

The student workers will be free at 11:15 each school day to report to their jobs where they are to remain until 3:00 or later if they should so desire. No remuneration is expected for the student for that part of the time spent in employment which is normally a part of the legal school day. However, it is expected that if the student should be employed for any part of the day over and above the hours mentioned, that he or she be paid a nominal sum in proportion to the value of the student's effort in behalf of the employer.

Starting Monday, Feb. 21, students will approach local businesses and industries to ask for placement. The program itself will run from March 14 to April 29. Businesses and industries interested in having students placed with them or anyone desiring further information may call on Mr. Hugh Friend, Guidance Counselor, or Mr. Frank Macher, Principal, at Taneytown High School (756-6345).

School Schedule Adjusted

The Carroll County Board of Education heard a report on February 7 related to operations during snow emergency on January 24, January 27, and January 31 to February 4.

It had been necessary to cancel school sessions on Jan. 24 and Jan. 27 and for the entire week of Jan. 31 to Feb. 4. The result in loss of school days is therefore a total of seven. The 1965-66 school calendar had provided for a total of 185 usable school days with official school closing date set for Wednesday, June 15. Thus as of Feb. 7, two additional school days must be operated in order to comply with existing law.

It is therefore recommended that as of Feb. 7, school closing date shall be extended to June 17. It is further recommended that discretion be given to the Superintendent of Schools to, if necessary:

- a. Hold school sessions on April 7, Thursday before Easter.
b. Hold school sessions on May 30.
c. Hold school sessions on day prior to official closing—request teachers to accomplish clerical duties in out-of-school hours and/or after closing date.

The above suggestions will:

- 1. Make possible 180 official school days with closing June 17 - Holy Thursday (holiday), Memorial Day (holiday), clerical work day (June 16). Three more days available under suggestions a, b, and c.

World Day of Prayer

The World Day of Prayer will be observed Friday, February 25, 1966 at 7:30 P.M., in Trinity Lutheran Church. This is also the first Friday in Lent. The service is sponsored by United Church Women of the National Council of Churches. The five churches of the community who are participating are: the United Church of Christ, the Presbyterian Church, United Creek Presbyterian Church, Pined Brethren Church and Piney Creek Church of the Brethren. The Rev. Warren M. Eshbach will be the speaker.

It is truly world-wide in character. Basically, the same service is used by groups in all the countries and areas of the world; this year it was prepared in Scotland.

The day had its beginning in 1887 when the president of the Women's Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. called for a national day of prayer and offerings. In 1890 two Baptist women suggested an interdenominational day of prayer for foreign missions. The Council of Women for Home Missions and the Federation of Women's Boards of Foreign Missions picked up and carried forward these two days until 1919 when they were combined into one day. When, in 1941, the two women's missions groups merged with the Federated Church Women to form the United Council of Church Women, the World Day of Prayer was assigned to this new body and has continued since as the responsibility of United Church Women with the Mission divisions of the National Council of Churches for interdenominational projects.

VIEW FROM MY KITCHEN WINDOW

February is cold, gray, and uncertain, and the state of the weather, always a topic of lively conversation, is on everyone's tongue. Fortunately, this second month of the year is short, and somewhere in the middle of it, along with St. Valentine's Day, comes the February thaw. The sun shines, skies clear, and there is a faint, elusive odor of Spring in the air. As the snow melts and feeds into the stream, I hear a sound that has long been missing—the gentle tinkle of running water.

To be sure, Old Man Winter has no intention of meekly relinquishing his cruel grip, but even his most devastating blasts cannot reverse the trend toward a kinder season. And so my thoughts turn eagerly, although somewhat prematurely, to robins, violets, gardening, baby chicks, and house-cleaning, in that order. The sight of last year's oriole nest, still clinging in tatters to a branch of the South Carolina Poplar, makes me feel even more optimistic. So do the sprigs of green grass, bravely growing beneath my window, and the bare expanses of fields, now impatiently throwing off their white blanket of snow.

For cons, the seasons have rolled along, in unfailing order, according to the Creator's divine plan. How comforting to know that no matter how prolonged or bitter the Winter may be, Spring inevitably follows.

—Zola Cantwell

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir: This happened by our doorstep, that bitter-cold Wednesday morning before Thanksgiving. She turned out to be more haughty and something-other than she was called; but we loved her from the beginning, and we called her "Angel."

We took her in, we fed her, we gave her the warmth of our home, we cared for her. And with it all, she became part of a parable for us. For our relationship with her was a redemptive one; she came to us, lost and alone, needing our care, though really undeserving in every way. We took her in and loved her. Just as God takes us in, cares for us and loves us, and saves us from being lost.

There is yet another parable here in our relationship with Angel. For last Monday evening about 6:15, Angel was struck by a car. She died, on our doorstep where we had found her in the beginning, a few minutes later. We would have liked to have given our heartbroken Susan the opportunity to share in a forgiving act. For we must always be ready to forgive others just as God forgives us. But the car, having struck Angel by accident, continued on. Nonetheless, the driver has our forgiveness.

Sincerely, The Lutheran Parsonage Family

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning. A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.

I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Attending the 12th annual "Boat Show" convinced me that in the Spring "A Young or Elderly Man does not think of love and the opposite sex" for it is surely those boats of every description! As I walked around, I observed the prices were a trifle higher than last year, but you sure do get your money's worth!

Looking at the boats last year, I thought nothing could be improved upon but truly, folks they are more glamorous than last year! The one big dealer down there is showing the seven or six he had displayed in other years! Now, Ladies if you have no desire as to purchasing a boat along with your husband, take my advise and join in the sport — nothing to compare! I'll never forget the only time I was to be a guest for overnight with four others, I slept with the "L I F E P R E S E R V E R" around my waist and although I would not admit how uncomfortable I was (I have always had such fear of the water, due to the fact, I was almost drowned in Atlantic City years ago) but to this day I am kidded about that Life Preserver!

From the Boat Show, I went down to the lovely Maryland Orchid 11th Annual Show at Hochschild's. And that seemed more attractive than other years, due to the entrance which appeared broader and giving a perfect Bird's Eye View of the entire exhibit. Lovely is the word and those gorgeous flowers are from just about all over as far as Florida, California and even Hawaii! There were many Blue Ribbon awards. Hope you and you did not miss that one.

They say it will be a long time before the snow melts but it surely is pure black stuff now! Be sure, Mr. Driver to wash off your car of that salt as it really eats into the paint or finish of the car. One can tell just how much a man cares about his car in fact one can read his character by the length of time he allows the snow to remain on the vehicle.

And what that storm did—well—here is a true one! A farmer was trapped in his barn and had to sleep between two cows for two nights before neighbors could dig a snow tunnel to retrieve him! No foolin! And thinking of the cold of last week, I am thoroughly convinced that the average person, especially teen-agers, do not dress with the proper warm clothing, or in other words, too little! There have been many women who have purchased slacks as the sales were numerous in all the stores, but take my advise and if you are not size — well say up to 14, don't attempt to wear them and if you do, never turn around! And thinking of clothes or wearing apparel, the dresses for this Spring are ridiculous; so, Mr. Husband don't blame it on the little woman for it is always a man who designs them and women are foolish enough to purchase them.

They are "Cut outs" of the little girl dress of years ago of a child four years of age! The style is just like that.

How wonderful Charlie Chaplin is—for he is directing another movie which took two years to write and he is 76 years of age! So you see, "Life Does Begin at Forty."

After being "Shut in" for almost a week, I finally decided to take a bus out to the "Westview Cinema" which is in the 6000 block of Edmundson Ave., and it really was a 2-hour drive each way due to the traffic jams and the deep piled snow. It was entitled, "The Umbrellas at Cherbourg" a French picture of young love which won the Grand Prize at the 1964 Cannes Film Festival. There is a certain enchantment about it although the plot is the usual bitter-sweet tale, but with a mother who seems sweeter and understanding than the usual in such happenings. The young lovers are parted when he is called for the service (the year 1944) and she discovers she is to have a baby. Nothing is spoken; sort of a light opera and all in French; but the picture throughout uses English subtitles. (A person who has hearing difficulties would enjoy it). The color is most beautiful throughout the entire picture and there is much rain—consequently the title!

The story is so true, as of today, yet there is something about it that charms one. It really made me think of a Fairy-tale for it is light and—oh—so tender! The actresses and actors were splendid and filled with innocence. The story ended by Genevieve marrying someone else for security and the young lover marries the young girl who had taken care of his ill aunt Elsie. In the end the couple meet at the filling station which he had opened through money left to him by Aunt Elsie. But it ends as a Fairy Tale — "They All Lived Happily Ever After!"

So long, folks, have a grand weekend and as soon as it is clear, I'll be seeing you! D. V. Until next week.

I am, Faithfully, YOUR OBSERVER

And a P. S. — As I was stepping off that bus — the Spanish motorman said, as he looked at me, "Adios!" and we both smiled! Cute?

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA WEEK

Future Farmers of America Week is to be observed during the February 19-26 period. And the theme that has been chosen for it—"Agriculture Is More Than Farming"—admirably points up the Week's purpose and significance.

There is a term, "Agri-Business," which often is used in reference to all the occupations that are related to farming. The chain of agriculture starts with the suppliers to farmers—those who provide goods and services ranging from machinery and chemicals to insurance and technical services. Farmers, the producers of raw materials, are the center link. Then come marketing, processing, transportation and distribution. All in all, this agricultural complex employs many millions of people and is America's largest industry.

Vocational agricultural education in the high schools provides a start for boys to obtain the training needed to enter these occupations. Some will go on to college or technical schools. About a third will return directly to the farm, and they will have the knowledge that additional education is available to them in young farmer and adult farmer classes conducted by teachers of vocational agriculture.

The Future Farmers' organization supplements the regular school instruction by providing opportunities for leadership development. Its goal is to help train young men for a wide horizon of agricultural occupations. And this is a needed and invaluable work.

GRASSROOTS OPINIONS

CORVALLIS, ORE., GAZETTE-TIMES: "There is nothing strange about President Johnson's getting his hackles up over increased prices in certain steel products, nor is there anything strange when he refuses to be equally upset when labor unions exceed the guidelines laid down by the Administration to control inflation. As a matter of fact, the latter move has been made on the Administration's recommendation."

MESA, ARIZ., TRIBUNE: "The Soviet Union is going to pass the United States in milk production this year for the first time ever, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports. . . . Can it be that Khrushchev's boast that the U.S.S.R. would eventually surpass the U.S.A. in every way is coming true? Or dare we hope that milk-fed Reds from a land of contented cows will prove a bit less bull-headed in international pastures in the future?"

LANCASTER, S.C., NEWS: "Failure of Congress to appropriate money for the Johnson administration's rent subsidy program indicated a distrust of a scheme that would be unfair to Americans who are paying their own rent. . . . You don't make families self-sufficient by accustoming them to subsidized existence."

LOVINGTON, N. MEX., LEADER: "Unless men and women continue a willingness to sacrifice personal desires, if they give over to greed and lust for the material in a measure out of all proportion to their need and desires, the thing most prized of all—our freedom—will perish."

HARRISONBURG, VA., NEWS-RECORD: "A deflationary jolt to the nation's economy is expected by some . . . when an increase in Social Security taxes takes effect. Workers and their employers must pump an additional $5 billion into the Social Security Trust Fund in 1966. . . . Companies with large payrolls and narrow profit margins . . . may feel the need to raise prices as a means of offsetting the higher tax bite, a move that could result in harmful buyer resistance to its products. And for smaller companies with narrower margins, the choice could be a bleak one, indeed."

FORT PIERRE, S. D., TIMES: "Talk to any small business operator and you will learn that various taxes and burdensome government regulations already are squeezing his profits more tightly day by day. . . . The proposed new minimum wage law could easily trigger bankruptcy or voluntary closing of thousands of small firms. Thus it would close doors of opportunity for the unskilled worker, instead of opening them."

GILLESPIE, ILL., AREA NEWS: "When man makes full use of his knowledge, we shall have a Great Society—not based on the Great Society of today, founded by socialistic-minded planners, with promises of something for everyone—there will be a place for everyone in the great society, but everyone must earn that place."

CHICO, CALIF., ENTERPRISE-RECORD: "The Social Security amendments adopted last year add up to a considerable step toward the 'hospital and medical care for all' advocated by the administrations of Presidents Franklin Roosevelt and Harry Truman. . . . Medicare and a 7 per cent increase in benefits for 20 million Social Security recipients other than Medicare, amount to a $5.1 billion tax boost on workers and employers, equally shared."

COVINGTON, LA., ST. TAMMANY FARMER: "Save your Christmas bonus checks for April 15. You'll need all the extra cash you can get to pay for your 'reduced taxes'. . . . Some of these are necessary expenditures, but many others are not. They are so fantastically wasteful as to be idiotic. It's easy to blame the politicians, but much of the fault lies with people who keep demanding things from 'the government'—preferably the federal government—with the naive notion that someone else will pay for the extravagant things they want."

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you:

The heavy rains and melting snow over the weekend pushed the creeks and rivers up over their banks and huge chunks of ice were left in many places Sunday night and Monday morning. On Monday morning a county truck with plow and road grader cleared the road between Detour and the railroad track on the Keysville Road. Still right muddy on Tuesday. We surely are having a little of everything - weather-wise - this winter.

Hope you were able to get in to see the Union Bridge Boy Scout Troop's display for Scout Week last Friday evening or Saturday. It was very well done and you could easily see that a lot of work had gone into it. Various Scouts were on hand at all times and demonstrated how they can make rope and some of the weaving they are doing for baskets and also a seat for a stool. A number of books were also on display telling of some of the merit badges that can be earned and giving general information on Scouting. (The fact that the Scoutmaster is my husband makes me a little prejudiced, of course, but he didn't do it alone. Mr. Broadwater and he and all the boys working together made this display possible.) The Troop will have another paper drive this Saturday, the 19th, so please call Richard Stultz, Jack Harris, Berman Weeks or William Fleharty if you do not live in Union Bridge and would like to have papers picked up. Don't forget to tie your bundles securely.

Cub Pack 459 will hold their annual Blue and Gold Banquet on Friday evening, 18th, 6:30 P. M., at the Church of the Brethren in Union Bridge. This is a covered dish affair and for all the Cubs and their families.

The Eager Beaver Girls' 4-H Club met on Friday evening at the home of Jeanie Myers near Mt. Union. Mrs. Milton Griffin gave a demonstration for the girls on "Cake Cut-ups." She cut up cake layers in various shapes and put them together to look like an elephant and a fish and decorated them. A sewing workshop will be held at the Myers home on Saturday (19th) at 2 P. M. for those carrying the unit "ABC's of Sewing."

Lenten services in the Union Bridge Lutheran Parish will start on Ash Wednesday at St. James in Union Bridge. Time: 7:45 P. M.

Elmer A. Wolfe P-TA Meeting

The Community Action Committee in Carroll County was the topic for the general meeting of the Elmer A. Wolfe P-TA on Monday, Feb. 14, with Louis Beard, vice principal of Francis Scott Key High School, as the speaker.

Mr. Beard, who is chairman of the Community Action Committee, explained that such committees are being set up to deal with the elimination of poverty and they originated under the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964. The goals of the committee, to be effective, will need to coordinate and develop services, require involvement of the poor and stimulation of change as well as the total mobilization of the present approach. We MUST change our present approach.

People from all parts of the county make up the steering committee that is now organized and endorsed by the County Commissioners. An application for a federal grant to hire a coordinator to head the committee is now being readied. It will be his job to make surveys of the needs in the county and submit programs to help alleviate them.

Two projects already listed are pre-school nurseries and job-training and vocational rehabilitation. Many volunteers all over the county will be needed in any projects the committee presents.

The committee meets the second Tuesday of each month at the County Office Building with an open-door policy. Anyone who would care to visit would be most welcome and more members are needed.

The invocation was given by Pastor Phillip Kemper of the Union Bridge Methodist Church. President Robert DePew presided over the short business meeting.

What two beautiful poems those were in The Carroll Record last week entitled, "The Twentieth Century Snow of '66" and "Winter's Snow Arrives," written by M.R.W.A.; these are poems worth saving and if you have a scrapbook put them in it for safe keeping.

Keep Your Soul Unsullied (James A. Sanaker)

Keep your soul unsullied
By words or look or deed,
That jars another's faith in God
Or mars the Master's creed.

Keep your tongue from evil,
Your lips from speaking guile,
Least your friends avoid you
And loose their open smile.

Keep your heart from envy,
Allow no jealous talk
To spoil the conversation
Wherever you may walk.

Keep your mind on Jesus
With noble thoughts and sweet,
Then God will add His blessings
To make your life complete.

SPORTS
THE WAY I SEE IT . . .
Observations on the World of Sports - John Breth
We don't know if youth must be served but it will certainly do a lot of the serving in the AMERICAN LEAGUE next season.
A rundown on the top 15 pitchers in the American League this year shows their average age is a shade over 25 years of age. Only one man who has reached 30 was included in the list. He is George Brunet of the California Angels who is exactly 30.
The earned-run leader, of course, was Sam McDowell, the Cleveland fireballer who had a percentage of 2.18. He is 23 years old. The youngest man in the top 15 was Denny McLain of Detroit, who was seventh with a 2.62 average. He is 21. McLain was born in 1944, the year his father-in-law won the American League batting title. Who is his father-in-law, you ask? Why, nobody else but Lou Boudreau, one of the all-time greats of the game at shortstop.
The California Angels have the second youngest among the top earned run men, namely Marcelino Lopez who is 22. He was 15th in the averages with a mark of 2.93.
After the champion, McDowell, the list read like this through the top five: Eddie Fisher of Chicago was second with a mark of 2.40. Sonny Siebert of Cleveland was next with 2.43. Ernie Lush of the Angels and Pete Richert of Washington was fifth with 2.60.
The earned-run list is impressive but figures don't always tell the whole story.
Most baseball men will tell you that one of the best pitchers in the league last year - possibly the best - was Mudecat Grant, the ace of the Minnesota Twins.
Grant's earned-run mark was 3.30, far above the top 15. But he did lead the league in victories with 21, in winning percentage with .750 and in shutouts with six.
The new manager of the Cincinnati Reds, DON HEFFNER, is face to face with a problem and likes what he sees.
Heffner has a hot rookie to find work for this spring and because of the kind of talent he has on the team he may not be able to find the work.
The rookie is Tommy Helms, a shortstop by profession and also able to play third base and second. But the Reds are strong at all three spots.
They have Leo Cardenas at shortstop, one of the best in the league. They have All-Star Pete Rose at second and the National League's rambunctious champion, Deron Johnson, at third.
A lot of other teams would be happy to relieve Heffner of his problem by taking Helms in a trade but the Reds have rejected all offers. Helms is 24 years old and a take-charge guy on the field. He batted .319 at San Diego last year and hit .381 in 42 times at bat in the closing weeks of the season for Cincinnati.
Another highly-regarded Cincinnati rookie is Dick Simpson, a 22-year-old outfielder who was acquired over the winter in a trade with Baltimore.
Simpson played for Seattle last year and hit .302 with 24 home runs and 79 runs batted in. He also stole 29 bases.
Lee May, a 22-year-old first baseman, stung the ball for a .321 average at San Diego and clouted 34 home runs.
Other youngsters in the Cincinnati training camp this spring include outfielder Mel Queen, infielders Len Boehmer and Gus Gil and pitchers Phil Henderson, Tom Prondorf, Darrell Osteen, Dave Galligan and Dan Neville.
All will have to show a lot of improvement over last year's minor league form to win a place on the Cincinnati varsity this summer.
Today's Sport Laugh - Quarterback Bill Fenton of Kansas is the smallest football player in the Big Eight Conference. He is five-nine and weighs 150 pounds. Asked what he thinks about when he sees those giant defensive men staring over the line at him, Fenton replied: "I think I'm six-nine and 250 pounds. It helps me do a better job."
Basketball Tourney to Start
One of the most exciting basketball seasons in Carroll County Schoolboy competition comes to a close this week with the annual Carroll County Tournament, which will begin Friday evening, Feb. 18, at 7:00 P. M.
This year's post season affair has only six teams competing for tourney honors: Sykesville, Mt. Airy, North Carroll, St. John's, Francis Scott Key, and Taneytown.
It is extremely difficult to pick a tourney winner for on any given night this year the league's power-house have been upset. No squad goes into the post season fray with a perfect record.
From recent performances, if a tourney favorite is to be selected, it would have to be Bill Ecker's Sykesville Red Raiders; this high-scoring outfit has hit the century mark on two occasions in recent competition. Scouting reports indicate that Ecker's second unit is just as dangerous offensively as his starting "5."
Breathing heavily on the heels of the Red Raiders will be last year's defending champions, the Mt. Airy Bulldogs, coached by Fred Baker. The Bulldogs' chief problem this year has been the inability to find somebody dependable in the backcourt who will keep the attack going. The down-county boys have plenty of offensive punch but their ability to play good defense has cost them some games.
Ed Powelson's North Carroll Panthers have looked like world-beaters on some nights while at other times they have been unable to jell.
St. John's, Taneytown, and Francis Scott Key fall into the class of tournament spoilers for each squad has some outstanding performers going for them. The Eagles have the league's leading scorer in the person of Jim Scully. While the Tigers, under new coach Tony Magnotto, have received steady performances from Leroy Smeak and veteran Larry Gigeous.

Positions in the tournament play will depend on where the teams finish in the final standings in league play. On the opening night's card, teams 4 and 6 will meet at 7:00 P. M. In the nightcap which begins at 8:30, teams three and five will meet.
On Tuesday evening, Feb. 22, play gets under way with the losers round at 6:15 P. M.; other games will be played at 7:45 and 9:15.
The finals will be held on Friday night, Feb. 25, with two games at 7:00 and 8:30 P. M.
YOUTH BASKETBALL
Upsets were the order of the day as the winless 76ers sent the league leading Globetrotters down to defeat by a score of 29 to 21. The Bullets completed the upsets by scoring a 26 to 14 win over the Tigers.
Dave Hohman with 10 points and 4 rebounds and John Zent with 8 points and 5 rebounds set the pace for the 76ers. Steve Zent, Bernie Decker, and Eddie Hahn divided up 11 points between them. Paul Rein-dollar was top gun for the losing Globetrotters with 10 points.
The Bullets used the ball-hawking efforts of George Motter and Brian Etzler to build up a commanding lead and end the Tigers four-game win streak. Motter scored 8 points, Etzler 6 points and George Greenya scored 6 points and pulled down 3 rebounds. The Tigers in defeat were given another outstanding performance by Mike Shaum who pulled 10 rebounds off the boards and chipped in with 8 points.

Everyday-Christianity is something we all desire to practice. Of the many ways that we can exemplify the principles of honesty, charity, and generosity, there is one that merits more attention than it sometimes receives.

We have been asked to "mind our motor manners." Motor manners suggest courtesy—and more than that—honesty in observing all traffic laws, charity for the awkwardness or bad manners of other drivers, and generosity in the use of streets and highways. In other words, minding our motor manners should mean walking and driving with consideration for others, for their convenience as well as our own, and especially for the greater safety of all.

In closing our worship services, it has long been the custom to commend our lives to God's care until we meet again. In so doing we acknowledge our awareness of the hazards of living. Not the least of these hazards in this modern day are the dangers of highways and streets lined with traffic. So let us each do our share to drive and walk safely in order to avoid accidents. Let us follow the golden rule in traffic too, and drive as we would have others drive.

When we stop to think that most traffic accidents result from thoughtlessness and disregard for our own safety or the safety of others, we will no doubt come to realize that the golden rule has application to our conduct on the highways as well as in the many other aspects of our daily living.

Against God
Lesson for February 20, 1966

Background Scripture: Genesis 3:1-13, 22-24; Romans 1:18 through 2:11; Mark 7:14-23; 1 John 1:5-10.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 51:1-12.

ANYBODY WHO read this column last week must have felt there was something wrong about it. The writer painted a picture with rose-colored paint. He made it out that in the Bible man is located next to God, the one creature on earth that is like God, "in his image". All this fine talk when anybody who knows anything at all knows that men are more like devils than

Dr. Foreman like God. Has the writer gone clear off his rocker, or is the Bible dimly, ridiculously wrong about man and mankind? Not at all. Man is by God's intention and purpose made in the image of God; this is man as God wants him to be. But no book is plainer than the Bible in showing that many a man is an abysmally long way from what God's dream for him is. The race of man has been infected with a disfiguring and disabling disease. The name of this individual is — SIN. Each person individually, and the race of man as a whole, is raddled with it.

A race of liars

But sin is more than a misfortune, an accident, or a disease. Sin is something for which man is responsible. However much we may blame others or even blame God (as the first man did, in the Genesis story) the fact is, you are responsible, I am responsible. Each of us and all of us. For sin is an active, not a passive thing. It is as active as an armed rebellion; it is an armed rebellion — against God. Most sins are against people, but every sin is against God. Sin is utterly bad because at the root of it is a colossal pride, a lie that reaches to the stars. Sin is against God: against his love, his wisdom, his truth, his will. Sin is the final folly. Sin is saying to God, "Get down off that throne and let me take your place. I know how to manage my life better than You do. I do not need Your help, I do not need You." Sin is so mingled with falsehood that in the Bible the Devil is called the father of lies.

From within

We can speak of sins in general, but we should not forget that no one ever commits sin-in-general. Sins are always particular, concrete. Jesus of course knew this. He once gave a rapid list of sins, (Mark 7) and then said a remarkable thing about them all. They all come from within, he said. The sins Jesus names are (we would say) partly visible and outward, partly invisible. Envy and evil thoughts, for instance, are "inner", while theft and deceit would be called "outer"; but Jesus says they are all "from within". A sin is just as real, just as personal, just as bad, whether in human eyes it can be seen or not. Sin—in other words — is not just what we do, it is the way we are. The cure for it must be something deeper than cutting off a bad habit here and there. The cure must be a change in our very selves, our spirit first of all.

But if not . . . ?

This is what "Conversion" means, isn't it? Conversion means a turning around, a turning of the entire self; from hating and despising and neglecting and slandering God, to loving and glorifying, and obeying and witnessing to God in every possible way. Only God really can turn us around. Only he can convince us we need to change, only he can reach those inner rooms of life from which emerge all our particular acts of thoughts of pride and disobedience, and to work the impossible miracle of bringing us to the point of accepting his love and not demanding it, — of saying Thy will, not mine, be done. But suppose we say a final No to God? Suppose our hearts are so icy that not even God's love will thaw them? Then — well, what is the prospect for any man in permanent rebellion against the Lord of all?

If you itemize your deductions, you may use this table to determine the general sales tax to be entered on Form 1040, page 2, Part IV. However, if you can establish that you paid a larger amount, you are entitled to deduct that amount. This table is based on the Maryland State sales tax of 3 percent. Sales taxes for automobile purchases are not included in the table and they should be added to the table amount, if applicable.

WHEAT MAY SUBSTITUTE FOR FEED GRAINS UNDER DIVERSION PROGRAM

Under the 1966 wheat and feed grain programs, farmers may plant wheat on feed grain acres as one of the options available for maximum flexibility in individual operations...

Those farmers who decide to exercise this option will sign up in both the wheat and feed grain programs. The sign-up period for the program is now under way at the ASCS county office and ends April 1.

A farmer with a 100-acre wheat allotment and a 100-acre feed grain base, for instance, who decided to produce the maximum acres of wheat under both programs by substituting wheat for feed grains would follow these provisions:

After signing up, he would divert to conservation uses other cropland equal to 15 per cent of his wheat allotment. In addition, he would devote 20 per cent (20 acres) of his feed grain base to conserving uses. He would then have 180 acres (the wheat allotment plus 80 feed grain acres) that could be devoted to wheat.

He would be eligible for 100 per cent of parity for the projected yield production on as much as 45 per cent of his wheat allotment, or 45 acres. In addition, he would be eligible for a price-support loan of $1.46 per bushel on all the wheat produced on the 180 acres—or he could sell the wheat on the open market if he desired.

Other options are also available under the voluntary wheat program. For instance, by signing up for the minimum diversion under the program, the wheat grower could have the option of overplanting the wheat allotment by 50 per cent, or of substituting wheat for oats or rye, or of planting the entire wheat allotment (without substitution). Winter wheat producers also may divert up to 50 per cent of their allotments for payment, an option not available to spring wheat growers.

Full details of the programs may be obtained from the ASCS county office, Brauning said.

STIFLE THE SNEEZE BUT SCRAP THE SUPERSTITION

Available at the Carroll County TB Association, the Common Cold booklet makes light of the following myths:

1. Feed a cold and starve a fever. What if you have both??? A normal diet with an ample amount of liquids is the best answer to this old wives' tale.

2. Take a laxative to get rid of cold germs. If you're constipated, fine. Chances are the cold virus won't budge.

3. Grab a pile of blankets and sweat out the cold germs. Not a chance. You're better off drinking liquids at regular intervals throughout the day to rid yourself of cold germs.

4. Vitamin pills prevent colds. Nope. Excess vitamins may even prove harmful. Better concentrate on a balanced diet.

5. At the first sniffle, get in bed. Unless you've got a good book to finish, you won't accomplish much. Rest will conserve your energy and allow your body to build up resistance to cold complications, but there's no need to climb into bed for the duration unless you're running a fever.

6. Drugs can cure a cold. Sorry, not yet. Antihistamines give you some relief if allergic reactions accompany your cold. Aspirin will relieve head and body aches. Nasal decongestants and cough syrup can help once a cold has taken hold. All these medications vary in content and strength, however, so better get your doctor's OK before you take them.

7. A cold makes you feel miserable, but it's not serious. A cold in itself is not serious. Complications resulting from a cold can be. If you're left with a nagging cough or shortness of breath, better get yourself off to the family doctor for a thorough check-up.

Courtesy and common sense are still the best advice to cold sufferers. Stay away from crowds where your germs can infect others. Get plenty of rest and eat normally. Ask your Carroll County TB Association for the Common Cold booklet.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

DEAD LETTER LAWS

Over a period of 42 years, the crime committed most often in Washington, D.C., was selling ice cream cones. It seems that in 1921, as a health measure, the sale of ice cream in less-than-pint containers was forbidden. Yet, through the years, millions of less-than-pint cones were sold in brazen defiance of the law.

In Elko, Nevada, crime ran even more rampant. A 1918 ordinance, passed during the great flu epidemic, required everybody to wear a flu mask in public places. Not until 1964 did the city council let people breathe easier by revoking the ordinance.

Hundreds of such laws remain on the books in various communities around the country. How does this happen?

The reason is simple: there is far more incentive to put a law on the books than to take it off. As the original stimulus for a law fades away, people gradually lose interest in it. No one obeys, no one complains, no one prosecutes.

Yet, these dead letter laws may do real harm. For one thing, they may breed disrespect for law itself.

For another thing, they may give law enforcement officials too much leeway. If not probable, it is at least possible that a person might suddenly be prosecuted for doing something which he has been doing, in all innocence, for years.

Accordingly, as part of a broad drive to modernize criminal law, bar associations and other attorney organizations are trying to clean out these legal anachronisms.

It is not an easy job. Some laws are plainly useless. But others, while rarely invoked, may still have a useful deterrent effect. Still others might represent a kind of gentleman's agreement whereby the community salutes a moral standard in principle while ignoring it in practice.

But it is a job well worth doing. No law should remain on the books for no better reason than that it has been forgotten.

"When people remove their bills from the envelopes, economic conditions are getting better."—B. J. Dahl, Chewelah (Wash.) Independent

A Letter from Annapolis

The Senate has been bustling with activity this week introducing new bills and considering old legislation. Senator Welcomes introduced a bill to impose additional restrictions upon the sale or transfer of disposal of pistols and revolvers. It would also require that within five days any person in the state who owns or possesses a pistol or revolver shall register same.

The General Assembly is considering legislation that would permit Maryland to benefit from the Federal Aid Program under last year's Highway Beautification Act. John B. Funk, Chairman and Director of the State Roads Commissions has urged support for this legislation, pointing out that Maryland would obtain several millions of dollars to control if not eliminate, billboards and junkyards along major roads.

S.B. 113 was introduced by Senator North—Assigned Risk Plan—Provides that whenever an insurer gives notice of intention not to renew policy of motor vehicle liability insurance issued in state, on or before it cancels any such policy of insurance for reason other than non-payment of premium, the insurer shall through Maryland Automobile Assigned Risk Plan: sets form in which notice shall be framed; requires that such notice shall contain current address, telephone number of the offices of assigned risk plan, notice to be sent to insured not later than 10 days prior to expiration of the policy and in the case of cancellation, shall be sent in the same manner and at the same time as first written notice of cancellation given or required by law, regulation or contract.

S.B. 111 was introduced by Senator Dorf — Proportioning Damages in case of Contributory Negligence — Provides that in all actions accruing for negligence resulting in personal injury, wrongful death, injury to property, including those in which defendant has had last clear chance, contributory negligence of person injured, or of deceased, shall not bar recovery, but damages awarded shall be diminished in proportion to amount of negligence attributable to the injured person, or to deceased, or to the owner of property, or to person having control of property; act shall not apply to actions arising out of an occurrence taking place prior to June 1, 1966.

S.B. 114 was introduced by Senator Steffy — Duty-Free Lunch Period — Provides that every teacher in the public elementary secondary schools in counties, city shall be provided with duty-free lunch period each regularly scheduled school day; period shall extend for at least 30 minutes, but where pupils have regular lunch period of less than 30 minutes, the duty-free period shall coincide with such regular period of less than 30 minutes; Board of Education in county, city may employ teacher-aides for this purpose. Takes effect July 1, 1966, and will cost the state approximately $900,000.

S.B. 121 was introduced by Senators Gude and Derr — Daylight Saving Time—Provides that standard of time in state, between 2 o'clock on last Sunday in April and 2 o'clock on last Sunday in October, shall be one hour in advance of daylight-saving time; provides that no department, Agency of State Government or of local subdivision employ at anytime, adopt any ordinance or order providing for use of any standard of time maintaining a place of business may display or use any time other than that prescribed herein; sets penalties for violation of Act.

S.B. 131 was introduced by Senator H. Hughes—Assessments and Taxation, Cooper-Hughes Bill—Generally revises assessment, taxation of income on real and personal property and sales in Maryland; implements so-called Cooper-Hughes Report. Bill takes effect July 1, 1966.

I personally feel the above bill is not needed at this time. If you will recall the last 1 per cent tax increase that was put into effect was later rescinded by the Governor calling a special session that cost the taxpayers of the State nearly $90,000. I feel very proud that I saw fit to vote against this in the regular session. I feel strongly that this is not a good bill and will need many revisions to make it a good piece of legislation.

A resolution declaring that the Klu Klux Klan "flagrantly violates the laws of God and man to achieve its ignoble goals" was introduced by three Senate Republicans.

The Klan, "thrives on hatred and bigotry" and has "terrorized segments of our population with dreadful effectiveness."

The resolution seeks to put the entire State Senate on record as condemning the Klan "and similar organizations which seek to intimidate rather than persuade," and as asking the residents of Maryland "to repudiate these organizations and to refuse to support them in any way."

This was passed through the Judicial Proceeding Committee. We have had several measures concerning individuals rights in this year's legislation.

—Thomas R. O'Farrell, Senator from Carroll County.
