THEIR FORTUNE.

He is but a fisherman.

She is an oyster seller.

I will, I'll be if I can.

His true fortune-teller.

He has lost his heart to her.

Love has thrilled his being.

And for him her pulses stir.

That is easy seeing.

He is jealous as the South.

Bound with Love's stern fetters.

She will, watch her rosy mouth—

She is little better.

So they'll quarrel many a time.

Quarrel till the morning;

Then, like their own sunny clime,

Joy will follow sorrow.

Doubting, always loving still.

They will pass together.

To the shore where comes no ill.

Strife or angry weather.

Simple tale you say this is.

Lacking plot or glory;

True, but actual tales like this

Make the wide world's story.

BEAUTY NOT SKIN DEEP.

Results of a Day Spent in a "Beautytifying" Parlor.

Growing Use of Cosmetics Among Young and Old. Utility of Lotions and Powders—About the Complexion—

The Surest Beautifier.

"Eight million dollars are spent anually by the women of America for paints, powders and cosmetics."

This item has been going the rounds of the press recently, and after I had read it for about the sixth time I determined to start on a tour of investigation and to find out for myself if the profits from the sales of cosmetics are so enormous.

It is not a difficult matter in New York to find one of the establishments

where they promise to make a ravine, tearing blonde beauty of you, a radiant, brilliant brunette—as you fancy—in less than no time at all, if you will only invest in the one and only balm, or lotion, or powder which is there manufactured on the premises.

The first place of this sort which I visited was presided over by a blonde young woman, who smiled sweetly and assured me, if I was looking for a preparation which would impart the flush of a June rose to my cheeks and the sunniest gold tint to my hair, I had come to just the right place.

"This preparation is the only toilet article which is absolutely harmless;

it has stood the test of ninety-five years, is known throughout the whole world, and is composed of perfectly.

At this point I interrupted her, or she would still have been going on about the merits of her cosmetic.

I told her that my time was limited;

and if she had got started again on the same, I intended to intimate that I had to catch a train for some distant town in the wilds of Jersey, and that she might just as well spare her breath for what little complexion I have I value too highly to spoil with any paint or powder.

But if she would kindly give me some idea of the amount of money anually expended for cosmetics in America I would be much obliged to her.

"I should say that at least several million dollars were spent every year.

Our sales alone are over half a million boxes of—" (mentioning the name of her "marvelous" preparation which is so "magical" in its results).

"Our—" is a harmless tonic which imparts a delicate freshness to the skin and a youthful softness and delicacy. It is absolutely the only—"

Much as it grieved me to be rude, I interrupted her again with a remark to the effect that if I had no doubt if any one would use it—it would speedily make her as beautiful as Venus, as Psyche, as Milton at the age of twelve, and then I departed.

As I walked down the stairs I was with the reflection that if one only one firm out of the thousand or more—sold annually over half a million boxes of a magic beautifier, or whatever one chooses to call it,

and each box costs one dollar, the person who had started the report about the eight million would have to start another one and substitute billion for million.

Are there any more complexions, left, I asked myself, or are they all just compounds of liquid, powder and paint? Is it possible any longer to find

"a woman's face with nature's own hand painted?"

As I walked down the avenue, I sortalized the faces I met, and I am happy to say that to all appearances

the complexions of seven ladies—no, I

N. B.—Calls left at this office will be promptly attended to. Jan. 19-3m.

LOCAL ITEMS

Established 1857.
Wetly's all rye whiskey. It has no rival for superiority, is absolutely pure, and has a reputation of the highest standard for excellence and purity, that will always be sustained. Recommended by physicians. For sale only by F. A. DIFFENDAL.

A regular meeting of the Choral Union occurs next Tuesday evening.
The Mechanicstown Burial Case Works is likely to be removed to Hagerstown shortly.

Mr. W. W. CHAPTER sold two hogs recently which weighed respectively, 500 and 700 lbs., live weight.

An army mule, forty-five years old, belonging to Mr. Wm. A. Kump, of Jefferson, this county, died, recently.

Read the adv. of G. W. Weaver & Son, the leading dry goods, notion and house-furnishing dealers of Gettysburg.

The gross receipts were $40 at the tea given by the Women's Missionary Society of the Lutheran church on Thursday evening.

The bank projected for Walkersville, this county, which was alluded to in these columns last week, is to be a national bank with a capital of $50,000.

Attention is called to the adv. of that mammoth newspaper, the New York World, which appears in this issue. The World stands at the head of progressive journalism in this country.

A rare opportunity is presented for some enterprising townsman to represent a nursery firm that warrants stock to be delivered in prime condition, so that a large, honorable and permanent trade can be built up. Very liberal terms to the right man. Address James E. Whitney, Rochester, N. Y. Feb. 23m

The 22nd passed off without any special celebration in this place, and business was suspended only at the banks. A number of our citizens attended the G. A. R. Encampment at Hagerstown.

Dismissed but not Discharged.

The Grand Jury for the February term of court, concluded their work on Saturday and submitted their report to the Court. They were not discharged but dismissed subject to the call of the Court. It is supposed that the recent incendiary fires is the cause of this action, and developments are expected.

We do not believe in medicine for children, but we do believe in Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup and assert that no family should be without it. Price 25 cts.

Laxador, the great remedy for dyspepsia, is free from all deleterious substances, and there is no danger of having one's teeth salivated by its use which is frequently done by preparations containing poisons. Sold by all druggists. 25 cts.

Manufacturing at Waynesboro.

$20,000 has been subscribed towards the capital stock of the Waynesboro Tool Manufacturing Company, which will manufacture all kinds of mechanics' tools. It is expected to have the factory in operation during the coming summer, and from fifty to one hundred hands will be employed. Only $5,000 more is needed to make up the required capital.

Consumption Surely Cured.

TO THE EDITOR.—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address.

Respectfully,
T. A. STOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl st., N. Y.

Bold Robbery.

A sneak thief entered Mr. Thomas Arnold's store in Liberty township, Pa., about two miles west of this place, on Saturday evening, and stole about fourteen dollars from the money drawer. The family were at supper at the time, and entrance was effected by breaking a glass out of the door and removing the fastening. Mr. Arnold heard a noise in the store and started for the room, but the sound of his approach scared the thief off and he made his escape.

WESTERN MARYLAND RAILROAD.

Inaugural Excursions to Washington. Commencing on Friday, March 1, and continuing until March 4, inclusive, the Western Maryland Railroad will sell excursion tickets at all ticket offices on main line, divisions and branches to Washington, at the very low rate of one fare for round trip. As these tickets will be good to return until Thursday, March 7th, the trip to Washington will afford excursionists an excellent opportunity to see the many points of interest at the nation's capital. The grand inaugural parade will undoubtedly prove the most imposing street demonstration ever witnessed. Nearly every State in the Union will participate in the inaugural ceremonies. Fare from Emmitsburg for the round trip $3.15.

MT. ST. MARY'S ITEMS.

From our Special Correspondent.
Messrs. Anthony and Michael Wivell, of Prince George county, are visiting at Dr. J. G. Troxell's.

Miss Joe Hahn, who has been the guest of Mrs. Felix Walters, has returned to Westminster.

Miss Mary E. and Addie Kane of Baltimore, are visiting their parents near this place.

The family of Mr. Dennis McNulty, who has resided for some time in McKeesport, now occupy their home in this vicinity.

The oyster supper of last week was quite successful.

A very pleasant dance was enjoyed at the home of Mr. Ephraim Eckenrode on Friday night, also one at that of Mr. William Walters on Monday night.

Items From Fairplay.

SPECIAL TO THE EMMITTSBURG CHRONICLE.
FAIRPLAY, Pa., Feb. 20.—The Township elections were held yesterday and a stormy day it was. The politicians were very active at the polls in Freedom township and a great many scratched tickets was the result. The democrats elected their entire ticket with the exception of one office, by majorities ranging from one to twenty-six votes. Some of our oldest citizens say that this has never happened before.

The iron foot bridge across Marsh Creek at Nully's, was broken down last week, six young men were on it at the time. Two of the men escaped without injury, but the others were more or less bruised and some blood was spilled.

"The One Ross Shay."

of Dr. Holmes, is full of the genial author's exuberant humor. Its fun is superficial and obvious; but more is meant than meets the ear or eye. The vehicle which ran for a hundred years and a day without a break, typifies a healthy human body, and represents the natural term of its service. If, however, a man has catarrhal, bronchial, asthmatic, or pulmonary disease, he cannot live out half his days, unless he eradicates the scrofulous humors whose presence causes these local troubles. The great blood-cleansing alternative of Dr. Pierce, known as the "Golden Medical Discovery," rids the blood of scrofulous pollutions, and, by improving the nutrition, gives new vigor to the debilitated system, and cures these diseases.

Unequaled.—Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Found Guilty.

Geo. Gingell for selling choice Liquors of all kinds.

The Senior Grade Choral Union Class now being conducted by Prof. S. G. Smith at Taneytown, will close with a public rehearsal on Saturday night.

WHAT'S better for a wound than Salvation Oil? Echo answers: "What." We answer: "Nothing." "So say we all of us, so say we all!" Only 25 cts. A poor unfortunate in Milwaukee is said to have sneezed himself to death. Alas! poor creature, living in the light of the nineteenth century and never heard of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Well, this is more than Egyptian darkness!

Dangerous Fun.

Considerable talk has been indulged in throughout this neighborhood, about notices received by different citizens, purporting to come from "Whitesaps." We are informed that some of them contain filthy, libelous remarks about citizens, not fit for repetition. The writers of such stuff are deserving of the punishment they threaten to inflict upon others, a coat of tar and feathers.

It is a Curious Fact

That the body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine than at any other season. Hence the importance of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now, when it will do you the most good. It is really wonderful for purifying and enriching the blood, creating an appetite, and giving a healthy tone to the whole system. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar to itself.

More Barns Burned.

Mr. Dominick Smith, of McSherrystown, Adams county, Pa., has been warned that his house and barn will be burned on Saturday, and farmers near Taneytown have received notices that their barns will be burned. The barn-burners have heretofore confined their operations to barns exclusively. The barn of William Musser, near Germantown, Montgomery county, Md., was burned by incendiaries on Thursday, it being the second in that vicinity destroyed in ten days.—Sun.

Death Roll.

Mrs. Harriet E. T. Green, wife of Mr. Fayette Green of Michigan, died at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Martha Eyer, in this district on Tuesday. Her remains were buried at the Valley cemetery on Wednesday. The services were conducted by Rev. W. L. Martin of Walkersville, who preached from the text found in Hebrews 13:14—"For here have we no continuing city." Mr. Green is lying critically ill at his home in Michigan.

Mr. James B. Topper died at his home in Freedom township, Pa., about one mile north of this place, at an early hour on Tuesday morning, after an illness of only a few days, of pneumonia. Mr. Topper was the father of sixteen children, fourteen of whom and a widow survive him. He was in the 75th year of his age. His funeral took place on Thursday morning, the interment being made in St. Joseph's Catholic cemetery in this place.

Annex Items.

SPECIAL TO THE EMMITTSBURG CHRONICLE.
BALTIMORE, Feb. 20.—Capt. Joseph C. McGregor of the No. 3 Chemical Fire Engine Company in the Belt, has invented an ingenious contrivance for carrying fire equipments on his engine. It is made of iron wire, and fits in the space under the front running gear, between the springs. The whole is covered with canvas and there is a door in the front. Captains of other companies are anxious to procure the equipment baskets for their engines.

Children playing with matches caused a $50 fire in the house of Mr. Henry McCleary of Mt. Vernon in the annex. The colored youth who was injured last week by a cart load of ice falling on him while he was loading the cart on the Falls road, died of his injuries last Saturday.

Laura J. Stewart the Annex correspondent of CHRONICLE has taken up her residence in the upper part of Baltimore county, having received an appointment as teacher in one of the public schools in that district. She will be pleased to correspond for the CHRONICLE from her new surroundings.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. G. W. Wetly and daughter Lizzie of Brooklyn, and Miss Mamie Wetly of St. Joseph's Academy spent several days at Mr. S. R. Grindler's this week. Mrs. Grindler was also home for a few days.

Miss Carrie Kefauver is visiting her parents at Harmony Grove.
Maj. O. A. Horner and son, Messrs. S. N. McNair, W. A. Fraley, Harvey Winter, Isaac Sheeley, Mrs. Jno. Reifsnider and son, and Mrs. Cora Gehr and daughter were in Hagerstown.

House Liquors.

QUINCY G. SHOEMAKER won the prize of a live doe at the glass ball shooting match held at Mechanicstown on Friday. She is now at her old quarters in this place after an absence of just nine days.

LEVY HEAR's big bank barn, just west of town, was burned Tuesday afternoon, including a large quantity of hay, straw, etc. One fat steer was burned and another so injured that it had to be killed. The loss is a heavy one, though it is said some insurance is held in a Lancaster county company. The fire is certainly the work of an incendiary, as Mr. H. was a few days ago notified by letter to remove his live stock, as his barn was marked for destruction. In removing grain from the barn Mr. H. found one of the bombs already described in these columns.—Hagerstown Citizen.

MARYLAND ITEMS.

The Annapolis and Baltimore Short Line Railroad Company is considering a project to extend their line to Bay Ridge.

A gang of thieves are operating in Salisbury. They opened a store recently and carried off 60 gallons of liquor and a large lot of cigars and tobacco.

Postmaster Benj. F. Grosh, Jr. of Williamsport, was married last week to Miss Maggie McCarty, formerly of the Hagerstown Telephone Exchange.

Trainmen lost control of a train on the B. and O. depot siding at Oakland, Saturday, causing the cars to wreck Mrs. Sincell's blacksmith shop and burying a boy.

The courthouse at Cambridge is undergoing some repairs, and a sharp lookout is being kept for a jug of whiskey accidentally falling in while one of the rooms was being lathed forty years ago.

Abner Prugh, a native of Frederick county, died at Dayton, O., on Tuesday night of last week. Mr. Prugh celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of his birth on the first of last January, at which four generations of descendants were represented.

On Tuesday night of last week, three colored men entered the store of Clayton Fields, at Wook's Lock on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, in Montgomery county, and after knocking Mr. Fields down with a club, robbed him of a gold watch and between $30 and $40 in money. The robbers escaped.

The farmers of the neighborhood of Carrollton and Houcksville, Carroll county, met on Monday evening at Houcksville for the purpose of taking some action in regard to the numerous incendiary fires recently; to discover, if possible, the origin of them, and to protect, to the best of their ability, their own property and that of their neighbors.

On Sunday afternoon an Annapolis and Baltimore short line train was about half way across the trestle near Clifford's Station, a man, woman and boy were seen walking across the bridge. The man grabbed the woman and child and jumped off, leaping a distance of thirty feet into the mud and water below. The train stopped and took them aboard. It was found that the man was seriously hurt in his back and neck, but the woman and child were unharmed.

Herman Keidel, manager for Wm. Knabe & Co., piano manufacturers, committed suicide on Sunday, by shooting himself, in the bath room of his apartments in New York, in the building occupied by the New York branch of the firm of which he had charge. He was a man of exceptionally good character, fine social position, and gentlemanly address and a general favorite. His family belonged in Baltimore, and he had been in the employ of the firm for 25 years.

The Chill Blast

That sets the naked branches quivering, is not felt by the wealthy valetudinarian indoors, but not all the covering that can be piled on his warm bed, nor all the furnace heat that anthracite can furnish, will warm his marrow when chills and fever runs its icy fingers along his spinal column. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the thing to refuse now warmth in his chilled and aching frame, to remedy the fever and exhausting symptoms which alternate with the chill. Dumb aches, nerve ache, bilious runniness in short, every known form of malarial disease is subdued by this potent, and at the same time, wholesome and certain medicine. Headaches, nervousness, dyspepsia, sick headaches, loss of appetite and sleep, kidney trouble, rheumatism and debility are also remedied by it. Use it with persistence to effect a thorough cure.

An excursion train will be run from this place to Mechanicstown on Saturday evening, to attend the oyster supper and free entertainment at Freeze's Hall. The Emmitt Cornet Band will accompany the excursionists. The supper is given to raise money for re-roofing the Catholic Church in that place.

Death of Dr. A. A. Biggs.

Dr. Augustus Asbury Biggs, the oldest practicing physician in Washington county, died at his home in Sharpsburg last Friday evening, the 15th inst. Dr. Biggs was born near Westminster in 1812, and read medicine with Dr. J. W. Eichelberger, Sr., of this place, and graduated from Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia in the class of 1836, and from that year to within two weeks of his death was engaged in the practice of his profession at Sharpsburg, where he was endeared to the entire community. His funeral took place on Monday afternoon, services being conducted at the Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. H. C. McDaniels. During the funeral the people of Sharpsburg wore an aspect of mourning, and every store and public house in the place was closed.

THE CHURCH OF OUR FATHERS.

[From the poem by Charles M. Dickinson, read before the New York Press Association at Troy, June 17, 1880.]

In the midst of God's Acre, just back from the street,
Stands the church of our fathers—the church of our God;
And its echoes of song are tender and sweet
When we think of the lips that lie under the sod—
Of the hearts that beat time to the old-fashioned psalm,
That shall nevermore thrill under sermon or prayer;
Or souls that have entered the infinite calm,
Let your blessings of peace now descend on us there!

Here our mothers have prayed; here our sisters were wed;
Here our voices and hearts have been tuned in accord;
Here saints have communed with saints overhead,
Here the sermon was said o'er the dust of our dead,
And our children baptised in the name of the Lord;
Here our lips have been pressed to the cup that He blessed—
The sacred bread broken—the solemn words spoken—
In remembrance and name of the Saviour of men.

When our spirits draw near to the Heavenly Rest,
May they feel the sweet peace that encompassed them then!
Then, by all the sweet thoughts that the Sabbath has brought—
By the truth that's been taught—by the blessings we know—
By the Christians we love, that are waiting above—
By the Christians below, that are waiting to go—
Let us join together through sunshine and cloud,
Hand in hand, to the Church of our Fathers above;
"O, why should the spirit of mortal be proud?"

When the master himself was all meekness and love?
Don't adopt the common habit of calling everything funny that chances to be a little odd or strange. Funny can only be rightly used when the comical is meant.

Don't use mad for angry. This has been denounced as peculiarly an Americanism, and its use goes; but the word is employed in this sense in the New Testament. It is occasionally found in old English authors.

Don't say "blame it on him," but simply "blame him." The first form is common among the uneducated.

Don't use "got" where it is unnecessary. "I have got an umbrella" is a common form of speech, but "got" here is needless, and it is far from a pleasing word. "I have a book," not "I have got a book," and so in all similar cases.

Betsy and the Babies.
After all the good wife and the boys and girls are the best things on the farm. Don't forget this when you find yourself given up night and day to thinking about and caring for those pigs and calves. If the pig or calf goes wrong it can be replaced with money, but not so with a helpmate wrecked with overwork, or a boy or a girl gone astray. She best type of a farmer is the one who thinks of his family first; not that he thinks less of his farm and its belongings, but more of Betsy and the babies.—Indicator.

Respectfully Declined.
An exchange says: "We are always ready and willing to answer any question which may be asked us concerning political issues, but when a man writes to know whether a reduction of the wool tariff will affect the price of flannel cakes, he exhibits a levity totally out of place."

An exasperating editor being threatened with a coat of tar and feathers said in his next issue: "The people of this town may break in to somebody's hen roost and steal the feathers, but we know they are too stingy to buy the tar."

"Why, Albie, dear, is that the way to begin your dinner?" asked a mother of her little daughter, as she began with the pie. "Well, I declare, mamma, I was going to eat my dinner upside down, wasn't I?" New York Observer.

The State Department at Washington has been informed that the chief of the Mosquito Indians has passed away. The sting of death came in while gets the better of even a Mosquito.—N. Y. World.

Fish may be scaled much easier by first dipping them into boiling water about a minute.

American Fables.

THE OX AND THE ASS.

An Ox and an Ass dwelt together in the same field, and many of the Animals went to them to inquire about the weather. When the Ox was asked whether the winter was to be open or vigorous he invariably replied:

"I cannot say for certain just now—Please call again."

The Ass, on the contrary, was prompt to reply:

"This is going to be a very, very open winter, and buds will start in February." Or,

"This is going to be the coldest winter we have had for twenty years, and we shall get no spring before June."

When winter was over it was always found that the Ass had missed it, while the Ox had gained further reputation for wisdom by refusing to express an opinion. It thus came about that the Ass was spoken of in ridicule and contempt.

MORAL:
This also includes Wiggins and the Kentucky Goose-Bone.

Lincoln's Birthday.

As time rolls on the figure of Abraham Lincoln expands instead of shrinking. On Tuesday night of last week his birthday was publicly celebrated in New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Newark and many other points. New leaves were woven into the garland which the people have placed upon the brow of the martyr President.

It is plain that of the great Americans who have passed out of life into history Lincoln and Washington stand above the rest in an atmosphere all their own.

But to the men and women of the present generation the homely, kindly face of Lincoln is more distinct, because it is nearer Lincoln's will to the public man, with the weakness of a man. Out of the mist of far off years the form of Washington looms grandly in a nimbus of glory. He is the great Revolution incarnate.

The day will soon come when the birthday of Lincoln will be celebrated by men of all colors and all parties, from ocean to ocean; when he will cease to represent a partisan idea, and his name will stand for what it deserves to stand—the faith of Americans in the Union of States, the indivisible Republic.—N. Y. Herald.

Times change and men and boys change with them, but the boys still continue to imitate the ways of the men as closely as they can. Tommy and Little Pete belong to the Kukana Club, an apparently flourishing company of small boys, which necessitates a great deal of begging from parents to keep up the weekly financial requirements of the organization. Rather tired of the drain of pennies for this purpose, Pete's father asked him this morning:

"What do you do at the Kukana Club, any way?"

"Oh, we—we pay our assessments," said the boy.

Old Hickory on Sweet Temper.

"I cannot forbear pointing out to you, my dear child," said General Jackson once to a young lady in whose welfare he felt a deep interest, "the great advantages that will result from a temperate conduct and sweetness of manner to all people, on all occasions. Never forget that you are a gentleman, and all your words and actions should be gentle. I am quick and hasty in my temper, but it is a misfortune which has caused me inexpressible pain. It has given me more trouble to subdue this impetuosity than anything I ever undertook."

Why Rails in Use Rust Less Quickly than Nails is Best.

The preservation of rails in use is not the result of vibratory motion, or of an electric action due to the passage of the trains, but to formation of magnetic oxide, produced by the compression of the rail on the metal. The rails are thus protected against the action of moist air in the same manner as is iron oxidized by fire.—W. Spring, Bull. de la Soc. Chim. de Paris.

"As' yez looks out o' sorts this mornin' Mrs. Dacey," "An' enough to make me, Mrs. Grogan. Last week I lost me husband and this week two goats. The loss of the old man was pretty bad, but goats is high in price, Mrs. Grogan, very high!"

The BALTIMORE WEEKLY SUN continues to preserve its position, maintained for many years, as a model Family Newspaper. During the past year, in order to accommodate the great variety of matter seeking admission to its columns, it has been found necessary to issue a Supplement almost every week, presenting a home newspaper unexcelled for freshness and variety. Its literary features are selected with discriminating taste and with special reference to the entertainment and instruction of the family circle. Its Agricultural and Veterinary Departments, edited by specialists, have been of great value to the farmer, while its Fashion Articles, Household Recipes, etc., have continued to be a source of weekly interest and instruction to ladies. The latest news up to the hour of publication is given in its correspondence and telegraphic dispatches, while its editorial articles, besides discussing current events in an impartial spirit, afford much wholesome advice and suggestion on social, economic and other topics. The proceedings of Congress and Maryland and other Legislatures, the National Political Convention and the President's annual messages are among the important features that will be promptly and copiously presented in its columns during 1889.

Scribner's Magazine

For 1889

The publishers of Scribner's Magazine

aim to make it the most popular and enterprising of periodicals, while at all times preserving its high literary character. 25,000 new readers have been drawn to it during the past six months by the increased excellence of its contents (notably the Railway articles), and it closes its second year with a new impetus and an assured success. The illustrations will show some new effects, and nothing will make Scribner's Magazine attractive and interesting will be neglected.

THE RAILROAD ARTICLES will be continued by several very striking papers; one especially interesting by Ex-Postmaster-General, Thomas L. James on "The Railway Postal Service."

MR. ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON'S serial novel "The Master of Ballantrae" will run through the greater part of the year. Begun in November.

A CORRESPONDENCE and collection of manuscript memoirs relating to J. F. Millet and a famous group of modern French painters will furnish the substance of several articles.

The brief and papers written last year by Robert Louis Stevenson, will be replaced by equally interesting contributions by different famous authors. Mr. Thomas Bailey Aldrich will write the first of them for the January number.

Many valuable LITERARY ARTICLES will appear, a paper on Walter Scott's Methods of Work, illustrated from original MSS., a second "Shelf of Old Books," by Mrs. James T. Fields, and many other articles equally noteworthy.

Articles on ART SUBJECTS will be a feature. Papers are arranged to appear by Clarence Cook, E. H. Blashfield, Austin Dobson, and other artists.

FISHING ARTICLES describing sport in the best fishing grounds will appear. Salmon, Winnish, Bass, and Tarpon are the subjects now arranged. The authors are well-known sportsmen.

ILLUSTRATED ARTICLES of great variety, touching upon all manner of subjects, travel, biography, description, etc., will appear, but not of the conventional commonplace sort.

Among the most interesting in the list of scientific papers for the year will be a remarkable article by Professor John Huxley on the most recent developments and uses of PHOTOGRAPHY.

A class of articles which has proved of special interest will be continued by a group of papers upon ELECTRICITY in its most recent applications, by eminent authorities; a remarkable paper on KEOP MISTAKES, and other interesting papers. Unique illustrations.

A SPECIAL OFFER to cover last year's numbers, which include all the RAILWAY ARTICLES, as follows:
A year's subscription (1888) and the numbers for 1888, $4.50
A year's subscription (1889) and the numbers for 1888, bound in cloth $6.00

NEW YORK WEEKLY HERALD

IT IS AND WILL CONTINUE TO BE THE

Greatest and Cheapest Family Journal

IN THE UNITED STATES.

The coming year promises to be crowded with stirring events. In the United States entrance of new issues into the political arena has been followed by a change of Administration. But the great economic question on which the campaign turned is still unsettled, and its solution is now committed to a Congress almost equally divided between the two great parties.

Europe is a vast camp. Army corps patrol the frontiers, and millions of men await the signal for the most titanic war the world has ever seen. The HERALD'S news-gathering machinery is unequalled. Its correspondents dot the habitable globe. Nothing can escape their vigilance, and no expense is spared in spreading the results of their efforts before the HERALD'S readers.

ALL THE NEWS OF AMERICA

will be found each week in the HERALD, while its

WE WANT AGENTS

to canvass for subscribers to the AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST, the great Rural Magazine. In our annual premium list just issued we illustrate and offer 200,000 valuable premiums which are given to those sending subscribers or commission allowed canvassers, for every club of subscribers procured by us.

$2250 in Special Prizes, to be presented to the 221 Agents sending the 221 largest clubs of subscribers to the AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST before March 1st, 1889.

$2250 TO BE GIVEN AWAY.

Remember these prizes will be presented in addition to the premiums or commission allowed for every club of subscribers procured. It makes no difference how large or how small the club is, the persons sending the largest number of subscribers before March 1st will receive the first prize of a $2500 piano; the person sending the second largest club will receive $200 in cash and so on for the balance of the prizes. You cannot work for a better plan than this. The AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST is the superior excellence together with its great reputation gained by nearly fifty years of continuous publication, makes it one of the best of all the journals to canvass for. All our promises will be carried out in every respect, and you can rely on receiving good treatment.

SEND THREE TWO-CENT STAMPS for premium list and specimen copy giving full description of premiums and particulars of the above offers.

Address AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST, 751 Broadway, New York City.

MENTION THIS PAPER.
