Emmit House!

EMMITSBURG, MD.

W. K. SUTTON, Proprietor

THIS large and comfortable new building, is located at the West end of the town, in full view of the adjacent mountains. Its successful course as a summer resort, for several years, has established a high reputation for it. There is water all through the house, and its outlet is through convenient conduits. A good bath house adds to its other conveniences and comforts. The location affords a constant and pleasant breeze from the surrounding heights. Mosquitoes do not annoy. The Table is first-class, the food is choice, and all its appointments, will give general satisfaction. The Stabling is spacious, and guests are conveyed to and from the Hotel and Railroad free of charge. It presents special inducements to mercantile travellers.—Terms moderate. For further particulars address the Proprietor. apl 9

FALSE PREMISES.

In the canvass on the Local Option law in the year 1880, the Maryland Union, at Frederick, distinguished itself in an unenviable way, in the course of its opposition. Since then, like a sentinel upon the watch towers, it is ever trying to discern the smoke of battle in the distance, and is not slow to put on its armor for the conflict.

In its issue of last week appeared the following:

Increase of Intemperance and Profanity in a Local Option District.

Middletown, is one of the Districts in Frederick county, which at the election on the 3d of August, 1880, voted in favor of Local Option, and ever since the following last day of May when the law went into effect, she has been enjoying all the benefits and advantages of Local Option, but we regret to say that some of her good people do not seem to appreciate the blessings of Local Option very highly, for the writer of a communication published in the last Valley Register solemnly declares that "the law-abiding citizens of Middletown are becoming greatly alarmed at the fearful increase of intemperance and profanity in their midst." It often happens in towns and cities where "Local Option" prevails and the sale of liquors are no longer licensed that clubs are formed of those who will drink. Minors as well as adults are admitted and their social gatherings are frequent. The old become confirmed in their bad habits and the young easily glide into them. They begin with innocent card playing and end confirmed gamblers. These are some of the effects of "Local Option."

That the reader may see how Local Option has operated in Middletown, we publish the communication above referred to:

"We would express through the columns of your valuable paper that we, the law-abiding citizens of this community, are becoming greatly alarmed at the fearful increase of intemperance and profanity in our midst. Almost nightly, ah, even daily, have our ears been outraged by hearing God's name profaned on our streets, while often in the hours of night are heard the shout, the vulgar jest and horrid oaths of the drunken set, whose blows, oaths and obscene language alarm and insult the female ear at the corners of our streets. This, too, often happens within hearing or in the knowledge of our sworn officers. Permit me to ask how long shall we tolerate this state of things? Are we not responsible as citizens, yea, as Christians, if we do not bring them to account for this neglect of duty in not enforcing our laws. Let us call a town meeting—an indignation meeting, if you please—and pass appropriate resolutions expressive of our disapprobation of the manner in which our sworn officers neglect the enforcement of the corporation and State laws, and the wickedness and shame that are righteously due to all who are poisoning the minds and morals of the young by the sale of intoxicating drink and the example of profane and obscene language. I make, Mr. Editor, the motion for such a meeting and await a second."

"AN INDIGNANT CITIZEN."

We submit to all candid thinkers, that the inferences of the Union from the above communication are logically void, because they prove too much. The actual plea in the case is the non observance of the laws in force, and not, as the Union so broadly asserts, the inefficiency or evil results of the Local Option laws. We might go on, to any extent in the way of analogous cases, to show the untenable character of the editor's position, but deem it unnecessary at this time. The Union may shelter itself if it chooses behind the fable of the wolf and the lamb, and take comfort to itself, in the irregularities of conduct, which may occur in this or that community, though its judgments as to the cause of such evil, may be wide of the truth.

Near by this District, in which we live, is that of Mechanicstown, which from all we have learned has improved morally, as well as industrially, under the action of the law, and the same record has been notably made in the well known village of Williamsport, in Washington Co. We shall await with interest, the result of the "town meeting" in Middletown, and have no doubt, that the application of remedies in the right direction will favor the aims of "an indignant citizen."

We were opposed to the submission of the Local Option law to the people, on the ground of such submission being opposed to the character of our government, and have been happy to read the highly judicial argument of Senator Bayard in opposition to a like course of legislation in the State of Delaware, which was proposed and partly carried in 1881.

The men who act as legislators, we tried to argue, should be competent to act once for all; informing themselves of the views of their constituents, and acting on enlightened judgment, they should not refer again to the people, the work they were elected to perform.

When the law became operative, we advocated its adoption, that the overshadowing evil, which it proposed to correct, might be brought under its influence in the way, at least, of a trial of its efficiency.

THE FRANKING PRIVILEGE.—The United States Senate has placed a clause in the post office appropriation bill, to restore in a manner the Franking privilege to members of Congress. This is a movement in the right direction. Whatever may be said by those who are on the look out for points of opposition to Congressional action. When the congressmen are free to transact the business of their constituents, unembarrassed by personal expense, it stands to reason the business will be better and more thoroughly done. It is so in all other relations of life, and there cannot be an exception in this case. Of course abuses must be provided against.

THE CASE OF SERGEANT MASON, who shot at and missed the assassin of the late President Garfield, and was sentenced to the penitentiary, is attracting great attention all over the land. The New York Legislature as well as the New York City Council, have recommended his dismissal from the army, and a pardon by the President, and petitions to the same effect are being signed by the thousands, whilst at the same time, collections of money for the benefit of his wife, are going forward.

THE usefulness of the State Board of Health and the value of its labors have not been exhibited to better advantage than in the elaborate report of Dr. C. W. Chancellor, the secretary, on the epidemic of diphtheria in Frederick City and the small-pox in Charles county last fall. It is a most exhaustive inquiry into the subject, and will have a general and permanent interest and value.

THE Hon. Arthur P. Gorman tendered his resignation of his office as President of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal to the stockholders at a meeting held on last Tuesday. The consideration of the resignation was postponed until the annual meeting in June.

THE coloured cadet Whittaker is to be dismissed from the military academy. The President has set aside the verdict and evidence of the court-martial, on account of irregularities and informalities in taking evidence in the case.

By a large majority the people of the United States have declared their faith in Kidney-Wort, as a remedy for all the diseases of the kidneys and liver, some however, have disliked the trouble of preparing it from the dry form. For such a new candidate appears in the shape of Kidney-Wort in Liquid Form. It is very concentrated, is easily taken and is equally efficient as the dry. Try it.—Louisville Courier Journal.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 18.—At about 4 o'clock this morning, Chas. S. Wells, of the Dudley Observatory here, discovered a bright comet in Hercules, right ascension 17 hrs. 52 minutes north, declination 32 degrees 30 minutes. The comet has a tail about five minutes in length and a nucleus of about the eighth magnitude.

HOW LONG WOULD IT TAKE TO COUNT 2 MILLIONS?—Over two million volumes of the revised edition of the New Testament were sold on the first day of its issue. These figures can only be equalled by the enormous sale of Swayne's Ointment for Itching Piles, which is universally used as a standard remedy for stopping the itching at night, when one thinks that pin worms are crawling about the rectum. To calculate the extent of its sale in actual figures, would involve the labor of a lifetime. Will you be pestered longer from the aggravating Piles?

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our Regular Correspondent]

WASHINGTON, D.C., Mar. 22d, '82.

Some unseemly bits of scandal have been going round and are still coming out concerning the expenses of President Garfield's sickness and the funeral obsequies. Many of the statements made are doubtless more or less exaggerated, but there is truth enough to make some people ashamed of themselves. This is particularly the case relative to the expenses of the funeral train from Washington to Cleveland. Besides an item of $1,200 for white gloves there is one of $1,700 for champagne, brandy and cigars and one of $300 for "cocktails," while the whole cost of the Congressional party of mourners footed up a modest little bill of $7,000. It has been denied that the items referred to were in the bills rendered, but from the best information that can be obtained the statement appears to be true. Congressman Page, of California, who was delegated by the Committee of the House to audit the accounts, says that after examining the bills he aggregated them all into one lump and destroyed the originals. He considered that was the best thing to do, as he did not think it was proper to have a scandal over such a matter. Opinions may differ as to Mr. Page's right to take this course, but opinions will concur that it was the worst possible course to take to prevent a scandal. It is remembered here that the press was very carefully excluded from the funeral train. Even the reporters for the Associated Press were refused leave to accompany the Congressional mourners, which is an unusual thing.

Both houses of Congress have been equipping all winter at the restoration of the franking privilege but, like all previous Congresses since the privilege was abolished, they lacked the courage to do it openly and directly. At last, however, a way has been found to practically accomplish that end by indirection. An amendment tacked on to the Post Office appropriation bill provides for "official envelopes," like those used by the various Departments, to be kept on hand for the use of the Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House, as well as members of either body. This does not contemplate sending private correspondence free but is intended to cover all matter pertaining to public business. Many objections have been raised to this plan, chiefly by those who desire to have the old franking privilege absolutely restored, but it has finally been agreed to in the Senate as the best attainable method, and will doubtless pass the House. There ought to be no objection to the free passage of matter actually relating to public business, but it was the wholesale abuse of the franking privilege that made it intolerable. Whether the new plan will escape these abuses remains to be seen. The tendency of Congress, especially of the Senate to vote its members privileges or donations of money, increases constantly and was illustrated recently by the passage of a resolution giving Mr. Kellogg, of Louisiana, $9,550, and Mr. Butler, of South Carolina, $3,500, for expenses incurred in maintaining their rights to the seats they hold. There is no precedent for this action. Contestants have generally been paid their expenses, but sitting members have not. Mr. Butler is a Democrat, and Mr. Kellogg is a Republican, which explains why the two resolutions were made dependent on each other.

The annual seed campaign has been conducted with unusual vigor this year, and many Congressmen think they have insured a triumph at re-election this summer by the judicious distribution of seeds to constituents of the opposite party which, if it has the effect intended is a very cheap way of securing votes. When the agricultural appropriation bill was before the House one member moved an amendment empowering the Commissioner of Agriculture to distribute all the seeds hereafter instead of dividing the work with Congressmen. This proposition brought to his feet an alert young representative, Mr. Talbot, of Maryland, who gave an entertaining account of his experience in the distribution of seeds when he first became a member. At that time the Commissioner had the entire distribution and Mr. Talbot sent to him a list of his constituents to whom he wished seeds to be forwarded. He considered that he was making himself solid with his friends and neighbors, and when he went home he would ask the different ones he met whether they had received the seeds he had ordered for them, expecting to receive their grateful thanks.—To his dismay they all replied in the negative, and when he had put the question to fifteen or twenty and received the same reply from all he thought it was time to subside on the seed question. He thought now it was better to adhere to the present plan, and the members would then be certain that some seeds were sent to their constituents. The House was much amused with this graphic recital, and the consequence was that the amendment was lost.

DOM PEDRO,

FIVE BOYS BURIED ALIVE.

A MASS OF EARTH FALLING UPON THEM IN A TUNNEL THEY HAD DUG IN A HILLSIDE.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., March 17.—Yesterday some boys were digging a tunnel in a hill on the outskirts of the city for boyish purposes. They took turns in working at it in small parties. The tunnel was five feet wide, and had been pushed into the hillside about ten feet. At 3 p. m. some of the boys went away, leaving at work Michael Garish, aged 17; Allen Failes, aged 9; Samuel Montgomery, aged 8; John Montgomery, aged 14, and Nicholas Kell, aged 13. When the boys who had left returned at 5 p. m., they found the mouth of the tunnel closed by a heavy mass of earth. Their cries to their companions brought no answer, and hastily they began to remove the earth. Two feet from the entrance the protruding hand of young Failes was encountered. An alarm was then given, and soon hundreds gathered on the spot. The lifeless bodies of the five boys were unearthed in the presence of their anguished mothers and sisters. Michael Garish alone showed symptoms of life by faint pulsations of the heart, which ceased almost as soon as his body was exhumed. All the boys belonged to well-to-do families. A coroner's inquest was held this morning.

A Murderer's Plea for his Brother's Life.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 17.—The following letter was placed in the hands of Gov. Hoyt this morning from Frank Rumberger, one of the condemned murderers of Daniel Troutman, who will be hanged here on Friday next:

HARRISBURG, Pa., Mar. 16, 1882.

Gov. Henry M. Hoyt.

SIR: I know I have forfeited all my rights as a citizen of Pennsylvania, but I have not lost my feelings as a man, and now write to you in behalf of a man condemned to die for a crime in the bloodshed of which I believe he is innocent. My conscience holds me guilty of the death of Daniel Troutman. It is nowhere said in my Bible that two lives should be sacrificed for one. I therefore ask you to commute Henry Rumberger's sentence of death to imprisonment for life. I ask this in the name of justice, unprompted by any man, and I appeal to you as the Governor of this State to do this act that mercy may honor justice.

FRANK H. RUMBERGER.

The two condemned men are brothers, and are sentenced to die next Friday.

A NUMBER of passengers on upper Broadway yesterday observed an intelligent looking, sedately dressed man pick up a crust of dirty bread and devour it as if he was well-nigh starved. A number of hands were thrust into as many pockets, and the harvest of coin indicated that starvation was delayed. One suspicious observer followed the hungry man around the first corner and saw him repeat the operation. A little further on he drew a crust from his pocket and dropped it near an area. Further investigation settled the fact that this painful case of starvation, which touched the sympathies and the pockets of the passers-by, was a most adroit trick.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 15.—The small pox excitement at South Bethlehem continues unabated, and 120 cases are now reported in a town of about 4,000 inhabitants. The students of the Lehigh University are now hurriedly leaving for home. Many heads of families are arriving on every train and taking their daughters from Bishopthorpe School, which stands on an eminence a short distance from the town. It is probable that the school will close. Ten more houses were quarantined this forenoon. A number of violent patients with confluent small-pox are handcuffed and guarded at home.

Proprietor.

Great chance to make money. Those who always take advantage of the good chances offered, generally become wealthy; while those who do not improve such chances remain in poverty. We want many such, women, boys and girls to work for, in their own localities. Any one can do the work properly from the first start. The business will pay more than ten times ordinary wages. Expensive outfit furnished free. No one who engages fails to make money rapidly. You can devote your whole time to the work, or only your spare moments. Full information and all that is needed sent free.—Address STUBBS & CO., Portland, Maine.

ECLIPSE LOOKOUT ENGINE

FOR THE ROAD LOCOMOTIVE. THE ECLIPSE LOOKOUT ENGINE, FURNISHED WITH LINK MOTION AND STEERING APPARATUS. WHEN HORSES ARE NOT DESIRED, CAN BE RUN BY STEAM OR BY HAND. IS STOPPED INSTANTLY. PERFECTLY SAFE.
