

Emmitsburg Chronicle.

SAMUEL MOTTER, Editor and Publisher.

"IGNORANCE IS THE CURSE OF GOD; KNOWLEDGE THE WING WHEREWITH WE FLY TO HEAVEN."

TERMS:—$1.50 a Year, in Advance.

Vol. VI.

EMMITSBURG, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, JULY 12, 1884.

No. 6.

DIRECTORY.

FOR FREDERICK COUNTY.

Circuit Court.

Chief Judge.—Hon. John Ritchie.
Associate Judges.—Hon. John P. Vinson and Hon. John A. Lynch.
State Attorney.—Frank C. Norwalk.
Sole Justice of the Peace.—Adolphus Perriakne, Jr.

Orphan's Court.

Judges.—John T. Lowe, John H. Keller, Robert Stokes.
Register of Wills.—James P. Perry.
County Commissioners.—George W. Padgett, John W. Ramsburg, William H. Lakin, George W. Ezler, James U. Lawson.
Sheriff.—George W. Groze.
Tax Collector.—D. H. Routhman.
Surveyor.—Rufus A. Rager.
School Commissioners.—Z. J. Gittinger, Herman L. Routhman, David D. Thomas, E. R. Zimmerman, Jas. W. Condon.
Examiner.—D. T. Lakin.

Emmitsburg District.

Justices of the Peace.—J. H. T. Webb, Henry Stokes, Jas. Knouff, E. T. McBride.
Registrar.—E. S. Taney.
Constable.—William H. Ashbaugh.
School Trustees.—Henry Stokes, E. R. Zimmerman, Dr. R. L. Annan.
Burgess.—Henry Stokes.
Town Commissioners.—O. A. Horner, E. H. Zimmerman, J. T. Motter, Joseph Snouffer, John G. Hess, John T. Long.

CHURCHES.

Ev. Lutheran Church.

Pastor.—Rev. E. S. Johnston. Services every other Sunday, morning and evening at 9 o'clock, a. m., and 7 o'clock, p. m., respectively. Wednesday evening lectures 7 o'clock, p. m., Sunday School at 9 o'clock, p. m., Infants School at 11 p. m.

Church of the Incarnation, (Ref'd.)

Pastor.—Rev. Geo. B. Resser. Services every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, and every Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Wednesday evening lecture at 7 o'clock. Sunday school, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Presbyterian Church.

Pastor.—Rev. Wm. Simonton. Services every other Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, a. m., and every other Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, p. m. Wednesday evening lectures at 7 o'clock. Sunday School at 9 o'clock, p. m. Praying Meeting every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

St. Joseph's, (Roman Catholic).

Pastor.—Rev. H. F. White. First Mass 8 o'clock, a. m., second mass 9 o'clock, a. m., 3 o'clock, p. m.; Sunday School at 9 o'clock, p. m.

Methodist Episcopal Church.

Pastor.—Rev. Daniel Haskell. Services every other Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Prayer meeting every other Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7 o'clock. Sunday School 9 o'clock, a. m.; Class meeting every other Sunday at 9 o'clock, p. m.

MAILS.

Arrive.

From Baltimore, Way, 11:05 a. m.; From Baltimore through, 7:00 p. m.; From Hagerstown and West, 7:00 p. m.; From Rocky Ridge, 7:00 p. m.; From Motter, 11:05 a. m.; From Gettysburg, 4:30 p. m.; From Frederick, 11:05 a. m.

Depart.

For Baltimore, closed, 8:40 a. m.; For Mechanicstown, Hagerstown, Hanover, Lancaster and Harrisburg, 8:40 a. m.; For Rocky Ridge, 8:40 a. m.; For Hagerstown, Way, 3:20 p. m.; For Motter, 3:20 p. m.; For Gettysburg, 8:30 a. m.

All mails close 15 minutes before schedule time. Office hours from 6 o'clock a. m. to 8:15 p. m.

SOCIETIES.

Masagott Tribe No. 41, I. O. R. M. Kindles her Council Fire every Saturday evening, 8th Run. Officers: Geo. T. Gelwicks, Sach.; Geo. G. Byers, Sec.; S. I. Troxell, Jun. S.; John F. Adelsberger, C. of R.; Chas. S. Zuck, K. of W.; C. J. S. Gelwicks, Proprietor and Representative.

'Emerald Beneficial Association, Branch No. 1, of Emmitsburg, Md.' Monthly meetings, 4th Thursday in each month. Officers: Dr. J. F. Bussey, Pres.; F. A. Adelsberger, Vice Pres.; J. W. Adelsberger, Sec.; N. Baker, Treas. Meeting and Club Rooms, Seabrooks Building, E. Main St.

Emmitt Lodge No. 41, I. O. M. Weekly meetings, every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. D. D. Grand Architect, Jos. Byers; Worthy Senior Master, Geo. T. Gelwicks; Worthy Master, Lewis D. Cook; Junior Master, Geo. G. Byers; Rec. Secretary, Jun. F. Adelsberger; Financial Secretary, R. P. Johnston; Treasurer, M. J. Eichelberger; Chaplain, C. S. Zuck; Conductor, Jos. Houck.

Emmitt Building Association. Pres't., C. F. Rowe; Vice Pres't., Geo. R. Ovelman; Ed. H. Rowe, Sec'y, and Treasurer; Directors, John G. Hess, Jos. Snouffer, J. A. Rowe, D. Lawrence, N. Baker, John F. Hopp.

Union Building Association. President, J. Taylor Motter; Vice President, W. S. Guttridge; Secretary, E. R. Zimmerman; Treasurer, W. H. Hoke; Solicitor, Henry Stokes; Directors, Jas. A. Rowe, F. A. Maxwell, John G. Hess, D. Lawrence, R. H. Gelwicks, Chas. J. Rowe.

DR. J. H. HICKEY,

DENTIST.

Having located in Emmitsburg offers his professional services to the public—Charges moderate. Satisfaction guaranteed. Office West Main St., South side, opposite P. Hoke's store. Jan 5-1f

C. W. SCHWARTZ, M. D.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Having located in Emmitsburg, offers his professional services as a Homeopathic physician and practical Surgeon, bringing to the attention of the public his profession, to deserve the confidence of the community. Office West Main St., South side, opposite P. Hoke's store.

C. V. S. LEVY

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Will attend promptly to all legal business, entrusted to him. Jy12 1f

Edward S. Eichelberger,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

OFFICE—West Church Street, opposite Court House. Dec 9 1f

DR. J. T. BUSSEY,

DENTIST.

Office N. W. Corner Square. Performs all operations pertaining to his profession. Satisfaction guaranteed. ap29

DENTISTRY!

Dr. Geo. S. Fonke, Dentist

Westminster, Md.

NEXT door to Carroll Hall, will visit Emmitsburg professionally, on the 4th Wednesday of each month, and will remain over a few days when the practice requires it. aug16-1f

Western Maryland Railroad

SUMMER SCHEDULE.

ON and after SUNDAY, May 15th, 1884, passenger trains on this road will run as follows:

PASSENGER TRAINS RUNNING WEST.

STATIONS.	Daily except Sundays.
	Mail	Acc.	Exp.	Acc.
Hilton Station	8:00	9:25	10:00	11:00
Union depot	8:05	10:00	10:45	11:45
Penn'a ave.	8:10	10:05	10:50	11:50
Pittsburg	8:15	10:10	10:55	11:55
Arlington	8:20	10:15	11:00	12:00
Blacksburg	8:25	10:20	11:05	12:05
Edgewood	8:30	10:25	11:10	12:10
Edgewood	8:35	10:30	11:15	12:15
Edgewood	8:40	10:35	11:20	12:20
Edgewood	8:45	10:40	11:25	12:25
Edgewood	8:50	10:45	11:30	12:30
Edgewood	8:55	10:50	11:35	12:35
Edgewood	9:00	10:55	11:40	12:40
Edgewood	9:05	11:00	11:45	12:45
Edgewood	9:10	11:05	11:50	12:50
Edgewood	9:15	11:10	11:55	12:55
Edgewood	9:20	11:15	12:00	1:00
Edgewood	9:25	11:20	12:05	1:05
Edgewood	9:30	11:25	12:10	1:10
Edgewood	9:35	11:30	12:15	1:15
Edgewood	9:40	11:35	12:20	1:20
Edgewood	9:45	11:40	12:25	1:25
Edgewood	9:50	11:45	12:30	1:30
Edgewood	9:55	11:50	12:35	1:35
Edgewood	10:00	11:55	12:40	1:40
Edgewood	10:05	12:00	12:45	1:45
Edgewood	10:10	12:05	12:50	1:50
Edgewood	10:15	12:10	12:55	1:55
Edgewood	10:20	12:15	1:00	2:00
Edgewood	10:25	12:20	1:05	2:05
Edgewood	10:30	12:25	1:10	2:10
Edgewood	10:35	12:30	1:15	2:15
Edgewood	10:40	12:35	1:20	2:20
Edgewood	10:45	12:40	1:25	2:25
Edgewood	10:50	12:45	1:30	2:30
Edgewood	10:55	12:50	1:35	2:35
Edgewood	11:00	12:55	1:40	2:40
Edgewood	11:05	1:00	1:45	2:45
Edgewood	11:10	1:05	1:50	2:50
Edgewood	11:15	1:10	1:55	2:55
Edgewood	11:20	1:15	2:00	3:00
Edgewood	11:25	1:20	2:05	3:05
Edgewood	11:30	1:25	2:10	3:10
Edgewood	11:35	1:30	2:15	3:15
Edgewood	11:40	1:35	2:20	3:20
Edgewood	11:45	1:40	2:25	3:25
Edgewood	11:50	1:45	2:30	3:30
Edgewood	11:55	1:50	2:35	3:35
Edgewood	12:00	1:55	2:40	3:40
Edgewood	12:05	2:00	2:45	3:45
Edgewood	12:10	2:05	2:50	3:50
Edgewood	12:15	2:10	2:55	3:55
Edgewood	12:20	2:15	3:00	4:00
Edgewood	12:25	2:20	3:05	4:05
Edgewood	12:30	2:25	3:10	4:10
Edgewood	12:35	2:30	3:15	4:15
Edgewood	12:40	2:35	3:20	4:20
Edgewood	12:45	2:40	3:25	4:25
Edgewood	12:50	2:45	3:30	4:30
Edgewood	12:55	2:50	3:35	4:35
Edgewood	1:00	2:55	3:40	4:40
Edgewood	1:05	3:00	3:45	4:45
Edgewood	1:10	3:05	3:50	4:50
Edgewood	1:15	3:10	3:55	4:55
Edgewood	1:20	3:15	4:00	5:00
Edgewood	1:25	3:20	4:05	5:05
Edgewood	1:30	3:25	4:10	5:10
Edgewood	1:35	3:30	4:15	5:15
Edgewood	1:40	3:35	4:20	5:20
Edgewood	1:45	3:40	4:25	5:25
Edgewood	1:50	3:45	4:30	5:30
Edgewood	1:55	3:50	4:35	5:35
Edgewood	2:00	3:55	4:40	5:40
Edgewood	2:05	4:00	4:45	5:45
Edgewood	2:10	4:05	4:50	5:50
Edgewood	2:15	4:10	4:55	5:55
Edgewood	2:20	4:15	5:00	6:00
Edgewood	2:25	4:20	5:05	6:05
Edgewood	2:30	4:25	5:10	6:10
Edgewood	2:35	4:30	5:15	6:15
Edgewood	2:40	4:35	5:20	6:20
Edgewood	2:45	4:40	5:25	6:25
Edgewood	2:50	4:45	5:30	6:30
Edgewood	2:55	4:50	5:35	6:35
Edgewood	3:00	4:55	5:40	6:40
Edgewood	3:05	5:00	5:45	6:45
Edgewood	3:10	5:05	5:50	6:50
Edgewood	3:15	5:10	5:55	6:55
Edgewood	3:20	5:15	6:00	7:00
Edgewood	3:25	5:20	6:05	7:05
Edgewood	3:30	5:25	6:10	7:10
Edgewood	3:35	5:30	6:15	7:15
Edgewood	3:40	5:35	6:20	7:20
Edgewood	3:45	5:40	6:25	7:25
Edgewood	3:50	5:45	6:30	7:30
Edgewood	3:55	5:50	6:35	7:35
Edgewood	4:00	5:55	6:40	7:40
Edgewood	4:05	6:00	6:45	7:45
Edgewood	4:10	6:05	6:50	7:50
Edgewood	4:15	6:10	6:55	7:55
Edgewood	4:20	6:15	7:00	8:00
Edgewood	4:25	6:20	7:05	8:05
Edgewood	4:30	6:25	7:10	8:10
Edgewood	4:35	6:30	7:15	8:15
Edgewood	4:40	6:35	7:20	8:20
Edgewood	4:45	6:40	7:25	8:25
Edgewood	4:50	6:45	7:30	8:30
Edgewood	4:55	6:50	7:35	8:35
Edgewood	5:00	6:55	7:40	8:40
Edgewood	5:05	7:00	7:45	8:45
Edgewood	5:10	7:05	7:50	8:50
Edgewood	5:15	7:10	7:55	8:55
Edgewood	5:20	7:15	8:00	9:00
Edgewood	5:25	7:20	8:05	9:05
Edgewood	5:30	7:25	8:10	9:10
Edgewood	5:35	7:30	8:15	9:15
Edgewood	5:40	7:35	8:20	9:20
Edgewood	5:45	7:40	8:25	9:25
Edgewood	5:50	7:45	8:30	9:30
Edgewood	5:55	7:50	8:35	9:35
Edgewood	6:00	7:55	8:40	9:40
Edgewood	6:05	8:00	8:45	9:45
Edgewood	6:10	8:05	8:50	9:50
Edgewood	6:15	8:10	8:55	9:55
Edgewood	6:20	8:15	9:00	10:00
Edgewood	6:25	8:20	9:05	10:05
Edgewood	6:30	8:25	9:10	10:10
Edgewood	6:35	8:30	9:15	10:15
Edgewood	6:40	8:35	9:20	10:20
Edgewood	6:45	8:40	9:25	10:25
Edgewood	6:50	8:45	9:30	10:30
Edgewood	6:55	8:50	9:35	10:35
Edgewood	7:00	8:55	9:40	10:40
Edgewood	7:05	9:00	9:45	10:45
Edgewood	7:10	9:05	9:50	10:50
Edgewood	7:15	9:10	9:55	10:55
Edgewood	7:20	9:15	10:00	11:00
Edgewood	7:25	9:20	10:05	11:05
Edgewood	7:30	9:25	10:10	11:10
Edgewood	7:35	9:30	10:15	11:15
Edgewood	7:40	9:35	10:20	11:20
Edgewood	7:45	9:40	10:25	11:25
Edgewood	7:50	9:45	10:30	11:30
Edgewood	7:55	9:50	10:35	11:35
Edgewood	8:00	9:55	10:40	11:40
Edgewood	8:05	10:00	10:45	11:45
Edgewood	8:10	10:05	10:50	11:50
Edgewood	8:15	10:10	10:55	11:55
Edgewood	8:20	10:15	11:00	12:00
Edgewood	8:25	10:20	11:05	12:05
Edgewood	8:30	10:25	11:10	12:10
Edgewood	8:35	10:30	11:15	12:15
Edgewood	8:40	10:35	11:20	12:20
Edgewood	8:45	10:40	11:25	12:25
Edgewood	8:50	10:45	11:30	12:30
Edgewood	8:55	10:50	11:35	12:35
Edgewood	9:00	10:55	11:40	12:40
Edgewood	9:05	11:00	11:45	12:45
Edgewood	9:10	11:05	11:50	12:50
Edgewood	9:15	11:10	11:55	12:55
Edgewood	9:20	11:15	12:00	1:00
Edgewood	9:25	11:20	12:05	1:05
Edgewood	9:30	11:25	12:10	1:10
Edgewood	9:35	11:30	12:15	1:15
Edgewood	9:40	11:35	12:20	1:20
Edgewood	9:45	11:40	12:25	1:25
Edgewood	9:50	11:45	12:30	1:30
Edgewood	9:55	11:50	12:35	1:35
Edgewood	10:00	11:55	12:40	1:40
Edgewood	10:05

SPREAD OF THE CHOLERA.

DR. KOCH PREDICTS THAT THE DISEASE WILL GO EVERYWHERE—THE MAILS FROM FRANCE.

TOULON, July 7.—Dr. Koch, the head of the Berlin Cholera Commission, who is investigating the disease in France, reports that the cholera here is Asiatic. He found the same microbes here as were found in Egypt and India. The intestines being the seat of danger, fumigation is useless. He says: "The cholera will reach Germany. It will go everywhere. Having a centre like Toulon, it must spread."

There were nine deaths here from cholera last night. The cemetery is kept open all night to allow the speedy burial of those who die from the disease. Seven deaths occurred to day up to 5 1/2 p. m.

MARSEILLES, July 7.—There were sixteen deaths from cholera here last night. Twenty cases were taken to the hospital during the night. In consequence of the appearance of cholera upon two vessels in this port infected arrivals will be sent temporarily to a lazaretto.

There have been nine deaths here from cholera during the past twelve hours.

LONDON, July 7.—An English steamer from Marseilles has been signaled off Lisbon with two cases of cholera on board.

PARIS, July 8.—It is feared that the exodus from Marseilles and Toulon will result in spreading the cholera. The migration from Paris to the seaside is unexampled. The Gaulois states that there is a case of cholera at Nice.

The total number of deaths from cholera at Toulon from the first appearance of the disease to date is 154. There were three deaths at Aix to-day.

MARSEILLES, July 8.—Fourteen deaths from cholera occurred in this city last evening. The panic is increasing, and all those who can are leaving the city.

Four deaths from cholera had occurred here in the twelve hours ended at 7:30 P. M. to-day.

TOULON, July 8.—There were ten deaths from cholera here last evening, one of the victims being a Sister of Charity.

Dr. Koch, head of the German cholera commission, thinks cholera is not inhaled, but is swallowed with water and fruits.

MARSEILLES, July 9.—Nine deaths from cholera occurred here last evening.

TOULON, July 9.—There were six deaths here from cholera last evening.

THE REMAINS OF GRANT AND WARD.

The handsomest schedule of rubbish that has ever been seen in Wall street liquidation is that presented by the receiver of the late firm of Grant & Ward. There is something like a quarter of a cent on the dollar available, and the creditors are asked to walk up and compound upon that basis.

Shrinkage accounts for some of the discrepancy, but only a very small proportion of it. Astute plunder got away with the rest of it, and there is a grave doubt, if the adjustment of the firm's affairs were conducted with strict impartiality and unflinching justice, if several persons should not be made to answer either the responsibilities of actual partnership in its affairs or the position of independent swindlers.

The business while it lasted was a brilliant achievement, but the winding up of it is a masterpiece of art.—N. Y. Sun.

THE formal presentation of the Bartholdi Statue of Liberty by the French government to the United States took place in Paris on July 4th. Minister L. P. Morton, received the statue in the name of our government.

REMARKABLE DEATH.—A strange death of a little girl by accidentally swallowing a lightning bug is reported from Concord, N. C.

The child was playing in the yard with a number of other children, at her parents house, near Odell's factory, and while laughing and romping about a lightning bug flew into her mouth and made its way down her throat. The little girl became suddenly ill, and, though physicians did everything to relieve her sufferings, she died within a few hours afterward. This is the first death from such a cause on record.—Ex.

THE National Democratic Convention met in Chicago on Tuesday and was called to order by Hon. Wm. H. Barnum of Connecticut at 12:37 p. m. Rev. Dr. Marquis of Chicago, formerly of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Baltimore, opened the convention with prayer. The Hon. Richard Hubbard, Governor of Texas was elected temporary Chairman, and the convention adjourned until 11 a. m. of the next day.

The convention was called to order at 11:27 on the 9th inst, and Col. W. H. Vilas of Wisconsin was elected permanent chairman. The names of Bayard, Cleveland, McDonald, Thurman, and Carlisle were presented for the presidential nomination. Various resolutions were presented and the convention adjourned. At this writing, Friday morning, the work of the session is still proceeding.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8, 1884.

The closing hours of the First Session of the 48th Congress, were not materially unlike those that have characterized all of its predecessors. As usual, the most important legislation was left to the hurly burly moments of approaching dissolution, and rushed through only after a most unreasonably brief consideration by conference committees. Nevertheless the session has given us some few beneficent measures, and none that are positively vicious. The unanimous vote of thanks to the presiding officers of both houses, and particularly to Speaker Carlisle, were never more deserved. Mr. Carlisle leaves his chair with a record for impartiality and faithfulness to duty that has not been excelled in the long line of Speakerships.

The sixty millions of people in this country who have for so many years been worried out of sweet repose lest some fourth rate frigate from some fifth-rate country should come in the night and lay waste the cities on our eastern and western coasts, can now tell themselves into complete security. Half a million of dollars has been appropriated by Congress to be expended in providing ordnance for the steel cruisers that are now being constructed by the Government, and these guns are to be of sufficient size calibre and power to knock into smithereens anything that is reckless enough to get within range. To be sure our naval constructors and our engineers and other experts, native and foreign, have all pronounced these cruisers as conspicuous failures as they are prodigious frauds, but what does all that amount to beside the opinions of Secretary Billy Chandler and his superior officer John Roach? It will not be until some of these cruisers blow themselves under water in an attempt to blow something else out of water, that the Government will see fit to imitate the example which even the Chilean government has set.

It is perhaps better late than never, but who that has seen the plan of the monument to be erected to the memory of the mother of Washington, would rather say never? Why Congress should submit the devising of this kind of architecture to the taste of a board of engineers, who have no more conception of such work than the merest laymen, is beyond comprehension. Here is an appropriation of $25,000, in addition to what has already been expended, to complete this masterpiece of architectural folly. There is nothing appropriate about it from base to apex, and is altogether about as incongruous a piece of work as could possibly be advised. To cap the climax of the absurdities surrounding this particular appropriation, there is a neat little steal of $6,000, in requital for the trespassing upon somebody's land in order to reach the spot where the monument is situated! However, the whole business is only on a par with Mt. Vernon monopoly, by which the American people are kindly permitted to give-vent to their lamentations at the tomb of the Father of his Country, after depositing in the coffers of the captain of a one horse steamboat the small price of $1 per lament.

One by one the cases of grand larceny, in which the Government is always the victim, are being unearthed, not by any system that the Government maintains for the detection of crime, but from the lack of confidence that the thieves have in each other. Here are bills made out against the Government amounting up into thousands of dollars, sustained by vouchers and approved by Government officials, for which the Government had never received the consideration of a single penny.

One fellow of the name of Dempsey, who keeps a stationary store on Pennsylvania avenue, has been furnishing imaginary telescopes, kaleidoscopes and numerous other scopes, for which he has received some $5,000 or $6,000, without even having delivered an article! The law officers have gone into the business of indicting these thieves, but nobody supposes that any of them will be convicted, from the fact that Washington jurymen as a rule are in the same boat.

The sudden absence of Congress with its lobby has left Washington in a state of lonesomeness. The Riggs, the Arlington, the Ebbitt and Willards suffer the most by these Congressional exoduses, because the house must be kept up during the summer at a necessarily heavy expense. However, the landlords manage somehow or other to make both ends meet at the close of the fiscal year, and have something left over for a boom at the opening in December. DOM PEDRO.

NEW YORK LETTER.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

NEW YORK, July 9, 1884.

The inhabitants of the metropolis don't appear to be going out of town so much this season as in previous years. Whether it is the financial situation, or the variable weather that keeps them at home, the fact remains that the exodus is thus far mostly confined to removals to hotels and summer residences near the city. If the price of petroleum had gone up, and railroad stocks had not gone down, undoubtedly a good many who are now at home trying to find out whether they are worth anything, or whether they will have to go to work for their bread and butter, might have been idling 'by the sad sea waves,' or riding on the briny deep towards a foreign shore. But such are the vicissitudes of life, and especially of stock speculation. Within four months the stocks known on the market as "the Van derbilts," have undergone a shrinkage of $50,000,000. "The Goulds" have shrunk $60,000,000, and "the Huntingtons" $20,000,000 in the same time. When, through the decreased value of securities, $100,000,000 is wiped out of existence, as it were; when New York Central depreciates $18,000,000, Western Union $20,000,000, Union Pacific $27,000,000, Central Pacific $17,000,000, and Lake Shore $15,000,000 in a few months we may well say "the rich men are not as rich as they were." Vanderbilt's fortune alone is fully 40 millions less than it was a few months ago. But the great mass of people will have no tears to shed when it is remembered that the greed and unscrupulousness of the money Kings have brought about the shrinkage; when it is remembered that stock watering, blind pools, gambling corners and the unscrupulous use of dishonestly accumulated capital lie at the bottom of the disasters of the present dead and rotting market. For the poor victims who have been ruined through their confidence in these rascally jobbers there is, of course, much sympathy.

Commodore Garrison, the last of the millionaires to succumb, was of a different type from the Goulds and Vanderbilts, and for his misfortunes there are many regrets. He is a man known the country over, not alone for his wealth and money-getting schemes, but for the honorable use he made of his accumulations. His early history is full of interesting incidents. He was born about the time Fulton's steamboat was making its way slowly up the Hudson, and in boyhood became cabin boy on the river. Later, he assisted to put the first four prominent steamers on the northern lakes. At that time the splendid rush to the West had not commenced, but the tendency was rather toward the Southwest, and therefore he went to New Orleans. His steamboat, the "Convoy," was the finest of her day on those Southwestern waters, he came New York, as now, always taught style to the rest of the country. You can take a peck-marked girl in New York and by style she will seem beautiful. Garrison labored along on the Mississippi River, running a big steamboat and appearing to himself and friends to be the great Commodore of the great river. In his office, as purser or clerk, was a young chap named Ralston, who afterwards went to California and became a money king. Suddenly the "Convoy" burned up between Natchez and Memphis. This changed the whole course of Garrison's life. He went off to Panama when gold, as a discovery, was a great, established, new fact. Not only in America but on the earth, gold coin had been getting scarce. It was understood that the poor portion of the United States would fill the breach. We had then loose banking and bank notes might or might not mean something. The panic of 1837, which lasted so long, was only twelve or fourteen years old. Garrison, who was a Dutch boy from opposite West Point, went to Panama. It is said that he made there, in the course of two years, three quarters of a million dollars by forwarding passengers, giving them supplies, doing their banking and forwarding their diggings.

Coming down Broadway this morning I noticed the spot where the old St. Nicholas Hotel stood not many weeks ago, but where now a block of stores is in course of erection. The St. Nicholas was one of the land-marks of New York. I remember my first visit to the metropolis fifteen years ago, at which time it was the hotel of the city. But the rapid advance of the residence and amusement portion of the city, father up-town took with it a share of the hotel patronage, and the great demand for stores in the locality led the owners to tear down this famous old structure this spring though it had a fair business up to the very last. The Grand Central Hotel, a few blocks further up, has now taken the greater part of this patronage. It is one of the largest and best arranged houses in the city, and will probably always hold its own as the resort of those who desire to stop between the extremes of up town and down town locations.

The amusement season is rather dull at present. The new Casino, with its opera performance and roof summer garden, is a popular resort, and the Madison Square Theatre has had a long and extraordinarily successful run with "May Blossom." Buffalo Bill's out-door show entitled the "Wild West," on the Polo Grounds, is a unique affair and has drawn reasonably well. It is a combination of Indian war whoops and cowboy adventure, and takes with the rising generation. These, with a few slugging matches and baseball games, constitute about all there is going on outside of the clubs and beer gardens. KNICKERBOCKER.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

MINISTER LOWELL is suffering from an attack of gout.

THE births in Spain during 1883 numbered 453,000, and the deaths 418,000.

MR. JOHN A. KAS ON, has been appointed by the President, minister to Germany.

THE Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has purchased the Pittsburg, Cleveland and Toledo Railroad.

THE first session of the Forty-eighth Congress closed at three o'clock on Monday last.

THE total profits of the Reading Railroad and Coal and Iron Companies from January 1 to June 1 were $5,072,900.

By the explosion of a toy cannon at Schenectady, N. Y., on the 4th, a boy ten years old had his eyes put out and his right hand mutilated.

TYPE WRITING has been introduced in the Chicago public schools in an experimental way. A class of twenty five practices two hours a week.

BOSTON, Mass., July 1.—Capt. John W. Andrews, of Sumter, S. C., 95 years of age, who started to walk to Boston from his home in South Carolina, arrived in this city last evening by rail, having given up his tramp at Hartford after completing seven hundred miles on foot at an average rate of 22 miles per day.

A MAN during a lifetime of 50 years, according to a paper recently read before the Academy of Sciences Paris, sleeps away an aggregate of 6,000 days, works away the same period, eats away 2,000 days, walks away 800 days, is ill during 500 days, and amuses himself with the remainder of his half century on earth.

THAT BRILLIANT METEOR—Over one hundred and fifty nebulae which have escaped the vision of previous astronomers have recently been discovered by Dr. Lewis Swift, Director of the Warner Observatory, Rochester, N. Y. One of these is of a most peculiar nature, and seems to be undergoing a wonderful change. Dr. Swift desires to thoroughly investigate the great meteor which appeared on the night of July 31, and for this purpose requests all who saw it to communicate with him at the Warner Observatory, Rochester, N. Y., immediately, giving the direction of view, motion, color, etc.

WATERBURY'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION. CURE WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Compound. Quick, good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.

New Advertisements.

DAUCHY & CO.

$300 A MONTH FOR AGENTS JUST BLAINE and LOGAN. Complete, Official, Illustrated Life of the Republic of the United States, by DAUCHY & CO., Editors of the Kennebec Journal and Blaine's Private Secretary. Cloth, $2.00. Our books are beyond all competition in Authority, Illustrations, Paper and Binding. F. SERVICUS FREE to ACTUAL CANVASERS. Special terms to those ordering from a distance. Also ready the LIFE OF THE YEAR.

MY WIFE'S FOOL OF A HUSBAND! WITH 175 ENGRAVINGS, BY WILLIAMS. 25 NOVELS IN ONE VOLUME. A Great Novel. W. H. THOMPSON, Pub. 404 Arch St. Phila. Pa.

DR. HALL'S ENGLISH LONDON MALARIA PILLS. EQUAL TO THE BEST. CATARRH. Hay Fever. ELY'S CREAM BALM. CATARRH OF THE HEAD. HAY-FEVER.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE LIVES OF BLAINE & LOGAN. By O. H. THINE, W. R. ROSE. Outsell all others. 100 copies for $1.00. Address: THE HARTFORD PUBLISHING CO., Hartford, Conn.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE LIVES OF BLAINE & LOGAN. By O. H. THINE, W. R. ROSE. Outsell all others. 100 copies for $1.00. Address: THE HARTFORD PUBLISHING CO., Hartford, Conn.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE LIVES OF BLAINE & LOGAN. By O. H. THINE, W. R. ROSE. Outsell all others. 100 copies for $1.00. Address: THE HARTFORD PUBLISHING CO., Hartford, Conn.

5000!! AGENTS WANTED! Double Outlet to sell the First AUTHENTIC Biographies of BLAINE & LOGAN. By the eminent scholars, H. C. HANSDELL and W. H. PHELPS. Published by DAUCHY & CO., Boston, Mass.

Baltimore American. Established 1773. THE DAILY AMERICAN. Terms by Mail, Postage Prepaid: One Month, $1.00; Three months, $2.50; Six months, $4.50; One year, $7.50. With Sunday edition, one year, $9.00.

THE WEEKLY AMERICAN. The Cheapest and Best Family Newspaper Published. ONLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR. SIX MONTHS, 60 CENTS.

THE WEEKLY AMERICAN is published every week, and contains the most interesting special correspondence, entertaining romances, good poetry, and the latest news, interest and fresh miscellany, suitable for the home circle. A carefully edited Agricultural Department and full and reliable Financial and Market reports are special features.

TERMS AND PREMIUMS. THE WEEKLY AMERICAN, single copy, one year, $7.50. 5 copies, one year, and extra copy of the WEEKLY AMERICAN, one year, $12.00. 10 copies, one year, with an extra copy of the WEEKLY AMERICAN, one year, $20.00. 20 copies, one year, with an extra copy of the WEEKLY AMERICAN, one year, $35.00. The premium copies sent to any address desired.

SPECIAL CLUB RATES. THE WEEKLY AMERICAN, with any of the following named journals, will be sent one year, to separate addresses, if ordered, at the prices given in the first column of figures.

Table with 3 columns: NAMES OF JOURNALS, Club Price, Retail Price. Includes Atlantic Monthly, American Farmer, Century Magazine, etc.

CHAS. C. FULTON & CO. FULFILL AGENTS, Publisher American Office, BALTIMORE, MD.

Agents Wanted for authentic edition of his life. Published at Dauchy & Co., Boston, Mass. who's life of Garrison, published by us, outside the twenty others by 60,000. Outsell every book ever published in this world. Agents are making fortunes selling it daily. Agents are making fortunes. All new beginners successfull; grand chance for $40.00 made by every first day. Terms most liberal. Particulars free. Better send 25 cents for postage, etc. on free outfit, now ready to discharge previous book, and save valuable time. ALLEN & CO., 19 Park Place, New York City.

TAPE WORM. In one of the tropical provinces of Germany there has been found a root, the extract from which has proved an absolute specific for Tape Worm.

It is pleasant to take and is not debilitating or dangerous in its effect on the patient, but is occasionally sickening and stupefying to the Tape Worm, which loosens its hold of its victim and passes away in a natural and easy manner. One physician has used this remedy in over 60 cases, without a single failure to pass worm whole, with head, Absolute removal with head guaranteed. No pay required until worm removed. Send stamp for circular and terms. BEYWOOD & CO., 19 Park Place, New York City.

STAUNTON FEMALE SEMINARY. STAUNTON, VIRGINIA. REV. JAMES WILLIS, A. M., PRINCIPAL. This well-known institution is one of the best in the South. It is a well-kept, elegant and beautiful building, with excellent course of instruction. Apply for Catalogue. 1884-1885.

THE PLACE TO BUY YOUR FURNITURE!

The undersigned calls the attention of the public in general to his large stock of Furniture. He has everything in the Furniture line.

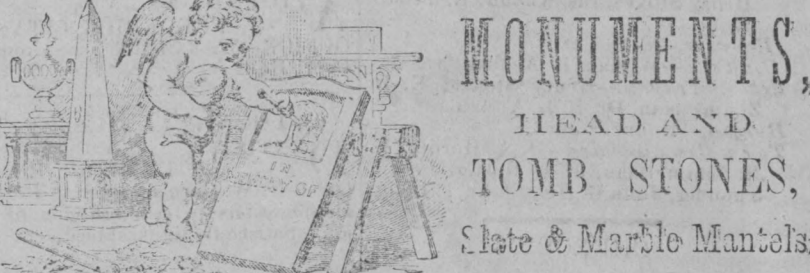

Bed-room and Parlor Suits, WARDROBES, Buffets, Sideboards, Leaf and Extension Tables, Bedsteads, Spring Beds, WOVEN WIRE MATTRESSES.

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO UNDERTAKING. A full line of Funeral Supplies always on hand, which will be furnished at the very lowest prices. Six months credit given on coffins and caskets, or a liberal discount if settled inside of sixty days. West Main Street, Emmitsburg, Md.

Emmitsburg Marble Yard

(Four Doors West of the Presbyterian Church), WM. H. HOKE, Proprietor.

MONUMENTS, HEAD AND TOMB STONES, Slate & Marble Mantels.

White Bronze & Granite Monuments, &c. &c. Made to order, and as low as any house in the county. Satisfaction guaranteed. Also agent for Fresh Meat! Victor Liver Syrup.

THE undersigned will continue the Butchering business in its several branches. My customers will be supplied with the best of fresh Beef, Mutton, Veal, Pork, &c., in season, and the same will be delivered to customers on every TUESDAY AND SATURDAY morning. By strict attention to business and an earnest aim to give full satisfaction I hope not only to retain my present customers, but to add many others to their number. Respectfully JOHN A. HORNER.

FURNITURE!

The undersigned has in stock a fine assortment of furniture, which is offered to the spring trade, at the very lowest cash prices. Bed Room & Parlor Furniture, bed-room suits, walnut and poplar ward robes, silhouettes, dressing cases, bureaus, washstands, bed and extension tables, chairs of all kinds, lounges, mattresses, spring-bottom beds, marble-top tables, red and rattan furniture, &c. Call and examine my Woven Wire Mattresses! and whether you buy or not, it will be cheerfully shown, and if desired, will be taken to your home and left on trial for a few days, and if not satisfactory, will be removed free of charge. Over 5,000 are in use. My stock of wall and ornamental paper is well deserving of notice. I am also agent for the Light-running Sewing Machine. Repairing neatly and promptly done. Call and be convinced that I am doing as good work and selling as low as any house in the county. Respectfully CHAS. J. STUFF, West Main St., Emmitsburg, Md.

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

CONDUCTED BY THE SISTERS OF CHARITY NEAR EMMITSBURG, MD. This Institution is pleasantly situated in a healthy and picturesque part of Frederick Co., half a mile from Emmitsburg, and two miles from Mount St. Mary's College. Terms—Board and Tuition per academic year, including bed and bedding, washing, mending and doctor's fee, $200. Letters of inquiry directed to the Mother Superior. mar 15 if VICTOR LINIMENT.

The great Bone and Nerve Pain-killer. For external use. It is King over all Pains for Man or Beast and for every kind of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Sprained Feet, Burns, Corns, &c. Victor Remedies Co., M'Frs & Prop's, FREDERICK, MD.

McAllister's Spectacles and Eye Glasses ARE THE BEST.

Having acquired a NATIONAL REPUTATION! Thermometers, Spy Glasses, &c. Send for Catalogue. W. MITCHELL McALLISTER, OPTICIAN, No. 728 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. apr 19-3m

NOTICE.

THE firm of C. J. Rowe & Brother is dissolved by the death of C. J. Rowe. All persons indebted to the late firm will please call and settle their accounts as the books must be closed. J. HENRY ROWE, Surviving Partner.

The undersigned have this 6th day of March 1884 formed a co-partnership under the name of GEO. W. ROWE & SONS who will continue the Mercantile business at the old stand. They hope by strict attention to business and a desire to please to receive a share of the public patronage. GEO. W. ROWE, mar 15-1 J. HENRY ROWE.

A large stock at all prices, constantly on hand, comprising some of our own make but slightly used. Sole agents for the celebrated SMITH AMERICAN ORGANS AND OTHER LEADING MAKES. WM. KNABE & CO., 204 & 206 W. Baltimore St., Baltimore July 5-1y

VICTOR PAIN BALM.

(Formula of Dr. P. D. Fabry.) The magic remedy for Cholera Morbus, Cramp Colic, Tramps, caused from Indigestion, Dysentery, or Diarrhea, Toothache, Neuralgia, Stomach-ache, Headache, and a host of other thieving of insects. Price 25 and 50 cts. per bottle. Victor Remedies Co., M'Frs & Prop's, FREDERICK, MD.

LOCALS.

EMMITSBURG RAILROAD.

TIME TABLE

On and after June 12th, 1884, trains on this road will run as follows:
TRAJNS SOUTH.
Leave Emmitsburg 7:15 a. m., and 2:20 and 5:55 p. m., arriving at Rocky Ridge at 7:45 a. m., and 3:50 and 6:25 p. m.

TRAJNS NORTH.
Leave Rocky Ridge 10:40 A. M., and 4:05 and 6:40 p. m., arriving at Emmitsburg at 11:40 A. M., and 4:35 and 7:10 p. m.
JAS A. ELDER, Prest

The Telephone call of the EMMITSBURG CHRONICLE is 213.
It is not safe to bathe in less than an hour after eating.

DROWNING accidents are occurring daily. Boys be guarded.
GET your painting done by John F. Adelsberger, Emmitsburg, m-6if

The Maryland State Teachers' Association is in session at Ocean City.
The Democrats of Frederick county are organizing for the campaign.

The National Hotel is for rent, enquire of N. Baker, Emmitsburg.
REV. CHARLES S. ALBERT has declined the presidency of Pennsylvania College.

HACKNEYACK a luscious and fragrant perfume Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by J. A. Elder.
COLOURING ice-cream with the juice of raspberries and the like is now the style. We prefer it white.

Dudes can now wear sharp-pointed shoes, Schroeder's Corn Solvent has cleared the way. 25 cents.
DR. DIBBLE, of Taneytown, has just arrived home from a visit to his sister who resides in Colorado.

SULLIVAN'S Cure will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping cough and Bronchitis. Sold by J. A. Elder.
WANTED.—5,000 logs at Iron Dale Saw Mill, to saw on shares, Wm. L. McGinnis, one mile west of Emmitsburg

Wm. H. H. HADMAN has had his residence and store-room painted. The improvement makes a bright spot in his locality.
WILLIAM ROBERTS, the messenger and watchman of the Hagerstown Bank, died of paralysis on the 4th inst., aged 74 years.

For Fire Insurance in first class companies call on W. G. Horner, Agt., office N. E. corner of the Public Square, Emmitsburg, Md.
HAPPILY the flies observe the dainties of working by daylight! But you can depend upon them to begin work at that early hour!

THE Rev. Geo. H. Thayer, of Donibon, Ind., says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to Shiloh's Consumption Cure." Sold by J. A. Elder.
To clean bottles, chop up a large potato very fine and put it in the bottle with some warm water and shake the bottle rapidly until it is clean.—Ec.

ARE you made miserable by indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of appetite, Yellow Skin? Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. Sold by J. A. Elder
Now is the time to subscribe for the EMMITSBURG CHRONICLE, as a family newspaper its excellence is everywhere acknowledged, get your neighbours to subscribe.

THE ox roast at Gettysburg on the 4th, was a grand success. About 3,000 people were present, and a general good time was had. Rev. Dr. Keiffer made the address.

THE work of rebuilding the bridges and repairing the road-bed on the Frederick Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad between Taneytown and York has been completed.

MRS. M. E. DYELMAN calls attention to her large and carefully selected stock of Millinery goods, in full variety; all new, at her establishment two doors east of the square in Emmitsburg.

MOUNT Moriah, happy hamlet in Somerset county, Pa., has neither undertaker nor doctor, and does very well without them. It has a dozen persons ranging from seventy-five to eighty years old.

THE inconvenience of receiving the mail from Frederick in the evening instead of at noon as heretofore, is so great that we respectfully ask our contemporaries at that place, to try and have the matter rectified.

MR. GEORGE WALKER, for the past thirteen years postmaster at Williamsport, Washington county, was stricken with paralysis Wednesday morning and died in a few moments. He was 65 years of age and leaves a wife and one daughter.

HOUSED.—The wheat is about all housed, and joyously the farmers contemplate the prospective gain from their toil and patient waiting through long months; and hopefully they mediate the renewal of the conflict for another year. Thus the ages roll.

THE newspapers have a way of saying "a rain storm passed over" this or that place, the one of Saturday night did no such thing here, it came right down upon us, and laid according to its ability to discharge its contents; a considerable lake of water; tons of sheets of lightning, and many arsenals of thunder.

To successfully combat the effects of the heated term use J. M. Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters, it never fails in its beneficial effects upon the system, regulates the bowels, cures dyspepsia, aids digestion, strengthens the stomach, cures chills and fevers, etc. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a paper of $1 a bottle. W. E. Thornton, proprietor, Baltimore, Md.

For Dyspepsia and Liver complaint, you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. It never fails to cure. Sold by J. A. Elder.

A Good Rule.
Never let another do for you what you can do yourself.

If the Baby is to have health, it must have sound and refreshing sleep. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup insures this. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Making Hast Slowly.
It shows a determination to do well what they undertake, that the County Commissioners are deliberate in regard to removing the iron mill and improving the Court-House Square at Frederick. We are willing to await the results, that may follow thereon, as the outcome of wise consideration.

List of Letters.
The following letters remain in the Post Office, Emmitsburg, Md., July 7, 1884. Persons calling will please say advertised, otherwise they may not receive them:
Albert Clabaugh, Harry Rabery, William E. Sanders, Miss Jane H. Stoser.

The Pic-Nic.
To be held to day at Chestnut Springs, as it opens the wood-lands ports of the season in this district, will command the attention of all who love the joys of the shaded grove. The well known energy and urbanity of its projectors guarantees its success. "On with the dance!"

We have surely been experiencing this week the cool wave predicted for July. It was so cool on Tuesday eve that everybody sat within doors, Wednesday evening was warmer, but not enough so to be comfortable to remain long outdoors; at this writing there is promise of a higher temperature. We are happiest when the air is seasonable.

The Tornado of last Saturday night proved very destructive in the thriving young orchard of Mr. Joseph Hays, just outside of the West end of this place. The choice fruit trees were twisted and overturned like so much corn before the winds. It is always sad to contemplate the course of such destruction, blasting in a few minutes the toil and patient waiting through years!

The beautiful residence of L. P. D. Newman at Arlington, opposite the four mile house on the Reisterstown road, was burned on the 4th inst., involving a loss of $20,000, Charlotte Hinsen, a colored servant of the household, through spite on account of some remonstrances by a lady of the house, set the building on fire, being accused of the act she admitted it. The penalty is death or the penitentiary.

In Jail.
John Lippy, of Woodboro' district who it will be remembered, in a fit of rage, strung his 10 year old son up by the neck in the cellar of his residence about ten days ago, was arrested by constable Wm. Warner on Saturday last and brought to this city. He was given a partial hearing before Justice Turner, who committed him to jail to await a final hearing at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.—The Call.

MR. ISAAC Kreis, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens of Winchester, Va., died on Monday last week, in his 81st year. Thirty years or more ago the deceased was one of Gettysburg's most active and energetic citizens. He subsequently removed to Winchester and there largely increased his already comfortable means. He was the owner of the Hart Hotel and other city property, and of five fine farms. Rev. W. E. Krebs is one of his four sons.—Gettysburg Compiler.

Growing Celery.
We have received a copy of Mrs. I. M. Cridler's publication on the cultivation of celery, which gives the result of several years' experience, in a plain, common-sense manner, that can be easily understood and put into practice by everyone engaged in raising this delightful vegetable. The book is entitled "How to Grow Fine Celery," "A New Method," by Mrs. I. M. Cridley, of York, Pa., is a small pamphlet of 16 pages, and sent by mail for 25 cents.

Acknowledgment.
We have received with "Compliments of J. DeBarth Shorb" the "opening address by J. DeBarth Shorb of San Gabriel, Cal., at the State Irrigation convention, held at Riverside, Cal., May 14-15 and 16, 1884." Mr. Shorb is as well known as a native of Emmitsburg District. The address is an excellent one, and is pervaded with the clearest judgment, and eloquence that causes all the deliverances of his gifted author to be well received among the people in whose interests he has for many years exerted a commanding and highly beneficial influence.

Wood Chopping.
On Monday morning last our town was the scene of the liveliest wood cutting that has been witnessed in a long while. The storm of Saturday night in its relentless fury, laid low quite a number of old and decayed Paper-Mulberry trees. The town can well be satisfied with their destruction as regards the looks of the thing; but to dispense with the shade is not to be regarded lightly. To cut up the fallen timbers was a matter of early interest. We trust the places of the ancient sentinels along our sidewalks will be duly replaced by others of more substantial bodies and symmetrical proportions. We have commended the tree-planting in the past and hope to do so in the future. But we do not propose to cease the work, until the "Conspicuity of shade" extends from the Eastern to the Western limits of the town, and we are not how much further in every direction. It is evidence of civilization in any people that they try to keep cool, and are always clean.

PERSONALS.
Miss Kate Slaughaupt visits in Harney.
Rev. A. S. Hartman, of Chambersburg made a short visit to his father-in-law, Mr. Geo. W. Rowe, last week, and Mrs. Hartman returned home on Tuesday.
Miss Kallie Simonton returned home from Germantown, on Monday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rowe, Misses Frank Winter, Belle Rowe and Julia Zeck, went to Ocean City, Md., on Monday.
Master T. Grier Simonton visits in Williamsport, Pa.
Miss Alice Simonton is visiting in Har-ri-sburg, Pa.
Messrs. Patrick and Frank Clery of Baltimore spent the 4th of July with their mother.

Mr. Edmund Nusser of Baltimore, made a visit to his parents in this place.
Mr. J. M. Kerrigan and family of Middletown, Md., visited Mr. K's. mother, Miss Nannie Davall of Urbana, Md., visits the family of her uncle, Dr. Eichelberger.

The best thing to relieve a suffering horse, cow, sheep, or hog is Day's Horse and Cattle Powder, prepared from the prescription of the celebrated London veterinarian, Dr. Jas. T. Day. It is safe and reliable. Full directions with each package. Price 25 cts. per package of one pound, full weight.

A Horrible Accident.
A horrible accident occurred Wednesday near Sykesville, Carroll county, Md., which resulted in the instant death of a young farmer of that vicinity. A young man named Barnes was helping his brother-in-law to haul to shelter the recently harvested wheat, and was standing upon a load of wheat holding a pitchfork in his hand at the time. He either slipped on the straw or lost his balance by an unexpected movement of the wagon and fell to the ground. The fork which he held in his hand pierced his heart, killing him instantly.

We have often remarked upon the favored locality of this community; its comparative freedom from the extremes of heat and cold, and the terrible visitations to which many places are subject. The recent storm does not form an exception in the case, for whilst it was violent in itself considered, it did not reach the state of destructiveness that other places so often encounter. The same storm destroyed many buildings and did immense damage in Lancaster county, Pa., and its general work here, was not greater than that of the severest we have experienced in the course of many years.

List of Patents.
The following Patents were granted to citizens of Maryland, bearing date July 1, 1884. Reported expressly for this paper by Louis Bagger & Co., Mechanical Experts and Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C.:
David Gense, Baltimore, respirator 301,411.
W. E. Ginn, Woodberry, suit hanger 301,356.
G. A. Liebig and J. P. Gibbons, Baltimore, treating of phosphates of alumina and iron 301,243.
George Taylor, Baltimore, tea-kettle 301,403.

Have You Registered?
This question is propounded to all practicing dentists. By a recent act of the General Assembly all dentists who wish to continue practicing are required to register. All who were practicing before the passage of the act are entitled to register. Members of the profession from other states will be examined. Practicing without registering is punishable by fine and imprisonment. When the bill covering the case was passed an effort was made to disbar all who had not been practicing for ten years or could not show a diploma from a reputable college.—Banner.

PATRONS who settle with the printer "after harvest," as they kindly put it, are now entitled to the floor. Of course some of you forgot it last year, and even the year previous, and there are a few who have "permitted the winds of many seasons to blow over the oat stubble," but that has nothing to do with our present recognition of your rights to the floor. Come up, all of you, and give our exchequer a boost; we need money for paper, for labor, and for other articles necessary to carry on our business. Don't wait for Jones or Thompson to lead the way, but come yourself. We'll give you the softest seat in our sanctum.—Ec.

We call attention to the advertisement of Staunton Female Seminary in another column. Those having daughters to educate will do well to send for and examine a catalogue of this institution. The advantages offered in literature, language, science, music and art are the very best. Accomplished teachers in every department, good accommodations, healthful climate, cultivated social surroundings, moderate terms, are just what parents want. The home like character and high order of morals in which they are of themselves a strong recommendation. Send for a catalogue to Rev. James Willis, A. M., Principal, Staunton, Va.

A Self-Binder Burned.
Mr. E. G. Castle was engaged in harvesting the grain on the farm of Mrs. H. V. Drill, near White Oak Springs, on the Harper's Ferry road, on Monday morning last, when the self-binder he was using caught fire through friction in the works, caused by not being properly oiled, and was entirely consumed. Mr. George Wm. Smith, and Mr. Odell, of the McCormick Company, who were riding by ran to the assistance of the men and their united efforts were required to prevent the flame communicating with the standing grain. Mr. Castle, who was much pleased with the working of his binder, has ordered duplicates of the parts, burned and the machine will be put in order again.—Examiner.

Father McMullan has a sister, only one known living relative, Miss Lucy McMullan, residing at No. 617 West Fayette street. The remains will be removed from St. Agnes' Hospital next Friday morning, at 10 o'clock, and conveyed to Frederick city, where interment will be made in the family lot at St. John's Catholic Cemetery. Rev. Father McMullan was 64 years of age, well known, not only in this community, but in every State from Massachusetts to Louisiana.

The Morning Star the representative of the Indian School at Carlisle, Pa., for June, 1884. Is before us, we have been greatly pleased to peruse its pages, and delighted to witness the evidences of the advancement of the Indians under its tuition. Those who expect sudden and immediate advances from the school among the aborigines under tutelage will, we anticipate, be doomed to disappointment. The progress of improvement among the tribes must be the work of time, extending over some generations; that the influence of education will be ultimately manifest, is to be inferred beyond doubt from the course of all past history, therefore the good work can admit of no pause.

Death of Mr. Jacob Musselman.
About three weeks before his death, which is noticed in another column, Mr. Jacob Musselman went to Philadelphia to be treated for Urinary disease. The operation was successfully performed, and he was supposed to be on a fair way to recovery, but pyæmia set in, causing his death. His remains were brought home to Fairfield the next day, and on Saturday, June 28th, were interred in the Union Cemetery. The funeral services were held in the Evangelical Lutheran Church, of which he was a faithful member. The Rev. E. S. Johnston, the Pastor, after reading a portion of Scripture, delivered a touching address to a large audience. The music rendered by the choir was solemn and appropriate. In the death of Mr. Musselman this community has lost a kind hearted, useful Christian gentleman and citizen. None knew him but to love and respect him. His hand and heart were ever open to the wants of the poor and destitute and to shed a parting tear over his remains. The Church has truly lost "a Father in Israel" and one of its "main pillars." He was for many years an elder in the church, and never absent from its public services unless by reason of sickness. Beautiful floral tributes were arranged by the ladies of the congregation.—C., in Star and Sentinel.

Death of Rev. A. L. McMullan.
The following from the Baltimore Day of the 9th inst., will be sad news to many of our readers who had the pleasure of an acquaintance with the learned and dignified clergyman, whose death it records:
"Rev. A. L. McMullan, of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, died at St. Agnes' Hospital last night at 10 o'clock. The dead priest was a son of Hugh McMullan, of county Tyrone, parish of Droimere, Ireland, who came to this country during childhood. His mother was Mrs. Sarah McMullan, formerly Miss Miles, of Washington county, Md. Immediately after his father's death the son, who had always expressed a desire to join the priesthood, entered Georgetown College. After a thorough course of theological studies he was ordained a priest of the Order of Jesuits by Archbishop Eccleston in the year 1844. He remained at the college for many years as professor of Greek and Latin, where his eminent learning became widespread. He was afterwards transferred to Worcester College and went to Boston, where he embarked on one of the steamers of the old Boston line for Baltimore. During the voyage he was placed under arrest upon the charge of being a Confederate spy. Upon his arrival in Baltimore his identity was made known and his release was at once authorized by the government officials. He next visited Rock Alum Springs, Virginia, where his health became greatly improved. At the earnest request of the Bishop of Richmond he was induced to labor among the prisoners of Libby Prison, and in a short while he was appointed chaplain of that famous Confederate jail. During the continuance of the war he made frequent visits to New Orleans in behalf of the prisoners of the Federal and Confederate forces. His untiring and zealous effort greatly endeared him to all with whom he came in contact, and the respect and esteem in which he was held by the rough and daring soldier element was often referred to as surprising. His entrance into camp was always hailed with pleasure, and his gentle bearing, kind words and encouraging inspired the hardy veterans to a realization of the truth that a noble, God-fearing man was among them. He continued his labors as chaplain of Libby Prison until the termination of the war. He then entered Mt. St. Mary's College, at Emmitsburg, and was at once admitted as a member of the faculty of that renowned institution, filling the chair of Greek and Latin. Last February his health became greatly impaired, and he was obliged to place himself under special treatment for cancer of the stomach, which disease he contracted during the war, and which is supposed to have been caused by his frequent visits on horseback to the various camps and barracks of the Confederate forces. He was removed to St. Agnes Hospital and received the care of the sisters in charge and the medical attentions of the best physicians of Baltimore, but without avail. The disease had made such inroads upon his constitution that but little hope was entertained of his final recovery.

Death of Mr. Jacob Musselman.
About three weeks before his death, which is noticed in another column, Mr. Jacob Musselman went to Philadelphia to be treated for Urinary disease. The operation was successfully performed, and he was supposed to be on a fair way to recovery, but pyæmia set in, causing his death. His remains were brought home to Fairfield the next day, and on Saturday, June 28th, were interred in the Union Cemetery. The funeral services were held in the Evangelical Lutheran Church, of which he was a faithful member. The Rev. E. S. Johnston, the Pastor, after reading a portion of Scripture, delivered a touching address to a large audience. The music rendered by the choir was solemn and appropriate. In the death of Mr. Musselman this community has lost a kind hearted, useful Christian gentleman and citizen. None knew him but to love and respect him. His hand and heart were ever open to the wants of the poor and destitute and to shed a parting tear over his remains. The Church has truly lost "a Father in Israel" and one of its "main pillars." He was for many years an elder in the church, and never absent from its public services unless by reason of sickness. Beautiful floral tributes were arranged by the ladies of the congregation.—C., in Star and Sentinel.

Death of Rev. A. L. McMullan.
The following from the Baltimore Day of the 9th inst., will be sad news to many of our readers who had the pleasure of an acquaintance with the learned and dignified clergyman, whose death it records:
"Rev. A. L. McMullan, of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, died at St. Agnes' Hospital last night at 10 o'clock. The dead priest was a son of Hugh McMullan, of county Tyrone, parish of Droimere, Ireland, who came to this country during childhood. His mother was Mrs. Sarah McMullan, formerly Miss Miles, of Washington county, Md. Immediately after his father's death the son, who had always expressed a desire to join the priesthood, entered Georgetown College. After a thorough course of theological studies he was ordained a priest of the Order of Jesuits by Archbishop Eccleston in the year 1844. He remained at the college for many years as professor of Greek and Latin, where his eminent learning became widespread. He was afterwards transferred to Worcester College and went to Boston, where he embarked on one of the steamers of the old Boston line for Baltimore. During the voyage he was placed under arrest upon the charge of being a Confederate spy. Upon his arrival in Baltimore his identity was made known and his release was at once authorized by the government officials. He next visited Rock Alum Springs, Virginia, where his health became greatly improved. At the earnest request of the Bishop of Richmond he was induced to labor among the prisoners of Libby Prison, and in a short while he was appointed chaplain of that famous Confederate jail. During the continuance of the war he made frequent visits to New Orleans in behalf of the prisoners of the Federal and Confederate forces. His untiring and zealous effort greatly endeared him to all with whom he came in contact, and the respect and esteem in which he was held by the rough and daring soldier element was often referred to as surprising. His entrance into camp was always hailed with pleasure, and his gentle bearing, kind words and encouraging inspired the hardy veterans to a realization of the truth that a noble, God-fearing man was among them. He continued his labors as chaplain of Libby Prison until the termination of the war. He then entered Mt. St. Mary's College, at Emmitsburg, and was at once admitted as a member of the faculty of that renowned institution, filling the chair of Greek and Latin. Last February his health became greatly impaired, and he was obliged to place himself under special treatment for cancer of the stomach, which disease he contracted during the war, and which is supposed to have been caused by his frequent visits on horseback to the various camps and barracks of the Confederate forces. He was removed to St. Agnes Hospital and received the care of the sisters in charge and the medical attentions of the best physicians of Baltimore, but without avail. The disease had made such inroads upon his constitution that but little hope was entertained of his final recovery.

Death of Rev. A. L. McMullan.
The following from the Baltimore Day of the 9th inst., will be sad news to many of our readers who had the pleasure of an acquaintance with the learned and dignified clergyman, whose death it records:
"Rev. A. L. McMullan, of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, died at St. Agnes' Hospital last night at 10 o'clock. The dead priest was a son of Hugh McMullan, of county Tyrone, parish of Droimere, Ireland, who came to this country during childhood. His mother was Mrs. Sarah McMullan, formerly Miss Miles, of Washington county, Md. Immediately after his father's death the son, who had always expressed a desire to join the priesthood, entered Georgetown College. After a thorough course of theological studies he was ordained a priest of the Order of Jesuits by Archbishop Eccleston in the year 1844. He remained at the college for many years as professor of Greek and Latin, where his eminent learning became widespread. He was afterwards transferred to Worcester College and went to Boston, where he embarked on one of the steamers of the old Boston line for Baltimore. During the voyage he was placed under arrest upon the charge of being a Confederate spy. Upon his arrival in Baltimore his identity was made known and his release was at once authorized by the government officials. He next visited Rock Alum Springs, Virginia, where his health became greatly improved. At the earnest request of the Bishop of Richmond he was induced to labor among the prisoners of Libby Prison, and in a short while he was appointed chaplain of that famous Confederate jail. During the continuance of the war he made frequent visits to New Orleans in behalf of the prisoners of the Federal and Confederate forces. His untiring and zealous effort greatly endeared him to all with whom he came in contact, and the respect and esteem in which he was held by the rough and daring soldier element was often referred to as surprising. His entrance into camp was always hailed with pleasure, and his gentle bearing, kind words and encouraging inspired the hardy veterans to a realization of the truth that a noble, God-fearing man was among them. He continued his labors as chaplain of Libby Prison until the termination of the war. He then entered Mt. St. Mary's College, at Emmitsburg, and was at once admitted as a member of the faculty of that renowned institution, filling the chair of Greek and Latin. Last February his health became greatly impaired, and he was obliged to place himself under special treatment for cancer of the stomach, which disease he contracted during the war, and which is supposed to have been caused by his frequent visits on horseback to the various camps and barracks of the Confederate forces. He was removed to St. Agnes Hospital and received the care of the sisters in charge and the medical attentions of the best physicians of Baltimore, but without avail. The disease had made such inroads upon his constitution that but little hope was entertained of his final recovery.

Death of Rev. A. L. McMullan.
The following from the Baltimore Day of the 9th inst., will be sad news to many of our readers who had the pleasure of an acquaintance with the learned and dignified clergyman, whose death it records:
"Rev. A. L. McMullan, of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, died at St. Agnes' Hospital last night at 10 o'clock. The dead priest was a son of Hugh McMullan, of county Tyrone, parish of Droimere, Ireland, who came to this country during childhood. His mother was Mrs. Sarah McMullan, formerly Miss Miles, of Washington county, Md. Immediately after his father's death the son, who had always expressed a desire to join the priesthood, entered Georgetown College. After a thorough course of theological studies he was ordained a priest of the Order of Jesuits by Archbishop Eccleston in the year 1844. He remained at the college for many years as professor of Greek and Latin, where his eminent learning became widespread. He was afterwards transferred to Worcester College and went to Boston, where he embarked on one of the steamers of the old Boston line for Baltimore. During the voyage he was placed under arrest upon the charge of being a Confederate spy. Upon his arrival in Baltimore his identity was made known and his release was at once authorized by the government officials. He next visited Rock Alum Springs, Virginia, where his health became greatly improved. At the earnest request of the Bishop of Richmond he was induced to labor among the prisoners of Libby Prison, and in a short while he was appointed chaplain of that famous Confederate jail. During the continuance of the war he made frequent visits to New Orleans in behalf of the prisoners of the Federal and Confederate forces. His untiring and zealous effort greatly endeared him to all with whom he came in contact, and the respect and esteem in which he was held by the rough and daring soldier element was often referred to as surprising. His entrance into camp was always hailed with pleasure, and his gentle bearing, kind words and encouraging inspired the hardy veterans to a realization of the truth that a noble, God-fearing man was among them. He continued his labors as chaplain of Libby Prison until the termination of the war. He then entered Mt. St. Mary's College, at Emmitsburg, and was at once admitted as a member of the faculty of that renowned institution, filling the chair of Greek and Latin. Last February his health became greatly impaired, and he was obliged to place himself under special treatment for cancer of the stomach, which disease he contracted during the war, and which is supposed to have been caused by his frequent visits on horseback to the various camps and barracks of the Confederate forces. He was removed to St. Agnes Hospital and received the care of the sisters in charge and the medical attentions of the best physicians of Baltimore, but without avail. The disease had made such inroads upon his constitution that but little hope was entertained of his final recovery.

Death of Rev. A. L. McMullan.
The following from the Baltimore Day of the 9th inst., will be sad news to many of our readers who had the pleasure of an acquaintance with the learned and dignified clergyman, whose death it records:
"Rev. A. L. McMullan, of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, died at St. Agnes' Hospital last night at 10 o'clock. The dead priest was a son of Hugh McMullan, of county Tyrone, parish of Droimere, Ireland, who came to this country during childhood. His mother was Mrs. Sarah McMullan, formerly Miss Miles, of Washington county, Md. Immediately after his father's death the son, who had always expressed a desire to join the priesthood, entered Georgetown College. After a thorough course of theological studies he was ordained a priest of the Order of Jesuits by Archbishop Eccleston in the year 1844. He remained at the college for many years as professor of Greek and Latin, where his eminent learning became widespread. He was afterwards transferred to Worcester College and went to Boston, where he embarked on one of the steamers of the old Boston line for Baltimore. During the voyage he was placed under arrest upon the charge of being a Confederate spy. Upon his arrival in Baltimore his identity was made known and his release was at once authorized by the government officials. He next visited Rock Alum Springs, Virginia, where his health became greatly improved. At the earnest request of the Bishop of Richmond he was induced to labor among the prisoners of Libby Prison, and in a short while he was appointed chaplain of that famous Confederate jail. During the continuance of the war he made frequent visits to New Orleans in behalf of the prisoners of the Federal and Confederate forces. His untiring and zealous effort greatly endeared him to all with whom he came in contact, and the respect and esteem in which he was held by the rough and daring soldier element was often referred to as surprising. His entrance into camp was always hailed with pleasure, and his gentle bearing, kind words and encouraging inspired the hardy veterans to a realization of the truth that a noble, God-fearing man was among them. He continued his labors as chaplain of Libby Prison until the termination of the war. He then entered Mt. St. Mary's College, at Emmitsburg, and was at once admitted as a member of the faculty of that renowned institution, filling the chair of Greek and Latin. Last February his health became greatly impaired, and he was obliged to place himself under special treatment for cancer of the stomach, which disease he contracted during the war, and which is supposed to have been caused by his frequent visits on horseback to the various camps and barracks of the Confederate forces. He was removed to St. Agnes Hospital and received the care of the sisters in charge and the medical attentions of the best physicians of Baltimore, but without avail. The disease had made such inroads upon his constitution that but little hope was entertained of his final recovery.

Death of Rev. A. L. McMullan.
The following from the Baltimore Day of the 9th inst., will be sad news to many of our readers who had the pleasure of an acquaintance with the learned and dignified clergyman, whose death it records:
"Rev. A. L. McMullan, of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, died at St. Agnes' Hospital last night at 10 o'clock. The dead priest was a son of Hugh McMullan, of county Tyrone, parish of Droimere, Ireland, who came to this country during childhood. His mother was Mrs. Sarah McMullan, formerly Miss Miles, of Washington county, Md. Immediately after his father's death the son, who had always expressed a desire to join the priesthood, entered Georgetown College. After a thorough course of theological studies he was ordained a priest of the Order of Jesuits by Archbishop Eccleston in the year 1844. He remained at the college for many years as professor of Greek and Latin, where his eminent learning became widespread. He was afterwards transferred to Worcester College and went to Boston, where he embarked on one of the steamers of the old Boston line for Baltimore. During the voyage he was placed under arrest upon the charge of being a Confederate spy. Upon his arrival in Baltimore his identity was made known and his release was at once authorized by the government officials. He next visited Rock Alum Springs, Virginia, where his health became greatly improved. At the earnest request of the Bishop of Richmond he was induced to labor among the prisoners of Libby Prison, and in a short while he was appointed chaplain of that famous Confederate jail. During the continuance of the war he made frequent visits to New Orleans in behalf of the prisoners of the Federal and Confederate forces. His untiring and zealous effort greatly endeared him to all with whom he came in contact, and the respect and esteem in which he was held by the rough and daring soldier element was often referred to as surprising. His entrance into camp was always hailed with pleasure, and his gentle bearing, kind words and encouraging inspired the hardy veterans to a realization of the truth that a noble, God-fearing man was among them. He continued his labors as chaplain of Libby Prison until the termination of the war. He then entered Mt. St. Mary's College, at Emmitsburg, and was at once admitted as a member of the faculty of that renowned institution, filling the chair of Greek and Latin. Last February his health became greatly impaired, and he was obliged to place himself under special treatment for cancer of the stomach, which disease he contracted during the war, and which is supposed to have been caused by his frequent visits on horseback to the various camps and barracks of the Confederate forces. He was removed to St. Agnes Hospital and received the care of the sisters in charge and the medical attentions of the best physicians of Baltimore, but without avail. The disease had made such inroads upon his constitution that but little hope was entertained of his final recovery.

Death of Rev. A. L. McMullan.
The following from the Baltimore Day of the 9th inst., will be sad news to many of our readers who had the pleasure of an acquaintance with the learned and dignified clergyman, whose death it records:
"Rev. A. L. McMullan, of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, died at St. Agnes' Hospital last night at 10 o'clock. The dead priest was a son of Hugh McMullan, of county Tyrone, parish of Droimere, Ireland, who came to this country during childhood. His mother was Mrs. Sarah McMullan, formerly Miss Miles, of Washington county, Md. Immediately after his father's death the son, who had always expressed a desire to join the priesthood, entered Georgetown College. After a thorough course of theological studies he was ordained a priest of the Order of Jesuits by Archbishop Eccleston in the year 1844. He remained at the college for many years as professor of Greek and Latin, where his eminent learning became widespread. He was afterwards transferred to Worcester College and went to Boston, where he embarked on one of the steamers of the old Boston line for Baltimore. During the voyage he was placed under arrest upon the charge of being a Confederate spy. Upon his arrival in Baltimore his identity was made known and his release was at once authorized by the government officials. He next visited Rock Alum Springs, Virginia, where his health became greatly improved. At the earnest request of the Bishop of Richmond he was induced to labor among the prisoners of Libby Prison, and in a short while he was appointed chaplain of that famous Confederate jail. During the continuance of the war he made frequent visits to New Orleans in behalf of the prisoners of the Federal and Confederate forces. His untiring and zealous effort greatly endeared him to all with whom he came in contact, and the respect and esteem in which he was held by the rough and daring soldier element was often referred to as surprising. His entrance into camp was always hailed with pleasure, and his gentle bearing, kind words and encouraging inspired the hardy veterans to a realization of the truth that a noble, God-fearing man was among them. He continued his labors as chaplain of Libby Prison until the termination of the war. He then entered Mt. St. Mary's College, at Emmitsburg, and was at once admitted as a member of the faculty of that renowned institution, filling the chair of Greek and Latin. Last February his health became greatly impaired, and he was obliged to place himself under special treatment for cancer of the stomach, which disease he contracted during the war, and which is supposed to have been caused by his frequent visits on horseback to the various camps and barracks of the Confederate forces. He was removed to St. Agnes Hospital and received the care of the sisters in charge and the medical attentions of the best physicians of Baltimore, but without avail. The disease had made such inroads upon his constitution that but little hope was entertained of his final recovery.

Death of Rev. A. L. McMullan.
The following from the Baltimore Day of the 9th inst., will be sad news to many of our readers who had the pleasure of an acquaintance with the learned and dignified clergyman, whose death it records:
"Rev. A. L. McMullan, of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, died at St. Agnes' Hospital last night at 10 o'clock. The dead priest was a son of Hugh McMullan, of county Tyrone, parish of Droimere, Ireland, who came to this country during childhood. His mother was Mrs. Sarah McMullan, formerly Miss Miles, of Washington county, Md. Immediately after his father's death the son, who had always expressed a desire to join the priesthood, entered Georgetown College. After a thorough course of theological studies he was ordained a priest of the Order of Jesuits by Archbishop Eccleston in the year 1844. He remained at the college for many years as professor of Greek and Latin, where his eminent learning became widespread. He was afterwards transferred to Worcester College and went to Boston, where he embarked on one of the steamers of the old Boston line for Baltimore. During the voyage he was placed under arrest upon the charge of being a Confederate spy. Upon his arrival in Baltimore his identity was made known and his release was at once authorized by the government officials. He next visited Rock Alum Springs, Virginia, where his health became greatly improved. At the earnest request of the Bishop of Richmond he was induced to labor among the prisoners of Libby Prison, and in a short while he was appointed chaplain of that famous Confederate jail. During the continuance of the war he made frequent visits to New Orleans in behalf of the prisoners of the Federal and Confederate forces. His untiring and zealous effort greatly endeared him to all with whom he came in contact, and the respect and esteem in which he was held by the rough and daring soldier element was often referred to as surprising. His entrance into camp was always hailed with pleasure, and his gentle bearing, kind words and encouraging inspired the hardy veterans to a realization of the truth that a noble, God-fearing man was among them. He continued his labors as chaplain of Libby Prison until the termination of the war. He then entered Mt. St. Mary's College, at Emmitsburg, and was at once admitted as a member of the faculty of that renowned institution, filling the chair of Greek and Latin. Last February his health became greatly impaired, and he was obliged to place himself under special treatment for cancer of the stomach, which disease he contracted during the war, and which is supposed to have been caused by his frequent visits on horseback to the various camps and barracks of the Confederate forces. He was removed to St. Agnes Hospital and received the care of the sisters in charge and the medical attentions of the best physicians of Baltimore, but without avail. The disease had made such inroads upon his constitution that but little hope was entertained of his final recovery.

Death of Rev. A. L. McMullan.
The following from the Baltimore Day of the 9th inst., will be sad news to many of our readers who had the pleasure of an acquaintance with the learned and dignified clergyman, whose death it records:
"Rev. A. L. McMullan, of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, died at St. Agnes' Hospital last night at 10 o'clock. The dead priest was a son of Hugh McMullan, of county Tyrone, parish of Droimere, Ireland, who came to this country during childhood. His mother was Mrs. Sarah McMullan, formerly Miss Miles, of Washington county, Md. Immediately after his father's death the son, who had always expressed a desire to join the priesthood, entered Georgetown College. After a thorough course of theological studies he was ordained a priest of the Order of Jesuits by Archbishop Eccleston in the year 1844. He remained at the college for many years as professor of Greek and Latin, where his eminent learning became widespread. He was afterwards transferred to Worcester College and went to Boston, where he embarked on one of the steamers of the old Boston line for Baltimore. During the voyage he was placed under arrest upon the charge of being a Confederate spy. Upon his arrival in Baltimore his identity was made known and his release was at once authorized by the government officials. He next visited Rock Alum Springs, Virginia, where his health became greatly improved. At the earnest request of the Bishop of Richmond he was induced to labor among the prisoners of Libby Prison, and in a short while he was appointed chaplain of that famous Confederate jail. During the continuance of the war he made frequent visits to New Orleans in behalf of the prisoners of the Federal and Confederate forces. His untiring and zealous effort greatly endeared him to all with whom he came in contact, and the respect and esteem in which he was held by the rough and daring soldier element was often referred to as surprising. His entrance into camp was always hailed with pleasure, and his gentle bearing, kind words and encouraging inspired the hardy veterans to a realization of the truth that a noble, God-fearing man was among them. He continued his labors as chaplain of Libby Prison until the termination of the war. He then entered Mt. St. Mary's College, at Emmitsburg, and was at once admitted as a member of the faculty of that renowned institution, filling the chair of Greek and Latin. Last February his health became greatly impaired, and he was obliged to place himself under special treatment for cancer of the stomach, which disease he contracted during the war, and which is supposed to have been caused by his frequent visits on horseback to the various camps and barracks of the Confederate forces. He was removed to St. Agnes Hospital and received the care of the sisters in charge and the medical attentions of the best physicians of Baltimore, but without avail. The disease had made such inroads upon his constitution that but little hope was entertained of his final recovery.

Death of Rev. A. L. McMullan.
The following from the Baltimore Day of the 9th inst., will be sad news to many of our readers who had the pleasure of an acquaintance with the learned and dignified clergyman, whose death it records:
"Rev. A. L. McMullan, of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, died at St. Agnes' Hospital last night at 10 o'clock. The dead priest was a son of Hugh McMullan, of county Tyrone, parish of Droimere, Ireland, who came to this country during childhood. His mother was Mrs. Sarah McMullan, formerly Miss Miles, of Washington county, Md. Immediately after his father's death the son, who had always expressed a desire to join the priesthood, entered Georgetown College. After a thorough course of theological studies he was ordained a priest of the Order of Jesuits by Archbishop Eccleston in the

