The worst storm of the Winter deposited about 8 inches of snow on this area on Tuesday, then ended abruptly in midafternoon leaving icy roads and hazardous driving conditions. As we left the "office" Tuesday evening the snow was piled high along the streets of town, but when we came to work early Wednesday morning we observed that the snow clearance crew had diligently, despite sub-zero temperature, removed the snow from the center of town. The "town fathers" are to be congratulated on their promptness.

THE SCHOOL TEACHER'S CREED

—Edwin Grover

I believe in boys and girls; the men and women of a great tomorrow; that whatsoever the boy soweth the man shall reap. I believe in the curse of ignorance, in the efficacy of schools; in the dignity of teaching, and in the joy of serving others. I believe in wisdom as revealed in human lives as well as in the pages of a printed book; in lessons taught not so much by precept as by example; in ability to work with the hands as well as to think with the head; in everything that makes life large and lovely. I believe in beauty in the school room, in the home, in daily life and in out-of-doors. I believe in laughter, in love, in faith, in all ideals and distant hopes that lure us on. I believe that every hour of every day we receive a just reward, for all we are and all we do. I believe in the present and its opportunities in the future and its promises and in the divine joy of living.

I would like to say that I get a great deal of pleasure recalling my former teachers. In fact, some of them are now my children's teachers. But I think one sad thing about today is that the children miss the closeness we had because our classes were much smaller and we were given more personal attention.

—Esther N. Speak, P. S. Just today I came across a little book given to me for perfect attendance and it says, "To Esther, with love from her teacher." 1936-37.

"I've worked here for eight years," an employee said to his boss, "and I've been doing the work of three men. I want a raise."

"I can't give you a raise," the boss answered, "but if you'll tell me the other two men are I'll fire 'em."

PREPARE PLANT SITE

Children's Pictures Taken Free and Published in The Carroll Record

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our nation, and community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publishers of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures they must all be of uniform size and quality.

An expert children's photographer with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work will be here Tuesday, Feb. 21. Pictures will be taken at the City Office (Council room) and the studio will be open from 10 A. M. to 6 P. M.

No Charge to Parents

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain them by arrangement with the Studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them.

The More Pictures, the Better

The Carroll Record simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more, the better. Children who have been photographed for this feature in previous years are especially invited to return, so that we may see how they have changed. So the mothers and fathers of the community in which this newspaper circulates should remember the date—Tuesday, Feb. 21—at the Taneytown City Office and not fail to bring their children to the photographer.

You will be mighty glad, afterwards, if you did, and very, very sorry if you do not permit your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have much fun and both mother and dad—and the youngsters, too—will be very proud to see their pictures in print later. No appointment is necessary. There is no age limit.

If you wish to make an appointment, phone Mrs. Helen McNair at 756-4401. You may come at any time during Studio hours. All children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Photography will be handled by the Dansville, New York, office of Woltz Studios of Des Moines.

Lay Life and Work Committee Meets

The committee of Lay Life and Work of Grace United Church of Christ met on February 2, 1967 with George Fream presiding. Seven members were present. After a prayer by George Fream, the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The treasurer reported a total of $2,090.21 in the savings account, and a balance of $467.19 in the checking account.

Mrs. Wiley, who has accepted the duties of Key Lady for the remainder of the Lay Life and Work year has reported to George Fream that at a meeting of the Carroll County Church Women it was stated that many churches have not met their financial obligation to this organization. It is evident that we have not given in the last year but no one knew what is due. Efforts are going to be made to get some details on this situation.

It is hoped that a program put on entirely by the youth of the church will be held in April. A Christian Education Program is planned for sometime in May, at which time the film, "The Parable" will be shown. The Mother-Daughter, Father-Son Banquet will also be held in May.

After some discussion, the motion was made, seconded, and passed to transfer the money in our savings account to the Renovation Fund at which time it is needed.

The committee agreed to take charge of the Quiet Hour Service on the Wednesday night of Holy Week. A committee is to be appointed.

There was some discussion of some possible missionary projects for the church. It was suggested that a tour through the Church World Service Center would be interesting and perhaps give us some idea of what can be done to help in this field. This possibility is going to be investigated.

The flower committee was given permission to buy some more flower stands that they feel is needed. The meeting was then adjourned.

ANNAPOLIS REPORTS

The problem to build or not to build a bridge over the Chesapeake Bay once again confronts the Legislature.

SB 144 would direct the State Roads Commission to construct a bridge over the Chesapeake Bay from a point near Tolchester in Kent County to a point on the opposite shore near Heart Island in Baltimore County. This is the so-called Northern Crossing. In addition, it directs the Commission to survey and acquire the necessary property for a southern crossing of the Chesapeake Bay.

Another Bridge Bill — SB 106 — would direct the State Roads Commission to construct a bridge over Back River from a point near North Point Road in the Edgemere Area of Baltimore County to a point on the opposite shore near Wilson Point.

SB 117 creates a State Board for Community Colleges and provides for its membership, powers, duties and functions. Under this bill, counties could establish Community Colleges until June 30, 1968 thereafter, the approval would be given by the State Board for Community Colleges. They would also have the authority to establish regional Colleges for two or more counties.

SB 120 provides for tuition scholarships for full-time students at Community Colleges enrolled in a teacher training curriculum. This is the same provision now made for students at the State Colleges, and the University of Maryland.

SB 130 would increase the number of Medical Scholarships awarded by the State Scholarship Board from 10 to 20 annually.

SB 123 changes the manner of assessment of farm lands by limiting the qualifying lands with a certain class of zoning (zoned only for single family residence use, or conservation or agricultural use) and exempting from such assessment lands subdivided into building lots in recorded plats.

Charles H. Smelser
State Senator
Carroll-Frederick District

The report this week will center around the discussion with the County Commissioners and your legislators during their visit to Annapolis this week.

It was agreed by all that the code should be amended to remove the Alms House from the local laws since we no longer have an Alms House. The two bills pertaining to weeds on an improved lot and junk motor vehicles in a residential area will pass the House this coming week. It was also agreed that the County Commissioners have the power to regulate dog problems caused by inconsiderate owners. The Commissioners indicated they would take such action immediately. Also discussed was Industrial Park Financing. It was the consensus of opinion of the commissioners and legislators after conferring with the Chamber of Commerce that the county should not involve itself in the real estate business pertaining to industrial parks but should have the power to provide water and sewerage to an industrial park when it would be in the best interest to the citizens of Carroll County.

A proposal for legislation on sanitary districts was also discussed. Your delegates felt legislation would not be introduced until the county and municipalities agree on a plan which is in the best interest of all concerned.

After discussion, the Commissioners felt that the engineering and maintenance of the county roads should be under different heads but to be controlled by the County Commissioners. It was indicated they would submit final recommendations in the near future.

The Commissioners expressed that the Tobacco and Alcohol Beverage Inspector should be appointed by them and not by the Liquor Board as is presently the law.

State wide fiscal reform was also discussed but it was felt that no recommendations should be made at this time pending the report by the Governor's Committee on Fiscal Reform.

After lengthy discussion, the Commissioners suggested your legislators consider a half of one per cent recodification tax. It was indicated this could bring in an estimated $100,000. These monies would go into the general fund to help pay for all services in the county and not into a special fund as was reported in some of the newspapers.

We would like to point out this is the evaluation of the meeting by the undersigned legislators for we feel we would never attempt to speak for the Commissioners or our colleagues in the Senate.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning. A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

A lovely letter arrived in answer to the "Farewell" one that I sent to our former Governor Tawes! Also a sweet one in a reply to the new Governor's wife which she signed "Judy" and that was the day before the inauguration! Sweet? I think all Maryland was disappointed not seeing the Governor's Ball alive on TV from the armory.

And thinking about TV, hope you did not miss "General Eisenhower on the Military Church" commemorating the 2nd anniversary of the death of Winston Churchill. General Eisenhower reminiscing informally with the news correspondent, Alistair Cooke of the Manchester Guardian about the Military brilliance of Britain's wartime leader. It all was filmed from the Eisenhower farm, near Gettysburg, Penna. It truly was beautiful in color and of course showed the funeral procession, as it was the day in England. He truly was the most remarkable man in History! He never left the Americans forget that he had an American mother! And he would bring that in his conversation or speeches always to remind England.

Then on Sunday night at 10:00 P. M. the grand viewing for the first time of The Royal Palaces of Britain's and their fabulous art treasures! There were four palaces visited and it was most fascinating.

The perfect man today is "The Policeman" and there is no bigger honor in any position or profession for they are truly the brave of the bravest! One big thing that I object to is that they are not given the authority as they had a few years back. ORTEBELAW! What say you, Folks?

Betcha, there will be grandparents in the White House in the merry month of May!

Now, Mrs. Housewife when next you purchase Hot Dogs be sure and ask how long they have been on display, for in no time they become discolored with little green dots!

Just think SEVENTY thousand people viewed "The Wyeth Collection" in the Museum of Art! They say that many were impressed. Even if it did not go over with me it was more worthy of the classification Art than the dreary output of the modernistic, who offer a meaningless, shapeless blob, a vicious smear of pigmentation as a work of art! Most of this stuff although designed painstakingly leaves me confused and somehow the insulted! This seems an age of the glorification of the ugly! Beautiful Vistas, lovely women, glorious men—all passed by in preference to abstract nothing. Puzzles in oils—a waste of canvas. Of course there is a place for realistic work, depicting the poverty and misery of the underprivileged—and such work can be done with great efficiency and admirable execution. So that, no doubt we the canvases telling a heart-wrenching story of the Wyeth Collection rather than perpetuate a beautiful scene or a painting or a portrait. I feel that those paintings on exhibition rather than beautiful told a story of being emotionally disturbing yet deserving of a place in historical art. That is how the artist, Robert Wyeth struck me!

How accurate the "Farmer's Almanac" for January, stating of the Spring-like weather plus the big snow storm in Chicago! Perle Miasta never gives a party without consulting that little paper-back book! Did you notice these days that all druggists in filling your prescription fills the bottle (over half) not with pills . . . but . . . with cotton? When you want to hard boil an egg, never allow it to continue boiling for that makes the egg white tough. Turn out the light under the vessel and cover with a lid until the water cools. You will find a much more delicious hard boiled egg, even though it is not true to name!

As to getting thinner, Ladies here is truly the secret. No diet—just do without ice cream entirely and no chocolate in three months all around! And now, I have no desire for those two sweets. I eat canned fruit when I desire something sweet.

Have a grand week-end; folks. Be most careful when you drive and if you are not compelled to do so, don't venture out in any kind of bad weather and—never—never drive when you feel nervous or upset! Until next week. D. V.

I am,
Faithfully yours,
Irene deLeon Love.

BOY SCOUT WEEK

The Boy Scouts of America celebrate the 57th anniversary of their organization February 7 to 13. Today there are over five and three-quarter million scouts in the United States alone. Scouting is dedicated to teaching boys how to do things for themselves and others.

Working to build friendship and understanding between the people of all countries, scout associations of 86 nations now coordinate their efforts through the Boy Scouts World Conference. Although each national association is independent in its organization and methods, the World Conference works to establish common ground in thinking and action among all its member associations. One of the major highlights of 1967 will be the Twelfth World Jamboree to be held at Farragut State Park in Idaho next August. The first to take place in the United States, it will bring together more than 15,000 scouts from 100 free nations. Although they will speak many dozens of different languages and come from widely varying religious, economic and cultural backgrounds, they will for a time share common experiences and pleasures and be united in the purpose of building world friendship.

In the work they are doing, the Boy Scouts deserve the respect and support of all of us. Building character in boys today shapes men of whom all the world can be proud tomorrow.

WHAT'S IMPLAUSIBLE?

About a month ago the U. S. Press Association wrote an editorial entitled "Dream Agency." Editor Lyle Munson had turned his imagination on, tuned it to high gear, and dreamed up an experimental federal commission which would coordinate and consolidate all procurement of collating materials and devices for all branches of government, federal, state, county, municipal, township, etc.

In this fantasy, the Office for Co-ordinated Purchasing and Distribution of Collating Materials and Devices—paper clips—was blueprinted to assess the annual needs of all branches of government, a survey that would take "6 or 8 months." Then a comprehensive research program was envisioned for testing materials and styles. And, finally, some costly manuals were projected, encouraging reuse of the paper clips. Great economies were outlined, since this centralized buying would permit ordering paper clips by the ton.

What editor Munson didn't know when he was trying to be funny was that The Observer, in London, England, was reporting that a firm in Singapore recently received an inquiry from Saigon for "12 million trombones." "Trombone" is the French word for paper clip. Saigon, and that means, presumably, the American forces there, wanted a price on 12 million paper clips.

That report set us to doing a bit of window-gazing in our office. And the people in the shop thought we had gone a bit nutty. We counted out standard-size paper clips from a jar on the desk and tenderly placed them on the letter scale. In case you didn't know it, it takes 37 paper clips to weigh one ounce. Exactly 37.

Having determined this we proceeded with some advanced arithmetic and reckoning 32,000 ounces to the ton arrived at a figure of 1,184,000 paper clips to the ton.

Saigon wanted a quote on 12 million. That's 10 tons of paper clips.

For Saigon alone.

Now I have to write that guy Munson and tell him his imagination is out of whack. If Saigon needs ten tons of paper clips, then all those levels of government he was talking about would have to buy them by the megaton.

Its right hard to lampoon the government any more. What's implausible?

NOTED AND PASSED

Things Are Different Department: Maybe our memory is failing, but during World War II we don't recall that there were insistent demands, including some from the U. S. Senate, that we negotiate with Hitler, Mussolini and Tojo. Seems we were talking unconditional surrender at that time. We have no recollection that pro-Nazi nuts carrying placards demonstrated for the same unholy trio. Nor do we recall that any big metropolitan newspapers assigned reporters to interview Hitler or Tojo to report how American bombers had blasted Berlin and Tokyo. Funny, isn't it. We seem to be terribly sensitive about the precious lives of Communists behind the Iron and Bamboo Curtains, not to mention the civil rights Reds at home.

Heave-Ho: We read somewhere that a special performance of "Hello, Dolly!" was presented at the White House for the shepherds of our Great Society. Apparently the big hit of the evening was a line from the show: "Money is like manure — it's not worth a thing unless it's spread around . . ."

This caused everybody to laugh and laugh and applaud and applaud, with the President the most delighted of all. Which suggests that this song ought to be used by the LBJ forces as their theme song for the next political campaign. It's most appropriate—a two-way thing because you may be sure that both items mentioned in the ditty are going to be thrown around with abandon between now and November, 1968.

Keep the Faith: We see that the Rev. Adam Clayton Powell has a gimmick to pay the libel judgment against him that is one of the reasons he is not in good odor with his fellow Congressmen. He has made a record, a weird thing reminiscent of a revival meeting without much music and with less talent. With the loot from the sales Powell will pay the woman he libeled and the Congress will welcome him back to the fold. It's a good gimmick, especially when you consider that there's a sucker born every minute. But we don't think the idea should stop with the Reverend Adam. Using this system we could empty the nation's jails. All that's needed is a tape recorder in every calaboose. Clearly we already have a never-ending supply of nitwits to buy the output.

Good Question: Asked by Rep. Harold Collier: "I just wonder what these 187 people (in the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency) do eight hours a day, five days a week and 52 weeks a year at a time when we are increasing the size of our military armaments and expanding the defense budget?"

GRASSROOTS OPINIONS

SOUTH BEND, WASH., JOURNAL: "Secretary of Labor Wirtz has come up with the crying need for a method by which it can be assured that dropouts who don't want to go to school can reap the maximum benefit from this great and glorious society called USA. . . . Calling for 'a rational, equitable and effective' policy for youth, Wirtz would establish community 'Opportunity Boards' where youths would be REQUIRED TO REGISTER ON REACHING THE AGE OF 18 OR QUITTING SCHOOL. . . . The aim of the community 'Opportunity Board' would be as follows: 1. To provide badly needed 'human inventory' (Translated: A large group of live bodies); 2. To arrange for every American boy and girl to proceed along the course—education, employment, training, or service—that he or she wants or OUGHT to take. . . . The choice of words seems to imply that if they don't want to take the course they OUGHT to take, they then would be compelled to take the course they OUGHT to take. . . . Cradle to grave maintenance of people by their government is abhorrent . . . and always has been. Each program enacted for the so-called welfare of the people has drawn a net tighter and tighter 'round the citizen by giving him something and then taking some of his freedom away in exchange."

HARRISONBURG, VA., NEWS-RECORD: "Struggling to keep up with inflation, the nation's colleges have been channeling an increasing amount of their endowment funds into common stocks. Some institutions, with trustees wise in the world of finance, have been pleased with the result of such ventures. There could be no more powerful persuasion for the nation's colleges to uphold the philosophy of free enterprise than this obvious dependency upon it. That some of them at times seem less than loyal toward that system is inexplicable."

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, MINN., JOURNAL: "One of the disturbing facts about the increasing death toll in traffic accidents throughout the country is the fact that rural deaths are gaining, while city deaths decline. That is true in the bigger states. It indicates that education and law enforcement are having their effect in urban centers but not widely enough implanted in rural areas. Also, perhaps, that the effect of expressways is to encourage speed on country roads, where access is unprotected."

MILLINGTON, TENN., STAR: "Almost daily the charge is made that Americans are losing one more freedom. Freedom of the press is being dangerously tampered with, from high places where secrecy is preferred, and where an idea is created that people are not smart enough to know the whole truth. There is little question that many freedoms have gone by the board—such as freedom from taxation without representation, which covers many areas today of federal spending."

STORM LAKE, IOWA, PILOT-TRIBUNE: "It makes little or no difference to the U.S. Supreme Court how the public feels about some of the decisions of recent months which are declared to favor criminals and make their arrest and conviction more difficult. The Justices are appointed for life. The voters haven't an opportunity to cast ballots either for or against them."

HEPLIN, ALA., NEWS: "In the opinion of many European economists, unless the United States balances its payments soon a run on the dollar is possible at any time. With the war in Viet Nam expanding, this isn't an easy time to balance payments. Yet firm action is needed, and has been needed for a year or more, to stop the loss of U.S. gold, bolster the reputation of the dollar and the pound. It is a hard decision to make, and the temptation which intrigues the Administration is to wait a little longer before a hard remedy is effected."

RIVERTON, WYO., RANGER: "The advance of knowledge and technology isn't outdistancing just those whose jobs are threatened by it. Supposedly educated people are shocked to find themselves virtually illiterate in many fields because of the advance in knowledge."

CURRENT EVENTS
FIFTY YEARS AGO

A fierce blizzard raged for a short while last Sunday evening, as people were coming home from church. The worst short experience for years.

Monday morning was bitter cold, but it did not prevent many loads of 14¢ hogs from being brought here for shipment. This is the highest price ever reached at this market.

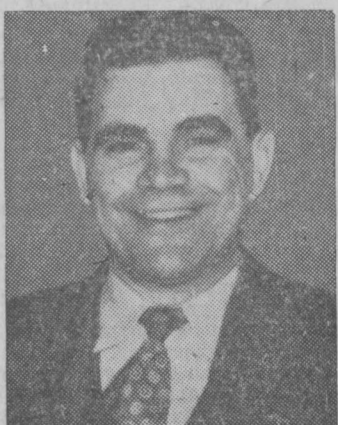

W. H. Dern of Frizellburg, the up-to-date harness dealer, placed the first order for 1918 calendars with our office this week.

War with Germany Expected — The German government officially announced that hereafter it would pursue relentless submarine warfare against all merchant vessels, without regard to nationality, within certain prescribed areas about the coasts of entente nations. The object especially is to starve the Allies so far as food is concerned and to prevent their receiving arms and ammunition, the most of which comes from the United States. The situation is serious, and if American commerce is interfered with, must result in a state of war, between this country and Germany.

Movable School for Farmers — A school for farmers will be held at Taneytown Feb. 12, 13 and 14. Instructors and subjects: Dr. S. S. Buckley, livestock; Prof. W. E. Kemp, soils and crops. The meeting will be held in the Opera House at 1 P. M.

Wm. Edward Reaver, 33, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus W. Reaver, died suddenly from cerebral hemorrhage Sunday, Feb. 4, at his home in this district. Mr. Reaver had recently purchased the small farm of Hezekiah D. Hawn to which he and his wife intended to remove in the spring. In addition to his wife and parents, he leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Edgar Brown, Mrs. Vernon Brower, Mrs. Clarence Baumgardner and Roland and Russell Reaver.

David A. Vaughn, 67, died suddenly on Wednesday, Feb. 7, from a paralytic stroke, at his home near Taneytown. He leaves his wife and five children: Mrs. Birnie Fair, Mrs. Charles Spangler and John, William and Robert Vaughn, also one sister, Mrs. Samuel Bricker, and one brother, Samuel of Gettysburg. Funeral services were held on Friday morning at the Lutheran Church, Taneytown, by his pastor, Rev. L. B. Hafer.

KEYSVILLE - DETOUR

Greetings to you:

Congratulations to newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clabaugh, who were married at Keysville Lutheran Church on Sunday by Pastor William Markley. Mrs. Clabaugh is the former Miss Virginia Summers of Ladiesburg.

Please note a correction: Boy Scout Troop 330 members will attend St. James' Lutheran Church in Union Bridge on Scout Sunday, Feb. 12. Cub Pack 459 will attend the Church of the Brethren. Members of both the Pack and the Troop wish to say "Thanks" to all those who contributed and helped the paper drive on Saturday. It was surely appreciated.

Our sincere sympathy to the family and friends of Clyde Hesson, formerly of Taneytown, who died last Thursday. Sure he will be missed for he was quite active in a number of things.

It certainly was a shock to everyone last week when the three physicians were killed in their capsule. One can't help but feel sorry for their families.

Our sincere sympathy also to Clarence Hahn of DeTour upon the death of his sister, Mrs. Emma Hittabridge of LeGore last Tuesday.

Sunday visitors with Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy near DeTour were her children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wildsian, Kevin and Kim of Westminster, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Weishaar and Loretta of Taneytown and Mr. and Mrs. James Weishaar, Bobby and Billy of DeTour.

Last Tuesday (Jan. 31) after returning their daughter Jane to Bridgewater College, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide and their son, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Hertzler, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hertzler, Misses Martha and Mary Kathryn King and the William Presley family. (These folks are cousins of Mrs. Wilhide.)

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun and family near DeTour were supper guests with her brother and sister-in-law and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fogle and Mrs. Oden Fogle near Union Bridge.

World Day of Prayer services will be held at the United Church of Christ in Keysville on Friday evening, Feb. 10, beginning at 7:45 P. M. Pastor Markley will be the speaker. Lenten services in the Union Bridge Lutheran began on Wednesday, Feb. 8, at Keysville Lutheran Church at 7:45 P. M. Next service, on the 15th, will be held at Mt. Tabor in Rocky Ridge.

Sunday supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Susan and Christine near DeTour were his mother and sister, Mrs. Carroll Wilhide and Beth.

Eager Beaver Girls' 4-H Club meeting on Friday evening, Feb. 10, at the home of Sherie Coshun near Mt. Union.

Keysville-DeTour Homemakers Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Mark Sanders with Mrs. Louis Keppers as co-hostess on Thursday, Feb. 16. (Note the change of date to allow for Lenten services on Wednesday evenings.)

Cub Pack 459 Blue and Gold Banquet for families on Friday, Feb. 17, at the Church of the Brethren in Union Bridge. Menu has been planned and mothers have been asked to bring certain dishes for the meal.

Callers last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cluts of River Dale Farm near Keysville were Mrs. Edith Harner and granddaughter Miss Harriet Harner of Emmitsburg, Ernest O. Renner and Dr. Richard M. Phreaner of Littlestown, Mrs. Gilbert Fleming and Mrs. Harry Kohler near Sykesville, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baumgardner of Keysville, William Fleaharty near DeTour, their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Heaps near Silver Spring (on Saturday); Mrs. Carroll Dougherty and Miss Vallie Shorb of DeTour and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hess of Taneytown. Speaking of dates, Happy Valentine's Day to each and every one of you. Hope your own very special Valentine (or Valentines) remember you on this date.

Don't forget, all you good Lutherans, to join the Seminary Auxiliary this month and contribute to the Scholarship Fund for the Gettysburg seminarians. Membership is one dollar each. Key person at Keysville is Mrs. William Fleaharty.

The remodeling is going on at the DeTour Inn. I'm one of the "stick-in-the-muds," however, for I liked it just as it was. All the other banks are so modernized but ours was different and quite original. Besides, didn't it make you think of when you were smaller—and you were sure the money was safe behind those bars?

Well, I guess that is part of what is called progress? New addition being built at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stanley in Keysville. This house has certainly been changed since these folks bought it. Quite attractively, too. (They have the antique shop in their home, you know.)

Snow, snow and more snow today (Tuesday). With the sun on it this afternoon, it is really pretty, though bright! Really looks winter, now.

KEYSVILLE LCW

"Lent for Today" was the program topic for the meeting of the Keysville Lutheran Church Women on Monday, Feb. 5, at the church. Mrs. Roy Baumgardner and Mrs. Charles Devilbiss were the leaders.

There were three parts to the program: Its Origin, Its Validity, Its Purpose Today. Mrs. Gilbert Stine, Mrs. Kenneth Dougherty and Mrs. Harry Hahn took part in a panel discussion. It was agreed that self-denial is important but it should be done in secret between oneself and his God. That the money saved should be used towards one's church or time saved be used to help someone else; such as visiting shut-ins or doing volunteer service.

The "Special" for the evening was choir members singing in three-part harmony, "I Am on the Battlefield for my Lord."

Mrs. Thomas Flohr led the business meeting in the absence of the president. Mrs. Robert Stine reported 55 Christmases completed and anyone interested in helping was invited to a workshop at home on the evening of the 9th. Mrs. William Fleaharty's name sent in as convention delegate. "Lutheran Women" magazine subscriptions due, March 5 will be One Great Hour of Sharing in Lutheran churches and used clothing is requested. Well, tomorrow (Tues.) is doughnut day, the old legend has it if you do not make doughnuts on that day you will have bad luck. I remember early on Shrove Tuesday morning my mother, after having the yeast made up the night before would make up a big pan full and then let them rise and when ready to fry cup little pieces from the dough and cut a little round hole in the middle and drop them in hot fat, browning them on each side, yum, yum, they were good but I can't make them like mother did.

Mrs. Charles Frock and children, Steven and Debbie spent Sunday afternoon in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fogle and family of Wolf's Mill.

Money Will Buy

A bed but not sleep; book but not brains; food but not appetite; finery but not beauty. A house but not a home; medicine but not health; luxuries but not culture; amusement but not happiness. A church pew but not heaven. But what you cannot buy you can receive as a gift, "for the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Rom. 6:23.

The Dollar and the Cent

A big silver dollar, and a little brown cent,

Rolling along together, went,

Rolling along the smooth sidewalk,

When the dollar remarked—for dollar's can talk;

"You poor little cent, you cheap little mite,

I'm bigger and more than twice so bright.

I'm worth more than you a hundred fold."

And written on me in letters bold, Is a motto drawn from the Pious creed,

"In God We Trust," which all can read."

"Yes I know," said the cent, "I'm a cheap little mite,

And I know I'm not big, nor good, nor bright;

"And yet," said the cent, with a much little sigh,

"You don't go to church as often as I."

Tuesday morning, 9:30 A. M.—is it snowing over, out, and across your way? It surely is here, and how?

The weather report, night before last, just a skiff—it said now 4 to 8 inches. It looks now we might get it. So, bundle up, and buckle up and keep warm and dry, and help keep those sniffs away.

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports —John Breth

WALTER O'MALLEY was surprised and that in itself is surprising. The owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers is an old pro among baseball magnates and this may be his first surprise in 25 years... it being that long since Pearl Harbor.

At any rate, the O'Malley reveals he has received only a half dozen letters in Los Angeles protesting the trade of Maury Wills, the artful Dodger, to Pittsburgh for Bob Bailey and Gene Michael.

The Dodger owner says his personal estimate runs around 1,200 letters—all uncomplimentary—if the team were still in Brooklyn. The natural assumption is that the Los Angeles fans are less emotional, although just as fervent at the gate as the boys in Brooklyn.

Wills was surprised to be the number two gate attraction in Los Angeles, topped only by Sandy Koufax, who has retired.

The chances are that if Maury was the number two draw he was a distant second to Sandy who had that rare quality called greatness. Wills is a good — perhaps very good — ball player. But great he is not.

Curiously enough, the O'Malley explains that Koufax's retirement brought on the trade of Wills, not the sudden exit Maury made from the Dodger tour of Japan.

Walter says the Dodgers will have to change their style with Sandy gone. They will have to look for more power and can no longer count on making one or two runs stand up in their big ball park.

Bob Bailey is a legitimate cracker at the plate and it takes no great imagination to see him as a .300 hitter of the future and in the 100 runs-batted-in category.

Wills was a standout leadoff man and was a great man at getting a rally started. He also is the king of modern day base stealers. But that ailing knee of last season cut down on his base stealing totals and that, too, must have influenced O'Malley's thinking in making the deal with Pittsburgh.

If EDDIE STANKY wasn't kidding it might be enough to get him thrown out of the managers' union. Eddie recently was quoted as saying, "I like to manage in close games where you can make more moves. Anybody can manage in a 9 to one ball game."

If there is one thing that most big league managers like it's to manage in a 9 to one game, when their team has the nine runs, of course.

Stanky pitched the Chicago White Sox to a fourth-place finish last season and feels certain that can be improved on in 1967. But he knows that the White Sox team batting average of .231 of last year will have to be jacked up by anywhere from 20 to 30 points.

For one thing, Eddie thinks Peter Ward, the big power man of the White Sox two years ago but racked up by injuries last season, will be swinging a busy bat this summer.

For another, Eddie is hoping for help from the rookie crop. He had a dandy rookie last year in Tommie Agee, the crack center fielder, and will settle for someone about half as good.

Catcher Duane Josephson, outfielder Ed Stroud and outfielder Walt Williams, acquired in a trade with the Cardinals, appear to be the top newcomers.

The White Sox have a pretty good pitching staff and for some reason had remarkable success against the two Robinsons, Brooks and Frank, who tore the league apart for Baltimore.

Against White Sox pitching, Brooks hit only .252 and Frank was held to an anemic mark of .208.

Gary Peters, Joel Horlen, Tommy John and Bruce Howard give the White Sox the nucleus of a fine pitching staff and Hoyt Wilhelm heads the bullpen, even at the advanced baseball age of 43.

Today's Sport Laugh — Former major league catcher and current sports broadcaster, Joe Garagiola, was master of ceremonies at a luncheon honoring the 1966 major league All-Star Rookie team. In introducing pitcher Jim Nash of the Kansas City Athletics, Garagiola said:

"That's a funny first name... Jim. How come you don't have a nice simple name like your teammates? Blue Moon, Catfish, something like that?"

FORMER GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND DIES

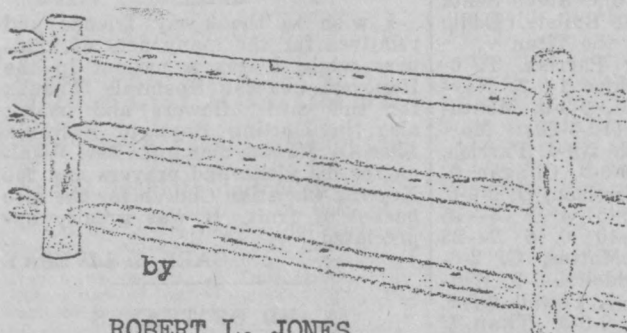

William Preston Lane, Jr., Governor of Maryland from 1947 to 1951, died at his home in Hagerstown, Tuesday. He was 74.

Mr. Lane, whose championing of unpopular issues brought him both success and failure in politics, gave Maryland the sales tax and the Chesapeake Bay Bridge in his historic term of office.

The former Governor, who was still active in government and business, was found slumped over his telephone, the victim of a heart attack.

Soil testing is a must for good crop management. The purpose of testing is to indicate what kind and how much fertilizer and lime is needed for a specific crop on a specific kind of soil.

Samples of soil are brought to our office in Westminster for testing in the modern laboratory at the University of Maryland. Test results are sent to us for specific recommendations before returning to the farmer or homeowner.

Any person may bring in soil samples for this free testing service. Boxes and instruction sheets for taking samples should be picked up in our office. Tests can be run for gardens and lawns as well as field crops. Two to three weeks are required to receive results. With the good weather, it's a good idea to get the samples now before the spring rush.

Congratulations to Farm Bureau for giving leadership in promoting farm vehicle safety on the highway. The "slow moving vehicle" (SMV) reflectorized sign, adopted by the farm safety council, offers special protection at night. They should be placed on the rear of wagons, combines and other pieces of farm equipment that is taken out on the highway.

Let's keep a clean record in Carroll County. An "ounce of prevention" may save thousands of dollars to say nothing of a tragic death. Safety is everybody's business and it's a good investment.

A good number of dairymen have already indicated they want to go on the dairy tour to the Louis Longo farm near Hartford, Connecticut. The overnight bus tour is scheduled for March 29 and 30. Reservations and additional information can be had by calling our office.

Mr. Longo is recognized as an outstanding commercial dairyman. His articles on the "Business Side of Dairying" appearing in a national farm magazine, are widely read by dairymen throughout the country.

LEGISLATIVE

FROM

By GOODLOE E. BYRON
STATE SENATOR
Carroll-Frederick District

TRAFFIC SAFETY LEGISLATION

No program before the Legislature this year is more critical than the package of bills recommended by the Maryland Traffic Safety Advisory Council.

This agency, along with several public-spirited groups such as the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs and the Western Maryland Safety Council, have recognized the need for constructive safety legislation to minimize the menace on our highways.

It should be noted that, until 1964, the number of traffic fatalities on Maryland's highways had shown an annual steady decline from the all time high of 612 deaths in 1941.

Even though 1966 showed a high of 750 traffic fatalities, there were 1,540,669 motor vehicles registered last year as compared to 468,350 registrations in 1941. This indicates a substantial decrease in the highway death rate percentage when based on the number of vehicles operating in the state.

This newly elected General Assembly is faced with the problem of an even greater increase in highway usage in the future and with the need to adopt legislation this year which would permit Maryland to receive the maximum in federal funds under the Federal Highway Safety Act of 1966.

Proposals under consideration during the current session include an eighteen-year-old minimum driver education bill; a mandatory motor vehicle inspection law; the so-called "implied consent" intoxication determination legislation; and a bill creating the post of Highway Safety Coordinator.

Several of these measures have been rejected by the General Assembly in the past. However, in the light of renewed public demands for safer highways, this year's session may be more productive and will, undoubtedly, approve many of the Traffic Safety Advisory Council's recommendations.

Beyond Being Sorry

Lesson for February 12, 1967

Background Scripture: Luke 13 and 14
Devotional Reading: Psalms 25

"What have I done to deserve this?" How often pastors hear that cry from people in hospital beds. Despite the teaching of Christ, many people still assume that suffering and sickness are sent as punishment from God.

Eliphaz, supposedly a friend, said to the stricken Job: "Who ever perished being innocent?" Job's misfortunes, he was sure, were the result of some sin he had committed. If Job were innocent, Eliphaz thought, he would not be suffering. It was not so strange a concept, for most people in those days reasoned in that manner.

Innocent Suffer Too

So too in the first century A.D. it was generally assumed that all suffering was sent by God as punishment for sin. "Who sinned," they had asked Jesus of the man born blind, "this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" The answer he gave them was surprising: neither! Throughout his ministry Jesus attacked the idea that suffering was necessarily punishment sent by God. The righteous and the innocent also may suffer. The crucifixion of Christ, the sinless sufferer, is history's prime case-in-point.

Nor should we assume that, if we escape suffering and hardship, it is because we are righteous and blameless. Do not, Jesus advised, execute judgment upon the Galileans martyred in the temple by Pilate or upon the men accidentally killed by the falling tower of Siloam. See to your own souls, for you are subject to God's judgment every bit as much as they.

An elderly woman to whom I used to take Holy Communion usually balked when I would come to the "Prayer of General Confession." "I don't need that," she'd snap, "I haven't done anything since you were here the last time." The call to repent is often hard to accept, particularly when things seem to be going well. This is no reason for complacency, Jesus warned: "The judgment is surely coming. Only the mercy of God, not your righteousness, has kept it from you so far. Just as the unfruitful vine will eventually be cut down, so will the unrepentant child of God experience his judgment."

God's Good News

In John Barth's novel, Giles Goat Boy, there is a sobering thought: to the effect that self-knowledge is always bad news. If we are fairly successful in being honest with ourselves, we know this is true. When we dig behind the masks we wear in public, when we peel off our own self-deceptions, we catch a glimpse of what we are really like. Often, what we see is not very pleasant. Self-knowledge is bad news.

There is also good news, however, that begs to be considered: Repent and be saved! God waits far beyond human patience and endurance to give us one more opportunity to repent and accept his gracious mercy. He is ever looking for the change in us that makes possible a new relationship with him.

"O.K., O.K., I'm sorry," you say, "Let's forget about it!" But that is not repentance. To repent means far more than expressing regret, of being sorry. Repentance means a change of direction. As Dwight L. Moody put it, it is saying to one's self: "Right about-face!" If we are really sorry about our sin, we will want to give it up permanently, not just for a while. "Repentance," wrote Theodore Ledyard Cuyler, "to be of any avail, must work a change of heart and conduct."

What the vine-dresser wanted of the vine was not an expression of regret, but fruit. That is also what God wants from us.

Crab In Flaky Biscuit Dough

Spiraling in a flaky biscuit pinwheel, regal Alaska King crab mixes with sour cream, bits of pimiento and celery. The tang of onion and parsley adds a flavor accent.

To make the pinwheels, tender biscuit dough is rolled into a rectangle and spread with tempting crab filling. The rectangle is rolled jelly-roll fashion, cut into serving slices and baked until crisp and golden. Then for a creamy cheese topping, grated golden Cheddar melts into a basic white sauce.

Alaska King crab is truly a convenience food. As soon as it is caught in the frigid Alaska coastal waters, the crab is quickly cooked. All the cartilage is removed so the meat is tender and juicy.

Alaska King crab may be used directly from the can, or after thawing, from the freezer. You only need to give it a speedy warming as in these Crab Pinwheels.

Crab Pinwheels With Cheese Sauce

1 can (7½-oz.) Alaska King crab or ½ lb. frozen Alaska King crab	1 tablespoon chopped parsley
¼ cup chopped celery	2 to 4 tablespoons mayonnaise or sour cream
2 tablespoons chopped onion	½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento	¼ teaspoon pepper
	1 recipe biscuit dough

Drain and slice Alaska King crab. Combine crab with celery, onion, pimiento, parsley and enough mayonnaise or sour cream to moisten. Add salt and pepper. Prepare biscuit dough from 2 cups flour or biscuit mix. Roll out dough in rectangle ½ inch thick. Spread with crab mixture. Roll up like a jelly roll. Slice about ¼ inch thick. Place cut side down on lightly buttered baking sheet or pan. Bake 12 to 15 minutes in 450-degree oven. Serve with cheese sauce. Serves 6.

Cheese Sauce: Blend 2 tablespoons flour into 2 tablespoons melted butter. Gradually add 1 cup milk, stirring constantly. Cook until slightly thickened. Stir in 1 cup grated Cheddar cheese. Cook and stir until cheese is melted and sauce is thick and smooth. Makes 1½ cups sauce.

WITH THE ARMED FORCES

(E0874) PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (FHTNC) Jan. 30 — Marine Private Marlin G. Bohn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger G. Bohn of Rt. 2, Taneytown, Md., is going through recruit training at this Marine Corps Recruit Depot.

His first stop when he arrived here was the Depot's receiving barracks where all new recruits are processed. Here he received his first issue of Marine uniforms, the equipment he will use in training, and his first military haircut.

After being placed in a training platoon with other new recruits, he left the receiving barracks and began his formal Marine training under the close guidance of his Drill Instructors, or "D.I.'s." Until he graduates, eight weeks after he entered "boot camp," these seasoned Non-Commissioned Marines will guide and supervise his progress in physical conditioning and development, rifle marksmanship, and other skills which he must master to be a Marine.

Hamburger U.

An Education "To Go"

NEW YORK (CFN) — Hamburger University has not been picked by any of the nation's football forecasters to make it to the Rose Bowl—and for good reason.

In the first place, Hamburger U., though noted for its beef, does not field a football team. Secondly, almost no one has ever heard of the tiny college nestled in Elk Grove Village, Ill. The school is operated by a giant chain of drive-ins. The curriculum includes learning how to make a better burger, a finer french fry, a manlier milkshake.

Short on pigskin, long on ground meat, H.U. has the spirit of corps of Navy readying for its annual clash with arch foe Army, according to an article about this unusual institution in the October 21st issue of Life Magazine.

THE FAMILY LAWYER VISITATION RIGHTS

When Alice divorced Jim, she was given custody of their three-year-old son. However, Jim had visitation rights every Sunday afternoon. He would call for the boy at 3 P.M., take him out for a few hours, and then return him at dinner time.

But one thing rankled Alice. "It's those between-meal snacks," she complained in a court hearing. "Jim never fails to feed the boy something while they are out. That is bad for his health. Therefore, I would like to have Jim's visitation rights ended."

But the court decided her complaint was not serious enough to justify such drastic action, that the "punishment" was too great for the "crime."

Generally speaking, the law prefers — primarily for the sake of the child — to keep parental ties intact. While visitation rights are often modified, they will not be cut off altogether without a compelling reason.

What is a compelling reason? Here are three cases in which the court did decide to bring parental visits to an end:

1) an embittered father made a calculated attempt, during these visits, to turn the child's love for his mother into hatred;

2) a quarrelsome mother used her visits to create violent scenes that left her small daughter in torment;

3) a hard-drinking father not only used vile language to his three young children but also plied them with whiskey.

But minor grievances—such as a mother's complaint that the father's visits "annoyed" her—won't suffice. Furthermore, a court that does cut off visitation rights may well restore them later if the offending parent mends his ways.

For example: A court revoked its ban against a mother who, although once an alcoholic, had quit drinking, found a good job, and gained a respected place in the community.

In fact, even if a parent has been barred because of flagrant adultery, visitation rights may be restored when there is enough evidence of reform and repentance.

Thus, an adulterous mother who remarried and led a blameless life for several years was able to regain the right to visit her children. The court said:

"A child's welfare is best subserved by fostering the virtue of filial piety, even toward a parent who once had erred, but who has long since reformed."

FEBRUARY — AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH

A proclamation has recently been signed by President Lyndon B. Johnson observing February, 1967, as American History Month for related activities in our educational, civic and patriotic organizations will be held.

The committee for the American History Month of the Daughters of the American Revolution sponsors an American history essay contest in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades throughout the United States to help preserve our freedom by stimulating deeper understanding of American history. American History Month was first proclaimed by the Governor of Kentucky in 1952. Since then the work has made great strides.

Mrs. Keith M. Brown, Taneytown, historian of the William Winchester Chapter, announces that S. Renee Hering, William Winchester School, is the fifth grade state winner this year. Renee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hering, Fitzhugh Avenue, Westminster.

The following are county winners from our schools: Donna Babylon, sixth grade student at the New Windsor School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Babylon, New Windsor; Phyllis Orndorff, seventh grade student at the Elmer A. Wolfe School, Union Bridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry B. Orndorff, Keymar; and Doris Ann Gorsuch, eighth grade student at the Elmer A. Wolfe School, Union Bridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Gorsuch, New Windsor.

The judges for the essay were Mr. Robert C. Neal, Glenburn Farm, Taneytown, a professor at Mount Saint Mary's College, Emmitsburg; Mrs. Kenneth Smith, Taneytown, kindergarten teacher and former teacher in Carroll County Schools, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maley, Taneytown. Mr. Maley is a teacher at Reisterstown High School; and also Mr. C. A. Meyerhoffer, an accountant with the State Department.

Miss Barbara Broadwater, student at the Elmer A. Wolfe School, Union Bridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine G. Broadwater, Middleburg, was one of four national winners of the American History Month essay contest last year sponsored by the William Winchester Chapter.

WITH THE ARMED FORCES

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (FHTNC) Jan. 24 — Marine Private James E. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Green of 31 Frederick St., Taneytown, Md., was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.

He will now undergo about three weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-calibre pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join Marine combat forces.

The first graders were being taught the importance of being kind to dumb animals and asked to recount to the class stories from their own experience. When it came to little Freddy's turn he rose proudly and addressed the class. "Last summer I kicked the boy next door for kicking his dog."

A woman sitting by herself on a train leaned over and purred to a woman who was traveling with two small children:

"I'd give ten years of my life to have a couple of fine active youngsters like that."

"That," declared the mother, "is just about what they cost."

SHELTER EXPANSION DRIVE LAGGING LESS THAN HALF OF $5000 GOAL REACHED

The Carroll County Humane Society's campaign to raise funds to enlarge and renovate the Shelter started off with a bang. A number of individual donations of $100 and a few considerably larger ones came in to boost the total quickly. These contributions came from Baltimore, Washington, D.C., and California. At least 70 percent of the amount received so far has come from outside of Carroll County. All you folks in Carroll County who plan to contribute but have "just not got around to it" please send your donation, NOW. The shelter is in Carroll County and so is the responsibility for its maintenance. Everyone's help is needed if the work of the Shelter is to continue. The names of all who contribute $100 or more will be inscribed at the Shelter. For all donations, large or small, the Humane Society is deeply grateful.

"How do you like my new evening gown?" asked the wife.

"Pretty, but confusing," was the reply.

"How do you mean confusing?"

"Well," said the husband, "I can't decide whether you're on the inside trying to get out, or on the outside trying to get in."
