

LOCALS.

EMMITSBURG RAILROAD.

TIME TABLE

On and after Dec 30th, 1883, trains on this road will run as follows: TRAINS SOUTH. Leave Emmitsburg 9.50 a. m., and 3.30 p. m., arriving at Rocky Ridge at 9.20 a. m., and 4.00 p. m.

Sale Register.

March 14th, Samuel Cline, will sell, in Liberty township, near Fountain Dale Pa., his horses, cows, young cattle, sheep, farm implements, &c.

It is well to examine potatoes now and sort out those that are unsound, and staked the whole remaining lot with air, slacked lime.

Mr. J. E. Jones, Woodberry, Md., says: "I suffered greatly from nervousness and general debility. Brown's Iron Bitters relieved me."

Mr. C. T. Zacharias has sold his farm, containing 115 acres, near Mott's Station, to Mr. Doble, of near Catocin Furnace, for $5,000 cash.

Rev. M. F. Martin, pastor of St. Bridget's Catholic church, Philadelphia, a graduate of Mt. St. Mary's College, died last week, aged 65 years.

A. C. Bragonier, has resigned as postmaster of Middletown. It is not right to raffle. Though, of course, if a church needs money that is different.

The Mechanicstown Clarion says that the three cigar factories in that place are now making about 40,000 cigars weekly.

The county commissioners on Saturday last appointed Daniel Z. Padgett, collector of State and county taxes, and Dr. Bruce Thomas, physician to the jail.

The Lord Mayor of London was only a porter in a warehouse, but he persevered in the face of all opposition and rose rapidly. It is only persistence and merit that has made Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup the greatest family remedy for coughs and colds now offered to the suffering public.

A Popular Officer.—It is but just to say,—and that too without casting any reflection upon former occupants of the office,—that Mr. D. H. Roushman, the outgoing tax collector, is one of the most popular officers that ever filled that position, and will carry with him the good wishes of hosts of friends in both parties.

Frederick County Affairs. FREDERICK, MD., Feb. 26.—Mr. M. L. Knoble, aged 45 years, a well known resident of Frederick, dropped dead this morning, soon after arising from his bed, from the effect, it is supposed, of internal injuries received in the collision on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, near Point of Rocks, in 1877.

Dunkard Meeting. The annual meeting of the Old Order Dunkards, of Beaver Dam, this county, will this year be held in Abraham Garber's barn, about two miles southwest of Union Bridge, beginning on White Sunday, Wednesday night, followed by lots of slush and mud unbounded, and on Thursday afternoon a Polar wave came in that made it lively all around.

ATMOSPHERIC.—The weather of this week has been up to the highest points of the changeable and disagreeable, that the most inveterate grumbler could wish. Wednesday night, followed by lots of slush and mud unbounded, and on Thursday afternoon a Polar wave came in that made it lively all around.

Enlargement of the Hagerstown Fair Grounds. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Agricultural Association, Thursday afternoon, the purchase of two and a half acres additional of land from Mr. Samuel W. Cost, lying east of the Fair Grounds was approved; also, about one acre on the south from Thomas Grady and Andrew French.

The Red Sky Explained. The red afterglow that has caused so much discussion among philosophers is now explained by a correspondent of the Scientific American who asserts that the phenomenon is due to the red spot from the planet Jupiter. This great rasy cloud disappeared several months ago from the atmosphere of Jupiter, and had just time, according to this correspondent, to travel to our earth, and is now hovering over us, causing the ruby coloring of our skies night and morning.

The Fairfield Correspondence of the Compiler Says. Wednesday morning we had what I believe is the first accident in Fairfield from the use of kerosene, but it may prove to be a sad one. Miss Lizzie Woodring, who has been living with Mrs. James H. Marshall for nine years, arose at her usual time in the morning, lit her lamp, and dressed herself, when from some unexplained cause the lamp exploded, blowing off the burner, but not burning the boy, and burning her terribly on the breast, face and throat. Very little hope is entertained of her recovery.

Mr. Geo. A. Hoover, on Owens Creek, several miles east of this place will rebuild his flouring mill during the coming summer. When completed it will be a first-class mill in every particular and we may expect his brands of flour to exceed even their present favor with our people.

Mr. Joseph Six and family, citizens of this locality have advertised their household effects for sale and in company with a number of others, leaves about the middle of March for Kansas. Mr. Six has been a citizen of this town and vicinity for eight years, during almost the entire time he has acted in the capacity of constable and has been a very efficient officer.

Exciting Scene at a Funeral. An occurrence, which for the time being caused considerable excitement took place during the burial of the remains of "Aunt Hattie" Parker, (colored), in the cemetery at this place, on Saturday afternoon, last.

From the Gettysburg Compiler. Edward McIntire, Esq. formerly of this county, is now stationed at Stony Creek, Somerset county, where his brother-in-law, Mr. Charles McFadden, will construct the Allegheny Mountain Tunnel for the Southern Pennsylvania Railroad.

From the Banner of Liberty. One day last week Mr. Nimrod Etzler, son of Mr. Ezra Etzler, residing near Mt. Pleasant, met with a serious accident. While riding along horseback, without any warning whatever his horse jumped and dived to one side, and the girth not being buckled very tight the saddle turned, pulling M. E. under the horse with his feet in the stirrup, and while in this position his face was badly cut by the horse's feet.

From the Clarion. Miss Campbell, and elderly maiden lady who has made her home with Mr. William Zimmerman of near Creagerstown, was found dead in her bed on Tuesday morning of this week. She retired on Monday evening apparently enjoying her usual health. Her death resulted from heart disease. Her remains were interred at Cleargetown on Wednesday afternoon.

The "Dutch Lane." The alley, concerning which we wrote last week, and to be called by the above name, and the designation is not yet altogether obsolete. The services in the "Elias Church," which was its corporate name, were conducted entirely in the German language, from its erection until a few years, extending beyond the third decade of this century, and the habit of confounding it with the language of Holland, (the Dutch) was very general among the Scotch and the Hibernian settlers, whose predominant higher culture made them predominant in the settlement of customs. The Germans, though a sturdy race, and when united, remarkable for determination and firmness of purpose, have nevertheless been regarded as lacking self-assertion, and thus they calmly, and with indifference, accepted the derisive name for the alley.

From the Herald and Torchlight. We regret to learn from the Williamsport Pilot that the Williamsport Infantry Company, commanded in the procession last Friday by Capt. Jos. H. Farrow, were grossly insulted and outraged as they were marching up Washington street, on their return home. After the band had serenaded the Messrs. Lowenstein Bros., and others, and at the head of the company were marching toward the depot, when near the residence of ex Governor Hamilton, some miserable wretch, concealed in the alley, threw several eggs at the line, one of them striking a member of the Infantry Company, besmearing his uniform in a most aggravating manner. This dastardly act will be regretted and condemned by every man or being in our town that has a spark of honor or decency left in him.

Our churches are public buildings, their inward condition and outward surroundings, mark the taste and indicate the refinement of those who use them, and are indexes to strangers of the character of their owners, and should therefore be in all respects models of propriety and cleanliness, which as St. Paul says, "is next to Godliness." Religious bodies are not expected to have the means to improve the public way, this is incumbent on the secular powers.

"Walk about Zion, and go round about her, tell the towers thereof." This implies a pathway, and it should be decorous. This town can never consent to the closing of that ancient high way, unless in that distant future, when two or more avenues shall extend their course over beautiful bridges, spanning the raging floods of "Silver's Run" to the villa crowned heights of Poplar Ridge, and the Elias Church steeple shall have been removed from its present locality; when the dwellers upon the Ridge shall hold converse over the heads of the dwellers in the valley, with those on the tablelands beyond Tom's Creek, and the now unassuming village of Emmitsburg shall have taken position among the high places of the earth.

On Saturday night about midnight the stable belonging to John W. Adams, in the alley running parallel with West Franklin street was set on fire. Two valuable horses belonging to Adams were suffocated by the smoke, and a horse belonging to James Pickett badly injured, and will probably die. There was an insurance on the horses. The origin of the fire is a mystery, some believe that it was the work of an incendiary, while others are of the opinion that it occurred through the careless use of a cigar.

Last Sunday, Mr. Jacob A. Myers, proprietor of Myers' Mill near Sharpsburg, drove to that town with a horse and buggy to attend church. During the services the bridle worked down over the horse's head and he broke loose and ran away. The top of the buggy was badly wrecked, but the horse escaped injury.

A lighted cigar stump, carelessly thrown aside in the dry goods establishment of Mr. J. H. Beachley, last Thursday night, came very near causing a conflagration. It fell among a lot of stockings under the counter, and when discovered had destroyed quite a lot of them.

From the Maryland Union. An effort is being made at Knoxville, this county, to organize a cavalry company.

Mr. Ezra L. Cramer, has sold his mill property, situated a short distance from Frederick, near Montevne Hospital, to Mr. John L. Keefer, of Ladiesburg, this county, for $4,000.

The Charlestown (W. V.) Spirit gives the following account of a narrow escape from death by a resident of this county: About two weeks ago David S. Firor, Esq., of Mechanicstown, Frederick county, Md., whilst crossing the bridge at Harper's Ferry, on horseback, met a train on the bridge. His horse became unmanageable and he was thrown against the engine and stunned, whilst the horse jumped over the cow catcher and ran out of the bridge at full speed.

Want to Become Part of Washington Co. The Hagerstown Globe, says: The citizens of Catocin and Havers districts, Frederick county, are engaged in an effort to have the interests identified with Washington county by annexation. To this end a committee of citizens visited Hagerstown, last week, and secured advice as to the proper method of procedure. The desire is based upon the fact that nearly all of the trade of the districts named comes to Hagerstown, because of the convenience as contrasted with a trip to their county seat. A drive of some six or seven miles to Southburg places the residents of those districts within a few minutes' ride of Hagerstown by rail, at a cost of 50 cents. A trip to Frederick requires nearly a whole day, or by rail, $2.70. Because of the great inconvenience and expense to reach Frederick, and the preference to deal in Hagerstown, the movement is gaining support, and it is possible to bring to pass such a transfer we believe it will be done and that gladly.

This looks like secession on a small scale, we presume the proper action will be taken to compel the rebels to maintain the public peace, and mind their own business. Can there be no compromise? perhaps a rail road would do it, or perhaps the Frederick merchants could serve the malcontents, by drummers, and sales by samples.—Ed.

MARRIED. FAVORITE.—HOUCK.—On the 24th ult., in St. Joseph's Catholic church, by Rev. H. F. White, C. M., Mr. John A. Favorite, to Miss Mary E. Honeck, both of this place.

RECK.—CURRY.—On Feb. 28, 1884, in the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Fairfield, Pa., by Rev. E. S. Johnston Mr. Henry W. Reck to Miss Eliza Jane Curry, both of Adams county, Pa.

WEDDLE.—SIMMERS.—On the evening of the 14th ult., at the residence of Mr. Joseph Weddle, of Mechanicstown, by Rev. H. Wiesler, Mr. William E. Weddle of the vicinity of Mechanicstown, to Miss Annie Simmers, of Catocin Furnace.

THIS PAPER may be found on file at Geo. P. Rowell & Co.'s New York office, or at the office of the Compiler, 117 N. 7th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

The Wonderful Efficacy of DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS. Has been so frequently and satisfactorily proven that it seems almost superfluous to say anything more in their favor. The number and constantly increasing demand for them, both in this and foreign countries, is the best evidence of their value. Their sale in the United States is far greater than any other cathartic medicine. This demand is not spasmodic, it is regular and steady. It is not of today or yesterday, it is an increase that has been steadily growing for the last thirty-five years. What are the reasons for this great and growing demand? Dr. Schenck's Mandrake Pills contain no mercury, and yet they act with wonderful effect upon the liver. They cleanse the stomach and bowels of all irritating matter, which, if allowed to remain, pollutes the blood, and brings on Chills, Malaria, Fever, and many other diseases. They give health and strength to the digestive organs. They create appetite and give vigor to the whole system. They are in fact the medicine of all others which should be taken in times like the present, when malignant and other epidemics are raging, as they prepare the system to resist attacks of disease of every character. Dr. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are sold by all druggists at 25c. per box, or sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price.
