THE MYSTERY OF THE TRUNK.

A trunk was received on Wednesday of last week at the Adams Express office in Baltimore, which on examination contained the trunk of a man's body, that was headless and with the lower extremities cut off. Suspicion of foul play being aroused, the detectives were at once put to work and resulted in the locking up of Edward Unger of Brooklyn, a former sea captain, on the charge of murdering his partner, August Bohle, Unger's partner in the sausage business, who lived with Unger. The motive is supposed to have been money, over which they had a difficulty. A butcher's saw, a hammer, a knife and a slung shot were found on the premises where the murder evidently was committed. The express label, the bloody condition of the room, cards and other evidence, especially that of Unger's son, 17 years old, afforded clues on which the case was worked up in 2 or 3 days, and the alleged murderer committed to prison. Great credit is accorded to the detectives for the promptness and skill displayed by them in the case.

Unger was arrested in New York on Thursday of last week. The trunk with the mutilated body arrived from Baltimore on Saturday. Unger was continually confronted with the trunk, the weapons where-with the deed was committed, and the presence of acquaintances who had known him, and finally overwhelmed with agony he exclaimed: "I want to tell the whole truth about the business." He then proceeded, alleging that after a long conversation with Bohle, terminating in a quarrel, Bohle struck him on the neck with his fist and knocked him down. Unger sprang up and attempted to strike him with a poker; Bohle grabbed it and at the same time seized a knife from the table and ran after him; Unger picked up a hammer and with it struck him, and it sank into the skull as far as the handle, he staggered and fell back on the sofa dead. He then described the process of severing the head, the legs and arm and the packing of the body in the trunk. Wrapping the head in some of the victims clothing and some newspapers, and placing it under his arm he went to the Grand street ferry and when the ferry-boat was about midway in the river he dropped it and the clothing into the water.

BRIGHAM YOUNG'S RETURN.

A story that Brigham Young has been seen alive near Lincoln, Neb., at the residence of an English gentleman, long identified with the Mormon Church, has been circulating over the land of late. On it the New York Herald of Tuesday last remarks:

Brigham Young back on the earth again! That is the latest and most startling news. If he is really here it must be a genuine resurrection. The theory that when he was supposed to have died ten years ago he simply went into hiding for a purpose and another was buried in his stead is wholly invalid. He was then about seventy-seven years old, and at that advanced age no man retires for a ten year's rest expecting to return at eighty-seven and engage in an arduous undertaking.

No, Brigham has come back either because there is neither marriage nor giving in marriage in the other world, and he is therefore not pleased with the social arrangements down there, or because he has put on the big spectacles which Joseph Smith called Urim and Thummim, and discovered a first class rumpus in Utah which needs his immediate attention.

It must be the original Brigham because the strawberry mark of identification is in evidence. A gentleman swears that when Brigham raised his arm he distinctly saw on his wrist the scar which he acquired soon after he left the green fields of Vermont in his boyhood.

Without doubt it's Brigham, but it is certainly suggestive that he has returned during a cool spell. And if the Edmunds bill, with the Tucker addendum, proves effective he has just arrived in time to pronounce an eloquent eulogy over the remains of a great national disgrace.

TO RESIGN.

It is currently believed that Mr. Manning, Secretary of the Treasury will resign his office in the Spring to accept the presidency of a new bank to be formed in New York, with a salary of $20,000.

Mr. E. W. MEALEY, of Hagers-town, Md., has been appointed United States consul at Munich.

CLEANLINESS IN TOWNS AND VILLAGES.

The Sun's oft-reiterated suggestions as to the need of more rigid sanitary regulations in the towns and villages of Maryland, and of efficient co-operation on the part of the community generally with the local authorities in enforcing such rules as are already in existence, find a striking exemplification in the statements by Dr. Chas. M. Ellis as to the sanitary condition of Elkton, which we print elsewhere. Dr. Ellis cites as causes of unhealthfulness in Elkton the overcrowding of habitations, the presence of pigs, the slaughtering of cattle "with the most reckless disregard of all decency," and the saturation of the soil with household filth, contaminating the water supply. These fruitful sources of disease are not peculiar to Elkton alone, but are common to most of the towns in the State, and call loudly for abatement. Dr. Ellis thinks a general code of sanitary laws for the State should be enacted. In the meantime, however, until some such remedy is provided, the residents of the different towns could themselves bring about a very great improvement by concerting a few simple measures of purification and combining among themselves to put them into execution. —Ballo. MAYOR HODGES' MESSAGE.

The Message of Mayor Hodges of Baltimore, to the City Council which covers ten and a half columns of the Baltimore Sun, was delivered on Monday. It represents the City in a very prosperous condition, with fine prospects for lower taxes and is full of useful and economic suggestions.

The amount of the funded and guaranteed debt on December 31, 1886, was $34,095,279, against $36,733,247 at the close of 1885, the decrease during the year being $1,777,957. The year 1886 closed with a surplus in the city treasury of $57,278, an increase of some $20,000 over the surplus left over at the close of 1885. The condition of the public health during the past year has been good, the death rate not exceeding 20 per 1,000. In conclusion, the mayor expresses the hope that the reduction of taxes will be made "the pivotal point" of the council's policy in making up the levy for the current year.

THERE has been quite a revival of late of the subject of General Grants intemperate habits, that was current during the war period. What ever may be the motive in renewing the charges at this time, there can be but one effect, that is—to add to the heroic fame of the great man, who not only was great in command, but still greater in the self-conquest of the most inveterate habit to which human nature is subject, and that in the midst of surroundings almost inviting to relapse, the developments in the case, have added to the lustre of his character which has been proven to have been of the highest order of morality.

LOCAL ITEMS.

BLACK PILLS dispel melancholy.

VICTOR Liver Syrup is a terror to dyspepsia.

WHEN you have anything to do, do it. Delays are dangerous.

BLACK PILLS prevent sea-sickness and cure headache, the result of costiveness or acid stomach.

THE public unanimously declare Victor Liver Syrup the great family medicine, will cure all blood diseases.

GUS. LITTLE killed 183 rabbits during the past season. He got as high as ten in one day and seven out of one rock.

WANTED—5,000 logs at Iron Dale Saw Mill, to saw on shares, Wm. L. McGinnis, one mile west of Emmitsburg.

Nothing like "Dr. Sellers' Liver Pills" for headache, biliousness, dizziness, constipation, fever and ague, and all malaria.

Mrs. ELIZABETH FILBY, relict of the late Samuel Filby, died at Gettysburg; January 5th, 1887, aged 98 years and 9 months.

ABBY TROXELL or "Hambone," a colored woman said to be over one hundred years old, died in Frederick on Sunday night.

THE want of a sufficient number of houses, will again prevent additions to our population and advancement, that otherwise would be.

You might just as well think an oyster could climb up a hickory tree as to think you can cure your cough without using Victor Cough Syrup.

FLORIDA strawberries are in the Philadelphia market, and it is said sell for $4 a quart.

We can forego that delight till May.

GEORGE GOSWELL has at all times on hand for sale fresh butter, eggs, chickens and turkeys. Buyers will do well to call on him before purchasing elsewhere.

THE County Commissioners should take a tour of the Districts now in spring wagons and inspect the roads. Hearty receptions, high living and jolly jollings await them. Come on fathers?

No doubt you were bungled, but why did you not try Victor Cough Syrup? Now your cough would be cured.

THE Weekly Partisan of Olympia, W. T., dated January 8, says: "The weather has been as pleasant as May for a week past, flowers are in bloom in the door yards, roses, pansies, violets, &c."

Be Sure.

It is best to test all sorts of seeds before sowing of the collection, a pinch of seeds, a little box or a flower pot, all a matter of little trouble, yet momentous in results!

ELIAS ROHRER formerly of Hagerstown, died suddenly of heart disease, at Charlestown, W. Va., on Tuesday, aged 60 years. He was a member of the legislature from Washington county in 1867.

JOHN D. LISLE, the discount clerk in the First National Bank on South Gay street, Baltimore, is a defaulter to a large amount, and he has disappeared. Reliable statements place the amount in default at $80,000.

Another attempt was made on Wednesday to wreck the morning train on the Emmitsburg Railroad, by laying a piece of railroad iron across the track. The engineer fortunately saw it while far enough off to stop the train.

The Eclipse.

A partial Eclipse of the Moon will be visible here at 5 o'clock 3 minutes, a. m. on Tuesday next. As the moon will be full shortly after, the view will, no doubt, be very interesting. "The early bird will catch, &c."

As the ground hog, had the first favorable 21 of February in several years, on last Wednesday, critics should not be too severe in their charges of over-doing the thing. He has had the high example of the weather bureau to influence his acts. Style governs all things.

WHILE in Dakota and other Western points the temperature has ranged all the way down to 46° below zero, here we have had an average of 30° to over 40°, with a light snow, much cloudiness and the keenest dampness, the kind that makes protracted shivers and is far worse than zero.

"DISEASES, desperate grown, by desperate appliances are relieved, or not at all." The point of wisdom is to check them before they reach so far by buying a bottle of Salvation Oil. Price 25 cents.

"Conspiracies no sooner should be formed than executed," and a cold should no sooner be taken, than a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup should be bought and used according to the directions.

Another Wonderful Invention.

The Frederick News says Dr. Wm. H. Gray, has just invented a valuable and wonderful attachment to be used on clocks, by which a 24 hour clock once wound, can be made to run until the works wear away by friction. The invention is a simple little glass governor which is attached to the verge wheel of the clock and which regulates the revolutions of the balance wheels, &c. The governors can be made to suit about five cents each and can be attached to any clock.

List of Letters.

The following letters remain in the Post Office, Emmitsburg, Md., Jan. 31, 1887. Persons calling will please say advertised, otherwise they may not receive them:

John W. Bishop, Miss Ann Durben, Joseph Green, John D. Hoover, Mrs. E. M. Krise, John Miller, Miss Ann Offutt, Benj. F. Perkins, J. T. Shorb, Sanford Stem.

An Engine Exploded.

A six-horsepower traction engine, in use at the farm of W. D. Long, near Unionville, this county, blew up whilst the men were at work threshing wheat on Monday. The engineer, John Izer, was instantly killed. Wm. D. Long and Milton Stitely were seriously scalded. The engine was completely destroyed, the barn took fire and was destroyed with its contents, 300 bushels of wheat, 400 bushels of oats, the farming implements and a large thrasher. Loss about $2000, partially insured. It is the same place where Mr. Charles Whitehill was killed by lightning last summer.

A White Ground Hog Day.

When the ground hog (Arctomys monax) came to the outlet of his hole on Wednesday morning, the snow-fall of the night before caused him to shade his eyes some moments with his paws, and then taking in the situation in its full bearings, the sun being hidden from view, he sallied forth; called around generally among his kinsfolk and neighbors near and afar, and joyous in the wondrously favorable conditions of the day, there was great gambolling and dancing and a high time all around, throughout the domains of the species. This for the human kind means genial weather for the next six weeks; bright encouragement to Congress to reduce the national taxes, and a propitious entrance upon the happy spring tide.

What True Merit Will Do.

The unprecedented sale of Boche's German Syrup within a few years, has astonished the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by Physicians, as it does not dry up a Cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the diseases make their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price, 75 cts., large bottles.

Ask your druggist for Black Pills.

Public Meeting. The citizens of Emmitsburg and its community are requested to meet at the Western Maryland Hotel, in said place, on Monday evening (7th inst.), at 7:30 o'clock, when important business regarding the Telegraph will be considered. Let there be a full turnout. Pro Bono Publico.

READ the meat sack adv. of W. T. Delaplains & Co., of Frederick. Those meat sacks are so well known as to need no commendation from us. When a blue-bottle fly takes a sniff of the sack he makes straight for the swimming hole—in this locality—and with a ker-splash takes final leave of all things in the flesh; and yet the sacks are just the thing to preserve the meat, sweet and savory as long as may be desired.

Our thanks are due to Rev. Dr. Higbee, Superintendent of Instruction, for a copy of The Report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the year ending June 7, 1886. The report is presented in a neatly printed and compactly bound octavo volume of 452 pages, and is made up of elaborate statistics perspicuously arranged, and abounds in valuable information throughout. The work is a monument of the care the State exercises in informing its citizens on all matters of general interest.

A Chance for Health.

Is afforded those fast sinking into a condition of hopeless debility. The means are at hand. In the form of a gentle medicinal cordial, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters embodies the combined qualities of a blood purifier and depurative, a tonic and an alterative. While it promotes digestion and assimilation, and stimulates appetite, it has the further effect of purifying the blood, and strengthening the nervous system. As the blood grows richer and purer by its use, they who resort to this sterling medicinal agent, acquire not only vigor, but bodily substance. A healthful change in the secretions is effected by it, and that sure and rapid physical decay, which a chronic obstruction of the functions of the system produces, is arrested. The prime causes of disease being removed, health is speedily restored and vigor renewed.

The County Printing.

Our esteemed neighbor the Clarion, in its timely suggestions made last week to the County Commissioners regarding the publication of the County Statement, seems to us to overlook the directions of the law or laws under which that body acts. In that view the real controversy should be to effect such changes in the Statute, as will relieve it of its monopolizing tendencies. There was evidently sufficient influence at work when the law was adopted, to make it specially beneficial to the press in the large towns. Due consideration of course must be given to positions and influence in matters of public business, but that cannot constitute a just reason, why there should be exclusion to those whose positions are manifestly beneficial in advancing that business. On this ground and not from selfish considerations, we have and will continue to insist, that the rural press is entitled to recognition from the authorities in making known their acts and promoting their efficiency.

When Ex-Governor Hamilton took the position that the Editor's business was like any other, a matter of enterprise, and therefore to be left to its own resources with no recognition from the State, &c., his course while injurious to the District Editors, was all the while adding to the benefit of the metropolitan publishers, and the Hagerstown Mail whilst industriously engaged in showing up the extravagance indulged in the years preceding in favor of the printers, was all the while reaping golden harvests from the repressive measures then instituted, and subsequently enforced; and so also what were regarded the leading presses in every county town. Country editors as a rule have sufficient engagement in the regular routine of their daily work and are not by position, influence and other gifts, as a rule qualified to watch the course of legislation and give attention to the wily movements that may arise in its progress, but trusting to the honesty of their own intentions, accord like purposes to others and believe that justice will be done. In this business they have paid for their credulity.

But when all is said the County Commissioners are not tied down to arbitrary restrictions in the face of right and justice, but have certain rights in their discretion to promote the interests of their constituents to the best advantage. We have thought that estimating the average costs of their printing, one year with another, they could arrange an average basis upon which they could serve the people through their home-publications, so that justice would be done on all sides. The same law governs in Washington county as in ours, and we have noted that in the former county, all the papers make the county publications, and unless those commissioners have overdone their work, the same course might rightly be pursued here. It is often salutary to learn of our neighbors, our sole aim is to promote to the largest extent the public interests, which in an important sense are the objective point of our endeavors.

On receipt of 30 cents, in two cent stamps, we will send to any address the prescription for this wonderful compound, which can be filled by your home druggist at small cost. Changes in the Jury List.

Among the changes in the list of jurymen for the February term of the Circuit Court for Frederick county are the names of Willis E. Fisher in place of Francis W. Lansing and Samuel Sebold in place of Daniel A. Hartman, for Emmitsburg District.

A Fire at Hagerstown.

About 4 o'clock, A. M., on Monday, the tobacco store of Mr. Frank Hoover, on the square, took fire and its contents were destroyed—damage covered by insurance. The firemen succeeded in confining the flames to the room in which it occurred.

Paralyzed.

Mr. Alfred Ball, a well known farmer of Washington county, residing on the Washington County Branch of the B. & O. railroad, and formerly of this neighborhood, was stricken with paralysis over the entire left side of his body, on the 27th ult. He is 72 years old, and his case excites wide spread sympathy.

Road Supervisors.

Among the appointments of the County Commissioners recently made are the Supervisors for Emmitsburg District, No. 5.—Adolphus Harner, Isaac Bowers, Edward Morrison, Wm. T. Miller, J. S. Sheely, Jos. Hobbs, James Welty, M. V. B. Eyer, John K. Taylor, John P. Adams, Geo. S. Valentine, John T. Cretin, Nicholas Seabold.

Cut by a Circular Saw.

Mr. Philip Schell, an elderly and well-known citizen of Frederick, while in the wood-sawing establishment of Messrs. Diffendall & Son, on East street, on Friday of last week, accidentally struck his head against a circular saw in motion and received a terrible wound across his head, the teeth entering nearly to the brain. He was taken to his house on East Patrick street, and is supposed to be in a dangerous condition.—Sun.

We cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup; it is the best remedy for the cure of all diseases babyhood has to encounter. 25 cents.

Do not be selfish. Tell your friends to give their cows Day's Horse Powder. It is good.

It needs no praise, Drexel's Bell Cologne.

Deaf and Dumb Asylum Meeting.

The semi-annual meeting of the board of visitors to the Maryland School for the Deaf and Dumb was held at the institution in Frederick on Thursday last week. Only routine business was transacted. Among those present were: Enoch Pratt, Wm. R. Barry, C. M. Goodwin and Wm. H. Falconer, of Baltimore; Rev. Alex. McCabe, of Laurel; W. G. Baker, of Washington, and Capt. H. Clay Naill, Dr. Fairfax Schley and John H. Williams, of Frederick.—Sun.

THE appearance of the ground hog will be looked for eagerly tomorrow. Meantime the weather will continue in its old accustomed way, ground hog or no ground hog.—Frederick News of Tuesday. That man evidently attended the Tom Paine anniversary last week. At all events the sentiment is loose and wanting in every element of faith in the best settled and most reliable prognostication of the weather known among men; and that too at the very time when all persons most need comfort and assurance, after the stormy experiences of the winter. The conclusion is utterly false. The weather will be as the action of the ground hog fixes it. The next thing we may expect the man to controvert the reliability of the peach twig in indicating the place to dig a well.

BLACK PILLS relieve palpitation.

Farmers Victimized.

The attempted robbery of the desk of Mr. Jonas Harner, near Taneytown, by a man to whom he had given accommodation for the night, and who came to him presumably to purchase a farm, has brought to light several similar experiences. The man goes into a section of the country and looks at the different farms, stating that he has been appointed guardian for two boys, and wishes to invest their money in a good farm and make farmers of them. The man is of good appearance, about fifty or sixty years old, plainly but comfortably clothed, and wears a soft felt hat. He has visited a number of farms, arriving generally in the afternoon, and accepting the hospitality of the farmers for the night. In some instances he has stayed two nights, but generally leaves next morning immediately after breakfast, and the occupants of the house in several instances have missed small articles and money after his departure. The man is supposed by many persons to be a crank.—Sun.

The February number of The Century Magazine.

has a portrait of Dr. McCosh, President of Princeton College. The first reading article, "A Midwinter Resort," by William C. Church, is so interesting that one feels irresistibly, a desire to appropriate the entire contents of this "Midwinter Number;" this is followed by "Part of an Old Story," by James Lane Allen; "The History of Abraham Lincoln" is continued, illustrated with many portraits of prominent persons; George W. Cable's story, "Caracero," is concluded; Norman Moore gives an interesting history of "The Oldest Church in London;" Frank Stockton's "Hundredth Man" is continued; there is an able paper on "The Stars," by S. P. Langley, and also one on "Recent Discoveries of Works of Art in Rome," by Rodolfo Lanciani; "Sphyrus Ann," by Mat Crips, and many more extremely interesting articles, including of course the usual amount of information regarding the operations of the Late Civil War, Topics of the Time, Open Letters, and a varied collection of Bracia.

The Death of Editor Buehler.

David A. Buehler, Esq., Editor of the Star and Sentinel, Gettysburg, whose death we briefly recorded in these columns just as we were going to press last week, was a man universally esteemed for his unswerving fidelity in all the various positions of honor and trust, in which he acted throughout the course of his well spent life.

As an editor he was noted for dignity of bearing, devotion to his convictions, and those amenities towards his professional contemporaries, that manifested sound mental training, love of principle and personal cultivation.

We did not have the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with the deceased, but shall always retain a grateful sense of his courtesy and honorable consideration for our work.

His funeral took place on Saturday last, and the tributes of respect to his memory from the Clergymen of Pennsylvania College, the Theological Seminary, the Gettysburg Bar, and other associations with which he was identified in various relations, all bore evidence to his high character as a scholar, an effective worker, a christian gentleman, a safe counsellor, a faithful friend, and an honest man.

Born January 2nd, 1821, he died January 27th, 1887.

I BELIEVE "Dr. Sellers' Vermifuge" is the best worm medicine for children in the world, and parents ought not to use any other. 25c a vial.

SEED oats must be carefully selected the coming season. A farmer friend informs us that he recently planted in a creek, as a test, a number of grains of oats that had mow-burned; not one sprouted; but a lot of bright appearance treated in the same way came up all right. The oats straw was very sappy last season and no doubt much of it heated, spoiling the grain for seed, at least rendering it unreliable.—Comptier.

No Injury to the Peach Crop.

Peach-growers on the line of the Chesapeake and Delaware, Cambridge and Seaford and Queen Anne's and Kent Railroads state that thus far there is no fear that the peach buds have been injured anywhere in Kent, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Caroline or Dorchester county, and unless there is a spell of bitter weather, or a day of freezing sleet during the remainder of the winter, the peach owners will come out in the spring with no harm done.—Sun.

Killed on the Railroad.

Jacob Zook and Jacob Rook, two well-known farmers of Franklin county, were instantly killed Tuesday morning at Grant street crossing, Chambersburg, by a train on the Mont Alto Railroad. They were returning from the stock yards, and attempted to cross the track in front of an approaching train. As they were crossing the train struck them, throwing them a distance of about sixty feet. When picked up it was found that they both had their skulls badly crushed and were otherwise injured. Mr. Zook was a well-known Dunkard preacher, was quite wealthy and an influential man in that denomination. He was aged about sixty-seven and Mr. Rook about seventy-four. A coroner's jury exonerated the railroad company from blame.

A Double Wedding.

Mr. ST. MARY'S, Jan. 31.—A double wedding took place in St. Mary's Church—an event that has not occurred for forty years—between 7 and 8 o'clock this morning, Rev. Edward P. Allen officiating. The contracting parties were Mr. William S. Walter and Miss Mary Hopp, and Mr. Henry Scott and Miss Sadie Hopp. After the ceremony they returned to the home of the brides' father, where they enjoyed a pleasant breakfast. On Tuesday a sumptuous dinner was served at the residence of Mr. S. Walter, father of groom No. 1. All enjoyed themselves immensely, and were sorry when the time came for them to depart. Next week they start on a wedding tour to Chicago, where they will visit the brides' brother, and the good wishes of their numerous friends will accompany them.

Sudden Deaths.

About six o'clock Tuesday evening, William Chambers, an aged and well-known citizen, died very suddenly of heart disease, while sitting at the supper table with his family, at his residence on West Patrick street. Mr. Chambers had been in failing health for some time past, but his friends did not anticipate such an unexpected end. He was about 70 years of age, and leaves a wife and five children.

Mrs. Mary Meister, died very suddenly Tuesday night at her home on East Patrick street. She was over 70 years of age.

Mrs. Margaret Getzenander, living on West Patrick street, also died rather unexpectedly Tuesday night. She was about 60 years of age, and has been complaining of bad health for some time.—Union.

Look Out for Your Wells.

It becomes more and more evident each year that much of the sickness prevalent in the country is directly attributable to the quality of the water. By carefully studying the matter it is found that in nine cases out of ten typhoid fever originates in families whose water supply is from a well, into which impure water comes. This may be from the farm-yard, and quite generally such is the case. For some years the water in a well near the house may be pure and wholesome, but by-and-by the soil between it and the barn-yard will become so impregnated with pollution that an unhealthy quality will be imparted to it, and disease will result from its use. This is almost sure to be the case when the distance between the two is not great, because, as a general thing, the bottom of the well is lower than the yard, and the drainage from the latter will extend in all directions through the most porous strata of soil, and when it reaches the well it will naturally flow into it as a reservoir. No matter how pure the water may have been when the well was first dug, sooner or later it will be contaminated by water flowing through the soil from barn-yards and cess-pools located anywhere near it. We have in mind a case in which four children died from diphtheria. An examination by the physician proved that the slops from the kitchen had so filled the soil for a distance of twenty feet between the back door, out of which they were thrown, and the well, that the latter was polluted by foul gases, and from the use of it diphtheria had certainly resulted. When making a well have it, if possible, above the barn-yard, and let the drainage be from it rather than into it. Arrange a place for slops with a cement bottom and sides, from which glazed pipes, cemented together, allow the unhealthy matter to flow off and away from the well.—American Agriculturist.

The Spread of Measles.

Dr. James B. Taylor, Chief of the Bureau of Contagious Diseases of New York, says that the alarming spread of the measles is due to a widespread belief among parents that measles are harmless, and that it is better for their children to have the measles when they are young. Holding this theory, the Doctor says parents do not make any efforts when one of their children is attacked with the disease to isolate the child, but permit the others to go near and probably sleep with it. In this way the other children not only contract the disease themselves, but carry it to school or among their mates and thus give it to others. The great danger to be feared from measles in cold weather, the Doctor says, is that it may lead to bronchitis or pneumonia and thus prove fatal.

A Girl's Wonderful Escape.

At Lagro near Wabash, Ind., a girl, sixteen years old, named Browne, made a most miraculous escape from death. She attempted to cross the track in the rear of a local freight train, which was backing at the time. The trainmen did not see the girl, and she was caught and thrown on the track by a flat car. The train continued backing, and fourteen cars passed over her body. The engineer saw the body, and stopped the engine, when he found the girl lodged in the ash pan of the locomotive. She was pulled out, and instead of being horribly mutilated, was found to be unhurt, but prostrated by fright.

The resettlement of the Holy Land continues to agitate the Jews all over the world. Even despite Turkish rule, the country is improving. The recent opening of a bridge across the Jordan was attended by Moslems, Christians, and Jews. Even the Bedouins are pleased with the bridge, as it affords a safe crossing for their camels at all seasons, and prevents the loss of life and property which took place at the ford every year.

1837. THE SUN. 1887.

A. S. ABELL & CO., PUBLISHERS, BALTIMORE. THE PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE. On the 17th of May, 1887, THE BALTIMORE SUN will celebrate its Fiftieth Anniversary. From the earliest period of its career THE SUN has been a "household word" in the homes of its subscribers, and a synonym for accuracy of statement, fair dealing, promptness, energy and enterprise in the collection of news. It is noted throughout the country for the independence, conservatism and soundness of its editorial utterances. There is probably no newspaper in the United States whose opinion carries more weight or whose influence is more widely extended than THE SUN's, a fact upon which it may justly pride itself as the legitimate result of painstaking care in the preparation of all matter admitted to its columns. THE SUN's facilities for collecting news from all quarters of the globe are being constantly extended, improved, and new features are added without regard to expense as the occasion demands. THE BALTIMORE WEEKLY SUN has long occupied an enviable position as a model family newspaper, containing not only the news of the world and a variety of literary matter and miscellanea, but also the family circle, but special features of recognized value, including an agricultural department, which supplies every week a mass of well-digested information for the farmer.
