CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NEWS

The Galilean Service was held Sunday, June 26, at the Westminster Community Pond. An inspirational service indeed beside the water. President Mrs. Ruth Weidner presided. Bugler Wayne Blacksten called the assembly to worship playing "How Great Thou Art."

Mrs. Roy Kiser read Mark 4 as the Scripture lesson. Rev. Ernest Baker, pastor of Westminster Church of God, led in prayer and introduced the speaker, Rev. R. A. Reider, pastor of Greenmount E.L.B. Church. Rev. Reider spoke on "Consecrated Christians," saying, God is not dead as some are trying to teach. Those not ashamed of the Gospel are the consecrated. Closing with the verse, "Only one life, it will soon be past; only what's done for Christ will last."

Rev. and Mrs. Reider sang two beautiful selections, "The King and I" and "If I Could Live My Life Over," accompanied by Mrs. Reider on the accordion.

Miss Nellie Griffin, Mt. Ranier C.E. State Counsellor, announced the Convention to be held in the Church of the Brethren, Frederick, October 14-15, urging registration now.

KEEP IT SAFE AND SANE

MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL MEET

The July meeting of the Mayor and City Council was held one week early due to vacation.

Officer Graybill reported 53 parking violations. Officer Boone reported eight State summons, 11 warnings, three warrants for arrest and one accident.

Due to vandals painting wording on the water tower it is necessary to have this tower repainted.

Three new lights will be placed in Memorial Park in the near future.

Many articles of clothing, towels, shoes, etc., have not been claimed at the swimming pool during the short period of time the pool has been open this season. All articles can be claimed through proper identification.

An auction will be conducted shortly, of all unclaimed objects, with the proceeds going to purchasing trophies for swim meets.

Water, precious as it is, should be conserved at all times. Due to the severe droughts during the past years and another one apparent this summer, all consumers of water served by the City of Taneytown are asked to be very conservative in the use of water. One never realizes the importance of water until there is a shortage and a ban placed on its use. The cooperation of all is solicited.

The search for the truth is the number one goal of mankind.

GRACE CHURCH LAY LIFE AND WORK COMMITTEE MEETS

The Lay Life and Work Committee of Grace United Church of Christ met on June 27 at 8:00 P. M. with George Fream presiding. Eight members and Rev. Wiley were present. The new members elected to the committee were Mrs. Ruth Shoemaker and Mrs. Fairy Flickinger from the congregation, Tim Crabbs from the Consistory, Joseph Meyer from the Sunday school, and two members are yet to be elected.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. As far as anyone knew, just three of the six tables for the dining room had been delivered to date.

It is the duty of the committee to elect another member for a 2-year term. Nominated were Mr. Francis Lookingbill, Mrs. Sandra Crouse and Mr. Harry Clingan.

There will be no new committees this year as those set up last year were for a 2-year term. However, there are some new and returning members who had not been named to a committee. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wely, Brenda Anders, Brenda Hess, Diane Fream, John Stultz, Jr., and James Ramsburg were added to the Youth Committee. Jean Pipkin and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Baker were put on the Mother-Daughter Banquet Committee, Robert Fitz on the Family Night Committee, and Mrs. Rose Ott was moved to the Spiritual Life Committee.

Rev. Wiley reported that the church name on the front bulletin board was wearing off. In the past when this happened it was just repainted. He suggested that perhaps something of a more permanent nature be done this time such as a bronze copper plate installed. It was decided to let the Consistory decide if this should be done and that this committee would pay for it if they did not want to use their funds.

To avoid further confusion, Rev. Wiley said that the group should be called a committee and not a council as has been written in the past. The council is at the national level only.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: chairman, George Fream; co-chairman, Joseph Meyer; secretary, Mrs. Caroline Warehime; treasurer, Mrs. Fairy Flickinger.

Mrs. Fairy Flickinger, Mr. Tim Crabbs and Mrs. Virginia Sanders were appointed to audit the treasurer's books at this time. Anyone with bills for the Lay Life and Work Committee should get them in immediately.

Programs and special functions for the year were discussed, and the following suggestions were made: Family Night early in the fall, Layman's Sunday the second or third Sunday of October, Thank-Offering Service the third Sunday of November, Congregational Meeting in February, a program planned and put on by the youth in the spring, and the Mother-Daughter, Father-Son Banquet in May.

It was suggested that the youth be allowed to take more part in the functions and services of the church, and that they should help plan activities so that their particular interests and needs are met.

A reminder that the Lay Life and Work Retreat at Hood College is on July 15-17. The committee will pay the expenses of anyone wishing to attend.

The next meeting will be the first Thursday of September.

The regular monthly meeting of the Taneytown Jaycettes was held on Wednesday, June 22, at Memorial Park. A picnic supper, planned by JoAnn Dougherty, Beatrice Sauble, Cathi Hawn and Nadine Brown, was enjoyed by all.

President-elect Virginia Fream appointed the following committees for 1966-67: auditing: Elaine Wantz, chairman; Nadine Brown, Bonnie Becker; calling: Joyce Dell, chairman; Doris Crouse and JoAnn Dougherty; Christmas party: Bonnie Becker, chairman; Barbara Baumgardner and Elaine Wantz; constitution, by-laws and parliamentary: Nadine Brown; courtesy: Beatrice Sauble; decorations and favors: Cathi Hawn, chairman; Elaine Wantz, Ravina Hopkins, Bonnie Becker and Joyce Dell; membership and orientation: Carleen Skiles; parade participation: Doris Crouse; program and social: Joyce Dell, chairman, and Nadine Brown; scrapbook and properties: Ravina Hopkins; hospital: Elaine Wantz; publicity: Glenna Lambert; ways and means: JoAnn Dougherty, chairman; Cathi Hawn, Beatrice Sauble and Carleen Skiles; service: Barbara Baumgardner, chairman, Doris Crouse and Cathi Hawn.

After the meeting, everyone enjoyed a game of miniature golf at Eds.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning a smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Remember when I wrote about Mount Clare about a year or so ago? It needed at that time much decoration plus fabrics and paint. During this past year this has all been accomplished by The Colonial Dames. I had met the most charming lady right there who was the hostess for the day and I recall writing about her as much as I did that Historical Mansion. Mount Clare is the oldest house in Baltimore dating back to 1754 and right in Carroll Park off Monroe Street opposite Montgomery Ward.

The added furniture is from the Baltimore Museum of Art, in fact, loaning it to the house. Such a change in the drawing room when I visited this lovely home of which I am so very sentimental about. I closed my eyes walking up and down the beautiful winding stairway and pretended the pages had rolled back and I was one of those Colonial Ladies of that day! It is fascinating. The Damask are copies of historic days and that by a New York firm which is really authentic. How wonderful the City purchased it for a park in 1890. The last of the Carrolls left this Mansion about 1840. There had been two wings when the Carrolls resided there and no one seems to know what had happened to them and much was added on the ends in 1910. The two ends were made into a kitchen and library. It is so fascinating that one just walks around and thinks and nothing is said unless a question is asked.

If you cannot manage a vacation for your family, why not take different days and see all the history of Baltimore and the nice part about that is returning to your own bed at night for the night's rest which to me is a vacation. Louis Quince chairs have been recovered in gray green damask and the draperies are of apricot with soft green sprays entwined.

The Portico room on the second floor has been enlivened by a Hepple white Pembroke table with the leaves open with a tea service on top. There are two chairs right there almost like inviting you to be seated for a cup of tea.

The only thing that I really do not like are the venetian blinds which surely were not known for homes in those days for it meant handsome window blinds and they were always hemmed on both ends. There are really several pieces that were used by the Carrolls. There is a beautiful "gaming table" and I am wondering just what they played in those days. In one of the bedrooms there is a handsome Chippendale chest of drawers with a fretwork mirror over it. There is a Canopy over the bed. Another bedroom has a small Queen Anne hanging cupboard from the museum. A bell-flower inlay Maryland Hepplewhite bureau on which stands a shaving glass attributed to John Shaw has been placed in the smallest bedroom. In the west bedroom a serpentine front American Chippendale desk stands near the fireplace. Across the room is a Chippendale chest with fretwork mirror—again both museum loans.

You will agree with me that it is truly like turning back the pages when life was filled with simplicity and you will never forget this wonderful visit with the charming hostess greeting you as though you were a caller of many years ago to spend the afternoon.

Have a grand week-end. Folks and try and be happy—life is too, too short and do try to make someone else happy! Until next week D.V.

I am,
Faithfully yours,
Irene deLeon Love.

LADIES AUXILIARY MEETING OF HARNEY VOL. FIRE CO.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Harney Vol. Fire Co. was held Tuesday evening, June 28, 1966 at 8:00 P.M. with the president, Katharine Hall, presiding. The scripture was read by the chaplain, Miss Treva Ridinger from 1st Cor., chapter II, verses 1-9, followed by prayer. The minutes were read and approved; nine members were present. The treasurer reported a balance of $1354.84.

"A Thank You" note was read from Mr. Lake Ridinger for the flowers he received while in the hospital. Mrs. Mary Ridinger gave a report on the convention at Ocean City, Md.

The menu for the carnival was discussed. The ladies voted to serve a platter Wednesday night and Saturday night. Wednesday night they will serve a platter of ham, green beans, potatoes and roll. Saturday night, fried chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, lima beans and roll. The price of each platter will be $1.00. They will serve chicken corn soup, hot beef sandwiches, hot chicken sandwiches, barbecue, potato salad, cole slaw, apple sauce, cake and pie as they did in the past. They would appreciate anyone helping. All donations will also be appreciated.

INDEPENDENCE DAY 1966

The Fourth of July falls on Monday this year. That means another long week-end of fun and recreation. But this year to a greater degree than in many years, we should pause to reflect on the true meaning of the Fourth of July. There are thousands of families across the land who face a sober Fourth. Their sons and husbands are in Viet Nam because as a nation, we are dedicated to the document which the Fourth of July commemorates.

That document is our Declaration of Independence from Great Britain, adopted by the Continental Congress on July 4, 1776. It signifies the birth of a nation and a degree of individual freedom that exists nowhere else on earth. So long as the Declaration of Independence endures in the minds and hearts of American citizens, freedom will endure. So, with due humility and reverence, enjoy yourself on this Fourth of July, in the year 1966.

GRASSROOTS OPINIONS

COLUMBIA, MISS., PROGRESS:
"So far as we have been able to observe, there are two kinds of taxes:
good taxes and bad taxes. Good taxes are those that are levied upon other people and bad taxes are those that make us pay. . . If you will thoroughly understand the distinction that we make in regard to taxes . . . you will be able to understand a great deal of the squawking you hear."

DELMAR, DEL., WEEKLY: "There is no argument . . . against a self-sustaining Post Office Department, but we sure do wish that Washington would take the same approach when it comes to financing some of its other services. . . Oh, well. You can't have everything. But you do sort of wonder sometimes about a system which doesn't even flinch when it comes to paying the freight on a capsule bound for an uninhabited, zip-codeless place in space, but gave up completely when it came to maintaining the penny post card."

PORT HURON, MICH., TIMES HERALD: "Teen-age fads are carefully calculated to scandalize adults."
. . . German WW II helmets are showing up on youthful motorcyclists in place of crash helmets. German crosses, to be worn as necklaces by the girls are appearing. Adults of America, arise! Let us arise and sit at the same time—sit this one out.
Nobody complain. Nobody ground the kids. No petulance. Just silence.
Maybe we can win this one."

ELLIS, KAN., REVIEW: "We have always been of the opinion that the man who earns the money is more entitled to spend it than the politicians in Washington. If there is danger of inflation from too much spending the best place to start is in Washington."

HARRISVILLE, W. VA., GA-ZETTE: "Just a short time ago, there still were some eight million of the 18 million eligible for Medicare who had not signed up for it. . .
I don't know what the outcome will be . . . but I do know the pressure sure is on to get 'em all. . . We don't want any 'independent' people left in this country! . . ."

CUSHING, O.K.A., CITIZEN:
"President Johnson has held news conferences. . . Some have been televised. Some have been staged at the LBJ Ranch with Mr. Johnson atop bales of hay. . . Now a new locale has been found. It is the presidential jet, outfitted so that Mr. Johnson can sit at a desk and address a plane-load of newsmen . . . at an altitude of 30,000 feet. Very appropriate, indeed, for these are highflying times. Many of our celebrated thinkers are up in the clouds and the Great Society has put the pie in the sky."

LA PORTE, IND., HERALD-ARGUS: "It is suggested that if the real enemy is inflation, the source of the trouble is the bigness of government itself. And more massive federal spending programs are on the launching pad. President Johnson would be setting an example by seeing that government cuts back on nonessential handout programs. But these are rather popular politically."

GRANGEVILLE, IDA., PRESS:
"There was . . . an attempt for the federal government to infringe into the free press of the country recently.
Some group, no doubt looking for a job for themselves, wanted to start a newspaper for circulation in a particular federal housing unit. This would have been the most expensively operated newspaper in the world on the basis of circulation. It would have had two objects: Continuation for jobs for those in charge and promoting more federal controls."

GLENWOOD, IOWA, OPINION-TRIBUNE: "Several government committees are all in a tizzy about deceptive packaging. We wonder when they'll get around to investigating women's clothing?"

PORTLAND, ME., PRESS HER-ALD: ". . . there ought to be some way to punish union defiers of the courts."

Byblos, in Lebanon, which gave the Bible its name, is now a fishing village of about 1,000 population.

Indians of the northwest coast of the U.S. used to make raincoats out of cedar bark.

Vacation Bible School continues this week at Keysville with an enrollment of 47. Several children are now attending the summer school session in the public schools which began on Monday.

Have you noticed the new look of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin of Mt. Union near the Union Bridge Road? It has recently been painted a pretty shade of blue and a picture window put in. Very nice.

Surely was sorry to hear last week of the accident Mrs. Loren Austin had. She broke a bone in her upper left arm. Sure all her friends and neighbors join me in wishing her a rapid "mend."

Belated happy birthday greetings on Monday, the 27th, to Mrs. James Coshun of Detour and Happy Birthday wishes next week to Mrs. Edward Coshun on the 3rd, James Coshun on the 4th, Eddy Clabaugh and Beth Wilhide on the 5th, Mrs. Stanley Jennings on the 6th and Mrs. Carroll Kiser on the 7th.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Ada VanFossen of Taneytown upon her death on Saturday and to her sister, Mrs. Bessie Myers, and brothers, Elgie DeBerry, William DeBerry and Harry DeBerry.

Our sympathy is also extended to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide and family near Detour upon the death of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Keifer Seibert, on Monday (also to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Seibert and family of Clear Spring). It is always such a shock to lose a loved one.

The flower committee for Keysville Lutheran Church during July will be Mrs. Arthur Clabaugh, chairman; Mrs. Clara Clabaugh, Mrs. Vernon Schaffer, Mrs. Earl Roop and Mrs. Robert Stine.

Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy near Detour spent Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Weishaar and Lovetta near Taneytown. On Sunday they were supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wildisan, Kevin and Kim of Westminster along with Mr. and Mrs. James Weishaar, Bobby and Billy of Detour.

The Class of 1956 of Elmer A. Wolfe School of Union Bridge held their 10th year reunion on Sunday at Taneytown Park. Those attending were Mrs. John Hood and family (Janet Myerly), Mrs. Robert Bowers (Arlene Ahn), Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harner and children (Josephine Crouse), Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide and family, David Houck and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lambert and family (Glenna Greene).

Supper guests with the Carroll Wilhide family on Thursday were Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy near Detour. Sunday evening visitors in this home were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Durborow of Gettysburg.

Dates to remember: July 1, Cub Pack 459 Camp Fire at the home of Sam Fleming of Mt. Union about 8:30 P. M. July 4, Keysville LCW meeting with Mrs. John Blanchfield and Mrs. Thomas Flohr as leaders, Mrs. Leonard Reifsnider and Mrs. James Coshun for Specials, and Mrs. Charles Devilbiss, Mrs. Arthur Clabaugh and Mrs. Vernon Schaffer as

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR HOMEMAKERS

Carroll County Homemakers Council president Mrs. Russell Frook of Westminster, and her sister Mrs. John Hyle of Frizellburg were guests of honor at the annual covered dish supper meeting of the Keysville-Detour Homemakers Club on June 22 at the home of Mrs. Edward Coshun near Detour.

Mrs. Frook drew the winning name for the scholarship to 4-H Camp from the letters received from members of Taneytown and Eager Beaver Girls' 4-H Clubs. Winner is Charlotte Ebaugh of the Taneytown Club with Sherrie Coshun of the Eager Beavers as alternate.

The lesson "Fit As A Fiddle" was given by Mrs. Alice Reifsnider. She stressed physical fitness, well balanced meals, plenty of sleep and exercise. She also told of a number of isometric exercises that are good for muscle tone.

Pennies for Friendship were collected, contributions to be made to the 4-H Fair in July were listed, a nominating committee of Mrs. Charles Null, chairman; Mrs. Ralph Haines and Mrs. Robert Stone was appointed, the nominees Mrs. Thomas Hughes for vice president and Mrs. James Gartland for treasurer for the Council were discussed and a decision to order 100 copies of the Voter's Guide for distribution by members was made.

Lobby Coshun, daughter of the hostess, played two piano solos, "Grandfather Clock" and "Down in the Valley." Mrs. Harold Thomas and Mrs. William Fleharty, who attended Short Course for one day, along with Mrs. Frook told of their experiences and Mrs. Charles Stonesifer gave a report on the Defensive Driving Course she recently completed.

"My wife always lets me have the last word," exulted the husband of two months.

"Huh!" snorted a seasoned oldtimer, "just wait until you run out of compliments, young feller!"

WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS GAIN READERS

Weekly newspapers in the United States experienced a 50 per cent increase in circulation from 1953 through 1964, the latest year for which figures are available, according to the 1966 National Directory of Weekly Newspapers, published last month by American Newspaper Representatives, Inc. According to the 1965 directory, in 1953 8,400 weeklies had a total circulation of 17.3 million. The 1966 directory lists for 1964 some 8,000 weeklies (including triweeklies and semiweeklies) with combined circulation of 26 million.

Our weekly award for the sign-of-the-week goes to the placard in a Sarasota (Fla.) parking lot: "If you park here, there will be a toe charge."

COUNTY BUILDING PERMIT CHANGE ANNOUNCED

Effective July 1, 1966, the County Commissioners have asked that the present county building permit received from the Supervisor of Assessments only be issued at such time as the Health Department permit and Zoning Certificate have been approved. Likewise, a building permit notice will be issued and must be posted on any new building or addition during construction on permits issued after July 1.

The regulation applies to all building whether in an incorporated town or in the county proper. Incorporated towns will be notified of permits which are granted for town properties in order that town records can be coordinated.

The County Commissioners have asked that all persons desiring a building permit without delay to clear all obligations with the Health Department. If health or zoning regulations have not been met, no permit can be mailed under the new regulations.

It was pointed out that the only new aspect which has been adopted is the posting of a building permit notice and the withholding of the actual permit until all agencies have given the approval under their respective jurisdiction.

The blonde next door says a lot of young girls just starting to work would be better off if they'd always act their wage.

NORTH PREVAILS IN ALL-STAR TILT

Glen Herring Scores Winning Run on Wild Pitch

The largest crowd in recent years saw the South Penn League All-Star game at Memorial Park on Sunday as the North defeated the South, 6-5. In the sixth frame, Glen Herring singled, went to second and third on successive walks and rode home when losing pitcher Joe Keffer of Brush-town threw a pitch over the head of Fred Murren the catcher. Dick Pitzer and John Harner then proceeded to handcuff the South batsmen the final five innings.

For the Taneytown Tigers, Morgan Storey was the starting pitcher and ★ Shines in All-Star game ★

Morgan Storey

Jimmy Myers opened in center field. Both covered themselves with glory. Morgan went the first three innings with five strikeouts and allowed two earned runs. Jimmy Myers batted in two runs and later scored himself. Congratulations to Jimmy and Morgan, who proved that they were indeed "all-stars."

With half the regular season now completed, we present the batting averages of the team (based on at least 15 at bats):

★ Leading Hitter ★

Arvin Bollinger .392

Table of batting averages for the team, including names like Graham Wildasin, Jimmy Myers, Brett Fleagle, Neal Hoffman, etc.

There are quite a few surprises in the batting averages. But the deficiencies, we hope, can be cured during the second half of the year when the Tigers start their "pennant drive." A few wins can work wonders with a weak batting average.

Little League Rule - This is a continuation of last week's rule: When a base runner leaves his base before the pitched ball has reached the batter and the batter does not hit the ball, the runner is permitted to continue. If a play is made on him and he is out, the out stands. If he reaches the next base safely, he must be returned to the base he occupied before the pitch was made, and no out results.

Schedule of Games

July 1 - Make-up Game
July 4 - All-Star Game
July 5 - Mets vs. Indians
July 6 - Orioles vs. Phillies
July 7 - Senators vs. Yankees
July 8 - Orioles vs. Mets

Attention: Little League Fans

If everything goes according to plans, the 4th of July at 6:30 P. M. the Taneytown Little League will play the All-Star game. So if you have not had the time to see the young boys of your community playing baseball try to see this game.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank my many friends, relatives and neighbors for their prayers, cards, visits and gifts while a patient at Warner Hospital and since my return home. Also thanks to Dr. Thompson and Dr. Baransky.

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports - John Breth

Everybody talks about the shrinking ranks of the 300 hitters and the complete absence of the .400 hitter in major league baseball and now comes JOE ADCOCK to discuss the .350 hitter.

Adcock, elder statesman first baseman of the California Angels, says: "They talk about the fact that nobody hits .400 but let's ask where the .350 hitter has gone. I'll tell you. The .350 hitter is disappearing because the pitchers pitch better to batters and the players play position baseball better. This is a game of specialists."

The record book confirms Adcock's observation about .350 hitters. Nobody has done it for five years. The last .350 batter in the American League was Norm Cash of Detroit who slugged away at a .361 clip to win the 1961 batting title in the league. Coincidentally, the last National League hitter to do .350 or better was Roberto Clemente who posted a .351 mark in that same year, 1961.

Adcock has been in the big leagues for 16 years and he believes that for the most part the ball players of today are better than the men who played 20 and 30 years ago.

He says that second baseman Bobby Knop of the Angels is the best keeper of the keystone he has ever seen and even rates him over Red Schoendienst who played alongside Joe in Milwaukee.

Adcock is not afraid to speak his mind and insists Tony Oliva of Minnesota is the best all-around ball player in the American League. He also claims that Sam McDowell of Cleveland, sore arm and all, is the best pitcher in the league.

The other players on the California club often come to Adcock for advice on what to do about certain pitchers. Joe has a reputation as a "guess hitter" - that is, one who guesses what a pitcher will throw and sets himself for it - but he tells the youngsters on the Angels to forget about guessing. He tells them that will come with experience.

Joe is a serious student of baseball and one of his observations is that catchers often follow a pattern.

He recalls, "I remember one catcher who had the same sequence, fast ball, then a change-up. He did that to me twice in one game. The third time up I let the fast ball go by, then set myself for the change-up. I hit it out of the park."

Joe admits that sometimes you get a home run when you're not really trying for it. In a recent game with Minnesota Joe came up against relief pitcher Al Worthington in a tight spot. There were two men on base and the Twins set a defense for Adcock that left a big hole between first and second. Worthington brushed him back with the first pitch and Joe guessed the second would be on the outside corner.

It was Joe that punched it between first and second to take advantage of the hole there. He did that right on the nose and it went over the right center field fence for a three-run homer.

There's nothing like the combination of brains and brawn when luck is added in for good measure.

A lot of the rookies trying to win jobs on NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE teams this year will arrive in camp well toughened up from the two All-Star games on the summer calendar.

Forty of the NFL rookies will play on the College All-Star squad that will meet the Green Bay Packers in the annual Charity Game in Chicago on August 5. Twenty-two of that number also will have played in the Coaches Association All-American game in Atlanta on July 9, along with 14 others who will not play in Chicago.

Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys says, "We believe you can't draft defensive backs. What you do is draft top athletes and hope." The Cowboys have two defensive backfield candidates this year in Kelly Pete of Wichita State and Jeff Congdon of Brigham Young; both were basketball backcourt men. One of the top Dallas defenders, Cornell Green, also was a basketball star in college.

The quarterback of the St. Louis Cardinals, Charley Johnson, says he is fully recovered from the surgery performed on his left shoulder. Johnson was bothered by a shoulder ailment in the last two months of the 1965 season. Despite the fact that it was his left shoulder and he throws with his right arm, Charlie insists that his range was limited to 35 yards at the end of the season.

The Baltimore Colts apparently fit their linebackers into a groove. They have six veterans at that position and three of them, Dennis Gaudatz, Ted Davis and Mike Curtis, weigh in at 232 pounds. Mike Strofolino is 230. Steve Stonebraker and Don Shinnick go 228.

Here are some quick quotes from pro football people: From Lou Groza, the 42-year-old placekicker of the Cleveland Browns: "I still call football fun. I'll stay around as long as they'll have me."

The other side of the coin from Vince Lombardi, coach of the Packers: "Football is a game of violence, a smart game. It requires sacrifice, dedication and self-denial."

From Tommy Furlong, the soccer-style place-kicker from Ireland who will try out with the Atlanta Falcons: "I'm not too well versed in the technical part of American football but I know enough to kick and handle myself out there. Not all my kicks go through the goal posts but then nobody kicks perfectly all the time."

Today's Sport Laugh - The big tight end of the Buffalo Bills, Ernie Warlick, often is asked what size football shoes he wears. Warlick often has this reply: "I wear a 12, but a 13 feels so comfortable I buy a 14."

BELLS on Independence Day!

This year there will be many four-year-old Americans ringing bells on July Fourth, who will grow up believing that this was always the custom. Actually it was, from the first Independence Day till about a century ago when the sounds of peace were drowned out by the noise of war, and the day became celebrated only with firecrackers and rockets.

Writing a book called The Seasons of America Past a few years ago, the author unearthed the story about Independence Day bell-ringing, and he mentioned that "it seems with firecrackers disappearing we might well revive that early American custom." The idea quickly took hold and, supported by organizations and churches and newspapers, it reached millions of people. In 1963 it was passed in Washington as Senate Concurrent Resolution 25, requesting that all American bells, public and private, church, school, fire, college and town bells ring simultaneously at 2 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time on July Fourth. Some places now ring bells for two minutes, others for four minutes, along with many radio, TV programs, and even public loudspeakers in parcs, race-tracks, ball games and on ships at sea.

For the past three years the "Bells on Independence Day" project has been included in Governors' Fourth of July Proclamations, and this holiday which was losing much of its solemn significance, was rekindled into a day of bells ringing out America's birthday, just as it was in the beginning. It has been said that a thing must be done four times before it becomes a habit, so this fourth year, for the revival of the early American custom of ringing bells on Independence Day, is a most important one. Perhaps there will be no great bells within reach of your hearing, perhaps you will seem to be the only one ringing a small handbell; but you will know that all over the nation in every state, millions of bells will be ringing out the message of democracy and liberty.

A safer and less noisy pastime for children, let them ring bells on this day, proclaiming it America's Birthday. And wherever we are, let us remember this greatest of American days with joy and reverence.

After The Game Is Over

When the youngsters troop into the house after ball practice, their first port of call is apt to be the kitchen for something to drink. Many mothers have taken to keeping a jar of instant tea on the kitchen counter, so the kids can fix their own thirst-quenchers. Iced tea is an ideal between-meal beverage because it's non-sweet, non-filling and won't take away appetites for the nourishing foods needed at mealtimes. And because the instant powder dissolves instantly in cold tap water, iced tea is a do-it-yourself drink even for tyros in the kitchen. There's no need to boil water... no need to brew. A spoonful of instant tea dissolves instantly in cold tap water. Or if you prefer you can make up a pitcherful and have it ready for the thirsty gang. For this, use about two tablespoons of the instant powder for each quart of water. And better see that the cookie jar is full, too.

Raisin Cookies

Drop by tablespoons on lightly greased cookie sheet. Bake in hot (400° F) oven for about 10 minutes or until crusty to touch. Remove from sheet and cool on rack.

4-H'ers KEEP UP WITH ZOOMING POULTRY INDUSTRY

Consumption of poultry products is expected to take another jump this year as pork and beef production declines, according to statements made at the recent Junior Poultry and Egg Fact Finding Conference at Kansas City, Mo.

Among the young delegates about the steady growth and attending the 13th annual event expansion of the industry were 4-H Club and FFA members in the last two decades. Hebers chosen for their top poultry projects.

They held their own clinics, National 4-H Club Congress at Chicago. heard expert poultrymen and toured the vast display of equipment used in the $6 billion poultry industry.

Heisdorf & Nelson Farms, Inc., of Kirkland, Wash., sponsor for the fifth straight year of the national 4-H Poultry program, was one of the exhibitors. Representing the world-wide hatcheries was A. L. Carter, assistant manager of the franchise department.

Mr. Carter talked to the young visitors about careers in the industry. Among the challenging fields, he said, are genetics, nutrition, veterinary science and teaching.

Successful careers also can be found in advertising, transportation, engineering, marketing and accounting, he added, for farm youth who plan to earn their livelihood off the farm.

Arthur Heisdorf, president, also has talked to 4-H members

Forty-four states and Puerto Rico were represented. Mr. Heisdorf presented $500 scholarships to three girls and three boys for having the best 4-H Poultry projects in the entire nation.

Next October six more top 4-H'ers will be named for school-wide hatcheries, and will be guests of Heisdorf & Nelson at the 1966 4-H Congress. Others will win trips, too, and some 5,000 younger club members will claim county medals of honor.

Projects may be started any time. Some require very little space since they involve only eggs or chicks.

Parents wishing to enroll their children in the 4-H Poultry program, or parents wishing to become poultry club leaders are urged by the Co-operative Extension Service to contact their County Extension office.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Union
Sunday School Lessons
BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE
Divine "Therefore"
Lesson for July 3, 1966

Background Scripture: Exodus 20:1, 2; Leviticus 19:1-5; Joshua 24:19-24; Hosea 11:1-4; John 14:8-15; Hebrews 11:1-4.
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 51:1-6a, 12-13c.

"... Because it's the law."
"... The Bible says so."
"... It is immoral."
"... But society expects..."

None of these, we are told, carry much weight any more. There is a rising tide of human demand for the abolition of the "old" morality and the installation of a "new" one.

What will be the basis of this "new" morality? Presumably, that which is "natural." The assumption seems to be, "If it's natural, it's got to be good!"

This was the reasoning of a man who recently wrote a letter to the editor of The New York Times. He proposed an end to all barriers, both legal and moral, prohibiting pre-marital sexual relations. "It is unnatural to ask our youth to wait," he said. "What two people do together in their own privacy should be no one else's affair."

Another recent proposal that appeared in the newspapers came from a prominent municipal official who advocated that habit-forming drugs be sold openly to narcotic addicts, thus ending the illegal traffic in drugs and "eliminating the immoral element." The basis: "If they want to use drugs, that's their business."

CART BEFORE HORSE

Apart from these radical protests against the "old" morality, there are also the ever-present, if considerably less vigorous protests in our own homes, our own neighborhoods, our own communities. One cannot help but conclude that the protests against the old rules are in reality a protest against all rules.

This is hardly a new state of affairs in human history. It is the same dilemma that has faced man down through the centuries.

For one thing, we tend to put the cart before the horse. We persist in thinking of law as the master, when in reality it is meant to be the servant.

WHY OF 'THEREFORE'

God did not come to Moses, tapping him on the shoulder and saying:

"Hello there; my name is God and I have here a list of ten rules that I want you and your people to obey."

No, what God did say was, "I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage." Therefore: "You shall have no other gods before me." Before God ever came with his "Thou shalt's" and "Thou shalt not's," he first acted on Israel's behalf, freeing them from the slavery of the Pharaoh. Only when he had first done that did he finally say: "Therefore, this is what I require of you..."

Therefore, "Thou shalt" relationship is the real basis for laws, rules, and commandments. There are certain expectations that govern the relationship between parent and child, between husband and wife, between citizen and community, between Creator and creature.

THERE IS PURPOSE

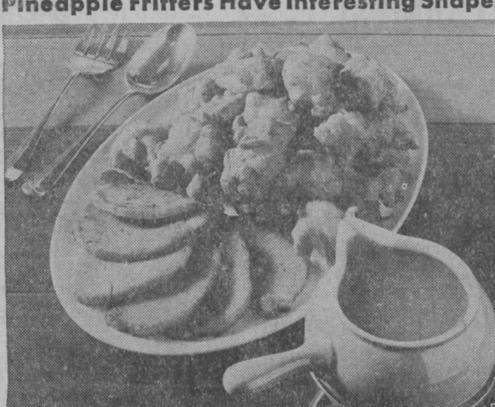

How does this change our perspective in regard to moral law? It means that God is not an overbearing tyrant who enjoys making people "toe the mark." His commandments are not the result of a "divine irritability" that just doesn't "like" or "tolerate" certain things. Behind his requests there is, not personal whim or caprice, but purpose.

Though we may not always understand that purpose, we will respond to him as the Father who created us, as the gracious Savior who redeems us, the divine Spirit by whose power we live, and remembering what he has done and is doing and anticipating what he will do, we respond, not out of dull submission, but in loving and grateful obedience. His right to command us with the divine "therefore" is founded upon who he is; our Father.

Pineapple Fritters Have Interesting Shapes

— Pineapple Growers Association Photo
Serve hot and handsome pineapple fritters with Canadian bacon for a very special breakfast. Juicy canned pineapple tidbits go into a classic batter. As the fritters fry to a golden brown they take on interesting shapes. Use the pineapple syrup as the base of the butter rich maple sauce to serve with them.
PINEAPPLE FRITTERS
2 eggs
1/4 cup milk
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cup sifted flour
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 (13 1/2-ounce) can pineapple tidbits
2 teaspoons cornstarch
1/2 cup maple syrup
1 tablespoon butter
Combine egg yolks, milk and lemon. Add to flour resifted with sugar, baking powder and salt stirring only until smooth. Beat egg whites stiff, but not dry. Drain pineapple, saving syrup. Fold beaten whites and pineapple into batter. Make 16 fritters by dropping tablespoons of batter into hot deep fat (375 degrees F.). Fry until golden brown on one side; turn to brown other side. Meanwhile mix together cornstarch with remaining 1 tablespoon sugar and reserved pineapple syrup. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until thickened and clear. Add maple syrup and butter. Serve with fritters. Makes 4 servings.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

TOO SICK TO WORK?

As a result of a stroke, Mary suffered permanent disability in one hand. This made it impossible for her to carry on her usual job in a textile mill. So she put in a claim for disability benefits under the federal Social Security Act.

However, her claim was turned down. Reason: she was still able to perform other jobs in the mill which were open to her.

Generally speaking, the Social Security Act does provide monthly cash payments to an eligible workman with a long term disability. The purpose is to "bridge the gap" until he is old enough to collect retirement benefits.

But when is a person sufficiently disabled to qualify for aid? The law seeks to help those truly in need, yet not those who in all fairness could still earn their own living.

Thus, you ordinarily cannot collect benefits if your handicap is one that could be remedied with a reasonable exercise of will power.

In one case a man was suffering from back pains, too severe to allow him to work. However, it appeared that his condition could be greatly improved if he would diet of some excess poundage.

Under these circumstances, a court held that he was not disabled in the sense that the law meant—and therefore he did not qualify for disability payments.

Another rule, illustrated by Mary's case above, is that you are not disabled merely because you can no longer do exactly the same job you have done in the past. The law expects you to take an alternative job, if you are fitted for it.

On the other hand, the law does not expect you to seek work beyond your capacities. For example:

A workman, forced by injuries to give up manual labor, was still physically able to do clerical work at a desk. But he had neither the education nor the experience for it. Therefore, a court held him sufficiently disabled to qualify for benefits.

Nor must you seek a kind of work which you could do only at the cost of grievous pain and effort. As one judge put it, the law should not be applied so sternly that it would aid only the "totally helpless and bedridden" and "those at death's door."

REMINDER TO FARMERS OF CONSERVING-USE PROVISIONS

Farmers who have signed up to take part in one or more of the 1966 diversion programs—feed grains, or wheat—were cautioned not to forget about the conserving-acreage provisions of those programs.

Gary R. Brauning, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, explains that a farmer participating in the diversion programs agrees to devote an amount of acreage to conserving uses which is equal to the farm's normal base acreage in such uses in addition to the acreage signed up for diversion under each 1966 program.

For instance, if the farmer signed up in both the feed grain and the wheat program, he would need to devote to conserving uses all of the land diverted under both programs in addition to his conserving base. Even though he is producing his full allotment and is not earning a diversion payment, any farmer participating in the wheat program sets aside diverted acreage at least equal to 15 per cent of his 1966 allotment. (This reflects the farm's proportionate share of the difference between the 1966 national allotment and 55 million acres.)

Feed grain producers who have bases of more than 25 acres divert 20 per cent of the farm base without payment under program agreements.

Failure to meet the conserving-use or any other provision of the program could mean loss of all or a substantial part of the program payments for the crop-price-support loans and payments, wheat marketing certificates, and diversion payments.

PTA SUMMER CONFERENCE

The Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers will hold their Summer Conference at Hood College in Frederick on Wednesday, July 6, and Thursday, July 7. The Carroll County Council of PTA will be the host county.

This annual training program of the Maryland Congress opens on Wednesday with a discussion on PTA County Councils and the value of the PTA manual. On Wednesday afternoon, Dr. John Carnochan, Superintendent of the Frederick County Schools, will speak on "The Relationship of School Administrations to PTA Councils." Following his talk there will be a session on "How Councils and Local PTA's Relate to Each Other."

Thursday morning, July 7, Dr. Edgar Fuller, Executive Secretary, Council of Chief State School Officers, will speak on "Critical Issues in Our Democracy," which is the National PTA Action program for 1965-68. This will be followed on "How Does a Council Handle These Critical Issues?" The conference closes Thursday afternoon with an open hearing on the State Structure.

Mrs. Jean Colburn, president of the Carroll County Council is anxious that each local PTA president or his representative and members of the Carroll County Council PTA Executive Committee make a special effort to attend all or portions of the Summer Conference. This is an excellent training workshop for PTA leaders and this year the program is emphasizing the County Council structure and purpose. Mrs. Colburn has a Planning Committee appointed to steer the responsibilities of being the host county for Summer Conference.

Minister: "Ah, good morning, Mrs. Brown. I see you are taking a tramp into the country."

Mrs. Brown: "A tramp indeed! I'll have you know this is my husband."

FIREWORKS LAW WARNING

Fireworks of all types are capable of causing injury, State Fire Marshal J. C. Robertson has warned. He emphasized that even small fireworks such as sparklers and cracker balls have caused serious injuries, especially to children.

Maryland is fortunate in having the Model Fireworks Law in effect, Robertson stated. This law, which is enacted in states containing two-thirds of our country's population, prohibits the possession, sale or use of fireworks without a display permit from the State Fire Marshal's Office. Only paper caps for toy pistols are considered legal without such a permit. Permits are issued for public and private displays after certain safety requirements are met.

Law enforcement agencies should be advised of fireworks vendors operating in the State. Such individuals often make street sales to children. In most cases these individuals are also violating Federal statutes by transportation of fireworks across state lines into a state where they are illegal, the Fire Marshal's Office advised.
