Mr. and Mrs. John Mabe of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, and children visited their parents last week; also, Mr. Glenn Mabe of Edenton, N.C.

Mrs. Elmer Vanfossen, Uniontown Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rice and Mrs. Humbert Rice of Carlisle were sightseeing recently in central Florida.

Dr. and Mrs. Francisco Japzon and children left August 4 from Dulles International Airport, Washington, D.C., for an extended trip to Honolulu, Tokyo and the Philippines.

Those who spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hiltner were Mrs. Sam Hurley, Richmond, Va., Mr. Jack Hesley and daughter Joanne and Mrs. Myrtle Hesley, Dressher, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haines and children, Louise, Wayne and Craig moved last week to their new home at 3 Fairfax St., Berryville, Va. Mr. Haines has accepted new employment at this location.

Group 5 of the Lutheran Church Women will meet 7:30, Wednesday evening, August 10, at the Memorial Park, weather permitting. Each one is asked to bring their latest issue of the Lutheran.

The Francis Scott Key Council, 107 Daughters of America will meet Friday, August 12 at 8:00 P. M. in the Ladies Auxiliary Hall. Deputy Marjorie Crouse will be present to install officers. All officers and members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Stella Koons Good, her daughter Mrs. Betty Traskos and three daughters Cheryl, Dawn and Gail of Detroit, Mich., spent last week visiting in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hahn and Mr. and Mrs. A. Zolickoff and other relatives and friends in the vicinity.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Taneytown Volunteer Fire Co. will hold a covered dish supper at 6:30 P. M., August 11th, in the building at the carnival grounds. Everyone that helped the auxiliary during the carnival is invited to attend the supper as a guest of the Ladies Aux.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Speak, Kevin and Dawn, Joanne Barnhouse and Gary Staley visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duke in Charles Town, W. Va., on Sunday and picnicked in historical Harpers Ferry. The Dukes also took them on a delightful tour—this might make history more meaningful for the children—and saw John Brown's fort.

Last week Harold Blanchard, Taneytown R.D. 2, killed a copperhead snake, approximately three feet long, down by the Bull Frog Road bridge. It was afterward discovered that this particular snake was ready to give birth to about twenty-five young, so Harold is to be commended on performing a real service to this neighborhood.

Taneytown Jr.-Sr. H. S. Band will participate in the following in the coming week: this evening (Thurs.) in the Thurmont parade leaving the school by bus at 5:45 P. ## THE CHESAPEAKE & POTOMAC TELEPHONE COMPANY OF MARYLAND REPORTS

The board of directors of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Maryland has authorized, during the past 12 months, expenditures amounting to nearly $91,000, according to L. Mercer Smith, vice president.

This total includes $9,000,000 approved at the board's regular meeting on July 25.

To meet the continuing rapid growth in Baltimore County, about $760,000 was approved to aid dial switching equipment in the Pikesville and Randallstown dial centers.

For the company's Westminster district, approval was given to spend $632,000 to enlarge the dial switching center at Frederick and $294,000 to provide additional long distance voice channels in the section served by the Bel Air central office.

An expenditure of $413,000 for Annapolis was authorized for the provision of additional dial switching central office equipment to meet increasing demands for service in and around the state's capital.

In the fast growing Maryland area suburban to Washington, projects totaling more than $6,600,000 were authorized. To meet expanding customer demands for service, the board approved $1,250,000 to erect wire centers at Chillum which will serve portions of the Hyattsville, Riggs Rd., and Silver Spring areas and Norbeck to serve Colesville, Oakdale, and Wheaton customers. To install dial switching equipment in the new Wildwood and Montrose dial centers, $2,400,000 was allocated and about $3,000,000 was earmarked for the provision of additional call handling equipment in the Landover, Lanham and Suitland dial centers.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Speak, Kevin and Dawn, Joanne Barnhouse and Gary Staley visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duke in Charles Town, W. Va., on Sunday and picnicked in historical Harpers Ferry. The Dukes also took them on a delightful tour—this might make history more meaningful for the children—and saw John Brown's fort.

1966 WHEAT PROGRAM PAYMENTS BEING MADE

Wheat farmers who have participated in the 1966 Wheat Program have begun getting program payments according to Gary R. Brauning, Chairman, Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, 33 Court Street, Westminster. One draft is made to each participant, covering both marketing certificates and diversion payments where these apply.

As directed by law, the certificates are valued at $1.32 per bushel—the difference between parity as of July 1 ($1.32 per bushel) and the national average price-support loan rate of $1.25 per bushel. They are based on the projected production of the planted wheat acreage up to 45 per cent of the farm wheat allotment. This is the participating farm's estimated share of the wheat crop needed for domestic food use.

In total, these wheat certificates and acreage diversion payments are estimated at about $21,000.00 for the 65 county participants in the 1966 program. The payments will raise returns from the 1966 wheat crop substantially. Farmers participating in the wheat program are also eligible for loans averaging $1.46 per bushel in the county on their entire 1966 wheat production except any excess wheat stored under bond.

The diversion payments to winter wheat growers were announced last fall before world famine conditions worsened, but growers were encouraged wherever possible not to reduce their acreage below the farm allotment.

Producers who are participating in both the Wheat Program and Feed Grain Program, will be paid at a later date, or as soon as compliance under Feed Grain Program is completed.

OBSERVATIONS ON 4-H FAIR

The youngsters at the Fair, held at the Ag Center recently, are to be congratulated for their efforts. A lot of work goes into getting ready for the Fair.

I volunteered my services for a few hours last Tuesday and worked from noon until 10 P. M. The reason I felt I couldn't leave before was due to the shortage of help. This little restaurant was the only place on the grounds for the children to get anything to eat.

If the Homemakers' Club would each have sent only one woman, what a difference it would have made!

The Westminster Club was represented with one very nice lady and I think Taylorsville was represented by two ladies (who stayed for a few hours).

I had the privilege of working with a very sweet young lady from the state of New York that day. (She just might be a future Miss America.) She was visiting here in Maryland and volunteered her services. What sort of an opinion do you think she will take home with her? She said in her state the people are more willing to help out. They have a planned schedule to follow more or less. They may select the hours they prefer to work but must work a certain amount of hours.

Someone has said "anything worth doing is worth doing well," and to do it well requires a little extra effort on the part of the person giving the service.

A lot of faces were beginning to look familiar as the day went on. (One nice little boy even asked me if he could treat me to anything in the restaurant as a reward for my services for that day.) How many grown-ups would have thought of that?

In fact on the way to Westminster I had a flat tire and had to sit and wait for someone to come out from a service station and fix it for me. A lady across the road had called for me and they said it would be at least 30 minutes before they could come to my aid. Now in all that time of all the cars that flew by not one of them had enough time to stop and ask if they could help or send help. We are living in too fast a world. But help finally did come and it was a day well spent.

Next year though, let's try to do a better job of club representation. The donations were even a little slow. (Maybe due to the dry year.)

Faith, even the size of a grain of mustard seed, might be all that would be needed to get us over our fear of so many dry years right straight in a row.

JAMES FAIR REPORTS LUTHERAN BROTHERHOOD BUSINESS INCREASE

New gains were made by Lutheran Brotherhood, fraternal insurance society, during the first six months of 1966.

James Henry Fair, 302 E. Baltimore St., Taneytown, said that Lutheran Brotherhood had 32.6 per cent more life insurance business in the first six months of 1966 than during the same period last year. Mr. Fair is a district representative for the Minneapolis-based fraternal insurance society.

Lutheran Brotherhood recorded $182,088.586 of life insurance issued and paid for in the first six months of this year. This represented an increase of $44,816,644 or 32.6 per cent over the first half of last year.

As of June 30 the society, which offers life and health insurance to Lutherans, had a total of $2,543,984.23 of life insurance in force and assets in excess of 357 million dollars. Lutheran Brotherhood has an extensive fraternal activities program designed to help develop cultural, educational and esthetic line of Lutheran congregations, their agencies and communities in which they are located.

Commenting on the business increase, Carl F. Granrud, chairman of the board of directors and chief executive of Lutheran Brotherhood, commended the society's field force for setting a new dynamic pace in growth.

Mr. Granrud pointed out that this is especially noteworthy at a time when the fraternal insurance society is beginning its golden anniversary observance. Lutheran Brotherhood was organized at a Lutheran Church merger convention in 1917.

HAHN'S OF WESTMINSTER BUYS GRAND CHAMPION 4-H, FFA STEER

The Grand Champion Steer of the Carroll County 4-H, FFA Fair, a 1010-lb. Angus shown by Linda Carlson, Rte. 2, Sykesville, was sold to Hahn's of Westminster for $1.05 per pound in the First Annual Carroll County 4-H, FFA Beef Sale. Fifteen steers were sold by auctioneers Jack Reedy and Tom Matthews of Hampstead to seven area buyers.

Hahn's of Westminster bought one other steer in addition to the Grand Champion Steer of the Show. Dutton's of Manchester bought two Hereford steers; Safeway Stores bought one Angus, two Hereford, and one Shorthorn steer; W. W. Will Eldersburg bought two Angus and one Shorthorn steer; Shadle & Harner, Littlestown, Penna. bought one Angus steer; Bullock's Country Meats of Westminster bought one Hereford steer; and Acme Markets bought one Angus and one Hereford steer.

Teacher — What inspired the old-time pioneers to set forth in their covered wagons?

Student — Well, maybe they didn't want to wait about thirty years for a train.

If we do not cut the peace pattern right we will have scraps.

MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Mayor and City Council was held on Monday evening at 7:30 P. M., with all members present.

The Clerk-Treasurer reported $3,871.25 in the General Account and $2,993.69 in the Parking Meter Account.

Officer Graybill reported 83 Parking Violations, Officer Boone reported 15 State Summons, 8 Warnings, 2 Warrants and 1 Accident.

Residents living in 3-hour parking zones are reminded that windshield stickers are required and can be obtained at the City Office.

The Street Committee presented their Street Program for bids and it will be announced publicly as soon as it is determined how much work can be financially undertaken.

An addition to the bath house at the Swimming Pool was discussed. The filtration system should be enclosed and additional storage space is needed. It was decided to move the fence parallel with the tennis courts back using this fencing to serve as one side to both the swimming pool and tennis courts. Funds for this work will come out of the Swimming Pool Account.

Organizations and individuals of Taneytown are urged to consider the project of completing the fencing around the Tennis Courts. The Jaycees are in the process of placing all necessary equipment for basketball and tennis.

One delegation was present.

MEETING OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

The regular meeting of the Board of Education of Carroll County for the month of July was held at 9:30 A. M. on July 27 in the Board Room of the County Administration Building. Mr. DeVries R. Hering, president, presided. In attendance were: Mr. Thomas A. Raver, vice president; Mr. Neal Powell, Mr. Robert Haight and Mrs. Virginia Minnick, the newest Board member named to succeed Mr. Nathan Weinstein, who did not seek reappointment. Mr. L. Pearce Bowlus, attorney, was in attendance.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Bills and financial statements were examined, evaluated and approved. The following resignations were accepted: Mary E. McLawhorn, Mrs. Joan T. Hamilton, Mrs. Molly O. Brown, Mrs. Olive P. Murdy, D. Susan Unterberg, Naomi B. Kinzer, Mrs. Doris M. Nickoles, John I. Saboura, Ralph Ireland, Jr., Mrs. Edith B. Kelso, J. Griffith Atkinson, Robert C. Green, Mrs. Jane B. Hunter, Mrs. Mary K. Mackley, Frederick L. Martin, Randolph L. Davis, Roy D. Miller, William F. Makinson, Lawson Wright and George W. Slade. The resignations of Mrs. Bethel Buchanan, secretary in the central office, and Wayne K. Million, custodian at the North Carroll School, were also accepted.

It was noted by Superintendent George E. Thomas that, during the month of July, resignations of teachers showed a greater importance for financial gain for teachers transferring to other systems in the State.

Contracts were awarded to the following professional employees: Mrs. Betty Saltmarsh, Mrs. Emma Bartholomew, Karen Carbaugh, Robert Laken, Xenia Warf, Lucille B. Nichols, Andrew B. Leo, Patrick A. Offutt, Jean E. Bowers, Susan C. Crain, Karen B. McClung, Nancy M. Griesmeyer, Elizabeth J. Bernos, Mary M. Aist, Mary H. DeMonte, William K. Brown, Jr., Carolyn K. Kniesley, Nancy W. Miller, Winifred H. Harrison, Julia T. Hitchcock, Woodrow R. Sierensen, II, William J. McKenna, George H. Harman, Jr., Helen R. Gaither, Charles R. Hatfield, Shirley M. Mussari, Patricia W. Reisberg, Patricia A. Morrison, Joseph D. Mish, Jr., Dixie W. Woodbury, Dianne Petrovich, David V. Crock, Catherine T. Raum, Stephen M. Held, Jestina M. Held, Corrine H. Simmons, Sharon F. Coale, James F. McGettigan, Elza M. Hoffman.

Superintendent Thomas commented on the preponderance of fully-certificated teachers in the contracts awarded. He also indicated that, barring unexpected recommendations, approximately six positions in grades 1-2 exist in the school system.

Contracts were awarded to the following: central office staff, Mrs. Kasandrea P. Ellis, Mrs. Madeline Irvin and Miss Shirley Feeser; custodians, Larry E. Dorsey, Angelo DeRita, Willie Wilson; maintenance, C. Ivan Seipp and Leonard F. Rogers. Salary modifications as required by certificate status changes, etc., were approved.

The Board also approved a modified salary schedule for student employees in the Book Repair Shop and for the manager of the shop. Mr. Philip Lawyer, President of the Carroll County Teachers Association, (Continued on Page 8)

SIGNS OF THE SEASON IN THE COUNTRY

A goldfinch, bright as any sunbeam, feeding on the thistle.
Our dogs, barking excitedly at a groundhog.
The tiniest kitten, chasing a butterfly.
Queen Anne's Lace, blooming profusely despite the drought.
Family reunions, going on at a lively pace.
Tanned swimmers, plunging into the cool depths of the Taneytown Community Pool.
Robins, singing until every bit of daylight is gone.
Fireflies, lighting their evening lamps over the countryside.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

How beautiful the night at the "Dell" which was the very first cool evening after the hot spell as many sat and listened to the delightful numbers played by the Municipal Band with Leigh Martinet as the leader. Never have I seen as demonstrative, expressive and graceful a leader anywhere and I have seen: Damrosch, Victor Herbert, Thomas with the Philadelphia orchestra, (my cousin, John Philip (de) Sousa, and many others.

There were hundreds right there, not alone those sitting in the chairs, but so many on the grass that it all was fascinating. The musicians, too, were properly attired in black trousers, white shirts and small black bow ties. The entire atmosphere was delightful! Then, there was a "Sing Along" which the public always enjoys, especially with those old songs which are known best such as: "I Want A Girl," "Take Me Out To The Ball Game," "The Band Played On," "A Bicycle Built for Two," "Oh, You Beautiful Doll," "In The Good Old Summer Time," "Wait Till the Sun Shines Nellie," "In The Light of the Silvery Moon," "Row, Row, Row," and many others.

How wonderful the sermon entitled, "God is Not Dead," by the assistant minister, Dr. Haddaway, last Sunday morning at the Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Church. Hope you did not miss it on radio as it was a direct broadcast. If you would like a copy, you may write to the church.

A lovely letter arrived from Germany where a friend is stationed with pictures of the Castle in Nuremberg. In fact that is the name of it, built by Emperor Kanrod 1. They are lights in this castle all night and visitors are allowed. The place where my friends are is called "Volgelweh," "Vogel" means "Birds" and "weh" means "Way" and so it was called, "BIRDSWAY." They visited the Castle, too of Tufels which has a very long history and was the home of Emperors of Germany many years ago. The original fortress was built in the 10th Century. Richard, the Lion-Hearted, King of England was held there for the reason when he returned from the Crusades. It has all been restored. It was built right on top of a mountain in the forest and the beautiful country side all around. Right now the letter reads the country side is pretty and green and the Germans keep their fields very neat and clean. They are lovers of plants and flowers—as every home boasts of flower boxes in their windows. The Germans enjoy the outdoors so much and you often see many of them out walking in the forests and countryside every chance they get. Rain has been plentiful there.

How awful the Plane Strike! Trains and busses are doing a land office business but there have been thousands disappointed as to Foreign places for their vacations. They say that Hawaii and Miami have been the hardest hit!

As to dresses, ladies for the Fall, the designers are trying to lengthen them to just below the knee but England objects!

Camel's hair coats are slowly sneaking in and years ago they were worn just about everywhere in dyed colors and were most substantial lasting for many a winter. So many women have had their hair cut off very short for the summer. I, for one realize it is much cooler.

Don't forget if you have guests, take them down to see, "The Sound of Music" — it is the very best picture on the screen — ever!

How dry everything is! Driving up to Harford County yesterday, the corn appears ready to drop over. The prices will keep soaring in all the food stores!

Have a grand week-end, Folks and if your teen-ager is not a careful driver, don't turn over the wheel for they surely are killing themselves and others, too! I have kept newspapers from the January 1, 1966, and it is truly frightening at the amount of their deaths for they love to speed.

Until next week, D. V.
I am,
Faithfully yours,
Irene deLeon Love.

Jaycette News

The initial meeting under the new administration was held at Memorial Park Wednesday, July 27, at 7:30 P. M.

A new and exciting plan of action was submitted for the coming year. Coming events were discussed, such as: family picnic at Memorial Park, August 11, at 6:30 P. M.; Miss Maryland Ball, Sept. 24, at Frock's Sunnybrook Farm; Charter Night in November.

A cordial invitation has been received from the Senior Citizens to attend a covered dish supper and picnic. Jaycettes graciously accept this invitation, although those attending maybe fewer due to vacations.

After the business meeting, delicious refreshments were served by the new president, Mrs. Virginia Fream, and treasurer, Kathy Hawn. Since August is filled with extra activities, it has been decided to have the next club meeting September 21, 7:30 P. M., at Grain and Supply Co. building

EVERYBODY WORKS, BUT . . .

According to Washington, employment in the United States has never been higher. Industry is humming, lickety-split, everybody is hard at work in office and factory, farm and road, and the big problem is to find enough workers.

Still, there are some things we don't understand.

Reading the papers and listening to the radio and looking to right and left, it somehow seems that millions of Americans aren't working at all.
They're out on strike. This may mean steady work for negotiators and arbitrators, and it keeps a few toilers working on the picket lines.
But how does the Department of Labor classify the many who just sit and wait? Not to mention a lot of innocent bystanders who often have to stop working when a union goes on strike.

And what about all those people who seem to make a career out of trudging through the South congregating in the big cities to listen to demagogues, and squatting on college campuses getting and giving a "liberal" education? Are these people employed? But maybe demonstrating has now become an honored profession and is so considered by the Department of Labor in its statistics on our work force.

Then there are those demonstrators whose specialty is rioting. In view of the importance of their mission, to wreck cities while fighting off the police, they surely can't be expected to hold down regular jobs. Obviously they have to be on a standby basis, ready to man the barricades at the call of their captains and their commissars.

In an entirely different category is the group which prompted our thinking on this subject — the millions of people on the nation's highways any weekday. These people are going to or coming from work? In those costumes? With all those kids?
When do they work? And where?
Part-time, maybe—say on Sunday?
The writer of these lines has just returned from an emergency trip of 2,000 miles on the highways (no airplane seats available — strike you know) and concluded that the Department of Labor must classify fighting the traffic on the highways as work. It is.

And that, dear friends, must be why the employment figures look so good.

FACTS AND OPINIONS

Philip A. Fieger, chairman of the board and president of the Duquesne Light Company says, "... that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from this earth" has greater significance today than ever before. Just as we resist foreign sources that would destroy our freedom, we must also resist the apathy which would cause it to crumble from within . . ."

Nearly 275,000 pedestrians were injured and 9,000 were killed during 1965 in the United States, according to The Travelers Insurance Companies. This includes 300 persons who were injured while actually standing on a traffic safety isle.

William Howard Taft said "To obey the law is to support democracy. If every man thinks every law must suit him in order that he shall obey it, he does not support democracy but destroys it. The basis of good government lies in the fact that the people are willing to obey the law as they have determined it to be."

Since Orville Freeman took over as Secretary of Agriculture, Representative Howard Collier (R., Ill.) reports that the Department of Agriculture's personnel has increased 20 per cent from 98,894 to 117,481. The nation's farm population has decreased the same percentage, from 15.6 million to 12.3 million.

A consumer survey by the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association showed that while most people think prescription drugs cost too much, 82 per cent of those interview said their last prescription did a good job and 70 per cent said it was worth the cost.

Commenting on a possible tax increase, Representative William Windall (R., N.J.) said, "A tax increase, by itself, will not cut down on the demand for a limited supply of goods and services which is presently causing inflation. If the tax money is spent by the government, the only change will be that the government will decide what to buy and not the individual wage earner, who will still be faced with rising prices and even less income to spend. We need to cut back on government spending by setting program priorities."

The nation's 730 investor-owned gas companies have been extending their lines into previously unserved communities at a rate six times greater than government-owned systems, the American Gas Association reports.

As reported in The Wall Street Journal: "Though some people appear to forget it, the government's outlays give it both the right and the duty to oversee the money's use. . . . No matter how openhanded and unquestioning the government may say it is, sooner or later its hand is likely to become the firm fist of federal control."

According to Oil Facts, a publication of the American Petroleum Institute, federal, state and county governments have received $3.2 billion in bonuses, rentals and royalty payments in the past 45 years as a result of petroleum operations on federally-owned lands . . . royalty payments for oil and gas production on federal and Indian lands during 1965 alone were estimated by the Department of the Interior at $200 million, an all-time high.

A Simple Summer Treat

Glory be! No more sugar crunching under your feet. The favorite summer refreshment for the young set comes already sweetened. A brand-new flavor of Pre-Sweetened Kool-Aid soft drink mix, black cherry, dark and delicious as the fruit, will quench the thirst of every family member.

Keep the packages within easy reach of the little ones and let them do the honors. For a refreshing variation add some unsweetened fruit juice and create your own flavor combinations.

CHERRY-APPLE DELIGHT

- 1 envelope pre-sweetened black cherry instant soft drink mix
- 2 cups unsweetened apple juice
- 2 quarts water with ice cubes

Combine all ingredients, stirring until soft drink mix is dissolved.
Makes 2-1/2 quarts or 10 servings.

A Cool Party With Coffee Punch

Southern hostesses are known for their gracious hospitality—and with good reason. The spirit of "open house" is always in the air and the shady veranda is a standing invitation for refreshments and relaxation. The soft spoken hostess, just as if she's read your thoughts, places a cup of coffee or frosty punch in your hand. Soon you are at least ten degrees cooler and much, much happier.

Whether it's an improvised get-together when friends stop by or an elegantly planned community affair, hot humid days call for the thirst-quenching magic of Southern Coffee Punch. The secret of this delightfully refreshing drink is cool, deep-flavored coffee combined with vanilla ice cream.

With weddings and graduations cropping up, southern belles from Savannah to New Orleans will choose this coffee cooler for their buffet table. Incidentally, when it comes to partying most of us seem to be southerners at heart. If you're faced with warm weather entertaining, no matter where you may be, keep it cool with Southern Coffee Punch.

Southern Coffee Punch

- 2 quarts strong cold coffee
- 1 pint cold milk
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 quart vanilla ice cream
- 1/2 pint heavy cream, whipped
- Nutmeg

Combine cold coffee, milk, vanilla and sugar in large bowl. Stir until sugar is dissolved. Chill thoroughly. At serving time, pour over ice cream in punch bowl and top with whipped cream.
Sprinkle lightly with nutmeg. Makes 15 to 18 punch cup servings.

CURRENT EVENTS FIFTY YEARS AGO

Rev. and Mrs. L. B. Hafer left on Monday on a vacation of three weeks. There will be no church services, this Sunday.

Prof. Maurice S. H. Unger, the new superintendent of schools for Carroll County, attended the first meeting of the board, Wednesday and started upon his duties. He was headmaster of the Berkeley School of New York City.

The S. S. Institute held under the auspices of the Taneytown-Middleburg District S. S. Union last Sunday at Piney Creek and town Presbyterian churches, was in the opinion of many, the best ever held. The Sunday schools were well represented. Those elected to office for the following year are: Rev. S. R. Downie, president; Rev. Guy P. Brady, vice-president; J. A. Angell, sec.-treas.; Rev. L. B. Hafer, supt. Teacher Training. The Executive Committee advisory members are: Peter D. Koontz, Sr., Alfred Koontz and John S. Teeter.

(Advertisement) Operators Wanted! The Taneytown Shirt Co. has increased their plant to 40 machines, and need operators and learners on all parts. We pay you while learning. Operators can make from $3.00 to $6.00. Clean light and steady work all year around.

KEYSVILLE — Harry Clutz, wife and child of Harney, and Charles Clutz, wife and child, visited their parents, George Clutz and wife, Sunday . . . John Clutz and wife, and Raymond Ohler and wife, of Taneytown, spent Sunday with Oliver Newcomer and family. . . Thomas Wantz and wife, of Taneytown were callers at James Kiser's Sunday evening.

NUSBAUM - HUMBERT — The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley P. Humbert, near Silver Run, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Saturday, when their daughter, Ella A. and W. Elwood, youngest son of Charles E. Nusbaum were united in marriage by the bride's pastor, Rev. Luther Hoffman.

FOGLE — Mr. David Fogle, 84, an aged citizen of this district, near Otter Dale, died on Thursday, August 3, 1916. Funeral services on Monday at the Lutheran Church.

Quick Fresh Peach Dessert

Now is the time to take advantage of the fresh and juicy-sweet quality of the peaches at your local markets. One quick and easy way is with this fluffy cake topping. Made from Dream Whip Whipped Topping Mix and fresh peaches, it's ready to eat almost the minute it leaves the beaters. Served on top of commercial sponge or angel cake along with more sweetened sliced peaches, Fluffy Peach Topping becomes a special treat for after summer meals or as a between-meal snack.

Fluffy Peach Topping

2 cups sliced fresh peaches
1/4 cup sugar
1 envelope whipped topping mix
1/4 teaspoon almond extract
Sweetened sliced peaches (optional)

Combine peaches and sugar and let stand to form syrup. Drain peaches, measuring 1/4 cup syrup. Prepare whipped topping mix as directed on package, substituting almond extract for the vanilla called for on package. Fold in peaches and reserved syrup. Serve with wedges of commercial sponge or angel cake and additional sweetened sliced peaches, if desired. Makes about 3 cups topping.
Note: If desired, topping may be prepared in advance of serving and chilled in the refrigerator.

Sugar-Free

Chilled Chocolate Soufflé

For chocolate lovers, here's a majestic, eye-catching Chocolate Marble Soufflé that's deliciously sweet and rich-tasting, and at the same time is low in calories. A do-ahead dessert, this airy, delectable chilled soufflé is made early, served cold and glamorous hours later.

In keeping with the modern trend toward calorie-saving cookery, this diet-minded recipe has been calorie-streamlined to but a fraction of its usual calorie count. Calorie cutting is made easy through the use of the old calorie-free sweetener, Sucaryl, which replaces all of the sugar normally required in the recipe. Sweet result . . . more than 100 calories have been slashed from every serving.

Chocolate Marble Soufflé (Low-Calorie)

3 envelopes (or tablespoons) unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
8 eggs, separated
7 1/2 teaspoons Sucaryl solution

2 cups skim milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup cocoa
1/2 cup nonfat dry milk
1/2 cup ice water

Fasten a 6-inch band of aluminum foil around a 1 1/2 quart soufflé dish, allowing 4 inches to stand above top of dish. Soften gelatin in cold water. Combine egg yolks, Sucaryl, skim milk, and vanilla in top of a double boiler; blend well. Cook over hot water, stirring occasionally, until thick. Remove from heat; add softened gelatin, stirring to dissolve. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Divide mixture in 2 bowls. Blend cocoa into mixture in one bowl. Beat egg whites stiff; fold half into each mixture. Combine dry milk and ice water; beat on high speed of mixer until stiff, about 10 minutes. Gently fold half into each mixture. Alternately spoon vanilla and chocolate mixtures into prepared soufflé dish to create a marbled effect. Chill several hours until set. Makes 10 servings. Each serving contains 127 calories; 11.5 grams protein; 6 grams fat; 8.5 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 235 calories.

We desire correspondence to reach our office on Wednesday, if at all possible. It will be necessary, therefore, for most letters to be mailed on Tuesday morning. Letters mailed on Wednesday may not reach us in time.

KEYSVILLE DETOUR

Greetings to you:

My apologies for the error last week in the item about Terry Coshun. Terry is a member of the Limestone 4-H Club and not the Taneytown Club. My mistake.

Was interested to see the picture of Victor Weybright in the Times last week. Mr. Weybright is certainly well-known in this area. Seems he is one of the new owners of the Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Dougherty of Detour attended the Bentzel Reunion at Fairfield, Pa., on Sunday.

Mrs. James Coshun of Detour and Mrs. William Weishaar near Detour were Tuesday afternoon visitors with Mrs. Roger Grimes and Wheeler in Union Bridge. They were pleased to see Wheeler walking with the use of canes.

This Saturday evening, the 6th, is the Festival at the Keysville United Church of Christ.

There have surely been a number of changes in telephone numbers in our area lately. If you are not sure of a number or feel sure one you are calling should be answered, do check the new directory!

West Coast visitors in the area last week: from Tuesday through Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hess of Fallbrook, Calif., visited with their aunt, Mrs. Byron Stull, and cousins and families, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stine and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Stine, Nancy and Roxanne all near Keysville. On Sunday a reunion of cousins was held when Mr. and Mrs. George Sell and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sell with Ramon and Ramona of Marietta, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Nace of Hanover, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Diefenderfer of Chambersburg, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baumgardner of Kearneysville, W. Va., called at the Stull and Stine homes to also visit with Mr. and Mrs. Hess.

Randy Weishaar, son of Mrs. William Weishaar of Forest and Stream Club Road, has been enjoying several days of camping with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wildman, Kevin and Kim at Elk Neck River, Md.

A family picnic was enjoyed on Sunday at the home of Carol Wolfgang in Washington. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wolfgang of Ginter, Pa., who are visiting with Carol for a week; Fay Wolfgang and Shawn of Kensington, Bill Burr and his mother Mrs. W. N. Burr of Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. William Fleharty, Wayne, Ellen, Bruce and Diane of Detour.

Congratulations to newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fogle who were married on Sunday. Mrs. Fogle is the former Miss Barbara Bollinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bollinger of New Windsor. Mr. Fogle is now working for Lloyd Wilhide and he and his wife will soon be moving into the tenant house in Keysville.

Timmy Seibert of Clear Spring is spending two weeks with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Susan and Christine near Detour. On August 23 he will become a member of the U. S. Air Force.

Tuesday afternoon visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cluts of River Dale Farm near Keysville were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harner of Emmitsburg and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harner of Rockville. Other callers were Clyde Boller, son Tommy, daughter Melissa and friend Robert Garber of Mt. Airy. Sunday visitors were Miss Geraldine Boller of Thurmont, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schmidt and daughter Marie and Mrs. Patricia Redmond with Patty, Kathy, John and Tim of Silver Spring and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Boller and Melissa of Mt. Airy.

Surely looks strange after one passes Zent Trucking on the way to Middleburg for a number of trees have been cut down along the road. Outbuildings on the Carroll Wilhide farm are being painted. The County Roads men are still busy with tar and chips on the Keysville Road. New garage being built behind the Stonesifer and McLaughlin homes on the Keysville Road. Even though it has been so dry, there are some pretty flowers in places. Lilies in the garden of Mrs. Gregg Kiser and some lovely geraniums at the Morningstar home in Middleburg with petunias along the top of the "bank" at the Trout home near Middleburg. The flower boxes at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roop on the Keysville Road undoubtedly reveal Paul's "green thumb." They are lovely.

What a wonderful surprise to find Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cluts at the Keysville Lutheran Sunday School picnic at Taneytown Park on the 26th. Sure everyone greeted them. Believe she said it was her first evening "outing" in about three years. Sure the Lutheran Church Men's picnic on the 29th at Rocky Ridge Park was enjoyed immensely also. (Illness prevented our going.)

Speaking of Keysville Lutheran: Pastor Markley will be on vacation during the month of August.

Don't forget the Blanchfield sale on the 6th and 13th. Ladies, please bring your donations and remember help will be needed at the food stand both days.

Just learned today that Mrs. Claude DeBerry near Emmitsburg will be returning home on the 3rd after recent surgery. Sure we all join in wishing her a rapid recovery. Was also glad to learn that Mrs. Floyd Wiley is doing very well. She is with her son Norman and family in Rocky Ridge at present.

Parents visitation at the summer school session at Elmer Wolfe School in Union Bridge was held on the 27th. Most of the classes enjoyed a trip to Beaver Creek Fish Hatchery on the 21st and the Baltimore Port Authority Tour on the 29th.

Belated Happy Birthday greetings to Mrs. Daniel Seibert on the 3rd. Best wishes to Paul Dougherty on the 6th, Sena Hohman and Mrs. Harold (Ruth) Thomas on the 10th, Glenn Haines on the 11th and Joseph Robert Boone on the 12th.

Did you visit the 4-H Fair over at the "Ag" Center last week? It was surely worthwhile. (This is our Ellen's first year as a 4-H'er and we are so proud of her for two blue ribbons and a white. Kathy Plympton in Middleburg received a red for brownies. Know Sherrie Coshun and Phyllis Orndorff, also of the Eager Beaver Club, also have ribbons but have not heard yet what they are.)

Mrs. Ralph Fleharty, who had been visiting with her son Ralph, Jr., and family in Overall, Va., went to Silver Spring on Sunday and will spend about a week with her granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brudin, Michael and Steven.

Eager Beaver Girls' 4-H Club meeting will be in the form of a picnic on the 12th at the home of Phyllis Orndorff.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilhide enjoyed a trip through ten states from last Thursday through Tuesday. They were as far north as Bar Harbor and Bangor, Maine. (The Coshun family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fogle of Union Bridge.)

Keysville Lutheran Church Women met Monday evening with the program topic "The Church in the Computer World of Today." Those taking part with leaders Mrs. Kenneth Dougherty and Mrs. Roy Baumgardner were Kenneth Dougherty, Richard Haines, Roxanne Stine, Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Mrs. Gregg Kiser, Mrs. Carroll Dougherty and Mrs. John Harner.

Automation is a mechanical way of doing things and the Secretary of Labor claims it creates more jobs than it destroys. This is not the common opinion but it has been proven that automation lessens the need for unskilled labor while it creates more employment for the better educated. We must change with the world and strive for more education. Christian believers must seriously consider what they can do to help, become aware of conditions in the community and help people to keep faith. Specials for the evening were two clarinet solos, "Abide With Me" and "Blue Bells of Scotland," by Debbie Conover and two trumpet selections, "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "Maryland, My Maryland," by Kenney Flohr. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Stine assisted by Mrs. Mark Baumgardner and Mrs. Gilbert Stine.

Mrs. John Briggs of this place had the misfortune of cutting her finger on Monday noon while opening a tin can. She was taken to the office of Dr. Robertson of New Windsor where he pulled the wound together and clamped it and gave her a shot against lock jaw. Such things as it should never be neglected, as it is dangerous. A cut from a tin can can or anything for that matter, can become infected and cause unlimited trouble and expense.

We received a card from our niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Carr, who are vacationing in Wyoming—they will be gone for four or five weeks and will take in quite a bit of interesting places on returning home. Have a wonderful time, Thelma and Scott.

Don't forget the Frock reunion this Sunday, August 7, in pavilion No. 4 at the Taneytown Memorial Park. A basket lunch at 12:30; there will be games for the children and adults as well. Prizes will be given. Please come and enjoy the day with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Smith, Sr. of Uniontown are enjoying a much earned vacation and have spent a few days in York, Penna., visiting Mrs. Smith's sister-in-law, Mrs. Anna Mobley; also took in the view of Crystal Mountain while on their trip.

Mrs. Mobley, who has her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Smith and son of Uniontown, Md. has been spending some time with another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Ibe, out Washington Rd., Westminster.

"The God in Whom We Trust"

Not in work or vain endeavors to fulfill a broken law. Not in empty forms and fashions from which come their comfort draw; But in God, who ever liveth and who ever loves to bless all who in his mercy trusteth, all who do his Christ confess.

Faith in God who loves the sinner, trust in Christ who died to save. Simply taking what He offers, just accepting what He gave. Brings at once the glad assurance of forgiveness by His grace, full acceptance in His favor and among His sons a place.

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports

—John Breth

Is the new home of the CALIFORNIA ANGELS the finest ball park ever built? Hard to prove, of course. You would get an argument about that in places like Atlanta, Houston, St. Louis and even Los Angeles, where the Angels formerly played in the home of the Dodgers.

The Angels now play in Anaheim, Calif., only a 40-minute spin by freeway from Chavez Ravine. The park seems to strike a happy balance between being good for the pitchers and the hitters. Chavez Ravine, by the way, obviously favors pitchers.

The Angel players are happy over their new park.

Shortstop Jim Fregosi said: "Now, you feel as though you have your own following."

Pitcher Jack Sanford simply declared: "It's the greatest."

When owners Gene Autry and Bob Reynolds decided to move from Los Angeles into the suburbs they also decided on a scoreboard that is the largest ever built.

It cost one million dollars and is visible for miles. It towers 23 stories, which would be rated a skyscraper in a lot of cities that consider themselves big league. It is topped by a golden halo, the symbol of the Angels.

The giant "A" frame which supports the halo is 230 feet high and weighs 200 tons. The scoreboard is lighted by 20,000 lamps, had 90 miles of wiring and is powered by 500,000 watts. It could light a small city.

Then Angel park in Anaheim is so well laid out that planners from other cities which are in the market for new parks have visited the new stadium to study the construction.

In the last decade the Baltimore Orioles have come up with a strong-armed young pitcher—usually very young—just about every year. To name a few, Steve Barber, Milt Pappas, Chuck Estrada, Dave McNally and now JIM PALMER.

Palmer is only 20 years old but already he has won himself a berth in the Baltimore starting rotation. His record is 11 victories and three defeats and it could easily be 13 and one.

Jim was a first-year man last year and the Baltimore club kept him with the parent team so that he could be protected in the draft. He did a fair amount of pitching but mostly in relief and finished with a record of five and four.

Manager Hank Bauer debated all spring whether to give him a chance as a starter and did not make up his mind until April 13, two days after the season began.

On that day, a cold one in Boston, Palmer threw a five-hitter at the Red Sox, winning by a score of 8 to 1. The game took two hours and 44 minutes and Palmer stayed right in there. That impressed his manager. Bauer said: "That was what I call work."

Palmer impressed Bauer even more on May 8 when he stopped the Cleveland Indians in a pressure series, 8 to 2, and made only 116 pitches in nine innings. That was a career low for Palmer.

Palmer's money pitch is the overhand fast ball and Baltimore catcher Andy Etchebarren has this to say about it: "When Jim's on top of his game no guy alive is going to get a hit off him."

Palmer hasn't pitched any no-hitters but the Orioles think that one of these fine days he will.

Today's Sport Laugh — The Washington Senators arrived in Kansas City recently by plane and were both surprised and delighted to see thousands of cheering people and a lot of police. Then, they looked over their shoulders and saw why. President Johnson's plane was landing right behind their chartered plane.

LITTLE LEAGUE NEWS

The Little League program has been completed for this season. Monday evening was the last game. This was a very important game for the Little League. The game was played by the Senators, manager Tom Morrison, and the Orioles, managed by Don Zigler. Don's Orioles stopped the Senators by 8 to 4. This defeat of the Senators caused a tie for first place with the Mets, managed by Bud Wetzel. This game will be played Monday, August 8, at 6:30 P. M.

For the benefit of the Little League fans, August 21 the Little League is having the last All-Star game of the season. This game has been coordinated with the Town team and will be played on their field. The game will start at 12:30 P. M. on Sunday. Following the Little League game, the Town team will play their last game of the season. So, baseball fans, come down and see the boys playing this great sport.

July 20, Indians 9, Orioles 4; home runs, George Greenya and Jeff Wilson; umpire, Bud Wetzel. July 22, Mets 15, Phillies 3; umpire, Elwood Harner. July 25, Senators 11, Indians 10. July 26, Phillies 10, Yankees 6; umpire, Glenn Bollinger. July 28, Senators 2, Orioles 6; home run, Brian Etzler; umpire, Miller. August 1, Senators 4, Orioles 8; umpire, Glenn Bollinger.

Fashions for the Sunsuit Set

NEW YORK (CFN)—What will the bib set be wearing this spring into summer? Why, really hip fashions, of course, the shift, the surfer shirt, the smock, the sissy look, the blouson top. Everything that really swings!

These small styles for toddlers and their older brothers and sisters, too, got that way because of the changing fashion climate. Those things that used to be called "classic" clothes for children have vanished. In their place, we have clothes that take off on adult fashions.

But there is a difference. They are scaled down, properly proportioned and in every way, clothes for children, not just unimaginative copies of grownup fashions. Take for instance, the angel top with the Mary Petty wings. This one is all done up in a yellow print and it goes over a yellow bloomer in a solid color. A girl could wear it almost anywhere for her age (she just might tell!) puts her in the size 1-3 bracket. It's for the beach or the backyard or by the swimming pool, or anywhere that she wants to look her feminine, flirty best.

The boy next door (in the same age group but readily admits it) turns out in a collarless Eton jacket with matching short pants in a baby cord, if it's a dressy affair. If not, there's his surfer shirt in a white cotton knit with navy shoulder straps by Nift EZ. What should be more "in" for the beach?

Just a whole lot of these really great ideas in children's clothes spring from the mind of a designer who also is a mother: Tracy Griswold of E-Z Mills. Mrs. Griswold brought back from Switzerland some marvelous little aprons for her children. These had cross-over button backs and the children adored them.

They now appear for spring and summer by E-Z Playwear but this time, they're done as a coordinate set: a diagonal stripe apron top (a blue stripe bound in red) worn over a red bloomer.

Margaret Bose, another talented designer, has a whole series of small sun fashions for Milam. One is a side buttoned printed duck top worn over a coordinate blue bloomer. Then she's done the smock look in a tiny neat print—pale blue, mauve and green on white—and picked up the pale blue for the small matching bloomer.

A girl just can't have too many clothes. So she should seriously consider (for the beach) a fish net apron with net veiling applique fishes in color against a solid yellow cotton top. With this, a matching little yellow bloomer.

Most small fashions from E-Z need no ironing but do watch for the hangtag with instructions. Tracy Griswold says that a friend of hers undertook the ironing of sunsuits lined with plastic. They were not meant to be ironed and the results were—you know—utterly disastrous!

Troubled Castles

Lesson For August 7, 1966

Background Scripture: Exodus 20:12; Proverbs 4:3-5; Mark 7:9-13; Luke 2:51, 52; Ephesians 6:1-4.
Devotional Reading: Proverbs 4:1-5.

"A man's home is his castle," men are sometimes fond of saying. If this is so, our land today is filled with troubled castles. The home, once the citadel of safety and security, is said to be "on the way out."

Most often the accusing finger is pointed at the younger generation. "No respect at all!" is the judgement pronounced by many adults. "What are these children coming to?" they ask of no one in particular.

One learned man has written: "The children now love luxury. They show disrespect for elders and love chatter in the place of exercise. Children are now tyrants, not servants, of their households. They no longer rise when elders enter the room. They contradict their parents, chatter before company, gobble up dainties at the table... and tyrannize over their teachers."

Then As Now

This contemporary-sounding complaint was actually written by the ancient Greek philosopher, Socrates, in 394 B.C. Historians assure us that it was hardly the first such complaint nor an infrequent one in the long years since then. Then as now, it seems, there was trouble in men's castles.

Thus it is hardly surprising that one of the commandments given by God to Moses at Sinai was: "Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land which the Lord Your God gives you." (Exodus 20:12 RSV). If there had been no such problem in some Hebrew homes, there would have been no need for this commandment.

The fifth commandment is unique in two ways. For one thing, it was the first of the ten that dealt primarily, not with man's relationship to God, but to his fellow men. It is significant that the first of these interpersonal relationships to come under God's ordinance is the child-parent relationship. Obviously, this is where righteousness to others begins—at home. How thoughtless and inconsiderate of our parents are some of us who enjoy the reputation of conviviality with others! Does that not make of such reputations a fraud?

Secondly, the fifth commandment is the first of the commandments to spell out its own reward. As Paul puts it: "Honor your father and mother" (this is the first commandment with a promise) (Ephesians 6:2). It is not an idle promise by any means. Sociologists often tell us that the lowest incidence of juvenile delinquency is to be found in those homes where respect for parents is part of the heritage passed on from one generation to another. This is particularly true in the homes of Chinese-Americans and in Jewish families. Thus, in families where young people honor their parents, every one benefits: the parents, the children, and society.

To Enrich Life

The fifth commandment, then is not an arbitrary requirement imposed upon children for the benefit of their parents. Instead, it is one of God's principles for enriching life for both parents and their children. In other words, if we obey this commandment we not only obey God and honor our parents, we also enrich our own lives.

But how can parents gain respect from their children? Perhaps at least part of the answer is found in the attitude of adults toward their parents. Children learn by copying our values. If they experience a society in which older people are ignored and abandoned by their grown children, are they ever likely to take seriously God's commandment? As parents we cannot expect to receive what we ourselves have not been willing to give.

This commandment is for both children and adults. So long as either ignore it, there will be trouble in those castles we call "home."

BOARD OF EDUCATION

presented to the Board a policy for teachers' political rights sponsored by his organization. Mr. Lawyer had met in the previous meeting with the Board to discuss this policy. In the intervening time he and Mr. Thomas had done research and minor modifications on the policy. The Board voted to approve the revised policy as submitted.

Additional administrative appointments for the Central Office Staff were approved by the Board. These include Claire N. Fulenwider, visiting teacher; Carl Swanson, visiting teacher; Mrs. Eileen Turner, speech therapist; Mr. Joseph L. Shilling, administrator of federal programs; and Mrs. Sabra Kittner, supervisor of library services. In addition, the Board approved the roster of school administrators and instructional personnel for 1966-67 as listed elsewhere in The Carroll Record. Mr. Thomas called attention to the fact that the roster was generally complete, with the exception of the six positions yet remaining to be filled, the possibility of teacher transfer to fill existing vacancies, and the possible need for additional personnel in the event of unexpected resignations.

The Board accepted with regret the resignation of Miss Maye E. Grimes, Supervisor of Pupil Personnel, and directed that a resolution be spread upon the minutes of this meeting recognizing Miss Grimes' long and devoted service in the interest of the education of children in the public schools of Carroll County. Miss Grimes' record of service ranks among the longest of all professional employees in the history of the Carroll County public schools system.

Reports were heard on the following items: heating system at Hampstead School, results of bids for additional automobiles for staff use, results of bids for light bulbs, and reports on possible land purchases. Bids for additional automobiles were awarded to Crouse Motor Sales, Taneytown; W. H. Davis Company, Westminster, and Westminster Motor Co., Westminster. The bid for light bulbs for the school year was awarded to the Tri-State Electric Co., Westminster.

Building progress was reported as satisfactory at the South Carroll High School location and the Mechanicville location. The Board expressed concern about a lack of progress toward completion of the addition to the Winfield Elementary School. Direction was given to the Superintendent to investigate the matter and to expedite, if possible, the completion of the addition.

Mr. Thomas reported the availability of the second floor of the Allender property, owned by the County Commissioners, for use as additional central office staff space. It was noted that a letter from the County Commissioners indicated that this space would be available as of August 15. The Board moved to reserve funds for the equipment necessary for the additional space in the Allender building. Specifications are to be written and presented to the Board for approval at the August meeting.

The policy for the use of school buildings during the school year by the YMCA as developed by Mr. Richard Kelly, YMCA Director, and Dr. Charles I. Ecker, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, was approved. The Board commented favorably on the use of school facilities by groups sponsored by the YMCA in view of the worthiness of the organization and of the involvement of the children of Carroll County.

The Board considered the Convention of the Maryland Association of Boards of Education to be held in Baltimore from September 29 through October 1. Formulation of plans for attendance and participation was begun.

The Board also noted that there would be a meeting with candidates for County Commissioner on the subject of the Community College at 7:00 P. M. on August 15 at the Westminster Jr. High School.

The next meeting of the Board was scheduled for Friday, August 26. It is hoped that at that time the final report from the Englehardt survey will be available for guidance in the development of physical facilities for public education in Carroll County.

Candidates for County Commissioners Express Views

The League of Women Voters of Carroll County, a non-partisan organization, sent questionnaires to all candidates for the preparation of a Voters Guide. As a special preview, the League has released the following replies from candidates for the office of County Commissioner. The replies have been edited by the League only to the extent necessary to cut the replies to the requested maximum number of words.

The following question was submitted to all candidates for this office: What do you think are the two most important local issues? How would you deal with each, as County Commissioner? (Please limit your reply to 50 words for each issue.)

Francis J. Crawford (D.) (incumbent) 1. Sanitary Districts. Future growth will make this a most important health and financial concern. Before too many individual Sanitary Districts are created a county-wide District be created. This would enable the County to establish small projects when health hazards exist and still have ample assessable base to finance them.

2. School planning: It is believed that creation of a comprehensive plan for schools to insure that a growing population will have adequate facilities and curriculum is necessary. Such planning is necessary to assure that vocational facilities are adequate and that a community college is properly located and developed in the future.

Walter H. Hoffmeister (D.): 1. Educational System. This has been a big issue in the county. I believe it is due to the fact that there has been very little relationship between the people of the county, the school board and the county commissioners. There should be more control by the county over the school spending and operation.

2. Water and Sewerage. There will be a day when all of Carroll County will have water and sewerage. The initial approach is the most important. I would have at least three surveys, plenty of advertisement; if there is no agreement then a committee from both sides; if then no agreement the problem would be balloted.

Earl W. Luckabaugh (D.): 1. Water and sewerage in several vital areas of our county. Make a decision which has been too long delayed.

2. Efficiency and Economy. Reorganize so that there will be fewer chiefs and more Indians. We need less personnel on the payroll and more on the job.

Edgar M. Palmer (D.): Carroll County cannot be managed by two issues. Schools and roads utilize most taxable funds and tend to overshadow taxes themselves. There is soil and water conservation. The tremendous increase in population, both from within and without, increases problems in the departments of housing, sanitation and zoning, each so interwoven they cannot be ignored. Then there is the orderly building up of industry in a predominantly agricultural county. Another ever-present problem.

Paul M. Snyder (D.): 1. I believe that sanitation is or will be of the most importance. Data would be necessary before making a rational judgment.

2. I believe the building of million dollar schools in rural sections, away from doctors, fire protection, ambulance service, plus the added inconvenience caused to students and parents alike is wrong.

Paul J. Walsh (D.): 1. Education. In order to provide a first-rate public school system, Carroll County must offer the facilities and benefits necessary to attract dedicated teachers. As Commissioner, I would carefully study the budget requests and development plans presented by the Board of Education to insure continued improvement in the most efficient way possible.

2. Sanitation. With continued population growth, inadequate sewage disposal can become a health hazard. The cost of constructing facilities can probably be paid, in part, with Federal aid; remaining cost should be met by those served on a long-term basis, so as to prevent financial hardship. Intelligent planning will minimize future problems.

Scott S. Bair, Jr. (R.): 1. When government grows rapidly, the rights of each of us are constantly eaten away. That every person be treated fairly and equally, is, by far, the most pressing issue. I would work diligently on behalf of every citizen to insure his receiving fair and equal treatment during the coming administration.

2. Neighboring counties and cities are going to make us pay a share of their debts—unless we invest in our county now. Metropolitan taxation can be passed in the reapportioned legislature. Our choice—spend more tax dollars for our needs—or pay those dollars to other counties and cities.

James L. Bushey (R.): 1. Education. There should be standardized curriculum and teaching facilities in the county.

2. Rapid increase in population. Orderly county development to meet the situation.

Alvah Finch (R.): I feel that the greatest ill besetting our county stems from the fact that our system of government is outmoded—alho recent Boards of Commissioners have not used to the fullest authority to handle county affairs should rest at the county seat—not Annapolis. Until such home rule charter can be brought into being, the voters should see to it that their elected commissioners are active, successful men who, with the courage of their convictions, can make a study of a problem and render a decision promptly and in the best interests of the county majority.

Robert M. McKinney (R.) (incumbent): 1. Education. Carroll County gave me a high school education and the youth of today get better training than I received. However, our schools should be strengthened in curriculum and teaching staff to better train those heading toward degrees as well as those who will benefit from business and vocational courses.

2. Tax Reform. Legislation giving additional money to counties is expected. We should consider a simplified tax structure such as elimination of remaining taxes on personal property. (Automobiles, household goods previously eliminated.) However, we must endeavor to get the maximum from our taxes so as to get better schools, roads, etc.

Hobart (Hoby) Wolf, Jr. (R.): 1. Planning-Zoning-Building Codes all reflect the gradual change from a farming community into an urban development. Planning is not sticking to the Plan as shown to the citizens in 1964 and 1965. Spot zoning is in progress and houses in tract developments are being poorly built.

2. Schools and Roads. Both departments reflect the need for central purchasing. The departments have enough money to do the job, but through poor administration of funds they are not getting full purchasing power of the money they are spending. Teachers salaries should be raised and plans made for a kindergarten system.

Some of the biggest problems for traffic planners are urban, suburban, and suburban drivers.

Barbecue Hints

Now that the barbecue season is in full swing once more, American men are again attempting to prove the theory that they are the best cooks in the world. And certainly, where outdoor cooking is concerned, men seem to be the experts.

Expert or not, the best cooks are always out for new additions to their culinary art. So here are a few pointers for outdoor barbecue experts:

1) Make sure your barbecue is clean and dry. If your grill is rusty, replace it with a stainless steel grill. If it needs cleaning use a barbecue brush. A stainless brush is best for this purpose.

2) Don't use too much charcoal. You only need enough to cover the area of the food being cooked. Using more charcoal than you need is not only wasteful but it may upset your timing by creating a hotter fire than you really want. For best results use charcoal briquets, not the loose kind. Briquets give you a more even flame and are easier to handle.

3) Once you're ready to light the fire, bring the charcoal together in a heap in the middle. This will make best use of your lighting fluid and will insure uniform lighting. You can spread the coals out flat just before you are ready to cook. Be sure to use enough fluid and make sure it's charcoal-lighter especially designed for this purpose, not gasoline, which is not only dangerous, but may affect the flavor of the food.

And above all never add fluid once you've lit the fire. Coals are usually perfect about fifteen minutes after lighting—you can tell by the red glow and patches of white.

4) Don't put the grill over the fire until you're ready to cook. To prevent meat from sticking to the grill during cooking, rub a piece of fat (steak fat is ideal) on the grill just before you begin to cook.

5) Stainless steel barbecue spatulas, forks and knives are ideally suited for outdoor cooking since they are easy to keep clean and resist rust and tarnish. Exposure to damp air has little effect on them.
