MEETING OF LCW GROUP 1

The LCW, Group 1, of Trinity Lutheran Church met at the church on Oct. 4 at 1 o'clock. The program opened with Scripture reading and prayer by Miss Edith Hess.

Mrs. John Zent, E. Baltimore St., Taneytown, was introduced as the guest speaker. She spoke on Japan and showed pictures of interest and unusual beauty of Tokyo and its surrounding area. The Zent family lived in Tokyo three years while Mr. Zent, now retired from the U.S. Navy, was stationed in that area.

Mrs. Zent's vivid description of the people showed the gaiety and gentleness of the Japanese, even though deprived of comforts such as we have. The homes, with almost no heat, are so small that the families spend much time outdoors in their work, recreation, etc. The streets, railway cars, etc., are always crowded because of the dense population. A tribute to these people is that many families have their individual worship centers in their small homes.

Twenty-six members and friends attended the meeting. Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner, chairman, welcomed the many visitors. She announced meetings of interest for Oct. 19 and Nov. 4.

The topic for the Nov. 2 meeting of Group 1 will be "Growing older," is it a handicap or an opportunity," and will be presented by Mrs. Alfred Zollicoffer, Mrs. Edgar Phillips, Mrs. Merle Ohler, Miss Angie Keefer, Mrs. Wilbert Hess, and Mrs. Wm. Hopkins.

LOCAL FARMERS TO ATTEND AGWAY ANNUAL MEETING

They will be among some 5,000 farmer-stockholders of the cooperative expected to attend the session from Agway's 12-state area. Official delegates will represent Agway's 95,000 owners, all farmers.

Members will elect six farmers to the board of directors and hear reports on the second year of the cooperative.

Agway was formed in 1964 by the merger of three regional farmer cooperatives.

Agricultural leaders from state and national organizations are also expected to attend. Special guests this year will be the deans of agriculture of agricultural colleges in states served by Agway.

Lay Life and Work Committee Meets

The Lay Life and Work Committee of Grace United Church of Christ met on October 6, 1966 at 7:30 P. M. with George Fream, president. There were seven members, four committee chairmen, and Rev. Wiley present.

The treasurer reported that the savings account totals $1590.21, and the checking account $1326.26. However, all bills from the public supply had not yet been received. Some bills were presented to the treasurer, and the motion made and passed that they be paid. The treasurer was instructed to transfer from the checking to the savings all over $500.00.

Family Night will be held Saturday the 15th of October at 7:45 P. M. A program including Mrs. Hazel Shriner showing slides of her trip to Europe is being planned. Refreshments will also be served.

On Sunday, October 23rd the Rev. Mark Wagner, supt. of Homewood Church Homes will be guest speaker. The Church World Service Clothing Appeal will be conducted on October 30th and November 6th.

Douglas Reaver has been elected by the Youth Fellowship as their second representative on the Lay Life and Work Committee.

Mrs. Sandra Crouse reported that plans are being made for Christian Enlistment on Sunday Nov. 13. There will be information sent out to all members as well as training sessions for the canvassers.

To date four groups have asked for banquets to be served them by the ladies of the church. It was suggested that if no one was available for a chairman of the kitchen committee on the week nights requested that the groups be notified that we will be able to serve them only on a Saturday night.

Mrs. Blanche Lookingbill asked if the committee wished to prepare any projects for World Community Day. It was decided to try to assemble some personal hygiene kits to be sent to the Church World Service Center for distribution. The kits will contain soap in a soap dish, toothbrush in a holder, toothpaste, comb, nail file or clippers, and a face cloth. If anyone would like to donate any of these articles or money to buy them, please contact Mrs. Blanche Lookingbill. Mrs. Lookingbill also asked to be relieved of her duties as Key Woman of the church, so attempts are going to be made to find a replacement.

George Fream expressed concern that there seems to be a lack of communication between the Pastor and the members sometimes when the Pastor or other help is needed. Rev. Wiley explained the Under Shepherd Plan that is used in some churches. Certain members in different areas are designated to notify the Pastor or any other help if they find out it is needed by someone in his area, and also to do whatever they can to welcome someone new to the area or give any help needed. No decision or plans were made to try to carry out such a plan but it should give us something to consider so that the Pastor can know when he is needed and to get more of us to practice being good neighbors.

The next meeting will be held the first Thursday of November.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES REPORTED

ITHACA, N. Y.—Stephen Gregory Feeser of Taneytown, Md., a senior at Ithaca College where he is majoring in Television-Radio, accompanied the Ithaca College Choir on Tuesday, October 11, when it was flown to New York City by Columbia Records for a recording session.

TRICK OR TREAT FOR UNICEF IN TANEYTOWN

"Taneytown will win a share in a Nobel Peace Prize this year, through the selfless and enthusiastic efforts of the local boys and girls who will go Trick or Treating for UNICEF on Halloween."

The lofty award was given to the United Nations Children's Fund last fall, for 20 years of life-saving work in more than 100 countries. On October 25 local children will join over three million other young Americans from coast to coast in the UNICEF Halloween program, sponsored here by Taneytown Elementary School.

"Every penny they get will mean six glasses of milk for hungry youngsters," "A nickel buys the penicillin to cure two little victims of yaws, an ugly, crippling tropical disease. A dime provides the antibiotics to save a child suffering from trachoma from total blindness. A quarter means enough BCG vaccine to protect 20 children against tuberculosis."

Official UNICEF collection cartons will identify the Trick or Treaters. Shaped like half-pint milk containers, they will show the emblem of a mother and child on an orange background. The cartons will be distributed on October 25, at school.

What used to be an evening of senseless pranks has become an orderly, constructive celebration. "The children who go out for UNICEF will be sponsored by the Student Council of the Elementary School. Trick or Treat for UNICEF is endorsed by President Johnson and civic, religious and educational leaders. Organized for the first time in 1950 by a small Sunday School group which collected $17.00, last fall it resulted in a gift of $2.5 million to the world's needy children.

Margaret Shreeve, Student Council Margaret Shreeve, Student Council Sponsor.

Meeting of Taneytown Lions Club

The Taneytown Lions Club held their regular meeting at Taney Inn on October 11, 1966, at 6:30 P. M. Lion President, Delmont Koons, welcomed the Lions and guests to the "Father, Son, and Daughter Night." Lion Koons also welcomed the visitation group from the Westminster Lions Club.

Program Chairman, Lion Stanley King, introduced the "PATTERNS" from our high school, for the musical entertainment. The girls, Beverly Fair, Ann King, Linda Shaffer, Donna Simpson, gave us several enjoyable selections.

On hand to entertain the 36 Sons and Daughters and, of course, the adults, was Mr. H. David Hagan from Frederick, Md. Mr. Hagan, a magician by trade, gave us a very entertaining program of magic, which kept the youngsters and several Lions who participated in the act guessing. Our next meeting on October 25, 1966, will be our "Blood Bank" program with Lion Tommy Smith in charge.

PEDIATRIC CLINIC

I volunteered my services recently at the clinic in Westminster. I was to supervise the small children while their mothers attended a class. This play period makes a big difference when the children have to wait so long to see the doctor.

The different homemakers clubs throughout the county are asked to send someone to help. I bravely said I would love to go and I had lots of fun with the youngsters. I sincerely hope that I will be asked again sometime.

Letters to the Editor

During the heat of the summer after reading a notice by the Mayor and City Council published in The Carroll Record asking the citizens of Taneytown to conserve water, I saw a tank truck stop at the fire plug in back of the Lutheran Church.

The driver hooked a section of hose to the fire plug, filled the huge tanker with water and drove away.

The third time he was filling the tank I walked down the alley and asked the driver why he was taking water from the Taneytown water system when the town was short of water? He replied he was hauling water to fill a private swimming pool on the Keysville Road.

This was about 10 P. M. I called the Mayor on the telephone and he said it is O.K., we are selling him water to fill his swimming pool.

When I complained about this at the Council meeting, I was told by the Mayor and members of the Council that they had the legal right to sell water to anyone to fill his swimming pool after asking the citizens of Taneytown (who are the owners of the water system) to conserve water.

On October 7 at 7:30 P. M. I asked the lady on duty at the Town office the name of customers who purchased water from the town in the last six months and hauled it away in tank trucks.

She told me that she holds the records of water sales and sewer charges but she has no records of anyone who purchased water and hauled it away in a tank truck.

Although I was the only one to appear before the Town Council and protested this, I was not the only witness to the removal of the water from the system.

I think the Mayor and Council should answer these questions from the owners of the water system:

Why did they sell this man water? Who checked the amount taken from the system? How much per 1,000 gallons did he pay for it?

Where are the records of the sale? James V. Turner Box 439 Taneytown, Md. Telephone 756-2187

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

It is nice that the British are here for another week, and although it was raining very hard, again I ventured down to Hoschilids'. As soon as one enters the store you see colorful shopping bags in the rack and only for 5 cents (real big strong ones made in Kentucky) which were entitled, "BRITISH ACCENTS!" All the departments were most interesting, and of course England has always been known for their fine woollens and linens. The "Town Crier" of London, in his gala attire, was right there every now and then ringing the heavy bell with the sounding of his shrill voice, "Oyez, oyez," I raised it and was told it weighed 12 lbs. And it surely echoed through the store. There was a lovely atmosphere in every department. The gowns for evening were like those here in our country. Ever notice that you very rarely see a fat English lady? I have heard the English call America, "The Land of Ice Cream!" The English, as you know, eat five times a day and that lightly!

There is a special place on the 5th floor for our Beloved Late Honorable Winston Churchill, whom all the world loved, and there were the 8 hats that he wore on different occasions. The interesting pictures of him at any time in his life were lovely. Frankly, I remained right there longer than in any other department. It fascinated me—for he was truly the GREATEST!

Having lunch on the tea room where there were many guests, I observed special English dishes being served and especially one which the English could not do without, "YORKSHIRE PUDDING!" I made it once, a number of years ago when I entertained a few guests from Manchester, England and it really turned out beautifully. They serve it with beef, which I did especially for them and they stated it was perfect. As for me, folks I don't care for it at all, especially with beef! "Ugh!"

In the tea room, the Models were most attractive, as to their gowns and suits. Only one Model was about a 20 size. I do not understand why the teen-ager clothes are modeled when there are so many American women sizes 20 and 20½. Frankly, folks I would like to open a store just with those sizes and no other. Now, there's an idea for you, Ladies or Gentlemen and you would be in the dough in no time for those sizes in all the stores are very difficult to secure.

As to the English, betcha, they love to visit America more than any other country; for it has always meant that Americans go all out for them and this they like for they are not a demonstrative type of people at all.

The affair, I am sure meant much business for that nice store of Hochschild's and not just for the English products.

It surely has convinced me, "There's Nothing Like A Dame" with such actresses of 25 years ago: Marilyn Maxwell, Arlene Dahl, Dorothy Lamour, Rhonda Fleming and a few others on Bob Hope's "Special for Chrysler." The hour just flew!

Two very interesting letters arrived in reply to mine from our President Johnson and our own former Governor, W. Preston Lane.

Hope to be visiting the "Carroll Farm Museum" one of these days for I know that will be a day to remember of the old, old articles on display with their interesting stories.

Have a grand week-end and remember always that courtesy on the road may save a life.

Until next week-end. D. V.

I am, Faithfully yours, Irene deLeon Love.

SIGNS OF THE SEASON IN THE COUNTRY

Busy farmers, hard at work picking corn and sowing barley.

Frosted meadows, glinting in the early-morning sun.

Burnished trees, flaming against a blue October sky.

Wild geese, flying in wedge-shaped formation to warmer climates.

Roadstand stands, brimming over with Autumn produce.

Black walnuts, falling with loud thuds from the trees.

Spicy leaves, drifting in crisp showers to the ground.

Cautious pheasants, enjoying a feast in our neighbor's corn field.

Blue smoke, ascending from farm house chimneys.

A chorus of crickets, chirping their gay Autumn symphony.

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK

This year, National Newspaper
Week will be observed from October 9 through 15, and it is an appropriate time to draw every American's attention to his daily dependence on the written word for his knowledge, the protection of his political freedom and the furtherance of his material well-being.

The written words, appearing regularly in some 11,000 newspapers throughout the 50 states, are the permanent record of news, information and opinion, which are primary factors in crystallizing majority public opinion. Under our form of government this will continue to shape national policy and the kind of country we are to live in.

The pen is mightier than the sword but only so long as it retains its freedom. In the United States, the free press, composed of thousands of independent newspapers dedicated to accurate reporting of the news and free expression of opinion, is the best guarantee that our free society has a future.

FACTS AND OPINIONS

On the floor of the House, recently, Illinois Congressman Donald Rums-feld declared: "... the growing problems of rising prices and inflation will not be solved by wishing they would go away. It is not enough for the Government to admonish housewives to be more selective in their purchasing. It is not enough for the Government to urge business and industry to reduce spending. The Government must take the initiative and demonstrate to the American people that it too is able to live within its means."

Dr. James Z. Appel, former president of the American Medical Association, says "The health care of the people is no longer a personal matter between the patient and the physician. It is now a political issue, the merits of which will not be determined solely on scientific grounds but also on vote-getting appeal, by individuals not at all well-informed on quality health care."

Mr. Tom Morris, an officer of Blyth & Company in Portland, Ore., expresses the feeling of many Americans in this brief statement: "... I feel we cannot spend ourselves into prosperity. ..."

Congressman Vernon Thomson (R., Wis.) has introduced a resolution asserting it is the sense of Congress that the President take whatever steps are necessary to force the French government to make "full and prompt settlement" on World War I debts it owes the United States. He said the French owe the United States $4.6 billion from World War I, and $7.4 billion from World War II.

The rate of economic growth has slowed markedly in the Soviet Union since 1958 and Soviet economic performance is still only about 47 percent of that of the United States, a major study has concluded.

Congressman W. L. Dickinson of Alabama says, "This country, built upon individual enterprise, cannot survive by glorifying the incompetents, the ignorant and the shiftless."

The United States Office of Education reports that federal contributions in grants to all levels of educational institutions increased from $2.3 billion in 1964 to $6.1 billion in the fiscal year 1966.

The president of the American Petroleum Institute says, "The prize of clean air and water will not be won dramatically, with a flourish of trumpets; rather, it will be won gradually, with the route marked by hundreds of small discoveries in the nation's laboratories."

During 1966 the forest industry is commemorating the 25th Anniversary of the Tree Farm program. The wood using industry encourages owners of forestlands everywhere to grow timber crops because they mean steady supply of forest products for the mills; because they mean more cash income for the Tree Farmer; and because they mean continuous jobs and payrolls in the community.

At least 25 poverty bureaucrats will be paid more than the base pay of General William C. Westmoreland who leads our forces in Viet Nam.

CURRENT EVENTS
FIFTY YEARS AGO

Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for President, was the attraction to draw a number of our citizens to the Hagerstown Fair and to Baltimore, on Tuesday.

At the headquarters of the Sisters of Charity, alike of the Pittsburgh and Altoona-dioceses, at Greensburg, Penna., after three months' postulation and under the name of Sister Mary Dominic, Miss Genevieve Wivell assumed the garb of a novice last Sunday; and was visited by many relatives. She will be recalled as a native and lifelong resident of Taneytown district up to seven years ago, when she removed to Cresson, Penna. after the death of her father, Samuel J. Wivell; her mother being buried here last April 29th.

H. C. Edwards, the father of Paul Edwards, who has been spending the Summer here, returned to the National Military Home, Ohio, on Monday. Mr. Edwards is an enthusiastic Republican and a "dry" man.

Rev. W. J. Marks has been returned by conference to the Taneytown charge.

Mrs. Helen J. Engelbrecht went to Frederick Hospital on Wednesday evening where she will undergo an operation.

CORRESPONDENCE

Latest Items of Local News Furnished
By Our Regular Staff of Writers

We desire correspondence to reach our office on Wednesday, if at all possible. It will be necessary, therefore, for letters to be mailed on Tuesday morning. Letters mailed on Wednesday may not reach us in time.

Our Frizellburg correspondent, Mrs. Walter Myers, Jr. is ill. We know many of our readers will miss the contributions of news, and join us in wishing her a speedy recovery; looking forward to her correspondence next week.

KEYSVILLE DETOUR

Greetings to you:

Have you been enjoying the beautiful panorama all around us here in Carroll County? Meaning the turning colors of the leaves, of course. They are so beautiful and the grass is so green again after all the recent rains, the views almost take your breath away. Here in our section of the county, I don't believe there is a lovelier area than the woods between Detour and Keysville owned by Charles Stonestier on the one side and Lloyd Wilhide on the other. To drive through there in the spring when the dogwood is at its peak and then in the fall with the colorful leaves—especially with the sun shining on them—it is beyond my descriptive powers. Here at our house we have a "million dollar view" of which we never tire. On days such as we have been having recently, it really makes one feel glad to be alive. So—look around you! Enjoy God's world!

This changeable weather has brought with it "sick bugs," however. In our area, Libby Coshun and Billy Weishaar are both on the sick list. Billy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Weishaar of Detour, is a patient at Carroll County General Hospital. Heard Mrs. Edgar Valentine, Jr., near Emmitsburg has been on the sick list also. Do hope they are all soon recuperated. Don't want to forget to mention Mrs. Gertrude Warner of Detour for she has been so very ill again. Sure cards would be welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Stultz and Debbie, who have been living on the Steffen farm near Detour, are moving into the Johnson apartments in Middleburg. He has accepted a job with the Lehigh Co. in Union Bridge.

Mrs. William Fleharty near Detour was a luncheon guest last Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walther and Mrs. Ralph Fleharty in Washington Grove. She brought Mrs. Ralph back home to Detour after a visit of about two weeks.

Sunday evening visitors with Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy of Forest and Stream Club Road were Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hobbs of Keysville.

Mrs. Emory Yoder and Miss Elizabeth Yoder of White Hall were Sunday guests at the Clyde Wilhide home on the Keysville Road. They were also callers at the Carroll Wilhide home near Detour. Mrs. Yoder made the "acquaintance" of her newest great-grandchild, Jeffrey Alan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Engel on the Keysville Road.

Recent Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Albaugh near Detour were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Martz and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Boone, Janet and Donna of Westminster; Mrs. Karl J. Smith, Sr., Jerry, Jimmie, Ricky, Randy, Jeffery and Joann Denise of Rocky Ridge; Mrs. Charles Spielman of New Windsor and daughter, Mrs. Betty Beard of New Midway; and Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Lenhart of Levistown. Their grandson, Larry Smith of Rocky Ridge, spent from Thursday evening to Sunday evening with the Albaughs.

Saturday afternoon callers at the Richard Wilhide home on the Forest and Stream Club Road were Mr. and Mrs. John Wilhide, Darrell and Daniel of York, Pa. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Wilhide were "treated" to supper at Angelo's Italian Restaurant in Westminster by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young near Keysville.

Callers last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cluts of River Dale Farm near Keysville were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baumgardner, Fred Stonestier, Mrs. Gilbert Stine, all near Keysville and John Lambert of New Midway. Wednesday afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bolter of Rocky Ridge and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Garrett of Manchester. Houseguests, who arrived last Friday, are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hood of Franklin Grove, Ill., who are spending some time with the Cluts.

Have you read about the Peace Essay Contest being sponsored by Lions International? Any male or female between the ages of 14 and 21 as of Jan. 15, 1967, is eligible to enter and must be sponsored by a local Lions Club. It is hoped this will help to concentrate attention on the subject of world peace and accentuate the meaning of liberty and freedom. Information can be obtained from any of the Lions Club officers in Keysville, Union Bridge and Taneytown or any other Club in other vicinities. Could be very worthwhile; some of our young people should "look" into it.

Mrs. Lafe Hyde and Mrs. Paul Wildisan of Westminster and Mrs. William Weishaar near Detour visited on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Joseph Kauffman at Mt. Sinai Hospital in Baltimore. She has since been discharged and is at her home in Baltimore.

Henry Tag and sister Dorie Tag of Baltimore were Monday visitors with the Carroll Wilhide family and "aunt" Ada Yoder, who had been visiting the Wilhides the previous week, returned home with them.

By the way, I'm sure I recognized Miss Stella Scott of Laurel in church on Sunday but I didn't have the opportunity to talk with her. Sure she was visiting with her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Priest and Andrea on the Forest and Stream Club Road.

The annual turkey and oyster supper sponsored by the PTA of Francis Scott Key High School is coming up on Saturday, Oct. 29, from 3 P. M. until 7. It is a family style supper. Martha Dutrow of Mt. Union was an overnight visitor on Friday and Saturday with Beth at the Carroll Wilhide home near Detour. Beth then spent Sunday and was an overnight guest that evening with Martha at the Nevin Dutrow home. (Sort of turn-about.)

Sunday visitors with the William Fleharty family and Mrs. Ralph Fleharty near Detour were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wolfgang and Steve Henshaw of Ginter, Pa. — father, stepmother and stepbrother of Mrs. William.

Certainly was good to be able to greet Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roop at church on Sunday. Many of you readers will remember Mr. Roop is recovering from a heart attack and can no longer come as a "regular."

Luncheon guests on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Susan and Christine near Detour were her grandfather, sister and brother, Keifer Seibert, Mariann and Johnny Seibert of Clear Spring. They helped make a "celebration" for Christine's first birthday. In the afternoon they called at the Clyde Wilhide home on the Keysville Road before returning home. Mr. and Mrs. Wilhide and daughters were supper guests with the Clyde Wilhide family.

Happy Birthday wishes next week to Hazel Lambert on the 15th, Susan Wilhide on the 16th, Karry Nussbaum on the 17th and (think this is the right date) Mrs. Robert (Kathryn) Stine on the 21st.

Some observations progress is being made on the Harley Weeks home in Keywood Village, garage looks completed at the Sterling Smith home in Keysville, construction at the Paul Roop home which looks like a possible garage and today (Tuesday, the 11th) the well-driller at work near the Clyde and Albert Wilhide farms on the Keysville Road. This must be for the future home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Hugh Engel, whose building permit application was in the paper last week. Good for them!

To celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary on the 6th, Mr. and Mrs. William Fleharty near Detour joined her sister and friend, Miss Carol Wolfgang and William Burr of Washington, in Baltimore to spend the day. They enjoyed the Farm-City tours of Steiff Silver Co. in the morning and McCormack Tea and Spice Co. in the afternoon as well as lunch at La Ronde, the revolving restaurant atop the Holiday Inn, the movie about and walk around Fort McHenry, a "window-shopping" tour through two big department stores and dinner at Hausner's Restaurant (and what a place that is!). It was just a grand day for four people whose knowledge of Baltimore has been very poor. They hope to do it again some time.

Here's a calendar for you of some up-coming events. And don't forget this is Community Chest-Red Cross-United Appeal Month. If someone doesn't contact you, call the Red Cross office in Westminster for the name of your District Chairman and she will be glad to visit you.

28—Evening bake sale for benefit of Cub Pack 459 in Union Bridge.

29—Annual turkey and oyster supper at Key High School.

In and around and among all these mentioned, of course, are den meetings of Cub Pack 459 on Mondays, Scout Troop 330 on Tuesdays, Explorer Post 459 on Thursdays and Lutheran Confirmation Classes on Friday evenings as well as the numerous other organizations in the area.

What a wonderful turn-out for the PTA general meeting at Elmer A. Wolfe School in Union Bridge on Monday evening. Hope all those present learned a bit more about what his or her child does during the time he spends in school. Found Miss Linthicum's presentation quite interesting.

Elmer A. Wolfe PTA Meeting

Visiting in his child's classroom and having his schedule explained by his teacher was the highlight of the evening at the general meeting of the Elmer A. Wolfe School PTA in Union Bridge on Monday evening, Oct. 10.

This program gave parents an insight into how their children spend their day at school. Many parents were amazed to learn just how much is involved in a school day since it is true that "times have changed" and "they sure don't do it like they did when I went to school"; which are typical of some of the comments heard.

Mr. Perron, principal, introduced the new teachers this year: Mrs. Nichols, first grade; Mrs. Cook, second grade; Mrs. Simmons, third grade, and Mrs. Smariga, fifth grade. He also introduced the part-time (meaning they are shared with other schools) teachers: Mrs. Henry, elementary guidance; Mrs. Clingman, music 4-8; Mrs. Rowlands, art, and mentioned Jack Baile, physical education 4-6, who is now at Outdoor School. Mrs. Henry explained elementary guidance counseling is a new concept but the main part of her job is to listen: to be someone to whom children or parents can come with any problems and they will try to work out a solution together. Mrs. Rowlands told how interested in art children are and how talented many of them are. She also showed some examples of sixth and second grade work.

Following the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" and "Maryland, My Maryland" as well as the invocation by pastor Harold Bowser of the Church of the Brethren in Union Bridge, president Paul Bowman extended welcome to all those present and hoped the attendance would continue as good for future meetings. Mr. Perron explained the policy of using printed minutes to save time and to give everyone more time to study over them at their leisure. A motion was made and approved to donate $150.00 to the Library Fund. Dues of 50 cents per person were received by the Membership Committee and subscriptions to the National PTA Magazine were accepted.

As squirrel season is in—I feel sorry for those pretty little bushy tail creatures; such playful little things and always busy running up and down trees and jumping from one tree to another—it seems they never rest. Yet, for a hunter it's a great sport; and believe me they are good eating. We are having baked squirrel pot pie for supper this evening (Tues.). Oh no, I didn't kill them, our son did, so we shall enjoy it together.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and family entertained in their home, near Mayberry, on Sunday evening Mrs. Williams mother, Mrs. Mable Smith who spent the week-end in their home; others were Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Reddick and children, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Smith and children, Miss Miriam Doble, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Doble and son, Mrs. Grant Baker and Herman Smith; also, Miss Marie Reddick and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Selby.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lentzner of this place enjoyed a few days vacation at Uniontown, Penna., where they attended a dog show and expressed themselves as having a wonderful time and enjoyed the scenery very much. As the leaves are changing their colors and the beautiful green grass, who wouldn't enjoy a trip like that?

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Frock entertained to supper on Sunday evening in their home: Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Stair and son James, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carl and children, David, Daniel and Debbie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frock, Charles Frock and children, Steven and Debbie called in the afternoon.

We are so sorry to know Mr. Norman Heiner of Linwood is back in the Hanover General Hospital. We do wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Briggs and family helped move the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bentley I. Sharar from near Pleasant Valley to near Ottendale Mill on Friday.

Mr. Scott Sullivan of Frizellburg celebrated his 80th birthday on Oct. 8. He informed me it was a very happy one. He received 79 cards on that day and I believe some friends took him and his wife and daughter out for supper, which I am sure was greatly appreciated. We wish Mr. Sullivan many more happy birthdays.

This following poem is dedicated to Mr. Scott Sullivan in honor of his birthday, by Mrs. Frock.

Not Growing Old

"Though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day."

They say that I am growing old, I've heard them tell it times untold. In language plain and bold— But I am not growing old. This frail shell in which I dwell Is growing old, I know full well— But I am not the shell. What if my hair is turning gray? Gray hairs are honorable, they say. What if my eyesights growing dim? I still can see to follow Him Who sacrificed his life for me Upon the cross of Calvary.

What should I care if time's old plow Has left its furrows on my brow? Another house not made with hands Awaits me in the Glory Land. What though I falter in my walk? What though my tongue refuses to talk? I still can tread the narrow way, I still can watch, and praise and pray.

My hearing may not be as keen As in the past it may have been Still I can hear my Saviour say In whispers soft, "this is the way." The outward man, do what I can To lengthen out this life's short span, Shall perish, and return to dust As everything in nature must. The inward man, the scriptures say, Is growing stronger every day. Then how can I be growing old When safe within my Saviour's fold? E're long my soul shall fly away. And leave this tenebrous of clay, This role of flesh I'll drop and rise To seize the "everlasting prize."— I'll meet you on the steets of Gold, And prove that I'm not growing old. (selected).

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports — John Breth

Last week, before the World Series began, interviewers tried to push Baltimore Orioles manager Hank Bauer into conceding that his club had little chance against the Los Angeles Dodgers. They had an impossible task, of course, but, Bauer didn't reply with any claims of Orioles' greatness. He trotted out a cliché that has been used since the first World Series was played. Bauer answered their intimidations by declaring: "Anything can happen in a World Series."

But, no one, not Bauer, not the most rabid Orioles fan, not the most qualified expert, could anticipate what actually would happen. If the word incredible can be used to describe any World Series, it can be used to tell of the 1966 edition.

The Orioles pitching staff, which was far from superior during the 1966 American League pennant race, turned in the greatest display of hurling since the World Series was inaugurated.

Baltimore pitchers hurled three shutouts in four games, and 33 consecutive scoreless innings. The Dodgers, of course, are a notoriously weak-hitting team. Still, they won the pennant for two straight years in a tough National League, and they beat the Minnesota Twins in last year's World Series. But, in this year's Series, they were more futile than any other World Series team before them, and that takes in a lot of teams since 1903.

What makes it so incredible is that they were completely stymied by a pitching staff which had less complete games during the season than Dodger ace Sandy Koufax had by himself. They were stopped in the first game by reliever Moe Drabowsky, who long ago was a castoff in the National League. When Jim Palmer beat them in the second game, it marked the first time Palmer had pitched a shutout all year. In fact, he pitched only six complete games all season. Wally Bunker, who won the third Series game, pitched but three complete games all year. And Dave McNally, who won Sunday, had only five complete games, and he had only one regular season shutout.

Those are the cold facts. Now, the question is, were those pitchers inspired far above their abilities because they were pitching in a Series? Or, did the Dodgers die on their own?

The debate is now on.

At the end of World Series day number one, MAURY WILLS, the articulate and sometimes overconfident captain of the Dodgers, said: "That was the dullest World Series game I ever played in."

Maury used one word too many. He should have left the word game out. Except possibly in Baltimore, the late but not lamented World Series was about as exciting as a trip to the corner grocery store.

Even some of the more enthusiastic Baltimore fans were disappointed. . . those who had tickets for the fifth game.

In losing four straight the Dodgers set a number of negative records, which they will not care to talk about.

But there is one they can and probably will. In drawing down a loser's share of approximately $8,000 each, the Dodgers set a new high for payment received for doing nothing.

No records are kept on things like that. But the Dodgers are believed to have broken the old records set by numerous politicians, who did nothing for anywhere from four to 40 years at a high rate of pay. The point about the Dodgers is that they only loafed for four days. The per diem rate was much higher.

A few stage and screen stars have come close with big paydays for one-shot appearances on TV shows and we don't see how we can leave out Sonny Liston and that so-called fight against Cassius Clay in Maine.

But the thing that made the Dodger performance so outstanding was the great co-ordinated mass of inertia.

The Dodger fans are fond of blowing bugs. They sound the charge. They were aiming in the wrong direction.

There have been a number of theories brought forth about this ridiculous World Series, including one that the whole thing was predestined. We'll pass on that. But we do have our own. One, the Dodgers were all in from the strain of the pennant race. Two, they overestimated themselves and underestimated Baltimore. Three, they gave up. . . that's right, gave up. At least emotionally. When they got to Baltimore for game three they had about as much fight in them as a pickpocket at a policeman's ball.

The Dodger pitchers tried hard. Don Drysdale and Claude Osteen pitched beautiful games in defeat. And Sandy Koufax was gunned down by his own rifleman. But the others, in the expressive language of the race track, just "laid the bodies down." They had gone as far as they could.

Today's Sport Laugh — Baltimore coach Buddy Jeannette was doubly annoyed one night in losing to the St. Louis Hawks in a National Basketball Association playoff game. Not only did he lose the game, but the mascot for the Baltimore team — a Dachshund — bit Jeannette on the wrist when the game ended. Said the coach: "That's the way it goes when you lose. Even the dog bites you."
